

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX

TO THE

MEMOIRS, HINTS, PHILOSOPHICAL PAPERS, MEDICAL FACTS, NAVAL LITERATURE, POETRY, REMARKABLE
INCIDENTS, &c. IN VOL. XV,

- A.
- ACADEMY. See ROYAL ACADEMY.
- ACTIONS; between la Preneuse, French frigate, and the Rattlesnake sloop and Camel store-ship, 119. Betwixt the Admiral Gardner, East Indiaman, and a French ship of 32 guns, 437.
- ADDRESS to the Spanish nation in behalf of the widows and orphans of the seamen, who fell in the battle of Trafalgar, 160.
- ADMIRALS, English, French, Dutch, and Spanish; list of those who have been killed or taken prisoners from the most early periods, 409.
- AIKENHEAD, Mr. THOMAS; extracts of letters from him to his relations, written a few hours before the battle of Trafalgar, in which he was killed, 119.
- ALEXANDRIA frigate; launch of the, 260.
- ALGIERS; an honourable accommodation of our differences with the Dey and Regency of, 201. Rapture with that state seemingly inevitable, 260.
- AMERICA, found by Columbus peopled wherever he landed; curious conjectures respecting it, 116. Remarks on some recent proceedings of the American senate respecting the impressing of seamen, &c. 307. Extract from the maritime law of America, 390.
- ANECDOTES of Lord Nelson, 13, 27, 34, 110—112, 116, 188. Of a Boatswain's Mate, 16. Of a seaman on board the Leviathan, 16. Of Jack Tar in the playhouse, 18. Of Admiral Rainier, 21. Of the late Captain Duff, 25. Of the French Admiral Miessesey, 102. Of Lieutenant Doyle, 103. Of Captain Vincent, ib. Of Admiral Boscawen, ib. Of Lieutenant Ram, ib. Of a tar and an auctioneer, 104. Of Mr. Pearce, Midshipman of the Foudroyant, 106. Of the late Admiral Sir R. Kingsmill, 107. Of Admiral Drury, ib. Of Buonaparté, ib. Of Captain R. W. Miller, 108. Of Cuthbert Collingwood, ib. Of the crew of His Majesty's ship Defence, ib. Of two marines, ib. Of two seamen belonging to the Temeraire, ib. Of Captain Rotherham, 110. Of Mr. Smeaton, 112. Of Lord Rodney, 396. Of a game cock, 451.
- ANTHEMS sung at the funeral of Lord Nelson, 227—230, 232.
- APOSTROPHE to the Shade of Nelson, by Mr. Thelwall, 297.
- ARETHUSA frigate; extract of a letter from an officer on board that ship, giving an account of her narrow escape, together with her convoy, from a French fleet, 302. Extract of another letter from the same, 412.
- ARISTOCRAT; narrative of the proceedings on board the armed lugger so called, on the 15th of July, 1795, 310. List of the squadron which she engaged, 313.
- B.
- BARWISE, Captain THOMAS; some account of his services, 390.
- BASS'S STRAIT; remarks on the discovery of, with a view to do justice to the real discoverer, 62.
- BAYNTUN, Captain; his letter to the Patriotic Fund, 16.
- BELLEROPHON; letter from an officer on board that ship, giving an account of the battle of Trafalgar, 203.
- BERRY, Captain Sir EDWARD; portrait and biographical memoir of; viz. Some particulars of his family, 177. Commences his naval career under the auspices of Lord Mulgrave, ib. Spiritedly boards a ship of war, which had been grappled, and is rewarded with a Lieutenant's commission, 178. Signalizes himself in Lord Howe's engagement of the 1st of June, 1794, ib. His conspicuous merit attracts the notice of the Earl of St. Vincent and Lord Nelson, ib. Serves under the latter nobleman on the memorable 14th of February 1794, and greatly distinguishes himself in the engagement, ib. Raised to Post rank, and appears at court with Sir Horatio Nelson, 179. Elegant compliment paid to him by Sir Horatio, ib. Appointed to command the Vanguard, Admiral Nelson's flag-ship, and distinguishes himself greatly in the battle of the Nile, ib. Exerts himself to preserve the crew of l'Orient, 180. Sent to England with the Admiral's dispatches in the Leander, ib. They fall in with a French ship of very superior force, and maintain a contest with her for several hours, ib. Cap-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- tain Berry is wounded in the action, 180. The honour of knighthood conferred on him, and also the thanks of the Corporation of London, and the freedom of the city, ib. His letter to the Lord Mayor on the occasion, ib. On paying a visit to Guildhall, is presented with the freedom of the city in a gold box, 181. Sails to the Mediterranean, as Lord Nelson's Captain, in the Foudroyant, ib. Lands his Lordship in Sicily, on account of ill health, and takes his station off Malta under Captain Manley Dixon, ib. Engages and captures le Guillaume Tell, 182. Is wounded in the action, 183. Brings the Royal Family of Naples from Palermo to Leghorn, and is presented by Her Sicilian Majesty with a gold box set with diamonds, and a diamond ring, ib. Appointed to the Agamemnon, and is in the battle of Trafalgar, 184. Is in imminent danger of being captured, according to the newspapers, ib. — Vide errata in this memoir, 352.
- BLOCKADE of the rivers Ems, Weser, Elbe, and Trave; notice of the, 311.
- BOSCAWEN, Admiral; anecdote of the victory gained by him over the French Admiral de St. Clue, 163.
- BOYNE, a remarkable disclosure said to have been made respecting the burning of His Majesty's late ship so called, 260.
- BRITISH HEROISM; recent instance of, 185.
- BRONTE, dukedom of, origin of that title, 189.
- BRUNSWICK Indianan; account of her capture, 294.
- BUCONAPARTE; singular sketch of his character, 107. His vain note to the French people, 159.
- BUST of Lord Nelson, 110.
C.
- CALDER, Vice-Admiral Sir ROBERT; trial of, 79—86, 162—175.
- CAPE OF GOOD HOPE; capture of the, 248—250. Dissatisfaction of the French with the Dutch for that event, 261.
- CAPTURES; list of, from the French and Spaniards, 26.
- CASE; an affecting one, 176.
- CHAPLAINS, Naval; first appointment of, 458.
- CHARLES BARING, West Indianan; circumstantial account of the loss of the, 324—330.
- CHARNOCK, JOHN, Esq.; review of, and extracts from, his work entitled "Biographical Memoirs of Viscount Lord Nelson," &c. 235.
- CHINA SEA; a list of several vessels lost in the, 463.
- CHIVERS, Master of the trading vessel Arethusia; the Admiralty order their Solicitor to prosecute him for disobedience of signals, 260.
- CHRONOLOGICAL SKETCH of the most remarkable naval events of the year 1805, 335—339.
- CLARKE, Reverend JAMES STANIER; some remarks on his sermon preached on the Thanksgiving Day, 28.
—, Captain GEORGE; a writing found among his papers respecting Lorenzo Doria, 299.
- COLLINGWOOD, Vice-Admiral Lord; private letter of, 15. Portrait and biographical memoir of his Lordship, 353. Preliminary observations, 353—356. Some particulars of his Lordship's family, 356. His filial affection, ib. Is educated by the Rev. Mr. Moises, 357. Enters the Navy under the protection of his maternal uncle, Captain Braithwaite, ib. Is thirteen years in the service without promotion, ib. Sails in the Preston, under Vice-Admiral Graves, to America, ib. Promoted to the rank of Lieutenant on the day of the battle of Bunker's Hill, 358. Sails to Jamaica in the Hornet sloop, where he meets with Lord Nelson, and renews his intimacy with him, ib. They both enjoy the patronage of Vice-Admiral Sir Peter Parker, ib. Singular circumstances in regard to their gradations of rank, ib. Captain Collingwood is made Post in the Hichinbrooke, and sent on an expedition to the Spanish main, ib. Great mortality in his ship on this disastrous expedition, 359. Quits this unhealthy station, and is appointed to the command of the Pelican, which is wrecked on the Morant Quay, ib. Captain C. and his ship's company are saved, 360. Appointed to command the Sampson, and afterward the Mediator, and sails to the West Indies, where he again meets his friend Nelson, ib. High opinion which Lord Nelson entertained of Captain Collingwood, ib. Returns to England, and enjoys for a short time the society of his relations and friends, ib. On the rupture with Spain in 1790, is appointed to the command of the Mermoid frigate, 361. Returns home, and marries the eldest daughter of John Erasmus Blackett, Esq., by whom he has two daughters, ib. Appointed to be Rear-Admiral Bowyer's Captain on the war breaking out with France in 1793, ib. Distinguishes himself in the action of the 1st of June, 1794, ib. Singular omission in Lord Howe's dispatches to the Admiralty, 362. Reasons assigned for the omission, 362—364. Is the cause of several letters passing between Lord Howe and Captain Collingwood, 364. Captain C. is appointed to command the Hector, and afterward the Excellent, and employed in the blockade of Toulon, ib. Distinguishedly engaged in the battle of the Cape of St. Vincent, ib. Remarks on that brilliant victory, 365. Lord Nelson's testimony to the merit of Captain Collingwood, 366. Extracts from two of his Lordship's letters, in which mention is made of his friend, ib. Raised to the rank of Rear-Admiral of the White, and hoists his flag on

