

INDEX.

- Abingdon, Berks, Benedictine House at:
 customs in force respecting books, 58;
 carrels set up, 91
 ———: School library, 259
- Actor and masks: relief representing in Lateran Museum, Rome, 38
- Agapetus, pope: his intended college and library, 45
- Albans (S.): form of curse used, 68;
 endowment of scriptorium, 70; library built 1452–3, 102; stained glass, 238
- Alençon: town library, 273
- Alexandria: account of libraries, 6; in museum, ibid.; in temple of Serapis, 7
- All Saints' Ch., Hereford: chained library in, 259
- All Souls' Coll., Oxf.: library statute, 131; special provisions, ibid.
- Ambrosian Library: see Milan
- Ammianus Marcellinus: describes Serapeum at Alexandria, 7
- analogium*: a book-desk, at Citeaux, 82
note, 99; at Clairvaux, 191; meaning of word, 239, 240
- Anne de Beaujeu: her library, 302
- Annual inspection: at Peterhouse, Camb.,
 129; at Trin. Hall, 130; All Souls',
 Oxf., 132; Pembroke Coll., Camb., 133
- Antony, Mark: gives library at Pergamon to Cleopatra, 8
- Aphthonius, Progymn.: quoted, 7, note
- Apollo: temple and area on Palatine Hill at Rome, 14; composition of the library, 18, 19; allusions to, by Ovid and Horace, ibid.
- Apollonius Thyaneus: commemorated in Roman library, 23
- Apse, triple: how treated in early times,
 53; De Rossi's theory, ibid.; description by Paulinus of Nola, ibid.; view of Lenoir, 54, note
- Aristotle: said to have been a book-collector, 5; his methods adopted by the Ptolemies, ibid.
- Ark: desk on pattern of, 297
- armarium*: use of word by Cicero, 38;
 contained codices as well as volumina,
ibid.; rich decoration of sneered at by Seneca, 22; at Herculaneum, 25, 26;
 in Ulpian library, 20; excavation of this described by Nibby, 39; held by jurist Ulpian to be part of the library,
ibid.; description by Pliny of one sunk in wall of a room, ibid.; on sarco-phagus in Museo Nazionale, Rome, with shoemaker at work, 40; on do-in Villa Balestra, Rome, with physician reading, ibid.; on tomb of Galla Placidia, 41; in Jewish synagogues, ibid. note; in Codex Amiatinus, 41–43;
 verses composed for his own presses by Isidore, Bp of Seville, 47; called fenestra by Pachomius, 54, 55, note; alluded to by S. Benedict, 56; word used for a library by the Cluniacs, 57; placed in charge of precentor, who is called also armarius, ibid.; same provisions in force at Abingdon, 58; at Evesham, 59; word used for a library by the Carthusians, 59; described in Augustinian Customs, 61; what this piece of furniture was, 72–88; the armarium commune, 72; this described and figured at Fossa Nuova, 73; Worcester Cathedral, 74; Kirk-stall, 76; Meaux, ibid.; at Titchfield, 77; Durham, 83; book-presses in cloister at Durham and Westminster, 83–86; in France, 86; examples of presses at Bayeux, Obazine, and S. Germain l'Auxerrois, 87, 88; supervision of press at S. Augustine's, Canterbury,

- 92; represented by "common books" in a collegiate library, 135; called solarium at Assisi, 201; in Vatican library of Sixtus IV., 222; at Urbino, 227; at Pefiscola, 242
- armarius* (who is also Precentor): has charge of library in Cluniac Houses, 57, 63; in Augustinian, 61; provides for borrowing as well as lending books among the Premonstratensians, 62
- Arts: books required for course in, at Cambridge, 141
- Assisi: library at, catalogued 1381, 63; analysis of this, 200
- Assur-bani-pal, King of Nineveh: library in his palace, 2
- Astrolabe: in library of Anne de Beaujeu, 303
- Atheneus: preserves tradition respecting early Greek libraries, 4; other book-collectors, 5
- Athens: notices of ancient libraries at, 5; library built by Hadrian, 6, 16
- Attalus, King: note on his stoa at Athens, 11, note
- Augustine (S.): lines on by Isidore, 48; directions about church library at Hippo, 53
- Augustine (S.), Benedictine House at Canterbury: see Canterbury
- Augustinians: rules for books in force among, 60, 61; position of library in their houses, 102
- Augustus: builds libraries in Rome, 12; porticus Octaviæ, ibid.; temple and area of Apollo Palatinus, 14; their organisation, 20
- Aulus Gellius: preserves tradition respecting library of Peisistratus, 5; notice of library of Tiberius, 19; of do. in Templo Pacis, ibid.; in forum of Trajan, ibid.; describes scene in a villa at Tibur, 21
- Autun, Collège d', Paris: library at, 160
- Bale, John: laments loss of monastic libraries, 244
- Balsham, Hugh de: how subject to monastic influence, 136
- Bamberg: chained book from monastery, 153
- banca* or bancus: meaning discussed, 239; used for bookcase at Citeaux, 98
- Bancroft, Abp: his library brought to Cambridge, 250
- Barber Surgeons, Lond.: books in their library chained 1639, 262
- Barberini: library in their palace at Rome, 223, 317
- Bateman, Will., Bp of Norwich: his library statute for Trinity Hall, 130; was subject to monastic influence, 136; number of books in his library, and their arrangement, 138
- Bayeux, Cathedral: press called Le Chartrier described and figured, 87; library at, 120
- Beaulieu, Cistercian Abbey: book-room, 76; book-recesses in wall of cloister, 82
- Behaviour: rules to regulate, in Vatican library, 1513, 224
- Benedict (S.): passage in his Rule respecting study, 56
- Benedictines: decrees given to English monks of the Order by Abp Lanfranc, 57; customs in force at S. Benoit-sur-Loire, 58 note; at Abingdon, Berks, ibid.; at Evesham, Worcestershire, 59; endowment of libraries, 69; their books bestowed in wooden presses, 74, 86; arrangement adopted at Durham, 83; at Westminster, 84-86; number of volumes in their libraries, 96
- Benoit (S.)-sur-Loire: customs quoted, 58, note; endowment of library, 69
- bibliothèque*=library, 242
- Bicester: school library, 259
- Bobbio: library, 96
- Boccaccio: MSS. of his works quoted, 294, 307, 308, 310
- Bodleian Library, Oxf.: description, as fitted up by Sir T. Bodley, 179; chains taken off 1757, 263; inconvenience of chaining, ibid. note; new bookcases on wall-system, 274
- Boethius: decoration of his library, 43; view of a library in MS. of his Cons. of Phil., 157, 158
- Bologna, University of: library, 273
- Bolton, Lanc.: library of school, 261
- Bonfigli, B.: painting at Perugia reproduced, 304

