

CONTENTS

| | PAGE |
|--|------|
| CHAPTER I. THE NOVICE | |
| Situation, income and size of the English nunneries | 1 |
| Nuns drawn from (1) the nobles and gentry | 4 |
| (2) the middle class | 9 |
| Nunneries in medieval wills | 14 |
| The dowry system | 16 |
| Motives for taking the veil: | |
| (1) a career and a vocation for girls | 25 |
| (2) a 'dumping ground' for political prisoners | 29 |
| (3) for illegitimate, deformed or half-witted girls | 30 |
| (4) nuns forced unwillingly to profess by their relations | 33 |
| (5) a refuge for widows and occasionally for wives | 38 |
| CHAPTER II. THE HEAD OF THE HOUSE | |
| Superiors usually women of social standing | 42 |
| Elections and election disputes | 43 |
| Resignations | 56 |
| Special temptations of a superior: | |
| (1) excessive independence and comfort | 59 |
| (2) autocratic government | 64 |
| (3) favouritism | 66 |
| The superior a great lady in the country side | 68 |
| Journeys | 69 |
| Luxurious clothes and entertainments | 73 |
| Picture of heads of houses in Bishop Alnwick's Lincoln visitations (1436-49) | 80 |
| Wicked prioresses | 82 |
| Good prioresses | 89 |
| General conclusion: Chaucer's picture borne out by the records | 94 |
| CHAPTER III. WORLDLY GOODS | |
| Evidence as to monastic property in | |
| (1) the Valor Ecclesiasticus | 96 |
| (2) monastic account rolls | 97 |
| Variation of size and income among houses | 98 |
| Methods of administration of estates | 99 |
| Sources of income: | |
| (1) rents from land and houses | 100 |
| (2) manorial perquisites and grants | 103 |

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01714-5 - Medieval English Nunneries

Eileen Power

Table of Contents

More information

| x | CONTENTS | PAGE |
|--|----------|------|
| (3) issues of the manor | | 109 |
| (4) miscellaneous payments | | 112 |
| (5) spiritualities | | 113 |
| Expenses | | 117 |
| (1) internal expenses of the convent | | 119 |
| (2) divers expenses | | 123 |
| (3) repairs | | 123 |
| (4) the home farm | | 125 |
| (5) the wages sheet | | 129 |
| CHAPTER IV. MONASTIC HOUSEWIVES | | |
| The obedientiaries | | 131 |
| Allocation of income and obedientiaries' accounts | | 134 |
| Chambresses' accounts (clothes) | | 137 |
| Cellaresses' accounts (food) | | 137 |
| Servants | | 143 |
| (1) chaplain | | 144 |
| (2) administrative officials | | 146 |
| (3) household staff | | 150 |
| (4) farm labourers | | 150 |
| Nunnery households | | 151 |
| Relations between nuns and servants | | 154 |
| Occasional hired labour | | 157 |
| Villages occasionally dependent upon nunneries for work | | 158 |
| CHAPTER V. FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES | | |
| Poverty of nunneries | | 161 |
| (1) prevalence of debt | | 162 |
| (2) insufficient food and clothing | | 164 |
| (3) ruinous buildings | | 168 |
| (4) nuns begging alms | | 172 |
| Reasons for poverty: | | |
| (1) natural disasters | | 176 |
| (2) ecclesiastical exactions and royal taxes | | 183 |
| (3) feudal and other services | | 185 |
| (4) right of patrons to take temporalities during voidance | | 186 |
| (5) right of bishop and king to nominate nuns on certain occasions | | 188 |
| (6) pensions, corrodies, grants and liveries | | 194 |
| (7) hospitality | | 200 |
| (8) litigation | | 201 |
| (9) bad management | | 203 |
| (10) extravagance | | 211 |
| (11) overcrowding with nuns | | 212 |

CONTENTS

xi

| | PAGE |
|---|------|
| Methods adopted by bishops to remedy financial distress: | |
| (1) devices to safeguard expenditure by the head of the house | 217 |
| (2) episcopal licence required for business transactions | 225 |
| (3) appointment of a custos | 228 |

CHAPTER VI. EDUCATION

The education of the nuns:

| | |
|--|-----|
| Learning of Anglo-Saxon nuns, and of German nuns at a later date | 237 |
| Little learning in English nunneries during the later middle ages | 238 |
| Nunnery libraries and nuns' books | 240 |
| Education of nuns | 244 |
| Latin in nunneries | 246 |
| Translations for the use of nuns | 251 |
| Needlework | 255 |
| Simple forms of medicine | 258 |
| Nunneries as schools for children: | |
| The education of novices | 260 |
| The education of secular children | 261 |
| Boys | 263 |
| Limitations: | |
| (1) not all nunneries took children | 264 |
| (2) only gentlefolk taken | 265 |
| (3) disapproval and restriction of nunnery schools by the ecclesiastical authorities | 270 |
| What did the nuns teach? | 274 |
| Life of school children in nunneries | 279 |
| 'Piety and breeding' | 281 |

