

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

(Unless otherwise specified, entries from pp. 1 to 225 refer to Egypt; pp. 229 to 379 to Babylonia; and those in Vol. II. pp. 1 to 383 to China.)

- Aah-hotep, Queen, 403, 406 n.
 Aahmes, founder of 17th Dyn., 119.
 Aahmes, "Beautiful Companion of," her mummy discovered, 120.
 Aahu, the fields of, 151, 152.
 Abbott papyrus, 59, 165.
 Abijatha, coins of King, 508.
 Abraham and the kings, verisimili-
 tude of the story of, 274.
 Abstract deities worshipped under 6th Dyn., 153.
 Abulfeda, ii. 217.
 Abundance and industry associated in
 Egypt, 151.
 Abydos, ancient holy city of, 19, 21.
 Abyssinia, Sabæan inscriptions from,
 519.
 Accepting and establishing as wife,
 206.
 Acci, foster-father of Sargon, 275.
 Accumulation of wealth discouraged in Egypt, 161.
 Acquired property virtually secured to children in Egypt, 216.
 Acquisitions of abdicated father go to family funds, 458.
 Acquisitions of junior members of tarwads, how disposed of, 576.
 Acquisitions, Thesawaleme on, 559.
 Action by royal scribe against priest of Mut, 60.
 Actresses and courtezans, ii. 220.
 Ada, grant of lands confiscated from,
 344.
 Adinna, diminutive of Ada, 429.
 Adopted sons of eunuchs, ii. 137.
 Adoption "by ten hands" in Malabar,
 548.
 Adoption, deed of, in Egypt, 219;
 deeds of, in Babylonia, 363, 370,
 378; Gortyn laws on, 481.
 Adulteration forbidden in Chow Li, ii.
 56; by trade guilds, 320; penalties for, 367.
- Adumilik, grandfather of Agukakrime,
 286.
 Advance of rent like Malabar loan and lease, ii. 358.
 Ælius Gallus, Arabian expedition of,
 498.
 Æthelians, 478, 479.
 Agade, Sargon, king of, 256.
 Agate found at Nipur, 250.
 Age for marriage in ancient China, ii.
 71.
 Agency, doctrine of, in Babylonia, 351.
 Agglomeration of land in China, ii.
 114, 151; under the Mongols,
 229; laws in restraint of, 363.
 Agglomerators, struggle between the peasantry and, ii. 252.
 Agrarian innovations of state of T'sin,
 ii. 98-100; extended to rest of empire, 101.
 Agrarian legislation of T'sin and
 Wei, ii. 126.
 Agreement to cultivate, temp. Ptolemy
 Euergetes, 189.
 Agricultural imagery in the Ritual,
 151.
 Agricultural interest, rate of, in Egypt and Babylonia, 193, 332-4.
 "Agricultural Precepts" of ancient Babylonia, 335.
 Agricultural produce, rate of, per head in China and France, ii. 305, 306.
 Agriculture and manufactures, combination of, ii. 304-7.
 Agriculture, Carthaginian treatises on,
 408, 409.
 Agriculturist free to migrate, ii. 56.
 Agu, the Great or elder, 286.
 Agu-amir or Agu-a-shi, Agukakrime descended from, 287.
 Agukakrime, inscription of, 286.
 Ahaz, king of Judah, 305.
 Ahmed (Achmath or Ahama), Kubla's finance minister, ii. 225, 227.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

502

INDEX.

- Ahmes, scribe, accused of not having apprentice taught, 106.
- Ahout and ahouti, antiquity and meaning of terms, 140.
- Aiklon in Sparta, 470.
- Akar-sallu, battle between Kardunias and Assyria at, 288.
- Akbar, Mahomedan merchant at court of, on China, ii. 269.
- Akhir el Benat, "Defender of the village maiden," 531.
- Akkad = Northern and Central Babylonia, 264.
- Akkad to destroy Kutu, Lullubu and Sutu, etc., 285.
- Akkadian and Chinese roots, Mr. Ball's comparison of, ii. 480-7.
- Akko, murder of Babylonians at, complained of to Egyptian king, 292.
- Akouta, prince of the Kin, ii. 172.
- Aksum, advanced agriculture around, 510; decoration of monoliths at, 511.
- Akurga, king and patesi, 262, 263.
- Alabaster bas-reliefs, crude brick walls lined with, 249.
- Alabaster statue of nomarch dragged with ropes, 102.
- Alala, the eagle, beloved of Istar, 250.
- Alambra, necropolis of, 405.
- Alarodian and Hamitic civilization, common points of, 424.
- Alarodian, term for certain archaic European stocks, 384.
- Alashan, heat and drought in, ii. 4.
- Alasia, king of, untranslated letter from, 293.
- Albanians, ancient and modern, 456.
- Alexander and the Rhodians, 442.
- Allotments, village, in China, ii. 45.
- Alman, land of, 286.
- Al-Mukarram, son of Lady Asma, 522.
- Alphabet of Lemnos inscription, 418.
- Alusharhid dedicates spoils of Elam to Bel, 254.
- Amanu, mountain of cedars, 269.
- Amar-muballit, father of Hammurabi, 280.
- Amasis (Aahmes), anecdote concerning, 47; priest's son dispossessed by, 53; endows his mercenaries with temple lands, 61; mother of, 120; Greek mercenaries of, 134; secularization of temple lands, 179; alliance with Lydia, 317.
- Amathus, tombs at, 405.
- Amazons, legends of, and localities assigned to, 454, 455.
- Ambattha Sutta quoted, 108.
- Amber, early trade in, 401.
- Amen, inscription of, 84, 96, 112.
- Amenemhat I., Instructions of, 78; disturbed reign of, 119.
- Amenemhat III., Hammamat quarrymen temp., 110.
- Amenemhat IV., married and reigned with his sister, 119.
- Amenemhat, 12th Dyn., stele of Prince, 160.
- Amenemheb, general of Thothmes III., on his troops, 142.
- Amenhotep I. reigns with his mother and marries his sister, 119; addressed as son-in-law of Tushratta, 293.
- Amenhotep III., Semitic wife of, 120; Nimmuriya of cuneiform correspondence, 292; dispute about dowry of Babylonian princess with, 294.
- Amenhotep IV., Napkhururiya of cuneiform correspondence, 292; letter from Tushratta to, 293.
- Amenhotep appealed to by a workman about a house, 59, 186; called "king of the city," 59.
- Amenhotep, architect of statue of "Memnon," 102; surnamed the Wise, temple of Kak founded by, 159.
- Amenhotep, chief priest of Amon under Rameses III., 178.
- Amenophis, see Amenhotep.
- Amenophis the scribe, author of Table of precedence, 76.
- Amenti, the, 48, 50, 151.
- Amherst, embassy of Lord, ii. 289.
- Amiaud on comparative chronology of Egypt and Babylonia, 270.
- Ammiditana, contract tablets of, 284.
- Ammizadugga, contract tablets of, 284.
- Amon, hymn to, 51, 57; of Thebes called suten, not erpa, 117; patron of 4 nomes, 150.
- Ampère on Mehemet Ali, 75; on caste in Egypt, 126.
- Amphictyonic body, 422, 423.
- Amraphel identified with father of Hammurabi, 258.
- Amten, 4th Dyn., officer of Senoferu, 49, 123, 140.
- Amu (Syrians) in wall paintings at Beni Hassan, 97.
- Amusements, modern Chinese, ii. 381.
- Amyot's memoir on interest in China, 184, ii. 323; on Chinese meaning of tributary, 130; on credit of Mantchu soldiery, 279; on family intercourse, 295; on tenancy in China, 358.
- Anaia, or "protection," of Kabyle tribes, 536.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

503

- Ana-ittisu tablets, 367.
 Analects, Confucian, ii. 43.
 Anandran, Nair "next relation," 556.
 Anarchy, preached by Chuang-tze, ii. 93, 94.
 Anatomical treatise translated into Mantchu, ii. 280.
 "Ancestor," slave claims to be son of an, 357.
 Ancestor worship in China, 152, 154.
 Ancestral halls and burial grounds of great families, ii. 360.
 Ancestral property, Gortyn code on sale of, 481; Spartan law against sale of, 485.
 "Ancestral usage" of Rhodians to support the poor, 441.
 Ancient deeds with more ancient seals, ii. 359.
 Ancient Empire, religious feeling during, 170; six dynasties of, ii. 408.
 Ancient kingdoms of South Arabia, 496.
 Ancient laws of Ireland on stock farming, 135.
 Andorre, duration of families in, 213.
 Andreia, common meals in Crete called, 471.
 Andrew, Bishop of Zayton (Chincho), ii. 231.
 Anglo-Saxon approach to Welsh mortgage, ii. 418.
 Ani, maxims of scribe, 46, 52, 77, 81, 88, 112, 144.
 Animal worship in Egypt, 145; faint traces of, in China, 148, ii. 37; not confounded with ancestor, 147.
 Animals, human qualities idealized in, 146; feeding the sacred, in Egypt, 148; Lady Duff Gordon on, 149; penalties for neglect of imperial, ii. 373.
 Anna or Anu, the sky god, 239.
 Annals of the Bamboo Books, ii. 28; 477.
 Annals record the name of leading scholars in examination lists, ii. 209.
 Annanadi = Anja-nadi, or five rivers, 546.
 Annual tenancy of cultivators, 341, 345.
 Annunaki, spirits of earth, 233.
 Anson, Sir George, in the China seas, ii. 272, 288.
 Antef, 11th Dynasty poem of, 122.
 Anti-Buddhist edicts and memorials, ii. 125, 145-9.
 Antichresis, origin of, in Babylonia and Egypt, 183.
 Antichresis tacita, ii. 146; among the Basques, 462.
 Antichretic mortgages, earliest example of, 322, 331; terms of various, 340, 355, 356; perhaps referred to in inscription of Halicarnassus, 436; forbidden by Georgian code, 459; Syro-Roman code on, 490; developed into rent in feudal state, 572; the only kind lawful in China, ii. 362; see also Welsh mortgages and vifgag.
 Anti-Christian edicts and memorials, ii. 281.
 Antidamas, description of, 408.
 Anti-foreign, conservative feeling of Chinese undergraduates, ii. 380.
 Anti-Malthusianism in ancient Egypt, 71.
 Antiquity of written deeds in Babylonia, 191.
 Antonia, wife of Pythodorus, 439.
 Anubis called Chief of the Thirty, 56.
 Anzan, country of Cyrus, 23; nucleus of Persian kingdom, 318.
 Appeals, system of judicial, ii. 375.
 "Appointing a successor to the family," ii. 345.
 Apprentices, number of, limited by trade guilds, ii. 319.
 Apprenticeship in ancient Egypt, 106, 107; of slaves, 358.
 Apries, related to the mother of Amasis, 120.
 Arab princess and gods restored by Esarhaddon, 313; war maiden, 529, 531; Amazons, 528, 529; trade with Southern China, ii. 215; travellers in China, ii. 140-142.
 Arabia Felix, on the lucky (right) side, 266; date of its prosperity, 511.
 Arabia, first settlements in South, 270.
 Arabian campaigns of Tiglath-pileser III., 306; Arabian and Chinese conservatism, 496; Arabian monarchies, character of, 502; Arabian campaigns of Senacherib, Esarhaddon, and Assurbanipal, 511.
 Arable land contrasted in Babylonian inscriptions with towns, 324.
 Arabs taught to take "squeezes" of inscriptions, 510; world-wide wanderings of, ii. 236.
 Arad Samas appears to marry his sisters, 369.
 Arad Ulmassitu appears as landlord and tenant, 336.
 Aradus, walls of, 405.
 Arch, not really understood in Assyria, 250.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

504

INDEX.

- Archaic art, mannerisms of, 404; usages found on same lines as archaic monuments, 416.
- Archaic customs, evidence of, 383.
- Archæological discoveries, bearing of recent, 383; evidence of Leuco-Syrian influence on Greeks, 415.
- Archbishop of Tournon, mission of, ii. 278.
- Archery and warlike arts, examinations in, ii. 212.
- Architect, office of, 53; architect and builders in Egypt, 101; architect to Amenhotep, 111; inscription of twin brothers, 119.
- Architecture of Babylonia and Assyria, 249.
- Armys, son of Gyges, acknowledges supremacy of Assurbanipal, 311.
- Area of town lots, how measured, 354.
- Argistis, king of Armenia, conquers Hittite country, 302.
- Aristotle on possessions, 1; Aristotle and Kallisthenes on Babylonian chronology, 256; his description of Carthaginian constitution, 391; on Locri, 417; on laws of Charondas, 450.
- Arithmetical calculations of Egyptian scribes, 54.
- Armanakarsalu, 289.
- Armenia submits to Assurnasirabal, 298; Assyrian campaigns in, 301-305; Sargon's campaigns against, 312.
- Armenian kings, list of, 302; Armenian succession, laws of Justinian on, 559; virgins dedicated to the temple, 457.
- Armenians, photographs of modern, 304.
- Army, payment of Chinese, ii. 152 n.
- Arsapi? Reseph, letter in? Hittite, by king of, 293.
- Art, early Egyptian and Babylonian, compared, 257; of Sargon, archaic, 266; of South Arabia, 509.
- Artesian well in Phœnicia, 406.
- Artizans, work of the, ii. 60-62.
- Arveni, Macedonian coins copied by, 402.
- Asaba*, those who go to battle together, 524.
- Asaris, villain in Story of the Peasant, 86.
- Asb'en, men of, join their wives' tribes, 539.
- Ashurim = Asur of Minæan inscriptions, 500.
- Asia Minor, archaic elements in culture of, 387; difference between S. & W. coasts of, 415.
- Askelon, men of, on Egyptian monuments, 268.
- Asma, the Lady, 521, 522.
- Asnunnak = Southern Babylonia, 287.
- Aspalut, maternal ancestry of King, 530.
- Assa, 5th Dyn. Egyptian king, 23, 43; works the Hammamat quarries, 95; sends expedition to land of Punt, 497.
- "Assessors of taxes" to claim Egyptian endowments diverted from founder's purpose, 159.
- Assets of all kinds interchangeable in Babylonia, 351.
- Association, tendency to, in China, ii. 318.
- As Sulayhi, king of Yemen, 522.
- Assur, mentioned in Babylonian epos, 285; king of, claimed as tributary by Thothmes III., 291.
- Assurbanipal destroys temples and tombs in Elam, 233; bi-lingual tablets of, 236; colophon on bi-lingual tablet of, 242; recovers image carried off by Kudurnan-chundi, 254; Armenian ambassador to, 304; account of Gyges, king of Lydia, by, 310; Egyptian expedition of, 313; meaning of name, 313; Arabian campaigns of, 314; Arabian conquests of, 499.
- Assurbelkala, son of Tiglath-pileser, 296.
- Assurdanan, king of Assyria, 291, 295.
- Assurisisi, king of Assyria, 295.
- Assurnadinahi, father of Assurballit, 288; receives twenty talents of gold from Egypt, 292.
- Assurnasirabal restores Caleh, 296, 298; his inscriptions, 297, 298.
- Assurnisisu, king of Assyria, 288.
- Assurballit, his dealings with Babylonia, 288; writes desiring gold from Egypt, 292; letter from, in Gizeh Museum, ii. 426.
- Assyria, need for irrigation in, 229; cardinal points in, 265.
- Assyrian deeds, earliest, 345; Assyrian monarchy, causes of its rapid destruction, 314, 315; records preserved by rapid ruin of cities, 315.
- Astrologers, important low caste in Malabar, 564.
- Astrology, Chinese scholars' report on, ii. 132.
- Astronomical knowledge of Canary islanders, 543; of ancient Chinese, ii. 23; clans, 24; Astronomical Work, i. 278, 285, ii. 436; observations in Peru, ii. 450.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

505

- Astronomy, rudiments of, taught throughout Malabar, 564.
- Asylum, right of, possessed by slaves, 340; asylum for aged slaves, 356; right of, possessed by Carian temple of Hekate, 419 n.
- Athena as Mentor, 451.
- Athenæus, describes Sacæa after Ber-osus, 244.
- Athenian antichresis, 326; owls, Himyarite imitation of, 508; widely spread, ii. 450; Athenian women, legend of disfranchisement of, i.
423.
- Atmosphere and climate, influence of,
on Egyptian monuments, 101.
- Attar of various towns, invoked in inscriptions, 501.
- Attipet ola*, or final sale of land, 575.
- Attiret, F., portrait of Kien-lung taken by, ii. 286.
- Attiris*, or seashore assemblies at Minicoy, 567.
- Augustinian and Franciscan missions to China, ii. 265.
- "Authors' association" prosecuted, ii.
121.
- Automela? attu or ettu mala, 546.
- Auxiliary troops in Egypt, 133.
- Average length of reigns, ii. 497.
- "Avoiding the name," ii. 25.
- Azariah, king of Judah, his alliance sought by Hittite federation, 305.
- Azdjers, "ladies who give birth to chiefs" among the, 539.
- Azupirani, birthplace of Sargon, 275.
- Baal's land=that naturally irrigated,
525.
- Babylon prosperous and independent while obscure, 299; captured uninjured by Cyrus, 319; becomes a bye-word for poverty, 353.
- Babylonia, one of the great seats of archaic civilization, 3; connection between China and, 31; ii. 480 ff.
- Babylonian art, earliest specimens of,
257, 261; epos, passage from,
285; the French of the old world,
295; Babylonian cities submit to Pul, 304; trade developed under Nebuchadnezzar, 318; chronicle on Nabonidus' offences, 329; citizens normally owned land in the country, 324; deeds informal and equitable, 348; Malabar parallel to, 570; mortgages, possible trace of, in Arabia, 524; Babylonian and Chinese character for well and enclosure, ii. 42; Babylonian dynasties and dates, ii.
App. D. pp. 424-432.
- Babylonian Talmud, quotation from,
198; Babylonian kings, two lists
of, 257.
- Bad contracts void by Egyptian and Irish law, 215.
- Bad debts, Chinese merchants cancel,
ii. 335.
- Badakshan, native land of lapis-lazuli,
232; village clusters in, ii. 43, 44.
- Baguettes blanches*, procession of the,
ii. 497.
- Bahrein, island of, 25; with springs like that of Panchæa, 515; tombs examined on, 516; inhabitants of, called Nabatæans, 520; Bahrein and Oman, cosmopolitanism of, 520.
- Bainuter=Binothis of Manetho, 117.
- Balearic isles, status of women in,
460.
- Ball, Rev. C. J., on Akkadian and Chinese characters, 32, ii. 480-487.
- Bamboo books, ii. 27, 476; use of, in China, 49.
- Banias, citadel of, 405.
- Bankers, Babylonian, forestall clearing-house system, 321; landed property held by, 324; warehouse their clients' valuables, 353.
- Bankers' guild at Shanghai, ii. 339-40.
- Bankruptcy rare and disgraceful, ii.
340.
- Banks, resorted to by all classes in China, ii. 330; facilities given to small capitalists, 331.
- Banquets, cost of Chinese, ii. 316.
- Barachiel, suit concerning, 357.
- Barbarians, laws on trade with, ii.
363; against "plotting to acquire land from," 364.
- Barbers' union at Wenchow, ii. 320.
- Barbosa on Malabar, 485.
- Bareas of East Africa, 531, 533.
- Barrage, natural and artificial Nile,
ii. 410, 413.
- Basins, irrigation system of, ii. 411.
- Basque and Malayali parallel to Egyptian marriage contracts, 211.
- Basque custom, 212, 460-463; Basque law, hypothetical approximation to, in Sparta, 483-5; domestic customs compared with those of Malabar, 556; rule against intermarriage of eldest children, 213, 558.
- Basques, partnership of elder child among, 123; primogeniture without distinction of sex among, 124.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

506

INDEX.

- Bas-reliefs in alabaster line brick walls, 249.
- Bassorah, Persian Gulf once extended above, 229.
- Bau, the goddess, elder daughter of Anna, 239.
- Bazi, sons of, 297.
- Begas, female descent among, 530.
- Bek-en-Amon, letter from the scribe, 174.
- Bel, the king of Babylon "takes the hands of," 305, ii. 241.
- Belkhanos, a Cretan god, 471.
- Bell, John, of Antermony, ii. 277 n.
- Belnadinapli, or aplu, king of 4th Babylonian Dyn., 295; King of Pasi Dyn., 343.
- Belnirari, son of Assuruballit, wars against Kurigalzu II., 288, 289.
- Belsunu, partner of Nebo-ahi-iddin, 349.
- Benevolence and economy to be combined by rulers, ii. 32; a duty of traders, 361.
- Benevolent institutions of modern China, ii. 377.
- Beni Amer of East Africa, 531.
- Beni Hassan, 12th Dyn. tombs of Khnum-hotep, etc., at, 80, 156, 163.
- Berbers and Basques, customary codes of, 38, 461, 536.
- Berbers, Ibn Khaldoun's History of, 407; debts repaid by, 451.
- Berosus, chronology of, 257, 258.
- Berscheh, 12th Dyn., pictures at, 102.
- Betrothal, supposed allusion to, in Ptah-hotep, 201, 205; betrothal or secret marriage among Albanians, 456; distinct from marriage, in Syro-Roman code, 493; a year before marriage, in East Africa, 531; a distinct stage in marriage contracts, 536; traces of this in Malabar, ii. 473, 474.
- Biaina, native name of Armenia, 301.
- Bibliographies, Chinese, ii. 479.
- Bilingual lists of Babylonian kings' names, 257, 259, ii. 425; texts of Assurbanipal's library, i. 314; syllabaries and phrase books, 327.
- Bills of exchange issued in China, ii. 193, 194.
- Bingani, son of a king of Agade, 266.
- Birds, their flight a guide to mariners, 519.
- Births, registration of, in ancient China, ii. 71.
- Bishareen tribes of East Africa, 531.
- Bit Humri, a name for Palestine, 299.
- Black-haired people, name for ancient Akkadians, 26; do. of Chinese, ii. 21.
- Black-headed people, an epithet for the Chinese, 26; black-headed race, 276.
- Black land of Egypt, 65.
- Blacksmiths' union of Wenchow, ii. 319.
- Block printing introduced, ii. 209; described by Semedo, 270.
- Blue eyes in Arabia, 277; blue-eyed Arab heroine, 529.
- "Blue like the sky between clouds after rain," china ordered, like, ii. 166.
- Blue-stone of Babel = lapis-lazuli, 232.
- "Boarding out" of royal cattle in Egypt, Ireland, and Tatar, 135; in ancient China, ii. 52; in modern China, 373.
- Boards of modern Chinese government and their ancient counterparts, ii. 23, 376.
- Boatmen, earnings of Chinese, ii. 313.
- Boats, with eye in prow, in Cypriote tombs, 405; used as shops, ii. 318.
- Bocchoris, or Bok-en-ranf, legislation of, 192, 193; succeeded by Sabako, 306.
- Boghaz Keui, remains of, 387, 412, 414.
- Bohemia, annals of, by John of Florence, ii. 235.
- Book of Rites, see Li Ki.
- Book of the Dead, 73.
- Books, "steward of the house of books," 55.
- Border states in feudal China, ii. 80.
- Bornu, constitution of kingdom of, 558.
- Bottomry, loans on, 398; forbidden by Rhodian law, 399, 444.
- Boundary stones, temp. Marduknadinahi, 343.
- Bows, manufacture of, ii. 62.
- Branch families, foundation of, ii. 69, 492.
- Breaking a plate with guest friend, 410.
- Brehon Laws, 135, ii. 491.
- Bribery in ancient Egypt, 57.
- Brick tablets, use of, in contracts, 321, 327.
- Bricks, burnt and sun-dried, 248.
- Bride revisits her own family after marriage, ii. 67; cases when "she will not go," 68.
- Bronze, generally used in Middle Empire, 99; statues of, 102; weapons of, with iron core, 232; early use of alloys for, 400; early examples of, ii. 497 n.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

507

- “Brother to brother should be loving,” 338.
- Brothers, field owned jointly by two, and pledged by one, 216; division of property between, 371; brothers and sisters, inheritance from, in Thesawaleme, 560; rule of succession among, ii. 346.
- Bubastis, kings of, 316.
- Buddhism in China, ii. 95, 109, 124, 125, 145, 146.
- Buddhist view of Kshatriyas and Brahmins, 108; theology, examinations held in, ii. 144; priest cremated, 219; works, Mongol edition of, in letters of gold, 230; virtues and crimes, ii. 378.
- Budget of a Chinese peasant under the Hans, ii. 113; under the present Dyn., 299.
- Bulls, symbolism of their images, 249.
- Bunanitum, suit between widow and deceased husband's brother, 358, 376.
- Bundahesh, reference to China in, ii. 149 n.
- Burckhardt on dwindling of the kasaba, 74.
- Burial place granted to Jesuits for Ricci, ii. 270.
- Burial places, sale of, in Egypt, 166, 169; choice of, in China, ii. 133; burial societies in China, 377.
- Burlingame, Mr., on Chinese, ii. 85.
- Burnaburias, his presents of lapis-lazuli to Egyptian king, 251; dated by Nabonidus, 254; King of Kardunias, 288; marries the daughter of an Assyrian king, 289; corresponds with Amenhotep IV., 292.
- Bursin I., inscription of King, 267, 272.
- Bursurasur, king of Assyria, his dealings with Babylonia, 288.
- Butha, maxims of customary law, 532.
- Byblos, temple of, 404.
- Byssus workers, marriage contract of, 207.
- Byzantium, war of Rhodes with, 443.
- Cadets, position of Basque, 213.
- Cadi forbidden to buy or sell in Arabia, 527.
- Cai-fung-fu invested by the Kin, ii. 174; captured by Mantchu Tartars, 249.
- Cais ibn Al Khatum leaves a garden to supply annuity for his mother, 524.
- Calendar, Chinese and Sumerian, 278; regulation of, a royal prerogative in China, ii. 23, 24; of the Hia Dyn., 71; Christians employed to correct Chinese, 267; Akkadian and Egyptian, ii. 437.
- Calicut, freedom of trade at, 548.
- Caliph Galun = Harun al Raschid, ii. 139.
- Caliphate, embassies from, ii. 215.
- Caliphs, Chinese assist Cashgar against, ii. 139.
- Cambalec = Khanbalig = Peking.
- Cambyses, training school for scribes under, 53, 55; Egyptian legend concerning, 116.
- Camels, chief article of Towarek property, 540.
- Campsay, see Kinsay.
- Canaanites and Sidonians, 389; Canaanite = merchant, 389 n.
- Canal inscription of Hammurabi, 283; canals and water courses in ancient China, ii. 63; Grand Canal projected by Kubla, 244.
- Canal, traces of great, near Telloh, 264; canal from the upper Zab to Caleh, 298; Grand Canal, ii. 224.
- Canalization in ancient Babylonia, 264.
- Canals, construction of, 247; require restoration, 248; inscription of Clerk of the canals at Abydos, 79.
- Canary islands, walled enclosures in, 446; population and customs of, 542-4.
- Cane, derivation of the word, 231.
- Canonical books of China, ii. 474.
- Cantabri, Strabo on the, 213; marriage customs of the, 460.
- Canton, foreign trade at, ii. 139; annals of, on Portuguese “tribute,” ii. 262; old resident at, on Chinese trade, ii. 336, 337.
- Capital and income of peasant family in China, ii. 299.
- Capital crimes rare in China, ii. 374.
- Capital, Tai-tsou-sung on choice of a, ii. 168.
- Capitalists, early Egyptian, 71.
- Capitation tax, three grades of, in later Egypt, 138.
- Cappadocians or “white Syrians,” 386.
- Caps sold by the thousand at proper season, ii. 338.
- Captivity of Jehoiachin and Zedekiah, 317.
- Caralis, remains at, 415.
- Caravan routes across Arabia, 503.
- Carchemish made an Assyrian province, 312.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

508

INDEX.