- Bookcases: medieval terms for, 239
 Book-room: in Cistercian Houses, 74-82;
 at Fossa Nuova, 73
 Borromeo, Card. Federigo: builds and endows library at Milan, 269
 Boys, John: his library, 318
 Brandolini, A.: epigram on library of Sixtus IV., 204
 Brasenose Coll., Oxf.: library statute, 131; chains taken off 1780, 263
breve or brevis = a note of books lent: in Cluniac Customs, 57; in Lanfranc's decrees for English Benedictines, 58
 Brewster, Will.: bequeaths books to All Saints' Ch., Hereford, 259
 Budge, Dr Wallis: note on Mesopota-mian discoveries, 4
 Bury, Lanc.: library in school, 261
 Bury, Rich. de: see Philobiblon
 Bury S. Edmunds: use of carrells, 91; cloister glazed with stained glass, 93;
 library built 1429-45, 102
 Busts in Roman libraries: see Portraits
 Cæsar, Julius: intends to build public library in Rome, 12
 Cæsarea: library, 52
 Caius, Dr: provisions of his will, 262
 Calder Abbey: position of book-room,
 81
 Callimachus: his catalogues at Alexandria,
 21
 Canterbury, Augustine (S.): extract from customary on care of MSS., 66; rules for use of carrells, 91; organisation of library in cloister, 92
 ———, Christ Church: curse from a MS., 68; library-walk of cloister, 83;
 sets of nine holes, 84; carrells at, 91;
 glass in cloister, 94; catalogues saec.
 xii., 96; library, 100; sends books to Canterbury Coll., Oxf., 137; probable extent and arrangement of library described, 184-187; Howley-Harrison
 Library, 253
 Canterbury Coll., Oxf.: library furnished from Christ Church, Canterbury, 137
capsa: box for carrying rolls, 31; figured,
 32; box to hold books in Vatican
 Library, ordered, 212; where placed,
 223
 Cardinal Coll., Oxf.: library statute, 131
 Carols: see Carrells
 Carpaccio, Vittore: his picture of S.
 Jerome in his study, 300
 Carpenter, John (Bp of Worcester): his library foundation, 121
 Carpet: books to be laid out on, in Chapter House for annual audit in Cluniac Houses, 57; in Benedictine,
 58
 Carrells: in cloister at Durham, 83;
 detailed account of, with ground-plan of a window, 88, 89; at Westminster
 Abbey, 84-86; series of, in stone, at Gloucester, 89; general considerations as to arrangement, 90; instances of their use in various houses, 91; by whom to be used, ibid.
 Carthusians: rules for books in force
 among, 59
 Cartmel, Lanc.: books to be chained in churchwarden's pew, 255
 Cassino, see Monte Cassino
 Cassiodorus: his Codex grandior mentioned, 42; departure from Ravenna, 43; intended college in Rome, 45;
 monastery, library, and scriptorium near Squillace, 46
 Catalogue: in Roman libraries, 20; of philosophical works, found near Alexandria, 21; was probably used in cloister, 92; ancient example at Cluni,
 93; ordered at All Souls' Coll., Oxf., 132; examples in early collegiate libraries, 137-142; at S. John's Coll., Camb., 1544, 154; at Peterhouse, ibid.;
 at S. Victor's, Paris, 160; at Queens' Coll., Camb., 161; of S. Martin's priory at Dover, 188; of S. Mark's, Florence, 199; at Assisi, 200; of Vatican Library, 203; these analysed,
 214-219; at the Sorbonne, Paris,
 235
 Catena, picture by reproduced, 313
 Catharine (S.) Coll., Camb.: number of books in library, 139; new cases, 285
 Catullus: describes a smart roll, 30,
note
 Caution: deposited for book borrowed,
 127, 135, 234
 Cedar, oil of: used to preserve rolls, 31
 and note
 Cesena: description of library, 193-197;

- may have been copied from S. Mark's, Florence, 199; was copied in Vatican, 219; and at Florence, 232
- Chaining: books chained in S. Mary's Ch., Oxf., cent. xiii., 126; at Peterhouse, Camb., 129, 139; Trinity Hall, 131, 163; New Coll., Oxf., 131; All Souls', ibid.; indiscriminate chaining forbidden, 132; system in use at Zutphen explained, 150-153; of book from Bamberg, 152; in Stadtbibliothek at Nuremberg, 157; at Sorbonne, Paris, 158; Collège d'Autun, 160; S. Victor, ibid.; at Univ. of Leyden, 164; inconvenience of, at Oxf., 165; at Corp. Chr. Coll., Oxf., and at Hereford described, 168-172; at Merton Coll., Oxf., 175; traces of, at S. John's Coll., Oxf., 179; at Cathedral library, Wells, 182; at Cesena, 197; on printed book from Hungary now at Ghent, 198; at Assisi, 200; chains bought for Vatican Library, 213; at Medicean Library, Florence, 232-234; the Sorbonne, Paris, 235; King's Coll., Camb., 251; Grantham, 255; Cartmel, 256; Gorton, ibid.; Chetham library, Manchester, 258; Wimborne, ibid.; Denchworth, 259; All Saints', Hereford, ibid.; Abingdon, Berks, ibid.; Bicester, ibid.; Guildford, 260; Bolton, Lanc., 261; instances of late use of chaining, 261-263; Faculty of Medicine, Paris, 261; Corpus Christi Coll., Camb., ibid.; Gray's Inn, 262; S. John's Coll., Gonville and Caius Coll., Peterhouse, Trinity Coll., Camb., Library of Barber Surgeons, ibid.; will of Sir M. Hale, ibid.; of M. Scrivener, 263; S. Gatien at Tours, and S. Peter, Liverpool, ibid.; chains taken off at various places, ibid.; inconvenience of, at Bodleian, ibid., note
- Chair with desk: figured in MSS., 309-313
- Chaloner, Rob.: bequeaths books to Gray's Inn, 262
- Chapter House: spaces divided off at west end for book-rooms in monasteries, 80-82; books read in neighbourhood of, 82; list of such books at Cîteaux, 99; similar use at Clairvaux, 107
- Charles V., King of France: book-chest, 293; fits up library in Louvre, ibid.
- Charles VI., King of France: keeps his books in a chest, 293
- Chest for books: bought for Vatican Library, 212; used by Simon, Abbat of S. Albans, 292; in France, 293
- Chester Cathedral: arches in cloister, possibly used for books, 82
- Chetham, Humphry: provisions of will, 256; libraries at Gorton and Turton, ibid. 257; at Manchester, 257
- Chichele, Abp.: builds library at Canterbury, 100; description of it, 184; provisions of his library statute for All Souls' Coll., 131; was subject to monastic influence, 136
- Christ Church, Canterbury: curse from a MS., 68; library-walk of cloister, 83; sets of nine holes, 84; carrells in use, 91; glass in cloister, 94; catalogue, saec. xii., 96; library, 100; sends books to Cant. Coll., Oxf., 137; probable extent and arrangement of library described, 184-187; Howley-Harrison library, 253
- Christopher Le Stocks (S.), Lond.: library, 242
- Christ's Hospital, Lond.: library, 103
- Churches: libraries built in or near, 51-54
- Cicero: describes his library, 35
- Cirta: library, 52
- Cistercians: rules for books, 60; evolution of book-room, 74-82; plan of this at Fossa Nuova, 75; Kirkstall, 76; arrangement of books in, at Meaux, 76; Titchfield, 77-79; book-rooms at west end of Chapter House, Furness, 80; Calder Abbey, 81; Fountains, ibid.; Beaulieu, 82; Hayles, ibid.; Chester Cathedral, ibid.
- Cîteaux: books chained near Chapter House, 82; arrangement of books, saec. xv., 97-100; permanent library, 103-106
- Cité des Dames: chair and desk from, 311, note
- Citrus: identification of tree so called, 23, note; used to preserve rolls, 31
- Clairvaux: curse used, 68; books chained near Chapter House, 82; library, 106-

