

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00816-7 - India in the Fifteenth Century

Edited by Richard Henry Major

Index

More information

INDEX.

The large Roman figures in this Index refer to the individual documents as they stand in the work: thus, I refers to Abd-er-Razzák; II, to Nicolò de' Conti; III, to Nikitin; IV, to Hieronimo di Santo Stefano.

- Abd-er-Razzák, ambassador from Shah Rokh, analysis of his travels, lxxvii-lxxiv; sets out on his journey to India, I, 4; arrives at Ormuz, 5; proceeds by sea to Muscat, 7; stays at Kariat, 8; his illness there, 10; sails to Calicut, 13; his description of the city, 14-17; his interview with the sovereign, 18; he sails to Mangalor, 20; journey to Bijanagur, 19-22; his account of that city, 22-30; interview with the king, 31, 39-42; description of the Mahanadi, 35-38; he returns home, 43; meets with a storm at sea, 45; reaches Ormuz, 49
- Absharon, peninsula of, famous for naphtha springs, III, 7
- Abu Abdallah Mohammed Ben Edris, surnamed Schafei, account of, I, 14
- Adam, tomb of, III, 20
- Adam's Peak, a mountain, lvii
- Aden, II, 21; IV, 4
- Adorno, Hieronimo, accompanies Hieronimo de Santo Stephano, his death, IV, 6
- Aladinand, bazaar at, III, 12
- Ala-eddin-Ahmed-Schah, king of Kalberga, I, 40
- Albenigaras, a mountain producing diamonds, II, 29
- Alexander the Great, results of his Indian expedition, iii
- Alil-bek, a Kaitak chief, III, 6
- Alkhedr, the prophet, anecdote of Moses and, I, 12
- Ammianus Marcellinus, Indians noticed by, IX
- Andaman Isles, II, 8
- Animals of India, III, 13; of Ethiopia, II, 37-39
- Annius Plocamus, stated by Pliny to have visited the island of Taprobana, II, 4
- Antonio de Lisboa, his journey to Jerusalem, lxxxii
- Ants, a Siamese delicacy, II, 13
- Arabia, description of demons in, II, 4
- Arabs: their advance into India, xiii; their trade with India, xiv-xvi
- Aracan, II, 10
- Army of the Sultan of Beder, III, 14, 26
- Arotani, a river in Ceylon, strange fish in, II, 33
- Assanbek, a Tartar ambassador, II, 4, 6
- Astrakhan, III, 5
- Atash Kudda, a Gheber temple, III, 7
- Ava, account of, II, 11; IV, 6
- Bachali, Indian priests, II, 24, 25
- Bagdad, description of, II, 5
- Bairam, ceremonies of the, III, 23
- Baku, naphtha springs at, III, 7
- Bamboos, magnitude of, II, 10
- Bananas, II, 10
- Baths, II, 29
- Batman, a measure of weight, IV, 8
- Beder, III, 11; trade of, 12; army of the Sultan, 14, 26; magnitude of the Court, 23; want of fresh vegetables at, 24
- Belour, magnificent temple at, I, 20
- Bells, unknown in part of India, II, 27
- Bengal, kingdom of, invaded by the Sultan of Djounah-pour, I, 15
- Benjamin of Tudela: his journey, xlv; his account of India, xlvi-l
- Betel leaf, properties of the, I, 32
- Bijanagur, city of: description of, I, 6, 23; its bazaars, 24; rose merchants, ib.; coins, 26; elephants, 27; women, 29; interview with the king of, 31; attempted murder of

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00816-7 - India in the Fifteenth Century

Edited by Richard Henry Major

Index

More information

INDEX.

