

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01876-0 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 37

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX

TO

THE THIRTY-SEVENTH VOLUME.

- A.
- ACT respecting Buonaparte's confinement at St Helena, 234.
- Actions: English Fleet with the Spanish Armada, 13. Alceste, Active, and Unité, with three French frigates, 30. Of the Nile, by Admiral Blanquett's Adjutant, 140.
- Admiralty. Droits of, 183.
- Africano brig, piracy of the, 104.
- Agnes, schooner, fatal effects of fumigation on board the, 109.
- Albion, sloop, loss of the, in the late heavy gales at Plymouth, 139.
- Alceste frigate, further proceedings of the, at China, 463.
- Algerine Slave, singular account of one, formerly groom in the service of the Count D'Artois, 26. Return of one to Brighton, 187.
- Alger, plan of attack on, 409.
- American President's Speech, 411.
- Assiento Contract, stipulations of the, 3, (note).
- B.
- BARRETT, the late Captain JOHN, Memoir of, 177. Born at Drogheda, in Ireland, and placed at an early age under Admiral Caldwell, 178. Promoted to the rank of Lieutenant through the interest of his patron, in the year 1793, and serves with him in the Cumberland, of 74 guns, ib. Removes with his patron into the Impregnable, of 98 guns, 179. Serves in the battle of the 1st of June, ib. Sails with Admiral Caldwell to the West Indies, on board the Majestic, and joins Sir John Jervis, ib. Promoted on this station successively to the ranks of Commander and Post Captain, ib. Involved in a series of embarrassments in consequence of his detention of some American, and other neutral vessels, ib. Marries and adds to his embarrassments by his responsibility to his wife's creditors, ib. Arrested and confined in prison, ib. Separation from his wife, 180. Released from his confinement, and appointed to the Africa, of 64 guns, ib. Sails to the Baltic to superintend the passage of convoys through the Sound, under the orders of Admiral Sir Thomas Bertie, ib. Attacked in the Malmuc passage by a number of Danish gun-vessels, ib. Appointed in the year 1809 to the Minotaur, and stationed in the Gulf of Finland, 181. Shipwrecked in his voyage with a homeward-bound convoy, ib. Sinks with his ship, 182.
- Bavonne, safe anchorage found between that place and Cape Breton, 348.
- Bell, Captain, his fracas with some Americans at Messina, 27.
- Boulogne, chart and account of, 505.
- Breaking the line, instances of, prior to Lord Rodney's action of the 12th April, and to the publication of Mr. Clerk's System of Naval Tactics, 50.
- Breakwater at Plymouth, its great utility evinced in the shelter it afforded to the Amphitrite frigate, 25.
- British Consul at New York, stopped on suspicion of smuggling, 108.
- British Humanity, 371.
- Buonaparte plot for his release from St. Helena discovered, 373 463.
- Burke, Captain his piracy in the brig Africano, 104.
- C.
- Campbell, Captain R. Addendum to our Biographical Memoir of, 123.
- Calas, hydrographical particulars of, 55. ———, recent Shipwreck at, 371.
- Ceylon, history of by Philaethes, reviewed, 330.
- Chinese Embassy, account of the, 191. 257 317.
- China, decree of the Emperor of, respecting the late Embassy, 347.
- Civita Vecchia, arrival of the Vatican Pictures and Sculptures at, 28.
- Circular from the President of the Antipirate Institution. at Paris, 110.
- Coghlan, Daniel, Esq. present to from the Owners of the ship Aurora, 187.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01876-0 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 37

