

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00376-6 - Select Naval Documents

Edited by Harold Winter Hodges and Edward Arthur Hughes

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

HENRY VIII

	PAGE
1. Inventory of the Sovereign , Jan. 31, 1497	2
2. Armament of the Sovereign in 1509	3
3. Henry VIII's Sea Laws	4

ELIZABETH

4. Race-Built v. Lofty Ships	8
5. The Teredo Navalis	9
6. Seaworthiness of English Ships	10
7. Dartmouth Haven	11
8. The Properties, Office, and Duty of a Gunner	12
9. Drake's Views on Strategy	13
10. Elizabeth as an Armchair Strategist	15
11. Howard takes the Advice of Experts	15
12. Wynter on the Strategy of Invasion	16
13. Shortage of Victuals	17
14. Raleigh on Strategy	18
15. English Ships v. Spanish Galleys	20
16. Subjection of Spanish Seamen to Soldiers	22
17. English and Spanish Armaments	23
18. Philip II warns Medina Sidonia against English Gunnery	24
19. Medina Sidonia protests his Unfitness	24
20. Estimates of Neutral Observers	25
21. Tactics which may have been used against the Armada	25
22. Elizabeth as an Armchair Tactician	26
23. Raleigh on Tactics	26
24. Gravelines Despatches	27
25. Wynter's Opinion of Auxiliaries	29
26. Sickness and Mortality	29
27. A Begging Licence	30
28. An Army Necessary for Offence	32

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00376-6 - Select Naval Documents

Edited by Harold Winter Hodges and Edward Arthur Hughes

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

ix

JAMES I AND CHARLES I

	PAGE
29. Sailing before the Wind	33
30. Sailing Close-Hauled	34
31. Ship-building in 1618	34
32. A Station List of 1619	37
33. Dunkirk Frigates	39
34. Single-ship Tactics	39
35. Stratagems Used at Sea	42
36. Monson on the Blockade of French Ports	42
37. Pirates off Dartmouth	43
38. Dartmouth asks for Fortifications	43
39. Lindsey's Instructions, 1635	45
40. The Claim to the Salute	47
41. Defects of the Ship-Money Fleets	48
42. Mervin urges the Men's Grievances	49
43. Victuals	50
44. Gentlemen Captains	52
45. Sea Punishments	54
46. Reputation of English Merchantmen abroad	55

THE COMMONWEALTH AND PROTECTORATE

47. Rates of Ships	57
48. Battle of the Kentish Knock	58
49. The First Appearance in Instructions of the Line Ahead	59
50. The Battle of the Gabbard	62
51. The Battle of Scheveningen, June 31st, 1653	62
52. Commerce-Protection	64
53. A Dutch Stratagem	64
54. The Flag	65
55. Pay of Officers in 1653	65
56. Care of Sick and Wounded	66
57. Complaints of Seamen	67
58. Court-Martial's Approval of a Petition	68
59. An English Fleet in the Straits of Gibraltar, 1651	68
60. Blake's Mediterranean Fleet, 1654	69

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00376-6 - Select Naval Documents

Edited by Harold Winter Hodges and Edward Arthur Hughes

Table of Contents

More information

x

CONTENTS

THE RESTORATION NAVY

	PAGE
61. The Midshipman	71
62. The Lieutenant	72
63. A Re-examination.	73
64. 'Gentlemen Captains' Again	74
65. Armaments in 1677	75
66. Distribution of Ships in time of Peace	78
67. Lead Sheathing	79
68. Learning from Foreigners	80
69. The Results of Neglect	81
70. Administrative Difficulties in the Second Dutch War	82
71. The Duke of York's Additional Instructions, April 10 or 18, 1665	85
72. Prince Rupert's Additional Instructions, 1666	87
73. Final Form of the Duke of York's Orders, 1673	87
74. Lord Dartmouth's Instructions, Oct. 1688	89

WILLIAM III AND ANNE

75. Torrington explains his Strategy	90
76. Mary orders Torrington to fight	92
77. Torrington's Defence of his Tactics at Beachy Head	92
78. Russell's Fighting Instructions, 1691	93
79. The Theory of the Line	98
80. Big or Small Ships?	106
81. Superiority of French Naval Architects	108
82. The Importance of Sea-Power	109
83. The Ideal Naval Officer	110
84. Explanation of Rooke's Instructions, 1704	111
85. Rooke's Additional Instructions	113

THE PEACE PERIOD AND NEED FOR REFORM

86. Manning a Squadron	116
87. Charnock on French and Spanish Ships	118
88. The Defects of the British Battle-ship	120

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00376-6 - Select Naval Documents

Edited by Harold Winter Hodges and Edward Arthur Hughes

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

xi

	PAGE
89. Eighteenth Century Victuals	125
90. The Western Squadron	126
91. Vernon and Additional Fighting Instructions	127
92. The First Additional Instruction	128
93. Line of Bearing	130
94. Naval Education	131
95. A Cadet 'Passes Out' from Royal Academy, Portsmouth	135
96. Wolfe's Tribute to the Fleet	136
97. Navigation of the St Lawrence	137
98. The Capture of Quebec	138
99. Hawke and the Blockade of Brest, 1759	139

WAR OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE,

1778-1783

100. The Principles of Naval Strategy	145
101 and 102. Divisions	147
103. The Loss of the Royal George	151
104. Concentration at the Vital Point	157
105. Keppel recommends a Lighter Gun	158
106. Jervis on the indecisive action off Ushant, 1778	159
107. Kempenfelt on French Gunnery	160
108. 'A Fleet in Being'; the Invasion Year, 1779	162
109. The Western Squadron: Argument against 'Winter' Blockade	163
110. Kempenfelt urges Study of Tactical Principles	164
111. Discipline of a Fleet	166
112. On Strategy	170
113. A Civilian Critic	171
114. Nelson's View of Clerk of Eldin	173
115. St Vincent's Views on Clerk of Eldin	174
116. Admiral Graves's Account of the Battle of the Chesapeake	174
117. Hood's Account of the Battle of the Chesapeake, 1781	176
118. Rodney's Views on Concentration	178

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00376-6 - Select Naval Documents

Edited by Harold Winter Hodges and Edward Arthur Hughes

Table of Contents

More information

xii

CONTENTS

	PAGE
119. 'Breaking the Line': a Criticism	179
120. Criticism of British by 'the Father of the American Navy'	180
121. French Numerary Signals	181
122. French Numerary Signals	183
123. Kempenfelt's Design for a Signal Book	185
124. Medical Reforms	186

REVOLUTIONARY AND NAPOLEONIC WARS

125. The Coppering of Ships	192
126. Documents Illustrating the Mutinies	194
127. Pressed Men	200
128. Manning the Fleets, 1803	201
129. A 'Hot Press' at Dartmouth	202
130. Weakness of the French at Brest	203
131. Napoleon Urges Activity	206
132. Invasion Scheme Delayed	208
133. Napoleon ignores the Close Blockade	208
134. Close Blockade in 1803	209
135. Defence against Invasion	210
136. Wear and Tear of Blockading Squadron	211
137. The Limitations of the Close Blockade	212
138. St Vincent maintains the Close Blockade	213
139. Nelson's Watch off Toulon	214
140. Nelson acknowledges Lord Howe's Congratulations after the Nile	216
141. Nelson's way with the French	217
142. Nelson's difficulties in the Mediterranean, 1803-1805	218
143. Nelson's Memorandum	219
144. Page of Telegraphic Code by which Nelson made his historic Signal on Oct. 21, 1805	223
145. Popham's Vocabulary Code.	224