

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Abdul Hassan, Vizier of Jehanghir, inimical to Captain Hawkins, 405; his treatment of Hawkins, 412
- Abrohlos, on the Brazilian coast, 171
- Adecia (Adexe) port in Teneriffe, 11
- Agra, Captain W. Hawkins arrives at, xiv, 399; departs from, 416
- Aguja, Punta de, on the coast of Peru, 261
- Akbar, Emperor of India, rebellion of his son Selim, 427; his tomb, 444
- Albatross, 187, 188
- Albuquerque, Don Beltran de la Cueva, Duke of, 339
- Alcatrassa island, 15, 152
- Algiers, expedition of Sir W. Hawkins against, xxxix
- Alligators, in Rio de la Hacha, account of, 40, 41; in the Guayaquil river, 263
- Alverstoake, a house at, called Pryvett, belonging to Sir R. Hawkins, xxxix, xlix
- Ambergris, 155, 156
- Anchors, buoying of, 198; loss of, 214; repair of, 214; substitute for an eye of, 215; used in the South Sea, 234
- Anne of Austria, 118
- Anthony, William, 106
- Aquines (see Hawkins, Rd.)
- Araucana of Ercilla, 229 (n.)
- Araucanian Indians, 227, 228, 229; valour of, 242
- Arequipa, 254
- Arica, 240, 251, 341, 344
- "Ark Royal", in danger from bad caulking, 115 (see Fleet)
- Armada (Spanish), defeat of, xiv, 162, 222
- Armour, use of on board ship, 303, 304
- Arrows, use in muskets, 322
- Artillery, first in the South Sea, brought over land, 234; overcharging of guns, 252, 253; question as to length of ordnance, 277; direction of shot, 286; use after boarding, 293; comparison between guns of "Dainty" and Spanish ships, 300; use of short arrows for muskets, 322
- "Ascension" wrecked near Surat, 406; some of the crew come to Hawkins at Agra, 405
- Atacames bay, xxvi; taste of brimstone in water of the river at, 147; account of, 265 (n.); settlement of, 267 (n.)
- Azores (see Flores, Corvo, Terceira)
- Bahia, 144 (n.)
- Baker, Mr., master shipwright, enemy of Sir J. Hawkins, xiii
- Baldivia (see Valdivia)
- Balparaiso (see Valparaiso)
- Banana (see Plantain)
- Bantam, 391
- Bark (see Winter's Bark)
- "Bear" (see Fleet)
- Beef, salt, 226
- Berehaven, arrival of J. Davis at, xxv
- Bethencourt, Jean de, discoverer of the Canary Isles, 125
- Bethune, Admiral C. R. Drinkwater, C.B., editor of the first edition, i
- Bezoar stone, 156
- Birds, like a swan, caught with hook and line, 187; abundance in Magellan's Strait, 187, 192 (see Albatross, Ducks, Gannets, Gulls, Penguins)
- Blackcoller, pilot in Fenton's voyage, nearly left behind, 354; unwilling to return, 357
- Blanch, Wm., master's mate with Sir Rd. Hawkins, xxv (n.), 200; fires a shot which carries away the mainmast of the Spanish Vice-Admiral, 299
- Blanches Bay, in Magellan's Strait, 200, 211
- Blanco, Cape, 14 (Fishery), 125, 126
- Boarding, question as to, 222; Spanish attempts at, 283, 284, 345; policy in resistance of, 286; use of artillery after, 293

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

444

INDEX.

- Boatswain, duties of, 275
 Boa Vista, one of the Cape de Verdes, sighted in Fenton's voyage, 353; sighted by Wm. Hawkins, 365
 Bonitoes, 61, 148; account of, 149
 "Bonner", ship in the voyage of W. Hawkins, senior, 212
 Bontemps, Captain of the "Green Dragon", 25 (see Green Dragon)
 Borough, Wm., work on variation of compass, 183
 Borowe, Mr., quoted by Sir J. Hawkins, xiii
 Borrow, Sir John, 93
 Bramport, Capt. W. Hawkins arrives at, 399
 Brava Isle, Cape Verdes, account of, 131
 Brazil, voyage of W. Hawkins to, i, 3; visit of a King of, to London, 4; Rd. Hawkins approaching coast of, 143; Indians of, look out kept by, 172; customs of Indians, 180, 181, 182; sighted by Wm. Hawkins, 366
 Brimstone, taste of in water, 147
 Bronfield, Mr., adventurer in J. Hawkins's second voyage, 5
 Buccaneers, coast of Quito frequented by, xxvi
 Buck, Francis, merchant sent to Surat by Captain Hawkins, 389
 Burburata, 30
 Burleigh, Lord (see Cecil)
 Burney, Admiral, notice of the voyage of Sir Richard Hawkins in work of, xli
 Bymba, Negro town, 21
 Cabo de la Vela, 37
 "Cacafuego", Drake's great prize, xxvi
 Cacao, 178
 Cæsar, Sir Julius, correspondence with Sir J. Hawkins, xiii
 Caicos bank, 7
 Callao, 258, 338; put in a posture of defence, 339; English prisoner to be sent to, 346
 Callowsa river, 21
 Cambay, "Mocreb Chan", Viceroy of, 390 (whom see)
 Canaries, voyages of John Hawkins to, 5; Richard Hawkins at, 123; account of, 123; sighted in Fenton's voyage, 353 (see Ferro, Gomera, Tenerife)
 Candish, Master J., ship of, capsized in the Thames, 96; complaint of sailors, 110; his men killed by Indians, 171; deserted by his consort, 185, 212; one of his pinnaces grounded, 199; his voyage round the world, 336, 337
 Cañete, Marquis of, Viceroy of Peru, xxvii; life of, xxviii; notice of, 255 (n.); news of Hawkins brought to, 338; preparations for the defence of Callao by, 338; sayings of, 340; inspects the fleet, 340; further news of Hawkins received by, 341; further preparations by, 341
 Cañete, Spanish and English fleets off, 256
 Cannibals (see Carribs)
 Capitulation "de buena guerra", 311, 320, 321
 Captains (see Commanders)
 Cardenas, Don Francisco de, President of Panama, 346
 Carlet, David, captain of the "Minion", 8, 35
 Carpenter of a ship, duties, 275
 Carribs of Dominica, 25; their cruelty, 29
 Cartagena, 73
 Cassava bread, 176, 177
 Casseroes, river of, 23
 Castro, Don Beltran de la Cueva de, his honour compromised by the detention of Richard Hawkins, xx, xxvii, xxx, xxxi, xxxii, 226, 235, 279; receives the surrender of the "Dainty", 310; his family, 311 (n.); kindness to Rd. Hawkins, 312; promises to give lives and good treatment to officers and crew of "Dainty", and to send all home, 311; kindness to sick and wounded, 316; his conversations with Rd. Hawkins, 321; named to command the fleet, 339; in sight of the English fleet, 342; return to Callao, 342; arrival at Lima, 346; Philip II on his victory, 348
 ——— Doña Teresa de, Vice-Queen of Peru, 235
 ——— Cardinal Rodrigo de, 328; account of, 328 (n.)
 Cattle, abundance in Curaçoa, 36
 Catwater, 106, 119
 Caulking, of "Dainty", 114, 200; fire caused by negligence, in, 114
 Cecil, Secretary, letter of Sir J. Hawkins to, on return from third voyage, vii; correspondence of, disproves accusation against Sir J. Hawkins, ix, x (n.); submission of official reports, etc., to, by Sir J. Hawkins, xiii, xiv; letters to, respecting the imprisonment of Sir R. Hawkins, xxxii