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

board the Triumph, on the Channel station, 367. Shifts his flag to the Barfleur, and is promoted to be Rear-Admiral of the Red, ib. Returns to Spithead on the cessation of hostilities, and spends a year with his family and friends, 368. Is again called into service on the renewal of the war in 1803, ib. Raised to the rank of Vice-Admiral of the Blue, and resumes his station off Brest, ib. Detached with a reinforcement of ships to the blockading fleet at Ferrol and Cadiz, where he displays much skill and talent, 369. The combined fleet leaves port, 370. Lord Nelson makes the signal for the British fleet to bear up to that of the enemy in two columns, 371. Vice-Admiral Collingwood leads his column into action in a style that commands the admiration of both fleets, ib. Lord Nelson's exclamation on the occasion, ib. They gain a complete victory, ib. Severe loss in men sustained by the Vice-Admiral's ship, ib. Succeeds to the chief command after the death of Lord Nelson, 372. Extract of his letter to the Admiralty on that occasion, ib. Makes it his immediate care to provide for those whom he knew to be the objects of his Lordship's good opinion, ib. The fleet experiences a storm after the battle, in which some of the prizes are lost, 373, 374. The Vice-Admiral sinks several of the captured ships, 374. Sends four of the enemy's ships into Gibraltar, 375. Four of the ships which had escaped from the engagement are captured by Sir R. Strachan, ib. Great exertions made by the officers and seamen of the British fleet to save their enemies from drowning, ib. The Vice-Admiral makes a humane proposal to the Governor of Cadiz, which is thankfully accepted, ib. The Governor's humane and generous return, 376. Remarks on the Vice-Admiral's character, ib. His piety, 377. Issues an order for a general thanksgiving after the victory, ib. Extract from a sermon preached on the occasion, 377. Remark of the French officers on the religious observances of the English, 378. Lord Eldon's letter to the Rev. Mr. Moises, containing a remark made by His Majesty on Lord Collingwood's letter, written after the battle of Trafalgar, 379. Admiral Roddam's testimony to the merit of Lord Collingwood, 381. His Lordship's long and laborious service in the Navy, 382. Extract from one of his letters, ib. Raised to the rank of Vice-Admiral of the Red, 383. Honours conferred on him by His Majesty, ib. The thanks of both Houses of Parliament voted to his Lordship, and a pension of 2000*l.* per annum, ib. Great satisfaction which Lord Nelson expressed on Vice-Admiral Collingwood being appointed his second in command, ib. An estate bequeathed to his Lordship by the late Edward Colling-wood, Esq., of Chirton, 384. Eulogy pronounced on the Vice-Admiral in the House of Peers by Lord Hood, 385. COLUMBUS finds America peopled wherever he landed; curious conjectures respecting it, 116. COMMISSIONERS of Naval Inquiry. See NAVAL REFORM. COMPASS; variation of the, 460. CORRESPONDENCE, 28, 195, 301, 407, 461. COURTS MARTIAL, Naval; proceedings of, in the trial of Vice-Admiral Sir Robert Calder, 79—86, 162—175. Of Captain W. Maurice, his officers and crew, 127. Of the Surgeon of the Petterell sloop of war, 260. COWAN, Captain MALCOLM; extracts from, and remarks on his pamphlet entitled "An Essay on the Construction of the Sails of Ships and Vessels," &c. 331—335. CRUELTY, French; horrible instance of, 20. ——— of the Malays, 461—476

D.

