

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00936-2 - Free Town Libraries, their Formation, Management, and History: In Britain, France, Germany, and America

Edward Edwards

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

BOOK THE FIRST.

FREE TOWN LIBRARIES, AT HOME.

CHAPTER I.

FREE LIBRARIES IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND THE LEGISLATION CONCERNING THEM. WITH AN INTRODUCTORY GLANCE AT EARLIER TOWN AND PARISH LIBRARIES.

PAGE

Early efforts to extend the advantages of Libraries—Glance at the relative dates of the earlier Town Libraries of France, Germany, and Britain—The Library founded by Whittington and Carpenter at the Guildhall of London, and its destruction by the Lord Protector Somerset—Other dealings of English Reformers with old Libraries—Thomas Cromwell's Injunction of Sept. 1537—Thomas Bray, and the Parish Libraries of the Eighteenth Century—History of the Public Libraries' Acts of 1850-1866

1

CHAPTER II.

TOWN COUNCILS, PAROCHIAL VESTRIES, AND OTHER LOCAL BOARDS; AND THEIR DUTIES IN TOWNS OR PARISHES IN WHICH A FREE LIBRARY IS PROPOSED TO BE ESTABLISHED UNDER ONE OR OTHER OF THE LIBRARIES ACTS.

Functions and Composition of Town Councils—Changes in the Legislature affecting Corporations—Preliminaries necessary to the adop-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00936-2 - Free Town Libraries, their Formation, Management, and History: In Britain, France, Germany, and America

Edward Edwards

Table of Contents

More information

x

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
tion of one or other of the existing Libraries' Acts—The Public Meeting under the Act of 1866—Expediency or inexpediency of endeavouring to establish a Free Library before the call of the Public Meeting—Appointment of the Library Committee—Indirect results of recent Permissive Legislation—Choice and Qualification of Libraries—Expenditure—Levy of the Maximum Rate	22

CHAPTER III.

THE PLANNING, FORMING, ORGANIZING, AND WORKING, OF A FREE TOWN LIBRARY.

Buildings for a Free Town Library—Structural Requirements—Warmth and Ventilation—Shelving of Book Rooms—Purchase and Choice of Books—Internal Arrangements and Manipulations—Classification and Catalogues—Regulation of Public Access—Arrangements for Borrowing	35
--	----

CHAPTER IV.

*HISTORY OF FREE LIBRARIES ESTABLISHED IN GREAT BRITAIN ON THE PRINCIPLE OF A LIBRARY RATE.
1850-1868.*

The Free Libraries of Manchester and Salford and their Founders—The Liverpool Libraries and Sir William Brown—Birkenhead—Birmingham and its Libraries—The Free Town Libraries of Oxford and Cambridge—Southampton and the Hartley Library—Other Libraries, supported by Rate in the South and West of England—Causes of the Rejection of the Libraries' Act in certain Towns—General Results of the Acts of 1850-1866—Need of further Parliamentary and Administrative Encouragement	61
---	----

TABULAR VIEW OF THE PRINCIPAL FREE TOWN LIBRARIES OF GREAT BRITAIN, ESTABLISHED UNDER THE LIBRARIES ACTS, 1850-1866	To face page 192
EXAMPLES OF THE DETAILS OF FREE LIBRARY EXPENDITURE	} To face page 193
EXAMPLES OF BOOK PURCHASES FOR FREE LIBRA- RIES AND THEIR COST
EXAMPLES OF CLASSIFICATION AND OF CATA- LOGUES

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00936-2 - Free Town Libraries, their Formation, Management, and History: In Britain, France, Germany, and America

Edward Edwards

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xi

BOOK THE SECOND.

FREE TOWN LIBRARIES, ABROAD.

CHAPTER I.

THE TOWN, COMMUNAL, AND POPULAR LIBRARIES OF FRANCE.

PAGE

The Town Library of Lyons—That of Troyes—Synchronism of Hennequin's gift to Troyes, and of the gifts of Henry Du Bouchet and of Cardinal Mazzarini to Paris—Alternation of periods of neglect with those of increase and improved management—Summary View of the number, extent, and income of the French Town and Communal Libraries, based on the Official Statistics collected in 1855-57—Classified examples of the statistical details—Need of new efforts to extend the benefits of Public Libraries to all classes of the population—Formation of Popular Libraries in the several districts of Paris—And of Primary School Libraries throughout France	193
---	-----

CHAPTER II.

