

CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
ADVERTISEMENT	ix
PREFACE :
CONNECTION OF SACRED HISTORY AND SACRED GEOGRAPHY	xii
INTRODUCTION :
EGYPT IN RELATION TO ISRAEL.
1. Nile in the Delta. 2. View from the Citadel at Cairo. 3. Heliopolis. 4. Valley of the Nile. 5. Tombs of Beni-Hassan. 6. Tombs and Hermits. 7. Thebes—Colossal statues. 8. Thebes—Karnac and the Royal Tombs. 9. Nile at Silsilis. 10. At the First Cataract. 11. Philæ. 12. Nile in Nubia. 13. Ipsambul. 14. Nile at the Second Cataract. 15. Dendera. 16. Memphis. 17. The Pyramids	xxx

CHAPTER I. PART I. PENINSULA OF SINAI.

I. General configuration—the Mountains, the Desert, and the Sea. 1. The Two Gulfs. 2. The Plateau of the Tih. 3. The Sandy Tract of Debbet-er- Ramleh. 4. The Mountains of the Tôr. (a) The Kâ'a—the Shores. (b) The Passes. (c) The Mountains; the Three Groups—the Colours—the Confusion—the Desolation—the Silence. (d) The Wâdys—the Vegetation —the Springs—the Oases	3
II. General Adaptation to the History. The Scenery—the Physical Phenomena —the Present Inhabitants—Changes in the features of the Desert	19
III. Local Traditions of the History. 1. Arab Tradition—Traditions of Moses. Loss of the Ancient Names. 2. Greek Traditions. 3. Early Traditions of Eusebius and Jerome	27
IV. Route of the Israelites. 1. Passage of the Red Sea. 2. Marah and Elim. 3. Encampment by the Red Sea. 4. Wilderness of Sin. 5. Choice between Serbâl and Gebel Mousa as Sinai. 6. Special localities of the History	33
V. Later History of the Peninsula. 1. Elijah's visit. 2. Josephus. 3. Allu- sions of St. Paul. 4. Christian Hermitages; Convent of St. Catherine. 5. Mosque in the Convent; Visit of Mahomet. 6. Present State of the Convent. 7. Sanctuary of Sheykh Saleh	46
Note A. Mussulman Traditions of the Exodus and Mount Sinai	55
Note B. Sinaitic Inscriptions	56

PART II. JOURNEY FROM CAIRO TO JERUSALEM—EXTRACTS.

	PAGE.
I. Departure from Egypt; Overland Route; First Encampment. II. The Passage of the Red Sea. 1. Approach to Suez. 2. Suez. 3. Wells of Moses. III. The Desert, and Sand-storm. IV. Marah; Elim. V. Second Encampment by the Red Sea; "Wilderness of Sin." VI. Approach to Mount Serbál; Wády Sidri and Wády Feirán. VII. Ascent of Serbál. VIII. Approach to Gebel Mousa, the traditional Sinai. IX. Ascent of Gebel Mousa and Rás Sasáfah. X. Ascent of St. Catherine. XI. Ascent of the Gebel-ed-Deir	61
XII. Route from Sinai to the Gulf of 'Akaba. 1. Tomb of Sheykh Saleh. 2. Wády Sayál and Wády El 'Ain. HAZEROTH. XIII. Gulf of 'Akaba; Elath. XIV. The 'Arabah. XV. Approach to Petra. XVI. Ascent of Mount Hor. XVII. Petra. KADESH	77
XVIII. Approach to Palestine. XIX. First Day in Palestine. XX. Hebron. XXI. Approach to Bethlehem and Jerusalem. XXII. First View of Bethlehem. XXIII. First View of Jerusalem	96

CHAPTER II. PALESTINE.

The Highland of Syria: Lebanon; the Four Rivers: the Orontes, the Leontes, the Barada, and the JORDAN	107
PALESTINE. I. Seclusion. II. Smallness and narrowness of its territory. III. Central situation. IV. Land of Ruins. V. "Land of Milk and Honey." VI. Earthquakes. VII. Variety of climate and structure. VIII. A Mountain Country; the Views of Sacred History. The fenced Cities, and High Places: Political Divisions and Conquests. High-lands and Lowlands. IX. Scenery: Character of hills; Vegetation: Flowers; Olives; Cedars—confined to Lebanon; Oaks and Terebinths; Sacred Trees: Palms; Sycomores; Oleanders. X. Geological Features: 1. Springs and Wells; 2. Sepulchres; 3. Caves; in ancient times; in modern times; 4. Legendary curiosities	109

CHAPTER III. JUDÆA AND JERUSALEM.

