

CONTENTS

OF

THE FIRST VOLUME.

INTRODUCTION.

DORIANS whence derived	P. 1
Nations dwelling on the northern frontiers of Greece	ibid.
Macedonians a branch of the Illyrian nation	2
Mingled with Pelasgi	3
Thessalians also of the Illyrian nation	4
But strongly resembled the Greeks	5
Pelasgi driven out of Epirus by the Illyrians	6
Phrygians at the foot of mount Bermius	8
Allied to the Armenians	9
Thracians at the foot of Olympus and Helicon	10
Pæonians and Pelagonians incorporated with them	11
Origin of the Hellenes, Achæans, Minyans, Ionians, and Dorians	12
Hylleans in Illyria	13
An imaginary nation	14
Ancient diffusion of the Pelasgi	15
Their religion different from those of Phrygia, Thrace, Phœ- nicia and Egypt	16
And from that of the Hellenes	17
Changes in the Greek language	18

BOOK I.

HISTORY OF THE DORIC RACE, FROM THE EARLIEST TIMES TO THE END OF THE PELOPONNESIAN WAR.

CHAP. I.

Account of the Dorians in Herodotus	21
Examined	22
Mount Olympus the first settlement of the Dorians	23

b 2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Müller

Table of Contents

More information

xx

CONTENTS.

Description of Thessaly	23
Valley of the Peneus	24
Roads from Thessaly to northern Greece	25
Towns in the valley of the Peneus	28
Perrhæbian nation	30
Nation of the Lapithæ	31
Original territory of the Dorians	32
Described in Hesiod's poem of Ægimius	33
Subject of the poem	34
Migration of the Dorians from mount Olympus to Crete	36
Minos of Cnosus a Dorian	38
Expulsion of the Cadmeans from Thebes	39
Dorians not identical with the Macedonians	40

CHAP. II.

Migration of the Dorians to the Doric Tetrapolis	41
Description of the valley of the Cephissus	ibid.
Doris	42
Mount Ceta	43
Thermopylæ	44
Extent of the Doric territory	46
The Dryopians of Pelasgic origin	47
Their expulsion and flight to the Peloponnese	48
Hostile to the Dorians	49
The Malians in the valley of the Spercheus	50
The Ænians, or CEtæans	51
Colonies of the Doric cities near Parnassus	52

CHAP. III.

Migration of the Dorians into the Peloponnese	ibid.
Called the return of the Heraclidæ	53
Supposed Achæan extraction of the Heraclidæ	54
Examination of this statement	55
Heraclidæ of Doric origin	57
Fabulous character of the expedition of the Heraclidæ	ibid.
Not related by the epic poets	58
Developed by the tragic poets of Athens	59
Traditions respecting the Doric conquest of Messene	60
And the presence of Hyllus in Laconia	61
Common tradition. Heraclidæ fly from Trachis to Attica	ibid.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Müller

Table of Contents

More informationCONTENTS. xxi

Battle of the Heraclidæ and Athenians against Eurystheus	62
Connexion between the Dorians and northern part of Attica	64
Expeditions of the Heraclidæ into the Peloponnese	65
Heraclidæ deceived by an oracle and conquered at the Isthmus	66
Supposed junction of the Dorians and Heraclidæ	67
The Heraclidæ penetrate into the Peloponnese by Rhium	68
Traditional account of the connexion between the Dorians and Ætolians	70
Tisamenus and the Peloponnesians defeated by the Dorians	71
Supposed partition of the Peloponnese	72
The Achæans retire to the north of the Peloponnese, and compel the Ionians to cross over to Attica	74
Migrations of the Achæans	75

CHAP. IV.

Peculiar form and character of the Grecian territory	75
Mountain chains of the Peloponnese	76
Geographical structure of Arcadia	77
Of Laconia	ibid.
Of Argolis	81
Of Achaia	83
Of Elis	ibid.
Changes in the surface of the soil	84
Great exertions used to drain the country	85
Country first cultivated by the Leleges and Pelasgi	86
Who always formed the agricultural classes	ibid.
Numbers of the Doric invaders	87
Dorians carried with them their wives and children	88
Military tactics of the Dorians	89

CHAP. V.