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Collingwood, Commodore Thomas, some biographical particulars of, 209, (note).
 Commissioned officers, numerical list of, in the Royal Navy, 192. Daily and yearly half-pay of the, ib.
 Congo and Dorothy, return of the from the coast of Africa, 184.
 CORRESPONDENCE. 30. 113. 193. 285. 374. 464.
 Crusoe, Robinson, Academic Edition of, reviewed, 155.
 Curtus, Sir R. biographical memorandum of, 103.
 Captains of H. M.'s Fleet, in the year 1747, list of, 203.
- D.
- Dallas, Robert Charles, early poetical powers of, 419.
 Definition of the terms used in our Meteorological Register, 174.
 Dix Cove, in Africa, longitudes and latitudes of ascertained, 403.
 Documentary Series annexed to the Report of the President of the Union of the Members of all the Orders of Knighthood in Europe, assembled at Vienna.—No. XIX. Admiral Lord Exmouth's despatch from Algier, vide Vol. xxxvi. p. 254. No. XX. Letter from a British Agent at a Sea-port of the Mediterranean, to the Knight-President of the Anti-pirate Institution, 133.
 Donegal, account of the county of, 216.
 Dowus, facilities for the navigation from the to Ramsgate, 57.
 Douay, account of the city of, 241.
 Dreams, remarks on by Wolfius, Formay, and others, 157.
 Droids of Admiralty, official account of the, 183.
 Dunkirk, plan and description of, 128.
 Dunn, Robert, Esq. present to from Captain Brace, and the Officers of H. M. S. Virginia, 187.
- E.
- Earth, intended survey to ascertain the figure of the, 215.
 Earthquake in Switzerland, 373.
 East India Trade should afford a supply of Seamen to the Royal Navy in time of war, 72.
 Eleonora, loss of the, on the shore of Calais, 371.
 Embassy to China, account of the, 191. 257. 317.
 Endymion and President, remarks on the action between the, 193.
 English Fleet, in the year 1588, numerical list of, 18.
- Evils of Impressment, Letters on the, by T. Urquhart, reviewed, 71.
 Explosion of a Steam Packet, 372.
- F.
- Falmouth, its eligibility as a Packet Station considered, 196. 296.
 Flag Officers, list of in 1773, 45.
 ————— 1747, 125.
 Fleet, numerical List of the English, in 1588, 18.
 Flinders, Captain, his remarks on the variation of the needle, 308.
 Fort Nieulet, plan and description of, 54.
 — Scarpe, plan and description of, 240.
 Fowler, Captain of the Indian brig Matilda, interesting account of the plunder of his vessel, and imminent danger of himself and crew, 22.
 FREDERICK, the late Admiral THOMAS LENOX. Memoir of, 265. Place of his birth, 266. Enters the naval service under the patronage of Captains Montagu and Sir Peter Parker, ib. Commands the Spy sloop, on the Newfoundland station, ib. Removed to the Swift sloop, and attached to the fleet of Earl Howe, on the North American station, ib. Resumes the command of the Spy sloop on his former station, ib. Loses his ship on the Coast of Newfoundland, 267. Acquitted by Court Martial, promoted to post rank, and appointed to the Unicorn, of 20 guns, ib. Successful in his captures, ib. Removes from the North American station to Jamaica, where he serves under his friend Sir Peter Parker, ib. Captured and carried into Martinique, 268. Honorably acquitted by Court Martial, and appointed to the Fairy sloop, of 16 guns, ib. Captures the Dunkirk sloop, of 18 guns, the Phoenix, American privateer, and Mercury, American packet, with Henry Lauens, Esq. on board, ib. Retires upon half-pay and marries, 269. Appointed to the Diomedé, and ordered to join the fleet under Admiral Digby, on the North American station, ib. Sails on a cruise off the Delaware, with the Astrea and Quebec under his orders, ib. Captures the South Carolina, ib. Particulars relative to the building and freighting that ship, (note) ib. Returns to England at the peace and retires on half-pay, 272. His correspondence with Sir Charles Frederick, 273. Appointed to command the Romulus, in the Spanish Armament, ib. Appointed to the same in the Russian Armament, 275. At the commencement of the

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01876-0 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 37

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- war with France, appointed to the Illustrious, 276. His services off Toulon, ib. Extract from a Journal on board the Illustrious, ib. (note.) Action with the French fleet off Marguerite, 353. Tried by Court Martial for the loss of his ship, 355. His defence, honorable acquittal, and appointment to the Blenheim, ibid.—359. Proceedings in the blockade of Toulon, 360. Abandonment of Corsica by the English, ib. Action with the Spanish fleet off Cape St. Vincent, 361. His gallant conduct in that action, 362. Statement of the Blenheim's loss and damage in that action, 364. Promoted to the rank of Rear admiral of the Blue, 366. Returns to England, ib. Retires on half-pay, ib. His letter to a young officer, ib. Hoists his flag on board the Flora, 367. Sails for Lisbon with a convoy, ib. Shifts his flag to the Dolphin, ib. Attacked with a severe fit of illness, ib. Removes his flag into the Blenheim, ib. The Blenheim appointed by Earl St. Vincent repeating ship, in the blockade of Cadiz, ib. Contributes 100*l.* per annum during the war in aid of its prosecution, 368. Shifts his flag to the Princess Royal, ib. Returns to England on account of ill health, ib. Strikes his flag in Torbay, and proceeds to London dangerously ill. His death ib. Heraldry, 370.
- Frio, Cape, description of, 232.
- Fumigation, fatal instance of on board the schooner Agnes, 109.
- G.
- Goa, Inverarity's chart of, and hydrographical remarks on, recommended by the Hydrographer of N. C. 53.
- Godoy, the Spanish Minister, answer of, to the French Ambassador's Memorial relative to the victory off St. Vincent, 213.
- Gonsalvi, Cardinal, sent by the Pope to hail the arrival at Civita Vecchia, of the Vatican Pictures and Sculptures.
- Good Hope, Cape of, an account of, 325.
- Gordon, Captain, his gallant conduct in command of the Active, 33.
- Gravelines, account of, 55.
- Great Harbour, Long Island, description of, 65.
- Griffith, Captain Walter, some biographical notices of, 209, (note.)
- H.
- Half-pay, naval, general instructions relative to the receipt of, 126.
- Nav. Chron.* Vol. XXXVII.
- Hamoaze, list of the King's shipping in, 8th March, 1817, 185.
- Hardini, the ancient inhabitants of Donegal, 216.
- Hastings, account of, and view of the Old Castle and Rope Walk at, 318.
- HAWKINS, Admiral Sir JOHN, Portrait and Memoir of, 1. His birth, and early attachment to the sea, 2. His first voyage to the Canary Islands, ib. Becomes the first British Slave-trader, ib. His commencement of that barbarous traffic in the Solomon, ib. His second voyage in that trade, 3. Returns with a rich cargo, and honored with a crest significant of his commerce, ib. Ordered by Queen Elizabeth to repair to Rochelle for the relief of the Protestants, ib. Sails from Plymouth on a third voyage for Slaves, 4. Account of the disastrous circumstances attending it, ib. His return to England, 7. Appointed Treasurer of the Navy, 9. Stabbed by a madman, who mistook him for the Vice-chancellor of London, 10. His dispute with the Spanish Admiral in Catwater, on account of the disrespectful conduct of the latter, ib. Preparations to oppose the Spanish Armada, in which he is appointed Rear-admiral, 11. An account of that memorable battle, 13. Receives the honor of Knighthood for his gallant conduct in that battle, and sent to oppose the King of Spain in his project of a second invasion, 18. List of the English fleet in 1588, (note.) Sails with Sir Francis Drake in an expedition against the Spaniards in South America, 19. Differences between the two Commanders, and consequent disappointment and death of Sir John Hawkins, 20. His character by Dr. Campbell, 21.
- Hood, Sir Samuel, fac-simile of his handwriting, 453.
- HYDROGRAPHY. Europe. England; Downs, and Ramsgate, 37. Portugal; Azores, ib. Asia. Hindoostan; Goa, 58. Murrumbagoa, 59. America; New Providence, East Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, 60. Bahama Salt, 64. Great Harbour; Long Island, 65. Rum Kay, ib. General Remarks on Winds, &c. 145. Europe; Germany, 152. General Remarks on Winds, &c. 225. Asia. Hindoostan; Bombay harbour, and Penriver, 230. America; Trinidad, 230. Brazil; Cape Frio, 232. General Remarks on Winds, &c. 305. Europe. Britain; Plymouth, 401. Plymouth Pilots, rate of Pilotage, ib. British Isles; Guernsey, 402. Africa, ib. Lati-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01876-0 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 37

