

T A B L E,
ANALYTICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL, TO THE FIRST VOLUME OF
THE HISTORY OF GREECE.

CHAPTER I.

GEOGRAPHICAL OUTLINES OF GREECE.

	Page
Geographical position of Greece	2
Various descriptions of its boundaries	3
Thessaly	4
Tempe	5
Divisions of Thessaly	6
South of Thessaly	7
Doris — Phocis — Locris	8
Bœotia — Lake Copais	9
Southern Bœotia	11
Eubœa — the Euripus — Bœotian Character	12
Attica	13
Megaris	15
Ozolian Locris — Ætolia	16
Acarmania — The Isthmus	17
Attempts made to dig through the Isthmus — General view of Peloponnesus	18
Arcadia	19
Outlets of its Waters	20
Argolis — Sicyon — Corinth — Passes	21
Plain of Argos — The Acté	22
Epidaurus — Trœzen — Hermioné — Asiné — Passes — Cy-nuria	23
Laconia	25
Messenia	26
Elis — Triphylia — Pisatis	27
Achaia	28
Fertility of Greece	29
Volcanic changes	31

X ANALYTICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE.

CHAP. II.

THE EARLIEST INHABITANTS OF GREECE.

	Page
Causes which render the subject obscure	- 32
The Pelasgians — How represented by Homer, Herodotus, Thucydides, and Strabo	33
Traces of the Pelasgians in Thessaly	- 35
In Epirus	36
In Bœotia and Attica	- 37
In Peloponnesus, especially in Argolis	- 38
In Achaia and Arcadia	- 39
Pelasgian origin of the Arcadians	- 40
Various names of the Pelasgian tribes	41
The Caucones	- 42
The Leleges	- 44
The Thracians	45
Influence of the Thracians on Greek poetry	- 47
Asiatic Pelasgians	48
Opinions of the Greeks as to the origin of the earliest races	50
Course of the Pelasgian migrations	- 51
Relation between the Pelasgians and the Greeks	52
Observations of Herodotus on the Pelasgian language	53
Language of the Pelasgians not wholly foreign to the Greeks	54
Inference from the Pelasgian settlements in Italy	56
Civilisation of the Pelasgians	- 57
Legends of their savage condition	- 58
Traditions of their familiarity with the arts of life	- 59
Monuments of the Pelasgians	61

CHAP. III.

FOREIGN SETTLERS IN GREECE.

Authority of the Traditions concerning Foreign Settlers in Greece	63
Legend of Danaus	- 64
Its local features	65
Other supposed Egyptian colonies in Argolis and Megaris	66
Colonies of Cecrops, Erechtheus, and Peteus	- 67
Colony of Cadmus	- 68
Opinions about Cadmus	- 69
Legend of Pelops	70

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01263-8 - A History of Greece, Volume 1

Connop Thirlwall

Table of Contents

More information

ANALYTICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE. xi

	Page
General arguments in favour of the reality of the colonies from the East	72
Coincidence between Greek and Egyptian traditions	73
In what sense Egyptians and Phœnicians may be said to have colonised Greece	75
Traces of the Phœnicians in the Greek legends under other names	76
Influence of the Phœnicians on Greece	77
Explanation of the legend of Pelops	78

CHAP. IV.

THE HELLENIC NATION.

Tendency of the Greeks to personification	79
Caution required in treating the Heroic genealogies	80
The Hellenes in Epirus	81
Tribes of which the Nation was composed	82
The Curetes	83
General view of the diffusion of the Hellenic Nation	84
A new population	85
A new state of society	86
Fourfold division of the Greek Nation	87
The Æolians	88
The Bœotian Æolis	89
Æolians in the South of Thessaly	90
The Minyans	91
The Minyean Orchomenus	93
Æolians at Corinth	94
In Elis	95
In Pylus	96
In Messenia	97
In Ætolia	99
In Locris	100
General character of the Æolian settlements	101
Origin of the Dorians	102
Their struggles with the Lapiths	103
Dorians in the North-west of Thessaly	104
Conquest of the southern Doris	105
Adventures of Xuthus	106
The Achæans in Thessaly and Peloponnesus	107
Their relation to the Hellenes	108
Reasons for thinking them a branch of the Pelasgians	109
They are blended with the Æolians in Thessaly	110
Establishment of an Æolian dynasty among the Achæans of Argolis	111
Achæans in Laconia	112
Origin of the Ionians	113

xii ANALYTICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE.