- Cardinal points in Babylonia and China, 31, 265.
- Caria and Lycia, surviving traces of prehistoric population in, 418.
- Carian and Lycian names, 418, 419; "Carian wall" on coast of Mauretania, 428; Carian and Lycian custom, 428, 438; Carian priests praised for their liberalities, 431; modern Carian's regard for the mother, 435; Carian Jupiter worshipped by three nations, 514.
- Carpini, John, of Plano, ii. 216.
- Carriage of letters and baggage in China, ii. 341, 342.
- "Carrying of cloth to exchange it for silk," ii. 324.
- Carthage, Aristotle's description of, 390; houses six stories high at, 406.
- Carthaginian tombs, 405; soup, 409; Cretan dish resembling, 482.
- Caste unknown in monumental Egypt, 108; Ampère on, 126.
- Castiglione, F., employed as an artist, ii. 286.
- Casting money, mode of, in China, ii. 155, 159.
- Cathay, empire of Khitai Tatars, ii. 215.
- Cato on Latin peasantry, 410 n.
- Cats, cultus of, in modern Egypt, 149.
- Cattle farming in Egypt, 79, 82, 83; Carthaginian treatise on, 408, 409; regulations for care of imperial cattle, ii. 373; cattle and horses not to be killed without a license, 374.
- Caucones and Caunians, 451.
- Cauconians, 417, 422.
- Cavalry officer in Egypt, cost of his education and hardship of his lot, 138.
- Cave dwelling in Asia Minor, 415.
- Celibacy imposed on younger sons of Nambutiri Brahmins, 555; as on Basque cadets, 556; celibacy of Buddhist monks and nuns denounced, ii. 146.
- Census, objections to, in 9th cent. B.C., ii. 71; census reports of Tang Dynasty, 134-6; first Ming, 238; census of population and lands, 245; in Peru, 453.
- Census of Minicoy taken by "certain women in authority," 567.
- Central Asia, physical geography of, ii. 3 ff.; campaigns of Han emperors in, 106; Chinese protectorate over, 245; successful Chinese campaigns in, 287.
- Central Cappadocia, people of, 414.
- Cephisus, valley of, 421.
- Ceylon, notice of sale of land to be given to heirs, neighbours, etc., in, 576.
- Cha, medicinal drink called, ii. 264.
- Chachperi, children of, divide her inheritance by lot, 215.
- "Châl, the mule said the horse is my," 521.
- Chaldæa and Kardunias independent, 299.
- Chaldæans, "whose cry is in their ships," 307.
- Chammuragash, see Hammurabi.
- Chang-yang, agrarian policy of, ii. 97-9, 187.
- Cha'o Tso on crime and poverty, ii. 112, 160.
- Chaou-yih, scholarly critic of the Shi, ii. 479.
- Characters, number of Sumerian, 234.
- Charibael, King, his relations with Rome, 508; see also Karibail.
- Chariot horses of Rameses II., 150.
- Chariots, manufacture of, described in Chow Li, ii. 61.
- Charondas of Catana, laws of, 448-50.
- Chatramotitæ, people of Hadramaut, 509.
- Cheapness of all commodities in China, ii. 321.
- Chefa'a, Kabyle term for right of pre-emption by kinsmen, etc., 186, 537.
- Chera kings, policy of, 564.
- Cher-heb or roll-bearer, 63; meaning of term, 167; Chinese parallel to, ii. 36.
- Chia, modern Chinese tithing, ii. 356.
- Children follow the father's status in Egypt, 93; inheritance of, 206; Children-household = family, in Urardhian, 303; follow the father's status by Gortyn code, 480; "children of his daughter," in Syro-Roman code, 488; children to be indulged when young, ii. 73; to be taught manners and morals at eight, 74.
- China of Yung-lo's reign, ii. 237.
- China, one of the great seats of archaic civilization, 3, 5; entrance to from Central Asia, 17; a land of difficult access, 18; physical geography of, ii. 8; no impassable natural barriers in, 10; indigenous inhabitants of, 11; provinces of ancient, 11-15; vacant lands granted to the destitute in, 141.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

509

- Chinese army, how paid, 130 ; Chinese Classic and Delphic oracle agreed, 474 ; horror of blue eyes and light hair, 177 ; Chinese art, self-conscious and naturalistic, ii. 166 and n. ; Chinese astronomy, 440 ; Chinese bride, customary visit to her parents from, 494 ; characters, 20 ; chivalry, maxims of, 82 ; civilization, primary and uniform character of, 291 ; code, Syro-Roman parallel to, i. 490, 491 ; classes, ancient division of, still recognised, 297 ; classics, copy of, sent to Tibet, 139 ; Dr. Legge's edition of, 475 ; coast lands laid waste to repel pirates, 275 ; Chinese cycle of sixty years and days, 434 ; Chinese Diogenes, 48 ; Chinese dynasties, gradual progress under successive, 123 ; list of, 495 ; emperor and his feudatories, intercourse between, 273 ; government, policy towards tributaries, 247 ; ideal of a ruler's duty, 8 ; Chinese lady, manners of, 294 ; Chinese manners and customs described by Trigault and Semedo, 268, by Da Cruz and Perera, 270, 271, Martini, 271, 272, and Du Halde, as by Doolittle, Gray and Williams ; Chinese merchants, liberality, courtesy and ability of, 334-337 ; Chinese parallel to Egyptian maxims, i. 44, ii. 76 ; Chinese penal code, 344 ; pound, weight of, allowed to vary, 338 ; proverb on national prosperity, 153 ; Chinese religion, Jesuit version of, 276 ; society contented, 353-4 ; suits respecting family property, 352 ; towns, democratic architecture of, 324 ; Chinese traders reach Ceylon and the Euphrates, 140 ; traffic, principal lines of, 218 ; Chinese Turkestan, memorial against usury in, 337 ; Chinese boys not mischievous, 381.
- Chinese, Kabyle, and Egyptian rate of interest, 193.
- Chinese odes against slanderers, 74 ; mortgage or tien, 184.
- Ching, common fields restored in state of, ii. 99.
- Ching-yu or sacred edict, ii. 280.
- Chin-tsung, Sung emperor, ii. 170, 187.
- Ching-tsung Ming (Wan-lih period), ii. 248.
- Chi-tsung, blue china of, ii. 166 ; on copper Buddhas, 167.
- Chi-tsung Ming, reign of, ii. 247, 248.
- Chnum, Egyptian god, called chief of the Thirty, 56.
- Choachyte's son adopted by a tax collector, 127.
- Choachytes, archives of a family of, 127 ; choachytes, 164 ; = pourers of libations, 166 ; contracts of, inherited, 168 ; corporation or guild of, 169.
- Choo-hi restores public granaries, ii. 191 ; his Commentaries and official career, 207, 208, 211 ; reform of examination system, 211 ; views on educational system of Chow Li, 212 ; philosophy of, 213 ; Commentary on the Shi, 478.
- Chou or Te-sin, last (wicked) king of Yin, 18, 28.
- Chow Dynasty, documents of, in Shoo King, ii. 24 ; founded by King Wu, 18, 109 ; regulations of, 22 ; grant to surviving representatives of, 107.
- Chow kings and barbarians, ii. 364.
- Chow land system abolished by T'sin, ii. 98.
- Chow Li, Chinese book of Rites, 77 ; Chow Li or Rites of Chow, ii. 22 : on public granaries, 35 ; on the tsing or nine squares, 42 ; on local organization, 42-44 ; on work for different seasons, 47 ; on taxes, 50 ; on classes and occupations, 55 ; missing section of, 60 ; traffic regulations in, 63, 64 ; edited by Wang Mang, 116 ; on lost property, 217 ; editions of, 475.
- Christianity tolerated in Europeans, ii. 275 ; a kind of Fo religion, 149, 276.
- Chronological list of Assyrian eponyms, 300.
- Chronology of Kassite kings, 287, 288.
- Chu, father and daughter, artists in porcelain, ii. 213.
- Chuang-tze, ii. 48 ; on Confucius' failure, 84 ; on contemporary sophists, 88 ; on charity and duty to one's neighbour, 92 ; on letting mankind alone, 93 ; on horses, 257, 258 ; on over-crowding, 381.
- Chua-to, patron of medical profession, ii. 130.
- Chumba-ba, Elamite tyrant, 274.
- Chung, maiden's rebuke to Mr., ii. 65.
- Chung-ne, see Confucius.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

510

INDEX.

- Chun-ti, Mongol emperor, corresponds with Pope Benedict XII., ii. 235.
- Ch'un T'sew, or "Spring and Autumn," history by Confucius, ii. 25; number of states mentioned in, 80 n. 1; meaning of title, 475.
- Church, erection of Christian, allowed, ii. 276.
- Cilicia practically subdued by Assyria, 312.
- Cilician gates, 387.
- Cimmerians, raids of, 310, 311; Cimmerians, Scyths, and Medes, conjoined movements of, 314.
- Cingalese report of Seres inaccurate, ii. 110.
- Cinque cento B.C., 288.
- "Circle of relatives" in China, ii. 43.
- Cisterns for rain water at Carthage, 406.
- Citadels, Lycian and Carian, 428.
- City of Pyramids (Memphis), 163; city gods of Sumer and Akkad, 235; king and god of the city, 269; "Children of Chaldis, of the," 303; custom of the, 334, 340; city taken to witness in deeds, 337; storehouses and officers of, at Cyzicus, 451; architecture and design of ancient Chinese cities, ii. 62.
- Civil capacity of women in Babylonia, 374; in China, ii. 350.
- Civilization, difference between archaic and modern, 3; common features of primitive, 7, 14; first "raised in heat," 401.
- Claas Isaaksz, collected customs of Jaffna Malabars, 559.
- Clan chiefs and heads of families, ii. 307, 308.
- Class rather than caste divisions in Egypt, 109.
- Classical texts edited under the Hans, ii. 105; imperial versions of, 477, 478.
- Claudius, ambassador from Emperor, in Ceylon, ii. 110.
- Clerks, earnings of Chinese, ii. 310.
- Clergy, list of Egyptian, 63.
- Climate of Egypt, 65.
- Clock, striking, presented by Ricci, ii. 266.
- Cnidus, inscription from, 429, 430; honours accorded by acclamation at, 430; primogeniture and council of Sixty at, 435, 473.
- Cnossus, as umpire city, 475.
- Coal mines in China, ii. 294, 312, 313.
- Coalition against Assyria, 316.
- Code Napoléon, decay of Basque custom caused by, 213; Chinese code, ii. 34; on farming imperial cattle, 373; statutory additions to, how made, 375.
- Çof, quasi-political organization in Berber villages, 536.
- Co-Hong, thirteen merchants engaged in English trade, ii. 336, 337.
- Coin melted down to obtain copper, ii. 160, 162, 163.
- Coinage, value of copper, ii. 113; variations in Chinese, 155-160; excessive charge for, by Chinese government, 159; common, of Greek and Lycian federations, 450.
- Coiners, trade of, in China, ii. 156, 160.
- Coins and weights of ancient China, ii. 57; ancient, preserved by forgers, 155.
- Colchis, legendary renown of, 460.
- Collections of Chinese coins, ii. 155; of Classics made by Han Emperors, 476.
- Colleges of priests do not suffer endowments to lapse, 175; colleges "where they nourished the aged," ii. 72 n.; Imperial and other, 142, 143; colleges founded by Kin emperor, 174; colleges and libraries, 209-211; under the Ming, 254; colleges built by private subscription, 378.
- Colonization of China effected gradually, ii. 11.
- Colossal statues of Egyptian kings, ii. 103.
- Comana of Cataonia and Cappadocia, 419; of Cappadocia, 439.
- Comedians, favour shown to, ii. 165.
- Comfort, standard of, in modern China, ii. 292.
- Commercial rent of comparatively late origin, 141.
- Commercial usage, variety and flexibility of, in Babylonia, 321, 346; commercial and family partnerships distinguishable, 331; commercial partnerships, division of profits in, 349; commercial honesty of Chinese, according to Semedo, ii. 270; to 19th cent. writers, 336, 337; commercial agent, duties of, 368; paid by commission, 369.
- Common cultivation of the fields, system of, ii. 19; experimental restoration, 99 n.; in Peru, 455, 456.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

511

- Common meals perhaps related to public feasts in Asia Minor, 433 ; common meals in Cœnotria, Crete, and Lacedæmon, 448 ; in Crete, 468, 469 ; in Sparta, 465, 470 ; of Nabatæans, 512.
- Communauté de biens*, provincial French customs concerning, 205.
- Communism of Tyrrhenians, 460 ; traces of family, in Syro-Roman law book, 495 ; on island of Panchæa, 514 ; virtual, of ancient Arabia, 526.
- Commutation of punishments for fines, ii. 58.
- "Companions of the cupboard," 450, ii. 69, 473.
- Compatriot guilds, ii. 338.
- Compensation for injuries, ii. 213, 214.
- Competition-wallahs gradually introduced to civil service, ii. 119.
- Compound interest not due without special agreement, 327.
- Compradore, general honesty of Chinese, ii. 336.
- Comradships at Elbassan, 456.
- Concerning dykes, Confucius, ii. 68, 69.
- Conclusions, general, ii. 384-95.
- Concubinage castes, uncalled for term of disparagement, 551.
- Conditions of good work threefold, ii. 61.
- Confession, or self-examination, Babylonian form of, 245.
- "Confirmer of Sons," title of Nebuchadnezzar I., 343.
- Confiscations of officer's wealth, ii. 116 ; of copper hoards intended to lower the price of land, 161.
- Confucian psychology, ii. 86 ; teaching, summary of, 88.
- Confucius, birthplace of, ii. 14 ; on the Three Dynasties, 22 ; descendant of, claims privilege for historic records, 26 ; on ministerial responsibility, the essentials of government, virtue and wealth, etc., 31, 32 ; on cornering, 41 ; on mourning for foster mother, 69 ; his gift to a mourner, 75, 76 ; on State of Loo, 80, n. 3 ; general praised by, 82 ; on taking office, 82 ; as an administrator, 83 ; contemporary criticism of, 83 ; dependency and failure of, 84 ; on rites and reverence, 85 ; on reciprocity, 89 ; on Taoism, 95 ; grave of, visited by Han emperor, 195 ; on water and hills, 128 ; Hioeun-thsang on, 145 ; on serving spirits and the knowledge of the dead, 148 ; descendant of, demanded as hostage, 176 ; mob quieted by quotation from, 294.
- Confusion between soss and century possible in Nabonidus' inscription, 255.
- Conjugal love, Chow Li on the teaching of, ii. 353 n. 3.
- Conjuration, Sumerian formula of, 235.
- "Conjuror," literal rendering of word for witness to deeds, 328.
- Conservatism of domestic States, 224 ; of Hamitic African tribes, 533 ; of Chinese undergraduates, ii. 380 ; conditions of primitive, 390.
- Considerate courtesy of Kang-hi, ii. 278.
- Constant widow, in Chinese ode, ii. 66.
- Constitutional Chinese doctrine concerning bad kings, ii. 18.
- Constitutionalism of Sheikh government, 527 ; of modern Chinese do., ii. 377.
- Contemporary China, European writers on, ii. 85, 292-4.
- "Content with Truth," name of gate of Rameses, ii. 60.
- Contracts saleable in Egypt and Babylonia, 168 ; for cultivation of temple lands, 174 ; forms of commercial, in Egypt and Rome, 181 ; in Nineveh, 182 ; penalties on breach of, 195 ; simplicity of Egyptian, 197 ; Setnau's children made to sign contract renouncing their rights, 218 ; contract tablets of Hammurabi and Rimsin, 280 ; contract tablets edited by Meissner, 284 ; concerning sales, partnerships, loans and mortgages, 321 ; in which rent and interest cancel each other, 323 ; Contract tablets found at Warka, 327 ; law of Zaleucus on, 448 ; contracts and archives in Cretan cities, 478 ; contracts waived as well as debts in China, ii. 335 ; English definition of contract, 460.
- Co-operative cooking, ii. 317.
- Copper wire used as medium or standard of exchange, 99 ; copper money, large and small, ii. 58 ; of Wang-mang, unpopular, 116 ; copper mines in Sz'chuen, worked by Chinese Croesus, 156 ; supply of, inadequate, 159 ; copper utensils manufactured by government, 162 ; plentiful after suppression of monasteries, 164 ; copper cur-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

- rency, 193-6; copper plates used for printing bank notes, 196; Kung-I on copper money, 197; copper money of the Ming, 253, 254; modern laws respecting, 369; relative value of copper and silver in Egypt, 445, 447.
- Coptic contracts, 209.
- Copy-book morality, stock phrases common to Egypt, Akkad, Carthage and the Canaries, 409.
- Corea, Chinese Protectorate over, disputed by Japan, ii. 249.
- Cormorants, use for fishing described by Odoric, ii. 232.
- Corn, not habitually exported from ancient Egypt, 70; distributed free in years of scarcity, 71; imported by Phœnician government, 398.
- Cornish tin cast in moulds like that of Zimbabwe, 403.
- Coroners, instructions to, ii. 213.
- Cosmas, the Armenian, ii. 124, 130.
- Cosmus, office of, in Crete, 468; Cosmi fined for not carrying out popular decisions, 474.
- Cost of living in China under the Hans, ii. 113; increased between Han and Tang, 164; at present day, 315, 316; cost of education in China, 311.
- Cotton, Akkadian name for, 232 n.; cotton mill, earnings in Chinese, ii. 313.
- Counterfeit money, penalty for issuing, ii. 151.
- Courteous Arab, 527.
- Courtesy, Chinese rules of, ii. 74, 76; courtesy and insincerity, i. 45; ii. 382.
- Coutume of Navarre, 213; of Paris, on vifgage, ii. 418.
- Couvade in Corsica, 460.
- Craftsmen, skill of Chinese, ii. 216.
- Cranranore, capital of Chera kings, 546.
- Credit, easily obtained in China, 195; phrase for, 322; development of, in Babylonia, 350; extension of, in China, ii. 330.
- Creditors and officials forbidden to buy land, 491; creditor punished for selling debtor's family, ii. 370.
- Cretan ageleæ, Albanian parallel to, 456; knights, 472; ecclesia, proverbs, 476; dress, survivals of ancient, 482.
- Crete and Sparta compared with Carthage, 391; Crete, government of, described by Ephorus, 467; by Aristotle, 468.
- Crocodile, the type of a bad governor, 44.
- Crœsus and Cyrus; palace of, converted into gerusia, 433.
- Crops suited to the soil, ii. 306.
- Cultivation of land, tablet concerning, 340.
- Cultivators contract not to appeal to the gods, 93; antichretic mortgage a boon to small, 184, 186; share of the produce in Egyptian agreements, 188; transferred with land in Assyria, 346; share of, in Babylonia, 335; in Ceylon and Malabar, 570; position of poorer cultivators in China, ii. 304; see also Budget of a peasant.
- Cuneiform correspondence between Egypt and Mesopotamia, 120, 292; tablets found near Tyana, 420; cuneiforms, Cypriote and Phœnician characters derived from, 98; see also tablets, contract tablets and inscriptions.
- Currency of Tsih-moh city, ii. 58; changes made in, by Wang-Mang, 115; troubles connected with the, 121, 195, 253.
- Curse on the careless feaster, 236.
- Custom duties transferred from local to central revenue, ii. 369; custom the chief of the Agamas, 464.
- "Custom of her people," amount of debt according to, 354.
- Customary division of produce in Malabar, 569; customary price and quality of goods generally known in China, ii. 365.
- Cvelne Mæcnatial = Cilnius Mæcenas, 427.
- Cyaxares, king of Media, attacks Nineveh, 316.
- Cyclopean architecture, traditional home of, 428.
- Cylinders, earliest Babylonian, 261.
- Cyme, proverbial stupidity of men of, 462.
- Cynocephali, found in tomb of King Khafra (Chephren), 145.
- Cypriote syllabary, 98, 387; characters, 403.
- Cyprus, said to be invaded by Sargon, 312; chief cities of, 403.
- Cyrus conquers Sardis, 318.
- Cyzicus, 450; compared to Massalia and Rhodes, 452.
- Damages paid by divorcing husband, 217; for personal injuries at Rhodes, 444; for injuries by ani-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

513

- mals, Gortyn code on, 481; for breach of betrothal contract, 536.
 Damascening iron, art of, known in Babylonia, 250.
 Damik-marduk, dynasty of, 297.
 Dangerous animals, rules respecting, ii. 373.
 Darius, Egyptian priesthood conciliated by, 179; no deeds relating to sales of land in Egypt before, 186; Darius I., marriage contract temp., 210; Darius Codomamanus, Egyptian deed showing heiress daughters temp., 214; Darius, Babylonian contract tablets of his reign, 353, 354.
 Dark ages of Chinese history, ii. 126.
 Daughter of Kao-tsou-tang buried with military honours, ii. 132; of Tait-sou-sung, 169.
 Daughters' descendants, tomb reserved to, 433; rights of, reserved in Posidonius' endowment, 434; and in that of Epikteta, 435.
 Daughters left heirs among Cantabri and Basques, 213, 460; of Ma'in named in inscriptions, ii. 348; marriage portions of, ii. 348.
 Dead, sale of the, in Egypt, 167, 168.
 Death, Egyptian phrase for, "to rejoin my mother," 220.
 Deba on coast of Arabia show hospitality to Dorians, 516.
 Debating Hall in Canton, ii. 380.
 Debt, fictitious acknowledgments of, by Egyptian husbands, 209, 220.
 Debtor and creditor, relations of, in Egypt, 193-6; in Egypt and Babylonia, 322.
 Debtors, penalties on defaulting, ii. 369.
 Debts assignable in Babylonia, 321; made to extinguish each other, 351; readily forgiven in China, ii. 335, 340, 341; paid by sons, 351.
 Deccan=south or "right hand," 266.
 Decline of Egyptian independence, ii. 409.
 Decorum of ancient Rhodes, 444.
 Decurions in Peru, ii. 453.
 Dedication of wealth in Egypt, 161.
 Deed of gift to a daughter, 368; of mutual renunciation, 364, 365; deeds and indentures, Chow Li on, ii. 60; see also contracts.
 Degrees granted for money, ii. 255.
 De la Marre's translation of Kien-lung's history of the Ming, ii. 238.
 Delos a centre of Oriental trade, 508.
 Delphic oracle, Athenian problem submitted to, 438.
 De Mailla, History of, ii. 274; continuation of, 283 n.
 Demeter and Persephone, mysteries of, 420; Demeter and Kore, objects of worship in all Cnidian inscriptions, 430.
 Democratic temper of East African tribes, 531-3; of Chinese society, ii. 294.
 Demogerontia of modern Cretans, 482.
 Demosthenes' father lends on security of a shop, 327.
 Demotic chronicle, 60; writing, introduction of, 191, 192; marriage contracts, 201.
 Denga dwarf, from the land of Pun, 497.
 De Rougé on origin of Egyptian civilization, 20.
 Descent counted through the mother, 407; traces of, in Arabia, 521; counted by the Kanuri, 538.
 Deserts of Central Asia and the Sahara, ii. 3.
 "Despising" a wife, penalties on, in Egypt, 217.
 Dgema'a, Kabyle village council, 534.
 Dhuspas=Tosp, 302.
 Diminutive termination inna, 418.
 Diodorus on Egyptian monarchy, 47, 48; on Egyptian tribunals, 56; on judicial procedure in Egypt, 59; on cost of living in Egypt, 72; on skill of Egyptian herdsmen, 79; on slavery, in Egypt, 90; on Egyptian gold mines, 96; on Egyptian wives, 210.
 Diorite threshold dedicated to goddess, 262.
 Dioscorides=Sokotra, 516.
 Diplomacy, need for skilled, in China, ii. 382.
 Director of the multitudes, ii. 23 n.; one of his duties, 353 n.
 Diseased mendicancy rare in China, ii. 141.
 Disintegration of families by Malabar system of inheritance, 550.
 Dismemberment of Chinese empire, Ma-twan-lin on, ii. 179, 180.
 Disorder, four sources of, ii. 105.
 Dispensaries, free under the Mongols, ii. 224.
 Distribution of the waters in Egypt, 79.
 Divided ownership distrusted in China, ii. 363.
 Division of property amongst children, 215; on divorce at Gortyn, 477;

L L

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

514

INDEX.