- the king by his brother, 33; description of the Mahanadi festival at, 35; splendour of the royal palace, 33; war between the kings of Bijanagur, and of Kalberga, 40; capture of the city, III, 29
- Birds: description of gigantic birds by Sindbad and others, xxxvi-xl
- Birds of Paradise, lxv; II, 17
- Bizenegalia, city of: description of, II, 6; idols at, 28
- Boa constrictor, description of the, II, 39
- Book of Fates, consulted by Abd-er-Razzák, I, 45
- Boris, a Russian saint, III, 4
- Brahmins, account of the, II, 8, 25; incantations used by the, 26
- Buddha, account of the religion of, III, 16, 18
- Budhkhana, description of the temples and religious rites at, III, 16
- Bulls of Buddha, III, 18
- Bussorah, II, 5
- Buzan, the river, III, 5
- Cairo, route to India from, described by H. de Santo Stefano, IV, 3
- Calicut, description of, I, 13; III, 30; religion and trade at, 14; the inhabitants of, 17; II, 20
- Cambaleschia, see Pekin
- Cambay, II, 20; III, 19; IV, 9
- Camphor, Sindbad's account of, xxxii
- Cannibalism, II, 8, 9
- Cape of Good Hope, discovery of the, lxxxix
- Caste, III, 17
- Cathay, account of the province of, II, 14; the cities of Cambaleschia and Nemptai, 15
- Ceylon, discovery of, IV, 5; account of, II, 7, 8; IV, 5; tomb of Adam at, III, 20, 21
- Chaoul, a seaport, III, 8
- Chedad-ben-Ad, terrestrial paradise formed by, I, 21
- Cheen, habits of people of, III, 29
- China, route to India from, xx
- Chinese houses like those of Italy, II, 15
- Christians in India: the Vizier of Bijanagur a Christian, I, 41; the Nestorians, II, 7, 23, 33; they send to Rome, 34; Christians in Socotra, 20; in Ethiopia, 34
- Cinnamon tree, description of, II, 7; IV, 5
- Cities of India, magnitude of, II, 34
- Civet, II, 38
- Climate of India, III, 24
- Cock fighting, fondness of the Javanese for, II, 16
- Conspiracy at Bidjanagur, I, 33
- Conti, Nicolò de': analysis of his travels, lx-lxvii; account of, by Poggio Bracciolini, II, 3; his departure from Damascus with a caravan, 4; reaches the Euphrates and sails down the river to the Persian Gulf, 5; resides at Calacabia and sails to Cambay, ib.; and to Helly, 6; journeys to Bizenegalia, ib.; his description of Ceylon, 7; Sumatra, 8; remains there a year and then sails to Tenassarim, 9; voyage up the Ganges, 10; returns and visits Aracan and Ava, 11; description of Cathay, 14; of Pegu and Java, 15; of Malabar, 17; Calicut and Cambay, 20; Aden, 21; sails to Ethiopia and returns to Venice by Egypt, 21; his account of India, 21-33
- Coromandel, account of, IV, 5
- Cosseir, account of the vessels of, IV, 3
- Covilham, Pedro, account of, by F. Alvarez, lxxxii; his journey to the East, lxxxiv-lxxxvii; his claim to the discovery of the Cape of Good Hope, lxxxix
- Cows, respect paid to, I, 19
- Dabul, III, 20, 30
- Daiang, Vizier of Bijanagur, I, 35; his expedition to Kalberga, 40
- Dancing girls, I, 37
- Dâralaman, a name given to Ormuz, I, 7
- Dead, burial of, II, 23; mourning for, 25
- Debtors sold as slaves, II, 31
- Demons seen in the Arabian Desert, II, 4
- Derbend, III, 6, 7
- Diamonds, Sindbad's account of the valley of, xl; a singular method of procuring them, II, 30; their value in India, III, 21
- Diaz, Bartholomew, rounds the Cape of Good Hope, lxxxii

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00816-7 - India in the Fifteenth Century