DEFENCE; liberality of part of the crew of the, to some French prisoners, 109. DIAMOND ROCK; official account of the loss of the, 123—127. French account of its capture, 129—135. DISCOVERY; a remarkable one said to be made respecting His Majesty's late ship the Boyne, 260. Of an island, 300. ———; Russian voyage of, 459. DOBSON, Lieut.; his affecting case, and death, 176. DOMETT, Rear-Admiral WILLIAM; portrait and biographical memoir of, 1. Embarks, as a Midshipman, on board the Quebec, and serves in her upwards of three years in the West Indies, 2. Returns to England, serves under Lord Keith, and afterward under Lord Hood, ib. Appointed Master's Mate of the Surprise, and sails for Quebec, ib. Serves as acting Lieutenant on board the Romney, the flag-ship of Admiral Montagu, 3. Returns to England, is made a Lieutenant, and appointed to the Robust, which ship is distinguishedly engaged in the battle which took place off Chesapeake, when the British fleet was commanded by Admiral Arbuthnot, ib. Removes into the Invincible, and is in another encounter off the Chesapeake, ib. Serves in the Barfleur, as signal officer to Lord Hood, and is in the battle in which the Count de Grasse was taken prisoner, 4. Appointed to command the Ceres, a sloop captured in the engagement, and cruises some time under Lord Hood off St. Domingo, ib. Sent home with Lord Rodney's despatches, ib. Raised to Post rank, appointed Captain of Lord Bridport's flag-ship, and sails to the relief of Gibraltar, 5. Returns to England after the restoration of peace, and some time afterward is appointed to the command of the Champion frigate, ib. Appointed to the

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

Pomona, sails to Africa, and afterwards to the West Indies, 5. Removed to the Salisbury, the flag-ship of Admiral Milbanke, and afterward to the London, Lord Bridport's flag-ship, ib. On the accommodation of the differences with Spain the fleet is paid off, and Captain Domett is appointed to command the Pegasus frigate, and employed on the Newfoundland station, 6. The Pegasus is paid off, and he is appointed to the Romney, Admiral Goodall's flag-ship, and afterward to be Captain of the Royal George, Lord Bridport's flag-ship, and is distinguishedly engaged on the glorious first of June, 1794, ib. Presented by His Majesty with a gold chain and medal, ib. Sails with the Channel fleet, under the command of Lord Bridport, 7. List of the fleet, ib. They desery the enemy's fleet, 8. List of the ships composing it, ib. Chase is given to the French fleet, which is brought to action, and three of their ships captured, ib. Captain Domett is entrusted with Lord Bridport's dispatches, 9. Copy of them, ib. Earl St. Vincent hoists his flag on board the Royal George, and appoints Captain Domett to be Captain of the fleet, 11. Appointed to the Belleisle, and made Colonel of the Portsmouth division of marines, ib. Removed to the London, and appointed Captain of the fleet in the Baltic, under Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, 12. Returns to England with Lord Nelson, and is soon afterward appointed Captain of the Channel fleet, under Admiral Cornwallis, ib. Raised to the rank of Rear-Admiral of the Blue, ib. Appointed one of the Commissioners for revising the affairs of His Majesty's Navy at the Admiralty, 13. Promoted to be Rear-Admiral of the White, ib.

DOYLE, Lieut.; anecdote of, 107.

ДУРЮ, Admiral; anecdote of, 107.

ДУСКВОЯТИ, Vice-Admiral Sir JOHN; some account of the victory gained by him, 242—245. Official letters respecting it, 254—259. French account of the action, 386. Some particulars respecting Sir John, 385. The Patriotic Fund votes rewards to him and his officers, for the victory gained by them in the West Indies, 389. Additional particulars of Sir John's engagement, 450.

DUFF, the late Captain GEORGE; some account of, 25. Portrait and biographical memoir of, 265. Some particulars of his family, ib. Indicates a predilection for the Navy at a very early age, ib. Enters the Navy, and serves under his grand uncle, Commodore Duff, 266. Is in thirteen engagements before he attains his sixteenth year, ib. Made a Lieutenant, and sails with Sir George Rodney to the West Indies, ib. Wounded by the falling of one of the masts of the Montagu, ib. Is in the various enagements with the French fleet, 266. Forms an intimacy with Adjutant-General Dirom, and is introduced to Sir George Rodney, who puts him on his list for promotion, 267. Returns to England with the Camilla sloop of war, which brings home General Campbell, his family, and suite, ib. Sails again to Jamaica, and serves there in different ships, ib. His health is so much impaired by his long service in the West Indies, that he is under the necessity of returning home for the recovery of it, 268. Recommended by the Duke and Duchess of Gordon to the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, who prefers his claims to the Admiralty, and he is appointed Captain and Commander of the Martin sloop of war, ib. Marries Miss Sophia Dirom, sister to Adjutant General Dirom, ib. Appointed to Post rank by the Earl of Chatham, ib. Sails to the West Indies in the command of the Duke, of 90 guns, and leads the attack on the batteries at Martinico, 269. Gains the approbation of the Hon. Commodore Murray, under whom he served, ib. Appointed to the Ambuscade frigate, and afterward to the Glenmore, and serves in the North Seas, ib. Appointed to command the Vengeance, and detached to reinforce the fleet that attacked Copenhagen, ib. Sent to Jamaica to watch the operations of the French armament, ib. The officers and crew of his ship are much attached to him, ib. Appointed, on the renewal of hostilities, to command the Mars, 270. Detached from the Channel fleet to Cadiz, ib. Appointed to command the in-shore squadron, 271. Leads the lee division of our fleet in the battle of Trafalgar, ib. Three ships are opposed to the Mars, and a fourth one within range of shot, 272. Captain Duff, and two seamen standing behind him, are killed by a cannon shot, ib. Number of killed and wounded on board the Mars, 273. Regard of the crew to their Captain, ib. Some particulars of Captain Duff's family, ib. Joined by his son, as a Midshipman, a little before the battle which proved fatal to him, ib. Kind attention of Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, and of the Hon. Captain Blackwood, to his son, 274. Letter from Mr. Hennah, first Lieutenant of the Mars, to Mrs. Duff, giving an account of the death of her husband, ib. Letter from Rear-Admiral the Earl of Northesk to Mrs. D. on the same subject, 275. Extract of a letter from the Rev. Mr. David Milne to her on the same melancholy event, ib. Extracts from Captain Duff's letters to his wife and brother-in-law, 276—293. Extract of two letters from Master Norwich Duff to his mother, 290, 293.

E.