- by Syro-Roman code, 492, 493; of earnings between Illavatti couple's heirs, 554; of family property in, China, laws concerning, ii. 348, 350.
- Divisions of the day, ii. 436.
- Divorce, deed of, 366, 367; Georgian penalty on, 458; Gortyn code on, 477; freedom of, by women in Arabia, 522, 523; formula of, in Arabia, 524; ancient freedom of, in China, 537; Towarek liberty of, 539; lawful causes of, in China, ii. 353; customs respecting, in Malabar, 467, 470.
- "Doctor of the four willows," ii. 128.
- "Doctor of the gate," 4th Dyn. judicial title, 59.
- Dodona, priestesses of, 423.
- Dogs in ancient monarchy and 11th Dyn. tombs, 149.
- Domain of restraint, wild, imperial, etc., in ancient China, ii. 21.
- Domesday Book, mortgages in, ii. 418.
- Domestic relations, historic variations in, 10.
- Domestic slavery mild in Egypt, 91.
- Domestic triad in primitive Mesopotamia, 238.
- Domestic virtues described in Egyptian inscriptions, 198.
- Dominican jealousy of Jesuits, ii. 276.
- Doors, etc., tenant's fixtures in ancient Babylonia, 341.
- Dorians, metropolis of, 465.
- Dowries given "to" or "with" daughters, 373, 374; limited at Massalia, 453; Syro-Roman code on, 491; Thesawaleme on, 559, 560; pass to husband's family in China, ii. 350; Welsh mortgages allowed to pay, ii. 418, 419.
- Drainage, understood in Sumer and Akkad, 233; necessary in Egypt, ii. 413.
- Dravidian group of languages, 545; population of Dravidian village described, 565, 566; Dravidian (like Chinese) lottery, called kuri, 568.
- Dravidians called Kshatriyas, 109; affinities of Dravidians, ii. 440.
- Dress, Jesuits adopt literary instead of Buddhist, ii. 267.
- Drowning or ducking of divorcing spouse, 362.
- Drum struck by disciple of Choo-hi, ii. 208; by Mr. Pumpelly, 376 n.; appeal to the, 376.
- Dryness of desert air, sanitary effect of, 496.
- Duck-shaped weight of Dungi, 272.
- Duff Gordon, Lady, on carrying stones, 101; on animal worship, 149; on Bedaween women, 200.
- Duke of Chow, 24, ii. 22, 46, etc.
- D'unama ben Selma'a, king of Bornu, 538.
- Dungi, copious inscriptions of, 267; son of Ur-bau, 272.
- Dunshagana, son of Ningirsu, 240.
- Dunziddu, foster-father of Gudea, 271.
- Duodecimal divisions, 421.
- Dur-Kurigalzu, fortress and wall to protect Kardunias, 288.
- Dust storms and wind streams, ii. 6.
- Dutch embassy to Peking, ii. 272, 273.
- Duty of a virtuous Egyptian, 51.
- "Dwelling-place of Ea," a translation of name Eridu, 252.
- Dyers' union, ii. 320.
- Dyke of Mareb, 506, 507.
- Dynasties, Egyptian, App. A., ii. 400-9; capitals of various, 407; Babylonian, 256 n., 258; App. D., ii. 424-32; Chinese, App. L., ii. 495.
- E, king of Chow, ii. 24.
- Ea, mother, daughter and son of, 238; the water culture-god of Babylonia, 497.
- Eana, temple of Erech, 261.
- Eanna, high priest described as one who goes in to, 262.
- Eanna-du, patesi of Lagash, 262, 263.
- Earnest money and fines for breach of contract, 443; in laws of Charondas, 449; when forfeited, by Syro-Roman code, 489.
- Earnings and gifts to unmarried sons, Thesawaleme on, 559.
- Earthenware coffins, temp. Gudea, 243.
- Earthquake of Rhodes, gifts to the island after, 443.
- Eastern mountains, population of, united against Senacherib, 312; Eastern and Western custom contrasted in Syro-Roman code, 492; Eastern Han restored after Wang-mang's death, ii. 116 n.; Eastern Turkestan, Chinese rule in, 287.
- Eater of rations, Egyptian term for subject, 68.
- Ebers papyrus, 98.
- Ebisu or Ibishun, one contract tablet dated in reign of, 284.
- Écrit pour argent*, 182.
- Edict of agriculture, 135, 138, 139; Chinese edict granting religious toleration, ii. 276; concerning grasshoppers, 375.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

515

- Edicts for and against Wang-ngan-shi and his opponents, ii. 207, 208.
- Edom, kings in the land of, 500.
- Edrisi on China, ii. 215.
- "Education, Record on the subject of," in the Li Ki, ii. 118.
- Egypt, a land of difficult access, 18 ; Egypt and Mesopotamia, correspondence between, 120 ; Egypt and Assyria rivals in Palestine, 310 ; Egypt and Yemen, intercourse between, 501.
- Egyptian craving for a kind of immortality, 154 ; deeds and contracts, unilateral in form, 81 ; kings refuse their daughters to foreign kings, 294 ; law of inheritance, 125 ; law, general character of, 223 ; marriage contracts really marriage settlements, Malabar parallel to, 553, ii. 461 ; moralists on offending wife, i. 477 ; priesthood, 316 ; dates and dynasties, ii. 399-405 ; ritual or Book of the Dead, date of extant copies of, i. 122 ; royal tens, 394 ; temperament, 141, 162.
- Egyptians, honesty of modern, 451.
- Eight and ten years' tenancy secured by mortgage, 331.
- Eight hours' day in Chinese lead mine, ii. 313.
- Eighteen provinces of modern China, ii. 14.
- Eighteenth Dyn. kings associate sons and daughters, 120 ; 18th and 19th Egyptian Dyns. contemporary with Kassite do., 291.
- Eimeri, 13th Dyn., Chief of Great House of the Six, 61.
- Ekura, temple of Nipur, 261.
- Elam and Media merged in Persia, 318 ; tribes of Elam, 232 ; tombs of the kings of, 233 ; campaign of Nebuchadnezzar against king of, 342 ; pride of, 353 n.
- Elamite invasion of Erech, 258, 259 ; Elamite and Hittite profiles alike, 268 ; Elamite kings in land of Mutbal, 279 ; Elamites, perhaps expelled by kings of Larsa, 278 ; Elamites and Kassites, 285.
- Elder brother or eldest son constituted in deeds of adoption, 370 ; "elder brother of the former family" in story of a foundling, 378.
- Elders of a tribe conjoined with women in Minæan inscription, 509.
- Eldest child, partnership of, in family property, 117 ; heirship of Basque, 461.
- Eldest daughter acts as head of family, 214 ; sacrifices if there is no son, 240 ; name of, takes precedence, 406.
- Eldest son associated with father to secure his title, 110 ; "eldest son," title of honour in ancient Egyptian monuments, 121, 123 ; Egyptian character for, 122 ; a proper name of Thoth, 122 ; Chinese eldest son mourns three years for his eldest son, ii. 70.
- Electors, Bornu king appointed by three, 538.
- Elephantine and Syene="ivory" and "trade" stations, 95.
- Eleuthernæ, treaties with, 474.
- Eleuths, insubordination of, ii. 278, 279 ; conquest of, 286, 287.
- E Li or "Ceremonial Usages," ii. 475.
- Elish-ku-lim-ma-sin, letter from, in Tell-el-Amarna collection, 292.
- Elissa, her council of ten Punic princes, 393.
- Embalment of the dead, 165 ; purchase of materials for, 168.
- "Embalmer," originally a title of distinction, 153.
- Embassy, reception of Papal, ii. 235 ; Dutch, 273 ; English, 379.
- Emerald pillar in Tyrian temple, ii. 440.
- Emersons numerous in China, ii. 85.
- Eme-sal, read "women's language," 264.
- Empress, school for royal children founded by Han, ii. 120 ; Empress Wu-heou, examinations for women introduced by, 133 ; Empress regent, 169 ; Empress appoints heir to Wu-tsong-Ming, 246.
- Enamelled bricks, colours of, 250.
- En-anna-du, patesis of Lagash, 263.
- En-anna-tumma, patesi, 246.
- Enchanters, Oman called land of, 528.
- Encyclopædia of Yung-lo, ii. 239.
- Endowments, purpose of the earliest, in Egypt, 144 ; necessary to perpetuate commemorative worship, 155 ; of tombs precedes that of temples, 156 ; examples of private, in Egypt, 156 ; earliest mention of temple, 169 ; endowment of wife with husband's property, 206 ; Chinese family endowments, ii. 378.
- Engineers, English, in Egypt, ii. 413, 414.
- Engraver will not put his name to inscription defaming Ssema-kwang, ii. 206.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

516

INDEX.

- Enki, lord of earth, a name of Ea, 240.
 En Nedin, authority for Sabæan marriage law, 523.
 Entena, patesi of Lagash, 263.
 Enzag, name of Nebo, found at Bahrein, 238.
 Enzu or Sin, the moon god, 239.
 Ephesus, inscription from, respecting mortgages, 437.
 Ephesus, where parents "owe dowries to their daughters," 560.
 Ephors, 472, 473.
 Ephorus on government of Crete, 467.
 Epiballontes, "belongings" in Gortyn code, 477.
 Epidemics, immunity from, in China, ii. 372.
 Epigram against miser, ii. 66.
Epitropos, son may be appointed as, 489.
 Eponymous Cosmus, 468.
 Eponyms, list of Assyrian, 297.
 Equator, divisions of, ii. 436.
 Equinoxes observed in Malabar, 564.
 Eratosthenes on nations of Arabia Felix, 509.
 Erech, 230; a city of Akkad, 264; a most ancient favourite place of burial, 266.
 Eridu on or near the sea when founded, 229; ancient names of, 252; a city of Sumer, 264.
 Erimenas, king of Armenia, makes peace with Assyria, 302.
 Erman, Dr., on funeral endowments, 157.
Erpa or ropa, Egyptian title implying hereditary rank or birth, 41; Erpa or ropa of the gods, 117.
 Ersu or Arisu, Syrian usurper, 177.
 Eryx, wall of, 405.
 Esagilla, great temple of Babylon, 261.
 Esarhaddon, inscriptions and borrowed monuments of, 249; genealogy of, 306; Egyptian campaigns of, 312; restores Babylon and repels Cimmerians, 313.
 Esclau = Basque cadet, 461.
 Eskimo half-breeds, Jewish features of, 529.
Esprit de corps of Chinese eunuchs, ii. 137.
 Essays not now set in political questions of the day, ii. 380.
 "Established wife," rights of, in Egypt, 115, 204; synonyms for, in China, ii. 67.
 Estates of early Egyptian nobles, 67.
 Etelkasin and his wife renounce a son, 330, 364.
 Ethnic movement, two lines of, 383.
 Ethnological difficulties and problems, 30-3.
 Etiquette, Chinese, for reception of foreigners dates from Chow Li, ii. 273.
 Etruscan federation, 424; origin of Roman tribes, 424; text on mummy wrap, 425; tombs and commerce, 426; Etruscans and Lydians confounded, 425.
 Euergetes II., tenants temp., made to "contract out" of right of asylum, 93.
 Euiuk, remains of, 387.
 Eunuch, confiscated wealth of, ii. 246.
 Eunuchs, influence of, ii. 115; their power revived, 136, 137; fall of their party, 138.
 Euphrates and canal system of Mesopotamia, 230.
 European fundholder, origin of, ii. 329.
 Evaporation exceeding rainfall, ii. 4.
 Examinations and colleges in ancient China, ii. 71; do. and schools under the Han, 118-20; examinations and office, 144; held south of the Kiang for northern provinces, 202; under posterior Dyns. and Sung, 209, 210; under the Mongols, 229; for degrees, 254, 255; entry to, implies registration, 361; importance and character of, 380.
 Exchange of land between brothers, 337.
 Exchange of use (land for money, etc.) in Babylonia, 183, 331.
 Exempt land, sc. from taxation, in Egypt, 139.
 Exogamy associated with "sister's son's inheritance," 554; of Chinese, ii. 141, 494.
 Export trade condemned and importation of furs approved, 324.
 Exportation of grain forbidden, ii. 163; of rice, 280; in time of scarcity, 361.
 "Eye, there is no," 345.
 "Face of the land sprouts," loan to be repaid when, 333.
 Fa-hien, travels of, 44, 124.
 Fair Semites in Egyptian monuments, 277.
 Falcon breeds in N. Asia, and winters in E. Africa, 519.
 Fall of Nineveh, 314.
 Family affection, strength of, in Egypt, 199; relationships of Mesopotamian gods, 238; law

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

517

- tablet, 361; renderings of, by Bertin, Haupt, Meissner, and Opfert, 362; alternative version, 365, 366; family property held jointly by tarwad or tavali, 552; archaic constitution of Chinese family, ii. 21; community, working of family, 300-3; councils, power of family, 308, 309; suits relating to family property, 352; family customs and endowments, 362, 378.
- Famine, rare in ancient Egypt, 69; in Upper Egypt, 1878, 75.
- Fan-bearer, bakshish to, 89.
- Farm servants, wages of, in China, ii. 310.
- Farming out of cattle, 85; under Persians and Ptolemies, 86; in Egypt, Ireland, and Tatory, 135; in ancient and modern China, ii. 52, 373.
- "Fatal sentence" in the mouth of a prince, ii. 33.
- Father and mother, Egyptian and Babylonian view of, 198.
- Father holds property for his children, 212; cedes his property to a daughter on condition of maintenance, 375.
- Father-in-law of So-and-so, party to a deed described as, 361.
- "Father's debt, son pays," 352, ii. 351.
- Feast of Hoing, 152; temple feasts, 432; common feasts in Peru, ii. 456.
- Feaster, curse on the careless, 236.
- Federal union of Lycian cities, 429.
- Fees paid to Malabar Rajah, 564.
- Feleji, irrigation channels in Arabia, 527.
- Fellahin as a class probably settled on "remaining" land, 141.
- "Fellow villagers," judgment to be received, ii. 43.
- Female descent or Mütter recht, 111, 113, 429, 513; female agnates and cognates distinguished in Syro-Roman code, 494; kinship, copious vocabulary of female, in China, ii. 68.
- Femmes savantes*, Pan-hoci-pan on, ii. 118.
- Feng shwuy, ii. 133.
- Feudalism in Egypt under the 6th and 12th Dynasties, 40; in China under the later Chow emperors, ib.; feudal rights mortgaged in Malabar leases, 572, 574; feudal princes, Mencius' complaint of, ii. 24; etiquette, examples of feudalism, 81, 82; feudalism, Chinese age of, 83; creation of feudal princes, policy of, 102; compelled to divide their lands, 105; feudalism in S. China, 127; attempted revival of, under the Tang, 151.
- Fever demon of Mesopotamia, 236.
- Feysul, prince of Riad, 502, 503.
- "Field of a fourth," fifth, tenth, etc., 336.
- Fields measured by seed, 341, 570.
- Fifth Babylonian Dyn., 297.
- Fifth Dyn., unoccupied tombs already scarce under, 163; ideal of domestic virtues in inscriptions of, 198.
- Fifty, temples of the number, 262, 263, 268, 272.
- Fijian chiefs and working parties, 68.
- Filial children, duties of, ii. 73, 74.
- Filiation, tablets of, 378.
- Finance ministers of Kubla, ii. 225, 227.
- Fines for insanitary house property, 341; on breach of contract to be paid to a temple, 346; paid by divorcing husband, 363; on the violation of tombs, 433, 434; on renewal of lease to janmi, 573, 574; extension of system of fines by Yung-lo, ii. 242.
- "Fines" of Breton Laws, ii. 490.
- Finger posts, friendly notices on, in Asia Minor, 464.
- Finnic tribes, earliest metal workers in N. Europe, 401.
- Finno-Ugric affinities of Etruscan, 426.
- Fire god, Ishum, 285.
- Fire, ideogram for, 236; rules respecting, in ancient China, ii. 47, 48; houseless poor sheltered by relatives after, 379; local governor dismissed if fires numerous, 375.
- Fire-proof towers for storing valuables, ii. 222, 223.
- "First-born Bel," a title of Nebo, 238.
- First-fruits, dedication of, 152.
- First year of marriage, proprietary partnership begins after, 206.
- Fishermen's union, ii. 320.
- Five Dyns., Chow drums lost during the, ii. 27.
- Five Dyns. in China and Egypt, ii. 406.
- Five legs, animals represented with, 250.
- Five, tribunals of, 472.
- Flax factory in Egypt, 106.
- Flint axes from Syria, 98.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

518

INDEX.

- "Floating" and flying coins, ii. 158.
 Flocks and herds given to the temples
 by Gudea, 247.
 Flowers used in Egypt, 162.
 Fo = Buddha, worship of, introduced to
 China, ii. 109, 116.
 Fong and Chan sacrifices, ii. 36, 106 ;
 imperial gifts after, 107.
 Foo-chow, great port of Fokien, ii.
 218.
 Food, cheap and abundant in ancient Egypt, 66, 73 ; the antidote to the mortal poison of hunger, ii. 129 ; food and fodder plants of Western Asia, i. 231.
 Foot, length of Babylonian and Egyptian, ii. 433 ; of Roman, 434.
 Foot soldier, hardships of, painted by Egyptian scribes, 138.
 Forced labour and subsistence wages,
 67, 68, 88.
 Foreign commerce in ancient Egypt,
 94 ; foreign princesses carried off to Egyptian harems, 294 ; foreign policy of the Hans, ii. 110 ; trade at Canton, ib. ; alliances of China under the Tang, 139 ; trade, imperial monopoly of foreign, 221,
 225 ; trade, regulations of foreign,
 236 ; foreign commerce under the Ming, 260.
 Foreigner, the, in Egypt, ii. 415.
 Forest of Tablets, ii. 477.
 Foretelling forbidden, ii. 361.
 Formula of mutual renunciation of relationship, 362.
 Fortification in Peru, ii. 454.
 Fortress, plan of, on Gudea's statue,
 268.
 Fostering in China, ii. 69.
 Fou-hi, mythical emperor of China, ii.
 17, 144.
 Foundation of Massalia, story of, 462.
 Foundations, proverbs respecting, 248 ;
 foundations of Iulbar in Agani, sought by Kurigalzu, 288 ; of houses apt to get out of order, 341.
 Foundling, story of, 378.
 Foundry, bonus on production in Chinese, ii. 312.
 Four Mountains, title of Chinese officer, ii. 21 ; Four Philosophers, books of the, ii. 475.
 Four Regions, king of, 32 ; idea of, in Egypt, 39 ; title of, 273 ; "Four quarters of the world," a name for Peru, ii. 452.
 Four seas, within the, Chinese expression, ii. 12, 21.
 Fourth and Fifth Dyn. tombs, 50.
 Fourth Babylonian Dynasty of Pasi, 295.
 Fou-y, anti-Buddhist memorial of, ii.
 145, 146.
 Fractional ownership due to family partitions, 216.
 Fractions of a house owned, 342 ; fractions of 60 give names to numbers, ii. 435.
 Franciscan missions to China, ii. 231,
 232, 234, 235.
 Fraudulent promoter unknown in
 China, ii. 334.
 Free libraries, ii. 380.
 Freedom of contract, Locrian view of,
 452 ; freedom of the press, Chinese counterpart to, ii. 35 ; of speech and literature in ancient China, 79 ;
 free trade in coin, 155, 158, 162 ; freedom of contract in regard to loan and lease, ii. 422.
 French missionaries, why unpopular,
 ii. 377, 378.
 "Friend" or intimate of the king, a title in Egypt, 50.
 Friendship, Chinese formula for swearing, ii. 295.
 "From mouth to money," 338.
 Frontage, Chinese houses described by size of their, ii. 381.
 Frontier garrisons, provisioning of,
 ii. 245.
 Frontiers of Babylon and Assyria,
 289.
 Fu-lang, horses sent from, ii. 235.
 Funeral sacrifices, 158 ; monuments, changes in the character of Egyptian, 170 ; inscription on the darkness of death, 199.
 Gal-alim, son of god Ningirsu, 239,
 240.
 Galatians, twelve tetrarchies of, 422.
 Galeotto Perera, ii. 262.
 Game-preserving, Mencius on, ii. 40 ;
 not known in modern China, 374.
 Gamil or Ur-nindar, 273.
 Gamil-sin, contract tablets of, 259.
 Ganoul, daughter of Ur-bau, 262.
 Gaps in Babylonian dynastic table,
 297.
 Garden and fields distinguished, 341 ;
 modern Chinese gardens, ii. 381.
 Gaspar da Cruz, description of China and the Chinese, ii. 263, 264.
 Gate, justice done in the temple, 268.
 Gates named by Rameses II., and Rammannirari, 60, 290.
 Gatumdug, goddess mother of Lagash,
 239.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

519

- Gaulos, ancient temple of, called Giganteja, 405.
- Gaza, terminus of Arabian trade, 500, 508.
- Gebanites or Gabaan, 510.
- Geilfine family, ii. 492, 493.
- Genealogies, sister mentioned in remote generation of, 111; not valued in Egypt, 128; mother mentioned in Etruscan, 427.
- "General examination of records and scholars," ii. 479.
- Genghis khan and the Kin, ii. 175.
- Geographical bi-lingual, 361.
- Geographical "description of provinces and cities," ii. 27.
- Geology of Central Asia, ii. 3.
- Georgian laws, 458.
- Gerbillon, Father, acts as interpreter with Russia, ii. 275.
- Ghanna = fish, 261.
- Ghoundan, fort of Sana, 505.
- Gifts to the gods common after 12th Dyn. inscriptions, 155; of oil, Rhodian inscription concerning, 441; to wives and daughters, limited by Gortyn code, 478, 479; from mother to son do. do., 481; to children, Syro-Roman code on, 488; to wives, Syro-Roman code on, 489.
- Gilgames, name Izdubar or Gisdubar now read, 262; group of Gilgames and Heabani, 402.
- Gin-dung-nadda-addu, wife of Gudea, inscription to, 271.
- Gin-tsong, Sung emperor, ii. 169; urged to appoint an heir, 180.
- "Giver of names," 342, 379.
- Giving cloth, significance of Malabar marriage rite, 557.
- Glass making, a Phœnician industry, 403.
- Go-between, essential in land transfers, ii. 359.
- "Goddesses and gods, women and men," 271.
- Goes, Benedict, crosses Central Asia, ii. 269.
- Goethe's Wilhelm Meister, parallel to, in Chinese classics, ii. 32.
- Gold mines of Nubia, 95, 96; gold sent from Egypt to Babylonia, 292, 294; gold and silver in circulation in China, ii. 163; price of, in S.W. China, 218; proportionate value of gold and silver under the Ming, 253.
- Gordian, law of Emperor, 209.
- Gortyn code on offending husband, 366; Gortyn code, 467, 476-85.
- Gortyn, treaties between, and Cnossus and Lappa, 475.
- Government officials and pawn-shops. ii. 331.
- Grain, cultivation of, how suggested, 230; grain measured and money weighed, 339; "grain purchase by agreement," abuses connected with, ii. 152; grain-storage, system of, revived, 284, 285.
- Granaries, Chow Li on, ii. 33; Li Ki on, 35, 36; public, under the Mongols, 223, 224; private charitable, 361 n.; Peruvian, called pirua, 455, 456.
- Grand Canal, ii. 10, 17, 224, 225, 236.
- Grandchildren, Egyptian interest in posterity stops with, 125.
- Grand-daughter, eldest, mentioned in 12th Dyn. funeral inscription, 214.
- Grand lama does homage at Peking, ii. 274.
- Grasshoppers, confidential Chinese edict respecting, ii. 375.
- Gratitude of Chinese merchants, ii. 335.
- Graver, "house of the," 261; "he who bears the," 262.
- Graves, Egypt a land of, 66.
- "Great winds have a path," 237, ii. 6; "Great Plan," the, ii. 30; "Great College," 143; Great wall of China, line followed by, ii. 17, 100, 101, 105, 106, 245.
- Greater Leptis, Sidonian customs of, 407.
- Greek cities in Arabia, 516, 517; ships from Egypt trade with Malabar, 546; leases in form of mortgages, 572, 573; coins, ii. 448-51.
- Green mount planted by Kubla, ii. 233.
- Grosier, Abbé, on Wang-ngan-shi, ii. 180.
- Guanche vocabulary for relationships, 542; origin and remains of ancient population, 542-4.
- Guardian appointed by Egyptian father's will, 204.
- Guardianship of orphans by laws of Charondas, 449; of heiresses by Gortyn code, 481.
- Gudea, supposed to have imported stones from Sinaitic peninsula, 21; statues of, 25, 28; conquests of, in Elam, 233; inscriptions of, 242-7, 262; portrait statues of, 267; his rule, style and fortress plan, 268; comparative date of Sargon and Gudea, 267; products

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

520

INDEX.