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- tudes and Longitudes of places, touched at in a Voyage from Sierra Leone to Ningo, 403. Letter to Viscount Melville, on the Inequality of the Tides, 489. Europe. Ireland; Cork Harbour, 496. Cross Haven Tongue, ib.
- I. J.
- IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT. House of Lords. Attack upon Algier, 158. Thanks to Lord Exmouth, 159.
- , House of Commons. Thanks to Lord Exmouth, 160. Vote of Seamen, 161. Salary of the Secretary of the Admiralty, ib. Lords of the Admiralty, 241. Navy Estimates, 244. Navy Pursers, 245.
- Impressment, Urquhart's Letters on the Evils of, reviewed, 153.
- Institution, Anti-pirate, circular from the to the Founders of, and Subscribers to the, 110.
- Instructions to Warrant Officers relative to obtaining their pensions, 106.
- Instructions General, respecting the receipt of naval half-pay, 126.
- James, Duke of York, Letters of, when Lord High Admiral of England, 315 393. 484.
- Jasper, brig, loss of the, 135.
- , Court Martial to inquire into the circumstances of her wreck, 165
- Jean-Bart, Mr. Henry, descendant of the famous Jean-Bart, presented to Louis XVIIIth, 463.
- K.
- Keel, method of determining the length of the, for tonnage, 323.
- Kent, H. M. S. first application to, of Mr. Sepping's new riders, 124.
- Kia King, Emperor of China, decree of the English Embassy, 347.
- King's Ships, List of in the year 1660, 321.
- L.
- LAYMAN, Captain WILLIAM, Memoir of, 441. Early noticed for his nautical attainments, 442. Letter from Sir Thomas Troubridge to him, 443. Accepts an appointment to the San Josef, under Lord Nelson, 444. Ordered to the Baltic in the expedition against Copenhagen, ib. Anecdote respecting Lord Nelson, 445, (note). Order for sailing received, ib. Arrival of the fleet in the Cattegat, and proceedings thereon, 446. Great joy expressed on board the detached squadron on the signal to weigh being given, 449. Commencement of the action, ib. His request of employment on services of danger, 451, (note). Commendatory letter from Lord Nelson to him, ib. One from Lieutenant-General the Hon. William Stewart, 452. His proposal for substituting Chinese husbandmen in the place of African slaves, in the West Indies, 452. Experiences unfair treatment in that business, 454. Evidence of his being the original projector, 455.
- Leaks, method of preventing them in small vessels, 26.
- LETTERS ON SERVICE. 166. 249. 337. 425. 507.
- LETTERS OFFICIAL OF JAMES DUKE OF YORK, 315. 393. 484.
- Letter to the Editor from Thessaly, containing minutes of a running action between the Alceste, Active, and Unité, and a squadron of enemy's ships, 30.
- to the same, from Impartial, on the practice of requiring bondsmen for the return of seamen on leave to go on shore, 37.
- to the same, from Thessaly, inclosing an account of Captain Halliday's action with a superior force of the enemy's, 37.
- to the same, from the same, giving a brief statement of the capture of the Proserpine, 42.
- to the same, from Joannes Scriblerus, inclosing a gazette letter from Sir Sidney Smith, 43.
- to the same, from Noah, inclosing List of Flag Officers, in 1773, 45.
- to the same, from Nestor, on our Naval biography, shipwrecks, and recent regulations of the Admiralty, respecting the pay of Naval Officers, 47.
- to the same, from Alfred, recommending a more general use of the life-boat in the case of shipwreck, 48.
- to the same, from A Friend to Naval Merit, on the promotion of Lieutenants, 49.
- to the same, from An Occasional Correspondent, relative to the first instance of breaking the line, 50.
- to the same, from Britannicus, on the late reduction of our Navy, 113.
- to the same, from Mentor, recommending the communication of biographical documents, to the Naval Chronicle, 114.
- to the same, from Orion, suggesting the communication of commercial subjects, 114.
- to the same, from Triton, expressing his satisfaction at the recent provision made for old warrant officers, and passed midshipmen, 115.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01876-0 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 37

