

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01462-5 - Unbeaten Tracks in Japan, Volume 1

Isabella Lucy Bird

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS OF VOL. I.

INTRODUCTORY CHAPTER Page 1

LETTER I.

First View of Japan—A Vision of Fujisan—A Hybrid City—Japanese Sampans—“Pullman Cars”—Undignified Locomotion—Paper Money
—The Drawbacks of Japanese Travelling Pages 12-21

LETTER II.

Sir Harry Parkes—An “Ambassador’s Carriage”—Blurs and Hieroglyphs
—Cart Coolies—A supposed Concession to Foreign Opinion—Regulations 22-25

LETTER III.

Yedo and Tôkiyô—The Yokohama Railroad—The Effect of Misfits—The Plain of Yedo—Personal Peculiarities—First Impressions of Tôkiyô
—H.B.M.’s Legation—An English Home 26-31

LETTER IV.

Lifeless Heat—Street Sights in Tôkiyô—The Foreign Concession—The Missionary Quarter—Architectural Vulgarities—The Imperial Gardens
—Costume and Behaviour—Female Inelegance 32-39

LETTER V.

Narrow Grooves—Topics of Talk—A Pair of Ponies—The Shrines of Shiba
—“Afternoon Tea”—The English Church 40-43

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01462-5 - Unbeaten Tracks in Japan, Volume 1

Isabella Lucy Bird

Table of Contents

More information

xii

CONTENTS.

LETTER VI.

Dr. Hepburn—The Yokohama Bluff—"John Chinaman"—Chinese Compadroes—Engaging a servant—First Impressions of Ito—A Solemn Contract—The Food Question Pages 44-52

LETTER VII.

Theatrical Reform—The Ancient Drama—The Modern Theatre—The Stage—The Opening of a Reformed Theatre—The Players—The Opening Address—Moral Reforms—Exasperating Noises—A Comic Pastoral 53-61

LETTER VIII.

Kwan-non Temple—Uniformity of Temple Architecture—A Kuruma Expedition—A Perpetual Festival—The Ni-o—The Limbo of Vanity—Heathen Prayers—Binzuru—The Fox-God—A Group of Devils—Floral Monstrosities—Japanese Womankind—New Japan—An Élégante 62-78

LETTER IX.

Fears—Travelling Equipment—Passports—Coolie Costume—A Yedo Diorama—Rice Culture—Tea Houses—A Traveller's Reception—The Inn at Kasukabé—Lack of Privacy—A Concourse of Noises—A Nocturnal Alarm—A Vision of Policemen—A Budget from Yedo 79-93

LETTER IX.—(Continued.)

A Coolie falls ill—Peasant Costume—Varieties in Threshing—The Tochigi Yadoya—Farming Villages—A Beautiful Region—An In Memoriam Avenue—A Doll's Street—Nikkô—The Journey's End—Coolie Kindness 94-103

LETTER X.

A Japanese Idyll—Musical stillness—My Rooms—Floral Decorations—Kanaya and his Household—Table Equipments 104-107

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01462-5 - Unbeaten Tracks in Japan, Volume 1

Isabella Lucy Bird

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xiii

LETTER XI.

The Beauties of Nikkô—The Burial of Iyéyasu—The Approach to the great Shrines—The Yomei Gate—Gorgeous Decorations—Simplicity of the Mausoleum—The Shrine of Iyémitsu—Religious Art of Japan and India—An Earthquake—Beauties of Wood-carving Pages 108-118

LETTER XII.

A Japanese Pack-horse and Pack-saddle—The Mountain-road to Chiuzenji—A Deserted Village—The Pilgrim Season—Rose Azaleas—Yadoya and Attendant—A native Watering-place—The Sulphur Baths—A “Squeeze”—A welcome Arrival . . . 119-127

LETTER XIII.

Peaceful Monotony—A Japanese School—A dismal Ditty—Punishment—A Children's Party—A juvenile Belle—Female Names—A juvenile Drama—Needlework—Calligraphy—Kanaya—Daily Routine—An Evening's Entertainment—Planning Routes—The god-shelf 128-136

LETTER XIII.—(Continued.)

Darkness visible—Nikkô Shops—Girls and Matrons—Night and Sleep—Parental Love—Childish Docility—Hair-dressing—Skin Diseases—The Moxa—Acupuncture . . . 137-141

LETTER XIII.—(Completed.)

Shops and Shopping—Calculations—The Barber's Shop—A Paper Waterproof—Ito's Vanity—The Worship of Daikoku—Preparations for the Journey—Transport and Prices—Money and Measurements 142-146

LETTER XIV.

Comfort disappears—Fine Scenery—An Alarm—A Farm-house—An unusual Costume—Bridling a Horse—Female Dress and Ugliness—Babies—My Mago—Beauties of the Kinugawa—A Buddhist Cemetery—Fujihara—My Servant—Horse-shoes—An absurd Mistake 147-162

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01462-5 - Unbeaten Tracks in Japan, Volume 1

Isabella Lucy Bird

Table of Contents

More information

xiv

CONTENTS.