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

INDEX.

445

- Cecil, Sir Robert, expected visit of, to Sir Rd. Hawkins's ship, 94
- "Chanchana", Viceroy of the Deccan, 390, 397; visit of Captain Hawkins to, 399
- Charles V, anecdote of, 221
- Chasquis, or messengers, sent over Peru with tidings of the appearance of Rd. Hawkins's ship, 338
- "Chatham, chest at", forerunner of Greenwich Hospital, xv
- Chester, John, in J. Hawkins's second voyage, 64
- Chilca, xxv, 255
- Chile, people of, 229; Richard Hawkins on the coast of, 225-235; Cavendish on coast of, 336
- Chincha, Rd. Hawkins off, 342
- Cockeram, Martin, left a hostage in Brazil, 3
- Cocoa nut trees, account of, 132
- Commander of a fleet, qualifications of, 100, 276; against covetousness in, 244; how far he may trust his officers, 271; should periodically hold surveys on stores and provisions, 273; must keep station, 289
- Compass, variation of, 183
- Concepcion in Chile, 231
- Contreras, Captain Juan, 235
- Cooke, Richard, messenger of Sir R. Hawkins, xxxii
- Coquimbo in Chile, 237
- Cordova, Don Fernando de, with a squadron at Panama, news of R. Hawkins sent to, 338
- Cornish, Hugh, master of the "Dainty", xxv(n.), 106; a good officer, 235; one eye and half his face shot away, 294
- Corvo Isle, 288
- Couston, Henry, xxv (n.), 106, 218; slain, 294
- Crabby Cove in Magellan Strait, 210
- Crocodiles (see Alligators)
- Cuba, J. Hawkins off the coast of, 46
- Cueva, Don Francisco de la, a volunteer in the Spanish fleet, 339
- Cumberland, Earl of, 93, 213; notice of, 109 (n.)
- Curacao Island, 36
- Currents in the West Indies, force of, 43, 44, 45; off Florida, 49; effects of, 134, 135; observations of, 136, 137
- Cuzco visited by Captain Ellis, xxx
- "Dainty", name given by Queen Elizabeth to ship of Richard Hawkins, xxiii, xxv, 93; weighs and goes down the Thames, 95; at Harwich, 97; Portland, 98; Dartmouth, 104; Plymouth, 105; to be brought into Catwater, 106; loss of mainmast, 107; sails from Plymouth, 112; bad caulking of, 114; routine on board, 126; morning and evening prayers on board, 134; in danger on Brazilian coast, 164; prize taken by, 176; caulked in Magellan's Straits, 200; on a rock in the Straits, 208; got off with the flood, 209; loss of one of her boats, 231; prepared to fight Spanish fleet, 257; in Atacames Bay, 266; action with Spanish fleet, 271 to 283; neglect of the gunner, 272; crew of seventy-five men and boys, 278; finer ship than the karrak she took in 1592, 288; resolution of her officers to fight it out, 299; surrender, 310, 345; mainmast falls by the board, 312; in a sinking state, 313; saved and repaired, 313; name changed at Panama, 328; falls on one side, 328; tonnage, 346
- Daman, 396, 397
- Dampier, Capt., frequents the coast of Quito, xxvi
- Davis, John, discovery of the Falkland Islands, xxv
- Deacon, A., messenger of Sir Rd. Hawkins, xxxii
- Deliza (Delishi), port of Socotra, 385
- Deptford, Church of St. Nicholas, monument to Wm. Hawkins, xlii; monument to Capt. Fenton, xlv (n.)
- Desertion, 184, 185, 186
- Desire, Cape (now Pillar), 219, 223
- Discipline at sea, neglect of, 99; among the Spaniards, 279, 282
- Diu, 386
- Dockyards, abuses in, exposed by John Hawkins, xiii
- Dolphins, 61; account of, 148
- Dominica Island, 25, 72
- Dover Harbour, project for improving, xiii
- "Dragon", E.I.C. ship, in company with the "Hector" (Capt. W. Hawkins), 364
- Drake, Sir Francis, birth and early life, vi; first serves with J. Hawkins, vi; his last voyage with Sir John Hawkins, xvi; ship of, capsize at St. Domingo, 96; sacks Santiago, 130; information to Rd. Hawkins as to the navigation of Magellan's Straits, 224; reaches the south point of Tierra del Fuego, 224; at Mocha Island, 227; voyage wherein he died, 236; passes

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

446

INDEX.

