

I N D E X.

- ABORIGINES, their treatment by civilized nations, 2
 Acacia (clianthus puniceus), parrot's bill, 207. Kowai. Edwardsia microphylla, 450
 Ahuriri, on the east coast, 28, 216, 217, 244, 339, 462
 Aia, the widow of Pehi, 328
 Akaroa, a French settlement, 210, 218
 Akira, his baptism, 318
 Alatana, one of the new Hebrides, 374
 Albert (Prince), his interview with the New Zealand Chief Hoani Wiremu, 473, 474
 Allan (John), 423
 American Episcopal Church, 305
 Amo, a Taupo chief, 145
 Anonokia, a slave, 36
 Aotea, 118—121, 215
 Apiti, a term for cursing, 94
 Araara, a fish, 410, 411
 Arahura, 120
 Arapawa, Queen Charlotte's Sound, 120, 207, 326
 Ara-tuku-tuku, progenitor of the Taniwhas, 50
 Arawa mountains, 120
 Arero, the pa of, 107
 Arikio, or high chiefs, 42, 155, 186
 Arohi-rohi, which formed the first woman, 18
 Assembly, General, met at Auckland, 212
 Atene, or Oawitu, a village on the Wanganui, 342
 Atu ahu, or charm, 72, 73
 Atua Potiki, or infant gods, 19, 88, 186, 225
 Auckland Isles, 218
 Auckland, suggested as a capital by Capt. Cook, 206, 214; made the seat of government, 211; government-house burnt, 212; its locality as a province, 213; harbour, 214; trade, ib.; craters, 222; view of, 259; noticed, 252, 273, 279, 337, 346, 347, 355, 368
 Aukehu kills a monster fish, 52
 Aupouri, or North Cape, 118
 Aute, the inner bark of the Hoheria populnea, 137
 Awa, tidal-river fish, 411
 Awato, the grub of a sphinx moth, 118
 Babel, tradition of the dispersion, 68
 Ball, game with an ornamented, 174
 Ballet Rock, near Evans's Bay, 472
 Bally Rock, off Point Jerningham, 231
 Balmoral estate in Scotland, its cost, 264
 Banks's Peninsula, 218
 Baptismal regeneration ruled by the Australian bishops, 303, 304
 Baptismal rites (He Tohi) of the aborigines, 74—76
 Barrier Islands, 244
 Basaltic rocks, 222
 Baskets used for serving up food, 55, 167, 168, 175
 Bat, two kinds of, 395
 Baths for invalids, 221, 222
 Battles of the natives, 258
 Bay of Islands, 195, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 214, 221, 243, 270, 273, 286, 287, 290, 331; declared a free port, 211
 Bear, the sea (rapoka), 395
 Beards condemned by the natives, 151

- Beetle, different varieties, 421, 423
 Bell found embedded under a tree, 184
 BIRDS :—Apteryx Australis (kiwi),
 220, 396
 Bittern (matuku), 119, 120
 Dinornis, 220
 Flycatcher (piwakawaka), 27
 Hawk (kahu), 400
 Hiihi, 30
 Hoiho, the penguin, 408
 Huia, 150, 400
 Kaiaia, sparrow-hawk, 37, 400
 Kaka, brown parrot, 381, 404
 Kakapo, or tarepo, 238, 381, 405
 Kakariki, green parrot, 131, 161,
 382, 404
 Katatai (rallus assimilis), 399
 Kauwau, or karuhiruhi, 408
 Kereru, or wood-pigeon, 381, 406
 Kiwi (apterix Australis), 220, 238,
 380, 396—398, 473, 474
 Koekoeko, bird of passage, 178
 Kohoperoa, bird of passage, 178,
 405
 Koitareke, or kokoreke, 400, 406
 Kokako, the crow, 30, 117, 403
 Kokoreke, the quail, 400, 406
 Korimako, singing bird, 75, 402
 Korora, the penguin, 408
 Kotare (halcyon vagans), 400
 Kotihe, honey-bird, 402
 Kotuku, white crane, 407
 Koukou, or ruru, 400
 Matata, or korootito, 403
 Matuku, or bittern, 119, 407
 Miromiro, and mirotoitoi, 403
 Moa, or dinornis, 132, 220, 237, 398
 Moho periru, or motarua, 37, 399,
 400
 Parera, the duck, 407
 Paroquet, the green, 118, 137
 Patatai, or popotai, 399
 Pihoihoi, 404
 Piopio, bird of passage, 403
 Pipiwarauroa, bird of passage, 178,
 406
 Piwaka-waka, 31, 403
 Powakai, an immense bird, 398
 Pukeko (porphyrio), 37, 118, 123,
 246, 399
 Putangitangi, paradise duck, 407
 Rallus dieffenbachii, 399
 Riro-riro, the wren, 48, 132, 403
 Sparrow-hawk, 132
 Takahe (notornis), 399
 Tara, a small sea-bird, 70, 123
 Tarapunga, 407
 Tieke, 30, 404
 Titi, a sea-bird, 132, 382, 408
 Tongo-hiti, 39
 Torea, black sea-bird, 406
 Toroa, albatross, 408
 Totoara, 30, 408
 Totoriwai, 400
 Tui, 150, 381, 401
 Weka, 238, 381, 399
 Wio, the blue duck, 407
 Bird-traps, 381
 Bishop's College, 312
 Bishops of Australia, their conference at Sydney, 303
 Bishop's wig, its disuse, 148
 Bligh (Capt.), Governor of New
 South Wales, 283, 297
 Blood, payment for shedding, 352
 (note)
 Botany of New Zealand, 430—457
 Boulder Bank harbour, Nelson, 265
 Bouleott's Farm, 350
 Box, carved, or he papa, 280
 Boyd, massacre of its crew, 208, 285,
 286, 314
 Bread, process of making, 390—393
 Bread-fruit (uri), 183
 Brompton, its wreck, 291
 Broughton (Wm. Grant), Bishop of Australia, 294, 299
 Brown (Rev. Mr.), 369
 Burial rites, 97—101
 Burke (Sir Richard), his Church Act,
 304
 Busby (Mr.), appointed British resident, 209
 Butterflies (pepe), 420
 Cabbage introduced by Capt. Cook,
 206; cultivated, 378
 Californian gold mines, 261, 268
 Cannibalism abolished, 10, 211;
 noticed, 194
 Canoe preparing for sea, 171
 Canoes, list of those that brought the first settlers, 123; the first made by Toto, 124
 Canterbury Colony founded, 212, 218,
 237, 264, 462
 Cape Maria Van Dieman, the spirits' flying place, 28
 Cartwright (Rev. R.), 297
 Cascade Point, 236
 Caterpillar, the bulrush, 422—425
 Cavallos, 208

