

CONTENTS

PART I

THE DESERT AND ITS PEOPLE

	PAGE
PREFACE . . . . .	vii
CHAPTER I
THE SUDAN COAST
Approach by sea through coral reefs—The maritime plain and the mountains beyond—Desert flowers—Summer calm on the pearling grounds—Sandstorm—Winter rain—Golden desert and turquoise sea—Coral gardens—Port Sudan—Suakin . . . . .	I
CHAPTER II
THE PEOPLE, SOCIAL AND RELIGIOUS CONDITIONS
The three nationalities—The negroes—Escapes from slavery, Mabruk's adventure—Introduction to a Hamitic native—Dress and arms—Women—Sexual morality, duels—Government under Shékh's—Tribal fights—Fraternity and Equality, little Liberty—The power of tradition—Mohammedanism . . . . .	15
CHAPTER III
RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCES AND SUPERSTITIONS
Religious phraseology—Veneration of Shékh's—"Old Man Flea" and his legends—The mûled celebration and "dervish dance"—Amulets—Witchcraft—Milking—Evil Eye—Pearls—Cats—Eclipse of the Moon—Medical—British parallels—Honesty . . . . .	35
CHAPTER IV
THE DAILY LIFE OF THE PEOPLE
Desert farming—Nomad life—Tents and utensils—Amusements . . . . .	50
CHAPTER V
SAILORS, FISHERMEN AND PEARL DIVERS
The sambûk —Arab travel—Pearl fishing—Diving—Fishing nets and spears—Sting rays and sawfish . . . . .	59
CHAPTER VI
WOMEN'S LIFE
Social position and influence—Divorce—Ibrahim's wife, forgiveness and death—Women's work—Home . . . . .	73

PART II

CORALS AND CORAL REEFS

CHAPTER VII

CORALS AND CORAL ANIMALS

	PAGE
Importance of corals—Coral polyp and sea anemone—Propagation by cuttings—Colonial polyps—Forms of corals—Fungia—Coral gardens—Colours—Place in marine life, and in Evolution . . . . .	83

CHAPTER VIII

THE BUILDING OF REEFS

Fate of dead corals—Stony seaweeds—Rate of growth of a reef—Destruction of coral by sponge, mollusca, &c.—Form of a coral reef—Origin by growth of coral—Abrasion of the shore forming reef flat—Origin of the boat channel—Distinctive features of coral reefs formed by abrasion alone in Zanzibar, Cape Verde Islands, and near Alexandria—Recrystallisation of limestone—Three kinds of reef—The problem of Atolls—Darwin's Theory—The Funafuti boring—Atolls formed by direct growth . . . . .	98
---	----

CHAPTER IX

THE MAKING OF THE RED SEA

Climate, alternations of desert and sea conditions—Hot sand-bearing winds—Rainfall—Peculiarities of the tide—Canal-like shape of Red Sea—The great Rift Valley—Origin of the "Brothers" and "Daedalus Reef"—"Emerald Island"—The coast and reefs—Maritime plain—Its coral border—Recent nature of internal structure of coral rock—Elevation of coastline—Foundations of the reefs—Previous theories inadmissible—Rawaya peninsula—Three steps on sides of Rift Valley—Successive elevations—Harbours—Problem of their origin—A natural promenade—Coastwise travel—The Shubuk labyrinth—Summary of history of the Red Sea . . . . .	118
---	-----