B. C.		Page
	Their relation to the Hellenes - - -	114
	Their establishment in Attica - - -	115
	Antiquity of the Ionian settlements in Peloponnesus	118
	Early distinctions among the Ionians in Attica -	119
	Mixture of Hellenes with Ionians in Attica -	120
	Migrations to and from Eubœa	121
	Ionian Dialect - - -	122
 CHAP. V.
THE HEROES AND THEIR AGE.
B. C. 1384—1184.
	Definition of the Heroic Age - - -	123
1300—1200.	Bellerophon — Perseus — Hercules - - -	125
	Hercules the God - - -	126
	Hercules the Theban Hero - - -	127
	Legends of Hercules in Peloponnesus - - -	128
	Other Adventures of Hercules - - -	129
	Theseus a second Hercules - - -	130
	Attic Kings before Theseus - - -	131
	Birth of Theseus — His journey to Athens -	132
	Adventures in Creta - - -	133
	Import of the legend - - -	134
	Minos - - -	135
	His maritime dominion and colonies - - -	136
	Legend of his Dorian origin examined -	138
	Grounds for rejecting it - - -	139
	Conjecture on the legend of Minos - - -	141
	Confederacies among the Heroes — the Theban Wars, and the Calydonian Chase - - -	142
	Legend of the Argonautic Expedition - - -	143
	Religious groundwork of the legend - - -	145
	Its historical groundwork - - -	147
	Jason and Medea - - -	149
1184.	Story of the Trojan War - - -	150
	How far credible - - -	151
	Helen a mythological person - - -	152
	Connection between the Trojan War and the Argonautic Expedition - - -	153
	Expedition of Hercules against Troy - - -	154
	Historical view of the Trojan War - - -	155
	Consequences of the War - - -	156
	Authority of the Homeric Poems with regard to histori- cal facts - - -	158
	With regard to the state of society described in them -	159

ANALYTICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE. xiii

CHAP. VI.

THE GOVERNMENT, MANNERS, RELIGION, KNOWLEDGE, AND ARTS OF THE GREEKS IN THE HEROIC AGE.

B. C.	Page
I. Distinction of Classes in the Heroic Age	161
Slaves — Freemen — Nobles	- 162
Kings	164
Prerogatives of the Heroic Kings	- 165
Limitations of their authority	- 166
Their Domains and Revenues	- 168
Royalty how far hereditary	- 169
Institutions for preserving the public peace	- 170
Punishments	- 171
Dealings between independent states	- 172
Approach toward national unity	- 173
II. Mutual relations of the sexes	- 175
Female character	- 176
Friendship	- 177
Hospitality	- 178
Amusements	- 178
Kindness to inferiors	- 180
Usages of War	- 182
III. Earliest Form of Natural Religion	- 183
Religion of the Pelasgians	- 184
Origin of the Greek Mythology	- 186
Influence of the Poets on Religion	- 187
Hesiod's Theogony	- 188
Greek Mythology, how far derived from the East	- 190
How far formed by the Poets	- 191
Traces of Monotheism in the Greek Mythology	- 192
Character of the supreme god	- 193
Fatalism of the Greeks	194
Connection between Religion and Morality	- 195
Homeric view of a future state	- 196
Condition of the soul after death	- 197
Worship and Sacrifices	- 198
Human Sacrifices	- 199
Temples and Holy Grounds	- 200
Priests	- 202
How far a separate class	- 204
Oracles	- 205
Omens and Divination	- 206
Hero-worship	- 207
Dæmons	- 208
IV. Exaggerated notions entertained by the Greeks of Homer's learning	- 209

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01263-8 - A History of Greece, Volume 1

Connop Thirlwall

Table of Contents

More information

xiv ANALYTICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE.

B. C.		Page
	Homeric Geography	- 210
	Wanderings of Menelaus	- 212
	Homer's view of the Northern and Western seas	- 214
	The Ocean	- 215
	Course of the Sun	- 216
	The Ethiopians	- 217
	Olympus	- 218
	Navigation	- 219
	Astronomy	- 221
	Commerce	- 222
	Degree to which the useful Arts appear to have been cultivated	- 225
	Art of War	- 227
	Medicine	- 228
	The fine Arts—Poetry	- 229
	Music and Dancing	- 230
	Architecture	- 231
	Statuary	- 237
	Letters	- 238
	The Art of Writing	- 239
	Was the Art known to Homer?	- 242
	Were the Homeric Poems at first committed to Writing?	- 244
	Unity of the Homeric Poems	- 245
	The Rhapsodists	- 246
	The Homeric Poems the opening of a new period	- 248

CHAP. VII.