LETTER XV.

A Fantastic Jumble—The “Quiver” of Poverty—The Watershed—From Bad to Worse—The Rice Planter’s Holiday—A Diseased Crowd—Amateur Doctoring—The Hot Bath—Want of Cleanliness—Insanitary Houses—Rapid Eating—Premature Old Age Pages 163-169

LETTER XV.—(Concluded).

A Japanese Ferry—The Wistaria Chinensis—The Crops—A Chinese Drug—Etiquette in Cultivation—A Corrugated Road—The Pass of Sanno—Various Vegetation—An Ungainly Undergrowth—Preponderance of Men—The Shrines of Nature-worship—Apparent Decay of Religion 170-175

LETTER XVI.

The Plain of Wakamatsu—A Noble Tree—Light Costume—The Takata Crowd—Japanese Paper—A Congress of Schoolmasters—Timidity of a Crowd—Bad Roads—Vicious Horses—Mountain Scenery—A Picturesque Inn—Swallowing a Fish bone—Poverty and Suicide—An Inn-kitchen—England Unknown!—My Breakfast Disappears 176-185

LETTER XVII.

An Infamous Road—Monotonous Greenery—Abysmal Dirt—Low Lives—The Lacquer Tree—Lacquer Poisoning—The Wax Tree and Wax Candles—The Tsugawa Yadoya—Politeness—A Shipping Port—A “Barbarian Devil” 186-190

LETTER XVIII.

A Hurry—The Tsugawa Packet-boat—Running the Rapids—Fantastic Scenery—The River-life—Vineyards—Drying Barley—Summer Silence—The Outskirts of Niigata—The Church Mission House 191-194

NOTES ON MISSIONS IN NIIGATA.

Christian Missions—Niigata as a Mission Station—The two Missionaries—The result of three Years of Work—Daily Preaching—The Medical Mission—The Hospital—Difficulties of Missionaries in Japan 196-206

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01462-5 - Unbeaten Tracks in Japan, Volume 1

Isabella Lucy Bird

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xv

LETTER XIX.

- Temple Street—Interior of a Temple—Resemblances between Buddhist and Roman Ritual—A Popular Preacher—Nirvana—Gentleness of Buddhism—Japanese distaste to “Eternal Life”—A new Obstacle in the way of Christianity Pages 207-212

LETTER XX.

- Abominable Weather—Insect Pests—Absence of Foreign Trade—A refractory River—Progress—The Japanese City—Water Highways—Niigata Gardens—Ruth Fyson—The Winter Climate—A Population in Wadding 213-219

LETTER XXI.

- Mean Streets—Curio Shops—Idealised Tubs—Hair-Pins—Coarse Lacquer—Graven Images—Ecclesiastical Paraphernalia—Shoddy—Booksellers’ Shops—Literature for Women—Careful Domestic Training—Literary Copyright—Book-Binding—Paper Lanterns—Blue China—Quack Medicines—Criticism 220-228

LETTER XXI.—(Concluded.)

- The Absurd in Shopping—Sadness and Jubilation—Condensed Milk—Lemon Sugar—Essence of Coffee—Shameless Impositions—Rose Dentifrice—Ito—Provender for the Journey 229-231

NOTES ON FOOD AND COOKERY.

- Fish and Soy—The use of Game and Poultry—Varieties of Vegetables—The Raphanus Sativus—Tastelessness of Fruits—Cakes and Sweetmeats—Cleanliness and Economy in Cooking—Cooking Utensils—Vivisection—Soups—Formal Entertainments—Beverages—The Diet of the Poor 232-240

LETTER XXII.

- The Canal-side at Niigata—Awful Loneliness—Courtesy—Dr. Palm’s Tandem—A Noisy Matsuri—A Jolting Journey—The Mountain Villages—Winter Dismalness—An Out-of-the-world Hamlet—Crowded Dwellings—Riding a Cow—“Drunk and Disorderly”—An Enforced Rest—Local Discouragements—Heavy Loads—Absence of Beggary—Slow Travelling 241-250

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01462-5 - Unbeaten Tracks in Japan, Volume 1

Isabella Lucy Bird

Table of Contents

More information

xvi

CONTENTS.

LETTER XXIII.

Comely Kine—Japanese Criticism on a Foreign Usage—A Pleasant Halt
 —Renewed Courtesies—The Plain of Yonezawa—A Curious Mistake
 —The Mother's Memorial—The Judgments of Hades—Arrival at Komatsu—Stately Accommodation—Latitude in Speech—Silk and Silk Culture—A Vicious Horse—An Asiatic Arcadia—A Fashionable
 Watering-place—A Belle—"Godowns"—The God of Wealth
 Pages 251-266

LETTER XXIV.