- Cave near the mouth of the Mokau, 394
 Chapman (Mr.), missionary, 359
 Charm for a stubborn woman, 72
 Chasseland (Thomas), interpreter, 238
 Chatham Isles, its aborigines, 7; noticed, 119
 Cherry (Capt.) murdered, 332
 Chief at his meals, 55, 167, 168; praying to his god, 62; tapued, eating with a fern-stalk, 55; receives three names during life, 156
 Chiefs, native, their treatment by the British Government, 270—278; their burial, 97
 Christ Church, town, 1; Lyttelton, 218
 Church Missionary Society, its labours in New Zealand, 305; stations, 209
 Church of New Zealand, its future constitution, 300—308
 Cloaks made of feathers of the kiwi, 397, 473
 Clifford (Mr.), jun., 237
 Climate of New Zealand, 251—255, 262, 460
 Cloth, its ancient material, 185, 194
 Cloudy Bay, 330
 Coal mines, 236, 244
 Cod (Hapuku), 384
 "Columbine," a vessel, 227
 Columbus's discoveries, 205
 Comb, or He Heru, 218
 Concubinage practised, 59
 Confirmation practised by the aborigines, 76
 Conger eel (ngoiro), 412
 Constitution given to New Zealand, 212
 Convicts, their employment on public works, 267, 268
 Convolvulus (rauparaha), used for food, 323
 Cook (Captain) visits New Zealand, 5, 6, 19, 133, 190, 194, 195, 206, 207, 213, 214, 281, 379
 Cook's Straits settlement founded, 210; noticed, 117, 207, 214, 242, 263, 294, 324, 325, 417, 471
 Cooking process by the natives, 389, 390; at a boiling spring, 250
 Copper discovered at Doubtless Bay, Kawa Kawa, and the Barrier Islands, 244
 Coromandel Harbour, 192, 244, 410
 Corpses, a frame for them till decomposed, 311
 Cowper (Rev. Dr.), 297
 Crab fish, 415
 Craters of New Zealand, 221—226
 Crayfish (koura), 383
 Creation, native traditions of, 14
 Crying, an amusement! 175
 Crying children, how cured, 165
 Cunningham (Allan), the botanist, his journey through a forest, 5
 Cursing as practised by the natives, 94
 Customs of the natives resembling those alluded to in Scripture, 465, 466
 Dancing, a favourite amusement, 174
 Day made distinct from night, 20
 Dead, customs relating to the, 97—101
 Deluge, curious tradition respecting it, 17, 18
 Despard (Colonel), 346
 Dillon (Chevalier Capt.), his testimonial of Samuel Marsden's labours, 295
 Discovery of New Zealand, 205
 Diseases, 254—256
 Diving, an amusement, 174
 Dog, the native, 395
 Doubtless Bay, 194, 215, 244
 Dreams vehicles of communication, 74; explained, 160—162
 Drury (Capt.) on the earthquake at Wellington, 232—234
 Ducks, Paradise; the putangi tangi, 329
 Dunedin, capital of Otako, 218
 Dusky Bay tribe, 218, 235, 348
 Ear ornaments, 150
 Earthquakes at Wellington, 212, 472; at Wanganui, 226—228; in the islands of New Zealand, 471, 472
 Easter Island, 189, 192
 Ectropium, complaint of the eyelids, 254
 Eel (tuna), a delicacy, 135, 166, 413; how taken and cooked, 382, 383
 Evangelical Alliance, 307
 Eel cuts, or drains made from lakes, 384
 Egmont (Taranaki), a lofty mountain, 147, 215, 242, 269
 Embalming described, 154

- Emigration to New Zealand since it became a British colony, 213; recommended, 259—269; hints to intended emigrants, 458—462
- Enau, a Christian native, 358, 359
- Enderby (Lieut.), Governor of the Auckland Isles, 212, 218
- England (Capt.), 334
- Erebus, Mount, 225
- Europeans, their traffic in the heads of the natives, 154
- “Every Man his own Physician,” a French work, 72
- Eyre (Lieut.), Governor, 212, 228, 236, 339
- Fables of the natives, 134—137
- Fairies in the form of small birds, 115
- Feasts, or hakari, 169
- Feejee and Maori, their points of agreement, 187
- Female tattoo, 153, 154
- Females, the attachment of the gods to, 43
- Fern-root, food in winter, 18, 134, 135, 166, 168, 183, 337, 379
- Fens of Ely and Lincoln, their fogs, 427, 428
- Fern-stalks, used for play, 173
- Fernandez (Juan) visits New Zealand, 205
- Fin-back (balæna physalus), 396
- Fingers, games played with, 173
- Firearms introduced, 258
- Fish of New Zealand, 382—384, 410—418
- Fishing ceremonies, 83—86; hut, 138
- Fitzroy (Capt.), Governor, 211, 271, 279, 280, 335, 343
- Flax manufactured, 195, 208, 285, 474
- Flies (musca), 418, 419, 424
- Food, its chief articles, 166, 377—384
- Food-store ornamented, 377
- Forest scenery, 253, 433
- Foveaux’s Straits, 209, 238
- Friday, called bleeding-day, 176
- Frogs, 409, 410
- Funeral ode (pihi), 315
- Furneaux (Capt.), massacre of his crew, 206
- Fuchsia, a deciduous tree, 130, 176, 243
- Garlick sowed by Marion, 207
- Genealogies of the aborigines, 15—17
155
- Genealogical board, 155, 159
- Geology of New Zealand, 219—245
- George IV., his interview with the New Zealand chiefs, 310
- Gillespies, murdered, 271, 350
- Gods, two grand orders of, 15
- Gold discovered in Australia, 212, 220, 261, 268; in Coromandel Harbour, 244; at Ahuriri, ib.
- Government offices at Wellington destroyed by an earthquake, 232—235
- Grammar for New Zealand, 208, 310
- Grant (Capt.) killed, 347
- Grey (Earl), protest against his despatch, 212, 275
- Grey, (Sir George) Governor, 211, 212, 271, 273, 335, 339
- Grose (Capt.), Governor of New South Wales, 284
- Groves, sacred (wahi-tapu), 65, 101
- Haddock (moki), 412
- Hades, called Po, or night, 41, 74, 103, 104, 144, 186, 194
- Hæere-awa-awa, the father of the Weka, 33
- Hadfield, (Octavius), Archdeacon of Kapiti, 303, 331
- Haha, an incantation, 77
- Hahakai, a native antiquary, 193
- Hair-cutting, ceremonies connected with, 91, 93
- Hair-powder, its disuse, 149
- Haka-e-pari, an island, 50
- Hakari, or feast, 169
- Hake-turi, flock of birds, 115
- Hakitara, a Ngapuki chief, 327
- Hall (Mr.), missionary, 285, 286
- Hapuku, or whapuku, cod fish, 411
- Hapuruona, a chief, 352
- Harakeke (phormium tenax), 435
- Hatupatu captured by a giantess, 47—49
- Hauraki, 121
- Hawaiki, the cradle of the race, 15, 66, 96, 107, 117, 120, 121, 124, 128, 147, 178, 192, 193, 377, 378
- Hawaii, or the Sandwich isles, 19, 41
- Hazlewood (Rev. Mr.), Wesleyan minister, 188
- Heads of the natives sold to Europeans, 154
- Healthiness of the climate, 253—255