- brought by his ships, 269; his account of his parentage, 271.
- Guggu, king of Luddu (Gyges, king of Lydia), 310.
- Gugua makes over her property conditionally, 374.
- Guild of merchants and ship-owners, 395, 398, 508.
- Guilds, Chinese traders', ii. 339.
- Gulkisar, endowment by, 343.
- Gursar, grandfather of a king of Lagash, 263.
- Guti, peoples "east" of Babylonia = Goyim, 265, 286; light-coloured slaves from, 340.
- Gyges, Egyptian alliances of, 313; Assurbanipal's account of, 310.
- Gynæocracy of Nairs and Towareks, 457.
- Ha, the Egyptian headman, 41.
- Habigal, dynasty of, 306.
- Hadee'yal, Arab war maiden called, 529.
- Hadendowa tribes of East Africa, 531.
- Hadramaut, government of, 528.
- Hagiar kini, monolithic doorway at, 405.
- Hahema, chief of Turfan, ii. 245.
- Halicarnassus, priesthood of Artemis sold at, 435; treaty concerning lands and houses between Halicarnassus and Lygdamis, 436; decree of, 490.
- "Hall of Two Truths," 73.
- Halys, battle of, 317; bridge across the, 414.
- Ham, derivation of the name, 26.
- Haman, name of, connected with Elamite Chumba-ba, 274.
- Hamdani, 496, 505.
- Hami, disputed protectorate over, ii. 265, 266.
- Hamitic stocks, branches of so-called, 28; African stocks akin to Egyptian may be called, 384; common points of Hamitic and Alarodian civilization, 424.
- Hamlet = five neighbourhoods, ii. 43.
- Hammamat, quarries of, 95, 96.
- Hammurabi and Burnaburias, dated by Nabonidus, 254; Hammurabi, otherwise Chammuragash, 258, 259; inscription of, naming Rimsin, 280; grandfather of, 282; inscriptions of, 282, 283; contract tablets of his age, 321.
- Han Dynasty, history of first, quoted, ii. 97; founder of, 104; distress in early days of, 108; fall of, 121.
- Handfasting, 205.
- Hang-chow = Khan-fu, Quinsay, or Kingsse, ii. 215, 220.
- Han-ki, "a man useful to others," ii. 148.
- Hanlin college founded, ii. 143; position of members of, 377.
- Han-ming-ti, ii. 116.
- Hannirabbat, king of, corresponds with Amenhotep III., 292.
- Han-wen-kung, see Han-yu, the Prince of Literature.
- Han-wen-ti (emperor Wen of the Han Dynasty), secret supplicator suppressed by, ii. 37; freedom of speech allowed by, 118; see Wen-ti.
- Han-wu-ti, emperor Wu of Han Dynasty, ii. 139; coinage of, 155, 156.
- Han-yu, poem on drums of Chow by, ii. 27; on Mencius and Mih, 89, 91; on examinations, 143; anti-Buddhist memorial of, 147, 148; quoted against reception of Ricci's offerings, 266; translated by Kang-hi, 276.
- Haqou about, title of Amten, 49.
- Haram Bilkis at Mareb, 506; inscription from, 507.
- Haran, men of, protected by Sargon, 308; = Kharran, "the road," 389.
- "Hard and white," treatises on the, ii. 88.
- Haritat, King, 512.
- Harrani, road, stands for business, trade, 238.
- Harris papyrus, gifts to the gods enumerated in, 176, 177.
- Hartitief, Prince, author of dark sayings, 122.
- Harvest, time of, in Egypt, 81; land changes hands after, in Babylonia, 341.
- Hasmar, son and palace of, 297.
- Hathor, patron goddess of five nomes, 150; princesses named as priestess of, 170.
- Hayton, Armenian prince, on Cathayans, ii. 216.
- Hazael besieged in Damascus, 299.
- He, duke of Loo, sacrifice against drought proposed by, ii. 51.
- Heaou, Duke of T'sin, ii. 97.
- Heaou, King or Classic of filial piety, ii. 476.
- Heaou or "after" Tsin, ii. 97; Heaou or after Tang, Leang, 165; after Han, after Chow, 166.
- "Heaven" and the "Lord of heaven" the same, ii. 276, 282.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

521

- "Heaven-sent" instincts of the people, ii. 92.
 Hebrew prophets on political situation, 315.
 Heen, King, contemporary of Mencius, ii. 28.
 Heeren on 'origin of Semitic race, 19.
 Heiresses, why numerous at Sparta, 483; laws common to Chalcidians and Rhægians on, 450; heiresses, 465; Gortyn code on, 480, 489.
 Heirship as well as sonship ascribed to the gods, 123.
 Hekate, temple of, at Lagina, 431.
 Hekatomnos Dynasty, names of, in use, 429.
 Heliopolis, chief priesthood of, 171.
 Helots, 465, 485.
 Heqab, Prince, "ruler of his father's heritage," 124; heir son, 489.
Her sesteta, title borne in 6th and 18th Dynasties, 61.
 Heracleidæ, date of, 416.
 Herakles, road called of, 402; archaic image of, imitated from Gilgames group, 402.
 Hereditary princes, their rights respected by Egyptian kings, 132; plots pledged rather than sold in Babylonia, 324; property, Thesawaleme on, 559; offices in Chow Li, ii. 55; governorships, attempts to restore, 134, 138; land not saleable for debt, 340.
 Heretical sects, Taoism and Buddhism, ii. 145.
 Hermias, suit concerning title of land by, 189.
 Hermopolis, priest of Thoth at, 172.
 Herodius of Alexandria, letter on Edict of Agriculture, 135.
 Herodotus on slaves' right of asylum, 92; on Egyptian priests, 55; chronological confusion of informants of, 132; on Egyptian animal pets, 149; on duty of Egyptian daughters, 219; apt beginning of his record, 311.
 Hezekiah, his allies against Assyria, 312.
 Hia, Little Calendar of, tr. by Biot, ii. 9; dynasty of, founded by Yu, 18; house-building favourite industry of the, 61.
 "Hidden sheep," sacrifice to, ii. 37.
 Hien-fung, recent Tsing emperor, ii. 289.
 Hien-tsung, Tang emperor, ii. 136; 147; treasury bonds issued by, 163.
 Hien-tsung-ming, lands taken from the people under, ii. 244.
 Hierapytna, treaties with, 474, 475.
 Hierarchy, Manual of Egyptian, tr. by Maspero, 61.
 Hieroglyph for priest, 157.
 Hierro, village enclosures in, 542.
 "High place," frequented by spirits in ancient China, ii. 37.
 High priest of Thebes, Heliopolis and Memphis, 63; of Apuat and nomarch of Siout, 158; of Ptah at Memphis, 164; of Amon at Thebes, of Osiris at Abydos, ib.; of Sais, son of, restored to office by Cambyses, 179.
 High roads of modern China, ii. 342.
 Highlands from Elam to the Caucasus, 413.
 Hilprecht, Prof., on inscribed slabs of lapis-lazuli; on Babylonian imprecations, 290.
 Himyarite coins, 508.
 Himyaritic inscriptions, 497.
 Hiouen-thsang, ii. 44, 125; on Khotan, 138, 144.
 Hiouen-tsung, Tang emperor, ii. 134; partiality for Taoism of, 144; abdication of, 173.
 Hired labour, contracts for, 338.
 Hirhor, usurpation of, 178.
 Hirusha, land of, 49.
 Hisn el Ghorab remains and inscriptions, 504, 505.
 "Histoire Générale de la Chine," tr. by Père De Mailla, ii. 479.
 Historical geography of Asia Minor, 414.
 "Historical Records" of Ssema-tsien, ii. 478.
 Historiographers, Board of, ii. 24; of Tse, courageous veracity of, 26; of Tai-tsou-ming, put to death, 239; complaints of eunuchs by, 246.
 History of Chinese pottery, translation of Nien's, ii. 280.
 Hittite country invaded by Assurnasir-apal, 298; power at its height, 291; kingdom, flourishing period of, 295; monuments, 386; remains, 413; remains and inscriptions, 414.
 Hittites mentioned in astronomical work, 278; Agukakrime's negotiations with, 286; of Syria, 412.
 Hoai-tsung, last Ming emperor, ii. 249, 250.
 Hoang-ho, change of course of, ii. 287.
 Hoarding of copper forbidden, ii. 160, 163; laws against, repealed by

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

522

INDEX.

- Wang-ngan-shi, 195; renewed in 1160, 196.
- Ho-chang and Tao-sse, Christians compared to sectaries of, ii. 277.
- Hoei-tsong, Sung emperor, given to trifles and Taoism, ii. 171, 172; abdicates, 173.
- Hoei-tze, private bonds, ii. 193, 196-8.
- "Hoes and cloth" = wealth, ii. 58.
- Hojjah, Queen Sayyidah as, 522.
- Holdings, size of average, ii. 192.
- Holy island of Diodorus, 514.
- "Homage of their commerce" desired from Tatars of Western Asia, ii. 109.
- Homogeneous character of Chinese civilization, ii. 290.
- Hong-mao, memorial against, ii. 277.
- Hong merchants, early parallel to, ii. 236, 335-7.
- Honorific decrees of Carian and Lycian cities, 431.
- "Honoured head" of the family, tablet of, ii. 69.
- Horemhib, edict of, 135-8.
- Horse, worship of, in China, ii. 37; trade with Tatar, 135, 258; fairs on Tatar frontiers, 240; demand for, 246-8.
- Horses on Egyptian monuments, 150; boarding out of, under the Innovator, 187; Chinese forbidden to keep, 230; price of, in tea, 238; "the people made to maintain," 240, 241; disuse of, in China, 257, 258.
- Horus and Set, patrons of Upper and Lower Egypt, 38; Horus or Horsiesi pleading for his father Set, 124; patron god of three nomes, 100; as the beloved son, 199.
- Hosea, 305, 306.
- Hospitality in Cretan towns, 469; in Kabyle villages, 468, 535.
- Hotel regulations of modern China, ii. 343.
- Hoti, Egyptian security called, 209.
- Ho-ti, emperor of Eastern Han, ii. 117; eunuchs employed by, 121.
- Hottentots resemble the Chinese, 541.
- Hounds of Lu, ii. 266.
- Hours of labour regulated by trade guilds, ii. 320.
- "House of books" and "house of instruction" in Egypt, 55; "house of fruits," mentioned in Telloh inscriptions, 246, 263; "house of the graver" at Lagash, 261; "house of night" of the goddess Nindar, 273.
- Housebuilding, vocabulary of, 233; ancient method of, in China, ii. 20.
- "Households, part of the Code for regulating," ii. 291.
- Houses, price of, in ancient Babylonia, 337; belong to women in Minicoy, 567; modern Chinese, ii. 381.
- How-qua, generous acts of, ii. 334, 335.
- How-tseih, legend of, 31, 276, ii. 18, 19.
- Hpt'faa, nomarch of Siout, endowment of, 158.
- Hsing = surname, character for, ii. 21.
- Hubuschia, country on the Upper Zab, 298.
- Huc, Father, quoted, 135.
- Hui-tze, Chinese sophist, ii. 87, 88.
- Human sacrifices last allowed by Mantchus, ii. 275.
- Hundred houses of Locrians, 417; Hundred or commune of four hamlets, ii. 44; houses of Chinese villages, 49; families, 107.
- Hundreds and tithings, duties of neighbours in, ii. 356.
- Hung-woo = Warlike Fortune, name of first Ming emperor's period, ii. 237.
- Huns, antagonism of, to Han traders, ii. 109; victory over northern, 117.
- Hunting, impropriety of excess in, ii. 129.
- Hunts, royal, in ancient China, ii. 31; of the Incas, 456.
- Husbands and wives, relative size of, on Egyptian monuments, 200; relations of, in ancient China, ii. 65-7; proposed to make Malabar husband his wife's guardian, 471.
- Hwai, the boundary between Kin and Sung empires, ii. 174.
- Hwang-ti, mythical emperor of China, ii. 16, 17, 29; sacrifice to, 37; the Yellow emperor, 92.
- Hwan-ti, ii. 115.
- Hway, king of Seang, rebuked by Mencius, ii. 33.
- Hydrussa, ancient name for Tenos, 437.
- Hyksos inscription, ideal of domestic virtue in, 198.
- Ia-mukin-sumi, son of Hasmar, 297.
- Iasilikaia, uncertain sex of figures in bas-reliefs of, 439.
- Iberian constitution according to Strabo, 457; migration, line of, 460.
- Iberians, communism of Spanish, 514; of Transcaucasia, 455.
- Ibn Batuta, description of Malabar, 563; on China, ii. 215, 255, 256.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

523

- Ibn Khaldun on Berbers, 535.
 Ibn Khordadbeh on Jewish merchants in China, ii. 140, 217.
 Ibn Rashid, 502.
 Ibru-naharan, of Minæan inscriptions, 500, 501.
 Ice, use of, in ancient China, ii. 4.
 Ichneumon in Egyptian wall paintings, 150.
 Iddina-marduk, merchant and money lender, 348, 350, 355; slave mortgaged by, 355.
 Ideals of Chinese thinkers, ii. 96.
 Ideogram for mother, 361.
 Ideograms gradually superseded by syllabic signs, 234; similarity of Akkadian and Chinese, ii. 485, 486.
 Igigi, spirits of heaven, 233; Igigi and Annunaki war against Pennsylvanian expedition, 290.
 Ihi-Samas, eldest son of Ubarsin, divides paternal inheritance, 328.
 Ilani-erba, or Ilu-erba, deals in land and renounces his mother, 328, 364.
 Ilsahr, king of Saba, 507.
 Iltani, a woman with separate property, 368.
 Iltani, the sister of Taramka, marriage contract of, 369.
 Iluvars, Malabar caste derived from Ceylon, 554.
 Images of gods recovered by Agukakrime, 286.
 Immeru, one contract tablet of reign of, 284.
 Immovables, law of Egypt on, 196.
 Imoschag, name used by Towareks or Touaregs, 539.
 Imperial college, ii. 143; college founded at Nanking, 254; dynasty did not always govern all China, 10; farms, establishment of, 244; progresses objected to, 246; herds, regulations of Chow Li on, 52; library founded, 143; library presided over by Hioen-thsang's grandfather, 144; manifesto in time of scarcity, 112; receptions, Mongol etiquette at, 232; sacrifices offered by prince of T'sin, 81.
 Imprecation, forms of, 343, 344; against destroyers of records, by Gudea, 244; of Rammannirari and Tiglath-pileser, 290.
 Inalienable family lands, ii. 358.
 Incas, royal marriage customs of, 110, ii. 454; titles and policy of, 453.
 Income tax, graduated under the Tang, ii. 151; levied on large land owners, 229.
 Indebtedness not a criminal offence in Babylonia, 356.
 "Independence of mind" of Malayali, 549.
 India, land trade between Mesopotamia and, 232; trade between Arabia and, 519; communication between Western China and, ii. 215.
 Individual rights, Chinese limits to, ii. 357.
 Inequality of wealth, Cretan laws meant to discourage, 467.
 Infanticide unknown in Egypt, 72.
 Inheritance of children in Egypt, 200; inheritance of father and sister divided in Babylonia, 368; Gortyn code on, 477-9; Syro-Roman law book on, 494; law of, in Oman, 528; in East Africa, 532, 533; among Kabyles of Algeria, 537; rules of, in Canaries, 543; inheritance and descent through women of royal families in Malabar, 550; of children from both parents, Thesawaleme on, 560; division of, in Wang family, ii. 301.
 Inner tribunal of eunuchs, ii. 137.
 Innkeepers transmit goods securely, ii. 341.
 Innovations, mode of introducing praiseworthy, ii. 375.
 Innovator, the, see Wang-ngan-shi.
 Inoculation introduced in China, ii. 213.
 Inscription of workmen employed by Agukakrime, 286; inscriptions on shields, ornaments, etc., in Berber characters, 540, 549; faithfully reproduced by Chinese scholars, ii. 27; inscriptions of T'sin Dynasty, 100; on ancient Chinese staffs, ii. 497.
 Instruction to follow wealth and prevent class distinctions, ii. 32.
 Instructions of Amenemhat, 78, 84, 106.
 "Insubordinate son" in Algeria, 538.
 Insurance system not used in China, ii. 379.
 Interest, rate of, in China, 185; Egypt and in some Kabyle tribes, 187; limited by Bocchoris, 193; rate of, for agricultural loans in Egypt and Babylonia, 193, 334; evasion of laws against compound, in Egypt, 195; rate of, in Babylonia and Nineveh, 322; origin of, 323; interest on loans sometimes paid to temples, 332; rate of, reckoned sexagesimally, 334; allowed to

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

524

INDEX.

- double the principal, 346; rate of, in Georgia, 459; in Ceylon not to exceed principal, 569; essay on interest in China, ii. 323; benefit of loans at, 325, 326, 328; maximum rate of, in China, 327; interest on loans made to determine rents, 347.
- Interment, rites of, performed by special class in Crete, 482:
- Interruptal gifts, limited by Gortyn code, 478.
- Interval between marriage and "establishment," ii. 67.
- Intramural burial forbidden in Egypt and China, 163; under Gudea, 243.
- Inundations from Chinese rivers, ii. 10; of Hoangho, 230.
- Ionia, Carians and Leleges occupying, 417.
- Ionian and Carian mercenaries in Egypt, 313, 315.
- Irba-marduk, 291 n. ¹.
- Irba-sin, founder of fifth Babylonian Dynasty, 297.
- Irish law tracts of loans, pledges, etc., ii. 420.
- Iritisen, his wisdom, 102; his family, 110.
- Iron bar as standard of value, 538; iron foundries, scale of, in China, ii. 358; iron money of Leang Dynasty, 158; in Fokien and Sz'chuen, 193-5; sources of, i. 232.
- Irrigation works, decay of, under Ptolemies, 76; Egyptian methods of, 79; phrases concerning, 341; irrigation of Etruscans, 426; irrigation and other remains in Transcaucasia, 459; irrigation works at Kohaiti, ? ancient Koloe, 510; irrigation and agriculture in Peru, ii. 454.
- Irtabi, daughter of a Babylonian king, 294.
- Isaac, holy father, 160.
- Isaurian inscription giving mother's name in genealogy, 434.
- Ishmaelites and Midianites in story of Joseph, 500.
- Island of spirits with snake king, Egyptian story of, 517.
- Island of women, original of legendary, 454.
- Ismail Pasha, 72.
- Ismi-dagon, king of Nisin, 273.
- Ispuinas, inscriptions of, 302.
- Istar, animals enamoured of the goddess, 250; kings of Ur call themselves husbands of, 273.
- Isullanu, the gardener beloved of Istar, 250.
- Itahuantui-suya, Peru called, ii. 452.
- Italian trade with China, ii. 233; Chinese labourers compared with Italian, 314; Italian and Egyptian weights, 447.
- Itamara the Sabæan = King Jethamar, 507.
- Itti-bel, father of Sargon of Agade, 257.
- Itti-marduk-baladu succeeds his father Nebo-ahi-iddin, 352, 353, 357.
- Jade gate or Yu-mon passage, 18, 95; Chinese enthusiasm for, 232.
- Jaffna, customary laws of, 559, 569.
- Janmi or jenmkar, Malabar landowner, 569.
- Japan, Chinese intercourse with, ii. 130.
- Japanese pirates, inroads of, ii. 247.
- Jareb of Hosea perhaps = Irba or Iriba, a name for Sargon, 307.
- Jati, the Deliverer, Minæan king's title, 502.
- Jaua, son of Humri = Jehu, the son of Omri, 299.
- Jedail Bajjan, son of Karibail Watar, 507, 508.
- Jedail Dirrih, works at Mareb by, 506, 507.
- Jehoahaz carried into Egypt, 316.
- Jehoiakim submits to Nebuchadnezzar, 317.
- Jekrubmalik Watar, king of Saba, 507.
- Jenm or Janmam = hereditary freehold, 569.
- Jenm right valued at one-third the estate, 573; successive parts transferred by deed, 574.
- Jenmkar, see Janmi.
- Jeremiah, foreign policy of, 316.
- Jerusalem, orientation of temple at, ii. 441.
- Jesuit missionaries, first, ii. 248.
- Jesuits implicated in dynastic intrigues, ii. 281.
- Jethaamar or Jetaamir Bajjan, 507.
- Jews, fair complexion of Eastern, 26.
- John of Florence (De' Marignolli), ii. 235.
- Joint ownership in Georgia, 458.
- Josiah slain at Megiddo, 316.
- Juao and Thuao, Egyptian names of Queen Tii's parents, 293.
- Judah, kingdom of, increases in importance, 296.
- Judgments on bad rulers, ii. 33.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

525

- Jupiter Triphylus, temple to, in Panara, 514.
- Jus gentium, whence derived, 10.
- Just weights and measures, 75.
- Justice, administration of, in Egypt, 56, 86; justice and wealth of Chinese in 9th cent. A.D., ii. 141; Chinese administration of justice, ii. 264, 265.
- Justified, also rendered véridique, term for righteous dead, 73.
- Justinian on Armenian succession, 559.
- Kabyle, partnerships and rahnia pledges, 187, 534; Kabyle, Chinese and Egyptian rate of interest, 193; betrothal and marriage distinct among Kabyles, 206; Kabyle communism, 469; Kabyles of Algeria, customs of, 538, 539; complexion, 534; local government, 534-6; public hospitality among, 535; kanouns or customary codes, 536; law of inheritance, 537.
- Kahun, wills found at, 203.
- Kak, temple of, endowed by Amenhotep the wise, 159.
- Kaldu, land of the Chaldæans, 264.
- Kallima-sin, perhaps same as Elishkullimasin, 292.
- Kallisthenes and Aristotle on Babylonian chronology, 256.
- Kam't, or "black land," 26.
- Kanam or mortgage, sometimes a rent paid in advance, 570; fines payable on renewal of, 574.
- Kang-hi, ii. 217 = Profound peace, period of, 274, 281; sacred edict of, 356, 357.
- Kansu, province of, the ancient Yung, formerly a part of Shensi, ii. 18.
- Kanuri of Bornu, female descent among, 538.
- Kao-tsong, Sung emperor, ii. 174, 196.
- Kao-tsou, founder of Tang Dyn., ii. 132.
- Kaquimna, 40; Book of, 45, 46.
- Karaburias, named in Assyrian inscriptions, 290.
- Karahardas, king of Kardunias, dealings with Assyria, 288.
- Karaindas of Kassite Dyn., 288; temple built by, 289.
- Karakorum, furthest point reached by Rubruk, ii. 216.
- Karamat, daughter of Pisebkhan, 116.
- Kardunias, a name for Babylonia, 264; the "garden of the lord of the lands," 289.
- Kar-Istar, battles between Kardunias and Assyria at, 288.
- Karibail, brother of Ilsahr, king of Saba, 507.
- Karibail the Wise, inscription of, 506.
- Karibail Watar, 507, 508; inscription of, 509.
- Karnavan, senior member of tarwad, 555; powers of, compared to Basque seigneur, 556, 557.
- Karnu, chief city of Minæans, 498; modern Es-souda, 499.
- Karra-na-Samas, fortress of sun god, built by Hammurabi, 282.
- Karthlos, ? = Khaldis, 458.
- Karzi-jabku, grant to, 342, 343.
- Kasabeh, Arabian heiress, 509.
- Kashgar, tributary to China, ii. 117.
- Kassaba, size of reduced, 74.
- Kassi, Babylonia called land of the, down to 9th century, 296.
- Kassite kings of Babylonia, Egyptian correspondence with, 96; Kassite Dynasty, 258; relations of Kassites and Cushites to Chaldæans, 287; Kassites and Elamites, blanks in list of kings, 285; Kassite Dynasty contemporary with 18th and 19th Egyptian Dynasties, 291; Kassite names common down to Nebuchadnezzar, 296.
- Kassunadinabi, son of Sippai, 297.
- Katabothra, subterranean water channels, 422.
- Keang-yuen, mother of How-tseih, ii. 18.
- "Keeper of lost property," ii. 217.
- Kegler, President of Mathematical Board, ii. 281.
- Kelt-Iberian alphabet, affinities of, 462.
- Kema, queen-mother, 119.
- Kenna, workman who petitions Amenhotep about house, 58.
- Kepir, conjecturally identified with Byblos, 98.
- Keralolpatti, or origins of Kerala, 548.
- Kesra (Chosroes), son of Persian king Kobad, ii. 129.
- Kethuba, in Jewish marriage contracts, 367.
- Keturah = incense, 503.
- Kha or double, theory of, 153, 160.
- Khafra-ankh, tomb of, 50; dog represented on, 149; priest of the pyramid of Khafra, 152.
- Khaldias or Khaldiaks = Chalybes, 304.
- Khaldis, Urardhian deities, ? = Karthlos, 303.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

526

INDEX.

- Kharoubas, associated Kabyle villages, 534.
- Khenmes, Egyptian steward or agent, 83.
- Khien-ao, uncivilized charity of, ii. 75.
- Khita or Hittites, 386.
- Khitan empire, height of its power, ii. 170.
- Khitan Tatars invited by After Tsin, ii. 165; Khitan government civilized, 168.
- Khnum, patron god of three nomes, 150.
- Khnumhotep, 78, 112; endowment of ancestral temple of, 156.
- Khorsabad, iron found at, 232; palace of Sargon at, 250.
- Khotan, ancient city of, 15; embassy to China from, ii. 158; "tribute" from, 215.
- Khrishna and Lakshmi = baron and feme, ii. 462.
- Khuenaten = Amenhotep IV., 120.
- Khufu, Khafrankh, priest of his pyramid, 50.
- Kia-king, recent Tsing emperor, ii. 289.
- Kiao-tze or bills of exchange, ii. 193, 195.
- Kieh and Chow, ii. 89, 91.
- Kien-lung's History of Ming Dynasty, ii. 238, 239; Kien-lung = "protection of heaven," period of, 274, 286-9; edict of, 358; on title by registration, 359.
- Kien-wen-ti, grandson of Tai-tsouming, deposed by his uncle, ii. 239.
- Kin inherit conquests of the Leao, ii. 173; Dynasty of, falsely said to have been ruined by literati, 179.
- Kindred, duties of, ii. 379.
- King, duke of Sung, refuses to divert calamities, ii. 36, 37.
- King-I on copper money, ii. 197.
- Kingi, ancient name of land of Sumer and Akkad, 230.
- Kings of Saba and Raidan, 507.
- King-te-ching, imperial pottery works at, ii. 256.
- King-ti succeeds his captive brother, ii. 243.
- Kinistan, ? Samarcand, ii. 149 n.
- Kinsay = Kingsse, capital (Hangchow), ii. 220.
- Kin-tsong, Sung emperor treats, as inferior, with Kin, ii. 173; taken prisoner, 174.
- Kishlak or village group in Badakshan, ii. 44.
- Knife money, ii. 58, 59.
- Knots used for records in Peru, ii. 456.
- Kobad, Persian king, ii. 128.
- Koloe, remains of, at Kohaito, 510.
- Koluhpannam*, or "ploughshare pledge," answering to Babylonian mortgage, 571.
- Komogrammats, 139.
- Kong-sun-yang, see Chang Yang.
- Konia = Iconium, inheritance by women in 13th century at, 435.
- Koshinga, pirate or privateer, ii. 275.
- Kouyundjik, mounds of, 315.
- Kuban stele, 97.
- Kubla, capture of Tali by, ii. 177; plants trees, 222, 233; vicarious charities of, 224; Chinese estimate of, 225.
- Kudatku Bilik, Uigour poem, ii. 173.
- Kudur Lagamar, name identified with Chedorlaomer, 259.
- Kudur-mabug, 260; father of Rimsin, 279.
- Kudurnanchundi, Elamite king, 258.
- Kukullanu buys and rents land, 347.
- Kung-chiu, Chinese Giotto, ii. 61.
- Kurasch (Cyrus) = shepherd, 233.
- Kuri, Dravidian lottery, 568; Chinese parallel to, ii. 332.
- Kurigalzu recovers tablet of Dungi from Elam, 254 n.; the "unequaled" king, 288; statue set up by, 289.
- Kurigalzu the younger, 288, 289.
- Kustaspi of Kummuh (Commagene), 305.
- Kwan, ballad of Prince, ii. 489.
- Kwang-tsong, Sung emperor, ii. 175.
- Kwan-tse on trade and luxury, ii. 324.
- Kwan-tze or frontier bonds, ii. 193.
- Labour cheap in ancient Egypt, 73; hardships of, drawn by scribes, 105; labour tax in China, ii. 37, 38; under the Tang, 151; conditions of, in China, 296; unstinted application to the soil of, 305, 306; conditions of, fixed by custom, 312; labour tax in Peru, 455, 456.
- Labourer, corn produced by one in Egypt, 174; hired out by father or mother in Babylonia, 338, 339; best off in richest districts of China, ii. 314; not to be employed by officials without authority, 365.
- Labranda, temple belonging to the city of, 419 n.; Carian temple of, 514.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

527

- Ladak, marriage and succession in, 558.
- Lady of the house, name for the lawful wife in Egypt, 122, 125, 204; sense of the phrase in Malabar, 552.
- Lagash = Sirgulla, Sirbulla, Shirpurla, etc., 239.
- Laiish and the men of Dan, 390.
- Laissez faire*, growth in China of the doctrine, ii. 153.
- Lake Moeris, 76.
- Lamazou, wife of Pirhoum and Ilanierba, 329.
- Lamentations of Isis and Nephtys, 111.
- Land surveyors one of three classes in Egyptian enumeration, 78; land tax or rent in Egypt, 130; lands held ex officio, 129, 132; land of the soldiers, the priests, the king, and the "remaining lands," 139; land let for cultivation by the year, 188; increase in number of private landlords, 189; registration of land in Egypt, 189, 190; land of Punt, station between Egypt and Babylonia, 270; land paid for in kind, 344; land measured by seed, 354; ownership of, in East Africa, 532, 533; landed property in hands of Towarek women, 539; "land or a garden" = property in town or country, 562; land measured by seed in Malabar, 570; land tenure and taxation under the Han, ii. 150; land tax remitted on reclaimed land, 152; granted rent free to cultivators, 190; granted to district colleges, 210; land tax, penal character under Yung lo, 240; grants of land to imperial relations, 244; registered for taxation, 252; for cultivation, how obtained, 303; owned by families, 309; cost of small plots, 314, 315; land sold after a famine restored to original owners, 358; not to be taken up in large quantities, 357; may not be sold to a creditor, 358; land and buildings sold separately, 359; partition of, in Peru, 455.
- Lane, on cost of living in Egypt, 72; on funeral of tyrannical Bey, 74; on property buried with the dead, 162.
- Language of Mitani, letter of Tush-ratta in, 293.
- Lao-tze, Confucius' confession to, ii. 84, 87; doctrine of his followers, 92; his theory of perfection, 93, 94; Lao-tze and Buddhism, 147.
- Lapis-lazuli, called blue stone of Babel, 232.
- Laranda and other typical names, 418 n.
- Large estates, management of, in Egypt, 106, 107; discouraged in China, ii. 50; large estates under the Sung, 190, 191.
- Larissa, range of the name, 418; supposed city in Arabia, 517.
- Larsa, early kings of, 254; Larsa, a city of Sumer, 264; identified with Ellasar of Genesis, 266; founded by Ur Bau, 272; kings of, 278; perhaps connected with Larissa, 418.
- Lasi-rab, king of Gutu, 265 n.
- Later Egyptian monarchy, ii. 408.
- Latifundia* in ancient Egypt, 67, 79.
- Lato, inscription of, 472 n.; treaties between Lato and Olus, 475.
- Law suit between Sininana and Ibbasin, 329.
- Laws of Egyptians in eight books, 56; civil and domestic customary law, 181-223; Babylonian do., 320-79; Akkadian law tablet, 360-71; Mazaceni, laws of, 416; Rhodes, maritime law of, 443; Charondas, laws of, 445 ff.; of Zaleucus, 447, 448; of the Massalians, 452; Georgian laws, 458 ff.; of Crete and Sparta, 467 ff.; Gortyn laws, 476-85; Syro-Roman laws, 487-95; Sabæan marriage law, 523; Kabyle laws, 535; ancient Chinese laws, see Chow Li; laws against Taoism, ii. 206; modern Chinese laws, ii. 344-74.
- Lawyers, no such profession in China, ii. 371.
- Layard, Sir Henry, on fair Jews, 26.
- Leagues and covenants between feudal princes, ii. 80.
- Leang Dynasty, financial experiments of, ii. 158.
- Leao Dynasty, ii. 166; said to have been ruined by Buddhists, 179; representatives of early, 248.
- Learned ladies-maid of Chinese novel, ii. 296.
- Learning, praises of, 104.
- Lease of Ptolemy Philopator, 188; tablets concerning leases, 334; lease of sacred pastures, 438; lease and mortgage combined, 358; lease and loan in China, 358, 363; doctrine of, 421-3; leases

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

528

INDEX.

