

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-108-00997-3 - The Bible in Spain, Volume 1
 George Henry Borrow
 Table of Contents
More information

CONTENTS OF VOL. I.

CHAPTER I.

Man Overboard.—The Tagus.—Foreign Languages.—Gesticulation.—Streets of Lisbon.—The Aqueduct.—Bible tolerated in Portugal.—Cintra.—Don Sebastian.—John de Castro.—Conversation with a Priest.—Colhares.—Mafra.—Its Palace.—The Schoolmaster.—The Portuguese.—Their Ignorance of Scripture.—Rural Priesthood.—The Alemtejo .	Page 1
--	-----------

CHAPTER II.

Boatmen of the Tagus.—Dangers of the Stream.—Aldea Gallega.—The Hostelry.—Robbers.—Sabocho.—Adventure of a Muleteer.—Estalagem de Ladroes.—Don Geronimo.—Vendas Novas.—Royal Residence.—Swine of the Alemtejo.—Monte Moro.—Swayne Vonved.—Singular Goatherd.—Children of the Fields.—Infidels and Sadducees . . . . .	23
---	----

CHAPTER III.

Shopkeeper at Evora.—Spanish Contrabandistas.—Lion and Unicorn.—The Fountain.—Trust in the Almighty.—Distribution of Tracts.—Library at Evora.—Manuscript.—The Bible as a Guide.—The infamous Mary.—The Man of Palmella.—The Charm.—The Monkish System.—Sunday.—Volney.—An Auto-da-fé.—Men from Spain.—Reading of a Tract.—New Arrival.—The Herb Rosemary . . . . .	45
---	----

CHAPTER IV.

	Page
Vexatious Delays.—Drunken Driver.—The murdered Mule. —The Lamentation.—Adventure on the Heath.—Fear of Darkness.—Portuguese Fidalgo.—The Escort.—Return to Lisbon . . . . .	67

CHAPTER V.

The College.—The Rector.—Shibboleth.—National Preju- dices.—Youthful Sports.—Jews of Lisbon.—Bad Faith.— Crime and Superstition.—Strange Proposal . . . . .	84
---	----

CHAPTER VI.

Cold of Portugal.—Extortion prevented.—Sensation of Lone- liness.—The Dog.—The Convent.—Enchanting Landscape. —Moorish Fortresses.—Prayer for the Sick. . . . .	102
---	-----

CHAPTER VII.

The Druids' Stone.—The Young Spaniard.—Ruffianly Sol- diers.—Evils of War.—Estremoz.—The Brawl.—Ruined Watch Tower.—Glimpse of Spain.—Old Times and New . . . . .	118
---	-----

CHAPTER VIII.

Elvas.—Extraordinary Longevity.—The English Nation.— Portuguese Ingratitude.—Illiberality.—Fortifications.— Spanish Beggar.—Badajoz.—The Custom House. . . . .	136
--	-----

CHAPTER IX.

Badajoz.—Antonio the Gypsy.—Antonio's Proposal.—The Proposal accepted.—Gypsy Breakfast.—Departure from Ba- dajoz.—The Gypsy Donkey.—Merida.—The Ruined Wall. —The Crone.—The Land of the Moor.—The Black Men.— Life in the Desert.—The Supper . . . . .	151
---	-----

CONTENTS.

vii

CHAPTER X.

	Page
The Gypsy's Granddaughter.—Proposed Marriage.—The Alguazil.—The Assault.—Speedy Trot.—Arrival at Trujillo.—Night and Rain.—The Forest.—The Bivouac.—Mount and away!—Jaraicejo.—The National.—The Cavalier Balmerston.—Among the Thickets.—Serious Discourse.—What is Truth?—Unexpected Intelligence . . . . .	177

CHAPTER XI.

The Pass of Mirabete.—Wolves and Shepherds.—Female Subtlety.—Death by Wolves.—The Mystery solved.—The Mountains.—The Dark Hour.—The Traveller of the Night.—Abarbenel.—Hoarded Treasure.—Force of Gold.—The Archbishop.—Arrival at Madrid . . . . .	211
---	-----

CHAPTER XII.

Lodging at Madrid.—My Hostess.—British Ambassador.—Mendizabal.—Baltazar.—Duties of a National.—Young Blood.—The Execution.—Population of Madrid.—The Higher Orders.—The Lower Classes.—The Bull Fighter.—The Crabbed Gitano . . . . .	236
---	-----

CHAPTER XIII.

Intrigues at Court.—Quesada and Galiano.—Dissolution of the Cortes.—The Secretary.—Aragonese Pertinacity.—The Council of Trent.—The Asturian.—The Three Thieves.—Benedict Mol.—The Men of Lucerne.—The Treasure . . . . .	260
---	-----

CHAPTER XIV.

State of Spain.—Isturitz.—Revolution of the Granja.—The Disturbance.—Signs of Mischief.—Newspaper Reporters.—Quesada's Onslaught.—The Closing Scene.—Flight of the Moderados.—The Coffee Bowl . . . . .	282
---	-----

CHAPTER XV.

	Page
The Steamer.—Cape Finisterre.—The Storm.—Arrival at Cadiz.—The New Testament.—Seville.—Itálica.—The Amphitheatre.—The Prisoners.—The Encounter.—Baron Taylor.—The Street and Desert . . . . .	302

CHAPTER XVI.

Departure for Cordova.—Carmona.—German Colonies.—Language.—The Sluggish Horse.—Nocturnal Welcome.—Carlist Landlord.—Good Advice.—Gomez.—The Old Genoese.—The Two Opinions . . . . .	324
---	-----

CHAPTER XVII.

Cordova.—Moors of Barbary.—The English.—An Old Priest.—The Roman Breviary.—The Dovecote.—The Holy Office.—Judaism.—Desecration of Dovecotes.—The Innkeeper's Proposal . . . . .	345
---	-----

CHAPTER XVIII.

Departure from Cordova.—The Contrabandista.—Jewish Cunning.—Arrival at Madrid . . . . .	365
---	-----