- Heaven, ideas of the natives respecting, 16, 17
 Hedgehog (he kina), 418
 Hekawa, Hicks' Bay, 373
 Heke (Hone), Chief, 9, 10; cut down the flagstaff, 211, 273, 342—348
 He Kowetewete, an etymological puzzle, 175
 Hekawa, Hicks' Bay, 373
 Helme (St.), the lights of, 429
 Hemapo, a convert, 364, 369
 He papa, or carved box, 280
 Herekieke, Chief of Tokanu, 360, 361, 364, 366
 He tiki, monument of a chief, 96
 He Tohi. See Baptismal Rites.
 Heuheu, Chief of Taupo, engraving of his tomb, 32, 322; a splinter in his foot, 56; overwhelmed by a landslide, 50, 63, 321; his daughter's hason, 59; tapued a mountain, 60; his wives, 165; monument at Pukawa, 319; his influence, 319, 320; death, 321; noticed, 13, 156, 158, 326, 363, 364, 371, 372
 Hick's Bay, 241
 Hide and seek, a game, 174
 Hikairo, Chief of Rotorua, 366, 367
 Hiko, the son of Pehi, 327
 Hikurangi, a lofty mountain, 28
 Hikurangi, taking leave of friends, 160
 Hinaki, a Chief, persuaded from visiting England, 311, 312; killed, 312
 Hina-moki, the father of the rat, 33
 Hinau (elaeoarpus), 133, 391, 393
 Hine-nui-te-po, great mother of night, 16, 19, 28, 31, 41
 Hine-te-iwaiwa, her love for Tini-rau, 108—112
 Hoani Wiremu, a Putiki chief, 351, 354, 356; visits Queen Victoria, 473
 Hobson (Capt.), appointed Consul, and first Governor of New Zealand, 210, 270, 278, 294; his death, 211
 Hohake, 224
 Hokianga, river, 123; heads, 209, 210
 Hokio, 139, 141
 Holland, New, its aborigines, 3; climate, 252
 Holmes (Sir Everard), Commander of the North Star, 347, 352
 Hongi, a celebrated chief, 81: visits England, 208, 310; his savage disposition, 312, 313; death, 315; noticed, 258, 287, 342
 Hooker (Sir William), 423, 434
 Horokiri Valley, 212, 337, 351
 Horonguku, or sliding landslip, 158
 Horowhenua, 325
 Hotua Pou, or infant gods, 19, 186
 Hotu-puku, a Taniwha, 52
 House (he whare puni), a view of, 308
 Houses betoken a Japanese origin, 185, 387
 Hue, or gourd, a vegetable, 378
 Huia, the daughter of Pomare, 157
 Huia-tahi, a chief, 360, 363, 369
 Huna, a chief, 325
 Hunahuna, a village, 314
 Hunter (Capt.), Governor of New South Wales, 234
 Hurd's Point, 209
 Huru, his visit to Norfolk Island, 195, 285
 Huts of the natives, 6, 8
 Hutt war, 212; noticed, 217, 231, 234, 336, 350, 472
 Idol, memorial, 62: of a chief slain in battle, 54
 Ignis Fatuus, 426—429
 Ihi, Chief of the Taupo Taniwha, 50
 Ikunikau, 354
 Image worship, 54, 62, 72, 73
 Inanga, a small fish, 383
 Infanticide, common, 165
 Influenza, 255
 Ingarani, England, 158
 Irawaru, the father of dogs, 26, 33
 Irish sailor bewitched, 90; his cure, 91
 Iron sand, magnetic, valuable article of commerce, 243
 Islands submerged, 242
 Israel, dispersion of its tribes, 190, 191
 Iwikau te Heuheu, 360
 Jack (Bloody), Chief of the Ngaitahu, 329, 330, 349
 Jackson's adventure at Alatana, 374—376
 Japanese head-dress, 184
 Johnson (Rev. R.), the first minister of New South Wales, 282
 Jones (Lieut.), 232, 234
 Judges' wigs, still retained, 149
 Jumping into deep water, 174
 Kae, his tragical story, 112—114
 Kahawai, a fish, 131, 411