- Magellan's Straits, 333; in the South Seas, 334; voyage round the world, 334
- Duckett, Sir Lionel, adventurer in Hawkins's first voyage, 5
- Ducks, 195
- East India Company, negotiations between Sir Rd. Hawkins and, xxxviii
- "Edward Cotton", a ship lost on the Brazilian coast, from error in reckoning, 135
- Elephants, 424, 425, 429
- Elizabeth, Queen, her remark on report of Sir John Hawkins, xv; furnished ships for the last voyage of Sir J. Hawkins, xvi; letter of Sir Rd. Hawkins to, xxxii; christens the "Dainty", 93, xxxiii; contributed two ships to Fenton's voyage, xliii
- "Elizabeth" of London, Captain Walters, 121
- "Elizabeth Jones" (see Fleet)
- Elizabeth Island in Magellan's Straits, 199
- Ellis, Captain John, 106; his account of the discovery of Hawkins's Maiden Land, xxv; his journey to Cuzco, xxx
- Encinel, a Biscayan in Spanish Admiral's ship, his heroic conduct, 347
- English Bay in Magellan's Straits, 207
- Equator (see Line)
- Ercilla, Don Alonzo de, his "Araucana", 229
- Esmeraldas, coast of, 343
- Essex, Earl of, his "Island Voyage", xxxi (n.)
- Evans, Mr., merchant in Fenton's voyage, 354
- Fairweather, Mr., in Fenton's voyage, 354; unwilling to return, 357
- Falkland Islands, question of discovery, xxv
- "Fancy", pinnace of Sir Rd. Hawkins, xxv, 107; takes a prize, 170; master of deserts Hawkins, 184; instructions to, 198
- Furnambuca (see Pernambuco)
- Fenton, Captain Edward, notice of, xlii; absurd instructions to, xliii; death, xliv (n.); cause of the failure of his voyage, 212; journal of his voyage, 353, 363; accused of an intention to break off the voyage, 354; wish to give up the voyage, 357; bears up for St. Vincent, 357; fight with a Spanish fleet, 358; arrives at Kinsale, 360; his violent abuse of William Hawkins, 360, 361, 362
- Ferro Island, tree dropping water, 13, 124
- Ferroll, J. Hawkins at, in the 2nd voyage, 9
- Figuroa, Dr. Don Christobal Suarez de, his life of the Marquis of Cañete, his life and writings, xxviii (n.); his account of the sea-fight between Rd. Hawkins and Beltran de Castro, 333
- Field, Captain, of the "Salomon", lost, 22
- Filipon, Don Miguel Angel, second in command of the Spanish fleet, 279, 342; saves and repairs the "Dainty", 313, 346; enquiry by as to use of short arrows by the English, 322; reward of, 348
- Finch, William, lands at Surat with Capt. W. Hawkins, 394; Hawkins entrusts all business at Surat to, 397; letter to, from Hawkins at Agra, 401, 405; determines to go home overland, 412
- Fire on board ship, danger of, 144; causes, 145, 146
- Fishery off Cape Blanco, 14, 126 (see Whales, Pearls)
- Fitzwilliam, Mr., agent of Sir J. Hawkins at Madrid, viii, x (n.); in J. Hawkins's second voyage, 64
- Fleets, order of sailing, 9, 100, 101; importance of giving instructions to ships of, 113; taunt ships better than those low built, "Elizabeth Jones", "Triumph", and "Bear", more formidable than "Ark Royal", or "Victory", 287
- Flemings, fleet of, in Portland Roads, 98
- Flores, isle of, 102, 288
- Florida, 49; John Hawkins on coast of, 51; account of, 52, 53; French colony in, v, 56, 65 to 69; products, 58 to 63; treachery of Spaniards at, 296
- Flying fish, 61, 152
- "Foresight", ship of Captain Vava-sour, 103; finer ship than the carak she took in 1592, fouls the "Rainbow" off Flores, 288
- "Francis", bark, in Fenton's voyage, 353
- Frenchmen in Florida relieved by John Hawkins, 65 to 69; fleet of, sack Santiago, 130
- Frio, Cape, 164, 171
- Frobisher, Sir Martin, xiv, 93
- Froward, Cape, 191, 199, 216
- Fruits, 169; in Peru, 240 (see Oranges, etc.)

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

INDEX.