THE TOWN LIBRARIES AND POPULAR LIBRARIES OF GERMANY.

German Town Libraries of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries—Influence of the Reformation on Educational efforts of all kinds—The Statistics of the Town Libraries, published by Petzholdt in 1853, and in subsequent years—Examples and Tabular Summary—History of the Town Library of Hamburg—and of that of Breslau—and of Augsburg—and of Nuremberg—The Popular Libraries of recent formation	224
TABLES	To face pages 226 and 227

CHAPTER III.

NOTES ON THE TOWN LIBRARIES OF SOME OTHER CONTINENTAL STATES.

§ 1. SWITZERLAND	240
§ 2. ITALY	245
§ 3. BELGIUM	265

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00936-2 - Free Town Libraries, their Formation, Management, and History: In Britain, France, Germany, and America

Edward Edwards

Table of Contents

More information

xii

CONTENTS.

BOOK THE THIRD.

FREE TOWN LIBRARIES, IN AMERICA.

CHAPTER I.

INTRODUCTORY.

	PAGE
Foundation, in 1700, of the first Town Library of the American Colonies, and its eventual conversion into a Proprietary Library—The Loganian Library at Philadelphia—The Collegiate and School Libraries of the United States—The use of many of the School Collections as Township and Parish Libraries—The State Libraries at the Seats of Government and their Free Accessibility as Consulting Collections—Return, in recent years, to the action of Municipalities for the maintenance of Free Town Libraries.	269

CHAPTER II.

HISTORY OF THE FREE CITY LIBRARY OF BOSTON.

Municipal Proceedings in 1847-49—Mr. Edward Everett's Gift of 1849—The Report on the proposed Free City Library of July 1852—Gift of Mr. Joshua Bates—Proposed Union of the Boston Athenæum with the City Library, and its failure—Erection and Cost of the new Building—The Second Gift of Mr. Bates—Gifts of the Bowditch and Parker Collections—And that of the 'Prince Library' at the Old South Church—Statistics of the Formation and Working of the City Library—Its Regulations and their results—The Regulation as to the Provision of Books required by readers, but not yet added to the Library—Deductions from the experience of the Boston Library	280
---	-----

CHAPTER III.

MINOR TOWN AND DISTRICT LIBRARIES OF MASSACHUSETTS	302
---	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00936-2 - Free Town Libraries, their Formation, Management, and History: In Britain, France, Germany, and America

Edward Edwards

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xiii

CHAPTER IV.

HISTORY OF THE ASTOR FREE LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK; WITH SOME NOTICE OF ITS FOUNDER.

	PAGE
The Founder and his American career—The Will of 1839—Preliminary steps towards the creation of the Astor Library in the Founder's lifetime—Incorporation of the Astor Trustees—The Library Building—The Book Purchases in various parts of Europe of Dr. Cogswell—The Library Regulations and method of working—The Statistics and Results	309

CHAPTER V.

DISTRICT, TOWNSHIP, AND OTHER FREELY-ACCESSIBLE LIBRARIES IN THE UNITED STATES.

General View of Free Town Libraries within the United States in 1859—Origination of the system of Free District Libraries for 'School-Districts'—District Libraries of the State of New York—Causes of the recent Decline of the District Libraries of that State—Establishment and growth of those of Indiana—and of Ohio—and of Wisconsin—The Apprentices' Libraries of Boston and of Philadelphia—Practical Deductions	325
--	-----

CHAPTER VI.

THE FREE LIBRARIES OF BRITISH AMERICA.

The Canada Education Reports of 1849 and 1850—Plan of the Township and School-Section Free Libraries of Upper Canada—School and Library Act of 1850—Methods adopted for supply of Books to the Canadian Libraries—The County Meetings of 1853—The Authorized Catalogue of Free Library Books—Modifications of plan introduced into the Township Library System of New Brunswick—Statistics of the Canadian Free Libraries—Their general Character and Educational Results	344
--	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00936-2 - Free Town Libraries, their Formation, Management, and History: In Britain, France, Germany, and America

Edward Edwards

Table of Contents

More information

xiv

CONTENTS.

BOOK THE FOURTH.

BRIEF NOTICES OF COLLECTORS,

	PAGE
AND OF THE RESPECTIVE PLACES OF DEPOSIT OF THEIR SURVIVING COLLECTIONS	[3]
GENERAL INDEX	[225]