Prosperity—Convict Labour—A New Bridge—Yamagata—Intoxicating
 Forgeries—The Government Buildings—Bad Manners—A Filature—
 Snow Mountains—A Wretched Town 267-281

LETTER XXV.

The Effect of a Chicken—Poor Fare—Slow Travelling—Stone Ropes—Objects of Interest—Kak'ké—The Fatal Close—Predisposing Causes
 —A Great Fire—Security of the Kuras 282-285

LETTER XXV.—(Continued.)

Lunch in Public—A Grotesque Accident—Police Enquiries—Man or Woman?—A Melancholy Stare—A Vicious Horse—An Ill-favoured
 Town—A Disappointment—A Torii 286-295

LETTER XXV.—(Concluded.)

A Casual Invitation—A Ludicrous Incident—Politeness of a Policeman—
 A Comfortless Sunday—An Outrageous Irruption—A Privileged Stare 296-298

LETTER XXVI.

The Necessity of Firmness—Perplexing Misrepresentations—Gliding with the Stream—Suburban Residences—The Kubota Hospital—A Formal Reception—Bad Nursing—The Antiseptic Treatment—A Well-arranged Dispensary—The Normal School—Contrasts and Incongruities 299-306

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01462-5 - Unbeaten Tracks in Japan, Volume 1

Isabella Lucy Bird

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xvii

LETTER XXVII.

- A Silk Factory—Employment for Women—A Police Escort—The Japanese Police Force—A Ruined Castle—The increasing Study of Law
Pages 307-309

LETTER XXVIII.

- “A Plague of Immoderate Rain”—A Confidential Servant—Ito’s Diary—Ito’s Excellences—Ito’s Faults—A Prophecy of the Future of Japan—Curious Queries—Superfine English—Economic Travelling—The Japanese Pack-horse again 310-314

LETTER XXIX.

- The Symbolism of Seaweed—Afternoon Visitors—An Infant Prodigy—A Feat in Calligraphy—Child Worship—The Japanese Seal—A Borrowed Dress—Marriage Arrangements—A Trousseau—House Furniture—The Marriage Ceremony—A Wife’s Position—Code of Morals for Women 315-326

LETTER XXX.

- A Holiday Scene—A Matsuri—Attractions of the Revel—Matsuri Cars—Gods and Demons—Tableaux vivants—A possible Harbour—A Village Forge—Prosperity of Saké Brewers—The Introduction of Saké into Japan—Saké and Revenue—A “great Sight” 327-335

LETTER XXXI.

- The Fatigues of Travelling—Torrents and Mud—Ito’s Surliness—The Blind Shampooers—Guilds of the Blind—A supposed Monkey Theatre—A Suspended Ferry—A Difficult Transit—Perils on the Yonetsurugawa—A Boatman Drowned—Nocturnal Disturbances—A noisy Yadoya—Storm-bound Travellers—Hai! Hai!—More Nocturnal Disturbances 336-346

LETTER XXXII.

- Good-tempered Intoxication—The Effect of Sunshine—A tedious Altercation—“Harassed Interests”—Foreign Requirements—Village Doings—Homogeneity of Japan—Evening Occupations—Noisy Talk—Social Gatherings—Unfair Comparisons 347-354

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01462-5 - Unbeaten Tracks in Japan, Volume 1

Isabella Lucy Bird

Table of Contents

More information

xviii

CONTENTS.

LETTER XXXIII.

Torrents of Rain—An unpleasant Detention—Devastations produced by Floods—The Yodate Pass—The Force of Water—Difficulties thicken
—A Primitive Yadaya—The Water rises Pages 355-362

LETTER XXXIII.—(Continued.)

Scanty Resources—Japanese Children—Children's Games—A Sagacious Example—A Kite Competition—Alphabet Cards—Contagious Merriment—Popular Proverbs—Personal Privations 363-369

LETTER XXXIV.

Hope deferred—Effects of the Flood—Activity of the Police—A Ramble in Disguise—The Tanabata Festival—Mr. Satow's Reputation—The Weaving Woman 370-373

LETTER XXXV.

A Lady's Toilet—Hair-dressing—Paint and Cosmetics—Afternoon Visitors
—Christian Converts—Popular Superstitions—Wraiths and Apparitions—Spiritualism—Omens and Dreams—Love and Revenge 374-386

LETTER XXXVI.

A Travelling Curiosity—Rude Dwellings—Primitive Simplicity—The Public Bath-house—Solemn Queries—The "Few Stripes"—A Trembling Hope 387-391

LETTER XXXVII.

A hard Day's Journey—An Overturn—Nearing the Ocean—Joyful Excitement—Universal Greyness—Inopportune Policemen—A Stormy Voyage—A wild Welcome—A Windy landing—The Journey's
End 392-396