- 108; catalogue of this discussed, 190–192; nature of fittings, 192
- Clare Coll., Camb.: account of old library, 180; new cases put up 1627, ibid.; their plan discussed, 181; new library fitted up, 286
- class*, or classics: meaning of word discussed, 239, 240
- claustrum sine armario* etc., 65
- Cleopatra: receives library of Pergamon from Antony, 8
- clickett*=a lock, 131
- Cloister: the centre of monastic life, 70; work interrupted by cold and bad weather, ibid.; activity at S. Martin's, Tournai, 71; arrangements at Durham described, 83; illustrated by reference to Westminster Abbey, 84–86; book presses in, in France and England, 86–88; carrells in, 88–92; organisation of, 92; catalogues, ibid.; was glazed at Durham, 93; in other Houses, ibid.
- Cluni: ancient catalogues in library, 93
- Cluniacs: regulations in their Customs respecting books, 57; were used by Lanfranc, 58; date of these Customs, 58, note; book-room in their priory at Much Wenlock, 79, 80
- Cobham, Thomas: library, Oxf., 142–145; stained glass in windows, 238
- Codex, a book: how accommodated, 38, 39; figured on tomb of Galla Placidia, 41
- Codex Amiatinus: representation of armarium in described, 41
- Cold, in cloister, 70
- Colonnade: use of in ancient libraries, 11; at Porticus Octaviæ, 13, 14; at Stoa of Hadrian, 16–18; at church of S. Lorenzo in Damaso, 44
- Columella: use of word loculamentum, 33
- columnpna*: a set of shelves, 77, 239; meaning discussed, 242
- communes libri*: meaning of term, 73
- Conze, Alex: his paper on Pergamon quoted, 10
- Corbie: note from MS. once belonging to, 65, note; injunction to use a MS. at, carefully, 67 and note; endowment of library, 69
- cornua*: used for the knobs of a roll, 30
- Corpus Christi Coll., Camb.: books chained, 1523, 261
- Corpus Christi Coll., Oxf.: library statute, 131, 132; provisions against indiscriminate chaining, 132; fittings supplied, 1517, 166; a type of the stall-system, ibid.; elevation of one bookcase, 167; evidence of chaining-system, 172
- Cosma e Damiano: church of, in Rome, 27, 28
- Crates (of Mallus): his visit to Rome and influence there, 14
- Creighton, Rob., Bp of Wells: fits up cathedral library, 182
- Croxden, Cistercian Abbey: book-room, 76
- Cruas, on the Rhone: book-press in the church, 86
- Cupboards: in thickness of wall, in Roman libraries, 39; in saec. xv., 313
- Curses, on those who steal or damage MSS., 67–69
- Curteys, Wm.: builds library at Bury S. Edmunds, 102
- Cuthbert, Abbat of Wearmouth: his scribes paralysed with cold, 70
- Dagon: protector of royal library in Assyria, 4
- Damasus, Pope: his archivum or Record Office, 44
- demonstratio*: meaning discussed, 241
- Demosthenes: statue of, to shew way of holding roll, 30; replica of his statue at Knowle Park, ibid., note; has caps at feet, 32
- Denchworth: library in church, 259
- De Rossi, G. B.: theory respecting S. Lorenzo in Damaso, 44; of the use of a triple apse, 53, 54
- Derr: library at, explored by Dr W. Budge, 4
- descus*: meaning discussed, 239
- Dibdin, Tho. F.: describes Bibl. S. Geneviève, Paris, 289; figures stick to keep books open, 314, 315 and note
- Digest: quoted in respect of pegmata, 34; of plutei, ibid.
- Dioscorides: use of word trichora quoted, 54, note
- $\Delta\phi\theta\acute{\epsilon}\rho\alpha$ =cover of a roll, 31; sometimes coloured purple, ibid.

- distinctio*: word used in catalogue of Dover Priory, 188–190; meaning discussed, 190, 240, 241
- Docket, Andr.: makes first catalogue of Queens' Coll., Camb. library, 139
- Dolci, Giovannino dei: supplies bookcases to Vatican Library, 212
- domuncula*: a compartment of a book-press, 242
- Dover, Priory of S. Martin at: introduction to catalogue translated, 188
- Dunois Horæ: desk from figured, 305, 306
- Durham: description of the book-presses and carrells in the cloister, 83; armarium commune, 86; plan of window and account of carrells, 88–92; library at, saec. xii., 96; enumeration of books at, saec. xiv., 97; library at, built 1446, 101; library fitted up by Dean Sudbury, saec. xvii., 183
- Durham Coll., Oxf.: library, 136
- Dziatkzo, Karl: views on exploration at Pergamon, 11, note; his article on libraries quoted, 20, note
- Edward VI.: acts of his commissioners, 245
- Ely: endowment of scriptorium at, 70
- Emmanuel Coll., Camb.: cases at S. John's Coll. copied for, 249; bookcases at, 251; new cases in library, 285
- Endowment of libraries: at Corbie, 69; S. Martin des Champs, ibid.; S. Benoît-sur-Loire (Fleury), ibid.; at Vendôme, 70; at Ely, ibid.
- Entreaties to use books carefully, 66
- Epiphanius: De Pond. et Mens. quoted, 7, note
- Ἐπιστύλιον: use of word explained, 34, note
- Escorial: built by Philip II., 265; description of library, 266; of bookcases, 267, 268; cases copied at Bibliothèque Mazarine, 271
- Esquiline Hill, Rome: library on, 23, 24
- Eton College: stained glass in Election Hall, 238; chains taken off 1719, 263
- Eucherius, Bp of Lyons: describes a private library, 45
- Eumenes II., King of Pergamus: begins library there, 6; account of his works, 8
- Euripides: said to have been a book-collector, 5; lines from the Frogs about this taste of his quoted, ibid.
- Euthydemus, follower of Socrates: his library, 5
- Evesham, Benedictine House in Worcestershire: customs respecting books, 59; carrells, 91
- Fais et Gestes du Roi Alexandre: desk from MS. so called figured, 305
- Fells, John: founds library at Liverpool, 263
- fenestra* = cupboard: in rule of S. Pachomius, 54; meaning of word discussed, 55, note
- Fitzwilliam Museum, Camb., MSS.: miniatures from figured, 164, 303, 304
- Fleury, Abbey at: see Benoit (S.)-sur-Loire
- Fontana: architect of Vatican Library, 49
- forulus* = cell: receptacle for rolls in Roman libraries, 33, 35
- Fossa Nuova: book-press at, described and figured, 73; plan and description of book-room, 75
- Fotheringay: stained glass in cloister of collegiate church, 93
- Fountains Abbey: position of book-rooms at, 81
- Fox, Ri.: his library statute at Corp. Chr. Coll., Oxf., 132
- fox-tails: bought to dust Vatican Library, 227
- Francis (S.): reproves a brother who asked for a psalter, 62, note
- Franciscans: provisions respecting books, 62; their libraries described in the Philobiblon, ibid.; Franciscan house in London, 103; convent of, entrusted with his library by Malatesta, 193; library at Assisi, 200; at Siena, 201
- Froidmont: glass in library, 238
- frons*: used for the edge of a roll, 30; described by Martial, 31; was evidently visible, 36
- Furness Abbey: book-rooms at west end of chapter-house, 80, 81
- Gall (S.): library at, 96
- Galla Placidia: book-press on her tomb, 41
- Gatien (S.), Tours, church of: chained library at, 1718, 263