- as security for loans in Ireland, 420-3.
- Legal day's work, duration of, in China, ii. 310.
- Legal documents, how preserved in Egypt, 190.
- Legendary races of Greece, 417, 418.
- Legislators, semi-mythical Greek, 425.
- Legitimate, Egyptian law regards all children as, 215.
- Leleges, wall of, at Iassus, 428; Leleges and Carians, tradition respecting, 428.
- Lelex, matriarchal story concerning, 417.
- Lemnos, pre-Hellenic inscription from, 28, 387, 417, 418.
- Leo the Isaurian sends embassy to China, ii. 139.
- Lepsius on origin of Phœnicians, 385.
- Le-Sze, Premier of Tsin-hwang-ti, ii. 101, 103.
- Letters conveyed by private carriers, ii. 341.
- Lettres édifiantes*, imperial charities described in, ii. 279, 285.
- Leuco-Syrians, 386; in Asia Minor, 414; Leuco-Syrian religion, 420.
- Li, king of Chow, ii. 78.
- Li, various meanings of, ii. 42; according to Semedo, 271.
- Liaio, see Leao.
- Liaou-tchi on luxury and extravagance, ii. 324.
- Libit-adar, 273.
- Libraries and schools in ancient Egypt, 55.
- Lieh-tze, Taoist, quoted, ii. 94, 95.
- Light-haired stocks, 27.
- "Light" and "heavy" money of Chinese economists, ii. 157.
- Li-ke-yong, "the one-eyed dragon," ii. 165.
- Li Ki, on avoiding the name, ii. 25; on revenue and expenditure, 35; on fiscal usages of antiquity, 38; on official salaries, 49; on public works, 61; on mourning for a nurse, 69; on duties of children, 73, 74; on rules of ceremony, 85; on fortifications, 106; on education, 118; date of, 475.
- Li-ma-teou, Chinese name of Matteo Ricci, ii. 266.
- Limu or eponyms in Assyria, 300.
- Limurike, ? Tamilike, 545.
- Lin-tin, controversy with Choo-hi of, ii. 207.
- Lin-tsung-yuan, sympathises with Buddhism, ii. 148; apologue by, 152.
- Lin-wen-hi on Ming degeneracy, ii. 326.
- Lion, Akkadian name for, 231.
- Lists of Babylonian kings, 257; of officers and functions from Kouyundjik, 342.
- Literary controversies in China, ii. 206; literary and æsthetic diversions, 381.
- Literati, complaints of northern, ii. 241; doctrine of, one of the three religions of China, 267; Jesuits adopt the dress of, 266.
- Literature, losses to, between the Han and Souy Dynasties, ii. 130; under the Tang, 143.
- Li-tse-ching, rebel emperor, ii. 250.
- Li-tsong, Sung emperor, ii. 250.
- Little Delos = Puteoli, 395.
- Littleton on mortgages, ii. 417.
- Liturgies, or funeral services, charges for, 166; sale of, with other property, 167.
- Lixus, remains of, 404.
- Lo, Ming artist in pottery, ii. 256.
- Loans in Egypt, China, and Babylonia, 194; of grain from Babylonian temples, 246; loans and leases, parallelism between, 323; of corn and money in ancient Babylonia, 332; at interest in Assyrian deeds, 345; distinction between loans for necessity, trade, and prodigality, ii. 327.
- Local organization under the Chow, ii. 42-4; local government, working of, in China, 361.
- Locrians called Leleges, nobles count descent through women, 417; Locrians as ship-builders, 452.
- Loess, districts of China, ii. 3, 6; theory of loess formation, 7.
- Log huts in Asia Minor, 415.
- Longevity, instances of, in China, ii. 244 n.
- Long-life loan companies, ii. 377 n.
- Loo and Chow, relations between, ii. 81.
- Lost property, Mongols and Ortos' rules concerning, ii. 279.
- Lottery loans or money clubs, ii. 332, 333.
- Lou-siou-fou, last adherent of Sung Dyn., ii. 177, 178.
- Loutea, the literati, ii. 264.
- Low prices in 17th century China, ii. 264, 270.
- "Lower sea" in Gudea's inscriptions, 269.
- Loyalty to a dynasty not patriotism, ii. 179.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

529

- Loyang the eastern court, ii. 106.
Lugal-girinna, called Sargon, ii. 259.
Lulumi, 289.
Lusitanians and Lacedæmonians, 460.
Luxury denounced under the Hans,
ii. 111; Chinese writers on economic effect of, 324-327.
Lycian monuments to women, 427; settlements deserted in summer time, Herodotus on, 428; league of 33 towns, 429; method of tracing descent through mother, 429; Lyciarchissa and other offices, 432.
Lyctus, inscription of, 471; treaties with, 475.
Lycurgeoan views of Chinese general, ii. 112.
Lycurgus, Herodotus on, 466; legislation of, 467; Rhetra, 472; innovations, probable character of his, 485.
Lydia reconciled with the Medes, 317.
Lydian influence on Greek religions, 416.
Lydians, invention of retail trade ascribed to, 416.
- Mabiou, M. Maspero on the, 57.
Macao, Portuguese factory at, ii. 262; foreign trade restricted to, 275.
Macartney, embassy of Lord, ii. 238.
Maccarius S., 207.
Macrones, descendants of ancient, 439.
Madhi and Misru, strife between, 500.
Magan, Miluch, Gubi and Nituk, 269; mines of, worked in third Egyptian Dynasty, 270.
Magistracies of 5, 10, and 30 at Carthage, 393.
"Magistrate's china," ii. 256.
Magnesite found at Nipur, 250.
Magic powers of the Non-Human, 237.
Mago, quoted by Roman writers on agriculture, 409.
Magpa, husband of Tibetan heiress called, 558.
Mahaffy, Prof., his translation of Greek wills found in Egypt, 221.
Mahomedan money-lenders, ii. 227.
Mahomedans plundered by Chinese usurers, ii. 337.
"Maid of a village" in Samoa, 470.
Ma'in, kings of, 497, 502; Mainu Misran, 501; Ma'in and Jathil, kings of, 502; site and remains of, 503.
- Mainotes and Tzacונים, archaic dialects and modern customs of, 486.
"Maintenance," counterpart to English laws against, ii. 371.
Makarib, earliest Sabæan rulers called, 503.
Malabar, counterpart to Egyptian custom in, 183; all leases in Malabar have the form of mortgages, 323; mortgages in Malabar, 354; Malabar and Egyptian husbands, parallel between, 550; parallel to Egyptian marriage contract, 554; lotteries or money clubs in, 566; Malabar and Egyptian tenure compared, 569, 570, 574; Malabar marriage act, proposals for a, ii. 458; parallel to Egyptian husband's contributions, 473.
Malayalam, how related to Tamil, 545.
Malayali and Basque parallel to Egyptian marriage contracts, 211; date of earliest Malayali deeds, 545.
Male and female assemblies of Mini-coy, 567.
Maleficent powers of the air, 237.
Mallas and Malayali, ii. 440.
Malta, language, etc., of, 404.
"Man the son of his god," 237; man and citizen synonymous in Sumer and Akkad, 266.
Mana, Samoan conception of, 236.
Man-chan advocates free trade and loans at interest, ii. 326.
Mandarin dialect compared to Latin, ii. 264.
Mandeville, after Odoric, on innkeepers of Jamchay, ii. 223.
Manetho, 38, 42; ii. 399.
Mang-tze, see Mencius.
Manichæism or Magianism in China, ii. 149.
Manna, people of, 311.
"Manner of the Zidonians," 390.
Mantchu Dynasty, foundation of, ii. 248; emperor revenges his father's murder, 249; dynasty established, 249-251; soldiers not allowed to borrow, 279; emperors, vacant lands granted by, 357.
Mantchu Christian, arguments addressed to, ii. 282.
Mantua, duodecimal divisions in, 424.
Manual of precedence, 76.
Manufactures in Egypt, 100; combined with agriculture in China, ii. 304-307.

VOL. II.—P.C.

M M

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

530

INDEX.

- Manumission of slaves and their children in Egyptian wills, 222.
- Manorial value of Nile water, ii. 410.
- Manzi, ii. 216.
- Maonites, various readings for, 499.
- Mapillahs, origin of, 546; as tenants in Malabar, 573.
- Marco Polo on climate of Badakshan, 16; on island of women, 455, 567; arrives at the court of China, ii. 177; on paper money, 198; his journeys in China, 218; his description of China, 219; of Chinese manners and customs, 220; on population of Hang-chow, 221; hosteleries and highways, 222: lake Si-hou and water parties, 223; public granaries, 223, 224; orphan asylums and the grand canal, 224, 225; on paper money, 225, 226; revenue of Hang-chow, 226; return to Venice, 229.
- Marcus Aurelius, embassy from, to South China, ii. 117.
- Marduk (Merodach), called "Supreme Patesi," 262.
- Marduk abal iddin, see Marduk-apal-iddin.
- Marduk-apal-iddin, king of Babylon, 291; boundary stone of, 291, 342.
- Marduk-belatsuiqbi allied with Elam and Chaldæa, 300.
- Marduk-belusate rebels against his brother, 299.
- Marduknadinahi carries off Assyrian gods, 254, 296.
- Marduknadinsum, son of Nabupaliddin, 299.
- Marduknaziraplu, grandson of Nebo-ahi-iddin, 353.
- Marduksapikullat, 296.
- Mareb, dyke and elliptical temple of, 506.
- Maritime law of Rhodes, 443.
- Market, Egyptian, represented on 5th Dyn. tomb, 98; market police of Kabyles, 538; markets, Confucius and Mencius on cornering and monopolies, ii. 41; market regulations of Chow Li, 56, 60; market gardener, fable of the, 152; market price and rates to be paid by the state, 365.
- Marriage settlements in Egypt, 115; contracts, 204, 205, 207, 208, 210, 211, 215; contracts in Babylonia, 366-368, 369, 372, 373; laws of Charondas on second, 449; contracts registered at Myconos, 453; customs of Malabar kings, 549; and inheritance, law of, in Malabar, 576, ii. 461; gifts of silk limited in China, ii. 64; of the eldest son needed to found a dynasty, 67 n.; universal in China, 353; customs of Peruvians, ii. 454; a contract, 460.
- Married women appear as proprietors in Rhodian inscription, 442.
- Martu, south east of Babylonia, 265.
- Marumakatayan or "sister's sons' inheritance," ii. 548 ff.
- Mas, names beginning with, 408.
- Mashonaland gold mines, 405.
- Maspero, Manual of Egyptian hierarchy, 61.
- Massalia and Rhoda, coins of, copied, 402.
- Masters of the Hall of audience, 62.
- Ma-tang, Eunuch, patron of Ricci, ii. 266, 268.
- Mater familias*, mention of, in Plautus 407; the only householder, 552.
- Maternal grandfather, powers of, restricted, 488; maternal uncle, powers of, in Africa, 532; importance of, in Arabia, 521.
- Ma-twan-lin, Encyclopædist, ii. 16, 98, 100; on state purchases, 56; on Chow treasurer, 57; on primitive currency, 58; on examinations, 73; budget of Wei cultivator, given by, 113; on agrarian economy of the Tang, 150-152; Vissering's translations from, 158; on Tang laws against hoarding, 161; end of his work, 189; on students' fees, 209; on crowded population, 219; continuator of, 255; "General Examination of Records and Scholars," 479.
- Mawan perhaps = Magan, 501.
- Mawijat, fortress of Hisn Ghorab, 505.
- Maxims of Ani on husbands and wives, 201-3; of Babylonian law, 338.
- Mazaceni, Strabo on the, 416, 538.
- Mazdek, Persian socialist, ii. 128-130.
- Measures of land, Mesopotamian, ii. 442; Egyptian do., 445, 446.
- Mecca, Makoraba, old name for, 503.
- Mechanic and peasant, little difference between, in China, ii. 310.
- Mechanical skill and resources of Egyptians, 100, 101.
- Medes, Cimmerians and Scyths, combined movements of, 314; Medes make Cyrus son of Astyages' daughter, 318.
- Media and Persia, 300.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

531

- Medical aid to government employees, ii. 372.
- Mehat en Susekh, grandmother of Shishak, 116.
- Mehemet Ali and the taxation of Egypt, 69, 74, 75; his tax on Waqf lands, 179; his irrigation schemes, ii. 411, 412.
- Memorial against discussions between scholars, ii. 207.
- Memphis, high priest of, concerned with funeral ceremonies, 166; chief priest of Ptah, 169; chief priesthood of, endowments of, 171; name has same meaning as Eridu, 252.
- Men and Mentiu, query connected, 501.
- Men and women, proportion of, according to Chow Li, ii. 71.
- Men of Letters, position of, in feudal China, ii. 82.
- Mencius' account of Confucius and the Chun Tsew, ii. 25, 26; on "getting the hearts of the people," 32; on murder and misgovernment, on over-taxation and fowl-stealing, 33, 34; on game preserving and results of benevolent government, 40; on Chief of the West, 45; on deforesting of hills, 52; on fostering, 69; on those who unite the princes in leagues, 80; on difference of dialects in different provinces, 80 n.; against profit seeking, 86; on life and righteousness, 87; quoted by Choo Hi on importance of agricultural statistics, 211.
- Mendez Pinto, Memoirs of, ii. 262.
- Mendoza's Hist. of China, ii. 262; on the literati, 264.
- Menes, 17, 38; dyke attributed to, 42, 75.
- Menkara, granddaughter of, 49; priest of, 50; inscription on coffin of, 112; chapter of ritual ascribed to his time, 122.
- Menodora, Pamphylian millionaire, 432.
- Menon = scribe, a common surname in Malabar, 564.
- Mentuhotep, judge under Usurtasen I., 56; benevolence of, 96; on rival brothers, 199.
- Mentuhotep, 11th Dyn. queen, 61.
- Menua, mountains of, in Gudea's inscriptions, 269.
- Menuas, mother of, 303.
- Merchant, epithets applied to, in syllabaries, 339.
- Merentra, pyramid of king, 50.
- Meri-antef, an eldest son, receives his father's office, 204.
- Merodach and Osiris, names written with same ideograms, 339; Merodach, son of Ea, 237; Merodach "filled a filling," ii. 20 n. (see also Marduk); Merodach and Zapanit, gifts dedicated to, 286.
- Merodach Baladan of Bit Jakin, 307; his citadel destroyed by Sargon, 309.
- Meruitensa, high steward of Neb-kan-ra, 58.
- Mesopotamia and Egypt, correspondence between, 120; restricted use of the term, 263.
- Metallurgy, traditional cradle-land of, 232.
- Metals known in Mesopotamia, 232; in ancient China, ii. 29; metal-working tribes, i. 401.
- Métayage, ancient Babylonian, not clearly described, 336.
- Mezzabarba, mission of, to China, ii. 277.
- Miao-tze, barbarian, subdued, ii. 287; sale of iron to, forbidden, 363.
- Michaux's stone, 344.
- "Middle Antiquity" of China, 22, ii. 14, 65, 121.
- Middle Empire, religious feeling during, 170.
- Middle Kingdom, ancient China so called, ii. 21.
- Midian, sons of, 503.
- Mih Teih, advocate of universal love, ii. 87-91.
- Mikrat-sin engaged in sales and partitions of land, 328, 331.
- Milesians, colony in West Arabia ascribed to, 516.
- Miletus, sexes eat apart at, 417; archangels of the planets worshipped at, 420.
- Military lands, in what sense hereditary, 129; military qualities of Egyptians, 242; military laws in China include stock farming, ii. 373.
- Mimuria, name of Thothmes III. in Tell el Amarna tablets, 293.
- Minæan inscriptions—Haley: No. 535, 500; No. 578, 501; No. 392, 501; Glaser: No. 1000, 504; Nos. 485, 481, pp. 507, 509; date and bibliography of, 498.
- Minæans, history of, goes back to remote date, 270; Karna, chief town of, 509.
- Minanu and his son Ilani-ituram, parties to contracts, 328.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

532

INDEX.

- Minoptah I., son of Rameses II., 173.
 Mines and quarries used by Egyptians, 95.
 Ming Dynasty, founder of, ii. 230; Chinese 18th century, 237; its chronicles meagre, 245, 247; fall of, 251; Ming-shi compiled, 280.
 Ming-tsong, Sung Emperor, ii. 175.
 Minicoy, 454; the original island of women, 566-8; language and notation of, 546; physical features of, islanders, 568.
 Minimum wage in Chinese code, ii. 310.
 Minister of Rites, selection of scholars by, ii. 118, 120.
 Minor Hans, one of the three kingdoms, ii. 124.
 Minos, laws of Crete ascribed to, 465.
 Misru in Minæan inscription = Egypt, 500.
 Missionaries, edict banishing Christian, ii. 277.
 Mitani, kingdom of, 291; Tushratta, king of, 293; afterwards Bit Adini, 298.
 Mizwad, earliest Minæan rulers called, 503.
 Mnemonēs at Halicarnassus = Recorders, 436.
 Mnoians of Crete, 465.
 Moderate taxation, ii. 263.
 Modern Chinese, courtesy and hospitality of, ii. 293, 294.
 Moharrak, fresh-water springs at sea off, 515.
 Mommsen on triple divisions of Græco-Italians, 421.
 Monasticism in China under the Tang, ii. 146, 149.
 Money, not used in ancient Egypt, 197; money weighed and grain measured in Babylonia, 339; "money of separation," 366, 367; money cast by Yu and Tang, ii. 57; issued by cities, merchants and traders' monetary unions, 58, 59; money changers, Chinese dexterity as, 198; charges of Dravidian money-lender, 566.
 Mongols, first appearance of, ii. 174, 175; besiege Cai-fong-fu, 176; copper-bearing provinces fall into the hands of, 196; Mongol code published, Mongols introduced to Han-lin college, 230; fall of, 231; militia of loyal, 278; princes, grants to Mongol, 379.
 Monogamy the Egyptian ideal, 121; marriage settlements work in favour of, 217; of Sabæans, 523; still prevalent in nominally Mahomedan tribes, 539; the rule in Canary Isles, 542; commoner in Malabar than supposed, 550, ii. 466; of Minicoy islanders, i. 567.
 Monopolizers and unfair traders, law against, ii. 368.
 Montecorvino, John of, Bishop of Cambalec, ii. 231.
 Months of Akkadian calendar, ii. 437.
 Monuments, two types of feature on earliest Egyptian, 25; built with surplus wealth, 69; descriptive sentences from the, 81.
 Moplaks or Mapillaks, 546.
 Morimene, temple of, 419.
 Mortality of Egyptian expeditions recorded, 90, 96.
 Mortgage or pledge without possession in ancient Egypt, 182; wife's dowry secured by, 209; mortgages and sales by various parties, 329, 330; peculiar form of, in Tenos inscription, 437; mortgages multiplied in civil disorders, 437; mortgages and sales in Tenos inscription, 453; mortgages on Cymæan porticos and Halicarnassian stoa, 463; of slaves in Gortyn code, 485; mortgages and dowries in Ceylon, 561, 562; Chinese law of mortgages, ii. 362.
Mortuum vadium, or mortgage, ii. 416, 417.
 Moschi, land of, 312.
 Moses of Chorene on Chinese, ii. 130.
 "Mother law," traces of, 9.
 Mother of Amten not a lady of property, 49; mother mentioned in funeral inscriptions and papyri, 112; mother's father, inheritance from, 111, 114; Egyptian view of the mother's claims, 200; mother of children, her claim for maintenance, 206; mother mentioned in deeds concerning children, 215; goddess called mother of the children of the town, 269; mother and daughter renounce each other, 365; mother's family name used by Latinized Etruscans, 427; mother's family may inherit by Syro-Roman code, 494; mother or eldest lady rules Malabar household, 555; mother maintained by sons in East Africa, 531; mother of Kien-lung, ii. 288; mother, customary rights of Chinese, 347-50; tales of heroic mothers, 349, 350; Peruvians best

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX

533

- informed about provinces of their mothers, 453.
- Motley on European admiration for Chinese, ii. 85.
- Mougel, the Barrage engineer, ii. 413.
- Mou-hou-fou, religion of, ii. 149.
- Mount Oui, sages of, sacrificed to, ii. 37.
- Mourning, term of, in East Africa, 533; degrees of, for relatives, ii. 68-70.
- Mouziris = Muyiri-kotta, 546.
- Moveables, law of, in Egypt, 196.
- Movement of population south and west, temp. Rameses III., 295.
- Mow, a ploughland, ii. 45.
- Mulberry planters on bad times, ii. 45.
- Mummification practised in Canaries, 544, and Peru, ii. 454.
- Municipal offices all filled by women in Lycia, 432.
- Music, profession of hereditary, in ancient China, ii. 54.
- Mut, action against priest of, 60.
- Mutabil, governor of Badanna, 278.
- Mutbal, land of, 279, 287.
- Mu-tsong-ming, ii. 248.
- Mütter-recht*, or female descent, 111, 113.
- Mutual aid preferable to taxing, ii. 35.
- Mutual relations or "belongings," rights of, in Ceylon, 560, 561.
- Mutual responsibility of neighbours enforced, ii. 151.
- Mycenæ, walls of, 405.
- Myconos, marriage settlements registered at, 561.
- Mylasa, inscription from, refers to leases in form of mortgage, 437, 573.
- Myrina, art of, 463, 464.
- Mythical emperors of China, ii. 17.
- Nabataean inscriptions, Egyptian parallel to, 116; Nabataean and Nair parallel to Egyptian marriage customs, 211; Nabataean inheritance, 438; Nabataeans = Nabatu, 511; marriage customs of, 511-13; Petra, capital of, 512; inheritance and descent among, 512; tombs entailed in the female line, 513; Nabataean Book of Agriculture, forgery of, 521.
- Nabonassar, Babylonian chronicle begins with, 304.
- Nabonidus, antiquarian zeal of, 253; may confound sosses and centuries, 255; antiquarianism and unpopularity of, 318, 319.
- Nabopolassar seizes Babylon for himself, 314; alliance with Media, 316.
- Nabuchodorosor, king of Pasi, 295.
- Nabupaliddin, king of Babylon, 299.
- Nabumiskum, wars and treaties with Rammannirari, ii. 297.
- Nad*, political division of Malabar, 547, 548.
- Naharina of Egyptian inscriptions, 291.
- Nai-hwangti, legendary Chinese emperor, 32.
- Nair, Bill of Mr. Sankaran, ii. 468.
- Nairi land, upper and lower lakes of, 270.
- Nairs, marriage law of, compared with Egyptian, 113, 457; Nairs compared to Plato's Guardians, 485; military, polyandrous, serpent worshippers, 546; assemblies, discussion and voting at, 549; support their mothers and sisters, 563; Nairs and Namboori (Nambutiri), priestly and military castes, 563.
- Nakhb el Hajar fortress, 504; doubtful renderings of inscription of, 509.
- Nambutiri Brahmins, 546; marriage customs of, 555; pretensions of, ii. 464.
- Names given to statues, gates, etc., in Babylonia, 272.
- Nam-magh-ni, son-in-law of Ur-bau, 262.
- Namrassit, king of Erech, 274.
- Nanking, capital of one of the Three Kingdoms, ii. 124.
- Naram-sin, foundation stone of, found by Nabonidus, 253; brick stamp of, found by Pennsylvanian expedition, 254.
- Nareæ of Pliny = Nairs, 546.
- "Narratives of the States," ii. 478.
- Nask, sacred way from city of, 506.
- Natnu, king of the Nabatu, defeated by Assurbanipal, 511.
- Natural barrage, regulating Nile flood, ii. 410.
- Natural religion in China, 146.
- Nature gods of Mesopotamia, 236.
- Naukratis, discoveries at, 316; remains of, 406.
- Nayars, see Nairs (called Protectors, 536).
- Nazibugas, king of Kardunias, 288.
- Nazimaraddas, king of Kardunias, 288; his benediction quoted, 290.
- Neb = kurios, 215.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

534

INDEX.