ELDON, Lord; his letter to the Rev. Mr. Moises, mentioning a remark made by His

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Majesty on Lord Collingwood's letter written after the battle of Trafalgar, 379.
- ENGAGEMENT, Naval; some account of one in the year 1340, 392—394.
- F.
- FLY cruiser; interesting narrative of events subsequent to the capture of the, 104.
- FRANCE sends a flag of truce to England, 261.
- FRENCH account of the capture of the Diamond Rock, 129—135.
- CRUELTY; horrible instance of, 20.
- EXPOSE, presented by M. de Cham-pagney, March 6, 262.
- PRISONERS; suggestion respecting their accommodation, 391.
- ; mock gallantry of the, 452.
- G.
- GOREE; plate and description of the island of, 220.
- GREY, Mr.; remarks on his appointment to be first Lord of the Admiralty, 158.
- GUADALOUPE; plate and description of, 136.
- H.
- HENNAH, Captain; letter from him to Mrs. Duff, giving an account of her husband's death, 274. Letter to the Editor, enclosing one from the ship's company of the Mars to Capt. Hennah, in which they request his acceptance of a sword, 399.
- HEROISM, British; recent instances of, 185, 193.
- HYDROGRAPHER, (Nos. 3, 4,) 136, 476.
- I.
- JACK TAR in the playhouse, 18.
- ICE; great utility of, 391.
- ICE PRAAM; new invented one, 394.
- IMPRACHMENT of Lord Viscount Melville, before the high court of parliament, 477.
- INVENTION; some account of a new one, 103.
- ISLAND; account of a newly discovered one, 300.
- K.
- KINGSMILL, the late Admiral Sir R.; anecdote of, 107.
- L.
- LANGARA, Admiral Don JUAN de, dies at Madrid, and is interred with great funereal pomp, 195.
- LEE, Capt.; his letter to Commodore Losack, giving an account of the attack made by la Preneuse, French frigate, on the Rattlesnake sloop and Camel store-ship, 119.
- LETTER from a young seaman to his father, 35.
- an English merchant, giving an account of his treatment by the French, 122.
- from a poor Post Captain, complaining of the inadequateness of naval officers' pay, 195.
- LETTERS; extracts of two, from an officer on board the Arethusa frigate, 302, 412.
- ; a singular one extracted from the Gentleman's Magazine, 304.
- , giving an account of a dangerous voyage from St. Helen's to Newfoundland, 305.
- , containing remarks on some recent proceedings of the American Senate relative to the impressing of seamen, &c. 307.
- from Lord Chancellor Eldon to the Rev. Mr. Moises, 379.
- from an officer on board the Ramillies, giving an account of the capture of Admiral Linois' squadron, 407.
- to the Editor, containing a list of the English, French, Dutch, and Spanish Admirals killed or taken prisoners from the most early periods, 409.
- from an officer on board the Marengo, giving an account of the storm which they experienced after the capture of that ship, 413.
- to the Editor, giving an account of the treacherous and sanguinary disposition of the Malays, 461—476.
- LIST of several vessels lost in the China Sea, 463.
- LITERATURE. See NAVAL LITERATURE.
- M.
- MALAYS; account of their treacherous and sanguinary disposition, 461—479.
- MALCOLM, Captain, of the Donnegal, and his ship's company, humanely exert themselves in saving their enemies from drowning after the battle off Trafalgar, 375.
- MARENGO; extract of a letter from an officer on board that ship, giving an account of the storm which they experienced after her capture, 413.
- MARINE LIST (Lloyd's) of ships lost, destroyed, captured, and recaptured, &c. 38.
- MARINES; heroism of two, 109.
- MARITIME LAW of America; extract from the, 390.
- MASSACRE; account of a dreadful one, 452.
- MAYDMAN, HENRY; extract from his book entitled "Naval Speculations and Maritime Politics," &c. 208.
- MELVILLE, HENRY Lord Viscount; trial of, 477—517.
- MICHAUX'S Travels in the United States; extract from, 299.
- MISSSESEY, Admiral; anecdote of, 102.
- MILLER, Capt. R.; anecdote of, 108.
- MOISES, Rev. Mr.; letter from Lord Chancellor Eldon to him, 379. Some remarks on the reverend divine, 380.
- N.
- NAUTICAL CLOCK; a curious and valuable one stolen from the observatory of Colonel Beaufoy, 398.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- NAVAL ANECDOTES, COMMERCIAL HINTS, RECOLLECTIONS, &c. 13, 102, 185, 294, 385, 450.
- CHAPLAINS; first appointment of 458.
- ENGAGEMENTS; some account of one in 1340, 392—394.
- EVENTS; chronological sketch of the most remarkable in the year 1805, 335—339.
- HISTORY of the present year, 1806, 72, 153, 242, 269, 339, 428.
- LITERATURE. See Maydman, Charnock, Post Captain, Cowan.
- OFFICERS. Scale of the increased pensions granted to their widows, 115.
- . Remarks on the inadequateness of their pay, 117. Letter from a poor Post Captain on the same subject, 125.
- POETRY. Epicedium upon the death of Lord Viscount Nelson, 65. Lines on the same subject, 66. The Victory of Trafalgar, 67. On the death of Lord Nelson, and the battle of Trafalgar, 68. Address, spoken on board His Majesty's ship Britannia, off Cadiz, 69. An address to England upon her Nelson's death, 71. Extracts from Dr. Young's reflections on the public situation of the kingdom in 1745, 423. Imitation of Horace, book xvi, ode 2, by Mr. Hastings, 426.
- PROCESSION at Aylsham, on the late Thanksgiving Day, 114.
- REFORM. Sixth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry. Plymouth Yard, 53. The examination of Richard Perring, Esq., Clerk of the Check of Plymouth Yard, 55—61. 153—157. The examination of Mr. Thomas Netherton, first Clerk to the Clerk of the Check of Plymouth Yard, 212—220. The mode of employing and paying the several classes of Artificers and Labourers, 312—319. The examination of Mr. Thomas Netherton continued, 319—323. 415—422.
- Revision; expenses of the Commission for, 395. Letter from the Commissioners to the Lords of the Admiralty, ib.
- SUPERIORITY of England; causes of the, 199.
- NAVIGATION; hints for publishing scientific tracts for the improvement of, 196.
- NAVY; affecting case of an officer in the, 176.
- ; the first Lord of the Admiralty submits an estimate to the House of Commons for an increase of pay to the officers and men of the, 339.