- Gellius: see Aulus Gellius
- Geneviève (S.), Paris: description of library, 288
- Germain (S.) des Près, Paris: library open to strangers, 65; expansion of library at, 108–110; fittings described, 289
- Germain (S.) l'Auxerrois, church of: wooden press in, described, 88
- Ghent: chained book at, described, 198
- Ghirlandajo, the brothers: engaged to decorate Vatican Library, 206; their work described, 208
- Glass, stained: in cloister at Durham, 83; Westminster Abbey, 85; Bury S. Edmunds, 93; Fotheringay, 94; Peterborough, ibid.; Vatican of Sixtus IV., 210; Medicean Library, Florence, 229, 230; S. Alban., 238; Jesus Coll., Camb., ibid.; Eton Coll., ibid.; Sorbonne, Paris, ibid.; Froimont, ibid.; Bp Cobham's library, Oxf., ibid.; Abp Rotherham's do., Camb., 239
- Glastonbury: feelings of Leland on entering library, 188
- Globes: in library of Univ. of Leyden, 164; in Vatican Library, 223; in Bury School, Lanc., 261; in library of S. Geneviève, 288; in library of Pal. Barberini, 318
- Gloucester Cathedral: library-walk of cloister, 83; sets of nine holes, 84; stone carrells described and figured, 89–91; library, 101
- Gloucester House, Oxf.: see Worcester Coll.
- Gonville Hall, Camb.: curse from breviary used at, 69
- Gonville and Caius Coll., Camb.: cases at S. John's Coll. copied for, 249; bookcases at, 251; chaining of books bequeathed by Dr Caius, 262
- Gorton: bookcase at, 256
- gradus*=a shelf, 77; used with same meaning at Dover Priory, 188–190; a side of a lectern, 161; meaning discussed, 240, 241
- Grammar Schools: see Libraries
- Grantham: library, 254
- Gray's Inn: bequest of books to be chained, 1555, 262
- Gregory (S.) the Great: notice of library in his monastery at Rome, 46
- Grönendaal: library, 102
- Guildford: chain in library of Grammar School, 151; figured, 152; further account of this library, 260
- Hadrian: library built by him in Athens, 16–18; similarity of plan between it and Pergamon, 18
- Hainault, Chronicles of: desk from MS. of, figured, 310
- Hale, Sir Matt.: his books given to Lincoln's Inn 1676 to be chained, 262
- Handkerchiefs: to be used to protect MSS., 66
- Hawkesmoore, N.: builds library and bookcases at Queen's College, Oxford, 252
- Hayles, Cistercian Abbey: book-room, 76; arches possibly used as book-recesses, 82
- Herculaneum: library, 24–26
- Hereford, All Saints' Ch.: library, 259
 — Chapter Library: notes on, 168; chaining described, 168–171
- Hippo: library, 53
- Hobart, Nich.: his bookcase at King's College, Cambridge, 251, 252
- Honywood, Mich.: builds library at Lincoln Cathedral, 276
- Hook, to hold up desk, 173
- Horace: advice to his friend Celsus respecting the Palatine library, 19; his use of word umbilicus, 30
- Howley-Harrison Library, Canterbury, 253
- Humphrey, D. of Gloucester: petitioned to build library at Oxford, 165; his MSS. at Oxford, 245, 246
- Illande: used in the conjunction “bort d'Illande”=Dutch oak, 294, note index=a catalogue, 20 note, 21; also a ticket bearing the title of a roll, 30; of some bright colour, 31; used in Cicero's library, 35; shewn on a piece of Roman sculpture, 36
- Intruder: warning to in Isidore's library, 48
- Isidore, Bp of Seville: on library of Pollio at Rome, 12; on decoration of

- libraries, 43; account of his own library, 47, 48; his verses over his presses, ibid.
- Ivory: books written on, 20
- Jerome (S.): on basilica of S. Laurence, 44; advises consultation of church-libraries, 52; on library at Caesarea, ibid.; collated there MSS. used by Origen, ibid.
- Jerusalem: library, 52
- Jervaulx, Cistercian Abbey: book-room, 76
- Jesus Coll., Camb.: equidistant windows of library, 142; glass in library, 238; cases at S. John's Coll. copied for, 249; bookcases, 251
- Jesus Coll., Oxf.: library, 179
- Jews: used armaria in synagogues to contain the rolls of the Law, 41, note
- John (S.) the Baptist Coll., Oxf.: library statute at, 131; library described, 179
- the Evangelist Coll., Camb.: equidistant windows in old library, 142; contract for desks, 154; library built 1623–8, 246–248; book chained, 1563–4, 262
- Juan de Herrera, architect of Escorial: designs bookcases, 267
- Jumièges: curse from MS. at, 68
- Juniper: bought to fumigate Vatican Library, 227
- Juvenal: mentions bust of Minerva in a library, 33; his use of pluteus, 34
- Kedermister, Sir John: founds library at Langley, 255
- Kempis, Thomas à: quotation from, on desolate condition of priest and convent without books, 65; injunction to use MSS. carefully, 67
- Keys: used for access to medieval libraries, 235
- King's Coll., Camb.: library statute, 131; number of books in library, 1453, 139; bookcase by bequest from N. Hobart, 251; Cole's account of library, ibid.; chains taken off, 1777, 263
- King's Hall, Camb.: number of books at, in 1394, 138
- Kirkstall Abbey: the armarium commune, and book-room, 76
- Kouyunjik: library, discovered by Layard, 3; criticised by Dr W. Budge, 4
- Lanciani, R.: discovers a private library in Rome, 23; describes record-house of Vespasian, 28
- Lanfranc, Abp: decree respecting use of books, 57; date of those, ibid. note
- Langley Marye: library, 255
- Lateran Museum, Rome: sculpture representing actor with masks, 38
- Layard, Sir Hen.: library discovered by him at Kouyunjik, 3
- Leaver, James: gives press to Bolton school, Lancashire, 261
- Lectern-system: fittings in early libraries so named, 147; at Zutphen, 147–153; Queens' Coll., Camb., 146, 153; Pembroke Coll., S. John's Coll., Peterhouse, Camb., 154; Lincoln Cathedral, 155; MS. Mus. Brit., 156; Nuremberg, 157; Sorbonne, Paris, 158; Collège de Navarre, Paris, ibid.; Collège d'Autun, Paris, 160; Monastery of S. Victor, Paris, ibid.; Trinity Hall, Camb., 162, 163; MS. Fitzwilliam Mus., 164; at University of Leyden, ibid.; Cesena, 193–197; S. Mark, Florence, 199; Monte Oliveto, ibid.; Assisi, 200; Vatican, 219; Medicean Library, Florence, 228–234; in private houses, 297–301
- lectrinum* = desk, 155, 239, 240
- Leland, John: describes stained glass in cloister at Fotheringay, 93; his feelings on entering library at Glastonbury, 188
- Lepidus, Domitius: temple built by him in Rome, 14
- Leyden, University of: print of library, 164
- liber* = book: decision of the jurist Ulpian as to what is included under this category, 39
- Librarian: see Precentor—Armarius
- LIBRARIES, Assyrian: at Kouyunjik, discovered by Layard, 2–4; at Derr, 4
- of Cathedrals: 110–124; Lincoln, 111–115, 155, 156; Salisbury, 115; Old S. Paul's, 116; Wells, 117; Lichfield, ibid.; Noyon, 118; Bayeux, 120; York, ibid.; Troyes, 121; Worcester, 102, 121–123; Rouen, 123, 124

LIBRARIES (cont.)