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Letter to the Editor, from Nestor, on the distressed state of our unemployed seamen, 116.
- to the same, from A Friend to Naval Merit, on the late promotion of old commanders, 117.
- to the same, from An Eye-Witness, recommending Mr. Mallison's life preserver, 118.
- to the same, from A Ship-Owner, on the subject of the Breakwater, at Plymouth, ib.
- to the same, from a Plymouthian, on the same subject, 119.
- to the same, from Y., on the depredations committed by vessels under the Independent Flag of South America, 120.
- to the same, from Thessaly, as an Addendum to the Memoir of the late Captain Campbell, 122.
- to the same, from  containing List of Flag Officers, on the 1st September, 1747.
- to the same, from Thessaly, remarks on the action between the Endymion and President, 193.
- to the same, from Mentor, character of the late Sir C. Parker, 194.
- to the same, from Tiphis, defending Falmouth as a packet station, against the preference of Plymouth, by the Chamber of Commerce at that port, 196.
- to the same, from Orion, respecting the improvement of the Malta trade, 199.
- to the same, from A Friend to Naval Merit, on the late promotion of old commanders, ib.
- to the same, from Neptunus, on the recent loss of ships by wreck, 200.
- to the same, from a Member of the Royal Naval Institution, announcing the intended publication of Captain Layman's "Outline of Maritime History," 201.
- to the same, from A Friend to Naval Merit, on the recent promotion of old commanders, 201.
- to the same, from Giacchus, in commendation of Thessaly's communications, 202.
- to the same, from  transmitting List of Captains in H. M. Fleet, in September 1st, 1747, 203.
- to the same, from Triton, on the propriety of a recent order for marine surveying, 206.
- to the same, from Albion, on the failure of our fir built frigates, 207.
- to the same, from Nestor, on the payment of British seamen on foreign stations, 207.
- Letter to the Editor, from Thessaly, inclosing extract of official letter, from Rear-admiral Hyde Parker, to Mr. Stephens, 208.
- to the Right Hon. Sir Joseph Banks, from Archimedes, urging his influence towards a completion of our survey of New Holland, 213.
- to the Editor, from Thessaly, inclosing correspondence between the French Ambassador Perinon, and the Spanish Minister at Madrid, Don Godoy, relative to the victory of the 14th February, 1797, 212.
- to the same, from Nestor, on the necessity of an established system of command, with copy of an address, from a Captain to his ship's company, 285.
- to the President, Vice-president, and Committee of the Marine Society, from Thomas Urquhart, Esq. on the conduct of that establishment, 286.
- to the Editor, from Occasional, correcting an error respecting the relationship between the late Captain Sir Peter Parker and Admiral Christopher Parker, 288.
- to the Right Hon. Viscount Melville, from T. Urquhart, Esq. on the present condition of our seamen, 289.
- to the Editor, from Alfred, inclosing list of ships, names of Commanders and stations, at present in commission on the Peace Establishment, 293.
- to the same, from Tiphys, on the question of preference between Falmouth and Plymouth as a packet station, 296.
- to the Right Hon. Viscount Melville, from T. Urquhart, Esq. on the indifference shewn to projectors of plans of improvement for the public services 300.
- to the Editor, from Mentor, on the expediency of admitting every class of commissioned officers to sit on Naval Courts Martial, 301.
- to the same, from Alfred, on our commercial difficulties, 303.
- to the same, from Thessaly, transmitting List of British Admirals who have been authorised to wear the Union flag at the mast, 304.
- to the same, from Orion, on the expediency of employing our larger merchantmen in the private trade to India, and importing Teak wood from thence for ship-building, 374.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01876-0 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 37