THE RETURN OF THE HERACLEIDS.

	State of Greece after the Trojan War	- 249
	The Thessalians migrate from Epirus into Thessaly	- 251
	They drive out the Bœotians	- 252
1124.	Who conquer Bœotia	- 253
	Dorian Migration	- 254
	Connection between the Dorians and the Heracleids	- 255
	Inquiry into the truth of the legend	- 257
1104.	The Dorians break into Peloponnesus	- 258
	Conquest of Elis	- 259
	The Achæans retreat before the Dorians into Ionia	- 260
	Partition of the conquered land among the Heracleids	- 261
	Means by which the Dorians effected their conquests	- 263
	Settlement of Cresphontes in Messenia	- 264
	Various accounts of the subjugation of Laconia	- 266
	Resistance of Amyclæ	- 267
	The Dorians in Laconia joined by the Ægeids	- 268
	The Minyans in Laconia and Triphylia	- 269
	The Dorians in Epidaurus	- 271
	In Trœzen, Sicyon, and Phlius	- 272

ANALYTICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE. XV

B. C.		Page
	The Dorians conquer Corinth	- 273
	Invade Attica	274
	Codrus	- 275
	Conquest of Megara and Ægina	- 276
	Expeditions of the Dorians to Crete	- 277
	Colonies founded by Pollis	- 278
	By Althæmenes	- 279
	State of Crete at the time of the Dorian Conquest	- 281
	Cretan Institutions — Subjects	- 282
	Slaves	- 283
	Freemen	- 284
	Form of Government	- 285
	Cretan Syssitia	- 287
	Education	- 289

CHAP. VIII.

THE LEGISLATION OF LYCURGUS.

B. C. 884.

Opposite views of the subject	-	-	- 292
Time and Lineage of Lycurgus	-	-	- 293
Birth of Charilaus	-	-	- 294
Travels of Lycurgus, his Return to Sparta, Actions, and Death	-	-	- 295
Antiquity of the Spartan Institutions	-	-	296
Lycurgus a real person	-	-	- 297
Nature of the revolution effected by him	-	-	- 298
Difficulty of reconciling the different accounts of it	-	-	299
State of things which called for his interposition	-	-	- 300
Objects which he had in view	-	-	- 301
Outline of his measures	-	-	- 302
Distribution of Property	-	-	- 303
Erroneous views of the subject	-	-	- 304
Nature of the partition made by Lycurgus	-	-	- 305
Condition of the Laconian Subjects	-	-	- 306
The Helots	-	-	- 309
Their treatment	-	-	- 310
The Cryptia	-	-	- 312
The Spartans	-	-	- 313
Spartan Tribes	-	-	314
Spartan Nobles	-	-	- 315
Assemblies of the People	-	-	- 316
The Gerusia	-	-	- 317
The Kings	-	-	- 318
Royal Prerogatives	-	-	- 319
Honours of the Kings	-	-	- 321
The Ephors	-	-	- 322

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01263-8 - A History of Greece, Volume 1

Connop Thirlwall

Table of Contents

More information

xvi ANALYTICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE.

B. C.		Page
	A general principle of the Spartan Institutions	- 323
	Provisions for preserving the number of the Spartan families unchanged	- 324
	Restrictions on the use of the precious metals at Sparta	325
	Condition and Education of the Spartan Women	327
	Education of the Spartan Youths	- 328
	Exercises of patience	329
	Cultivation of intellectual faculties, and of moral habits	330
	Spartan Syssitia	- 331
	Military Institutions	- 332
	System of Tactics	- 334
	Maxims of Spartan Warfare	- 335
	Spartan Laws unwritten	- 336
	Connection between the Dorian and the old Hellenic Institutions	337
	Peculiar circumstances which formed the Dorian character	338
	Peculiar position of the Spartans	- 340

CHAP. IX.

THE MESSENIAN WARS AND AFFAIRS OF SPARTA DOWN TO THE SIXTH CENTURY B. C.

