

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00794-8 - Missionary Labours and Scenes in Southern Africa

Robert Moffat

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Aaron, Josephs, 496—498
- Africa, its general history, 1—3; appeal in behalf of, 613—615
- Africaner, his early history, 73; his wars with the colonists, 74—80; his first connexion with missions, 83, 84; his likeness, 172; his attack upon the mission station at Warm Bath, 85—89; his diligent attendance upon the means of grace, 108—110; his altered demeanour, 111—113; visit to the Cape, 173, 178; incredulity of a farmer respecting his conversion, 177, 178; interview with the governor, 178, 179; his death and experience, 182—186.
- Africaner, Titus, his opposition to missions, 106, 107; his attention to their interests, 110, 111; 143—147
- Africaner, David and Jacobus, 114
- Albrechts, their mission to Namaqualand, 65; 69—72
- Albrecht, Mrs., her devotedness to the cause of missions, 85; her death, 90
- Albrecht, Christian, his character and death, 90, 91
- Anderson, Mr., his labours among the Griquas, 193—198
- Antelope, description of, 343
- Archbell, Mr. and Mrs., their visit to the Kuruman station, 489; 491, 492; unexpected meeting with the author, 529
- Auld lang syne, 601
- Author, the, his interview with Africaner, and first missionary station, 103—115; his illness, 113; sleeping in sand, 152; danger from poison, 155, 156; danger from a lion, 159—161; first appointment to the Bechuana mission, 180; danger from the natives, 327—329; endeavours to prevent a battle, 354—358; retreats for safety to Griqua Town, 366, 367; revisits the Cape, 375—377; journey to the Bauangketsi, 378—395; danger from attack, 418; in danger from lions, 455, 456, 462; from baboons, 162; by night at a fountain, 461—463; visit to Choaing, 458; in danger from a marauding party, 482, 483, 485—491; visit to Moselekatse, 531, 557; revisits the Cape, 561; danger from a lion, a tiger, and a serpent, 582, 583
- Baboons, the author surrounded with, 162
- Backhouse, James, Esq., extract from his journal, 611
- Balala, their history and habits, 8—12
- Barker, Mr., appointed to Lithako, 228
- Barolong tribe, visited by the author, 388—390; attacked by Mantatees, 414—421; revisited by the author, 453—458
- Basutos, their geographical position, 15
- Battle, description of, amongst the natives, 358—362
- Batlapi, their cruelty, 368, 369; 463—465; a sketch of, 533
- Bauangketsi, visited by the author, 378—395; character of, 398, 399; their country, 401, 402
- Bechuanas, their geographical position, 15; first visited by the author, 167; first intercourse with Europeans, 214—233; first aspect presented to missionaries, 243; their form of government, 248—250; their customs, 250—255; Bechuana Bushmen, 382, 383
- Bellows, its construction with raw materials, 116—118
- Berend, Nicholas, 80, 81
- Berends, their war with Africaner, 77—

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00794-8 - Missionary Labours and Scenes in Southern Africa

Robert Moffat

Index

More information

622

INDEX.