Edited by Richard Henry Major

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Diou-rai, king of Bijanagur, I, 19 ; interview of Abd-er-Razzák with, 31 ; attempt to assassinate, 33 ; war with Kalberga, 40 ; his treatment of Abd-er-Razzák, 41, 42
- Djafa-Sadek, the Book of Fates composed by, I, 45
- Djoghis, Hindú ascetics, I, 17
- Djounah-pour, Ibrahim, king of, invades Bengal, I, 15
- Dreams, reflections of Abd-er-Razzák on, I, 18
- Dress of Indians, III, 9, 10, 18
- Duties levied in India, III, 11, 19
- Egypt, a description of, by certain Ethiopians, II, 35
- Elephants, an anecdote about, I, 28 ; mode of capturing, 27 ; II, 12 ; feats performed by, I, 37 ; used in Siam, II, 11 ; in Ethiopia, 37 ; used in battle, III, 12, 23
- Embalming of corpses, xlviii
- Epiphanius, archbishop of Salamis, his account of the mode of finding jacinths in Scythia, xlii
- Ethiopia, account of, II, 35-39
- Euphrates, Conti's voyage down the, II, 5
- Expense of living in India, III, 25
- Fan palm, size of the leaves, II, 7, 13
- Festivals, account of, in India, I, 35 ; II, 28 ; III, 13
- Fever, cured by the smoke of Ibez horns, II, 38
- Fish, fever produced by the touch of, II, 33
- Flying cats and serpents, II, 18
- Foreigners, feeling of Indians towards, III, 21
- Funeral rite, II, 23 ; III, 17
- Ganges, Conti's voyage up the, II, 10
- Genoese, their Indian commerce, xvii
- Geomantia, an art practised by the Brahmins, II, 26
- Georgia, III, 25
- Ghebers, a resort of, at Baku, III, 7
- Ginger plant, account of, II, 6 ; IV, 4
- Giraffe, description of the, II, 38
- Gleb, a Russian saint, III, 4
- Gookook, a wonderful bird, III, 13
- Guzrat, indigo trade at, III, 21
- Hair, modes of wearing, II, 23
- Heat of the weather, I, 9, 49 ; III, 24
- Herat compared with Bijanagur, I, 23
- Herodotus, mention of India by, I, ii
- Hindoo viziers of India, III, 28
- Hiouen-thsang, a Chinese traveller, his journey to India, xix, xxiii
- Hippalus, route to India discovered by, vi
- Hippopotamus, not found in Sumatra, xxxii
- Hole, R., his remarks on Sindbad's voyages, xxxvi
- Hormuz, see Ormuz
- Horses, food of, III, 10
- Hossein, death of, III, 7
- Ibez horns, fevers cured by the smoke of, II, 38
- Ibn Batuta, his travels in India, liv-lxix ; III, 12
- Ibrahim, Sultan of Djounah-pour, invades Bengal, I, 15
- Icepe, monsters called, II, 19
- Idols, III, 16 ; immolation to, II, 27
- Incantations of the Brahmins, II, 26
- India : earliest information regarding India, ii ; the expedition of Alexander, iii ; the narrative of Megasthenes, iii, iv ; communication with Egypt under the Ptolemies, v ; Pliny's account of the route to India, vi ; Ptolemy's description of, viii ; Persian commerce with, x ; the description of, by Cosmas, xii ; advance of the Mussulmans into, xiii-xvi ; the Genoese and Venetian traders, xvii. Voyages to India: the route of Hiouen-thsang from China, xix-xxiii ; voyage of Soliman, a Muhammedan merchant, to India, xxiii-xxx ; the narrative of Sindbad the Sailor, xxx-xlv ; of Benjamin of Tudela, xlvi-l ; of Marco Polo, l-liii ; of Ibn Batuta, liv-lxix ; of Nicold de' Conti, lx-lxvii ; of Abd-er-Razzák, lxvii-lxxiv ; of A. Nikitin, lxxvii-lxxx ; of H. de Santo Stefano, lxxx ; of Pedro Covilham, lxxxiv-lxxxvii. Journey of Abd-er-Razzák, ambassador from Shah Rokh to India, i, 4-13 ; description of Calicut, 13 ; appearance of the people, 17 ; trade, 14, 19 ; account of temples near

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00816-7 - India in the Fifteenth Century