447

- Fuego (Cape Verdes), account of, 130
- Galapagos Isles, 204
- Gannets, 15; as food, 167, 195
- Garrard, Mr. Anthony, information as to voyages to Brazil, 4
- Gold in Peru, 241; shares of demanded by crew of "Dainty", 243
- Gomera, Island, 70, 125
- Gomez, Captain Andres, in Spanish fleet, question of reward, 349
- Gonson, Benjamin, adventurer in the first voyage of J. Hawkins, iii, 5; father-in-law of Sir J. Hawkins, account of family of, iii (n); Katharine, first wife of Sir John Hawkins, iii
- Granada Island (Grenada), 25
- Gravoner, Stephen, Captain W. Hawkins's boy, died at Agra, 404
- "Great Harrie", 96 (n)
- "Green Dragon" of Newcastle, unable to water at Grenada Island by reason of the cannibals, 25
- Grenville, Sir Richard, his famous action with the Spaniards, 102, 103 (n); man wounded by a shark on board ship of, 151
- Grey, Thomas, servant of Sir Rd. Hawkins, saw water take fire, 146
- Guamanga, Captain Ellis at, xxx
- Guayaquil, men of Candish's ship killed at, 336
- Guayaquil River, 262
- Guinea coast, J. Hawkins off, 6, 15 to 24, 71; unexpectedly sighted by Rd. Hawkins, 134; sighted in Fenton's voyage, 353
- Gulls, 195
- Gunner of the "Dainty", his neglect, 272; suspected of treachery, 273; duties, 275
- Gunston, or Gonson (see Gonson)
- Gujerat merchants, their complaints against trading operations of Capt. W. Hawkins at Surat, 391
- Hacha, Rio de la, 38, 39, 72
- Hakluyt, Richard, his account of Wm. Hawkins (senr.), ii; translation of Laudonniere's work on Florida, v (n); published the narratives of English captives in Mexico, viii
- Hall, Christopher, master of the galleon in Fenton's voyage, 357
- Hampton, Thomas, Capt. of the "Swallow" in first voyage of J. Hawkins, goods confiscated, iv, 6; General of a fleet of rafter, 116
- Hartop, Job, escape from Mexico, his narrative, viii
- Havanna, 47, 48
- Hawkins, Rev. B. D., notice of, li
- Hawkins, Catharine, first wife of Sir John, iii, xviii
- Hawkins, Charles, son of Wm. Hawkins (senior), xlii (n)
- Hawkins, Christopher Stuart, lii
- Hawkins, Giles, xlii (n)
- Hawkins, Joan, daughter of Sir Rd. Hawkins, l
- Hawkins, Sir John, his birth and early voyages, iii; undertakes his first Guinea voyage, iv, 5; second Guinea voyage, v, 8 to 64; his responsibility for slave trade, iv, v; Dr. Lingard's accusation disproved, ix; arms granted to, xi; civil employment, xii; attacks upon, xiii; his activity, xiv; serving against Spanish Armada, pays off the fleet, xiv; his fund for wounded sailors, xv; described by Spenser, xv; his death, xvi; character, xvi; tomb, xvii; his epitaph, xviii; portraits, xx, xxi; Arrangements for keeping company at sea, 9, 101; relieves Frenchmen in Florida, 56, 65-69; treachery of Spaniards to, at San Juan de Ulloa, 76, 77, 162; return, 80, 81; lands part of crew on Mexican coast, 80; voyage in the "Revenge"; takes leave of his son, 95; receives news from his son at Plymouth, 105; forces a Spanish ship to lower her flag at Plymouth, 118; saves his ship from fire, 145; rules as to prizes, 250; chase of a French ship by the "Hope" in the fleet of, 288
- Hawkins, John, eldest son of Sir Rd. Hawkins, xlvii, l; his descendants, l
- Hawkins, Commodore John Croft, notice of, li
- Hawkins, Lady Judith, wife of Sir Richard Hawkins, xxiv; death, xl, xlvii; executrix, xlix
- Hawkins, Katherine (see Catharine)
- Hawkins, Lady Margaret, second wife of Sir John Hawkins, xiv, xvi, xvii; christens her step-son's ship, 90; her family, xiv, 90 (n); her epitaph to herself and husband, xvii
- Hawkins, Margaret and Mary, daughters of Sir Richard, l
- Hawkins, Nicholas, xlii (n)
- Hawkins, Sir Richard, birth, iv; early years, xxi; commands "Swallow", xxii; marriage, xxiv; character,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

- xxiv; voyage to South Sea, xxv; sea-fight, xxvii, xxviii; prisoner in Peru, xxix; captivity in Spain, xxxi; letters to the Queen, xxxii, xxxiii; release, xxxix; settles at Slapton, xxxv; knighted and vice-admiral of Devon, xxxviii; scheme for another voyage of discovery, xxxviii; expedition against Algiers, xxxix; death, xxxix; will, xxxix, xlvi; descendants, l; resolved to undertake a voyage of discovery, 89; objects of his voyage, 89; employed fitting out, 94; takes leave of his father, 95; ready to sail for Plymouth, 106; danger of his ships in Plymouth Sound, 107; sails from England, 112; conduct during voyage to West Indies with his uncle William, 212; in command of the "Swallow" at defeat of Spanish Armada, 222; at Seville, 290; at Terceira, xxx, 290, 305; receives six wounds, 294; officers propose to him to surrender, 294; his speech, 295; reply of his officers, 297; Resolution to fight it out, 299; agrees to surrender, 308; conditions of his surrender, 311; seizes the royal standard of Spain, 345; orders of Philip II respecting, 348; courteous reception of by Spanish Admiral, 312; at the pearl fishery of Margarita, 314; his views respecting piracy, 318, 319; and as to capitulation "de buena guerra", 320; arrives at Panama, 326; intention to relate events of his captivity in a second part, 329; the publication of his works, xl; notices of it, xli
- Hawkins, Richard, second son of Sir Richard, xlvi, l; his descendants, lii
- Hawkins, Robert Samuel, portrait of Sir John Hawkins in possession of, xxi; notice of, li
- Hawkins, William, father of Sir John, ii; his wife and sons, iii; his voyages to Brazil, ii, 3
- Hawkins, William, brother of Sir John, voyage to the West Indies with his nephew, Richard, xxii, 212; notice of, xli; monument, xlii
- Hawkins, William, son of William, Lieutenant General in Fenton's fleet, xlii, 353, 354, 357; abused by Fenton, 360, 361, 362, xlv; captain of E.I.C. ship "Hector", xlv; journal of "Hector", 362 to 383; his name on a stone at Sierra Leone, 376; at Saldanha Bay, 371; sights Isle of Pemba, 381; at Socotra, 383; off Surat, 387; feasted at Surat, 391; his license to load and sell goods, 391; appoints Capt. Marlow to command "Hector", 392; trouble with the Portuguese, 392, 393; remains at Surat, 394; plots against, 394, 395; sets out from Surat, 398; arrival at Agra, xlv, 399; his interview with Jehanghir, 399; in favor with Jehanghir, 401; marries an Armenian girl at Agra, 404; cheated by Mocreb Chan, and demands justice, 407; leaves Agra, 416; embarks with his wife, 417; passage home, 418; death, xlv; his widow's second marriage, xlv
- Hawkins's Maiden Land, 189, 190
- Hazlelocke, Master John, saw water take fire at Venice, 146
- Health, precautions on board ship, 126; at Cape Verde Islands, 128; influence of the moon on, 128
- "Hector" ship of Captain Wm. Hawkins, 364
- Heredia, Lorenzo de, volunteer in the Spanish fleet, 339; admiral, 344
- Hides, as merchandize, 7
- Hispaniola, negroes fetch good prices at, 5; J. Hawkins at, 6
- Hoe, people of Plymouth assembled on the, to witness departure of Rd. Hawkins, 112
- Holstock, Mr., Comptroller of the Navy, succeeded by J. Hawkins, vii
- "Hope", H.M.S., chase of French ships by, 288
- Hostage (see Cockeram)
- Howard, Lord Thomas, his fleet at the Azores, 103 (n.); notice of, 109 (n.)
- Howard, Lord William, obliges the fleet of Philip II to lower their flags, 118
- Ieloffs (Jaloffs) of Senegal, 14
- Imprests, 94, 110; inconvenience of, 111; true use of, 111
- Indians of the Peruvian coast, fond of English, 253, 254 (see Brazil, Araucanians)
- Ingram, David, escape from Mexico, his narrative, viii
- Inquisition, cruelty to men landed by J. Hawkins, vii; at Lima, claims Sir Rd. Hawkins, xxix
- Isabella, in Hispaniola, 6
- Jaggard, Mr. John, publisher of the work of Sir Rd. Hawkins, xl
- Jamaica, 43, 45