CHAPTER VII. ROUTINE AND REACTION

| | |
|---|-----|
| Division of the day by the Benedictine Rule | 285 |
| The Benedictine combination of prayer, study and labour breaks down | 288 |
| Dead routine | 289 |
| The reaction from routine | 290 |
| (1) carelessness in singing the services | 291 |
| (2) accidia | 293 |
| (3) quarrels | 297 |
| (4) gay clothes | 303 |
| (5) pet animals | 305 |
| (6) dancing, minstrels and merry-making | 309 |

| xii | CONTENTS | PAGE |
|--|----------|------|
| CHAPTER VIII. PRIVATE LIFE AND PRIVATE PROPERTY | | |
| The monastic obligation to (1) communal life, (2) personal poverty | | 315 |
| The breakdown of communal life: division into familiae with private rooms | | 316 |
| The breakdown of personal poverty | | 322 |
| (1) the annual peculium | | 323 |
| (2) money pittances | | 323 |
| (3) gifts in money and kind | | 324 |
| (4) legacies | | 325 |
| (5) proceeds of a nun's own labour | | 330 |
| Private life and private property in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries | | 331 |
| Attitude of ecclesiastical authorities | | 336 |
| CHAPTER IX. FISH OUT OF WATER | | |
| Enclosure in the Benedictine Rule | | 341 |
| The movement for the enclosure of nuns | | 343 |
| The Bull Periculoso | | 344 |
| Attempts to enforce enclosure in England | | 346 |
| Attempts to regulate and restrict the emergence of nuns from their houses | | 353 |
| The usual pretexts for breaking enclosure: | | |
| (1) illness | | 361 |
| (2) to enter a stricter rule | | 363 |
| (3) convent business | | 367 |
| (4) ceremonies, processions, funerals | | 368 |
| (5) pilgrimages | | 371 |
| (6) visits to friends | | 376 |
| (7) short walks, field work | | 381 |
| The nuns wander freely about in the world | | 385 |
| Conclusion | | 391 |
| CHAPTER X. THE WORLD IN THE CLOISTER | | |
| Visitors in the cloister are another side of the enclosure problem | | 394 |
| The scholars of Oxford and Cambridge and the neighbouring nunneries | | 395 |
| Regulations to govern the entrance of seculars into nunneries: | | |
| (1) certain persons not to be admitted | | 401 |
| (2) certain parts of the house and certain hours forbidden | | 402 |
| (3) unsuccessful attempts to regulate the reception of boarders | | 409 |
| The nuns and political movements | | 419 |

CONTENTS

xiii

| | PAGE |
|---|------|
| Robbery and violence | 422 |
| Border raids in Durham and Yorkshire | 425 |
| The strange tale of Sir John Arundel's outrage on a nunnery . | 429 |
| The sack of Origny in Raoul de Cambrai | 432 |

CHAPTER XI. THE OLDE DAUNCE

| | |
|---|-----|
| Nuns and the celibate ideal | 436 |
| Sources of evidence for the moral state of the English nunneries | 439 |
| Apostate nuns | 440 |
| Nuns' lovers | 446 |
| Nuns' children | 450 |
| Disorder in two small houses, Cannington (1351) and Ease- bourne (1478) | 452 |
| Disorder in the great abbeys of Amesbury and Godstow . | 454 |
| Moral state of the nunneries in the diocese of Lincoln at two periods | 456 |
| Attempted statistical estimate of cases of immorality in Lincoln (1430-50), Norwich (1514) and Chichester (1478, 1524) dioceses | 460 |
| Punishment of offenders | 462 |
| General conclusions | 471 |

CHAPTER XII. THE MACHINERY OF REFORM

| | |
|--|-----|
| The chapter meeting | 475 |
| Reform by external authorities: | |
| (1) a parent house | 478 |
| (2) the chapter general of the order | 481 |
| (3) the bishop of the diocese | 482 |
| The episcopal visitation and injunctions | 483 |
| How far was this control adequate? | |
| (1) concealment of faults | 488 |
| (2) visitation too infrequent | 490 |
| (3) difficulty of enforcing injunctions | 492 |
| Value of visitation documents to the historian | 493 |

CHAPTER XIII. THE NUN IN MEDIEVAL LITERATURE

| | |
|--|-----|
| Value of literary evidence | 499 |
| Autobiographies and biographies of nuns | 500 |
| Popular poetry (chansons de nonnes) | 502 |
| Popular stories (fabliaux, exempla) | 515 |
| Didactic works addressed to nuns | 523 |
| Satires and moral treatises | 533 |
| Secular literature in general | 555 |

| xiv | CONTENTS | PAGE |
|---|----------|------|
| APPENDICES | | |
| I. ADDITIONAL NOTES TO THE TEXT: | | |
| A. The daily fare of Barking Abbey | | 563 |
| B. School children in nunneries | | 568 |
| C. Nunnery disputes | | 581 |
| D. Gay clothes | | 585 |
| E. Convent pets in literature | | 588 |
| F. The moral state of Littlemore Priory in the sixteenth century | | 595 |
| G. The moral state of the Yorkshire nunneries in the first half of the fourteenth century | | 597 |
| H. The disappearance or suppression of eight nunneries prior to 1535 | | 602 |
| I. Chansons de Nonnes | | 604 |
| J. The theme of the nun in love in medieval popular literature | | 622 |
| K. Nuns in the Dialogus Miraculorum of Caesarius of Heisterbach | | 627 |
| II. VISITATIONS OF NUNNERIES IN THE DIOCESE OF ROUEN BY ARCHBISHOP EUDES RIGAUD (1248–1269) | | |
| | | 634 |
| III. FIFTEENTH CENTURY SAXON VISITATIONS BY JOHANN BUSCH | | |
| | | 670 |
| IV. LIST OF ENGLISH NUNNERIES, c. 1275–1535 | | |
| | | 685 |
| BIBLIOGRAPHY | | 693 |
| INDEX | | 704 |