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Letter to the Editor, from Thessaly, on the late treasonable attempts, and recommending agricultural employment as a relief to our distressed seamen, 376.
- to the same, from Britannicus, suggesting regulations in relief of the depressed state of the shipping interest, 377.
- to the same, from Orion, advising measures for opening a trade with South America, 378.
- to the same, from Occidens, suggesting hints toward a fixed system of command on board our ships of war, 380.
- to the Right Hon. Lord Cochrane, from Alfred, with remarks on his late conduct, and advice as to the future disposal of himself, 382.
- to the Editor, from P. C. G. containing some observations on Thessaly's letter, respecting the action between the Endymion and President, 384.
- to the same, from Occasional, with some additional notices relative to the Memoir of the late Admiral Frederick, 386.
- to the same, from Clericus, on pensions to the widows of Naval officers, 387.
- to the same, from Thessaly, containing letter of Rear-admiral Bligh, in elucidation of the currents in the Atlantic Ocean, 388.
- to the same, from J. C. suggesting a plan for the relief of our disabled, and otherwise meritorious seamen, 389.
- to the Hydrographer, from W. H. R. noticing the establishment of Light-houses, on the south-side of the Island of St. Michael's, 57.
- to the same, from Leo, recommending voyages of hydrographical experiment, or marine surveying, 405.
- to the same, from J. C. on the necessity of keeping up the number and strength of our Navy, 465.
- to the same, from Juvenal, on the comparative force of the English Navies, 468.
- to the same, from Neptunus, on the intended publication of Captain Layman's Naval History, 469.
- to the same, from Triton, on a mild system of command, and stating two instances of it in that of Sir Thomas Lavie, and Admiral Sir Eliab Harvey, 470.
- to the same, from Mentor, on Naval retirement, 471.
- to the same, from Alfred, on the utility of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty visiting Naval Arsenals, 472.
- Letter to the Editor, from Gracchus, in commendation of the Naval Chronicle, and recommending the patronage of it, 472.
- to the same, from Mentor, advising a supply of flannel shirts to sailors, 473.
- to the same, from Britannicus, suggesting the expediency of constructing Royal Dock-yards, in Scotland and Ireland, 473.
- to the Captains of the British Navy, on the duties of command, 475.
- to the Hydrographer, from Thessaly, inclosing copy of letter to Viscount Melville, on the influence of the moon on the tides, 489.
- to the Editor, from A Clerk of the Weather-office, suggesting the expediency of a plate explanatory of the various appearance of the clouds, 481.
- to the same, from J. C. on the renewal of Barbaric piracy by the Tunisians, 481.
- Lisbon, Revolutionary Conspiracy at, 462.
- Lord Castlereagh, extraordinary quick passage of the to Bombay, 103.
- Lord Donegal, extraordinary escape of the crew of the, 107.
- Lough Swilly, view and description of, 216.

M.

- Magnetic Needle, its returning direction towards the North, 110.
- MARINE LAW. For the loss of the ships Jasper and Telegraph, 165. Lieutenant Pigott, for disobedience of orders, &c. 248. Mr. W. Seaman, purser of H.M.S. Tigris, for defrauding the ship's company of provisions, ib. Mr. Seaman, master of the Harrier, for breach of the 2d article of war, ib. Lieutenant J. McArthur Low, for alleged cruel treatment of a Midshipman on board the Camelion, 498. Captain Samuel Roberts, and the officers and crew, for the loss of H.M.S. Tay, 504.
- Meander, extraordinary preservation of the, 24.
- Mendoza y Rois, Don Joseph De, account of, 217.
- Messina, fracas between the British and Americans at, 27.
- Meteoric stones, analyzation of some, which fell at Gerace, in Calabria, 110.
- METEOROLOGICAL REGISTER. 80. 171. 260. 349. 437. 515.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01876-0 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 37