Mycenæ ancient metropolis of Argolis	90
Capture of Argos by the Dorians	91
Sicyon conquered from Argos	ibid.
Phlius conquered from Sicyon	92
Cleonæ from Argos	93
The Actè reduced by Deiphontes and Agæus	ibid.
Dorians expel the Ionians from Epidaurus	94

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Muller

Table of Contents

More information

xxii

CONTENTS.

And afterwards reduce Ægina and Trœzen	94
Mycenæ and Tiryns remained independent till the Persian war	96
Inhabitants of Orneæ degraded to the rank of Periceci	ibid.
Ancient homage paid by the towns of the Actè to Argos	97
Territory of the Dryopians in Argolis	ibid.
Traditions respecting the reduction of Corinth by the Dorians	98
Ancient inhabitants of Corinth	99
Traditions respecting the reduction of Megara by the Dorians	102
Which had previously belonged to Attica	103
Laconia conquered by the Dorians under Aristodemus	104
Its gradual reduction. Resistance of Amyclæ	105
Unimportance of Sparta before the Doric conquest	107
Position of the Lacedæmon of Homer	108
Other towns retained by the Achæans some time after the Doric invasion	109
Territorial division of Laconia	110
Traditions respecting Eurysthenes and Procles	111
Pylos the chief town of Messenia before the Doric invasion	113
Dorians first settle in the plain of Stenyclerus	ibid.
Political state of Messenia	114
Triple alliance of Argos, Sparta, and Messenia	116

CHAP. VI.

Doric colonies of Argos, Epidaurus, and Trœzen, on the south-west coast of Asia Minor	118
Doric league of Asia Minor	120
Other Doric colonies in Asia Minor	121
Fabulous account of the foundation of Halicarnassus	123
Tlepolemus of Argos, the fabulous founder of Rhodes	124
Antiphus and Phidippus, the fabulous founders of Cos, Nisyru, Carpathus, and Casos	125
Colonies of the Rhodians	127
Fables respecting the founding of Mallus, Mopsuestia, Mopsucrene, and Phaselis	129
Colonies of Corinth	132
Molycreium, Syracuse,	133
Chalcis, Solium, Ambracia,	135

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Muller

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxiii

Anactorium, Leucadia, Corcyra, Epidamnus, . . .	136
Apollonia, and Potidæa	137
Colonies of Megara: Astæus, Chalcedon, Byzantium, . . .	138
Hybla,	140
Trogilus, Thapsos, and Selinus	141
Colonies of Sparta	ibid.
Thera, Melos, Gortyna, Cyrene, Cnidos (whence Syme, . . .	142
Lipara, and Black-Corcyra,) Phrygia, Pisidia, Cyprus, . . .
Selge	143
Tarentum	144
Crotona, Locri,	145
And Lyctus	146

CHAP. VII.

Sources of information on the early history of the Peloponnese	147
Quoit of Iphitus	148
Lists of conquerors at the Olympic and Carnean games, register at Sicyon, catalogues of the priestesses of Juno, public registers at Sparta	149
Which last contained a list of the kings	150
But not the name of Lycurgus	151
Registers of Corinth	152
And Elis. Rhetras of Sparta	153
Nature of these rhetras	154
"Οροι or landmarks	155
Other sources; the lyric poets, oral tradition and political institutions	156
Erroneous manner in which Ephorus, Hermippus, &c. treated these materials of history	157
Lycurgus, no trace of his individual existence	ibid.
How represented in tradition	ibid.
His share in founding the Olympic festival and sacred armistice, as representative of the Doric race	158
Object of the Olympic festival	160
Messenian wars. Tyrtaeus the chief authority	161
Traditions relating to them	162
Reestablishment of the Messenian state awakened an interest about the Messenian wars	163
Works of Rhianus and Myron	164

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Müller

Table of Contents

More information

xxiv

CONTENTS.

Date of the first Messenian war	166
Events of this war	167
Foundation of Rhegium and Tarentum	169
Second Messenian war	170
Eleans, Argives, Arcadians, and Pisatans assist the Messenians	171
Lacedæmonians assisted by Tyrtæus of Aphidnæ	172
The Messenians dislodged	173
Influence in Arcadia obtained by the Spartans	174
Limited ascendancy of Argos in Argolis	175
Disputes with Lacedæmon	176
History of Pheidon of Argos	177
His conquests	178
His coinage of silver money	179
Renewal of the disputes with Lacedæmon. Battle of the three hundred	180
Presidency of the Nemean games obtained and lost by the Argives	181

CHAP. VIII.

