

TOXOPHILVS,

The schole of shootinge
 conteyned in tvvo
 bookes.

*To all Gentlemen and yomen of Englande,
 pleasaunte for theyr pastyme to rede,
 and profitable for theyr use
 to folow, both in war
 and peace.*

The contentes of the first booke.

☞ Earnest businesse ought to be refreshed wyth honeste pastyme.	Fol. 1.	[p. 1.]
Shootyng moost honest pastyme.	3.	[4.]
The inuention of shootinge.	5.	[6.]
Shootyng fit for princes and greate men.	5.	[7.]
Shootyng, fit for Scholers and studentes.	8.	[10.]
Shootyng fitter for studentes than any musike or Instrumentes.	9.	[12.]
Youthe ought to learne to singe.	11.	[14.]

No maner of man doth or can vse to muche shootyng.	14.	[p. 18.]
Agaynste vnlawfull gammes and namelye cardes and dise.	16.	[21.]
Shootyng in war.	24.	[32.]
Obedience the best propertie of a Souldyar.	25.	[33.]
Reasons and authorites agaynste shootyng in war with the confutacion of the same.	26.	[35.]
God is pleased with stronge wepons and valy-aunt feates of war.	28.	[39.]
The commoditie of Shootyng in war throughe the Histories Greke and Latin, & all nations Christen and Hethen.	29.	[41.]
Vse of shootyng at home causethe strongeshootyng in warre.	41.	[55.]
Vse of shootyng at home, except men be apte by nature, and connyng by teachyng, doth litle good at all.	43.	[58.]
Lacke of learnyng to shoote causethe Englande lacke many a good archer.	46.	[62.]
In learnyng any thyng, a man must couete to be best, or els he shal neuer attayne to be meane.	47.	[63.]