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Minerva, perilous voyage of the from Liverpool to New York, 278.
- Montholon, Count, his Letter to Sir Hudson Lowe, 219.
- Monuments, National, in commemoration of the late Was, 463.
- Moore, Lieutenant C. his exertions to save the lives of some shipwrecked Frenchmen, 371.
- Morocco, Embassy to in 1721, 279.
- N.
- Naval Events, chronological sketch of the most remarkable, in the year 1816, 66.
- NAVAL HISTORY OF THE PRESENT YEAR, 1817. 79. 169. 257. 345. 435. 513.
- NAVAL LITERATURE. Urquhart on Impressment, 71. 153. 237. Proceedings of Court Martial on the Rev. Benj. Vale, at New South Wales, 74. Academic Edition of Robinson Crusoe, 155. 323. History of Ceylon, 330.
- Pope's Abridgement of the Custom and Excise Laws, 233.
- NAVAL POETRY. On seeing the Hebrus frigate, when repaired, after her action with L'Etoile, 76. The Chaplain's Petition, 77. Lines written on the capture of the Macedonian, 245. On the Peterel, ib. The Maternal Adieu, 246. On the Marriage of Captain Crofton, ib. Britannia, 248. On hearing a Sentinel calling "All's Well!" on board an Hospital Ship, 334. Day-light, when the Storm was o'er, ib. Song, on the late expedition to Algier, 335. Impromptu, on the Leander's sailing for Halifax, 336. Latin and English Lines to the Memory of the late Captain Sir P. Parker, 419, 420. To the Memory of Master George Parker, 423; by R. C. Dallas, aged 11 years. The Niger, 424. Impromptu, on reading the Exploits of James, Duke of York, when Commander-in-chief in the North Sea, 497. Lines to Dr. Rowlands, on the Death of his Wife, 497.
- NAUTICAL ANECDOTES AND SELECTIONS, 22. 103. 183. 278. 371. 458.
- Nelson, Lord, fac-simile of his handwriting, 452.
- New South Wales, accounts from, 22.
- New York, British Consul at, suspected of smuggling, 108.
- Nieulet, Fort, plan and account of, 54.
- O.
- OFFICIAL PAPERS. Regulations relative to the passages of civil and military officers in H. M.'s ships of war, 66. Regulations on the subject of naval pay, 68. Table of ditto, 70. General instructions for the receipt of naval half-pay, 126. Pensions, 128.
- Onion, anti-magnetic property of the, 29.
- Quendo, Don Antonio De, seeks protection from our castles against the attack of Van Tromp, 91.
- Owen, Commodore, his humane exertions in saving the lives of two shipwrecked Frenchmen, 371.
- P.
- Parcel Office, Dublin, charges of the, 103.
- Pensions, instructions relative to the receiving of, 106.
- , List of to wounded naval officers, 458.
- Petapogue, account of the affair at, from the Connecticut Gazette, 187.
- Pier at Southampton, view of, 392.
- President, American, his Speech, 411.
- Q.
- Queen of Naples, writes a letter to the Countess Dowager of Spencer, on hearing of the victory of the Nile, 144, (note.)
- Queen Elizabeth, her heroic conduct at Tilbury, 14.
- R.
- REGISTER METEOROLOGICAL, 80. 171. 260. 349. 437. 515.
- Revolution in the provinces of Pernambuco; Rio Grande, Para Siara, Marignan, Paycaba, and Tamara, 461.
- Riebeck, Van, settlement of the Dutch at the Cape of Good Hope, by his suggestion, 325.
- Royal George, relics of the, 463.
- Dock Yards, expediency of constructing, in Scotland and Ireland, 473.
- S.
- Salsford, Lieutenant, singular circumstance attending his death, 182.
- Savoy, earthquake at, 373.
- Scarpe, Fort, plan and description of, 240.
- Ships of war, building estimates of, &c. 281.
- SHIPWRECKS. Jasper brig of war—The Princess Mary Packet—and Telegraph schooner, 135. Deptford, collier, and sloop Albion, 139.
- Sleep, observations on, by Rohault, Boerhaave, and others, 155.
- South Sea Fishery, the ship Countess of Morley, equipped for the, 29.
- Southampton, account of, 392.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01876-0 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 37

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- STATE PAPERS. Prince Regent's Speech, 75. Continuation of the Documentary Series of Reports made by the President of the Union of the Knights of Chivalry at Vienna. No. XIX. and XX. 133.
- Steam-boat, destruction of one by lightning, 109. Explosion of another by the bursting of the steam-boiler, 372.
- T.
- Ton, different significations of the word, 323.
- Torrington, Viscount, his letter disavowing the receipt of any pension, 107.
- Troubridge, Sir Thomas, fac-simile of his hand-writing, 443.
- V. U.
- Valenciennes, plan and account of, 336.
- VAN TROMP, Admiral MARTIN HAPPERTON, Portrait and Memoir of, 89. Birth-place, and reported number of his victories, 90. Obtains the title of Admiral of Holland, ib. Attacks the Spanish fleet in the British Channel, ib. Subsequent proceedings thereon, and intervention of the English Admiral Sir John Pennington, ib. The Spaniards again attacked by Van Tromp, and beaten, 92. Sent to the Scilly Isles to obtain possession of them for states, 93. Commencement of hostilities between the English and the Dutch, 94. His action with Admiral Blake, ib. Sails to the mouth of the Thames, his ships dispersed by a storm, and six of his frigates captured by Blake, 95. Induced to throw up his commission by the clamours of the people in consequence of his misfortune, ib. The States advised by the King of Denmark to induce Van Tromp to reassume the command, 96. Puts to sea again with a fleet of 77 ships, and engages Admiral Blake, ib. Blake retires from the superior force of the Dutch Admiral, after an arduous contest from 11 o'clock in the morning until night, 97. Blake's fleet reinforced to 70 sail engages that of Van Tromp off Cape La Hogue, ib. Van Tromp enters the Downs and betters Dover Castle, 99. His action with Admirals Monk and Deane, ib. Defeated in the action 100. His final action with the English, in which he is killed by a musket-ball, 101. His remains interred with great funeral pomp, 102.
- Vansittart, Mr. Letter from to Captain Layman, on the subject of his plan for employing Chinese husbandmen in the West Indies, 457.
- Vincent, Earl St. fac-simile of his Hand-writing, 443.
- Union, or North Dock, at Plymouth, dimensions of the, 137.
- Union Flag, List of Admirals who have had permission to carry it, 304.
- Urquhart, Mr. grossly assaulted by a press-gang, 237.
- W.
- Wales's, Prince of, Island, Chinese conveyed there on a Plan of Captain Layman's, 454.
- Waves, velocity of the, ascertained by Dr. Wollaston, 229.
- WEATHER, Remarks on the, 83. 172. 261. 350. 438. 516.
- West Indies, plan of Captain Layman's for employing Chinese husbandmen there, 452.
- White Rock, Hastings, view and description of, 313, 314.
- Winds, general remarks on the, 145. 225. 305.
- Wilson, Captain A. his letter to Viscount Melville, on the inequality of the Tides in various parts of the World, 489.
- Wounds, &c. pensions to naval officers for, 458.
- X. Y. Z.
- York, New, extract from the Report of the Committee on Manufactures at, 259.
- , perilous voyage of the Minerva to, 278.
- , British Consul at, stopped on suspicion of smuggling, 108.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01876-0 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 37

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

GAZETTE LETTERS.