The Doric principles of government opposed to despotic power	182
Dynasty of Orthagoras at Sicyon	183
Reign of Myron	184
Reign and measures of Cleisthenes	185
His character	186
Tyranny overthrown by Sparta	187
Dynasty of Cypselus at Corinth	ibid.
Policy of Cypselus and Periander	189
Succeeded by Psammetichus, who is dethroned by the Spartans	191
Procles tyrant of Epidaurus and Ægina	192
Theagenes tyrant of Megara	ibid.
Enmity of Sparta to the tyrants	194
Expedition against Polycrates of Samos	195
Expedition of Cleomenes against Argos	196
Defeat of the Argives and rule of the slaves	197
Measures of the Argives to restore the strength of their chief city	198
Contests between Athens and Megara	200

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Muller

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxv

CHAP. IX.

Sparta the head of the Peloponnesian confederacy. Its members and their order of precedence	202
The Achæans and Argives excepted	203
Allied army commanded by a Spartan king	204
Mode of levying and provisioning the army	205
Congress of the allies	206
Its powers did not extend to the internal affairs of the states	207
Acknowledged supremacy of Sparta	208
Hellenic league in the Peloponnesian war	209
Sparta withdraws from the command of the allied army	210
Ionia never perfectly recovered by Athens from the power of Persia	211
Internal wars of the Peloponnesians	213
Revolt of the Helots; third Messenian war	214
Siege of Ithome	215
Expulsion of the Messenians from the Peloponnesians	216
Dissolution of the league between Sparta and Athens	ibid.
Battles of Tanagra and Cœnophyta	217
Five years' truce. Invasion of Attica. Thirty years' truce	218
Policy of Athens and Sparta compared	219
Indirect attack of Athens on the Peloponnesian league by means of the colonial law	220
Opposite principles of the contending parties in the Peloponnesian war	221
Its evil effects on Sparta	224

BOOK II.

RELIGION AND MYTHOLOGY OF THE DORIANS.

CHAP. I.

Apollo and Diana the principal deities of the Doric race	227
Apollo not a national deity of the Pelasgi	228
Nor of the half-Grecian, Etruscan, or Roman nations	229
His temple on Olympus an altar in Tempe	230
Daphnephoria, route of the sacred festival	231
Symbolical representation at Pheræ	232

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Muller

Table of Contents

More information

xxvi

CONTENTS.

Establishment of the worship of Apollo at Delphi . . .	233
In Crete	234
At Delos	237
History of Crissa, or Cirrha	238
Population of Delphi	240
Privileges of the Delphian nobles	ibid.
The Delphian worship probably established by an union of Dorians from mount Parnassus and Cretaus . . .	241
Opposition made to the establishment of this worship . . .	242

CHAP. II.

Propagation of the worship of Apollo from the shores of Crete	243
In Lycia	244
Temples of Apollo at Xanthus, Patara, And Corycus in Cilicia	245
Worship and temples of Apollo in the Troad	247
Derived from Crete	249
Hereditary worship of Apollo in different Trojan families. The Panthoidæ. Æneadæ	250
Reign of the Æneadæ at Gergis	251
Temple of Apollo at Cume in Campania. Traditionary landing of Æneas. Prophecies respecting the worship of Apollo in Æolia transferred to Rome	252
Temples of Apollo in Thrace; at Ismarus and Deræa	ibid.
Temples at Miletus. The Didymæum	253
Branchidæ	254
Clarian Apollo	255
Other temples in Asia Minor	256
Worship established at Trœzen; at Tænarum	257
At Megara; Apollo Decatephorus	258
In Attica at Thoricus	259
Attic legends respecting Apollo. Fable of Cephalus and Procris. Its ancient meaning	260
And subsequent perversion	261
Worship and temples of Apollo in Bœotia	262
Tegyra the birth place of Apollo. Identity of the Bœo- tian and Delphian worship of Apollo	263
The worship of Apollo of recent introduction at Thebes . . .	264

CONTENTS.

xxvii

Introduction into Attica cotemporary with the arrival of the Ionians	265
Change in the Attic mythology with the reign of Ion. Prevalence of the worship of Minerva anterior to that time	266
Connexion of Ion with Delphi. Pythium at Cœnoë	267
Pythian lightnings	268
Explanation of the tradition of the murder of Androgeus, and the tribute sent from Athens to Crete	269
Voyage of Theseus	270
The worship of Apollo πατρῶος confined to the families of Eupatridæ before the timocracy of Solon	272
Distortion of the fable of Ion and Xanthus by Euripides, in his tragedy of Ion	274

CHAP. III.