Edited by Richard Henry Major

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Mangalor, 20; and at Belour, 21; description of the city of Bijanagur, 22-26; the Mahanadi festival, 35. Early travellers to India, II, 4; voyage of Nicolò de' Conti to India from Bagdad, 5; description of various cities in, 6; of Ceylon, 7; Sumatra, 8; account of his voyage up the Ganges, 10; description of Ava, 11; fruits and animals, 13; description of Java, 15; of Calicut and Cambay, 20; general account of India, 21; manners and customs of the people, 22-32; Nestorian Christians in India, 7, 33; Nikitin's journey from Russia to India, III, 3-8; he reaches Chaoul, 8; and winters at Jooneer, 9; account of the people and their religion, 9-10; account of Beder, 11-15; of strange animals in India, 12; description of the temples at Perwuttum and the Hindoo religion, 16-17; distances between the Indian cities, 19; Ormuz, ib.; Dabul, Calicut, and Ceylon, 20; Shabat and its diamond mines, 21; of the climate in India, 24; account of the Sultan of Beder, 24, 26, 28; description of Bijanagur, 29; Kooroola, 30; journey of H. di Santo de Stefano from Cairo to India, IV, 3; his account of Massawa, Aden, and Calicut, 4; of Ceylon and Coromandel, 5; of Pegu and Ava, 6; of Sumatra, 7; the Maldivè Isles, 8; his route home by Persia, 9-10
- India, inhabitants of: Abd-er-Razzák's account of the natives of Calicut, I, 17; of Bijanagur, 24; their writings, 25; the Mahanadi festival, I, 35; dancing girls, 36; Conti's account of Suttee, II, 6; of the Brahmins of Ceylon, 8; of the natives of Sumatra, 8, 9; Cannibalism, 9; customs of Ava, 11; of Siam, 13; serpents and ants esteemed a delicacy, ib.; cruelty of the Javanese, 16; their fondness for cock fighting, ib.; manners and customs at Calicut, 20; Indian merchants, 21; wine unknown to the Indians, 22; manners and dress of the natives of Central India, ib.; funeral rites, 23; Suttee, 24; mourning for the dead, 25; priests, Bachali and Brahmins, ib.; navigation and ship building among the Indians, 26; religious worship 27; human sacrifices to idols, 28; weddings, 29; modes of obtaining precious stones, 30; divisions of time, ib.; money, ib.; weapons, 31; legal proceedings, ib.; magnitude of Indian armies, 32; Nestorian Christians in North India, 33; Nikitin's account of the dress of the people about Bombay, III, 9; a prince carried by men, ib.; inns, 10; costumes, ib.; religion of the inhabitants of India, 11; trade at Beder, 12; the nobles and the people, 14; night watchmen, 15; Buddhists religion, 16; temples of Perwuttum, 16; religious ordinances, 17-18; coins, 20; customs of the people of Pegu, 21; price of diamonds, ib.; inhabitants of Shabat, ib.; splendour of the Sultan's court at Beder, 24; camp-followers, 27; the Indian army, 28; treatment of prisoners, 29; Hieronimo de Santo Stefano's account of the inhabitants of Calicut, IV, 5; of Coromandel, ib.; of the Maldivè Isles, 8
- Indigo, III, 8, 19
- Inns in India, III, 10
- Irawaddy, Conti's voyage up the, II, 11
- Irem, an earthly paradise, I, 21
- Ivan, Grand Duke of Russia, III, 3, 5
- Jacinths, strange mode of finding in Scythia, xlii
- Jack tree, II, 18
- Java, account of, II, 15; cruelty of the inhabitants, 16; a wonderful tree in, 32
- Jews, natives of Shabat said to be, III, 21
- John II, king of Portugal, his missions to the East, lxxxii
- Jugglers, I, 37
- Julien, Stanislas, his Pelerins Boudhistes, xix
- Jurufgan, great heat at, I, 49
- Kaitaks, a Tartar tribe, III, 6
- Kalahat, city of, I, 10
- Kalberga, account of the city of, I, 6; war with Bijanagur, 40

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00816-7 - India in the Fifteenth Century