- Neb = pourer of libations, 54.
 Nebka, temple of King, 152.
 Nebka-n-ra in the story of the Peasant, 58.
 Nebo and Tasmit, givers of wisdom to Assurbanipal, 242; Nebo, "the legitimate" or established son, 238; worship of, introduced in Assyria, 301.
 Neboahi-iddin, banker, 348; his partnerships, 349; other contracts, 350, 352; marriage contract, 372.
 Nebt-hai, Egyptian word for wife, 125.
 Nebuchadnezzar defeats Necho at Carchemish, 317; character of his inscriptions, 317; religious innovations of, 319.
 Nebuchadnezzar I., grant by, 342.
 Necho invades Palestine, 316.
 Necropolis of Thebes, 164; governor of, at feud with nomarch, 165; payments to priests of, 166.
 Negative confession in the Ritual, 73.
 "Neglect to observe celestial appearances," Chinese code on, ii. 373.
 Neighbourhood = five families, ii. 42; Sacred Edict on duties of, 356.
 Neit, princesses act as priestesses of, 170.
 Nekyah, Moslem settlement in case of divorce, 367.
 Nephews, inheritance by, 407; nephew preferred to wife by Nair, 554.
 Nephosis, profligate Egyptian step-mother, 220.
 Neriglissar speculates in corn, 352.
 Ners and sosses, reckoning by, 255, ii. 434.
 New Sumerian language, so called, 273.
 New Year's Day, debts paid in China by, ii. 331, 341, 370.
 Newerkara, King, 61.
 Nicæa, enamelled tiles of, 250.
 Nien, head of King-te-ching pottery works, ii. 280.
 Night-police described by Marco Polo and Davis, ii. 222.
 Nile, the highway of Egyptian trade, 94; Nile as a god, hymn to the, 150, 151; laying aside of the Nile Book, 151; rise of eighteen yards required to make a good, 209; source of Nile flood, ii. 410.
 Nimrod (Naramat), father of Shishak, 116.
 Nimrod, king of Hermopolis, reproached for letting horses starve, 150.
 Nina or Nin, "the great one," 239; daughter of Ea, 240.
 Nine Bows, warriors of, on Egyptian frontier, 133; nine classes of the people in ancient China, ii. 54; nine mountains, 12; nine provinces, 11-15; nine rivers, 12; nine vases of Yu, 81.
 Nineteenth Dyn., change in character of religious endowments under, 170.
 Nineveh, site of, forgotten before Xenophon, 239; fall of, 314.
 Ningharsag, wife of Ellilla, 239.
 Ningirsu, 239, or Ninib, husband of Bau, 240.
 Nini-haidu, father of a king of Lagash, 263.
 Ninip, wall dedicated to god, 347; "ancient interest to be paid to," 348.
 Ninmarki, daughter of goddess Nina, 240.
 Nin-narsag, inscription to goddess, 268.
 Niobe, so-called of the Sipylus, 414.
 Nipur, Sippara, and Babylon, citizen of, 241; American excavations at, 250; one of the most ancient cities of Akkad, 261, 266.
 Nisin, kings of, 267; inscriptions by, 273.
 Niu-chin Tatars or Kin, ii. 170, 248.
 Nizzuwah or Neswa in Oman, fort at, 505.
 "Noble, not such a thing as being born," ii. 77.
 Nofer-hotep, scribe of a quarter of Abydos, 267.
 Nofert-ari-Aahmes, "beautiful companion of Aahmes," 119.
 Nomarchs appointed not hereditary, name of, adopted by his people, 41; position of, in table of precedence, 62; nomarch of Siout, 62; his endowments, 157, 173; nomarchs, etc., of Delta called "kings" in Assyrian inscriptions, 313.
 Nomes, ideograph for, 38; antiquity of, rival chiefs of, 40; nome-gods, 150.
 Nore, or dowered husband, 214.
 Normal rate of interest in Babylonia, 332, 334.
 Northern and Southern Empire, age of, ii. 124.
 North-west, embassy from far, ii. 139.
 North wind, sweet breath of the, 81-3.
 Nossis, Locrian poetess, 448.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

535

- Notices to travellers, 464, ii. 375.
- Nouit Ammon, a name for Thebes, 39.
- Nouit, designation of ancient Egyptian settlement, 38, 39.
- Nubians, modern, as auxiliaries, 142.
- Numbers of the objects sacrificed by Gudea, 247.
- Numidian rule of descent, 407.
- Nuptial gifts in Theban and Memphite contracts, 209.
- Nuraghs of Sardinia, 446; builders of, perhaps Iberians, 447; structure of, explained by Arabian forts, 505.
- Nur-ramman, king of Larsa, 278.
- Nutche, see Niu-chin.
- Oases and crops in Oman, 526; oases of Central Asia, ii. 5.
- Oaths accepted as evidence, 191; of women taken in Crete, 485; in civil suits in Minicoy, 568.
- "Observations of Bel," obscure passage in, 241.
- Occupations hereditary in Egypt, 109, 111 n., 126; how far hereditary in ancient China, ii. 54, 55.
- Octo- and nonogenarians at Peking, ii. 221.
- Ode of Pin, poetical Calendar, ii. 46.
- Odes, Chinese, ii. 6, 18, 19, 24, 31, 45-9; general character of, 65; quotations from, 66, 67; one ascribed to Duke of Chow, 66; on posthumous betrothals, 70; on royal authority, 78; political denunciations, 79; on officers buried with a duke of Tsin, 80; on feudal and family relations, 80; appropriate to different ranks, 81; on rash ambitions, 110.
- Odoric of Pordenone, on standard of wealth in China, ii. 229; travels of, 231-3.
- Offending husband, Gortyn code on, 477; offending wife, Egyptian moralists on, 477.
- Office, conditions of, in Egypt and China, 52; in Egypt only hereditary, as other occupations were, 126; open to all classes in China, ii. 55; given increasingly by examination, 212.
- Officers (or officials) of the nomarch's court, list of, 62; formula for a virtuous, 88; officers of Chow, ii. 22, 54; officer of marriages, 70, 71; increase in numbers and salaries of, 146; officer rewarded for reporting on defective embankment, 285; roguery among, 334; treatment of, by Chinese government, 341; duties of, under present dynasty, 360; responsible for quality of goods supplied to government, 345; not allowed to buy land within their jurisdiction, 369; powers and responsibilities of local, 374, 375.
- Ogatai adopts Chinese methods of government, ii. 176; financiers of, 225.
- Ogyris, island, and Ogyr, tribe, on Persian Gulf, 516.
- Old age, respect for, among ancient Albanians, 456; in East Africa, 531.
- Old men maintained at public cost, ii. 72.
- Olus and Lato, treaty between, 475.
- Oman, inhabitants of, called Nabatæans, 520; government of, 528.
- Onam festival, presents to wives at, 551.
- Ophiodes, island in Arabian Gulf, 517.
- Oppert, M., translations of legal texts and contracts, 321.
- Oranges "only fit for show at banquets," ii. 253.
- Orchomenos, remains at, 422; inscription respecting loan to the city, 437.
- Orientation of temples, ii. 438-441.
- Orphanages, Chinese and Catholic, ii. 224, 377, 378.
- Ortos, old Mongol customs preserved by, ii. 279.
- Osiris, hymn to, eldest of the five gods, 122; title given habitually to the dead, 170; name written with same ideograms as Merodach, 252.
- Otti*, one of the later stages of Malabar mortgages, 571.
- Ou-fang, Sung philosopher, ii. 213.
- Oukimai, second Kin emperor, ii. 174.
- Oulo, Kin emperor, ii. 175.
- Ou-ni-tao-jin, pottery of, ii. 257.
- Over-population, complaints of, ii. 284.
- Over-production, not heard of in China, ii. 320.
- Overseer of royal workmen, 63.
- Owner who does not occupy, status of Egyptian, 183; owner of the soil in Arabia, he who gives it water, 525.
- Ownership of land in Malabar retained apart from any other right, 569.
- Ox, wild and domestic, in ancient Mesopotamia, 231.
- Oxen for ploughing lent to the poor, 532, 535.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

536

INDEX.

- Pactum antichreticum*, ii. 416.
 Padan, land of, 286.
 Painting left to amateurs in China, ii. 381.
 Palace of foreigners, ii. 269; "Palace of imperial history," 280.
 Palestine and Phœnicia, growth of their cities, 295.
 Palm, the sacred tree of Eridu, 231.
 Pamir district, 15, 16.
 Panagia Aphroditissa, 404.
 Panara, chief city of Panchæa, 514.
 Panbesa, letter of the scribe, 174.
 Panchæa of Diodorus=Pa-anch of Egyptian story, 517.
 Pandæ "ruled by women," 546.
 Paneba, crimes of, 106; he "became a mason," 127.
 Pan-hoei-pan, lady annalist, ii. 117.
 Pan-kang, change of capital by, ii. 18, 29.
 Pan-kou, historian, ii. 117.
 Pan-tchao, campaigns of, in Western Asia, ii. 117.
 Pantellaria, island of, 446.
 Panther's skin worn by Egyptian priests, 54.
 Pao, modern Chinese hundred, ii. 361.
 Pao-chang, headman of the hundred, ii. 361.
 Paou-sze, mistress of King Yew, ii. 28.
 Papal embassies to China, ii. 277, 281.
 Paper money, abuse of, under the Sung, ii. 180-8; paper bonds of various sorts, 193-8; paper money depreciated, 196, 197; paper currency described by Marco Polo, 225, 226; Pegolotti on, 234; depreciation of, 243, 253; disuse of, 254, 340.
 Paper umbrella makers' union, ii. 320.
 Paper valuables, custom of burning, ii. 115.
 Paraschistes and taricheutes, 164, 166.
 Parasu Rama, revelation of, ii. 464.
 Parenin, letter of, on Kang-hi as linguist, ii. 280.
 Parental kindness, "like great heaven, illimitable," ii. 66.
 Parents and children, relative size of, on Egyptian monuments, 200.
 Parthenia, a common name on Pelasgian track, 472.
 Partheniæ, colonization of Tarentum by, 472.
 Partition of land between Babylonia and Assyria, 289.
 Partnership of children in parents' property in Egypt, 202; in Crete, 478-80; commercial partnerships, 331-9.
 Pasagga, a fire god, son of Ea, 240.
 Pasi, dynasty of, 258.
 Pastophores, marriage settlements in a family of, 210.
 Patamkar=lessee, 570.
 Patara, oracle of Apollo at, 428.
 Paternal grandfather, position of, in China, ii. 70.
 Patesi, title of priest-kings or vice-roys, 239; patesis of Nipur and Sirgulla dedicate objects to Dungi, 272.
 Patrimonial field, ii. 359, 360.
 Paul, Christian convert, ii. 267.
 Pawnshops, Chinese, ii. 331, 332.
 Peacock, Hebrew word for, borrowed from Tamil, 545.
 Pearl fishery, lives sacrificed to, ii. 230, 232.
 Peasant, budget of, under the Han, ii. 113.
 Peasant, story of, 42, 58, 86.
 Pegolotti, commercial guide to China, ii. 233.
 Pei-lin or Forest of tablets, ii. 477.
 Peisias the Lycian, will of, 222.
 Pekah, death of, 305.
 Peking, Pegolotti on trade of, ii. 234; capital removed to, 240; identified with Cambalu, 269; Gazette, description of, ii. 285.
 Pelasgia, Peloponessus anciently called, 417.
 Pelasgian, where last spoken, 450.
 Pelasgians, Niebuhr on, 386; traces of, where found, 417; Pelasgians and Bœotians, legend of quarrel between, 423.
 Penalties for breach included in contract, 322; natural penalties on indolence enumerated by Chinese lawgiver, ii. 51; penalties against demoralizing barbarians, 364.
 "Pencil of recording officers," ii. 16, 25.
 Penestæ of Thessaly, 465.
 Pentaur, poem of, 133, 175.
 People, judgment of the, to be believed, ii. 34.
 Pepi II., 6th Dyn., King, 23; his sarcophagus described by Una, 49; works the Hammamat quarries, 95; Pyramids of Pepi I. and II., 153.
 Perfumes, field of flowers for, 345, 346.
 Perioeci of Crete, 465.
 Periplus on King Charibael, 508; on Malabar region, 546.
 Perpetual interest not understood in China, ii. 329.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

537

- ersecution of scholars by T'sin emperor, ii. 104.
 Perrot and Chipiez, M.M., quoted, 232, 245.
 Persian embassies to China, ii. 128-30; Persian Gulf, former extension to the north of, 229, 264; Persian imitations of Chinese characters, ii. 257.
 Personal reserve in China, ii. 382.
Perwartham, mortgage up to full market value, 575.
 "Perverse," surname given to King-ti on restoration of Yng-tsong, ii. 243.
 Pessinus, pre-Phrygian centre of trade and worship, 419.
 Petition, right of, in China, ii. 376.
 Petrie, Mr. Flinders, quotation from, 24.
 Petty trading, profits of, in China, ii. 316.
 Peyen, general of Kubla, ii. 177.
 Pharaoh, his intimacy desired, 48.
 Pharaonic succession, rule of, 110.
 Phasis, 456, 457.
 Phebamon, shrine of S., 159.
 Philometor, Queen Pythodoris called, 439.
 Philopator, insurrection against, engaged in by women, 221.
 Philosophic Taoism, ii. 94.
 Phocæans who founded Massalia, 452.
 Phœnicia and Carthage, scanty information about, 384, 385.
 Phœnician alphabet, 98; language, 385; Phœnician "tales and treaties," 390, 396; settlements, range of, 390, 396; guilds or corporations, 395; trade, character and staples of, 398, 399; rock tombs, 405; inhumanity, 410; guild of merchants and ship-owners, ii. 339.
 Phrases for repudiating contracts, 345.
 Physical geography of Central Asia, ii. 3.
 Piankhi, inscription of, 150.
 Pictured offerings substituted for real ones, 153.
 Piece of silk, size of, ii. 367 n.
 Piece-work preferred by Chinese operatives, ii. 311.
 Pien-tsing, or "convenient money," ii. 193.
 Pietschmann on Phœnicians, 23.
 Pignoratitian contracts, ii. 416, 419.
 Pilaski, beyond the Tigris, 289.
 Pilgrim's way, 402.
 Pin and pocket money promised in Egyptian marriage contracts, 207, 208; Minicoy and Malabar analogies, 551, 567; ii. 473.
 Pin, king of Chow, ii. 28.
 Ping-chow, centre of monetary unions, 59.
 Ping-ti, Han emperor, ii. 120.
 Pinto and Perera on Chinese justice, ii. 264.
 Pi-pi of Marquesas Islands, ii. 452.
 Pisebkhan, 116.
 Planting fig-trees compulsory in Kabyle tribes, 535.
 Plants, temperate and tropical, in South Arabia, 536.
 Plautus, Punic fragments in, 408.
 Pledges on security transferable, like debts, 325.
 Pliny on Seres, ii. 110 n.; on silk, 111 n.
 Plots of land, how described in Egyptian deeds, 189.
 Plough lands of ancient Babylonia, 340.
 Ploughs, respect for property in, 535 and n.
 Poh-loh, his management of horses, ii. 258.
 Polemon, Pythodoris succeeds her husband, 440.
 Political effect of Egyptian system of inheritance, 116; political maxims of Sumer and Akkad, 240; political organization of Malabar, 548; political and economic effects of Chinese climate, soil, and river system, ii. 8, 10.
 Polo denounces crimes of Achmath to Kubla, ii. 225.
 Polyandry practised in Sparta, 471; obsolescent in Malabar, 551, ii. 466; polyandry and entail in Ladak, 557.
 Polybius on Ptolemy's war with Antiochus, 134.
 Polygamy, Malabar Commission Report on, ii. 465, 466.
 Pongal feast in Malabar, 566.
 "Poor man come here food," ii. 75.
 Population and cultivated area in Egypt, 72, 80; distribution of, under Tang Dynasty, ii. 146; under first Sung empire, 168; increase of, in 11th and 12th centuries, 169-71; of Hang-chow and Peking, 221.
 Porcelain under the Tsin and Souy, ii. 130; of Chi-tsong, 166; under the Sung, 213; under the Ming, 256, 257.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

538

INDEX.

- Portrait painters, skill of Chinese, ii. 235.
- Portrait statue of Gudea, 267.
- Portuguese artillery not employed by the Ming, 268.
- Portuguese open trade with China, ii. 261, 263.
- Posidonius, religious foundation by, 434.
- Possessions, domestic relatives a kind of, 124.
- Postal companies' charges, ii. 341.
- Posterior dynasties, ii. 165.
- Posthumous betrothals, ii. 70.
- Potarras, deep wells with masonry, 446.
- Pottery, favourite industry of Shun, ii. 61; under first Wei, T'sin and Souy Dyn., ii. 131; of the Ming, 256, 257.
- Poultry not domesticated in Egypt, 83.
- Pound, variability of, in Chinese markets, 539, ii. 338.
- Poverty alleged as a reason for selling land, ii. 358.
- Powers of father and mother in Gortyn code, 478.
- Praise of learning, 48, 77, 104; of riches, ii. 111.
- Pram the interpreter, Bilingual inscription of, 429.
- Prasos, treaties with, 474.
- Pre- or proto-Hellenic population of Greece, 384.
- Pre-alphabetic writing, 5.
- Precedence, table of Egyptian, 171.
- Precious stones, trade in, ii. 230.
- Pre-emption, family right of, barred in sales of land, 322.
- Preimogeneia, Laches son of, 406.
- Price of houses in ancient Babylonia, 337; of land, ii. 443; "a perfect price," i. 337, 339; prices, duty of government to equalize, ii. 56, 57; regulated by issues of coin, 158; under the Tang, 164; rise of, under the Sung, 199; prices and taxation under the Ming, 264; in modern China, 315, 316; not to be beaten down, 338.
- Priest of Sent and Neb-ka, 152.
- Priest's name in Egypt connected with libations, 54; priests kept their own land registers, 140; semi-royal status of priests of Comana, 419; income of, whence derived in Asia Minor, 435.
- Priestess of the crown of Neit, title of wife in 5th Dyn., tomb, 50; priestess of Bast in Tale of Setnau, 218.
- Priesthood, Egyptian, 52, 54; conciliated by Darius and Ptolemy I., 179.
- Priestly families at Lagina and Stratonicea, 431.
- Prime minister of Tang the Successful, ii. 18, 31.
- Primée*, Basque term for heiress' daughter, 214.
- Primogeniture, 111; importance of, in Egypt, 131; traces of, at Puteoli, 406; at Cnidus, 435, 473; without distinction of sex, Basque rule of, 461; "primogeniture run mad" among Malayali Brahmins, 554; primogeniture and sister marrying among Incas, ii. 454.
- Princes of imperial family reduced in number, ii. 132.
- Prisoners required to admit their guilt, ii. 371.
- Prisse papyrus, containing precepts of Ptah-hotep, 43.
- Private deeds, showing duration of generations in Egypt, ii. 407.
- Prize essay against eunuchs, ii. 136.
- Professions not more highly paid than trades, ii. 316.
- Professor Owen on Egyptian fauna, 19.
- Property ceded to the wife to ensure its passing to children, 113, 115; property in soil and trees distinct, 368; of land and buildings ditto, ii. 359; property of Rajahs distributed during their life, i. 550; property in town and country, Egyptian, Babylonian and Chinese distinction between, ii. 48.
- Propriety and humanity, ii. 86; propriety, rules of, 74, 76.
- Protectorate of ministers deposes bad king, ii. 78.
- Protis, chosen by king's daughter Gyptis, for her husband, 462.
- Proto-Semitic and Hamite stocks, 385.
- Provincial governorships, scrupulous officials banished to, ii. 147; divided, 165.
- Psammetichus, founder of Saite Dyn., 120; vainly relied on for help by Gyges, 311; son of Necho, 313; revival of Egypt under, 315.
- Psar, inkstand of, the beloved of Thoth, 160.
- Ptah, the creator, 76; title of the high priest of Ptah, 104.
- Ptah-ases, adopted son of Menkara, 169; governor of temple domains, 171.
- Ptah-hotep, precepts of, 43; on the duty of ministers, 46; on honorary

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

539

- sonship, 122 ; "the eldest of his race," 123 ; his advice to husbands, 201.
- Ptah-hotep, scribe represented on his father's tomb, 50.
- Pteria, capital of Cappadocia, 410, 414.
- Pterophores or rexiu, 54.
- Ptolemies, irrigation works allowed to decay under the, 76.
- Ptolemy Epiphanes, conciliatory policy of, 139 ; Philadelphus, marriage contract of his reign, 207 ; Ptolemy IV., Philopator, payment of troops by, 134 ; revolt of Egyptians against, 134 ; tutelage of women introduced by, 221.
- Public debts of Cyme and Halicarnassus, 463 ; public and private fields in ancient China, ii. 48 ; public land rented, 127 ; public edifices set up in country rather than towns, 309 ; public works, laws relating to, 365, 366 ; excessive expenditure on, discouraged, 366 ; monuments, laws protecting, 372 ; spaces, encroachment on, forbidden, 372.
- Pudil, father of Rammannirari, 289.
- Pulleahs, helots of Malabar, 563.
- Pun, land of, 497.
- Punicum cicer*, from Berber ikiker, 542.
- Punt, the land of, 21, 22, 23, 25 ; the men of, 22 ; identified by Lepsius with Phœnicians, 23, 385 ; expeditions to, 96, 97, 172.
- Purchases on credit in Babylonia, 326.
- "Purification of the spirits," 144.
- Purpose of loans described in contracts, 333.
- Purpose of the nuraghs, 447.
- Purrapurias = Burnaburias, king of Kardunias, 292.
- Purveyors for the palace of Pharaoh, 63.
- Puteoli, letter from, to Tyre, 395 ; Puteoli and Rome, factories financially united, 396 ; Puteoli inscription, 406.
- Pydnai, fortress of, 428.
- Pythodoris, family history of queen, 439.
- Qaan petitions to inherit from his mother's father, 214.
- Quarters of Egyptian cities under special officers, 267.
- Queens regent, succession of, 521.
- Questions at a Chinese examination, ii. 380.
- Quinsay, see Kinsay.
- Ra, the roof of, 76.
- Rahnia pledges, or antichretic mortgage, 187 ; Berber term for, 534 ; rahnia contract, ii. 418.
- Rahotep, modern features of, 25 ; chief of the Thirty, 56 ; compared to Gudea, 268.
- Rainless regions the seat of earliest civilizations, 4 ; rainless periods, effect of, on the soil, ii. 5.
- Ramaka Hatasu reigns with her father, 118 ; invoked in architect's inscription, 119.
- Rameses II., 40 ; trial in his reign, 60 ; allows the Khita to import food, 94 ; obtains water for the gold miners, 97 ; his hereditary right derived from his mother, 120 ; respects hereditary claims, 132 ; employs mercenaries, 133 ; campaigns against the Hittites of, 295.
- Rameses III., strike at Necropolis, 88 ; foreign expeditions of, 97 ; woes of the soldier under, 138 ; wars on the "peoples of the sea," 295.
- Rameses IX., Necropolis workers appeal to government of, 89 ; state trial under, 161 ; robbery of royal tombs under, 165 ; restores a building of Usurtasen I., 172.
- Ramessu-Mei-Amon, city of, 174.
- Rammanapaliddin, 296.
- Rammannirari, king of Assyria, wars with Kardunias, 288-9 ; inscription and genealogy of, 389 ; Rammannirari II., son of Asurdanan I., 297 ; Rammannirari III., his campaigns and successors, 301 ; deeds of his reign, 345.
- Ramusio's version of Marco Polo, ii. 217, 224.
- Rank, differences in, between relations, ii. 295.
- Rashediddin on Chinese administration, ii. 231.
- Rasutanu or "arranger," functions of, 325.
- Rates of wages in ancient Babylonia, 338, 339 ; in modern China, ii. 310-16.
- Rations issued to workmen, 88, 89, 96.
- Reading priest or Cherheb, 167.
- Real property in Malabar only liable to kanam mortgage, 571.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

540

INDEX.