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

INDEX.

449

- Jehanghir, or Selim Shah, xlv; interview of Capt. W. Hawkins with, 399, 400; finds a wife for Hawkins, 404; his nobles, 402; he is set against the English, 412; rebellion against his father, 427; rebellion of his son Khosru, 428; cruelty of, 429, 431; his covetousness, 432; wealth, 433; punishment of cowards, 484; mode of passing his time, 436; drinking bouts, 437; tortures his son Shariar, 438; richness of his tent, 439; feast, 440 (see Mogol the Great)
- Jeronimo River, in Magellan's straits, 199
- "Jesus of Lubeck", John Hawkins's ship in his second and third voyage, v, 8, 119; lost at San Juan de Ulloa, 77; treachery of Spaniards, 92; in danger of being burnt, 145
- "John Baptist", voyage of, to Guinea, 8
- "Jonas", a vessel in J. Hawkins's first voyage, 6
- Juan Fernandez Island, 231, 252
- "Judith", Drake's ship, vii; escape of, from San Juan de Ulloa, 79
- Jorge, an Italian in Spanish Admiral's ship, his heroic conduct, 347
- Keelinge, Captain in third E.I.C. voyage with William Hawkins, xliv
- Kirtling (see North, the Lords)
- Khosru, Prince, his rebellion against Jehanghir, 428
- Kinsale, Captain Fenton's ship arrives at, xiv, 360
- Lacy, Edward, in J. Hawkins's second voyage, 64
- Lancaster, Sir James, his scheme to send a ship by Magellan's Straits, xxxviii
- Laudonnière, M., in Florida, v, 54; his account of the French colony being relieved by J. Hawkins, 65-69
- Lemos, Conde de, 311, 321, 339
- Leophares, Negroes, near Cape Verde, 14
- Lightning, men killed by, 285
- Lima, 231; Richard Hawkins at, xxix; Captain Ellis at, xxx; put in a posture of defence, 338
- Lime juice, use of for scurvy, 141
- "Linda", Spanish name for the "Dainty" (which see)
- Line, best time for crossing the, 158
- Lingard, Dr., his accusation against Sir John Hawkins disproved, viii, ix, x
- Linschoten, Jan Huygen, his account of the sea fight of Sir Richard Grenville, 103 (n.)
- Lobos, Isles of, on coast of Peru, 262
- Lodge, Sir Thomas, adventurer in first voyage of J. Hawkins, 5
- Longitude, no certain rule for finding, 135
- Lucas, Master, condemned to the galleys, xxxi
- Macana, club, 279
- Madagascar (see St. Augustine, Bay of)
- Maddock, Richard, preacher in Fenton's voyage, xliii; ready to return, 357
- Madeira Isle, sighted by J. Hawkins, 10; and by Rd. Hawkins, 122
- Madrid, Rd. Hawkins at, 329
- Magellan's Straits, xxxviii; approach to, 190; narrowest part, 199; wood and water in, 200, 234; Western extremity, 205; bad weather in, 206, 210, 211; pearls in, 216; English ships in, 334; survey of, by Sarmiento, 335; colony left by Sarmiento, found destitute by Cavendish, 336
- Maires, Hugh, a master's mate of the "Dainty", xxv (n.); wounded, 310
- Malabrigo, on the coast of Peru, 261
- Malucos, 335
- Manrique, Captain, 336
- Mansell, Sir Robert, commands fleet sent out against pirates, xxxix
- Margarita Island, 25, 314
- Mariner (see Sailor)
- Markham, Gervase, his poem on the sea fight of Sir Richard Grenville, 103 (n.)
- Markham, William, master of the "Francis" in Fenton's voyage, xliii
- Marlow, Captain, appointed by Capt. W. Hawkins to command the "Hector", 392
- Marseval, Martin de, xxxii
- Master of a ship, his duties, 275
- Maynarde, his estimate of the character of Sir John Hawkins, xvi
- Mendaña, Alvaro de, his expedition to the Salomon Isles, 260 (n.)
- "Merlin" of London, bound for Guinea, 8
- Mexico, Viceroy of, at San Juan de Ulloa, 75; English sailors landed on coast of, 80; their dreadful fate, vii; escape of survivors, x
- Michelborne, Sir Edward, Capt. W. Hawkins lodges at Surat, with the captain of a vessel captured by, 390
- Middleton, Captain, name found en-