- Kahikatea, kahika, koroi (podocarpus excelsus), lofty pine, 130, 439
 Kahikatoa (leptospenum scoparium), a small tree, 131
 Kai Koura, a mountain, 236, 330, 349
 Kaipara, 156, 214, 313
 Kaitaia mission station, 293, 429
 Kai-tangata, 35, 36
 Kakaho, or reed, 154, 391
 Kakaramea mountain, 321
 Kaparatehau Lake, 329
 Kaperatehau, a chief, 350
 Kapiti, an island, 120, 244, 276, 325, 327—331, 370; mission founded, 210, 279
 Kapo Wairua, 196
 Karaka promontory, 329
 Karakia, its derivation, 72
 Karamu (coprosma lucida), used in baptism, 75
 Katorore, a Taniwha, 53
 Kauatata, daughter of Tiki, 18
 Kauika, a chief, 66, 68, 69
 Kauri, the pine tree, 136; timber, 221, 236; resin, 236
 Kawia, 215
 Kawa-kawa, 244
 Kawaka, koaka (dacrydium plumosum), 440
 Kawana Paipai, his dream, 162
 Kawhia, 121, 215, 324
 Kawiti, a chief, 343—348
 Kemp (Mr.), missionary, 316, 317
 Kendal (Mr.), missionary, 208, 285, 286, 310
 Kereopa, native missionary and martyr, 353, 360—370, 475
 Kekeringa, a chief, 326
 Keri Keri, mission station, 270, 290, 309, 316, 317
 King (George), pensioned chief, 274
 King (Governor), 195, 196, 208, 285
 King (Mr.), missionary, 285, 286, 288, 290, 316
 Kiore, the rat, 137
 Kirikiri River, 207. See Keri Keri.
 Kite flying, 172
 Kohi-kohi, an early race, 119
 Kokohuia, 324
 Kokopu, a fresh water fish, 383
 Kopi, earthquake at, 230, 231
 Kopi and koroi, a noble tree, 442
 Koro-kio-ewe, god of childbirth, 34
 Korokoro, 287
 Koromiko (veronica salicifolia), a plant, 75, 79
 Kororareka, burial ground consecrated, 209; its flag-staff cut down, 211; noticed, 9, 10, 342—344
 Kotuku, or stork, 130
 Kotuku-rae-roa, a chief, 319
 Koura, or cray-fish, 414, 415
 Kumara, a seed, 38, 105; sweet potato, 377—379
 Kumara, the offspring of Rangi and Papa, 18
 Kumukumu, rock-cod, 135
 Kupe, the first discoverer, traditional notices of, 116, 117, 123—125
 Kurangai-tuku, a giantess, 47—49
 Kuri, a Romanist, 60
 Laburnum of New Zealand, 168
 Lamprey, a favourite fish, 167, 382, 383, 412
 Land, its minimum price, 212, 215, 261—264; how held by the natives, 384
 Landmarks, or boundary-stones, 385, 386
 Lang (Dr.), Presbyterian minister, 298
 Language, showing the origin of the New Zealander, 177—203
 Lattice-work (arapaki), indicates skill, 185
 Lava courses, 222, 223
 Laye (Capt.), 352
 Lee (Professor), his New Zealand Grammar, 208, 310
 Leech, water (sanguis uga), 421
 Leigh (Rev. Mr.), Wesleyan minister, 291
 Leprosy, 248, 255
 Light, the period of, 14
 Limestone, 243; cave, ib.
 Lion, the sea (phoca jubata), 395
 Lizards, several kinds, 408, 409
 Locusts (tarakihī), 419, 421
 Love songs, 142, 143
 Lovell (barrack-sergeant), killed by an earthquake, 228
 Lyttelton, or Port Cooper, 212, 218, 237, 264
 Mackerel (kahawai), 384
 Macleverty (Col.), 357
 Macquarie (Capt.), Governor of New South Wales, 284
 Maero, or wild man, 49
 Mahometanism, its propagation, 181
 Mai-i-rangi, 66, 68

- Maize cultivated, 379
 Maketu, a chief, 61, 90, 355; a locality, 121, 277
 Makutu. See Witchcraft.
 Mamaku, a tree fern, 379
 Mamaku, Chief of the Nga ti rangi, 351—357
 Man, how formed, 23
 Manawa-pou, 241, 278
 Manawatu river, 139, 141, 240, 325; earthquake at, 230
 Manga nui a te Ao, a tributary of the Wanganui, 65, 126, 273
 Mangonui in Doubtless Bay, 215
 Mani-a-poto tribe, 156
 Maniapoto, a chief, 145
 Manihera, a Christian chief and martyr, 161, 357—370, 475
 Manukau harbour, 121, 214, 215
 Maari, its etymology, 178; noticed, 7, 9, 19, 29, 32, 35, 44, 46, 71, 96, 119, 162, 178, 196, 200
 Maperua, a lake, tradition of its formation, 122; noticed, 222
 Maria Van Dieman, 206
 Marikoriko, or twilight, 18
 Mariner's Tonga Isles, 186
 Marion du Fresne, 206, 207
 Marriage recommended to emigrants, 461
 Mars, the planet, called Maru, 35: see Maru
 Marsden (Miss Mary Ann), 292
 Marsden (Rev. Samuel), his early life, 282; his mission to Norfolk Island, 283; founder of the New Zealand mission, 285—294; his death and funeral, 295; his devoted zeal, 295—299; noticed, 195, 208, 210, 308—312; 331, 373
 Maru, a god of war, 33, 35, 40, 41, 67, 85
 Mascarin, massacre of, 206
 Mason (Rev. John), drowned, 211
 Massacre Bay, 236
 Matai, mai (dacrydium), 440
 Matamata, 293
 Mata te ra, 193
 Matene Ruta hung, 157
 Matene te Whiwhi, a chief, 210, 277, 331
 Matouri Bay, 286, 287
 Matthews (Rev. J.), of Kaitaia, 82
 Matuku, tradition of, 115, 116
 Maui, a mythological hero; his marvellous exploits, 23—28; contention with Mauika, 29, 30; his death, 31; noticed, 33, 52, 124, 128, 186
 Mauika, the father of fire, 29, 33
 Maungamuka, 314
 Maungatautari, 323
 Mawae, a Putiki chief, 351
 Mawe pa, 345
 Meals of the natives, 167
 Melbourne, 262
 Melon cultivated, 378
 Men with wings at Waitotara, 33, 34
 Mere, a stone battle-axe, engraving of one, 31, 473, 474; noticed, 77, 79, 244, 330, 348; Wesleyan station, 188
 Meremere, the evening star, 140, 141
 Meremere Pounamu, presented to the Queen, 244
 Mercury Bay, 313
 Meteoric stones, 42
 Meteorological table of London and New Zealand, 470, 471
 Meteors, frequent in New Zealand, 42, 43
 Meurant (Mr.), Government interpreter, 238
 Mice, arrival of a colony of, 213
 Middle Island, earthquake at, 232—239; its rocks, 244; noticed, 209, 252, 335, 339
 Miro (podocarpus ferruginea), 439
 Mission at New Zealand founded by Samuel Marsden, 281—299
 Moa (dinornis), the ostrich, 237, 238, 243, 245
 Moa Upoko tribe, 325, 326
 Mocone, a small bronze beetle, 118
 Mokau, 91, 243, 244
 Moko, or tattoo, 150—154
 Moko Titi, a lizard god, 34
 Molesworth (Sir Wm.) introduces Hoani Wiremu Hipango to Queen Victoria, 473, 474
 Molyneux River, 218, 236
 Monoa, son of Whiro, 69—71, 124
 Months, grumbling, 168
 Moon, the natives' idea of its spots, 95; used for reckoning time, 175—178; its twenty-eight nights, 177
 Moses Tawai, a chief, 343
 Mottoes, 146, 147
 Motuapuhi, 325
 Motu Karamu, German Mission station, 60