- Real wages, method of estimating rate of, ii. 314.
- Rebel armies in South China, ii. 142.
- Reciprocity, Confucius on, ii. 89, 90.
- Record office claims privilege, ii. 26.
- Recorders of the Interior and Exterior, ii. 24.
- Records of judicial decisions preserved in Egypt, 190.
- Red Hamitic stock, 33; red and black Berbers, 534; "Red water" essential to fertility in Egypt, ii. 412.
- Regency of empress mother of Gintson, ii. 169.
- Registration of inhabitants in Egypt and China, 127; in ancient Egypt, 189; of soldiers and sailors, 235; of land sales, 359; of households, 361; should validate existing Malabar marriages, ii. 471.
- Reigns, average duration of, ii. 405, 406.
- Rekba, or vengeance of blood, not to be claimed before women, 537.
- Rekhmara described as a just judge, 60; chief of the council of the Six, 61; genealogy of, 112.
- Religion of Upper and Lower Egypt, 172.
- Religious order, the whole of China governed like a, ii. 271; religious toleration under the Mongols, ii. 231.
- Rent in Egypt paid for uncultivated pastures, 78; rent and taxation, 130; political origin of rent, 131; rent in Babylonia not derived from land tax, 325; rent of houses in Babylonia, 332; rent connected with rate of interest, 332; rent of corn land, 337; proportion between rent and wages, 339; how fixed in Malabar, 570; origin of, in Malabar, 571; rent and taxation under the Han, ii. 114; landlord's rent said to exceed imperial taxes under the Sung, 189; rents and profits, 315; rent of Chinese houses, 381.
- Renunciation of a mother sometimes connected with her remarriage, 328; mutual renunciations of parents and children, husbands and wives, 362; necessary to bar right to inherit, 363; or facilitate second marriages, 364.
- Report of Committee on Malabar Marriage Act, ii. 459.
- Rexiu, or pterophores, 54.
- Responsibility of primitive ruler for food supply, 68.
- Resting places for the dead, 68.
- Restrictions on marriage, ii. 353, 354.
- Retail shops in China, ii. 338, 340.
- Revenue of ancient China, ii. 13, 14; Li Ki on revenue and expenditure, 35; accounts of revenue under the Tang, 135; revenue of North China farmed under Ogotai, 176; revenue reports of Ma-twan-lin, 193; of Hang-chow, according to Marco Polo, 226; revenue regarded as imperial property, 244; under the Ming, 246, 271; revenue of Chinese guilds, 339.
- Reverence, Chinese insistence on duty of, ii. 31.
- Revillout, M., on priests engaged in interments, 164; on general character of Egyptian law, 223; work of the brothers, 321.
- Revival of prosperity under the Hans, ii. 108.
- "Revolt," right of Kabyle wives to, 537.
- Rhegiens of Italy follow laws of Charondas, 450.
- Rhodes, legendary inhabitants of, 441; compared to Carthage, Massalia, and Cyzicus, 442; customs of modern, 444.
- Rhodians keep the peace at sea, 442; Rhodian law of losses at sea, 444.
- Rhubarb collected for sick soldiers by Yeliu tchoutsai, ii. 177.
- Ricardian rent not primitive, 131.
- Ricci, Matteo, his arrival in China, ii. 266; invited to return to his own country, 268; death of, 269, 270.
- Rice, amount consumed per head in China, ii. 35.
- Rice wine praised by Marco Polo, ii. 218.
- Rich men only gain reputation by liberality, ii. 334.
- Richthofen, Baron v., 15.
- "Righteous decisions" of the Chun Tsew, ii. 25, 489.
- Rijam, the Exalted, Minæan king's title, 502.
- Rim-sin, otherwise Ri-agu, son of Kudur mabug, 260, 280; contract tablets of, 284.
- Rimugas, hieratic Babylonian inscription of, on Bahrein, 516.
- Ring money, ii. 58, 59.
- Rings, contract to deliver weight of silver in, 338.
- Rise of Assyria, 291.
- Rites and offices, rivalry between ministers of, ii. 144; Book of, on the poor and propriety, ii. 296.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

541

- Rites of Chow, see Chow Li.
Ritti-marduk, grant to, of Karzi jabku, 342.
Ritual, negative confession in, 43; agricultural imagery in, 151; robbery of the dead disclaimed in, 161.
Rituales Etruscorum Libri, 426.
Rivers of Asia, ii. 4.
Road, "the daughter of the gods," 238; roads, ancient, in Asia Minor, 419; road-ways, inns, and post-houses in Chow Li, ii. 63; roads, bridges and repairs, laws on, ii. 372.
"Robber Society" and pawnshops, ii. 331.
Robbery of tombs, 161, 165.
Roger, Michel, Jesuit missionary, ii. 248.
Roll bearer or cher-heb, 167.
Roman de l'homme jaune, ii. 355.
Roman writers on Seres, ii. 110, 111.
Ropa, see Erpa.
Routes taken by various coinages, ii. 449.
Royal authority, how displayed in Arabia, 522.
"Royal cousins," status of, in Egypt, 48.
"Royal Road," from Susa to Sardis, 412, 416.
Royal Tens and Thirty, 56, 57.
Royal wife takes precedence of royal mother, 110.
Rubruk on Cathayans, ii. 216.
Rules of propriety with regard to sport, ii. 39.
"Runners," full citizens in Crete called, 482.
Running water, charms of, 527.
Russia, embassy from, ii. 274, 275.
Rutennu, land of, pays tribute to Egypt, 291.

Saba, kings of, 497.
Saba and Raidan, kings of, 502.
Sabæan inscriptions and Sabæan era, 498; Sabæan chronology according to Dr. Glaser, 508; Sabæan capital Mariab (Marjab = Mareb), 509; Sabæan marriage laws, 523.
Sabako, king of Egypt, encounters Assyrians at Raphia, 306.
Sabota (Sabwat), capital of Chatromotitæ, 510.
Sacæa of Athenæus answers to festival of Gudea, 244.
Sacred animals, 145-9; expenditure on funerals of, 179.
Sacred Edict of Kang-hi, ii. 280, 356, 357; on duties of kindred, 379.
Sacred fountain of Panchæa, 514.
"Sacred road" to Delphi, 424.
Sacred tortoise, Chuang-tze and the, ii. 95.
Sacred way, sixty stadia in length from city to temple, 419 n.
Sacrifices, list of Gudea's, 247; of sheep by Arabs, 509; economy in, prescribed in China, ii. 36; Ssema-t sien on ancient, 37; animals for, 52; Chinese doctrine of, 282 and n.
Saddle-shaped money, ii. 59.
Sagasaltias, dated by Nabonidus, 282; temple founded by, 289.
Saint Mary the Virgin, church of, how secularized, ii. 281.
Saite kings, 103.
Saka-kansak, daughter of Tushratta, 293.
Salaries of officials in ancient China, ii. 50; under the Tang, 146.
Sales of the right to bury in Egypt, 167, 168; Sales, Ninevite formula for, 182; two deeds required for sales in Egypt, 182; sales and successions taxed in Ptolemaic Egypt, 190; form of sale for real property, 322; sales without delivery in Babylonia, 326; of land temp. Rimsin, 328; sale with option of redemption, 524; sales of land in China, rules concerning, ii. 358.
Salmanasar I., date of, 288; son of Rammannirari, 290.
Salmanasar II., 298, 299.
Salt Lake district, effect of wind in, ii. 6.
Salt mines, revenue from, ii. 137; salt trade and garrison contracts, 238, 245.
Salting of badly irrigated land in Egypt, ii. 413.
Saltpetre, manufacture of, forbidden in Formosa, ii. 363.
Samahali Dirrah, king of Saba, 507.
Samarcand, great mart for Chinese trade, ii. 260.
Samas, the god, son of Ea, 240.
Samasmudammik, king of Kardunias, 313.
Samas-sumukin made governor of Babylon, 313; deed of his reign, 333.
Sambandhakaran, term, used for husband, ii. 465.
Sambandham = connection, ii. 465; sambandham karaina, 474.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

542

INDEX.

- Sammuramat or Semiramis, 301.
 Samoan conception of Mana, 236 ;
 Samoan maid of the village,
 470.
 Samsi, Arabian queen, tributary to Sargon, 511, 512.
 Samsi-iluna, son of Hammurabi, inscription of, 283 ; contract tablets
 of, 284.
 Samsi-ramman I., date of, 254.
 Samsi-ramman IV. succeeds Salmanasar II., 33.
 Samsu, demotic proper name of god
 Thoth—"the eldest," 122.
 Sana, water supply and citadel of, 505,
 507.
 Sanch, Egyptian "credit," 209.
 Sanctuary, right of, possessed by women, 436, 461, 537.
 Saneha, story of, 72 ; political allusions in, 119 ; pyramid and endowment granted to, 157.
 Sangar, king of Carchemish, 298.
 San-kwo-chi, historical romance of
 Three Kingdoms, ii. 124, 479.
 Sapi-kalbi, adoption of, 378.
 Sar, 255, ii. 434.
 Sar and Asur and Ibru- Naharan, lords of, 500.
 Sarakus, last king of Assyria, 314.
 Sargon fixes the price of corn and oil, 246 ; dated from Nabonidus' tablet, 253 ; date of, if Nabonidus confused sosses and centuries,
 255 ; called "king of the city," sc. Agade, 266 ; archaic style of his monuments, ib. ; comparative date of Sargon and Gudea, 267 ; annals or omens of, 275 ; Chinese parallels to his legend, 276, ii. 19 ;
 conquests attributed to, i. 275-7 ;
 victory over Samaria of, 306 ;
 forbearance towards Babylon,
 307 ; other conquests, 312 ; etymology of name, 308.
 Saros cycle, ii. 436.
 Sarzec, M. de, quoted, 263.
 Satihotep, daughter of Serenput, 124.
 Satirical Odes, date of, ii. 24, 26.
 Saturnalia, Babylonian counterpart to, described by Gudea, 224 ; Cretan and Babylonian equivalent to Roman, 482.
 Savages, laws against adopting the manners of, ii. 364.
 Saving, margin for, in China, ii. 299.
 Sayce, Professor, on modern Egyptian superstitions, 147, 149 ; do.
 honesty, 451.
 Sayyid Said, 502.
 Sayyidah, Queen, 522, 523.
 Scarabs of Thothmes III. and Amen-hotep III. found by Layard, 291, 292.
 Scenery, taste for, developed early in
 China, ii. 128.
 Schall, Adam, Jesuit missionary and astronomer, ii. 250, 272, 274, 275.
 Scharistani, authority for Sabæan marriage law, 523.
 Schiaparelli, Professor, 6th Dyn. inscription found by, 23.
 Scholars restored to favour under the Han, ii. 105 ; Chinese scholar's ideal, 148.
 School, children sent to, in Egypt,
 200 ; schools and colleges in ancient China, ii. 71, 72 ; schools and examinations under the Tang, 142-4 ; schools and colleges
 restored under the Ming, 254,
 255 ; schools established by sixth
 Inca Rocca, 454.
 Schweinfurth, Dr., on sacred trees of
 Egypt, 145.
 "Scribe of the place of provisions," title of Amten, 49 ; scribes, position of, in Egypt, 52 ; compared with Chinese literati, 53 ; training school for, 53, 55 ; list of various,
 54 ; school exercises of, 54 ;
 scribe of the house of instruction,
 title of Ptolemaic schoolmaster,
 55 ; of the royal storehouses, 62 ;
 one of the three classes in Egyptian enumeration of mankind, 78 ; multiply pens and writings, 81 ; a ministerial, not a ruling class, 87 ;
 the young, "has a back," 106 ;
 scribe of the soldiers, of the king, of the settled inhabitants, 139 ;
 letters of, 174 ; Babylonian
 "scribe of births," 342, 379 ;
 scribes employed by king of Calicut, 564.
 Scrupulous honesty of Towareks, 540.
 Scyths, Herodotus on dominion of, in West Asia, 314.
 Sea of Central Asia, ii. 3-5.
 Sea, "upper" and "lower," in Gudea's inscriptions, 269, 270.
 Se-anch-ka-ra, expedition of, to land of Punt, 96.
 Seang, king of Wei, ii. 28.
 Seasons, work for each, in ancient
 China, ii. 46-9.
 Sebek, 13th Dyn. kings worship the crocodile-headed, 119.
 Sebekemsas, Queen, ii. 406.
 Sebek-hotep, 13th Dyn. king, 96.
 Sebek-nefer-ra, wife of successor of last 12th Dyn. king, 119.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

543

- Second marriage, consent of children, when necessary to, 208; law of Charondas on, 449; effect of, in Thesawaleme, 560; sometimes sanctioned in China, ii. 350.
- Secret intercourse between betrothed or married couples, 206, 456, 471.
- Secret Prayer or Supplicator, ii. 36.
- Secularism and anarchism of Han-yu and his contemporaries, ii. 153; of Chinese, 216.
- Sefi or summer canals, ii. 412.
- "Seizing hold" of Ethiopian king by Amon of Napata, ii. 440.
- Self-discipline of Chinese sage, ii. 74.
- Se-lou "assassinated" by Tai-tsouming, ii. 239.
- Semedo on disuse of carriages in China, ii. 257.
- Semites and Cushites in South Arabia, 19, 20.
- Semitic inscription of Dungi, 274.
- Senacherib, chronological inscriptions of, 254; recaptures seal of Tiglat-adar from Babylon, 289, 291; recovers Assyrian gods from Babylon, 296; murderers of, take refuge in Armenia, 302; of Habigal Dynasty, 306; destruction of Babylon by, 309; checked by resistance of Judah, 312.
- Senchus Mor quoted, 135.
- Seniors and juniors, ii. 348.
- Sent, king of second Egyptian Dynasty, 42; his worship, 152.
- Sepharvaim, children sacrificed at, 241.
- Sepulture ancient modes of, 25.
- Serapeum at Memphis, an asylum for slaves, 92.
- Serat invoked to strangle the first-born, 344.
- Serenput, 12th Dyn. tomb of, 124.
- Servants and slaves in East Africa, rights of, 532.
- Sesostris, Greek accounts of, 129; pseudo- at Karabeli, 414.
- Seti I. associates his son Rameses II., 120; campaigns of, in Syria, 295.
- Seti II. supported by the priesthood, 177.
- Setna, or Setnau, demotic tale of, 55, 204 n., 217.
- Setten, wife of Serenput, mother and daughter of do., 124.
- Settlement on a wife, 12th Dyn. Egyptian, 203, 204.
- Seuen, drums of Chow attributed to reign of King, ii. 27; Bamboo annals do., 28.
- Seuen, Duke, additional tithe levied by, ii. 38.
- Seuen, king of Tse, ii. 34.
- Seuen-king maintains the nature of man to be evil, ii. 93.
- Seven evil spirits of Babylonian spells, 237; seven branches of the paternal house, 238; seven staged temples raised on "holy mound," 238.
- Seventh century B.C., rise of new nationalities in, 310.
- Seventy great scholars, ii. 102.
- Sewage, collection of town, ii. 317.
- Sexagenary cycle of China, ii. 29, 434.
- Sexagesimal notation, antiquity of, 247; used by Assurbanipal, 254; in Vannic inscriptions, 303; traces of, in Malabar and Minicoy, 547; origin of, ii. 434, 435.
- Sexes eat apart in Canary isles, 542.
- Shah Rukh, embassy to China of, ii. 241, 260.
- Shalmaneser or Ululai, son of Pul, 306.
- Shamanistic side of Babylonian religion, 235.
- Shang, dynasty of, ii. 18, 28, 29, 101.
- Shanghai, recovery from destruction of, ii. 379.
- Shardana and Sardinians, 445.
- Sharganisharali = Sargon, king of the city, 256.
- Sheikh el Beled, wooden statue so-called, 25, 103; compared to Gudea, 268.
- Shensi formerly included Kansu, 18.
- Shepherds, expulsion of, 120.
- Shi-king, young lady in, appeals to Mr. Chung, ii. 43; Shi and Shoo, 128; destruction of, advocated, 104; Chinese scholar on missing portions of, 479; see also Odes.
- Shing-too, emperor known as Kang-hi, ii. 275.
- Shinnung, mythical Chinese emperor, 31, ii. 19.
- Shishak, 22nd Dyn. king of Egypt, 116, 296.
- Shishaks and Sargons reigning in Egypt, 192; naturalized Egyptians, 316.
- Shoo King, book of history, ii. 11, 16-18, 22-4, 30, 31, 54, 58, 475, 476.
- Short reigns, averages much affected by, ii. 407.
- "Show face" festivals, 179.
- Shu-anna, a quarter of Babylon, 284.
- Shun, emperor of China, ii. 17-9, 21, 29, 30, 61; quoted by literary maid-servant, 296.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

544

INDEX.

- Shun-chi, first Mantchu emperor of China, ii. 274.
- Shuo-wen, ii. 28.
- Sibou, the erpa of the gods, 117.
- Sidon = fishery, 389; Sidon and Aradus, walls of, 405.
- Sidonian kings, 406.
- Sidyra, mother's name mentioned alone in late inscription of, 435.
- Sieou, two sisters, artists in pottery, ii. 270.
- Sieuen-tsong-ming, ii. 241.
- Signatures, phrases concerning, 342.
- Silk and rice, allowance of, to wives in Minicoy, 567.
- Silk used for currency, ii. 51; silk and grain, used for exchange, 157-9; use of, forbidden, 161.
- Silk-weavers and dyers' union, ii. 319.
- Silk-weaving factory, wages in, ii. 312.
- Silkworm month, ii. 47.
- Silsilis, breaking of rock dam at, 80.
- Silver and corn, medium of exchange in Egypt, 197; silver, Phœnician trade in, 400; used for trade, ii. 254; as medium of exchange, 270; relation of, to copper in Egypt, 445, 447.
- Simeonites, Meunites destroyed by, 499.
- Simon, M. Eugène, and the Wang family, ii. 298 ff.
- Simtishilshak, father of Kudur-mabug, 279.
- Sin, the moon god, patron of Ur, 272.
- Sinabich, ancient Dalisandros, inscription from, 434.
- Sinazu buys land, 328.
- Sinbelsaan buys part of his brother's inherited land, 328.
- Singan-fu, the western court, ii. 106.
- Singashid, inscription of, 273.
- Sin-idinna, king of Sumer and Akkad, civilized inscription of, 278.
- Sinik, country of the Seni or Chinese, ii. 149 n.
- Sininana or Sini-istar, party to contracts, 328; swears disputed property was bought from personal, not joint funds, 329; sum total of transactions attributed to, 330; lawsuit with son of Ubarsin, 338.
- Sinmuballit, father of Hammurabi, 283.
- Sippara, capital of Akkad, 265; Sippara, Nipur, and Babylon, their worship ordered and captives restored by Sargon, 308, 309; taken by Cyrus, 319.
- Sir Thomas More excludes horses from Utopia, ii. 257.
- Sirgulla, 230; various readings for, 239; a city of Sumer, 264.
- Sirius, rising of, ii. 438.
- Sirwah and Mareb, departed greatness of, 498; temple to Almakah at Sirwah, 506.
- Sisku, second Babylonian dynasty, 258, 284.
- Sister marrying in Egypt, 110, 111; of the Tachtadschys, 438, 439; in Canary Isles, 542; in Peru, ii. 454.
- Sister's son's inheritance called Marumakatayam, 550 ff., ii. 458 ff.
- Six Boards of administration in ancient China, ii. 23 n.; described by Rashideddin, 231; a Mantchu and Chinese appointed to each office of, 274; Boards of modern China, 376.
- Six great houses of ancient Egypt, 61, ii. 445.
- Six hundred Annunaki, 233; 600 of the country, chief of, 342; councils of 600, 424; Six Hundreds of Malabar and Massalia, 453, 547.
- Six minor dynasties, ii. 124.
- Six witnesses to sale of land in Malabar, 547, 575; sixth share of produce paid to police, ib.; six virtues, six actions, six branches of knowledge, ii. 72; six tablets outside courts of justice, ii. 376.
- Sixteen witnesses to grant of Ada's land, 344; to private deed, 347.
- Sixth Babylonian Dyn., 299.
- Sixths of a mina counted as fractions, not shekels, 375 n.
- Sixty, council of, at Cnidus, 473; "Sixty Houses," the, mentioned in inscription of Entemena, 263, 342, 547; sixty measures, between city of Nask and divine images, 506; sixty, body of, formed at Athens of 9 archons and 51 epheti, 421.
- Si-yu-ki, Hiouen-thsang's Memoirs on western countries, ii. 145.
- Skuptschina, ministerial responsibility enforced by Servian, 475 n.
- Slave in Egypt consents to his own sale, 91; slave carried off to serve in army, 93; slave-dealing of Phœnicians, 400.
- Slavery in Egypt, 90-3; in China, ii. 114.
- Slaves, right to bury, 168; prices of, in Babylonia, 340; contract for sale of, 345; deeds signed by, 355; compensation for injury to,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

545

- 358; agricultural, at Rome, 409; not employed by Locrians or Phocians, 448; Gortyn code on, 476-7; forbidden to plead by Syro-Roman code, 489; not used among Nabatæans, 512; slaves of Towareks do not revolt, 540; given as dowries in Ceylon and Babylonia, 562; duties and rights of, in Ceylon, 562; slaves of Buddhist monasteries set free, ii. 149; families of, not to be separated, 353.
- Small proprietorship, working of, in China, ii. 304, 305.
- Soanes, ancient and modern, 422.
- Soap-stone mines near Wenchow, ii. 314.
- Social ideal of Chinese, ii. 330.
- Social marriages of Malabar, plea for legalization of, ii. 469.
- Société de la Sainte Enfance*, ii. 377, 378.
- Sofala, gold mines of, 519 and n.
- Sohar, Arab vessels from, trade with China, 520.
- Soils of special fertility, ii. 7.
- Sokarimsef, pyramid of, 153.
- Sokaris, Ptah-ases governor of the temple of, 169.
- Sokotra, island of, identified with Panchæa, 517; position of women in, 542.
- Solar diameter as unit of measurement, ii. 435.
- Solar temples of Egypt, orientation of, ii. 438, 439; solar festivals in Peru, 454.
- Soldiers' lands, tenure of, in Egypt, 130; hardships of, 138; Chinese soldiers' laments for family and home, ii. 66, 67; double pay of, 134, 311.
- So-ling, his loan to small traders, ii. 326, 330, 333.
- Solstitial and equinoctial solar cults, ii. 438, 439.
- Solstitial temple at Zimbabwe, 519.
- Son... "who established the foundation of his father's throne," 286.
- Son-in-law, adoption of, ii. 68.
- Song of the Harper, 71, 119 n.
- Songhay, care for the dead by, 538.
- Son's wife, girl bought to be a, 348.
- Sophists in China, age of, ii. 87.
- Sosses and ners, reckoning by, 255, ii. 434.
- Sothic period, ii. 437.
- Southern China, foreign trade with, restored, ii. 234, 236; heavily taxed by Ming emp., 240; slowest to submit to Mantchus, 274.
- Southern empire of the Sung prosperous, ii. 175; great college of, 211.
- Souy Dyn., ii. 130, 131; currency reforms of, 158.
- Spade money, ii. 58, 59.
- Spanish ships and Sir George Anson, ii. 288.
- Spartan banquets described by Athenæus, counterpart to Samoan taupo, 470; custom of secret marriage, 471, 493; peculiar position of Spartan women, 483; Spartan lots reckoned to support three men, 558.
- Specialists not always impartial, 23.
- Speculation in paper money, ii. 253.
- Spirits, worship of, in Egypt, 144; of the land and the grain worshipped in China, 153, ii. 485; recognised in primitive Chaldæa, 233; spirit of the city deified, 269; of heaven and earth, adoration of, 278; "Spiritual Exercises" of S. Ignatius, parallel to, 420.
- Sport, animals available for, ii. 374.
- Ssema-kwang, ii. 180; his history, 188; funeral of, 189.
- Ssema-tching, historian, ii. 144.
- Ssema-tsien, chronology of, ii. 29; on fong and chan sacrifices, 36, 107; on ancient metals, 58; T'sin inscription preserved by, 101; record of debate on destruction of the books, 102-4; on Han campaigns in Central Asia, 109; on sequence of prosperity and decay, 123, 252; Historical records of, 478.
- Staff, use of, 517, 542; in China, ii. 77; in Egypt, etc., ii. 497, 498.
- Standard of comfort among Egyptian labourers, 89.
- Standard of weight and length fixed concurrently, ii. 433.
- Stars, Egyptian temples oriented to, ii. 439, 440.
- State purchases, coin put in circulation by, ii. 59.
- Statue erected and named by Gudea, 243, 244.
- Statuettes of Myrina, modern character of, 463.
- Status of Egyptian king consort, 110.
- Statute of limitation applies not to Welsh mortgages, ii. 420.
- Staunton, Sir George, on Constitution of China, ii. 291.
- Stele of the Coronation, 530.
- Sterlo*=Basque cadet, 461.
- Steward of the house of books, 55.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

546

INDEX.

