CAMBRIDGE LIBRARY COLLECTION

Books of enduring scholarly value

Classics

From the Renaissance to the nineteenth century, Latin and Greek were compulsory subjects in almost all European universities, and most early modern scholars published their research and conducted international correspondence in Latin. Latin had continued in use in Western Europe long after the fall of the Roman empire as the lingua franca of the educated classes and of law, diplomacy, religion and university teaching. The flight of Greek scholars to the West after the fall of Constantinople in 1453 gave impetus to the study of ancient Greek literature and the Greek New Testament. Eventually, just as nineteenth-century reforms of university curricula were beginning to erode this ascendancy, developments in textual criticism and linguistic analysis, and new ways of studying ancient societies, especially archaeology, led to renewed enthusiasm for the Classics. This collection offers works of criticism, interpretation and synthesis by the outstanding scholars of the nineteenth century.

Godofredi Hermanni Opuscula

Gottfried Hermann's Opuscula (1827–1877) collects in eight volumes the shorter writings of this central figure of nineteenth-century classical philology. Best known for his work on Greek metrics and his editions of Aeschylus, Euripides and others, Hermann (1772–1848) drew on Kantian phenomenology as well as his own formidable understanding of ancient grammars to advance a compelling program of classical scholarship that took language itself as the primary witness to the distant past. Hermann's grammar-based scholarship drew criticism, but established him as foundational to modern philology. As E.G. Sihler wrote in the American Journal of Philology in 1933, 'He accepted nothing on mere authority, but investigated the causes and roots of every matter.' Volume 8 (1877), edited by Theodor Fritzsche, contains works written between 1839 and Hermann's death, including important essays on Aeschylus, Pindar and Euripides, reviews, and occasional verse. This diverse collection provides fuller insight into the mind of this highly influential scholar.

Cambridge University Press has long been a pioneer in the reissuing of out-of-print titles from its own backlist, producing digital reprints of books that are still sought after by scholars and students but could not be reprinted economically using traditional technology. The Cambridge Library Collection extends this activity to a wider range of books which are still of importance to researchers and professionals, either for the source material they contain, or as landmarks in the history of their academic discipline.

Drawing from the world-renowned collections in the Cambridge University Library, and guided by the advice of experts in each subject area, Cambridge University Press is using state-of-the-art scanning machines in its own Printing House to capture the content of each book selected for inclusion. The files are processed to give a consistently clear, crisp image, and the books finished to the high quality standard for which the Press is recognised around the world. The latest print-on-demand technology ensures that the books will remain available indefinitely, and that orders for single or multiple copies can quickly be supplied.

The Cambridge Library Collection will bring back to life books of enduring scholarly value (including out-of-copyright works originally issued by other publishers) across a wide range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and in science and technology.

Godofredi Hermanni opuscula ne Mauritio Hauptio mortuo, qui volumen eorum octavum edere constituerat, dispersa et incomposita iacerent oblivionique traderentur immeritae ab Ritschelio maxime et Ecksteinio cautio adhibita est. Quorum virorum monitu ego omnia collegi et opus ab ipso Hermanno inceptum magnoque virorum doctorum desiderio exspectatum ad finem perduxi. Continentur autem hoc volumine Hermanni opuscula ab anno MDCCCXXXIX usque ad viri singularis obitum conscripta. Quamquam ne haec quidem tota et integra edere licuit. Praeterquam enim quod ipsius Hermanni ea consuetudo, quam in prioribus septem voluminibus secutus est, suadebat ut nonnulla segregarentur, etiam bibliopola admonuit ne unius voluminis eiusque ab me nominatim edendi modus excederetur. Itaque diu mihi dubitanti, quid servandum esset, quid reiciendum, aptissimum visum est academica opuscula ad unum omnia retinere, omittere autem censuras annalibus Vindobonensibus Darmstadiensibus Jenensibus insertas, utpote et longitudine copiaque ab huius editionis consilio alienas et facile parabiles hominum doctorum usui et de reliquis pauca quaedam, quibus ne ipse quidem Hermannus multum tribuisse videretur vel quae aliis de causis minus hodie commendarentur. tum censuram libri Beeriani ab hac editione removerem. Quo magis confirmandum est, non meo vitio commissum esse ut non omnia quae quidem huc pertinent Hermanni opuscula denuo ederentur. Adde quod fuerunt, qui non solum horum plenum numerum exprimendum, sed etiam praefationes quasdam atque adeo epistulas adiungendas esse censerent. Quorum quamquam laudabile studium est, equidem tamen, ne summa rei ad incertum revocaretur, iis finibus coactus sum opus circumscribere, quibus tum librarii rationibus tum literarum utilitati satis consuluisse viderer. Huc accedit quod quae nunc a multis efflagitantur — epistulas dico aliaque id genus — eius potius erit edere, qui Godofredi Hermanni vitam enarrare sibi proposuerit: cuius vitae ne idoneus scriptor diutius frustra desideretur etiam post Koechlyi operam valde optandum est.

Erat, cum singulis opusculis adicere vellem quibus virorum doctorum studiis vocibusque ea quae Hermanno placuerunt excepta essent. Hac tamen in re persequenda quo diutius operam collocabam, eo minus mihi poteram satisfacere. Tanta enim diversissimarum de uno loco sententiarum multitudo saepissime congesta erat, ut quid dignum esset commemoratione difficillime constitui posset. Itaque cum peritissimo cuique fontes non ignotos esse intellegerem unde notitiam literariam supplerent, paucissimis locis recentiorum editorum nomina uncis inclusa apposui et ne ea quidem, quae Hauptius in Aeschylo exscripsit, accuratius indicanda esse putavi. In indice tamen scriptorum numeri versuum ad recentiores editiones revocandi erant, in quibus Dindorfii poet. scen. ed. V. et Bergkii poet. lyr. ed. III. ubique secutus sum.

comprehendere possem. Temporum enim iniquitas tulit, ut Hermanni opuscula inedita post mortem Hauptii, cuius curae mandata erant, non collecta invenirentur sed undecunque mihi essent conquirenda, de qua re in Indice Philol. vol. VII. p. 254 uberius exposui. Ibidem cum rogavissem, ut opusculorum edendorum numerum, quem apposueram, si quis unde augerem sciret, ne operae meae deesset, tot tamque iucundae ad me pervenerunt epistulae sive quae me fugerant explentium sive laudantium rem a me institutam consilioque et auctoritate adiuvantium, ut quantum Godofredi Hermanni memoria apud eos valeret, qui disciplinae viri immortalis sese dedissent, probe perspicerem. In quorum numero cum alii egregie de hoc libro meriti sunt, tum Ludovicus Krehlius, bibliothecae academicae Lipsiensi praefectus. Itaque postquam multorum auxilio sublevatus rem ut potui perfecisse videor, tantum tamen abest, ut nihil neglectum praetermissumve esse contendam, ut si quis imperitiae meae succurrere potuerit, eius me beneficio devinctum iri existimem. Illud modo deprecor, ne quis sanctissimum pietatis officium mea culpa criminetur laesum esse: quod cum ab omnibus philologis tum ab me uno ex Hermanni nepotibus summi viri memoriae debetur.