- , Christian: situated in or near churches, 51; at Jerusalem, 52; at Caesarea, ibid.; at Cirta, ibid.; at Hippo, 53; use of the triple apse, ibid.
- of Colleges: statutes of Merton Coll., Oxford, 127; University, ibid.; Oriel, ibid.; Peterhouse, Cambridge, 128; Trinity Hall, 130; New Coll., Oxford, 131; All Souls', ibid.; Magdalen, 132; Corpus Christi, ibid.; Pembroke Coll., Cambridge, 133; résumé of regulations, ibid.; loan of books from, esp. from Merton Coll., Oxf., 134; rules copied from monasteries, 135–137; a library proper an after-thought, 137; the fittings of these would probably be copied from those of a monastery, ibid.; number of books, 137–139; divided into lending and reference departments, 139; analysis of books at Peterhouse, Camb., 139–142; examples of collegiate libraries, 142; Bp Cobham's library, Oxf., ibid.; Queens' Coll., Camb., a type, 145, 161; fittings at Pembroke and other Coll., 154; at Corpus Christi Coll., Oxf., 166; Merton Coll., Oxf., 172–179; S. John Bapt. Coll., 179; Trinity and Jesus Coll., ibid.; S. John's Coll., Camb., 246–248; at Peterhouse, 248; at Gonville and Caius, Emmanuel, Jesus, Pembroke, 249; King's Coll., Camb., 251; Queen's Coll., Oxf., 252
- , Greek: notices of, in Athens and elsewhere, 4, 5; at Alexandria, 6; at Pergamon, 7–12
- , medieval: general characteristics, 234–242; were public, 234; lent books on security, ibid.; rules adopted at the Sorbonne, 1321, 235; use of keys, ibid.; division of the collection, 237; bookcases, ibid.; catalogues, ibid.; stained glass, 238; terms to denote bookcases, 239–242
- , monastic: rule of Pachomius, 54; general considerations, 55; Benedictine Rule, 56; Cluniac Customs, ibid.; decrees given to English Benedictines by Lanfranc, 57; Customs of Benedictine Houses, 58; of Carthusians, 59; of Cistercians, 60; of Augustinians, ibid.; of Premonstratensians, 62; of

LIBRARIES (cont.)

- Mendicants, ibid.; general conclusions, 63; divided into library of reference and library for lending, 64; open to strangers, 65; books a necessary possession, ibid.; protection of books, 66; curses, 67; endowment of libraries, 69; work done and books kept in the cloister, 70; furniture used, 71; armarium commune, 72; at Fossa Nuova, 73; at Worcester, 74; evolution of Cistercian book-room, 74–82; arrangements in Benedictine Houses, 82; at Durham, 83; at Westminster Abbey, 84–86; presses and carrels, 86–92; supervision at S. Augustine's, Canterbury, 92; were catalogues used, ibid.; stained glass, 93; increase in number of books, 95; libraries at S. Riquier, S. Gall, Bobbio, Lorsch, Durham, Canterbury, 96; difficulty of housing these, 96–100; expedients resorted to at Durham, 97; at Citeaux, 97–100; construction of a special library, 100; at Canterbury, ibid.; Durham and Gloucester, 101; Winchester, S. Albans, Worcester, Bury S. Edmunds, S. Victor, Paris, La Chaise Dieu, 102; Franciscans of London, 103; Citeaux, 103–106; Clairvaux, 106–108, 190–192; S. Germain des Près, Paris, 108–110; what fittings were used, 154; priory of S. Martin, Dover, 188; destruction in England, 244; extension of their libraries in France in 17th cent., 273; library of Jesuits at Rheims, 288; of S. Geneviève, Paris, ibid.; S. Germain des Près, 289; Monte Cassino, 290
- , parochial: at Grantham, 254; at Langley Marye, 255; Cartmel, ibid.; will of H. Chetham, 256; Gorton, ibid.; Turton, 257; Manchester, ibid.; Wimborne-Minster, 258; Denchworth, 259; All Saints', Hereford, ibid.
- , private: books kept in chests, 292; tower in Louvre fitted up as library, 293; illustration of this, 294; a Carmelite in his study, 296; a scholar's chair, 297; lectern, 297–9; Ship of Fools, 298, 304; library of Margaret of Austria, 299–302; of Anne de Beaujeu,

LIBRARIES (cont.)

- 302; Italian lectern, 304; wheel-desk, 305-8; chairs with desk, 309-311; desks used in Italy, 311-313; wall-cupboards, 313; scholar's room, 314; study of Duke of Urbino, 315; of Montaigne, 316; Palazzo Barberini, 317; library of Dean Boys, 318
- , Roman (B.C.): intention of Julius Cæsar to build a library, 12; library of C. Asinius Pollio, ibid.; decorated with busts of departed authors, ibid.; works of Augustus, ibid.; Porticus Octaviæ, 12-14; temple and area of Apollo, 14; other public libraries, 15; of Tiberius, Vespasian, Trajan, 16; of Hadrian at Athens, 16-18; composition of Palatine library, 18; description by Ovid, ibid.; advice of Horace respecting, 19; library of Tiberius, ibid.; of Vespasian in templo Pacis, ibid.; of Trajan (bibliotheca Ulpia), ibid.; organisation of Roman libraries, 20; loan of books from public collections, 21; fittings, 35, 36; private libraries: of Lucullus, 21, 22; fashion for book-collecting denounced by Seneca, 22; library in Via dello Statuto discovered by Lanciani, 23; at Herculaneum, 24-26; near Rome, as described by Martial, 32; record-house of Vespasian, 27, 28; contents of Roman libraries, 28-32; fittings of Roman libraries: discussion of words used, 32-35; what the furniture so designated was, 35-37; representation found at Neumagen, 36; desk for rolls in Lateran Museum, 38; presses (armaria), 38-42
- , Roman (A.D.): resembled those of pagan type, 43; decoration mentioned by Boethius, ibid.; by Isidore, ibid.; library described by Eucherius, 45; of pope Agapetus, ibid.; of Isidore, Bp of Seville, 47; summary of pagan conception of a library, 48; illustrated by Vatican Library of Sixtus V., 49
- of Schools: Abingdon, 259; Bicester, ibid.; Rivington, ibid.; Guildford, 260; Bury, 261; Bolton, ibid.
- Library = bookcase, 242
- Lichfield Cathedral: library, 117, 118
- Lincoln Cathedral: ancient library described, 111-115; desks described, 155, 156; new library built by Wren, 276
- Lincoln's Inn: books bequeathed to, 1676, to be chained, 262
- linea*: a shelf for books, 99, note; at Citeaux, 241; a row of bookcases at Saint Ouen, ibid.
- Linen: books written on, 20
- Lippi, Fra Filippo: desk in painting by, 312
- L'Isle, Roger: gives books to Oxford, 126
- Liverpool, S. Peter's Ch.: books chained in, 1815, 263
- Livre des Propriétés des Choses: chairs and desk from, 311
- Loan of books: from public libraries in Rome, 21; from Abingdon, Berks., 58; from Evesham, 59
- Loan of books (for external use): allowed at Abingdon, 58; Evesham, 59; among Carthusians, ibid.; Augustinians, 60; Premonstratensians, 62; enjoined on monks by Council of Paris 1212, 64; books bequeathed that they may be lent, 65; one House lent to another, ibid.; to Oxford scholars, 126; prescribed in College Statutes, 127-136; instances of, at Merton Coll., 134; from Vatican Library, 225
- Loan of books (to brethren on written attestation): among Cluniacs, 57, 58; Benedictines, ibid.; Augustinians, 61; probable meaning of this provision, 64, note
- loculamentum* = pigeon-hole: word used by Seneca, 22, 23, 34; by Columella, 33; by Vegetius and Vitruvius, ibid.; use of, to contain rolls, 35
- lora* = straps to keep rolls closed, 30
- Lorenzo (S.) in Damaso: church, 44
- Lorsch: library, 96
- Louis XI.: borrows MS. from École de Médecine, 234
- Louis XVI.: library at Versailles, 274
- Louvain, University of: library, 273
- Louvre: library fitted up, 293
- Lucian: his tract against purchase of books by ignorant persons, 23, note; mentions jacket used to wrap rolls in, 31
- Lucullus: library described, 21, 22