Worship of Apollo diffused through the Peloponnese by the Doric migration	276
Apollo invoked as leader and founder by the Dorians. Delos	278
Apollo introduced by the Dorians at the Olympic festival	279
Olympic games regulated by the Pythian cycle	281
After the Doric migration Apollo considered the national deity of the Greeks	282
Subjects of the temple at Delphi employed in cultivating the soil; same class at Crete	283
How obtained	284
The Dryopes sent out as colonists by Apollo	285
Sacred colony of the Magnesians, who found Magnesia in Crete	286
Worship of Apollo in Magnesia	287
Migrations of the Ænians	288
Amphictyonic council at Thermopylæ	289
Worship of Apollo established by the Doric colonies at the Triopian festival	290
Founding of Crotona and Metapontum; influence of the Delphian oracle in early times	292
Instrumentality of the worship of Apollo in founding various colonies on the coasts of the Mediterranean, e. g., Naxos, Apollonia, Cyrene	293

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Muller

Table of Contents

More information

xxviii

CONTENTS.

CHAP. IV.

Fable of the Hyperboreans connected with the ancient worship of Apollo	294
Temple of Delphi. Hymn of Alcæus	295
Fable of the return of Apollo from the Hyperboreans	296
Similar tradition of Delos	298
Sacred missions from the Hyperboreans to Delos	299
Supposed locality of the Hyperborean nation	300
Connexion with the Scythians. Accounts of Aristæas and Damastes	301
Hyperboreans always supposed to dwell in the north	302
Exempt from trouble, sickness, and death	303
Their festivals	304

CHAP. V.

The Apollo of Tempe, Delphi, Delos, Crete, Lycia, Troy, and Athens, the same deity	305
Apollo Nomius of Arcadia rightly distinguished from the preceding	306
Aristæus considered in Arcadia as identical with Apollo	307
Apollo the father of Æsculapius likewise a distinct deity	ibid.
Reasons for supposing Apollo to be an elementary deity, or god of the sun	309
Examined and rejected	310
Origin of this idea	311
Adopted by Euripides and Callimachus	312
Rites of Apollo unlike those of an elementary religion	313

CHAP. VI.

Apollo as represented by Homer, friendly to the Trojans, hostile to the Greeks	314
Always mentioned with reverence	315
Apollo the avenger, never destroys but for the purpose of inflicting punishment	317
Benevolent attributes of Apollo	318
The god Παιήων	319
Name transferred to the hymn and then to the singers	320
Double derivation of the name	321
Apollo Agyieus	ibid.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Müller

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxix

Resemblance of his statue to the Hermes of the Athenians	322
Derivation of the name Apollo	323
Of Phœbus	324
Explanation of Apollo Lyceus	325
Tradition of wolves connected with this epithet	ibid.
Derivation of the name from λύκη , light	326
Jupiter Lycæus in Arcadia	328
Divine attributes of Apollo	329

CHAP. VII.

Jupiter and Apollo originally the only two male deities of the Dorians	330
The latter deity alone connected with mankind	331
Birth of Apollo	ibid.
Delian tradition	332
Sanctity of the island	334
Battle with the Python	336
Apollo sings the Pythian strain	337
Festival in commemoration of the event	338
Bondage of Apollo	ibid.
Explanation of the fable of Apollo and Admetus	339
Combat with Tityus	341
Assumption of the oracular power	342

CHAP. VIII.

Bloodless offerings to Apollo	343
Origin of the rites of expiation and purification	344
Expiatory festivals	345
Peace offerings at Sicyon and Athens	346
Order and connexion of the festivals	347—50
Expiations for homicide	351
At Athens intrusted to the criminal courts of justice	352
Original constitution and change in those courts	353
Proceedings in cases of homicide	ibid.
Purification of houses, towns, and districts	355
Use of the laurel explained	356
Prophetic character of Apollo explained	357
Why the delivery of the oracle was intrusted to a female	358

CONTENTS.