G G

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

- graved on a stone in Saldanha Bay, 374 ; at Surat, xlv, 417 ; proceeds to Bantam, 418
- "Minion", Queen's ship, met by J. Hawkins, 8 ; mishaps of, 35 ; escape of, from San Juan de Ulloa, vii, 77, 78
- Miranda, Count of, procures the release of Sir Richard Hawkins, xxxiv ; notice of, xxxiv (n.)
- Mocha Island, off the Chilian Coast, 225 ; account of, 226, 227
- Mocreb Khan, Viceroy of Cambay, Lord of Surat, 390 ; plot with Portuguese against Capt. W. Hawkins, 394, 395 ; Jehanghir enquires how Capt. Hawkins had been treated by, 400 ; summoned to Agra to answer accusations, 406 ; activity of his friends, 407 ; machinations against the English, 409
- Mogol, the Great, his nobles, 419 ; extent of his empire, 420 ; divisions, 420 ; treasure castles, 421 ; his sons, 421 ; wives, 421 ; treasure and jewels, 421, 422 ; horses and elephants, 424, 425 ; heir to all properties of deceased men, 424 ; his tents, 426 ; dromedaries, 427 (see Akbar, Jehanghir)
- Monge (Mugia), 101
- Monson, Sir William, on the services of Sir John Hawkins, xii
- Montañes, Juan Bautista, first to board Sir Richard Hawkins's ship, 345
- Monte Christi, in Hispaniola, 6
- Moon, influence in hot climates, 128
- Mozambique, coast sighted by W. Hawkins, 380
- Mubarek Khan, daughter married to Captain W. Hawkins at Agra, xlv, 404
- Mutineers, treatment of, 223
- Names for ships, 90, 91, 92
- Negroes, profitable merchandize in, 5 ; shipped by J. Hawkins, 6, 24, 71 ; Tribes near Cape Verde, 14 ; of Senegal, 14 ; their towns, 18, 19 ; sale of, at Burburata, 31, 33 ; price of, 176 ; fugitives (called Symarons) on the isthmus of Darien, 323, 324 ; (see Leophares, Jaloffs, Sapies, Samboses, Tangomangoes)
- Nevill, Sir Henry, Ambassador at Paris, letter of Sir Rd. Hawkins to, xxxiii
- Nicopolis, Battle of, cause of the disaster, 279
- Norman, Robert, on variation of the compass, 184
- North, Lords, portrait of Sir John Hawkins at Kirtling, the seat of, xxi
- Nottingham, Earl of, prudence in not boarding Spanish ships, 222
- Nur Jehan, wife of Jehanghir, 414 (n.)
- Obedience, importance of on board ship, 220, 221
- Oleron, the laws of, concerning pillage, 247
- Oranges, virtues of, 163
- Oxenham, John, treachery of Spaniards to, 296 ; account of, 322, 323
- Pacheta (La), Isle of, 325
- Palmer, Sir Henry, modesty of, 99
- Palmito trees, account of, 131, 168, 174
- Panama, xxvii, 262, 313, 317 ; supply of fruit to, 325 ; arrival at, 326 ; account of the old Panama, 326 (n.) ; rejoicings at, 327
- Parker, Nicholas, in Fenton's voyage, 357
- Parkhurst, Anthony, in second voyage of John Hawkins, 64
- Passaos, Cape, near to the Equator, 264
- Patagonians, their stature, 183
- Patna, 484
- Payta, on the coast of Peru, xxix, 262, 346
- Pearls, Isles of, 325
- Pearls, 6, 59 ; in Magellan's Straits, 216 ; origin of, 216 ; fishery, 314 ; places where found, 315 ; a famous pearl, 315 (n.) ; mother-of-pearl, 176
- Pemba Island, sighted by W. Hawkins, 381
- Penguins, Island of, 192 ; account of, 194
- Percy's Reliques (see Spanish Lady's Love)
- Perico, Island of, near Panama, 210, 313, 326
- Pernambuco, 144 (n.)
- Perrot, Sir John, notice of, 91 (n.)
- Peru, "Dainty" on the coast of, 243 to 262 ; Drake on the coast of, 333, 334 ; coast, Indians of, 253, 254 (see Lima, Cuzco, Arica, Payta)
- Pett, Mr. Peter, quarrel with Sir J. Hawkins, xiii
- Philip II, 118 ; orders respecting Rd. Hawkins, xxx, 347, 348
- Phillips, Miles, escape from Mexico, vii
- Pillage (see Prize)
- Pilot, duties on board ship, 275
- Pineda, Juan Gomez de, Spanish

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

INDEX.