- NELSON, Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount; anecdotes of, 13. Sheridan's lines, on the death of Colonel Buller, applied to the death of his Lordship, 17. Statement of the exact circumstances under which the Hero fell, 27. Letter from a gentleman who had been on board the Victory, and had ascertained that his Lordship was killed by a shot from the main-top of the Redoubtable, 34. Addenda to the biographical memoir of Lord Nelson, 37. Extract of the last private letter which he wrote, ib. Interesting particulars relative to his Lordship immediately before and after he received the fatal wound, 38. Official statement by Mr. Beatty, Surgeon of the Victory, 39. Course and site of the ball, ascertained since death, 40. Representation of the ball, &c. ib. Abstract of his Lordship's last will and testament, and codicils thereto annexed, 41. Remarks on his senatorial character, 44. Observations made by him in the House of Lords, ib. The Victory arrives at the Nore with the remains of his Lordship, 45. Description of his exterior coffin, 46. Inscription on the breast plate, 47. The body is received on board Commissioner Grey's yacht, which proceeds with it to Greenwich, 48. Honours paid to his Lordships remains while they pass the different vessels, and the forts at Tilbury and Gravesend, till their arrival at Greenwich, where they are received by Lord Hood, ib. The body is laid in state in the painted chamber, 49. The Princess of Wales, attended by her retinue, go to view the body, ib. The populace afterward admitted, ib. Description of the lying in state, ib. A chosen band of seamen and marines belonging to the Victory, arrive at Greenwich, for the purpose of falling into the funeral procession of their deceased Commander, 51. Remarks on their truly English appearance, 52. They are conducted to see the body lying in state, and are deeply affected, ib. They are warmly greeted by the populace, ib.—Anecdotes of his Lordship, 110—112. Further particulars, 116. Account of the preparations made for his Lordship's funeral, 138. The order of procession from Greenwich to the barges, 139. Honours paid to his Lordship's remains on the river, 140. Order of the procession on the water, 142. Also the order observed in conveying the body from Whitehall Stairs to the Admiralty, on foot, 144. Order of the procession from the Admiralty to St. Paul's, 145—152.—Anecdote of his Lordship, 188. Origin of his Italian title, 189. His prayer before the commencement of the action off Trafalgar, 190. List of the officers who attended his Lordship's funeral, 222. Further particulars of the funeral procession, 223—235. Anthems sung on the occasion, 227—230, 232. Description of the funeral car, 233. Letter from the Board of Admiralty to the Secretary of Greenwich Hospital, containing directions respecting the car, 234. Apostrophe to the shade of Nel-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- son, by Mr. Thelwall, 297. Remark made by his Lordship's father to a Right Reverend Prelate, 379.—Just reflections on the noble Admiral's death, 400.
- NEWFOUNDLAND; account of a dangerous voyage from St. Helen's to that island, 305.
- NORTHESK, the Right Honourable WILLIAM, Earl of; portrait and biographical memoir of, 441. Preliminary observations, ib. Some account of his family, 442. His ancestors remarkable for their loyalty, ib. Commences his naval career in the Albion, under the Hon. Capt. Barrington, ib. Is made acting Lieutenant in the Nonsuch, and confirmed by Lord Howe into the Apollo, ib. Raised to the rank of Commander by Lord Rodney, 443. Advanced to Post rank, and appointed to command the Eustatus, in which he was present at the reduction of the island of that name, ib. Returns to England, and is paid off at the peace in 1783, ib. Succeeds his elder brother, as Lord Rosellill, ib. Appointed to the command of the Heroine frigate, ib. On the death of his father, succeeds to his title and estate, ib. Elected one of the sixteen representatives of the Scotch peerage in parliament, and Governor of the British Linen Company, ib. Appointed to the command of the Monmouth, and serves in the North Sea under Lord Duncan, ib. Is confined by the mutineers, and requested by them to present a letter to the King, ib. Commands the Prince, and serves under the Earl of St. Vincent in the Channel, 444. On the renewal of hostilities with France is appointed to command the Britannia, and serves under the Hon. Admiral Cornwallis in the Channel, ib. Raised to the rank of Rear-Admiral of the White, and is variously employed, ib. Sails to reinforce Vice-Admiral Collingwood, off Cadiz, and is distinguishedly engaged in the battle off Trafalgar, ib. His zeal and humanity conspicuously displayed, 446. Honours conferred on his Lordship, and observations thereon, ib. Description of his Lordship's person, 447. His character, ib. Marries the niece of the Earl of St. Vincent, ib. Some account of his eldest son, 448. His Majesty confers the honour of the order of the bath on the Rear-Admiral, ib. Account of the ceremonial of the investiture, 449.
- O.
- OWHYEER; progress which the natives of that island are making in civilization, 194.
- P.
- PACOT, Captain, captures a French frigate, 262.
- PARLIAMENT, Imperial; speech of the Lords Commissioners on opening it, 76. Proceedings interesting to the Navy in, 77. Trial of Lord Viscount Melville before the high court of, 477—517.
- PATRIOTIC FUND; Captain Bayntun's letter to the, 16. Amount of the subscriptions to the fund in February 1806, 260. Rewards conferred by it on Vice-Admiral Sir J. T. Duckworth and his officers, &c. 389.
- PEARCE, Mr.; anecdote of, 106.
- PENSIONS, scale of, granted to the widows of officers in the royal navy, 115.
- PETERELL sloop; account of her engagement with a French privateer, 301.
- PHILOSOPHICAL PAPERS, 208.
- PIRACY; some account of an act of, 104.
- PIRATES; alarming increase of, in the river from Canton to Macao, 296.
- PITT, the late Right Hon. WILLIAM; remarks occasioned by his death, 158. Is said to have recommended Lord Greaville to His Majesty, as a fit person to be placed at the head of a new administration, ib.
- PLATES. For a list of, see the page following the dedication.
- POETRY. See NAVAL POETRY.
- PORTSMOUTH CHURCH; dimensions of the ship at the top of its steeple, 194.
- POST CAPTAIN; letter from one to the Editor, complaining of the inadequateness of the pay of naval officers, 195.
- "POST CAPTAIN," (The); or, "The Wooden Walls well manned;" review of, and extract from, a book so entitled, 237—242.
- PRAAM; new invented one, 394.
- PRIVY COUNCIL meet to investigate a charge of a most heinous nature against Lieut. S. 261. A reward of 200*l.* offered for the apprehension of Lieut. George Rutherford, implicated in the same affair, ib.
- PROCESSION. See NAVAL PROCESSION.
- Q.
- QUERY, hydrostatic, 102.
- R.
- RAINIER, Admiral; account of the entertainment given to him by the civil servants of the East India Company before his departure from India, 21.
- RAM, Lieut.; anecdote of, 103.
- RAMILLIES; extract of a letter from a Midshipman of that ship, giving an account of the capture of Admiral Linois' squadron, 407.
- REFORM. See NAVAL REFORM.
- REMARKS, retrospective and miscellaneous, 242.
- ROCHFORD SQUADRON; account of the, 186.
- RODNEY, Admiral Lord; anecdote of, 396.
- ROTHERHAM, Capt.; anecdote of, 110.
- , Dr. JOHN; an error respecting him corrected, 118.
- ROYAL ACADEMY at Portsmouth; plate of, 401. Rules and orders of the Academy, 401—407.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