Manner of delivery. Oracle tempted by Cræsus . . .	359
Various modes of divination	360
Use of music in the worship of Apollo	361
Not connected with the Muses	362
Apollo represented with the harp	ibid.
Explained	363
The flute excluded in early times from the worship of Apollo	364
Contest with Linus explained	366
Ancient plaintive songs	367
Ancient hymns in honour of Apollo	368
By whom composed	369
The pæan, hyporchema	370
Religious dances, whence introduced	371
Hyacinthia and Carnea	373
Tradition of Hyacinthus	374
Character of Apollo illustrated from his statues	375
Original form of the statues	376
Style of the Cretan school	377
Apollo of Canachus	379
Colossal statues of Calamis and Onates	380
School of Polyclethus and Myron	ibid.
Form of Apollo changed by the school of Scopas, Leo- chares, Praxiteles, and Timarchides	381
Apollo Belvedere	ibid.
Apollo ἀσπανάμενος, of the Lyceum, Citharædus	382
Influence of the worship of Apollo on the political affairs of Greece	ibid.
Its connexion with the Pythagorean philosophy	383

CHAP. IX.

Perplexed character of the worship of Diana	385
The Diana connected with Apollo distinct from the other goddesses of that name	386
Her attributes	387
Identical with those of Apollo	389
Arcadian Diana different from Diana the sister of Apollo	390
Received many epithets from natural objects	391
Fable of the Alpheus and Arethusa ; explained	393

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Müller

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS. xxxi

Attributes of the Peloponnesian Diana	395
Protectress and enemy of animals	396
Attic worship of Diana	397
Diana Orthia, or Iphigenia	ibid.
Worshipped at Sparta	398
Identity of Iphigenia and Diana of Tauria	399
Mystical worship of the Taurian Diana	402
The Asiatic Diana distinct both from the Doric and Arca- dian goddesses	403
Worship and symbols of the Ephesian Diana	ibid.
Supposed to have been founded by the Amazons	404
The Amazons imagined from the sight of the ἱερόδουλοι	405
Country of the Amazons	406
Diana Leucophryne, Diana of Sipylus, and of Perge	407

CHAP. X.

Doric worship of Jupiter of no consideration	409
Worship of Juno at Argos	ibid.
Epidaurus, Ægina, Byzantium, and Corcyra	410
Worship of Minerva in Argolis, Sparta, Corinth	411
Carried from Lindus to Gela	412
Worship of Ceres depressed by the Dorians	413
Triopian worship of Ceres	414
Introduced into Sicily	415
Causes of its importance at Syracuse and Enna	416
Celebrated by the subject classes of Laconia	417
Worship of Neptune not prevalent among the Dorians	ibid.
Worship of Bacchus gradually introduced into some Doric states	418
Tragedy connected with the dithyrambic choruses of Bac- chus	419
Worship of Venus at Corinth, Sicyon	420
Cythera, Cnidos, Halicarnassus, Trœzen, Selinus, and Eryx	421
Mercury, Vulcan, and Mars not generally worshipped in any Doric state	ibid.
Worship of Æsculapius derived from Epidaurus	ibid.
Worship of the Graces and Cupid in Crete and Sparta	422
The Dioscuri	ibid.
Origin of their worship at Sparta	423
Character of the Doric religion	424

CHAP. XI.

Hercules the progenitor of the Doric Heraclidæ . . .	425
Doric legends respecting Hercules. Taking of Œchalia .	426
Situation of Œchalia	427
Servitude of Hercules	429
Second settlement of the Dorians. Hercules at Trachis, &c.	431
His conquest of Ephyra	433
Legend of Pluto	434
Legends respecting Tlepolemus, Antiphus, and Phidippus	ibid.
Fable of Geryoneus	435
Legends respecting Hercules in the neighbourhood of Thermypolæ	437
Theban Hercules unconnected with the Theban gods and princes	439
Situation of his temple	440
Robbery of the Delphian tripod symbolical of the propa- gation of the worship of Apollo	441
Other Bœotian legends of Hercules	442
His education	443
Murder of his children and atonement	444
Attic worship of Hercules	445
Derived from the Dorians	446
Traditions of Aphidna, Decelea, and Titacidæ	447

CHAP. XII.