- Lumen animae*: chained book so called, 198
- Magdalen Coll., Oxf.: library statute at, 131; provisions of, 132
- Manchester: library at, 257
- Map of the world: in Lincoln library, 111; in library of Univ. of Leyden, 164; in Vatican of Sixtus IV., 223
- Margaret of Austria: library described, 299-302
- Mark (S.), Florence, Dominican Convent of: library, 199
- Mark (S.), Venicé: design copied by Wren at Trin. Coll., Camb., 280
- Martial: use of word umbilicus, 30, note; mentions wrapper of a roll, 31; ornaments of rolls in general, ibid.; uses word nidus, 32; writes inscription for his own portrait in a library, 37
- Martin (S.) des Champs, Paris: endowment of library, 69
- , at Tournai: literary work in cloister, 71
- Mary (S.) Church in Oxf.: books chained, 126
- Matthew (S.): Hebrew original of his Gospel at Caesarea, 52
- Mazarin, Cardinal, library of: described, 270-272; furniture noted by Wren, 276
- Meaux, in Holderness: book-room at, and arrangement, 76
- Medicean Library, Florence: described, 228-234
- Medicine, Faculty of, Paris: lends MS. to Louis XI., 234; books chained in library 1509, 261
- Melozzo da Forlì: engaged to paint in Vatican Library, 206; his work described, 209
- Menant, Joachim: account of royal library at Nineveh, 4
- Mendicants: libraries, 62
- Merton Coll., Oxf.: library statute, 127; choice and loan of books, 134; reception of a gift, 135; description of library, 172-179; history, 177; sale of old bookcases, ibid.; new cases supplied to south library 1623, 178; chains taken off 1792, 263
- Merton, Walter de: place of education, 136
- Mesmin (Saint): curse from MS., 68, and note
- Metellus, Quintus: share in building the Porticus Octaviae, 14; plan may have been derived from Pergamon, ibid.
- Michelangelo: builds Medicean Library, 228; his sketch for the bookcases, 230
- Micklethwaite, J. T.: his plan of Westminster Abbey, 84
- Micy: see Mesmin (Saint)
- Milan, Ambrosian Library: description, 269; suggested a detail in Bibl. Mazarine, 271; may have been copied by Wren at S. Paul's, Lond., 282
- Minerva: her statue in a Roman library, 33
- Miracles de Notre Dame: miniature from MS. so called reproduced, 310
- Miroir Historial: scene from, figured, 296; desk, 308
- Monastic influence at Oxf. and Camb., 136
- Montaigne: visits Vatican Library 6 March, 1581, 224; describes his own library, 316
- Monte Cassino: injunction to have clean hands, 66; library described, 290
- Monte Oliveto, Benedictine Convent of: library, 199
- Moses: command to Joshua to 'cedar' his words, 31 note
- Much Wenlock, Cluniac Priory: book-room, 79
- Navarre, Collège de: library, 159
- Netley, Cistercian Abbey: book-room, 76
- Neumagen near Trèves: representation of a library found at, 36, and note
- New College, Oxford: library statute, 131; library at, 137
- Nicholas V., pope: founds Vatican Library, 202
- nidus*=pigeon-hole: receptacle for rolls in Roman libraries, 32, 35
- Nineveh: see Assur-bani-pal
- Nine-holes: game so called played in monastic cloisters, 84
- Nobys, Pet.: chains on books bequeathed by, to be mended, 262
- Nola: basilica at, 53
- Noyon Cathedral: library, 118

- Nuremberg: chained books in Stadtbibliothek, 157
- Nuzio, Matteo: builds library at Cesena, 193
- Obazine, in Central France: book-press described and figured, 87
- Odo, Abbat of S. Martin at Tournai: promotes work in cloister, 71
- Oliveto: see Monte Oliveto
- Ordericus Vitalis: his work stopped by cold, 70
- ordo*: a shelf, 242
- Oriel Coll., Oxf.: library statute, 127
- Osmund, Bp of Salisbury: writes and binds books, 115
- Ouen, Saint: library, 241
- Ovid: describes Palatine library, 18; ticket of a book, 30; book-box, 31, note
- Oxford: destruction of MSS. 1549, 245
- Pachonius (S.): provisions of his rule, 54, 55, note
- Palaces: connected with libraries, 2; at Alexandria, 7
- Palatine library, Rome: see Apollo
- Pallas: her statue in library at Pergamon, 11
- Pamphilus: founds library at Caesarea, 52
- Parchment: story of its invention at Pergamon, 8
- Parkhurst, Bp John: bequeaths books to Guildford school, 260
- Paul (S.), London, Cathedral: library, 116; library built by Wren, 282–5
- Paulinus, Bp of Nola: describes use of apse in basilica built by himself, 53
- Pausanias, on library of Hadrian, 16
- Peace, library in Temple of, at Rome: see Vespasian
- pegmata* = shelves: use and meaning discussed, 34; in Cicero's library, 35; conclusion respecting, ibid.
- Peisistratus, tyrant of Athens: said to have collected a library, 5
- Pembroke Coll., Camb.: library statute, 133; old library as shewn by Loggan, 143; library fittings, 154; cases at S. John's Coll. copied for, 249; book-cases at, 251
- Peñíscola: library of Boniface XIII., 242
- Pepys, Sam.: his bookcases, 319
- Pergamon: library begun by Eumenes II., 6; description of site, 7; policy and building operations of Eumenes II., 8; contents of library given to Cleopatra by Antony, ibid.; plan of temple and precinct of Athena, 9; account of German exploration, 8–12; plan possibly copied at Rome by Q. Metellus, 14; described to Romans by Crates of Mallus, ibid.; copied by Hadrian at Athens, 18; by Pope Damasus at Rome, 44
- Perne, And.: provisions of his will, 262
- Peter (S.), Liverpool, Ch. of: books bequeathed by John Fells, mariner, 1815, to be chained, 263
- Peter (S.), Mancroft, Norwich: press in vestry, 88, note
- Peterborough: cloister windows glazed, 94
- Peterhouse, Camb.: library statutes, 128–130; discussion of catalogue dated 1418, 139–142; lecterns in old library, 154; bookcases put up between 1641 and 1648, 248, 249; chaining of books bequeathed by Dr Perne 1588, 262
- Petersen, E.: describes sarcophagus preserved in Villa Balestra, Rome, 40
- Philobiblon: description of libraries of Mendicants quoted from, 62; injunction to handle MSS. carefully, 67, note; book-chest prescribed in, 297
- Pigeon-hole system: used in Roman libraries, 49
- Pilkington, Bp James: his statute for school at Rivington, 259
- πλῆξ*: a catalogue, 21
- Platina, Bartolommeo: appointed librarian of Vatican, 202; sketch of his work, 203; engages a binder, ibid.; appears in fresco by Melozzo da Forlì, 209; writes inscription in Latin library, ibid.; rooms for himself and his assistants, 210; orders desks for Latin library, 211; makes catalogue, 214; selects subjects for frescoes in Ospedale di Santo Spirito, 220; appears in one of them, ibid.; his assistants, 225; provides all articles required for maintenance, 226
- Pliny (the elder): describes Pergamon, 7; preserves story of rivalry between