Edited by Richard Henry Major

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Kalila and Dimna, a Persian work, I, 23
- Kariat, great heat at, I, 8-9
- Kazan, III, 5
- Kêlâ, probably Keydah, Sindbad's account of, xxxiii
- Kerman, a ruined city in the desert of, I, 4, 5
- Khotbah, a Mahometan sermon, I, 15
- Koliasin, convent of the Holy Trinity at, III, 4
- Langlès, M., remarks on his translation of Abd-er-Razzâk's travels, lxix
- Legal proceedings in India, II, 31
- Longevity of Brahmins, II, 25; of Ethiopians, 36
- Madagascar, gigantic birds of, xxxix
- Mahanadi, a Hindoo festival, description of, I, 35
- Maha-rajâ, origin of the title, xxvii
- Mahommedan Sultan of India, III, 28
- Mahommedan religion in India, III, 11
- Maldivè Islands, account of the, IV, 8
- Mangalor, magnificent temple near, I, 20
- Mango tree, II, 19
- Megasthenes, account of India by, iii
- Melikh-Tuchar, his army, III, 26, 27
- Money at Bijanagur, I, 26; coins of India, II, 30
- Monkeys, a kingdom of, III, 13; travellers attacked by, 22
- Moses, anecdote of Alkheda and, I, 12
- Mountains of the Moon, II, 39
- Mud volcanoes, III, 7
- Muscat, I, 49
- Musk deer, III, 22
- Nacous, probably Nicobar, Sindbad's voyage to, xxxiii
- Naphtha springs at Baku, III, 7
- Navigation, Indian knowledge of, II, 26
- Nauruz, Mahometan New Year's day, I, 14
- Nestorians, account of the, II, 23; in Malabar, II, 7; in Socotra, 20; in North India, 33
- Nikitin, Athanasius, account of the manuscript of his travels, lxxiv; analysis of them, lxxvii-lxxx; he starts from Twer, III, 3; stays at Nijni-Novgorod, 4; descends the Volga, 5; to Derbend, 6; thence to Bokhara, 7; and to Ormuz, 8; thence to Muscat, Gujrat and Cambay, ib.; his description of Chaoul, 9; he winters at Jooneer, 10; attempt to make him a Mahommedan, 11; he proceeds to Beder, 12; spends the winter there, 15; his description of Perwuttum, 16; religious remarks by, 18, 23; places where he kept Easter Days, 22; he commences his homeward journey from Beder, 28; voyage from Dabul to Ormuz, 30; journey to Trebizond, 31; arrives at Caffa, 32
- Nile, Ethiopian account of, II, 35
- Nimek-pezir, a Christian, Vizier of Bijanagur: his treatment of Abd-er-Razzâk, I, 41
- Oaths, mode of administering, II, 31
- Old Man of the Sea, Sindbad's account of the, xxxiv
- Omar Saad, curse brought upon Rhey by, III, 7
- Onesicritus, Ceylon first described by, iv
- Onore, length of the voyage to Ormuz from, I, 49
- Orda, the name given to the seats of the Tartar rulers of Russia, III, 5
- Ordeal, trial by, II, 31
- Ormuz, city of, account of, I, 5; trade of, 6; character of the inhabitants of, 7; length of the voyage from Onore to, I, 49; duties levied at, III, 19; heat at, III, 8
- Ostrich, described, II, 39
- Paintings on the temple of Belour, I, 21
- Palace at Beder, description of, III, 14
- Panconia, description of the city of, II, 15
- Parrots, II, 17; xl
- Payva, A. de, his journey to the East with Covilham, lxxxii
- Pearl fishery in the Red Sea, IV, 4
- Peas, horses fed on, III, 10
- Pegu, III, 20; IV, 6
- Pekin, account of the city of, II, 14
- Pepper trees, description of, xxxiii; IV, 4
- Persian Gulf, storm in the, I, 46
- Persians: their aversion to the sea,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00816-7 - India in the Fifteenth Century

Edited by Richard Henry Major

Index

More information

INDEX.