Peloponnesian mythology of Hercules. A native Argive hero confounded with the father of the Doric Hyllus .	448
Adventures of Hercules. His combat with the Nemean lion	449
And the Lernæan hydra, inconsistent with the early ac- counts of his dress	450
Warlike exploits of Hercules symbolical of the contests of the Dorians	451
His establishment of the Olympic games	452
Difficulty of explaining the subjects of mythology	454
Worship of Hercules carried from Sparta to Tarentum and Crotona	455

CONTENTS. xxxiii

Coan fable of Hercules	456
Hercules introduced into the Lydian mythology	ibid.
Fable of Hylas	457
Hercules represented as the protector of Greece against the Barbarians	458
Fable of Busiris	ibid.
Identification of Hercules and Melcart	459
Human character of Hercules	460
His beneficent attributes	461
His joviality	462
Story of the Cercopes	463
Sports at the Attic festival of Hercules	464

APPENDIX I.

Rivers of Macedonia falling into the Thermaic bay	467
Mountain chains of northern Greece	469
Districts of the north-east of Greece: Mygdonia	470
Bisaltia, Crestonica, Bottiaïs	471
Macedonis, Pieria	472
Elimeia	473
Parauæa, Paroræa, Stymp hæa, the Atintanes, the Orestæ	474
Almopia, Lyncestis	475
The Eordians, Deuriopus	476
Pelagonia, Pæonia and the city of Doberus	477
Notice of Macedonian history by Thucydides	478
Founders of the Macedonian empire only a part of the Macedonian people	479
Macedonia a national appellation, before the arrival of the Temenidæ	ibid.
First seat of the Temenidæ	480
Their gradual conquests	481
Macedonia restricted by Herodotus to the original terri- tory of the Macedonians	484
Four races in the north of Greece: the Thracians	488
Pæonians, Illyrians, and Greeks	489
The Macedonians were not Greeks	490
Nor Pæonians	491
Situation of Emathia	492
Macedonians anciently dwelt at the foot of Pindus	493
Strabo's account of the nations of Epirus	494

He does not distinguish the Illyrians from the Epirots	. 496
Costume and dialect of the Illyrians and Macedonians	.
alike	. 497
The Macedonians belonged to the Illyrian race	. 499
The Macedonians incorporated the Pelasgic inhabitants of
Emathia	. ibid.
And the Phrygians of mount Bermius	. 500
Expelled the Bottiæans and Almopians	. 501
And reduced the Eordi and Bisaltæ	. ibid.
Three eras in the history of the Macedonians	. 502
Their religion	. 503
Difference between the customs of the Macedonians and
Thracians	. 504
Military disposition of the Macedonians. Changes in their language	. 505
Originally akin to the Illyrian, but afterwards adopted
many Greek words	. 506

APPENDIX II.

Fondness of the Greek mythologists for genealogies	. 509
Genealogy of Hellen	. 510
Invented after the use of Hellenes as a national appellative	511
Perhaps owed its origin to the Delphian oracle	. 512

APPENDIX III.

If Cnosus had been colonized from Argos or Sparta, the memory of this event would not have been lost	. 513
Dorians in Crete were not considered as a colony of the
Dorians in the Peloponnese	. 514

APPENDIX IV.

Chronology of the Persian war	. 515
Herodotus' account of the Greek congress before the battle of Thermopylæ	. 516
Congress formed before the arrival of the Persian envoys	517
Place of its sittings. Its measures during the war	. 518
Treaty between the Greek states after the battle of Plataea	520
Congress at Sparta after the war	. 521
Supremacy of Sparta overthrown	. 522

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01109-9 - History and Antiquities of the Doric Race, Volume 1

Carl Otfried Muller

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxxv

APPENDIX V.

Work of Plutarch on Hercules	523
Fragments of the Heraclea of Herodorus	524
His style of criticism	527
Fragments of Pherecydes relating to Hercules	ibid.
Similar fragments from the Ἱστορίαι of Hellanicus	530
And from Hecataeus	531
Epic Ἡρακλεία of Panyasis	532
Geryonis of Stesichorus	535
Metrical Ἡρακλεία of Peisander	537
Ἡρακλεία of Cinæthon	539
Hesiodean poems on the mythology of Hercules : Theogony	ibid.
Ἡοῖαι	540
Shield of Hercules	541
Marriage of Ceyx	542
And Ægimius	543
Ἡρακλείαι before the Iliad	ibid.