RUSSIAN VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY; some account of, 459.

RUTHERFORD, Lieut. GEORGE; a reward of 200*l.* offered for his apprehension, 261.

S.

SAILOR and an Auctioneer; anecdote of, 104. ———; the life of a, 390.

ST. LUCIA; view and description of, 476.

SALTWELL, Captain; gallant conduct of, 457.

SANDWICH, Admiral the Earl of; account of his exploits and public funeral, about a century and a half ago, 33.

SCARLET CLOTH; receipt to restore the colour in, 36.

SEA; temperature of the, 394.

——, China; list of several vessels lost in the, 463.

SEAMEN; anecdote of two belonging to the Temeraire, 109.

——; liberality of some to their prisoners, 109.

SERMON; extracts from one preached by the Rev. J. Symons, Rector of Whitburn, to the soldiers at his church, upon the news of Lord Nelson's victory and lamented death, 29.

SHANNON and TRIMMER; account of the capture of the, 24.

SHERIDAN'S lines on the death of Colonel Buller, applied to the death of Lord Nelson, 17.

SHIPWRECKS; correct relation of, 324.

SKETCH, chronological, of the most remarkable naval events of the year 1805, 335—339.

SONG sung at an entertainment given to Rear-Admiral Rainier, 23.

SPANISH EXHORTATION in behalf of the poor widows and orphans of the seamen who fell in the battle off Trafalgar, 160.

SPRATT, Mr., Mate of the Defiance; account of his heroic conduct in the battle off Trafalgar, 19.

STANHOPE, Hon Vice-Admiral HENRY EDWYN; portrait and biographical memoir of; viz. Some particulars of his education, 89. Commences his naval career on board the Rose, and sails for America, ib. Accompanies Lieut. Penton to search a brig, in which attempt the Lieut. is killed, 90. Appointed a Midshipman of the Chatham, at the leeward islands, but obliged to return to Europe, owing to ill health, ib. Sails for Boston in the Otter sloop, and is in the unfortunate battle of Bunker's Hill, ib. Acts as Lieut. of the Glasgow, and commands a division of flat boats, ib. Appointed Prize-master to an American brig, and takes a large schooner and two other prizes, 91. Acts as Lieut. of the Rose, and takes a schooner out of Stonington harbour, ib. Falls in with the Hancock privateer, and maintains an obstinate conflict with her, ib.

Employed on hazardous service by Capt. Howe, 92. Taken prisoner, and committed to gaol, ib. Sent upon his parole to Northampton, is harshly treated, and makes his escape in company with Capt. Gregory, ib. They are taken, and committed to gaol, as close prisoners, for nine months, ib. Effects his escape, and reaches Salem, 93. After meeting with various adventures, he reaches Plymouth in 1777, ib. Experiences a severe mortification, ib. Appointed first Lieut. of the Nonsuch, and sails for New York, ib. Obtains the command of the Pigott galley, and captures the Spitfire galley, 94. Passes the French fleet in a whale boat, arrives at New York, where he is graciously received by Lord Howe, who appoints him to the Monmouth, 95. After the relief of Rhode Island he returns to England, ib. Appointed first Lieut. of the Portland, and sails for Newfoundland, ib. Promoted to be a Master and Commander, in the Trepassey privateer, ib. Sails in the Ranger cutter with dispatches to the West Indies, 96. Appointed to command the Salamander fire-ship, ib. Raised to Post rank, in the Terrible, of 74 guns, ib. Commands the Russell in the action off St. Kitts, ib. Returns to England with Sir Samuel Hood's dispatches, in a weak state of health, ib. Recovers his health, and is appointed to the Mercury frigate, ib. Sails for New York in 1783 with the definitive treaty of peace, 97. Waits on the Governor of Boston, and on returning to his ship is insulted by a mob, ib. Correspondence which took place betwixt Capt. Stanhope and Governor Bowdoin on the occasion, ib. Appointed to command the Ruby, and sails for the Cape of Good Hope, ib. Tried by a Court Martial, at the instance of the junior Lieutenant, and honourably acquitted, 100. Sails to England with the Commander in Chief's dispatches, ib. Meets with a cold reception at St. James's, ib. An explanation terminates so much to his honour, that he is restored to favour at Court, and appointed to the command of the Neptune, ib. Is a Member of the Court Martial for the trial of the mutineers at the Nore, ib. Obligated to resign his command through ill health, 101. Raised to the rank of Rear-Admiral of the Blue, and afterward to the same rank in the Red squadron, ib. Appointed to command in the river Thames, and promoted to be Vice-Admiral of the Blue squadron, ib. Heraldic particulars, ib.

T.

TALBOT, Capt.; address of the Leander's officers to him, previous to his joining the Centaur, 115. His reply, ib.

TEMPERATURE of the sea, 394.

THELWALL'S Apostrophe to the Shade of Nelson, 297.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- TRAFALGAR MEDAL; Mr. Boulton's, 18. Remarks on the suggestion of giving medals to all the victors at Trafalgar, 117. Extracts of letters from a young officer to his relations a few hours before the battle of Trafalgar, in which he was killed, 119. Extract from the letter of James West, a foremast man on board the Britannia, in which he gives some account of the engagement, 160. Letter from an officer on board the Bellerophon, containing some particulars of the battle, 203. The French heroes of Trafalgar, 456.
- TRAVELS in the United States; extract from Michaux's, 299.
- TRIAL of Lord Viscount Melville, 477—V.
- UNITED STATES; extract from Michaux's Travels in the, 299.
- VESSELS; a list of several which were lost in the China Sea, 463.
- VICTORY and TEMERAIRE; anecdote of, 109. ——— gained by Vice-Admiral Sir J. T. Duckworth; some account of, 242—245. The Patriotic Fund votes rewards to the Vice-Admiral, his officers, and men, 389. Powerful incentives to victory, 399.
- VILLENEUVE, Admiral; account of the death of, 428. Further particulars, 456.
- VINCENT, Captain; a sword presented to him by the Patriotic Fund for his gallantry in His Majesty's ship Arrow, 103.
- VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY, Russian; some account of, 459.
- W.
- WARREN, Sir JOHN BORLASE; account of his engagement with Linois' squadron, extracted from the letter of a Midshipman on board the Ramillies, 407. Official account, 433.
- WIDOWS of officers in the Royal Navy, scale of increased pensions granted to them, 115.
- WRIGHT, Captain; account of his dreadful sufferings, 190. Letter said to have been written by him, 453.