- iv; success of their commerce with India, x
- Perwuttum, account of, III, 16
- Pestilence unknown among the Indians, II, 31
- Phoenix, account of the, II, 32
- Pictures, I, 36
- Pirates in the India Seas, III, 11
- Pliny's account of the route to India, vi; of Taprobana, II, 4
- Polo, Marco, sketch of his travels in India, I-lxiii; his account of the Rukh, xxxviii
- Population of India, II, 32
- Porcelain, III, 21
- Posting regulations in Russia, III, 4
- Prayers, Russian custom of prefacing a journey by, III, 3; Hindoo, 17
- Precious stones, mode of procuring, II, 30
- Prester John, IV, 4
- Ptolemies, communication between India and Egypt under the, iv
- Ptolemy, the geographer, his account of India, viii
- Rachoor, a diamond hill at, III, 21
- Red Sea, pearl fishery in, IV, 4
- Reinaud, M., his edition of Soliman's voyage to India, xxiii-xxx
- Religion of the Indians, I, 19; II, 27; III, 11, 15, 16; IV, 5; temples, I, 20; religious service, 22; festivals, II, 28
- Rhey, account of the ruins of, III, 7
- Rhinoceros, description of the, II, 13
- Riha, peninsula of, mentioned by Sindbad, xxxii
- Roc, see Rukh
- Roman trade with India, viii
- Roses, partiality of the people at Bidjanagur for, I, 24
- Route to India described by Pliny, vi; from Cairo, described by H. di Santo Stefano, IV, 3
- Rukh, a gigantic bird, remarks on Sindbad's description of the, xxxvi; Marco Polo's account of it, xxxviii; mentioned by Ibn Batuta, lviii
- Rupee, value of the, III, 20
- Russia, religious practices of travellers in, III, 3; posting regulations, 4
- Santo Stefano (H. di), analysis of his travels, lxxx; his route from Cairo to India, IV, 3; his account of Calicut, 4; goes to Ceylon and Coromandel, 5; Pegu and Ava, 6; death of his companion, ib.; sails to Sumatra, 7; is detained at the Maldiv Islands, 8; shipwrecked, ib.; reaches Cambay and returns home by Ormuz, Ispahan, and Aleppo, 9, 10
- Sameri, title of the sovereign of Calicut, I, 17; interview of Abd-er-Razzak with the, 18
- Santy, a sort of aloë-wood, xxxiv
- Sarai, a ruined city on the Volga, III, 5
- Schafei, Mussulman sect of, I, 14
- Scythed elephants, III, 12
- Selaheth, probably Sumatra, described by Sindbad, xxxii
- Semerida, the Indian Phoenix, II, 32
- Sensitive plant, description of the, II, 29
- Sepulchres, II, 23
- Serendib, or Ceylon, Sindbad's voyage to, xxxv
- Serpents, Sindbad's descriptions of, xl; the Siamese eat them, II, 3; their fondness for children, II, 18; flying serpents, ib.; serpents fifty cubits long, II, 39
- Shabat, produce of, III, 20
- Shikhuladin, a saint, III, 12
- Ships, Indian, II, 27; IV, 3
- Shirvanshah, present of falcons made by the Grand Duke of Russia to, III, 4
- Siam, province of, II, 11
- Silk worms introduced into Europe, xii
- Sindbad the Sailor: Walckenaer's opinion as to the authenticity of Sindbad's voyages, xxx; Sindbad's first voyage, xxxi; second and third voyages, xxxii; fourth voyage, xxxiii; fifth voyage, and his account of the Old Man of the Sea, xxxiv; his sixth and seventh voyages, xxxv; observations on his stories by R. Hole, xxxvi; his account of the roc, xxxvii-xl; of the valley of diamonds, xl-xliii; of a huge tortoise, xliiii-xlv
- Slavery, II, 31
- Smoke of Ibex horns a cure for fever, II, 38
- Snakes at Beder, III, 15
- Socotra, island of, II, 20

INDEX.

- Soliman, a Muhammedan merchant, his voyage to India, xxiii-xxx
 Solomon, treasure obtained from India by, ii
 Sour, a place near Kalahat, i, 10
 Storm in the Persian Gulf, i, 46
 St. Philip, fast of, iii, 32
 St. Thomas, burial place of, ii, 7
 Suicide by fire, xlix
 Sumatra, probably described in Sindbad's voyages, xxxii; account of, ii, 4, 8; produce of, iv, 7
 Suttee, ii, 6, 24; iv, 5, 6
- Taprobana, see Sumatra
 Teak trees, xxvi
 Temples, ii, 27; magnificence of at Mangalor and Belour, i, 20; at Perwuttum, iii, 16
 Tenka, a coin, iii, 20
 Throne of gold at Bijanagur, i, 38
 Tides in the Persian Gulf, ii, 5
 Time, divisions of in India, ii, 30
 Tortoises, account of gigantic, xliii
 Tortoise-shell, churches made of, ii, 33
- Trade, account of at Ormuz, i, 6: at Calicut, i, 14; at Beder, iii, 12
 Trebizond, iii, 31
- Venetian trade with India, xvii
 Vines, want of, in India, ii, 15
 Volga, cities on the, iii, 5
- Walckenaer, Baron, his opinion as to voyages of Sindbad, xxx
 Watchmen in India, iii, 15
 Weapons used by Indians, ii, 31
 Weddings, celebration of, ii, 29
 Wild cats, attacks on travellers by, iii, 22
- Winter, account of, at Jooneer, iii, 10
 Women of India, ii, 20; iii, 10, 12, 21; iv, 5; courtezans at Bijanagur, i, 29; the king's harem, 32; dancing girls, 37; polygamy, i, 17; an island inhabited by, ii, 20; modes of wearing their hair, 23; Suttee, ii, 6, 24; iv, 6
- Writing, Indian modes of, i, 25; ii, 31