- 81; their brave and generous conduct, 420—424
- Berend Berend, his attack upon Moselekatse, 566, 567
- Bergover, the tragical fate of, and his party, 218—221
- Bethelsdorp, its commencement as a missionary station, 37
- Bible Society, its generosity, 563; 617
- Brownlee, Mr., his labours amongst the Kafirs, 47
- Buffaloes, their fierceness, 462
- Burchell, Dr., his travels in the country of the Bechuanas, 224, 225
- Burial, mode of, in Africa, 307—309
- Bushmen, their origin and history, 6—14; first mission amongst them, 49—53; their native character, 53—59; the mission abandoned amongst them, 60, 61; its re-establishment attempted, 61; sketches of their appearance and stratagem in hunting, 64
- Buxton, Sir T. F., extract from, 616, 617
- Bysondermeid, 98
- Campbell, Rev. J., his interview with Africaner, 179; second visit to Lithako, 181; his first visit to Lithako, 227; his character and success, 239, 240
- Cape of Good Hope, the policy of its government towards the aborigines, 13
- Choaing, visited by the author, 458
- Circumcision, practised by the Bechuanas, 250
- Civilization, the effect of the Gospel, 502—508
- Climate, observations on, 333—338
- Clock, anecdote of, 339
- Clothing, the missionary's, 147, 148
- Conversion, remarkable instances of, 450—452; 508, 509; 569, 570; 572—574
- Costume, Sechuana, 503
- Cowan, Dr., and Captain Denovan, their expedition to the Bechuana country, 224
- Crow, instinct of, 154
- Cruelty of natives to their aged parents, 133—136; to their wives, 464, 465; 553; to the wounded, 465; to other tribes, 527, 528; in war, 555
- Damara tribes, their geographical position, 16
- Deluge, traditions of the, 126, 127
- Disease, the Kuatse, 436, 437
- Dogs, wild; their pursuit of game, 343, 344
- Dream, Africaner's, 184—186
- Dundas, General, his encouragement of the mission to the Hottentots, 35
- Dutch farmers, their hospitality, 175, 176
- Ebner, Mr., his labours at the Namaqua mission, 93, 94; his discouragements and departure from the country, 106, 107
- Edmonds, Mr., his sojourn in Kafirland, 22; his departure for India, 27
- Edwards, Mr., his connexion with the Bechuanas, 215, 216
- Edwards, President, his opinions on natural religion, 273, 274
- Evans, Mr., his visit to Lithako, 228—233
- Execution, native mode of, 541, 542
- Fasting, 147; 157, 158
- Food, the missionary's, in Africa, 119, 120; 146, 147
- Geological observations, 119
- Glasgow missionaries, their labours amongst the Kafirs, 47, 48
- Government agency, evil of, in missionaries, 206—209; 236, 237
- Griqua Town, first visited by the author, 166; history of the mission, 192—211; the author's connexion with, 199—211
- Gunpowder in the hands of the natives, 422, 423
- Hambana, village of, 575
- Hamilton, Mr., his visit to Lithako, 228—233; his self-denying labours, 240, 241; 495
- Heat, effects of, 164
- Helm, Mr., his mission to the Grikwas, 199
- Hephzibah, mission commenced there, 60
- Hippopotamus, encounter with an, 170—172
- Honey, poisonous effects of, 120, 121
- Hottentots, their origin, 3—6; their opposition to the first missionaries, 35—37
- Hottentot woman, opposition of, and happy death, 302—304
- Hume, Mr. D., settles at the Kuruman, 605
- Hunger of the missionary, 112; 120; 147; of the natives, 132
- Hynas, their prey upon women and children, 400, 401
- Idolatry, unknown in Africa, 243—245; 257—283
- Ignorance of Africans, 122—127; 243—248; 257—283; 383, 384; 483, 484

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00794-8 - Missionary Labours and Scenes in Southern Africa

Robert Moffat

Index

More information

INDEX.

623

- Innate ideas, 121—124; 269—276
 Insects, 458—460
 Itinerating, method of, 143—146
- Journey from the Cape to Namaqualand, 94—102; to the Fish River, 116—127; back to Namaqua station, 128—142; to Griqua Town, 149—165; from the Kuruman to Moselekatse's dominions, 514—530
- Kafirs, their general history, 14; commencement of missions to them, 22, 23; their renewal, 44—47
 Karroo, the country of, 17
 Kat River, its commencement as a missionary station, 43; its present condition, 44
 Kicherer, Mr., his visit to Africa, 22; his labours at Zak River, 49—52
 Kitchingman, Mr., his journey with the author to the Namaquas, 94—99
 Kolong River, visited by the author, 591
 Kok, Mr., his visit to the Bechuanas, and death, 217
 Kramer, Mr., his connexion with the Griqua mission, 193, 198
 Kuruman station, difficulties attending it, 424—440; 443, 444, 473—477; fountain of, sketch and description of, 440—443; encouraging appearances, 478—480; renewed dangers, 481—483; renewed encouragements, 484, 485; exposed to another attack, 485—491; revival, 495—502; drawing of, 560
- Language, Sechuana, its pronunciation, 226; difficult to acquire, 291—295
 Lichtenstein, Dr., his visit to the Bechuanas, 223, 224; his opinions, 253
 Lion, entangled in a thorn tree, 128, 129; method of attacking the giraffe, 129; poetic description of, 130; terror of oxen, 131; self-government, 136, 137; practice in leaping, 137, 138; anecdote of, with a man and his gun, 139, 140; cowardice of, 140, 141; attack upon a company of natives, 145; upon a caravan, 455—457; upon oxen, 516
 Lithako, author's first visit to, 167; reception of the first missionaries, 228—233; attacked by the Mantatees, 354—365
 Locusts, description of, 447—450; used for food, 448, 449
- Mahuto, her native character, 237
 Makaba, his reception of the author, 393—397; description of, 399, 400; conspired against by his son, 406—409; his death, 434
 Mantatees, invasion of, 340—362; description of, 362, 363; attempt upon Pitsana, 414—421
 Matabele, a sketch of, 533
 Milk-sack, description of, 471
 Miles, Rev. Richard, his visit to the Griquas, 477, 478
 Mirage, appearance of, 163, 164
 Missions, the first, to South Africa, 19
 Missionaries, their discouragements, 256, 257; 284—299; 326—329; 402, 403; topics of discourse, 299—302; exposed to attack from the Mantatees, 424—426
 Moffat, Mrs., her arrival in Africa, 181; perilous situation, 237; exposed to attack from the Mantatees, 424—426; visits the colony, 570; her dangerous illness, 577
 Moravians, their missions to the Hottentots, 19—22; subject of their preaching in Greenland, 299, 300
 Mokhatla, 516, 517
 Moselekatse, his ambassadors, 510—513; visited by the author, 530—557; his history, 544—546; revisited by the author, 578—584; decline of his power, 588
 Mosheu, his history, 592—595; visited by the author, 595—602; anxiety for instruction, 603; providentially preserved, 604
 Mosheshe, his desire for missionaries, 609, 610; his speech, 611
 Mothibi, reception given by him to the missionaries, 229—231; occasions a civil war, 428—432; his conversion, 606, 607
- Namaquas, their country, 16, 65—67; first visited by missionaries, 65, 69—72; their native character, 67—69; success of the Wesleyans amongst them, 188; difficulties of the mission, 189, 190
 Niger, expedition to the, 615
- Orange River, description of, 150—153, 191
- Parental affection, 547, 550
 Paul, his first interview with the author, 150; his contemplated attack upon the Kuruman station, 485—491
 Philip, Dr., his first visit to the Cape, 179
 Piano-forte, anecdote of, 88, 89