JUDÆA :—I. The "south" frontier—Simeon. II. Mountain country of Judah—Lion of Judah—Vineyards—Fenced cities—Herodion. BETHLEHEM—HEBRON	157
JERUSALEM :—I. Exterior aspect. 1. Long obscurity—Jebus—Mountain fastness. 2. Ravines of the Kedron and of Hinnom. 3. Compactness—Growth. 4. Surrounding mountains. 5. Central situation. II. Interior aspect. 1. Hills of the city. 2. Temple-mount—Rock of the Sakrah—Spring in the Temple Vaults. 3. Walls and Towers—Palaces—Ruins—Earthquake. III. MOUNT OF OLIVES—Slight connection with the early history. Connection with the Gospel History—Presence of Christ—Bethany—Scene of the Triumphal entry—The Ascension—Conclusion	164

CHAPTER IV. THE HEIGHTS AND THE PASSES OF BENJAMIN.

BENJAMIN, the frontier tribe of Judah and Ephraim—Its independent power. I. The Passes of Benjamin. 1. The Eastern Passes. a. Battle of Ai. b. Battle of Michmash. c. Advance of Sennacherib. 2. The Western Passes—Battle of Bethhoron under Joshua. Later battles of Bethhoron	197
II. The Heights. 1. Nebi-Samuel or Gibeon. 2. Bethel: Sanctuary—View of Abraham—Sanctuary of Jacob and of the Northern tribes—Jeroboam's Temple—Josiah	211
Note on Ramah and Mizpeh	222

CONTENTS.

v

CHAPTER V. EPHRAIM.

	PAGE.
Mountains of EPHRAIM—Fertility and central situation—Supremacy of Ephraim.	227
I. SHILOH. II. SHECHEM. 1. First halting-place of Abraham. 2. First settlement of Jacob. 3. First capital of the conquest. Sanctuary of Mount Gerizim. 4. Insurrection of Abimelech. 5. Sanctuary of the Samaritans. 6. Jacob's well	229
III. SAMARIA: Its beauty—Its strength—Sebaste. IV. Passes of Manasseh, Dothan	240
Note on Mount Gerizim. Abraham and Melchizedek: Sacrifice of Isaac: Mount Moriah	246

CHAPTER VI. THE MARITIME PLAIN.

I. The SHEPHELAH, or the Low Country,—Philistia: 1. Maritime character of the Philistines. 2. The strongholds; their sieges. 3. Corn-fields—Contact with Dan. 4. Level plain—Contact with Egypt and the Desert	253
II. PLAIN OF SHARON—Pasture-land—Naphath-Dor—Forest—Caesarea—Connection with Apostolic History	257
III. PLAIN and BAY of ACRE—Tribe of Asher	261
IV. PLAIN of PHœNICIA: 1. Separation from Palestine. 2. Harbours. 3. Security. 4. Rivers. TYRE and SIDON—Local Prophecies	264
Note A. House of Simon at Jaffa	271
Note B. Villages of Sharon and Phœnicia	272
Note C. Phœnician Antiquities: Sarcophagus of Esmunazar	274

CHAPTER VII. THE JORDAN AND THE DEAD SEA.

The Four Rivers of Lebanon in their courses:—The physical peculiarities of the Jordan—Unfrequented—Historical Scenes	279
I. Vale of Siddim. 1. Battle of the Kings. 2. Overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah. 3. Appearance of the DEAD SEA. 4. Vision of Ezekiel. 5. En-ge-di	285
II. Plain and Terraces of the Jordan Valley. 1. Plain of Abel-Shittim—Encampment of the Israelites—Views from Pisgah by Balaam and by Moses—Burial-place of Moses—Passage of the Jordan—Drying up of the River. 2. Jericho—At the time of the capture—In the time of the Prophets, and of Christ. 3. Scene of the Preaching of John—Bethabara—Scene of the Temptation—Baptism in the Jordan—Bathing of the Pilgrims	294

CHAPTER VIII. PERÆA AND THE TRANS-JORDANIC TRIBES.

I. General character of the scenery. II. First view of the Holy Land. III. Frontier land.—First victories of Israel. IV. Isolation. V. Pastoral character of the country and its inhabitants. Nomadic Tribes—Reuben—Gad—Manasseh—Elijah the Tishbite. VI. Land of exile. Last view of the Holy Land	317
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER IX. PLAIN OF ESDRAELON.

General features. I. Boundary between northern and central tribes. II. Battle-field of Palestine. 1. Victory over Sisera. Battle of Kishon. 2. Victory over the Midianites. 3. Defeat of Saul. Battle of Mount Gilboa—Bethshan and Jabesh Gilead. 4. Defeat of Josiah—Battle of Megiddo	331
III. Richness and fertility of the Plain—ISSACHAR: Jezreel—Engannim. IV. TABOR: Fortress and Sanctuary of the Northern Tribes. V. CARMEL—Scene of Elijah's sacrifice. VI. NAIN	343

CHAPTER X. GALILEE.