INDEX to the GAZETTE LETTERS in VOL. XV; containing Accounts of the Captures, Proceedings, &c. by and of the under-mentioned Officers.

- | | | |
|--|---|---|
| ALLAN, Capt. T. M. 349
Barker, Lieut. John, 350
Bell, Lieut. George, 74
Berry, Capt. Sir E. 432, 439
Brace, Capt. C. 349
Briarty, Lieut. 432
Broke, Capt. P. B. V. 247, 436
Byng, Capt. George, 250
Chambers, Capt. S. 74
Cochrane, Hon. Rear-Admiral Alex. 252
———, Capt. N. D. 252
———, Capt. Lord, 347
Coghlan, Capt. Jeremiah, 247
Collier, Capt. F. A. 432
———, Capt. G. R. 435
Collingwood, Vice-Ad. Lord, 161, 246, 342
Dacres, Rear-Ad. J. R. 74 | Dashwood, Capt. C. 345
Davie, Capt. John, 344
Donnelly, Capt. Ross, 251
Duckworth, Vice-Ad. Sir J. T. 254, 256, 259, 345
Hall, Capt. Robert, 341
Handfield, Lieut. P. C. 73
Johnstone, Capt. J. 251
Livingstone, Capt. Sir T. 436
Lobb, Capt. W. G. 251
Loring, Capt. J. W. 430
Macdonnell, Capt. R. 247
M'Kenzie, Capt. G. C. 75, 342
———, Capt. Adam, 347
Maitland, Capt. F. L. 334
Montague, Capt. G. 343
Moubray, Capt. R. H. 439
Mundy, Capt. G. 343, 437
Nesbitt, Lieut. Thomas, 245 | Novella, Michael, 435
Paget, Capt. Charles, 254
Popham, Capt. Sir Home, 248, 250, 437
Shackleton, Lieut. C. 433
Sheils, Lieut. Dan. 254
Simpson, Capt. I. 252
Smith, Lieut. James, 75
———, Capt. J. 352
Smithies, Lieut. T. 161
Stockham, Lieut. John, 431
Swain, Lieut. Thomas, 245
Usher, Lieut. Thomas, 344, 435
Waller, Capt. J. 438
Warren, Vice-Ad. Sir J. B. 433
Young, Admiral W. 349
Younghusband, Capt. G. 351, 431, 432 |
|--|---|---|

INDEX to the PROMOTIONS and APPOINTMENTS.

- | | | |
|--|---|--|
| ADYE, Lieut. 176
Agassey, Capt. J. 263
Backie, Mr. J. 440
Baird, Dr. 263
Baker, Capt. T. 440
Balderstone, Lieut. 175
Balfour, Lieut. 175 | Barrie, Capt. 440
Bateman, Capt. S. 176
Beauchamp, Capt. W. 175
Bedford, Capt. 86, 351
Bennet, Capt. 440
———, Hon. Capt. 440
Berkeley, Vice-Ad. 263, 351 | Bertie, Capt. T. 86
Blackwood, Hon. Capt. 86
Bligh, Capt. 175
Bouverie, Hon. Capt. 176
Bowen, Capt. 175
———, Capt. J. 175
Bowes, Lieut. 175 |
|--|---|--|

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Boyle, Hon. Capt. 440
Bradshaw, Lieut. 175
Bremar, Lieut. 440
Brewer, Mr. William, 175
Brown, Capt. 175
——, Capt. T. 263
Burton, Capt. 86
Burn, Capt. 176
Barrowes, Capt. 86, 263
Bushby, Capt. 175
Campbell, Capt. R. B. 176
Capel, Hon. Capt. 86
Carden, Capt. 175
Carteret, Capt. 175
Carthew, Capt. 175
Caulfield, Capt. 86
Charlton, Lieut. 175
Clement, Capt. B. 351
Cochrane, Capt. N. D. 351
——, Capt. Lord, 440
Cockburn, Capt. George, 86
Collier, Capt. G. R. 175
Cooke, Capt. 263
Cranmer, Capt. J. 86
Crofton, Capt. 264
Cuming, Capt. 86, 440
Curry, Capt. 175
Curtis, Capt. 175
Daly, Lieut. 351
Dickinson, Lieut. 175
Digby, Capt. 86
Dilkes, Capt. 176
Douglas, Capt. J. E. 175
Downman, Capt. 175
Duer, Capt. John, 86
Duff, Capt. 175
Dunbar, Capt. J. 175
Duncan, Capt. 175
Dundas, Hon. Capt. 175
Edmonds, Capt. 263
Ellis, Lieut. 175
Elison, Lieut. 175
Falkland, Capt. Lord, 440
Farquhar, Capt. 440
Farquharson, Capt. J. R. 86
Fielding, Capt. 175
Fleming, Lieut. 351
Forbes, Capt. 263
Forrest, Lieut. 175
Foster, Capt. 175
Fowler, Lieut. R. 351
Garland, Lieut. 175
Garrett, Capt. 351.
Gilchrist, Lieut. 351
Gobbie, Mr. 351
Gordon, Lieut. J. M. 86
——, Lieut. 175, 176
Gore, Capt. Sir John, 176
Gosselin, Capt. 351
Grant, Mr. Henry, 264
Green, Capt. W. 86
Grey, Mr. 158
Halkett, Capt. 351
Hancock, Capt. 175
Handfield, Lieut. 176.
Hardy, Capt. Sir T. M. Bart.
264, 440
Harvey, Rear-Ad. Eliab, 351
Hawtayne, Capt. Charles, 86
Haywood, Capt. E. 86
Heathcote, Capt. G. 175
Hellard, Capt. William, 263
Henderson, Capt. 175
Henniker, Capt. 175
Heywood, Capt. 175
Hodge, Lieut. 175
Hodgeson, Capt. 175
Hollinworth, Lieut. 176
Honey, Lieut. 176
Hood, Capt. Sir Samuel, 86
Hope, Lieut. 176, 263
Hopkins, Lieut. 175
——, Capt. 351
Humphries, Capt. 440
Hunt, Lieut. 175
Hycks, Lieut. 175
Inuppy, Capt. 175
Inglis, Capt. 86
Innis, Capt. T. 176
Jackson, Capt. R. 175
Johnstone, Capt. Charles, 86
——, Capt. 175
Kent, Capt. 175
Kerr, Capt. 175
Killwick, Capt. 264
King, (1), Lieut. 175
——, Lieut. 175, 263
Lake, Capt. 175
——, Lieut. 176
——, Capt. Warwick, 263
Langhorne, Capt. J. 440
Larmour, Capt. 86
Laroche, Capt. 86
——, Capt. H. 86, 175
Lechinere, Capt. 175
Lewis, Capt. 175
Lobb, Capt. 440
Lucas, Lieut. John, 86
Luken, Capt. 351
Lukin, Capt. 263
Lye, Lieut. Wm. James, 86
——, Capt. 440
Lysaught, Lieut. 175
Maddock, Mr. 440
McKenzie, Capt. A. M. 263
Mackey, Capt. 175
McKinley, Capt. 175, 440
McLean, Mr. Alex. 175
McLeod, Capt. 175
Mansell, Capt. 263
Mackland, Lieut. 175
Martin, Rear-Ad. Geo. 175
Mason, Capt. 175
Matson, Mr. C. 86
Maxwell, Lieut. 175
Meik, Lieut. 440
Mein, Lieut. 176
Miller, Capt. 440
Mitchell, Capt. 86
——, Lieut. 351
Mounsey, Capt. 176
Mowbray, Capt. 86
Murray, Rear-Ad. Geo. 175
Nicholls, Capt. 176
Oldham, Capt. 175
Oliver, Capt. 263
Ommanney, Capt. 175, 440
Oswald, Capt. 86
Otway, Capt. W. A. 176
Owen, Capt. 264
Packwood, Lieut. 175
Paget, Hon. Capt. 86
Pakenham, Hon. Capt. 86
Palmer, Lieut. 175
——, Capt. 176
Parker, Lieut. 175
——, Rev. Mr. 176
Parkinson, Capt. 263
Pascoe, Lieut. 86
Pellew, Capt. 175
Perry, Lieut. 175
Piercy, Capt. R. 351
Pigot, Capt. H. 264
Pillford, Lieut. 86
Pipon, Capt. 263
Popham, Capt. J. L. 175
Poulet, Hon. Capt. 26
Prowse, Lieut. 176
Quilliam, Lieut. 86
Rains, Capt. 351
Raitt, Lieut. 176
Ramsey, Capt. 175
Ratsey, Lieut. 86
Reynolds, Capt. G. 176
Richardson, Capt. C. 86
Robinson, Capt. M. 86
Rodney, Capt. 175
Rogers, Lieut. 175
Rose, Capt. J. 86
Rosenhagen, Capt. 175
Rothery, Mr. N. P. 351
Ryder, Lieut. 175
——, Capt. 440
St. Vincent, Earl, 263
Salmou, Lieut. 351
Scott, Capt. 175
Seale, Capt. J. C. 175
——, Capt. T. 175
Seymour, Capt. M. 351
Sheridan, Rt. Hon. R. B. 263
Sheriff, Lieut. 176
——, Capt. 263
Shippard, Capt. 175
Smith, Capt. 175
Snell, Capt. 175
Spranger, Capt. 351
Stantell, Capt. 411
Stark, Capt. de, 440
Stevenson, Lieut. 175