A FFLECK, 166	Hislop, 435	Langara, 254
Bandeal, 251	Hood, 249, 250, 253, 337,	Luzee, 339
Dundas, 434, 435	339, 344, 426	Macbride, 257
Elphinstone, 255, 256	Laforey, 166	Smith, 129
Ford, 341, 343

PROMOTIONS AND APPOINTMENTS.

A LLEN, Mr. J. 440	Fitzmaurice, Capt. W. 440	Magnard, J. Lieut. 518
Askew, Mr. W. 85	Ford, Lieut. J. J. 85	M'Kellar, Capt. J. 518
Baillie, Mr. J. H. 85, 175	Foster, Lieut. 85	M'Kinsley, Mr. J. 440
Baldwin, Capt. A. 85	Frawley, Lieut. 85	M'Lean, Lieut. S. A. 85
Barnard, Capt. E. 85	Fynmore, Lieut. J. 518	M'Vicar, Capt. C. B. A. 85
Batton, Lieut. 518	Greary, Mr. J. 263	Matthews, Lieut. A. 440
Baumgardt, Capt. 85	Gedge, Capt. J. 85	Millar, Mr. W. 352
Bentley, Mr. G. 263	Galchrist, Lieut. 85	Milne, Rear-admiral Sir D. 175
Bluett, Lieut. R. 85	Gilling, Mr. E. 263	Montgomery, Mr. 440
Bolter, Lieut. J. 85	Glasscock, Lieut. W. 440	Moodie, Lieut. 85
Bowker, Capt. J. 352	Globe, Lieut. T. 85	Morgan, Rev. T. 440
Bowker, Capt. 518	Gordon, Capt. Sir J. A. K.C.B. 263	Morgan, J. 518
Boyle, Hon.C. 352	Gourly, Capt. J. 85	Morton, Lieut. 85
Brammer, Capt. D. 85	Hall, Capt. W. S. 85	Muddle, Capt. R. H. 85
Buller, Lieut. T. W. 440	—, Lieut. R. 175	Murray, Mr. A. N. 352
Cappone, Mr. 175	Hannah, Dr. 518	Neville, Mr. 440
Cheeseman, Lieut. R. 352	Harvey, Lieut. R. J. 263	O'Brien, Capt. R. 175
Clarke, Rev. J. S. 85	Hewson, Capt. G. 85	Paine, —, Mr. 518
Cooke, Lieut. W. P. 440	Higman, Captain, H. 85	Parlins, Lieut. P. 440
Cole, Lieut. 352	Hill, Capt. — 85, 440	Parish, Capt. J. 85
Cole, J. 518	Holliday, E. 518	Pausley, R. 352
Cox, Lieut. D. 268	Hooper, Capt. G. W. 85	Passingham, Lieut. R. 263
Croker, Lieut. W. P. 410	—, Mr. E. T. 263	Peace, Lieut. R. 352
Cuppige, Lieut. W. 440	Hough, Lieut. J. J. 352	Peabuthy, Lieut. T. 440
Danes, Capt. R. 440	Hubbard, Lieut. W. 263	Peyton, Mr. T. 263
Dallaway, Mr. 85	Hughes, Lieut. W. R. 518	Pickmore, Vice-admiral, 518
Dalling, Capt. J. W. 85	Jackson, Mr. 440	Pierce, Lieut. G. 85, 518
Dansey, Lieut. G. 85	Jervoice, Lieut. S. 263	Plampin, Rear-admiral, R. 175
Deacon, Capt. C. 352, 448	Keeney, Mr. L. 263	Popham, Capt. W. 85
Douglas, Mr. S. 352	Knapp, Mr. K. 175	Powell, Lieut. G. E. 175
Draper, Lieut. 65	Laicom, Lieut. J. P. D. 518	Price, Lieut. W. 175
Drury, Capt. E. O. B. 85	Lawrence, Capt. J. 85	Proctor, Mr. G. 263
Duff, Capt. N. 85, 352	Liardet, Lieut. W. 263	Quarrier, Mr. D. 85
Dundas, Lieut. J. B. 175	Littlewort, Lieut. R. P. 518	Quin, Mr. M. 440
Edge, Mr. T. 440	Lehon, Lieut. J. 175	Radcliffe, Lieut. J. 518
Fabian, Mr. S. J. 440	Little, Lieut. J. 175, 446	Ramage, Capt. W. 85
Fairfowl, G. 518	M'Calloch, Capt. W. 263	Ramsay, Mr. J. S. 85
Ferguson, Capt. J. M. 85	M'Callum, Mr. J. 175
Festing, Capt. R. G. W. 263	Mackellon, Lieut. 85
Fitzmaurice, Mr. 263

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01876-0 - The Naval Chronicle, Volume 37

Edited by James Stanier Clarke and John McArthur

Index

More information

INDEX.