- Eumenes and Ptolemy, 8; on Pollio's library, 12
- Pliny (the younger): refers to the catalogue of a library, 20, and note; describes armarium sunk in wall of his bedroom, 39
- Plutarch: recounts gift of Pergamene library to Cleopatra by Antony, 8, note; describes library of Lucullus, 21
- pluteus* = shelf: use of word discussed and illustrated, 34–36
- Pollio, C. Asinius: builds library and atrium libertatis in Rome B.C. 39, 12
- Polycrates, tyrant of Samos: said to have collected a library, 4
- Pomegranates: in miniatures of writers at work, 314
- Pompeii: reproduction of fresco shewing way to hold roll, 29
- Pontis, Wm.: builds library and staircase in Rouen Cathedral, 123, 124
- Porticus Octaviae, 12–14
- Portraits of departed authors used to decorate libraries: at Pergamon, 11; by C. Asinius Pollio, 12; by Augustus, 15; alluded to by Seneca, 23; in private libraries, 37; inscriptions accompanying them, ibid.; described by Eucherius, Bp of Lyons, in a private library, 45; in library designed by pope Agapetus, 46; in library of Rouen Cathedral, 124; of the Sorbonne, Paris, 238; of S. Germain des Près, 289
- Precentor: called also armarius and entrusted with care of books by Cluniacs, 57; Benedictines, 58; Augustinians, 61; Premonstratensians, 62; supervises use of press at S. Augustine's, Canterbury, 92
- Premonstratensians: rules for books among, 62; position of library in house, 102
- Procurator bibliothecarum*: officer appointed by Augustus, 20
- Protection of MSS.: rule for holding a MS., 66; hands to be clean, ibid.; handkerchiefs to be wrapped round, ibid.; entreaties to use carefully, ibid.; curses on those who damage or steal, 67, 68
- Ptolemies: their dynasty established in Egypt, 6; library at Alexandria founded by Ptolemy II., ibid.
- Pulpitum* or poulpitre: meaning of word discussed, 239, 240
- Queens' Coll., Camb.: number of books in library, 1472, 139; equidistant windows of library, 142; library selected as type, 145; analysis of catalogue dated 1472, 161
- Queen's Coll., Oxf.: library built by Hawkesmoore, 252, 253
- Quintilian: refers to catalogues in Roman libraries, 20, and note
- Ramsey Abbey, Hunts: bad weather in cloister at, 71
- Record-House: in Assyrian palace, 3; in Rome, built by Vespasian, 27
- Remi (S.), at Rheims: library belonging to, 273
- Reserved library: in collegiate libraries, 136; at Assisi, 201; at Vatican, 204, 210, 211
- Rheims: library of S. Remi, 273; of the Jesuits, 287, 288
- Riario, Pietro: appears in fresco by Melozzo da Forlì, 209; in do. in Ospedale di San Spirito, 220
- , Raphael: builds Palazzo della Cancellaria, 44
- Richard de Bury: builds library at Durham Coll., Oxf., 137; see Philo-biblon
- Riquier (S.): library, 96
- Rivington: school library, 259; Bp Pilkington's statute for, 260
- Robert (S.), de la Chaise Dieu: library, 102
- Roche, Cistercian Abbey: book-room, 76
- roe*, a wheel = a book-desk, 294; explained, 295; illustrated, 304–308
- Rolls: dimensions, use, etc., 29; fastened to stick, 30; this decorated with knobs (cornua), ibid.; edges (frontes) of roll cut, ibid.; ticket (index) appended, ibid.; closed with straps (lora), ibid.; wrapped in covers, 31; carried in a capsa or scrinium, ibid.; receptacles for, 31–36; view of rolls in pigeon-holes, 36; desk for reading, 38; armarium containing, 40
- Rome: see Libraries, Roman
- Rotherham, Abp: stained glass in his library at Cambridge, 239

- Rouen: Cathedral library, 123–124
- Salisbury: Cathedral library, 115
- Sarcophagus: in Mus. Naz., Rome, with shoemaker at work in front of a press, 40; in Villa Balestra, with physician reading, ibid.
- scrinium*: box for carrying rolls, 31
- Scriptorium: endowment, at Ely, 70; at S. Albans, ibid.; position of at Citeaux, 104, 105; at Clairvaux, 106
- Scrivener, Matt.: bequeaths £50 to Univ. Library, Camb., 1687, to buy chains, 263
- seat* = a bookcase: see sedile
- sedile*: meaning discussed, 239
- Sellyng, Prior, at Canterbury: sets up carrells in the cloister, 91; glazes the windows, 94; fits up library, 184
- Seneca: denounces fashion for book-collecting, 22, 23, note
- Serapeum, at Alexandria, 7
- Sherlock, Tho.: fits up library at S. Catharine's, Camb., 285
- Ship of Fools*: lectern used in, 297
- Shiryngton, Walt.: builds library at Old S. Paul's Cathedral, 116
- Shoemaker at work in front of an armarium, 40
- Siena: Franciscan library at, 201
- σλλαβος* = ticket bearing the name of a roll, 30; used in Cicero's library, 35
- Simon, abbat of S. Albans: book-chest, 292
- Sixtus IV.: see Vatican Library
- Sixtus V.: do.
- Skipworth, Edw.: bequeaths money to provide a fire in the library at Grantham, 254
- solarium* = press, 201
- Sophocles: statue of in Lateran, 32
- Sorbonne: library, 158, 159; glass in windows of library, 238
- spalera* or spalliera: a settle in Vatican Library, 222, 223
- Spendunt: room at Durham so called, 97
- Stained glass: see glass
- stalla* or stallum: meaning discussed, 239
- Stall-system: term explained, 166; type at Corp. Chr. Coll., Oxf., ibid.; description of these cases, 167; chaining used, 168–172; fittings at Merton Coll., Oxf., 172–179; at S. John the Baptist Coll., Trinity Coll., Jesus Coll., Bodl. Library, Oxford, 179; at Clare Coll., Camb., 180; Westminster Abbey, 181; Wells Cathedral, 182; Durham Cath., 183; origin probably monastic, 184; Christ Church, Cant., 184–188; Clairvaux, 190–2; Howley-Harrison Library at Canterbury, 253
- Stick, to keep book open, 314
- Stone, Wm.: gives books to Wimborne Minster, 258
- Strabo: preserves tradition about Aristotle's library, and his advice to Kings of Egypt, 5; describes foundation of library at Pergamon, 6, 8; Museum at Alexandria, ibid.
- Student-monks: at Oxf. and Camb., 136
- stylus*: in MS. of Miroir Historial, 296; painting by Benedetto Bonfigli, 304; in MS. called Miracles de Notre Dame, 310; in miniature representing a Scholar's room, 314
- subsellium* = a bookcase: meaning discussed, 239
- Sudbury, John, dean of Durham: fits up Frater as library, 183
- Suetonius: records Cæsar's intention to build a library, 12; Pollio's atrium libertatis, ibid.; position of Sibylline books in temple of Palatine Apollo, 33
- tabula*: board covered with wax and parchment to contain list of monastic services, 93, and note; examples found in Egypt, ibid.; to record loan of books, 133
- Tacitus: records story of the appeal of Hortalus, 15, note
- Temples: connected with libraries, 2; in Assyria, 4; at Alexandria, and Pergamon, 7; at Tibur, 21
- textus*: = a carrell, 91; = bookshelf, at Ch. Ch., Canterbury, 186, 241
- theca*: a shelf or cupboard, 77, note
- Theodmarus Cassinensis: his letter to Charlemagne quoted, 66 and note
- Theodulus: his eclogue illustrated in stained glass at Fotheringay, 94, note
- Theology: lectures on, in library at