- Motu Taiko, a small island in Lake Taupo, 204
 Motu Tawa, a small island, 324
 Motutere, 359, 360, 367
 Moutohora, Whale Island, 223
 Muka Muka rocks, 230
 Mumuhanga, the father of the Totara, 33
 Murderers' Bay, why so named, 206
 Muscle (kuku) used for food, 183, 383, 417
 Musical pipe (he koauau), 147
 Musk-rat, 394
 Mythology of New Zealand, 12—54
- Names, native, have always a signification, 155
 Natural history of the islands, 394—429
 Neck ornaments, 150
 Nelson settlement founded, 211, 217, 218, 330, 332—335
 Nene (Walker), pensioned chief, 274
 New South Wales, 267
 New Testament first printed at Pahia, 209
 New year celebrated, 93
 Ngae, a mission station, 53
 Nga Hui, tradition of, 120
 Ngahurus' Lament, 144
 Ngaitahu tribe, 326, 327, 329
 Nga puhu, a tribe, 147, 331
 Nga-rangi-hore, the father of stones, 33
 Ngarara, the lizard, 136
 Nga te rau kawa tribe, 326
 Nga ti apa tribe, 325, 326
 Ngatiawa, natives of Otaki, 42, 325, 329, 330
 Nga ti haua tribe, 355
 Nga-ti-mamoe, inhabitants of lofty mountains, 49
 Ngatimaniapoto, a tribe, 145
 Ngatimaru tribe, 144, 145, 147
 Nga ti paoa, a tribe, 147
 Ngatiraukawa tribe, 169
 Nga ti ruaka tribe, 326, 351, 352, 355
 Nga ti ruanui tribe, 277, 278, 326, 358, 364—366, 368
 Ngatitao, 325
 Ngatiwhatua tribe, 156
 Nicholas (Mr.), 285, 286
 Night, the period of, 14; made distinct from day, 20; divided into three decades, 177
- Nikau (areca sapida), 434
 Niu, or divination by sticks, 69, 74, 91—93
 Norfolk Island, 195
 North Cape, 285
 Nota, or north star, 157
 Nursery song, 139
- Obsidian, instrument for cutting hair, 93
 Ochre and oil much used, 149
 O'Donohu, the bush-ranger, executed, 297
 Ohaiawai, 350
 Ohau, a creek, 139, 141, 228, 325
 Ohinemotu, 223
 Onga onga (urticæ), 441
 Orakokorako, on the Waikato, 223
 Orau moa bay, 329
 Orawaro, near Pakerau, 51
 Ornaments for the person, 148—155
 Orono, deity at Hawaii, 19
 Ostrich, or Moa, 237
 Otahuhu, 121
 Otake, engraving of the church at, 65; noticed, 42, 90, 139, 141, 277, 335, 337
 Otako, a Scotch settlement, 211, 218, 264, 462
 Otatau, near the Bay of Islands, 221
 Oulad Riahs, mountain tribe, 9; massacred, 10
 Ovens of the natives, 389, 392
 Owa, the father of the dog, 33
 Owl, its various names, 196
 Oyster (ostræa), 417
- Paerau, a region of Hades, 144
 Paeroa, near the Waikato, 223
 Page (Lieut.), 351
 Pahiko, the father of the Kaka, 33
 Pahia mission station, 209, 291, 294
 Pakakutu, 326
 Pa Karaka, volcanic cone, 222
 Palm tree (ni-kau), 182
 Panakareao, the name of the head chief of the Rarawa, 156
 Papa, or carved dish, 169, 170
 Papa, or earth, the god of light, 16—22, 33
 Papaiti, 355
 Papanoko, a scaleless fish, 383
 Paradise, its etymology, 182
 Parahia, a diminutive kind of spinach, 133
 Parapara, a native village, 193

- Parata Gulf, 118
 Parauri, the father of the Tui, 33
 Paripari, 141, 244
 Parramatta, 299
 Parson (tui), 401
 Pataka, sacred stages for the dead, 95
 Patea, 116, 119, 120, 141, 242
 Patarero, 132
 Patuone, 315
 Patu paearehe, fairy giants, 46—49
 Patutokotoko tribe, 355
 Paua-taha-nui pa, 212, 337, 351
 Paul (St.), a mountain, 243, 431
 Pauley (George), 238
 Paulnier (Sieur Binot), discoverer of
 New Zealand, 205
 Peel (Mr.), founder of Swan river settlement, 266
 Pehi, a chief, 325—328, 331, 335,
 474
 Pekehaa, a Taniwha, 53
 Penny an Acre Act, 279
 Pepper tree (piper excelsum), 181
 Pepper tree (horopito), 437
 Peter (St.), a mountain, 243
 Petoni Road, 231
 Philippine Isles, 205
 Phillip (Capt.), Governor of New
 South Wales, 284
 Philpott (Lieut.), 344, 347
 Piako river, 214
 Pianga, a mountain, 225
 Pigeons, 163
 Pigs introduced into New Zealand,
 195, 208, 285
 Pihanga explained, 69
 Pines, 130, 437—441
 Piperaceæ, two kinds, 437
 Pipiri, chief priest of Motutere, 50
 Piripai, 247
 Piripi, a Christian teacher, 368, 369
 Pitama, the murderer of the Gilles-pies, 271
 Plants of New Zealand, 430—435
 Plymouth (New), or Taranaki, a province, 211, 215, 279, 462
 Po, or night, the name for Hades, 41,
 74, 103, 104, 186, 194
 Point Jerningham, 231
 Polygamy, 164
 Polynesian race, its close connexion with the natives of New Zealand,
 466—468
 Pomare on board the North Star,
 157; noticed, 345
 Pomegranate, its luxuriance, 218
 Pompalier (Bishop), and the Romish mission, 210
 Population, 256—258, 263, 468
 Porirua Harbour, 212, 217, 332, 336,
 339, 351, 359
 Poroutawao, 337, 339, 351, 359
 Port Cooper, Canterbury colony at,
 212, 218, 237, 264
 Port Nicholson, 28, 123, 332
 Potato introduced by Captain Cook,
 190; by Governor King, 208; cultivated, 377
 Potiki, infant gods, 105
 Poto, song to, 157
 Poultry introduced into New Zealand,
 196
 Pounamu, a rock of the Middle
 Island, 244
 Pounamu, or green stone, 120
 Poutama, head chief, 91
 Poutu, 369
 Pouwhaitere, the green parrot, 118,
 137
 Powers (Andrew), his tragical story,
 370—373
 Pre-emption, or land sold only to the crown, 278—280
 Presbyterian colony, 211
 Printing-offices at Wellington, 217
 Prodigal son, an apt illustration of the aborigines, 8
 Propagation Society, its labours in
 New Zealand, 305
 Proverbs, or Wakatauki, 126—134
 Prow of a war canoe, 125
 Puckey (Mr.), catechist, 82, 313
 Puha, a war song, 80
 Pukawa, Taupo, 319, 360, 363
 Pukemacpau, limestone cave at, 243
 Pukenui, a volcanic hill, 122, 222
 Puke Tapu Atene on the Wanganui, burial-place at, 179
 Pumpkin cultivated, 378
 Punga, the father of the shark, 33
 Puni puni, a game with the fingers
 173
 Puoho, chief of Nga-ti-tama, 330
 Puratawa, 276
 Purua, 324
 Puta, priest of Taupo, 42
 Putaia, a hill, 122, 222
 Putiki tribe, 227, 324, 326, 351, 352,
 354, 363, 368, 371
 Putu, or song of invitation, 175
 Ranga tapu, 194, 475