- | | | |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Reid, Mr. W. 175 | Shields, Mr. W. 263 | Tickell, Lieut. R. 518 |
| Renney, Capt. A. 85 | Sinmonds, Mr. W. 263 | Tilly, Mr. T. 175 |
| Renurck, Capt. T. 85 | Smith, Capt. W. B. 85 | Tilmouth, Mr. R. 175 |
| Reynolds, Capt. 440 | ---, Capt. T. 85. 352 | Toker, Capt. T. R. 263. 352 |
| Richards, J. 352. 518 | ---, Mr. W. 263. 440 | Troughton, Lieut. J. 263 |
| Rich, Capt. G. F. 263 | Sparshott, Lieut. E. 175 | Tully, Lieut. J. 85 |
| Roberts, Rev. S. W. 263 | Spencer, Hon. Capt. R. 263. | Wales, Capt. R. 85 |
| Robertson, Lieut. J. 85 | 352 | Waller, Capt. E. 85 |
| ---, Mr. 85 | Steel, Capt. 263. 563 | Welch, Lieut. D. 175 |
| Rooke, Mr. 440 | Stewart, Capt. H. 518 | Westropp, Capt. A. F. 85 |
| Ross, Lieut. 85 | Stewart, Lieut. 85 | Williams, Lieut. J. 175 |
| Rous, Hon. Lieut. II. J. 175 | Stokoe, Mr. 85 | ---, Lieut. J. S. 175 |
| Rowley, Capt. R. 85 | Swayne, Mr. J. S. 175. 263 | Wilson, J. 518 |
| Saukey, Lieut. H. 263 | Taitte, Lieut. R. 518 | ---, T. 518 |
| Savage, Lieut. W. H. 263 | Taylor, Lieut. G. R. 85 | Wylie, Mr. R. 352 |
| Shanks, Mr. T. 263 | Thompson, Lieut. G. 440 | Young, Capt. T. 85. |

BIRTH.

BEICHER, Mrs. 518.

MARRIAGE.

ELLERTON, J. F. Esq. 85.

DEATHS.

- | | | |
|-------------------------------|----------------------------|---------------------------|
| A DYE, Capt. J. M. 176 | Ellison, Capt. W. R.N. 176 | Penny, J. 518 |
| Aplin, P. Esq. 440 | Fabian, Mr. R. 175. | Reeve, Lieut. 86 |
| Bastard, E. Esq. 264 | Fitzmaurice, Dr. T. 86 | Reid, Mr. S. 86 |
| Bishop, Mr. W. 86 | Foote, Mrs. M. 86 | Robinson, Lieut. W. 352 |
| Brice, Maj. A. H. 440 | Forth, Mrs. 86 | Rowlands, Mrs. E. 440 |
| Brisbane, Mrs. 440 | Frazer, Mrs. 86 | Salter, Lieut. 352 |
| Burnell, Mr. W. 264 | Gore, Miss H. S. 176 | Schabner, Lieut. R.N. 86 |
| Cavill, Lieut. C. R.N. 176 | Halliday, Mrs. 86 | Smith, Mr. R. R.N. 86 |
| Chester, Lieut. W. R.N. | Harriott, J. Esq. 86. | ---, Mrs. E. 86 |
| 86 | Harvey, R. 264 | Somerville, Capt. P. 176 |
| Chrisop, Mr. W. 264 | Hutchins, Miss H. 86 | Sprent, Lt. G. R. N. 264 |
| Coghill, Sir J. Bart 518 | Jarvoice, Miss H. 264 | Stackpoole, W. Esq. 440 |
| Cornish, Capt. J. R.N. 86 | Lane, Lieut. R.N. 440 | Strong, Mr. 352 |
| Curtis, Lady, 352 | Langford, W. W. Esq. 440 | Taylor, Miss, 518 |
| Dadd, Mr. R. 264 | Lee, Lieut. W. 264 | Thomas, Lieut. G. 352 |
| Damarell, Mr. 176 | Lie, Mr. W. 176 | Townshend, C. F. Esq. 352 |
| Dent, Rear-adm. Sir D. 352 | Lind, Mr. J. R.N. 176 | Towry, G. P. Esq. 264 |
| Douglas, Right Hon. Lady | M'Lean, Mr. 264 | Trevathick, Lieut. W. 86 |
| F. 352 | M'Millan, Capt. W. R.M. | Tuckey, Capt. H. 86 |
| Douglas, Mr. F. 176 | 264. | Wemyss, Capt. F. R. N. |
| Dowers, Capt. W. R. N | Mitchell, W. Esq. R.N. 176 | 176 |
| 264 | Nicholson, Lt. R. 518 | White, Mr. 176 |
| Duree, Capt. H. A. 86 | O'Brien, Right Hon. Lady | ---, W. Esq. 86 |
| Eddington, Miss, 440 | 440. | Young, Mrs. S. 352. |
| Edgar, Rear-adm. A. 176 | Pellew, Lieut. E. R.N. 86 | |