451

- pilot, a prisoner, sent to negotiate surrender of "Dainty", 310, 311
- Pineiro, Portuguese Jesuit at Agra, 396, 403
- Pinnacle, duties of, 122; reconnoitres Spanish fleet, 267; engaged, 268 (see "Fancy")
- Piracy, question as to, 317, 318, 319; Algerines, xxxix
- Pisco, on Peruvian coast, 255
- Plantain, account of, 131
- Plaza, Captain, 338; to bring English prisoners to Callao, 346
- Plymouth, provisions cheaper than in London, 94; "Dainty" at, 105 to 112 (see Catwater, Hoe); property of Sir Rd. Hawkins at, xlviii
- "Pole" of Plymouth, name of the ship of the elder Wm. Hawkins, 3
- Pole, or Poole, near Slapton, the house of Sir Rd. Hawkins, xxxix, xlviii
- Polygamy, 180
- Ponte, Peter de, Governor of Tenerife, J. Hawkins's interview with, ii
- Port Plata, in Hispaniola, 6
- Porto Santo, 122
- Portugal, Juan de Torres, second man to board the "Dainty", 345
- Portuguese, on the coast of Guinea, 21, 22, 23; seize the boats of Capt. Wm. Hawkins, 392; their plots against Hawkins, 394, 395, 396, 403; W. Hawkins obtains a pass from, 413; prize taken by Captain Middleton, 417 (see Pineiro, Serades)
- Prickly pears, 169
- Priaman, 391
- "Primrose" of London, fire on board, 145
- Prize taken by the "Dainty", 176; on the coast of Peru, 252, 259; abandonment, 255; laws of Oleron concerning, 247; what should be so considered, 242; rules of Sir J. Hawkins as to, 250
- Pryvett, a house at Alverstoke, belonging to Sir Richard Hawkins, xxxix, xlix
- Pulgar, Pedro Alvarez de, sent to escort Rd. Hawkins on board the Spanish Admiral, 312, 347; commission of captain given to, 338
- Puna, Isle of, in the Gulf of Guayaquil, 262 (see Guayaquil)
- Purchas, His Pilgrimes, accounts given by the fellow captives of Rd. Hawkins in, xxx; Relations of Capt. Wm. Hawkins in, 389; Observations of Sir Richard Hawkins, xl
- Purslane, a herb good for salad, 168
- Quintera, Bay of, near Valparaiso, 239
- Quito, kingdom of, coast of frequented by English, xxvi; "Dainty" off the coast of, 264 to 269, 343; settlement of province of Atacames in, 267 (n.)
- "Rainbow", ran foul of the " Foresight" off the Azores, 238
- Raleigh, Sir Walter, expected to visit ship of Rd. Hawkins, 95; his account of the sea fight of Sir R. Grenville, 103 (n.)
- Rats in a ship, 217
- Raymond, Captain George, 110, & note
- "Repentance", name given to ship of Richard Hawkins by his step-mother, xxiii; loss of, 92; name changed by the Queen, 93
- "Revenge", unlucky ship, her history, 91; famous action, 102 (n.), 103, 294, 305
- Ridley, William, his poem on the voyage of Richard Hawkins, xli
- Rio Janeiro, 172
- Routine, on board ship, 126
- Rudder (spare) carried in Spanish ships, 239
- Sailors, difficulties in getting them on board before sailing, 108; offences of, 109; placed in watches, 126; routine, 126; divine service for, 134; sickness and scurvy among, 138 to 143, 170; punishment for swearing, 147; dismayed at the weather in Magellan's Straits, 212; occupations in the Straits, 215; murmuring of, 218; love of plunder, 232; too fond of wine, 236; defrauding of wages, 245; laws of pillage, 247; unadvised courage of, 270; Spanish sailors, 280; qualifications, 273, 280; Sir J. Hawkins's fund for wounded sailors, xv
- Saldanha Bay, Capt. Wm. Hawkins touches at, xlv, 373, 374
- "Salomon" ships, 5, 8, 16, 418 (see Solomon)
- Salt water, distilling of, 164
- Salutes, custom respecting, 116, 117, 118, 119
- Sambuses, negro tribe, 17
- Sambula Island, 16, 18
- Santa Anna Island, Brazilian coast, 167
- San Antonio, Cuba, 46
- San Augustin, Cape, Brazilian coast, 167
- St. Augustine Bay, Madagascar, 377
- Santa Catalina Island, Brazilian coast, 183
- Santa Clara Island, Gulf of Guayaquil, 262

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

- Santa Elena Point, 263
 San Francisco Cape, xxvi, 147, 264, 264 (n.)
 Santiago, Cape Verdes, 129, 130
 Santiago, in Chile, 232
 San Juan de Ulloa, vii, 73, 74, 76, 77, 162, 296
 San Mateo Bay, xxvi, xxvii, 267 (n.), 343
 Santa Maria Island, coast of Chile, 231
 Sangallan, Peruvian coast, 255
 San Sebastian, Brazilian coast, 171
 St. Vincent's, 356, 357
 Santa, Peruvian coast, 259, 260
 Sapiés, negro tribe, 17
 Saris, Captain, fleet of, in the Red Sea, 417
 Sarmiento, Pedro, 191, 334, 335 (n.)
 Sarsaparilla, virtues of, 263
 Saunders, Thomas, servant of Rd. Hawkins, xxv (n.), xxvii (n.); his letters in Purchas, xxx: sent with offer of surrender, 308
 Scurvy, description and causes of, 138, 139; remedies, 140, 141, 142
 Scurvy Committee, absurd conclusions of, 142 (n.)
 Sea wolves, 196
 Seals (see Sea wolves)
 Seamen (see Sailors)
 Selim (see Jehanghir)
 Serades, Manuel, a Portuguese, sacked Santiago, 130
 Sestos, Rio, 3
 Seville, collision of Spanish ships in river of, 290; Rd. Hawkins at, xxxi, xxxii, 329
 Sharks, 22, 150, 151
 Sharpeigh, Captain, sent to meet Wm. Hawkins at Cambay, 417
 Sheathing of ships, 202, 203
 Sherley, Sir Anthony, 130 (n.)
 Ships: importance of good names for, 90, 91; caulking of, 114, 115; custom of salutes, 116, 117; routine on board, 126; sheathing of, 202, 203; very few hands on board ships on Peruvian coast, 259; question as to tautness for merchant ships, 286; and for men-of-war, 287; keeping station, 288; advantage of large over small ships, 291; defence of, 306; disadvantage of being to leeward, 307
 Sierra Leone, J. Hawkins at, 6, 23, 71; Fenton's ships at, 354; Capt. Wm. Hawkins at, 369, 371
 Slave trade, responsibility of Sir J. Hawkins, iv, v
 Socotra Island, 383
 Solomon Islands, Mendaña's expedition (n.) (see Salomon)
 Sotomayor, Don Alonzo de, Governor of Chile, praise of, 236
 Southampton, merchants of, undertake voyages to Brazil, 4
 Spanish Government, well supplied with information, 339; fleet sights the English off Cañete, 256; returns to Callao, 258; sights Rd. Hawkins off San Mateo Bay, 269, 343; beaten off, 278; officers in, 281; arrogance of a general, 290; vain glory of Spaniards, 292; losses, 340; flight with Fenton's ship, 358
 Spaniards, treachery at San Juan de Ulloa, 76, 77, 162, 296; care of in steering, 165; good discipline of, 185; offer quarter to Rd. Hawkins and his crew, 295; more temperate than the English, 303
 Spanish Lady's Love, ballad in Percy's Reliques, question as to the hero of, xxxiii (n.)
 Sparke, John, wrote the account of second voyage of J. Hawkins, 64
 Spenser, Edmund, description of Sir John Hawkins, xv
 Spermaceti whale, 155
 Steering, 164, 165
 Stevens, Dr., "his water" a cure for scurvy, 141
 Steward of a ship, duties, 275
 Stow's Chronicle, character of Sir John Hawkins given in, xvi
 Suffolk, Earl of, 109 (see Howard, Lord Thomas)
 Surat, Wm. Hawkins at, 387, 388; F. Buck, a merchant sent to by Capt. Hawkins, 389; belonged to the Viceroy of the Deccan, 390; and to "Mocreb Chan", 390; trading operations, 391; W. Finch at, 394, 397
 "Swallow", ship in first voyage of J. Hawkins, 5; in second voyage, 8, 9; ship of Rd. Hawkins in the fleet against the Spanish Armada, xxii, 222
 Swearing, punishment for, 147
 Sword-fish, fight with whale, 153
 Symarons (see Negroes)
 Taboga Isle, 329
 Tagarin, on coast of Guinea, 6, 23, 29
 Tamarida, port of Socotra, 385
 Tangomangoes, Negro tribe, 24
 Tecu, 417
 Teneriffe, J. Hawkins at, 6, 9, 10; peak of, 13, 123, 124; sighted by Capt. Wm. Hawkins, 365