- Rangatira, 224
 Rangi, the first converted chief, 291
 Rangi, or heaven, the god of light, 16—22
 Rangiatea, a mountain of Hawaiki, 147
 Rangihaeata, a chief, 252, 271, 276, 277, 325, 326, 333—341, 350, 351, 359
 Rangihu, in the Bay of Islands, 208; the first missionary station, 287—289, 293
 Rangi mairehau, chief of Turakina, 325
 Rangipo road, 326, 367
 Rangi riri, a fountain, 95
 Rangitakoru's nursery song, 139
 Rangitikei, a river, 141, 227, 240, 326, 335, 336, 339
 Rangiwakaurua's Lament, 143, 144
 Rapa, a valley of the Taupo Lake, 320, 321
 Rarawa tribe, 156
 Rat, manner of hunting it, 87—89; an article of food, 380; different species, 395
 Rata tree, 393
 Rauparaha, chief of the Nga-ti-raukawa, 212, 258, 323—338, 340, 341, 349, 398
 Raupo, or bulrush, 379
 Rawiri Puaha, 334
 Reay (Rev. Mr.), 396
 Red (kura) a sacred colour, 66, 95, 96
 Reinga, entrance to Hades, 41, 42; engraving of it, 97; its etymology, 103; noticed, 103—106, 160, 161, 313, 328, 360, 374
 Remutaka forest, 337
 Repe repe (Callorhynchus Australis), 429
 Reptile gods, a list of, 67
 Reretawangawanga, chief of Waikanae, his monument, 11
 Resin manufacture of, 151
 Rimu (dacrydium cupressinum), 441
 Rimurapa, 23
 Roads required, 273
 Robertson (Capt.), of the "Hazard," 343, 344
 Rocks of New Zealand, 242—244
 Rona, a chief, 95
 Rongo, the father of the Kumara, 33
 Rongo-mai, chief god of Taupo, 33, 34, 40, 42
 Rongo rongo, 28
 Ropa, derivation of, 164
 Rore, a chief, killed, 324
 Roto-aira Lake, 224, 324, 369, 371
 Roto Kakahi, 324, 327
 Rotokawa, 224
 Rotomahana, a warm water lake, 224, 245
 Rotorua, 52, 53, 147, 223, 224, 277, 294, 313, 359, 366, 367, 372
 Rotu, or charm, to cause sleep, 113
 Ru, the father of lakes and rivers, 13, 19, 32, 146
 Rua, an early settler, 133
 Ruapehu, a lofty mountain, 216, 225
 Ruapekapeka pa, 347; its model sent to the Great Exhibition, ib.
 Ruatara, 287, 288, 293
 Ruhe, a chief, 346
 Rum, designated water brought from heaven, 133, 207
 Rupe, the father of the pigeon, 33, 110—112
 Russell, the seat of Government, 210, 211
 Rutherford (Mr.), his preservation, 208
 St. John's Wood, the battle of, 350
 Sandal, or snow shoe, 203
 Sandwich Isles, 35
 Sanscrit and Maori, affinity between, 184
 Saturday, or washing-day, 176
 School for natives, 300
 Scott, of Tauranga, a trader, 372
 Seal (phocidæ), 395
 Seasons of the year, 178
 Sedimentary deposits, 240
 Selwyn (Dr. George Augustus), Bishop of New Zealand, 95, 209, 212, 255, 308, 345
 Settlers' journey along the west coast of the Middle Island, 4
 Shark (mango), a winter food, 384, 412
 Sharks' teeth used for ear ornaments, 150
 Shells of New Zealand, 415, 416
 Shoe, a snow, 203
 Shortland (Lieut.), Acting Governor, 211
 Sickness making person tapu, 61
 Skipping-rope, a game, 172
 Snapper (tamure), 384