- Salisbury Cathedral, 115; at Troyes, 121
- Tiberius, Emperor: his library in Rome, 16; this mentioned by Aulus Gellius, 19; contained public records, ibid.
- Tibur = Tivoli: story of library in temple of Hercules, 21
- Tintern, Cistercian Abbey: book-room, 76
- Titchfield: book-room and arrangement, 77-79
- titulus* = ticket bearing the name of a roll, 30, 32
- Tournai: see Martin (S.)
- Trajan: library in his forum in Rome, 16; statements of Aulus Gellius and Vopiscus respecting, 19; books in, written on ivory and linen, 20; described by Nibby, 39
- trichora*: applied to a triple apse, 53; use of the word by Dioscorides, 54
- Trigg, Fra.: founds library at Grantham, 254
- Trinity Coll., Camb.: chaining of books given in 1601, 262; Wren's library built, 277-282
- Trinity Coll., Oxf.: library at, 179
- Trinity Hall, Camb.: library statute, 130; catalogue (dated 1350) analysed, 138; library described, 162
- Troyes: library in Cathedral, 121
- Turton: library at, 257
- Udine, Giovanni da: supplies stained glass to Medicean Library, 229
- Ulpian, jurist: decisions respecting libraries and their furniture, 39
- Ulpian library, at Rome: see Trajan
- umbilicus* = stick to which roll was fastened, observed at Herculaneum, 25; described by various ancient writers, 30; by Martial, 31
- Universities: visited by Commissioners of Edward VI., 245
- University Coll., Oxf.: library statute, 127
- University Library, Camb.: number and subjects of books catalogued, 1424, 138; ditto, 1473, 139; cases at S. John's Coll., copied for, 249; cases put up, 1649, described, 250; books bequeathed to 1687 to be chained, 263; bookcases supplied to, 1731-4, 285
- Urbino: account of library, 227; private study of Duke, 315
- Valerius Maximus, MS.: bookshelf, 296; cupboard in thickness of wall, 313
- Varro, M. Terentius: employed by C. Julius Cæsar to collect books for his intended library, 12; his bust admitted into Pollio's library, ibid.
- Vatican Library of Sixtus IV.: description of, 202-226; appointment of Platina as librarian, 202; selection of site, 204; fourfold division, ibid.; plan, 205; purchase of materials, 206; engagement of artists, ibid.; door of entrance made, ibid.; Latin library described, 207; its decoration, 208; fresco of Melozzo da Forlì, 209; Greek library described, ibid.; its decoration, 210; Bibliotheca secreta described, ibid.; Bibliotheca pontificia, ibid.; glazing of the windows, ibid.; rooms for librarians, ibid.; book-cases for Latin library ordered, 211; for Bibliotheca secreta, 212; catalogue-frames and coffers ordered, ibid.; cases for Bibliotheca pontificia ordered, 213; chains bought, ibid.; information derived from catalogues, 214-219; contemporary fresco representing library, 219, 220; arrangement of cases in the four rooms, 220-3; globes, 223; brazier, 224; rule for good behaviour in, 1513, ibid.; visit of Montaigne, ibid.; loans from, 225; staff of library, 225, 226; maintenance of, 226, 227; annual endowment, 227
- of Sixtus V.: type of an ancient Roman library, 49; summary account of decoration, 50; detailed do., 321-332
- Vegetius: use of word loculamentum, 33
- Velleius Paterculus: records works of Metellus Macedonicus, 14, note
- Vendôme: endowment of library, 70
- Versailles: libraries of Louis XVI. and Marie Antoinette, 274
- Verses: by Martial, to be placed under his own portrait, 37; by Isidore of Seville, for the presses in his library, 47, 48
- Vespasian: his library in Rome in templo Pacis, 16; statement of Aulus Gellius respecting, 19; his record-office, now church of SS. Cosma e Damiano, 27

- Victor (S.), Paris: books bequeathed to, on condition of loan, 65; library open to strangers, ibid.; lines from MSS. at, admonishing readers to be careful, 66; curse habitually used at, 67, note; library built at, 1501-8, 102; catalogue of library analysed, 160, 161
- Vienna: library at Hofburg, 273
- Villa Balestra, Rome: sarcophagus, 40
- Vitruvius: his version of rivalry between Eumenes and Ptolemy, 8; describes use of cedar-oil, 31, note; use of word loculamentum, 33; mentions a critic taking rolls from a press, 39
- Vivarium, near Squillace: monastery of Cassiodorus at, 46
- volumen* = roll, 28-32; box for, 32; fittings of libraries adapted to, 35; representation of one of these, 36; legal view of by Ulpian, 39
- Vopiscus: on library in forum of Trajan, 19, 20
- Voyage Littéraire, authors of: describe press at Cruas, 86; catalogues at Cluni, 93; library at Cîteaux, 104; at Clairvaux, 107; on use of chains in a library, 263
- Wall-system: name proposed, 265; library of Escorial, 266-269; Ambrosian Library at Milan, 269; Bibliothèque Mazarine, 270-272; at Louvain, 273; Vienna, Bologna, Rheims, Alençon, ibid.; Versailles, 274; Bodleian Library, Oxf., ibid.; Wren's library at Lincoln, 276; Wren's library at S. Paul's, Lond., 282; bookcases at Clare Coll., Camb., with Cole's account of them, 286
- Ware, Abbat of Westminster: his customary quoted, 86
- Warkworth, John: his library statute at Peterhouse, Camb., 129
- Waynflete, Wm.: his library statute at New Coll., Oxf., 132
- Weights to keep pages open: 296, 314, 315
- Wells Cathedral: library at, 117; described, 182
- Wessyngton. Prior: builds library at Durham, 101
- Westminster Abbey: plan of cloister at, 84; account of library in, 84-86; armarium commune, 86; carrells, 85, 91; library fitted up, 1623-4, 181
- Wheel-desk: see roe
- Whethamstede, John: builds library at S. Albans, 102; at Gloucester House, Oxf., 136
- Whittington, Sir R.: builds library at Christ's Hospital, 1421, 103
- Williams, John, Bp of Lincoln: fits up dorter at Westminster Abbey as library 1623-4, 86, 181; builds library at S. John's Coll., Camb., 246-248
- Wimborne: Minster library, 258
- Winchester: position of library, 102
- Winckelmann, J. J.: describes library at Herculaneum, 26
- Wings, attached to bookcases: at Peterhouse, Camb., 249; at University Library, 250; at Pembroke Coll., 251
- Wood, Ant.: describes conduct of Comm. of Edw. VI., at Oxf., 245
- Worcester Cathedral: book-recesses in cloister at, 74; library at, 102; Bishop Carpenter's library-foundation, 121-123
- Worcester Coll., Oxf.: library at, 136
- Woudanus, Jan Cornelis: picture by reproduced, 164
- Wren, Sir C.: visits Paris, 275; builds library at Lincoln Cathedral, 276; at Trinity College, Cambridge, 277-282; at S. Paul's Cathedral, London, 282-5; his influence on library-fittings in general, 285
- Wren, Matt.: account of Pembroke Coll. library, 133 note, 154
- Xenophon: preserves tradition about library of Euthydemus, 5
- York: Cathedral library, 120
- Zutphen: library described, 147-153; type recognised elsewhere, 199; at Siena, 201