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01854-8 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 15

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- | | | |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Steward, Lieut. 175 | Trollope, Capt. 263 | Warwick, Lieut. 176 |
| Stewart, Capt. J. 86, 264 | Trowbridge, R.-Ad. Sir T. 351 | Watson, Capt. 175 |
| ———, Capt. 263 | Tucker, Lieut. 175 | Western, Capt. 176 |
| Stockham, Lieut. J. 86 | Valentine, Lieut. 175 | Williams, Lieut. 86 |
| Stodart, Lieut. 176 | Vashon, Admiral, 176 | Wingates, Capt. 264 |
| Strutt, Capt. 440 | Vaughan, Capt. 175 | Winter, Lieut. 176 |
| Stuart, Capt. Lord George, 86 | Vincent, Capt. 440 | Wolley, Capt. J. 176 |
| ———, Lord W. 175 | Vosper, Lieut. W. 86 | Wood, Capt. John, 86 |
| Sutton, Capt. 176 | Wainwright, Capt. 440 | ———, Capt. J. A. 351 |
| Sykes, Capt. J. 175 | Waldegrave, Hon. Lieut. G. 175 | Wooldridge, Capt. Wm. 86 |
| Thicknesse, Capt. 263, 440 | Walker, Mr. W. 175 | Worth, Capt. 263 |
| Thompson, Capt. J. 176 | Walpole, Lieut. 175 | Yarker, Capt. 263 |
| Tower, Capt. 176 | | Youle, Lieut. 86 |
| Townsend, Lord J. 264 | | |

INDEX to the MARRIAGES.

- | | | |
|------------------------------|----------------------------|--------------------------|
| BURDETT , Capt. 440 | Digby, Capt. 351 | Rainier, Capt. J. S. 264 |
| Carter, Capt. 87 | Kare, Mr. Patrick, 264 | Ryves, Capt. 264 |
| Cliverton, Mr. 87 | Kemphill, Mr. S. 440 | Shoveller, Mr. T. 176 |
| Colby, Capt. 440 | Mitchell, Capt. 87 | Sutton, Capt. 351 |
| Colley, Lieut. A. Keppel, 87 | O'Reilly, Capt. Edward, 87 | Wingrove, Capt. G. P. 87 |

INDEX to the OBITUARY.

- | | | |
|------------------------------|---------------------------|-------------------------------|
| AFFLECK , Capt. T. 87 | Dobson, Lieut. 176 | Langford, Mrs. 440 |
| Baker, Lieut. 264 | Ellis, Mr. Henry, 264 | Mitchell, Vice-Ad. Sir A. 352 |
| Bayne, Mrs. 87 | Furnall, Capt. Harry, 352 | Mosberry, Mrs. 176 |
| Benbow, Mr. John, 264 | Furness, Lieut. 352 | Norman, Capt. 176 |
| Billinghurst, Lieut. 176 | Hall, Capt. 264 | Orde, Capt. 264 |
| ———, junior, Lieut. 440 | Hamond, Miss, 352 | Peers, Mr. James, 352. |
| Birchall, Mrs. 176 | Hardy, Miss, 176 | Rankin, Mrs. 176 |
| Bois, Capt. du, 264 | Hope, Mr. Charles, 87 | Richardson, Capt. 87 |
| Brownrigg, Capt. 264 | Jennings, Capt. U. 264 | Simpson, Mr., son of, 440 |
| Covey, ———, 440 | Kendall, Capt. 264 | Skrymsher, Lieut. 87 |
| Cuthbertson, Capt. R. 87 | Laforey, Miss, 87 | Smith, Lieut. 87 |
| Day, Capt. W. 352 | Langara, Admaral, 264 | Whitby, Capt. 352 |

END OF THE FIFTEENTH VOLUME.

JOYCE GOLD, PRINTER, SHOE-LANE, LONDON.