- Song, extract from an old, 67; used whilst tattooing, 152
 Songs of the natives, 138—145
 Spade, or Ako, 258
 Spells and incantations, 70—73
 Spiders (punga werewere), 418
 Springs, hot, 222, 223, 245—250
 Staff of a chief, 299
 Stalactites, 243—245
 Stanley (Capt.) plants the British flag at Akaroa, 210; commander of the “Calliope,” 337
 Stannard (Rev. George), 29
 Staten Land, 206
 Stewart (Capt.), commander of the “Elizabeth,” 327—329
 Stewart’s Island, 218
 Stick throwing, an amusement, 173
 Sticks, divination by (niu), 69, 74, 91—93
 Stone (Rev. Mr.), Incumbent of Guiseley, the first patron of Samuel Marsden, 282
 Sugar-loaf rocks, 242
 Summer in New Zealand, 176, 178
 Sunday, called Te Wiki, 176
 Swan River Settlement, 266
 Swinging-poles, 173
 Sydney, 262, 290, 291, 295, 311
- Taaroa, creator of all things, 19
 Tahaiti, 41, 192, 205
 Tahana, native teacher, 358
 Tahoraparoa, 144
 Tahu, author of all good, 18, 33
 Taiaha, or chiefs’ staff, 299
 Taiamai plain, 222, 346
 Taiaoro, 330, 331, 335
 Taimaro, 194
 Taipo, an imaginary creature, 49
 Takerei (Earl Grey), 158
 Taki, its different meanings, 197
 Tamai hara nui, 327—329, 335
 Tamaki, 121, 214
 Tamamutu, his capture, 50
 Tama te Kapua, traditions of, 121
 Tamihana Katu, 331
 Tamihana te Raupahara, Christian convert, 168, 210, 373
 Tamorangi, a chief, 290
 Tanaure-ure, a cave, 243
 Tane, the parent of birds and trees, 13, 32, 33, 84
 Tanekaha, tawaiwai, a tree, 438
 Tane Mahuta, the offspring of Rangi and Papa, 18—23
- Tangaloa, creator of all things, 19, 28, 186
 Tangi, or wail, 102, 103
 Tangaroa, father of fish, 13, 19, 21, 33, 84—87, 186
 Taniwha, an immense fish, 49—53, 321
 Tapo, a priest, 118
 Tapouka, or “Old Wig,” chief of the Middle Island, 348
 Tapsall, a Norwegian, the first European who married a native woman, 373
 Tapu, a religious observance, 55—64, 288, 317; its disuse, 58, 64; how to render a place tapu, 57, 60; enforced by the will of the chief, 63; in some instances beneficial, 64; form for taking it off, 78
 Tapued chief eating with a fern-stalk, 55, 167, 168
 Tapuae, 371
 Tapuaenuko hill, 236
 Tapuanikau, 324
 Tara, 314
 Tara (George), a chief, 286
 Tara-hunga, father of the Mau family, 24
 Taraia, the last cannibal, 211
 Taramea, a plant, 237
 Taranaki, lofty mountain, 147, 207, 211, 215, 225, 241, 242, 244, 252, 269, 278, 324, 326, 332, 371, 462
 Tararua range, 244
 Tarata, a boiling spring, 248
 Tarawera Lake, 146, 246, 247
 Tareha, a Nga-puhi chief, 316—318
 Taringa-here, a being with a face like a cat, 49
 Taro, a seed, 100, 135, 377, 378
 Tasman (Abel), visits New Zealand, 205, 206
 Tattoo, or moka, 150—154, 194
 Tattooed head, 148, 310
 Taunui, principal chief of Mokau, 56, 89
 Taupiri, an isolated mountain, 28
 Taupo, 28, 81, 120, 161, 214, 215, 223, 226, 244, 277, 319, 320, 324, 358, 359, 361, 367, 368, 371, 372
 Taupo chiefs, genealogical table of, 469
 Taupo Lake, 145, 150, 204, 219, 224, 225, 319
 Taupos, 43, 81

- Taupo Taniwha, 50, 94
 Tauranga, 120, 209, 215, 294, 398
 Tauteka, a Taupo chief, 319, 358
 Tauwara, a high mountain, 145
 Tawaki, his mythical history, 17, 33, 35—40
 Tawirimatea, father of the winds, 19, 20, 33
 Taylor (Mr.), letters of Ranga tapu to him, 475
 Teka, a game with fern-stalks, 110
 Temple of the tribes described, 65—70
 Tepuna, 289
 Thames, a river, 142, 165, 190, 209, 214, 215, 293, 294, 312, 313
 Thierry (Baron de), an adventurer, 209
 Thieving, the gods of, 69
 Thompson (Capt.), commander of the Boyd, 208
 Thought, its epoch, 14
 "Three Kings," or lava courses, 222, 285
 Ti (cordeline Australis), 435
 Tihoi, 324
 Tiki, the father of man, 18, 19, 23, 33
 Tikiheimi, or eel trout, 383
 Tikitere, 223
 Timber (Kauri), 221
 Time, how reckoned, 176
 Tini-rau, a great chief, tradition of him, 107—114, 157
 Tino ariki, or chief priest, 75
 Tirah, a meal given by the Rajah of, 167
 Titapua, a submerged island, 242
 Titihai, god of the ankles and feet, 34
 Toa, or warrior, 79
 Tohunga, or priest, 42, 93
 Tohora, the whale, 136
 Toi (dracena indivisa), 435
 Toitoti stalks used as a game, 173
 Tokanu, 224, 360, 361, 364, 368
 Tokumaru natives, 208
 Tologa Bay, 206
 Tonga, 7, 9, 19, 28, 34, 41, 186—188
 Tongariro, a lofty mountain, 28, 60, 134, 215, 216, 223—226, 244, 252, 322, 340
 Topi, a chief, 349
 Toronaihi explained, 201
 "Tory," the first ship of the New Zealand Land Company, 332
 Totara (podocarpus), 439
 Totara trees, 237, 241
 Toto, the maker of the first canoe, 124
 Treaty of Waitangi, 210
 Tribes of New Zealand, 468
 Tu, a god of war, 33, 80
 Tuahu, a short stone pillar, 73; or altar, 94
 Tua-riki, or little gods, 49
 Tuatanga, or naming a child, 75, 112, 156
 Tuatara, the guana, 135
 Tuatini, a fish, 136
 Tuhuruhuru, a chief, 110—112
 Tuki, his visit to Norfolk Island 195, 285
 Tukupuarangi, or the Cloudy Atmosphere, 247, 248
 Tumata-uenga, or Tutenganahau, 19, 20
 Tumatua, 135
 Tumuwakairia, a principal chief of the Mani-a-poto, 156
 Tuna, the eel, 135, 166, 382, 413
 Tupaa, the Tahaitian chief, 207
 Tuparaunui, a large fly, 121
 Tuparitapu, god of consumption, 34
 Tupeke, or invocation, 61; a war-dance, 80
 Tupuna, 155
 Turakina river, 140, 211
 Turakirae, a mountain, 28
 Turanga pito, 325
 Turi, an early settler, 117—120, 123, 124, 139, 141
 Turkey-cock venerated by the natives, 53
 Turnip, introduced by Capt. Cook, 206; cultivated, 378
 Turoa, 325
 Turuki (cordeline stricta), 435
 Turutu, 374
 Turuturu, a pole with a cross, 152
 Tu-tangata-kino, god of the stomach, 34
 Tutemanoa, the father of the Kahikatoa, 33
 Tute-nga-nahau, the father of evil, 33
 Tute ou nuku, 329, 330, 349
 Tutu (coriaria sarmentosa), its juice, 161
 Tuwairore, the father of the Kahikatea and Rimu, 33
 Tuwhare, head chief of the Ngati-whatua, 156, 324
 Uaua, Cook's spring at, 206
 Uenuku, god of the rainbow, 41, 117
 134