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00794-8 - Missionary Labours and Scenes in Southern Africa

Robert Moffat

Index

More information

624

INDEX.

- Pitsan visited by the author, 388—390
 Printing at the Cape, 562—563; natives' surprise at, 564
 Quaggas, their instinct, 462, 463
- Rain, its scarcity accounted for, 329
 Rain-makers, their influence, 305—309; anecdote of, 309—325; his end, 393
 Read, Mr., his visit to Lithako, 234
 Resurrection, a matter of surprise to the natives, 404, 405
 Revival, religious, 495, 502, 508
 Rhinoceros, description of, 461
- Sacrifices, unknown in Africa, 276—279
 Sass, Mr., his influence upon a hostile party, 203
 Schmidt, George, his mission to the Hottentots, 20, 21
 Schmelen, Mr., extracts from his journal, 122—124
 Scriptures, their value to the missionary, 618, 619; anecdote of, 619, 620
 Sebegue, his visit to the author, 469
 Smith's shop, a native's, 466—468
 Smith, Dr. Andrew, visit to the Bechuanas, 576; his travels, 586
 Sun, its heat, 503, 504
- Tamahas, their origin, 12
 Teachers, native, advantages of, 588—590
 Theft, propensity to, of the natives, 284—290
 Thirst, its effects upon men and cattle, 141, 142; the author's suffering from, 165, 166
 Thompson, Mr., his visit to Griqua Town, 346, 354
- Thunder storms, 168—170, 335—338
 Thunder without clouds, 337
 Toornberg, its selection for a missionary station, 60
 Travelling, description of, in Africa, 94—102
 Travellers, their liability to deception, 125
 Trees, destruction of, by the natives, 329—333; made places of abode, 519, 520
- Vanderkemp, Dr., his mission to the Kafirs, 22—33; his mission to the Hottentots, 34—39; his character, 39—43
- War, counsel of, 347—353
 Warm Bath, its selection for a missionary station, 82, 83; its destruction by Africaner, 87—89
 Water, monopolized by the natives, 285, 286
 Waterboer, his civil government, 200, 201, 203, 204; 209, 210
 Wesleyan missionaries, their success amongst the Kafirs, 47, 48; their mission in Namaqua-land, 188; their labours in the Basuto country, 609—612
 Williams, Mr., his appointment to Lithako, 228; his mission to the Kafirs, 44—47
 Wright, Mr., 474—477
- Zahara, Southern, its character and position, 15
 Zak River, its possession and abandonment as a missionary station, 49—52
 Zoology, 119; 152, 153