	PAGE.
Scenery of Northern Palestine—The Four Northern Tribes—Their wealth—their isolation—Galilee in the New Testament	356
I. NAZARETH—Its upland basin—Its seclusion—Sacred localities	360
II. LAKE OF GENNESARETH. 1. Plain of Hattin, and Mountain of the Beatitudes—Battle of Hattin. 2. View of the Lake of Gennesareth. 3. Jewish History of Tiberias. 4. Plain of Gennesareth. Traffic—Fertility of the Plain—Villas of the Herods—Fisheries of the Lake. 5. Scene of the Gospel Ministry—"Manufacturing district"—The Beach—The Desert—The storms of wind—The Demoniacs—The Feeding of the Multitudes—The Plain of Gennesareth—Capernaum	363

CHAPTER XI. THE LAKE OF MEROM AND THE SOURCES OF THE JORDAN.

I. Upper Valley of the Jordan—Hills of Naphtali and Manasseh—Kedesh-Naphtali. II. Lake of Merom—Battle of Merom. III. Sources of the Jordan—Tel-el-Kadi—City and Tribe of Dan—Cæsarea Philippi—Hazor—Panaes—Hermon—Mount of the Transfiguration	385
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XII. LEBANON; DAMASCUS.

LEBANON. I. In relation to Palestine and the Jordan. II. To the Leontes. III. To the Orontes. IV. To the Barada. DAMASCUS	399
Note A. The Traditional Localities of Damascus	407
Note B. Patriarchal Traditions of Lebanon	409

CHAPTER XIII. THE GOSPEL HISTORY AND TEACHING,

VIEWED IN CONNECTION WITH THE LOCALITIES OF PALESTINE.

I. The stages of the Gospel History. 1. Infancy of Christ. 2. Youth. 3. Public ministry. 4. Retirement from public ministry. II. The Parables. 1. Parables of Judæa. a. The Vineyard. b. The Fig-tree. c. The Shepherd. d. The good Samaritan. 2. Parables of Galilee. a. The corn-fields. b. The birds. c. The fisheries. III. The Discourses—The Sermon on the Mount. 1. The city on a hill. 2. The birds and the flowers. 3. The torrent	412
IV. Conclusions. 1. Reality of the teaching. 2. Its homeliness and universality. 3. Its union of human and divine	426

CHAPTER XIV. THE HOLY PLACES.

I. BETHLEHEM: Church of Helena—Grotto of the Nativity—Jerome. II. NAZARETH: Grotto in Latin Convent—Spring near the Greek church—House at Loretto—Compared with site at Nazareth—Origin of the Legend. III. JERUSALEM: Lesser localities—Church of the Ascension—Tomb of the Virgin—Gethsemane—Cœnaculum—Church of the Holy Sepulchre—Greek Easter—Conclusion	433
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CONTENTS.

vii

APPENDIX. VOCABULARY OF HEBREW TOPOGRAPHICAL WORDS.

—♦—		PAGE.
Introduction		471
Index		475
I.—Valleys and Tracts of Land		477
II.—Mountains, Hills, and Rocks		490
III.—Rivers and Streams		497
IV.—Springs, Wells, and Pits		505
V.—Caves		512
VI.—Forests and Trees		513
VII.—Cities, Habitations, Streets		518
VIII.—The Sea and its Shores		529
—————
Note on the Sinaitic Inscriptions		531
INDEX		533

MAPS.

—♦—
I. DIAGRAM OF THE HEIGHTS OF EGYPT, SINAI, AND PALESTINE .	Frontispiece.
II. EGYPT	Page	xxxvi
III. PENINSULA OF SINAI	,,	5
IV. TRADITIONAL SINAI	,,	40
V. PALESTINE	,,	109
VI. SOUTH OF PALESTINE	,,	159
VII. PLAIN OF ESDRAELON AND GALILEE	,,	332

WOODCUTS.

—♦—
1. SKETCH-MAP OF SYRIA		106
2. SKETCH-PLAN OF JERUSALEM		156
3. SKETCH-PLAN OF SHECHEM		226
4. MAP OF THE LAKE AND DISTRICT OF GENNESARETH		356
5. SKETCH-PLAN OF HOUSE AT NAZARETH AND AT LORETTO		432

In the references to the Erdkunde of Professor C. Ritter throughout this work, the following names have been adopted for the volumes relating to Sinai and Palestine:—Part XIV. (or Vol. I.) is designated Sinai; Part XV. (Vol. II.), Sect. 1. Jordan; Sect. 2. Syria; Part XVI. (Vol. III.) Palestine; Part XVII. (Vol. IV.), Sect. 1. Lebanon; Sect. 2. Damascus.