- Uira, a lady of rank, 145
- Vallies of New Zealand, 240
- Ventriloquists (Mata Kita), 43—46
- Victoria (Queen), 158; her supremacy acknowledged, 210; interview with Wiremu Hipango, 473
- Victoria province, 267
- Volcanoes, 221—223, 242
- Waero, a Nga Puhi chief, 324
- Waharau, 327, 331, 335
- Waheroa, a great chief, 115
- Wahi-tapu, or sacred grove, 65, 101
- Wakapiri, the son of Pūoho, 330
- Waiapu, near the East Cape, 28, 194, 243, 398
- Waiariki, 360, 361, 366, 417
- Waiawa, 286
- Waiho island, 189
- Waikanae, 140, 141, 276, 325, 335, 339, 351
- Waikato, a chief, visits England, 208, 310
- Waikato river, 145, 147, 209, 214, 215, 223, 244, 277, 293, 313, 366
- Waikowau, engraving of the old priest of, 1
- Wail (tangi) for the dead, 102, 103
- Wai Marino, a Christian pa, 360, 367
- Waimate, Bay of Islands, 122, 195; residence of the Bishop, 211, 331, 343—345, 347; college founded, 211; missionary station, 331
- Wai-mea (from mehameha), 141, 325
- Waiamea valley, 218
- Waingaroa, 215
- Waiohipara, 143
- Waiorotane, the river of death, 104
- Waipa, a river, 313
- Waipahi, 145
- Waipakura, 355
- Wairaka, 140, 141
- Wairake, boiling springs near Taupo, 219
- Wairarapa, the river of joyfulness, 28, 140, 141, 216, 217, 230, 231, 324, 339, 472
- Wairau Valley, the battle at, 211, 333—335
- Wairere, 120
- Wairewarewa, 359
- Wairo, a chief, 327, 331
- Wairoa river, 214, 472
- Wairota, 193
- Waitaha, a courageous tribe, 127
- Waitaha-nui, 371
- Waitangi, grand Council at, 210, 270, 275
- Wai-te-mata, now Auckland, 211
- Waitiri, grandmother of Tawaki, 35, 36, 38—40
- Waitotara, its population, 256; noticed, 29, 33, 34, 93, 225, 241, 319, 359, 360
- Wakaahu, a Wanganui chief, 156
- Waka-ari, White or Sulphur Island, 142, 223
- Wakarau, a chief, 319
- Waka-rewa-rewa, a hot spring, 49
- Wakatauki. See Proverbs.
- Waka-tu. See Nelson.
- Wakatupa, 120
- Wakefield (Capt.), 334, 335
- Wake-tane, 121
- Walker Nene, a chief, 343, 345, 346
- Wangu-ehu (the splashed mouth), a river, 140
- Wanganui mission and pa, 46, 52, 58, 90, 126, 139—141, 146, 168, 210—212, 215, 216, 223—230, 240, 241, 244, 252, 257, 263, 273, 277, 281, 299, 313, 319, 323—326, 332, 337, 339, 352, 357, 359, 368, 373, 462
- Wanganui Heads, 355
- Wanganui, Upper, 357, 473
- Wanganui-a-te-ao, 371
- Wangaparaoa, 118, 120, 121
- Wangape, a sketch near, 239
- Wangaree district, 184
- Wangarei, a port to the north of Auckland, 214
- Wangaroa, 195, 208, 209, 215, 222, 241, 243, 286, 291, 308; view of the harbour, 309; Wesleyan mission station, 314
- Wakkena, 357, 358, 368
- Wapuku, the cod-fish, 135
- War ceremonies, 76—82
- War weapon, engraving of one, 322
- Warm lake, Roto Mahana, 224, 245
- Wata, food stores or stages, 109
- Watanui, native warrior, 326
- Waterfall at Papa Roa, 323
- Water scoop for a canoe, 137
- Watuturiarua, the first person who made bread from the hinau, 393
- Weaving known to the aborigines, 185
- Wellington province, 216, 217, 252,

- 273, 351; earthquakes at, 212, 228—235, 472
- Wera, a chief warrior, 395
- Werowero, a chief, 274
- Wesleyan station at Wangaroa, 209; at Hokianga, 209
- Wetu, assaults on European sailors, 370, 371
- Whale Island, 223
- Whales (balænidæ), 396
- Whalers first visit New Zealand, 208
- Whanau Moana, parent of the winged race, 34
- Whare-kura, or great temple, described, 65—71
- Whareroa, its population, 256; noticed, 357
- Whau (entelia arborescens), a light wood, 137
- Wheat first sown at Kapo Wairua, 196; cultivated, 379
- Whipping-top game, 172
- Whiro, god of lightning and thunder, 41, 67—70
- White Island, in the Bay of Plenty, 142, 223
- Wife, a battle for one, 163
- Wigs, remarks on, 148—150
- William IV., letter to him for protection, 209
- Williams (Messrs.), missionaries, 291; 292
- Williams (Rev. H.), missionary, 331
- “Will o’ the Wisp” in the Fens, 428
- Wind, indicates a god’s presence, 78
- Windsor, Wesleyan chapel at, 298
- Winter in New Zealand, 176, 178, 252, 457
- Winyard (Col.), acting Governor, 212, 347
- Wiremu Eruera Tauri, native teacher, 321, 358
- Witchcraft (makutu), 89—91, 188
- Witi, a cannibal, tradition of, 115, 116
- Woman, creation of the first, 18
- Words, a philological list of, 198—200
 ——— traced to their roots, 201—203
- Wrestling, an amusement, 173
- Year counted by moons, 177; begins with May, 178
- Zealand (New), why so named by Abel Tasman, 206; called Nukuroa and Uku-rangi, 118; and Aotea toa, 124; its new constitution, 212; provinces, 213; close connexion between its natives and the Polynesian race, 466—468
- Zealand (New), native talent of its aborigines, 4—6; their deterioration, 7; emigrations, 7, 8; cannibals, 10; mythology, 12—54; genealogies, 15—17; gods, 33, 42, 43; tapu institution, 55—64; their great temple, Ware-kura, 65—70; religious worship, 72, 73; baptism, 74—76; war ceremonies, 77—82; fishing ceremonies, 83—86; witchcraft, 89—91; burial rites, 97—106; traditions, 107—122; canoes, 123; proverbs, 126—134; fables, 134—137; songs, 138—145; mottoes, 146; personal ornaments, 148—154; dreams, 160; marriage, 163; polygamy, 164; children, 165; feasts, 169; amusements, 171; time, how reckoned, 176; their origin, as traced by their language, 179—203; history, 204—218; geology, 218—245; climate, 251; Christianity introduced, 281—299; Church established, 300; food, 166, 377—384; land, 384—386; natural history, 394—429; botany, 430—457
- Zealand (New) Colonization Company, 209
- Zealand (New) Land Company, 209, 210, 263, 264, 332—334