	Wars of Sparta with Argos and Arcadia	- 341
	State of Messenia	- 342
	Policy of the Messenian Kings	- 343
	First quarrel between Sparta and Messenia	- 344
	Story of Polychares	- 345
743.	Beginning of the first Messenian War	- 346
	Authorities for the History of the Messenian Wars	- 347
	The Messenians fortify Ithomé	- 348
	Aristodemus	349
723.	End of the first Messenian War	351
	Consequences arising to Sparta from the Conquest of Messenia	- 352
	Admission of new citizens to Sparta	- 353
	Rise of a new distinction among the citizens of Sparta	- 354
	Enlargement of the power of the Ephors	- 355
	Comparison between the Ephors and the Roman Tribunes	356
	Mode of election and authority of the Ephors	- 357
748.	Pheidon, King of Argos	- 358
685.	Beginning of the second Messenian War	- 359
	Aristomenes and Tyrtæus	- 360
	Victories of Aristomenes	- 361
	The Messenians fortify Eira	- 363
	Wonderful Exploits and Escape of Aristomenes	- 364
	Surprise of Eira	365
668.	End of the second Messenian War	- 367

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01263-8 - A History of Greece, Volume 1

Connop Thirlwall

Table of Contents

More information

ANALYTICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE. xvii

B. C.		Page
	Messenian Exiles; Death of Aristomenes	- 368
	War between Sparta and Tegea; Conquest of Cynuria;
	Othryades	- 369
	Growing Power and Reputation of Sparta	- 370

CHAP. X.

NATIONAL INSTITUTIONS AND FORMS OF GOVERNMENT.

	Causes which tended to keep the Greeks asunder	- 371
	Origin of partial Associations among the Greek Tribes	- 372
	Amphictyonies	- 373
	Amphictyonic Congress at Calauria	- 375
	Amphictyonic Meetings at Delphi and Thermopylæ	- 376
	Tribes which composed the League	- 377
	Changes in the composition of the League	- 378
	Effect of the Dorian Conquests on the state of the League	379
	Mode of representation in the Amphictyonic Council	380
	Functions of the Council	- 381
595.	First Sacred War begins	- 383
	The Delphic Oracle	384
	Olympic Festival	- 385
	Presidence of the Olympic Games	- 387
	Athletic Contests	- 388
	Nemean and Isthmian Games	389
	Effects of the Olympic Festival as an Instrument of national Union	- 390
	Its Effects on the Diffusion of Knowledge and the Cultivation of the Arts	- 391
	Effects on the national Character and Habits	- 392
	The Games considered as Spectacles	- 393
	Difference in the Forms of Government a Cause of Disunion among the Greeks	- 394
	Causes which led to the Abolition of Royalty	- 395
	Definitions of various Forms of Government	- 396
	Origin of Oligarchy	- 397
	Means by which Oligarchies maintained their power	- 399
	Timocracy; Polity; Æsymnetes	- 401
	Causes which led to the ruin of Oligarchies	- 402
	Origin of Tyranny	- 403
	Policy of the Tyrants	- 405
	Causes of the short Duration of the tyrannical dynasties	406
	Interference of Sparta in their overthrow	- 407
	Definition of Democracy	- 409
	Different Forms of Democracy in practice	- 409
	Corruption of Democracy; Ochlocracy	- 411
	Forms of Government in Arcadia	- 412
	Tegea, Mantinea, Hérææ	- 413
	Elis	- 414

VOL. I.

a

xviii ANALYTICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE.

B. C.		Page
	Achaia - - - -	415
	Argos - - - -	416
	Epidaurus and Ægina - - - -	417
	Corinth; the Bacchiads - - - -	418
660.	Cypselus overthrows the Bacchiads	419
	Character of Periander - - - -	421
582.	End of his Dynasty - - - -	423
	Sicyon; Dynasty of Andreas - - - -	424
	Myron and Cleisthenes - - - -	425
	Megara; subject to Corinth - - - -	427
	Theagenes Tyrant of Megara - - - -	428
	Violence of civil discord at Megara - - - -	429
	Theognis the aristocratical poet - - - -	430
	Bœotia; Legislation of Philolaus at Thebes - - - -	432
	Bœotian Confederacy - - - -	433
	Lœcian Tribes - - - -	434
	Phocis; Delphi; Eubœa - - - -	435
	Ancient War between Chalcis and Eretria - - - -	436
	Political division of Thessaly - - - -	437
	Distinction of Classes among the Thessalians; Office of Tagus - - - -	438
	Factions of Larissa - - - -	439

APPENDIX.

I. On the Number of the Spartan Tribes	441
III. On the Organisation of the Spartan Army	444