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01148-8 - The Hawkins' Voyages During the Reigns of Henry VIII, Queen Elizabeth, and James I

Edited by Clements R. Markham

Index

More information

INDEX.

453

- Tennyson, Mr., his ballad of the "Revenge", 103 (n.)
- Terceira, one of the Azores, Rd. Hawkins a prisoner at, xxxi, 290, 305, 329
- Ternate, 335
- Tharleton, Robert, Master of the "Fancy", his base desertion, xxv (n.), 184
- "Thomas", E.I.C. ship, Capt. W. Hawkins on board, xlv, 418
- Thomson, Master, pilot of Harwich, in the "Dainty", 98
- Thrashers, fights with whales, 153
- "Thunderbolt", unfortunate name for a ship, 92
- Thynn, Sir Henry, money due from, to Sir Rd. Hawkins, xlix
- Tides, importance of knowledge of in navigation, 105; on west coast of South America, 262; at Panama, 328
- "Tiger", a ship in second voyage of J. Hawkins, 5, 16; ship of Sir R. Grenville, 151
- Tobacco, question of first introduction into England, vii (n.); virtues of, 57; fires caused by, 145
- Tobias Cove, in Magellan's Straits, 208
- Toledo, Don Francisco de, Viceroy of Peru, notice of, 334 (n.)
- Tortuga Island, 29
- Towerson, Captain Gabriel, marries the widow of Capt. Wm. Hawkins, xlv
- "Triumph" (see Fleet)
- Truxillo, 259
- Turner, Dr., named "Winter's Bark", 215
- Uffet, Nicholas, servant of Captain W. Hawkins, very ill at Agra, 404; performs the marriage service for Wm. Hawkins and his Armenian bride at Agra, 404; precedes Hawkins on journey to Surat, 417
- Unicorn horns in Florida, 59
- Valdivia in Chile, 223
- Valdivia, Pedro de, notice of, 225 (n.)
- Valparaiso, three ships seized at, 232; origin of name, 232 (n.); bay of, 228, 229, 337
- "Vanguard", last ship of Sir Rd. Hawkins, xxxix
- Variation of the compass, 183
- Vavasour, Captain, of the "Fore-sight", 103
- Verde, Cape, 14, 70; islands, 125; unhealthiness, 127; remedy, 128; account of, 129 (see Santiago, Brava)
- Victoria, Brazilian port, 159 (n.); Provisions obtained at, 160
- "Victory" (see Fleet), Sir J. Hawkins's ship, xiv
- Vigo, 80, 81
- Villar, Conde de, Viceroy of Peru, 335
- "Visitacion", name given to the "Dainty" by the Spaniards, xxvii, 328
- Wafter (Whaftage), ships so called, 92 (n.), 117, 290
- Walker, Mr., preacher in Fenton's voyage, 354, 355, 357
- Warde, Captain Luke, in Fenton's voyage, xliii, 355, 357
- Water, property of, in taking fire, 146; taste of brimstone in, 147; distilling from salt water, 164; contagious, 169
- Watering in Magellan's Straits, 200, 204
- Wattes, Master (of London) takes home letters for R. Hawkins, 121
- Welshmen in America, names, 193
- Whales, fights with sword fish and thrasher, 153; fishing for, 154; spermaceti, 155, 157
- Will of Sir Richard Hawkins, xxxix, xlvii
- Wilson, Edward, General in "Thunderbolt", slain, 92
- Wine, bad effects of, 236, 237, 302; Spaniards more temperate than English, 303
- Winter, Sir William, quarrel with Sir John Hawkins, xiii; adventurer in the first voyage of J. Hawkins, 5
- Winter's bark, 215
- Worms, warning against, 201
- Woorley, Thomas, in second voyage of J. Hawkins, 64
- Yuca plant, 179