- Stewards, administration through, in Egypt, 83, 85.
- Stock, giving and taking, in Irish laws, 135.
- Stone-cutters of Amenemhat III., 110.
- Stone drums of Chow, ii. 27.
- Stone knives used for sacrificial purposes in Egypt, 54.
- Story of the Peasant, 42, 58, 86; of Saneha, 72.
- Strabo's maternal ancestry, 439.
- Streets, names of Chinese, ii. 340.
- "Stretching the cord" to orient Egyptian temples, ii. 440.
- Strike of workmen in the Necropolis, 88, 89; of Chinese pork-butchers against a tax, ii. 375.
- "Stubble before the wind," ii. 6.
- Students in state colleges privileged in examinations, ii. 210.
- Suanes, villages of, lie in clusters, 459.
- Subbi-kuzki, king, a correspondent of Amenhotep IV., 294.
- Sub-registrar not acceptable as marriage high priest, ii. 468.
- Subsistence wages and forced labour, 67, 68.
- Subterranean irrigation canals in Peru, ii. 454.
- Succession to the throne in ancient China, ii. 55.
- Su-che, his opposition to Wang-ngan-shi, ii. 182, 186, 188; governor of Hang-chow, 200; Lake Si-hou planted by, 201; epigrams of, 201; appointed historiographer, and banished, 202.
- Su-chow, rents reduced and granaries opened at, ii. 242.
- Suedin, peoples "east" of Babylonia, 265.
- Suffeti, election of Carthaginian, 393.
- Suffixes of Pelasgian names, 418.
- Suhi, king of, on the Euphrates, 298.
- Suicide clubs among Chinese girls, ii. 355.
- Sumer = Southern Babylonia, 264.
- Sumer and Akkad, difference between, 264; title of king of, 274; separation of cities of, 279.
- Sumerian and Egyptian writing, 234; Sumerian - Semitic vocabularies, 324.
- Sumerians and Semites contrasted, 274, 275.
- Summer canals, drawbacks of deep, in Egypt, ii. 412.
- Summer palace, China indifferent to the looting of a, ii. 383.
- Sumula-ilu built fortresses against Elamites, 283.
- Sun, wife compared to the, 238.
- Sung Dynasty, causes of its fall, ii. 180.
- Sung emperor has inscriptions on Chow drums filled with gold, ii. 27.
- Surety, only relatives can stand, 327, 330.
- Surname, law against marriage between persons of the same, ii. 352.
- Suru fortress, 298.
- Suspension bridge in Yunnan, ii. 342.
- Suti, nomad tribes, smitten by Sargon, 309.
- Sutu, Kutu and Lullubu to be destroyed by Akkad, 285.
- Su-tung p'o, verses on rain, ii. 76; his estimate of wealth, 199; opposition to foreign trade, 215.
- Sybaris, tombs at, used as asylums 448.
- Syllabaries compared with telegraphic code-words, 339.
- Symposium, Socrates compared to Silenus' figures in, 464.
- Synchronous history of Babylonia and Assyria, 288; story of, resumed, 297.
- Syria and Palestine, allegiance of transferred to Egypt, 314.
- Syria, Egyptian trade with, 97, 98.
- Syrian law of half-profits and risks, 444.
- Syrian slave, letters of Egyptian scribe concerning, 174.
- Syro-Cappadocian monuments, 427.
- Syro-Roman law book, 487-495.
- Sz'chuen, enlightened governor of, ii. 134.
- Tablet of usu stone, royal inscription copied from, 273.
- Tabulu, the shepherd beloved of Istar, 250.
- Tachtadschys, archaic people in Caria and Lycia, 438.
- Tafidh, perhaps Sana, 507.
- Tai'i, Prince of M't Tso, sacrifice to, ii. 37.
- Tai-tsong, stock name for second ruler of a Dynasty, ii. 37.
- Tai-tsong-Tang, second emperor of Tang Dynasty, improper curiosity shown by, ii. 26; drums of Chow found in reign of, 27; accession of, 131, 133; number of students under, 143; salaries of officials under, 146; granaries under, 184.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

547

- Tai-tsong-sung, second emperor of Sung Dynasty, ii. 168.
- Tai-tsou = great ancestor, founder of a Dynasty, ii. 237.
- Tai-tsou and Tai-tsong-tsing, ii. 274.
- Tai-tsou-ming, ii. 237, 239; coinage of, 253.
- Tai-tsou-sung, centralizing measures of, ii. 167; reunites the empire, 168; his reign begins brilliant period of Dynasty, 180.
- Taiz, pre-Islamite remains at, 505.
- "Taking the hands of Bel," 319, ii. 440.
- Talai lama, friendship with, ii. 267, 268.
- Talayots of Balearic Isles, 446.
- Tale of Two Brothers, 79; of Setna, M. Revillout's translation of, 204.
- Tali-kettu-kalyanam, tying of tali, ii. 474.
- Talmud, Babylonian, on ten measures — of poverty, etc., 353.
- Tamara, Queen, 458.
- Tamerlane, ravages of, ii. 260.
- Tamna or Thomna, capital of Kattabanians, 509.
- Tana (Azov), route to China from, ii. 233.
- Tanagra, pottery at, 464.
- Tan-foo, Duke, removes from Pin to Chow, ii. 19, 20.
- Tang, see Thang the Successful.
- Tang Dynasty, rise and fall of, ii. 110, 138; Tang code drawn up, 132; official history of, 202.
- Tang-ja-wang = Adam Schall, ii. 250.
- Tangut, people of, ii. 217; language of, learnt by Chinese, 279.
- Taoism, ii. 145, 146; favoured by Hiouen-tsong, ii. 144.
- Taoist criticisms on Confucius, ii. 84; Taoist jealousy of Buddhism, 124; insurrection in Sz'chuen, 288.
- Ta-ouan, Han expedition against, ii. 109.
- Tar, Egyptian border fortress in Minæan inscriptions, 500.
- Tara, unit of civil organization in Malabar, 547, 548.
- Taravaram* of ground duty of Jaffna Malabars, 569.
- Taravad, see Tarwad.
- Tarchundarash, king of Arzapi, ? Reseph, 294.
- Taricheutes or parachistes, 164, 166; proprietary institutions of, 167, 168.
- Taririas, mother of Armenian king, Menuas, 303.
- Tarwad, tarawad or taravad, description of system, 552 ff.; tarwad system partly answerable for kanam tenure, 575; tarwad claims like those of epiballontes, 576; not lawful to marry any member of deceased wife's tarwad, ii. 469; tarwad rights, how far to be protected, 472, 473; claim of tarwad to share self-acquisitions, 473.
- Tatar aggressions on Chinese frontiers, ii. 133, 134; Tatars of all sorts adopt Chinese civilization, 173; costly embassies of, 242, 243; little wars with, 286.
- Ta-Tsin (Rome), projected Chinese embassy to, ii. 117; religion of, 149.
- Tau-kwang, recent Tsing emperor, ii. 289.
- Tavali, see Tavazhi, branch family in Malabar, 552.
- Tavazhi or tavali, action of English courts in regard to, ii. 461; claims of, to share self-acquisitions, 473.
- Tave, the servant of, renounces his master, 92.
- Tavium, sacred grove and place of refuge at, 420.
- Taxation and finance, officials connected with Egyptian, 63; taxation in Egypt fluctuates with the inundation, 69; taxation and rent, 130; taxation in ancient China, ii. 35-9, 41; taxation and revenue under the Han, 113-6, 121, 127; taxation and population under the Sung, 192; under the Mongols, 227, 228; under the Ming, 239; of foreigners in Cashgar, etc., 287; rate of, per head in modern China, 329, 374.
- Taxes, large land-owners offer to pay, for their dependents, ii. 150; taxes remitted in bad times, 360.
- Taxpayers not to be overcharged, ii. 365.
- Tchang, brothers, artists in porcelain, ii. 213; the elder imitated under the Ming, 256, 257.
- Tchang yang, negotiable notes invented by, ii. 193.
- Tchao-ing defends the legal rate of interest, ii. 328.
- Tcheng-ki-tong, results of residence in Europe to, ii. 337.
- Tche-tsong, Sung emperor, ii. 171; regulations of Wang-ngan-shi revived by, 202, 207.
- Tchin-tse on social utility of millionaires, ii. 326.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

548

INDEX.

- Tchin-tsong, Sung emperor, ii. 168.
 Tching-tsong, Chinese name of Timour, ii. 229.
 Tching y, master of the orthodox school, ii. 206-8.
 Tchu-wen, general, puts last Tang emperor to death, ii. 158.
 Tea, introduction of, ii. 130; not mentioned by Marco Polo, 218; tea trade, opening of Tatar to, 238; Tea and silk dealers' guilds, 338; charitable provision of, 378.
 Teacher paid by Kabyle villages, 536.
 Tea-pickers, wages of, 313.
 Tedjaris, mountains of, 232.
 Tefinagh or 'tiffinar,' old Berber characters called, 540.
 Tegean inscription, 438.
 Teie or Tii, wife of Amenhotep III., 129; mother of Amenhotep IV., 293.
 Teih, the barbarous, ii. 364.
 Teleboas, daughter of Lelex, 417.
 Tell el Amarna tablets, cuneiform correspondence between Egypt and princes of Asia, 251, 288, 291; bibliography of, 295 n.
 Tellou, inscriptions of, tr. by Amiaud, 239; remains of Lagash (Surgulla) at, 263.
 Telmessus, oracle of Apollo at, 434.
 Teman, wisdom of, 500.
 Temperament of Egyptians and Chinese, 223.
 Temple employes in Egypt, lists of, 64, 99; "Temple days" of the priests valued and bequeathed, 158; revenues so described, 173; Babylonian parallels to, 376; temples of the kings, endowment of, 179; royal gifts to, 171, 172; lands included in, 173; taxes assigned to, 176, 177; revenues received by, under Rameses III., 176; temple estates held upon trust, 173; gradual increase of, in Egypt, 175; temple lands granted to Greek mercenaries, 134; temple endowments taxed under Ptolemies, 179; Babylonian temples lend free of interest, 332; temple feasts at expense of priests in Caria, 432; temple of emperors and kings in China, ii. 256.
 Ten measures of wisdom, etc., according to Talmud, 353; ten years? normal term for antichretic mortgages or leases, 354; tens and threes in Doric states, 421; tens and thirties in Carthage, 394; ten, groups of, in Malabar, etc., 547, 548.
 Tenants in Malabar, theoretically hold at will, 575; twelve years' tenure secured by English courts, ib.
 Teng T'ung, Chinese Cræsus, ii. 156.
 Tenos inscription respecting sales and mortgages, 437, 453.
 Tenth of a man's property dedicated to Serapis, 176; "tenth year," amount of debt in the, 354.
 Terminations of Kassite and Vannic names, 303; Pelasgian do., 418; as and is in Isaurian inscriptions, 434.
 Teti, pyramid of, 153.
 Te-tsong, Tang emperor, ii. 151; conversation with a peasant of, 152.
 Thai-hio, imperial college, founded, ii. 118.
 Thamaout, Kabyle institution called, 469.
 Thang, the successful, founder of the dynasty of Shang, ii. 18, 28, 31, 57, 92; inscription on his bath, 74.
 Thapsus, a Tyrian colony, 406.
 Tharros necropolis, 401, 405.
 Theatrical performances in Dravidian villages, 566; theatrical company, pay of Chinese, 310; demeanour of audience, 382.
 Theban priesthood, aggrandisement of, under Rameses III., 177.
 Thebes, Memphis and Heliopolis, judges and high priests of, 171; chief priesthood of Thebes, 171; capital transferred, increase in religious importance of, 172.
 Theophrastus' name for lapis-lazuli, 232; on laws of Charondas, 449.
 Thera, inscription found at, reserves rights of daughters' descendants, 435.
 Thesawaleme or Tasawalamai, Ceylon law book, 559.
 Thessalian tribes with Amphictyonic franchise, 465.
 Thimecheret or division of meat in Algeria, 469, 435; Guanche parallel to, 543.
 Third Dyn. Egyptian kings, 42; third Chinese Dyn., fall of, ii. 97.
 Third year, land let for crop of, 334; third part of crop given to landlord by Ceylon custom, 569.
 Thirteenth (Egyptian) Dyn. kings reign in right of their wives, 119; king described as "son of queen mother Kema," 119.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

549

- Thirty judges or suteni in Egypt, 56 ; thirty years' jubilee in Assyria and Egypt, 300 ; Thirty, councils of, 472-4 ; thirty gerontes of Sparta, 472, 473.
- This, capital of 1st Egyptian Dyn., 19.
- Thoth, Egyptian table of precedence ascribed to god, 64 ; the registering god, 76 ; called l'aine, 122 ; wisdom of, stolen by Setnau, 218.
- Thothmes, a litigant, 86.
- Thothmes I., son of Nofert-ari-Aahmes, sometimes represented black, 120 ; conquests and tributes claimed by, 291 ; marriages of the four Thothmes, 110, 118.
- Thothmes III., reign of, 40 ; employment of his prisoners, 90 ; spoil taken by, 97 ; inscription of, 101 ; his ornamental tools, 103 ; conquests and tributes claimed by, 291 ; Thothmes III. and the ahoutou of Megiddo, 140 ; his gifts to temples, 172, 173, 175 ; empire extended to borders of Babylon, 287 ; Mimmuria of Tell el Amarna letters, 293 ; dated astronomically, ii. 438.
- Three hundred Igigi, 233 ; three years, leases for, 334 ; "three parts he made" at the time of cultivation, 335 ; threefold classifications in Asia Minor, 421 ; threes and tens in Doric states, 421 ; three cities of ancient Rhodes, 441 ; three grades of population, 465 ; three hundred, senates of, 472 ; three possible arrangements for household life, 493 ; three classes on island of Panchæa, 514 ; "three precious things" of Arab, 528 ; three dynasties of ancient China, ii. 22, 29 ; allotments of, 44 ; three years' mourning, when used, 70 ; three kingdoms, period of, 124 ; three hundred per cent. profits of trade, 334.
- Thsi yu on hereditary occupation, ii. 54.
- Thurium, city of, divided into four quarters, 421.
- Thyrea, city walls of, 486.
- Ti, description of wall pictures on the grave of, 66 ; on his dead wife, 199.
- Tibet, Chinese difficulties with, ii. 133, 134, 139 ; first mention of, in Chinese annals, 139 ; Tibet applies for Chinese protection, 279.
- Tibetan explanation of Basque rule against marriages between elder children, 558.
- Tien* or contract, Chinese mortgage called, 184 ; Amyot's description of, 184, 185.
- Tien-tchi on interest and rent, ii. 328.
- Tien-tsin massacre, causes of, ii. 378.
- Tiglat-adar, his seal captured and recovered, 254 ; son of Salmanasar I., 291.
- Tiglath-pileser I., king of Assyria, 254 ; inscription of, 254 ; denunciation of "unseen places" by 290, 291 ; wars with Marduknadinahi, 296.
- Tiglath-pileser III., ? a Babylonian named Pulu, 304.
- Tigris, floods of, 229.
- Tii or Teie, mother of Amenhotep IV., 293.
- Time book of Egyptian foreman, 70.
- Timit*, later Egyptian word for town, 39.
- Timour (Tchingtsong), ii. 229.
- Timuchi of Massalia, 424, 449, 452, 547.
- Tintir, sacred name of Babel, 262 ; 1st Babylonian Dyn. called of, 284.
- Tinu, dynasty of, 306.
- Tirhaka unites Egypt and Ethiopia, 312 ; recovers Memphis from Necho, 313.
- Tiruvalluvar, author of Kural, 566.
- Tiryms, walls of, 405.
- Tithe, the Li Ki on, ii. 36.
- Tiuspa, ? Teispes, the Achæmenian 311.
- Tlos, acropolis of, 428.
- "To bedaue," Bedja or Bega language, 531.
- Token coinage, Chinese approximation to a, ii. 157.
- Toleration edict of Kang-hi, ii. 276, 281.
- Tomb, lands or domain of the, 152 ; not to be built on private or temple lands, 161 ; as property in Egypt, 163 ; property in, in Caria and Lycia, 433 ; burial of valuables in, ii. 115 ; litigation respecting the sites of, ii. 359.
- Tones, use of Chinese, not at first understood by Europeans, ii. 267.
- Tong-kien-kang-mou, ii. 479.
- Topogramrats, 139.
- Tortoise shell, divination by, in China, ii. 37.
- Total abstinence societies in China, ii. 380.
- Totemism, no signs of, in Egypt, 145, 147.
- Touiza, Kabyle labour loans, 187.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

550

INDEX.

- Tourguts cross Chinese frontier, ii. 287.
- Tou-tsong, Sung emperor, ii. 177.
- Towarek laws of inheritance, 524 ; Towarek tribes, position of women among, 539 ; functions of noble or warlike, 539, 540.
- Town, "a righteous man who loves his," 245 n. ; "town and country, all my property in," a Babylonian formula, 324 ; independence of towns in feudal China, ii. 60.
- Trade organizations in later Egypt, 107 ; trades occupy special quarters in Egyptian towns, 109 ; trade routes from Euphrates to Mediterranean, 389 ; trade routes for tin and amber, 401, 402 ; for Milesian trade with Etruria, 424 ; from the Black Sea, 426 ; to China, ii. 140 ; trade guilds, ii. 318-30 ; all classes interested in trade, 325 ; trade with barbarians, laws on, 363.
- "Traders," name of Shang Dynasty translated, ii. 29.
- Trading class, status of, in China, ii. 323, 334 ; trading tribes of South Arabia, i. 503.
- Translators, two schools of, 320.
- Travancore, history of, by Mr. Shun-goony Menon, 554.
- Travellers, provision for, in Malabar, 564.
- Treasury bonds or fey tsien, ii. 163.
- Treaties between Carthage and Rome, 396 ; between Cretan towns, 474, 475 ; between China and the Leao, ii. 169 ; treaty on equal terms between China and the Kin, ii. 172 ; between Kubla and the Sung, 177.
- Trees planted on other men's land, 568, 569.
- Triad, divine and human family, 121 ; domestic Egyptian, 203 ; of Carthaginian oaths, 410 ; favourite Chinese, ii. 3.
- Tribute bearers, expense caused by reception of, ii. 110 ; so called, 241 ; tribute-paying families, proportion of, 168.
- Tribute of Yu, ancient portion of Shoo King, 18, 32, ii. 11, 13, 17, 21.
- Trigault on written character of China, ii. 264 ; his book on Ricci's mission, 267.
- Tripolis, Phœnician settlements called, 394.
- Troops" of young men in Crete, 471.
- Truddhu or watch-towers in Apulia, 447.
- Truth, Egyptian conception of, 44.
- Tryphæna, daughter of Pythodoris, 440.
- Tsao, state of, ii. 97.
- Tse, signs of the fall of, ii. 40 ; prince of, 83 ; scholar of, opposed to flatterers of T'sin emperor, 102.
- Tseng-kong superseded as historiographer by Su-che, ii. 202.
- Tseou, clan of workers in porcelain, ii. 213.
- Tse-tchi-tong-kien-kang-mou, history by Ssema-kwang, ii. 188.
- Tsi, see Tse.
- Tsien-tchi on free trade and diminishing returns, ii. 325.
- T'sin, state of, ii. 24 ; persons buried with duke of, 80 ; imperial territory ceded to, 81 ; usurpation of, 97, 100 ; character of, 102, 103 ; T'sin Dynasty, ten follies of, 105 ; duration of, 130.
- Tsin-chi-hwang-ti, Burner of the Books, ii. 100, 106.
- Tsing, Chinese rural unit, 38 ; village settlement with common well, ii. 42 ; "imperial fields," ii. 116.
- Tsing, speech of, ii. 102.
- Tsing-ti or promissory notes, ii. 193.
- Tsin-sse, duties of the first three, or doctors, ii. 255.
- Tso Chuen, Commentary by Tso on Chun Tsew, ii. 25 ; quoted, ii. 40, 54, 99, 102.
- Tsoo, human sacrifices in state of, ii. 80.
- Tsoui, pottery of the venerable, ii. 256.
- Tuition fees under the Sung, ii. 143 ; in modern China, 311.
- Tung-chi, recent Tsing emperor, ii. 289.
- Turano-Scythic group of languages, ii. 490.
- Tushratta, letters from, 293.
- Tutelage of women, objection to introducing in Malabar, ii. 471, 472.
- Twelfth Dyn. stele, 79 ; kings of, associate sons in government, 119 ; reward of gallantry under, 131 ; extra share of one-twelfth taken by eldest son, 217.
- Twelve Pastors of Chinese tradition, 32, ii. 21 ; twelve shekels per mina, interest at the rate of, 334 ; twelve per soss = 20 per cent., 334, 335 ; twelve witnesses to Ritti-Marduk's grant, 343 ; twelve cities of Etruscan federation, 424 ; council of, in Gran Canaria, 542.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

551

- Twenty-fifth Ethiopian Dyn., 190.
 Twenty-first Dyn. founded by usurpation of Hirhor, 178; influence of priesthood declines after, 192.
 Twenty-second Egyptian Dyn., Assyrian contemporaries of, 296.
 Twenty-sixth (Saite) Dyn., 120; antiquarian renaissance under, 253.
 Twenty-three histories, ii. 478.
 Twins of the Serapeum, 220.
 Two Brothers, tale of, 79.
 Two Crowns associated with two astronomical systems, ii. 438.
 Two families, difficulties arising from hereditary rights of, 216.
 Two literary young ladies, romance of, ii. 295.
 Tyana, horse breeding and sacred spring at, 419.
 Tylor, Mr., quoted, 231.
 Tyre refuses tribute to Assyria, 312; Tyre, Sidon, and Aradus, confederation of, 394; height of houses at, 406; fresh-water springs at sea off, 515; Tyre (or Tylos) and Aradus, islands in Persian Gulf, so called, 516.
 Tyrian Herakles, patron of Phœnician guild, 395 n., 508; Tyrian seas, dangers of, 307, 308.
 Tyrrenian license according to Athenæus, 448.

 Uahabra (Pharaoh Hophra)=Apries, 317.
 Ubarsin engaged in sales and partitions of land, 328, 331.
 Ugnu or Uknustone=lapis-lazuli, 250.
 Uigour poem, Kudatku Bilik, ii. 215.
 Ululai, ? the personal name of Samanasar, 306.
 Ummanigas, king of Elam, 307.
 Umpire city (ekkletos), institution of, 475.
 Un, nomarch of, 40.
 Una, Sixth Dyn., inscription of, 49; office held by, 46; he has access to the House of the Six, 61.
 Unas' pyramid, plummet found in, 103; funeral text found in, 153 n.
 Uncultivated land, ownership of, lapsed in Egypt, 141; law of, in Arabia, 525, 526; taxed in ancient China, ii. 50; in modern, 236; granted afresh by the State, 357, 362.
Undaruti panayam=vivum vadum, 571.
 Underground water channels, 422, 526, 527, ii. 454.

 Underselling and overcharging, the Yi King on, ii. 489.
 "Undivided half," 361.
 Uniformity of costume, ii. 64.
 Unit of French metric system, ii. 433.
 Unlawful to deprive a neighbour of his business, ii. 368.
 "Unnamed prince," exalted title of, ii. 211.
 Unploughed fields, forming pasture, 78.
 Unpopular officials repudiated, 88.
 Upper and Lower Egypt, division of the country into, 37.
 Upper Egypt, proposals for irrigation of, ii. 415.
 Ur, 230; a city of Sumer, 264; modern Mugheir, 271.
 Urardhi, modern Armenia, 298.
 Ur-bau, patesi, inscription concerning, 240; otherwise, Ur-bagas or Uruk, patesi of Lagash, 267; his buildings, 272.
 Urh ya, ii. 476.
 Ur-kagina, King, 246.
 Urmia lake called the lower of the Nairi land, 270.
 Ur-nina, King, 246; otherwise, Urghan, king of Lagash, 261.
 Urninghoul, patesi of Lagash, 262, 263.
 Urningirsu, son of Gudea, 267, 271.
 Urru (or Gurrur) dugga, a name of Eridu, 252.
 Uru-zag, name of Babylon or a quarter thereof, 284.
 Urzugurubar, father of Agukakrime, 286.
 Usufructuary mortgage, Malabar kanam, etc., 571.
 Usurtasen I., 56, 84, 96; associated with his father, 119; builder of temples, 171.
 Usurtasen II., 78.
 Usurtasen III., fortifies his southern frontier, 95.
 Usury, law against, ii. 369.

 Vaccæi, common cultivation of the ground among, 460.
 Vakhtang, Prince, Georgian laws edited by, 458.
 Vakhushta, Prince, 458.
 Valignano, Father Alessandro da, on China, ii. 265.
 Value of money in China, ii. 310, 311, 313.
 Valuer of horses, duty of, in the Chow Li, ii. 52.
 Van inscriptions, 302, 303; Van, called the upper lake of Nairi land, 270.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

552

INDEX.

- Varangis, female assemblies in Mini-coy, 567.
- Venetian gentleman on Chinese trade, ii. 260.
- Verbiest, Father, succeeds Adam Schall, ii. 382.
- Verumpattam*, Malabar land lease, 569.
- Viceroy of Canton, his appeal to Ricci, ii. 268.
- Village communities in Badakshan, ii. 43; village headman, functions of, under the Chow, ii. 44; village officers, 309; halls and libraries in modern China, 300, 309.
- Village, size of Peruvian, ii. 453.
- Vine, unknown to Akkadians, 231.
- Virey, M. Philippe, on Prisse papyrus, 43; version of P'tah-hotep by, 209.
- Virgil on silkworms, ii. 111.
- Virgins employed as recorders, ii. 260.
- Virtuous officers banished to remote governorships, ii. 147; series of, under the Ming, ii. 242.
- Virtuous ruler, ancient Chinese ideal of, ii. 30.
- Visscher's letters from Malabar, 548 ff.; on Malabar mortgages, 572.
- Vivum vadium* or vif-gage, ii. 416, 417.
- Voluntary subscriptions at Rhodes for public purposes, 442.
- Von Luschau's photographs of Armenians, 304.
- Votive tablets of Arabians, 509.
- Vox populi, vox dei*, ancient Chinese doctrine, ii. 31.
- Vulture stele, 261.
- Wadi Maghara, copper mines of, 95.
- Wages (Egyptian) paid in beer and bread, 54; real wages not low, 73; rate of wages in modern China, ii. 310-15; wages and prices fixed concurrently, 319; standard rate named in the code, 365; wages of women, 315.
- Waiters pay for their places in Marco's China, ii. 223.
- Walker, Major, Report on Malabar land tenures by, 570.
- Wall pictures of Egyptian tombs and temples, 103.
- Wang-mang, ii. 99; usurpation of, 114-6; enforces examinations, 120; compared to the Innovator, 187.
- Wang-ming-tse, family and farm of, ii. 298-303.
- Wang-mo-ki, valley in Fokien, ii. 298.
- Wang-ngan-shi, financier of Sung Dyn., ii. 116; called the Innovator, 170, 171, 173, 180; his rationalism, 181; theory of taxation and state trading, 182; Forced Labour Emancipation Act, and labour-aid-money, 182, 183; Green Sprout law (state loans to farmers), 183; Ssema-kwang's criticism on, 184; losses to the state by speculation, 185, 186; cadastral survey and Barter law, 186; law for protection of horses, 187, 222; his edition of the classics and death, 188; edicts for and against his doctrines, 207; remodels examinations, 210.
- Wang-pou, the blameless censor, "assassinated" by Tai-tsou-ming, ii. 239, 242.
- Wang-tchi-tchang on Ming finance, ii. 243.
- Wang-yu-pu's paraphrase of Sacred Edict, ii. 356.
- Wanli period = reign of Chin-tsong, ii. 249.
- Wan-yang against luxury, ii. 324.
- War gods let loose on Babylonia, 285.
- War horses, not to be allowed to feed upon the children, 241.
- Warka, ancient Erech, deeds found at, 322.
- Warnings to kings against injustice, 241.
- Warring state period, ii. 59, 91, 93, 97, 478.
- Wars between Babylonia and Assyria, 288, 289; Chinese wars with Hia Tatars and Tibetans, ii. 171; between Kin and Leao, 172.
- Waste lands, arrangements for reclaiming, ii. 284.
- Waste material, utilization of, ii. 317.
- Watch-tower dedicated to Attar by Minean princes, 500.
- Water-channels, numerous words for, 77.
- Water rights, disputes concerning, 343; water rights in Arabia, 526; giving water as a marriage rite, 462, ii. 474; water-tight compartments, boats with, 223.
- Water works near Tyre, 406.
- Watery abyss, the origin of all things, 236.
- Waving corn field, beauty of, admired, ii. 128.
- Wealth of ancient Egyptians not exchangeable, 67; of temple officers under Ramessids, 89; wealth spent

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

INDEX.

553

- by Chinese minister, lest its inheritance should demoralize heirs, ii. 55; concentration of wealth objected to, 329.
- Wei, state of, ii. 113; one of the three kingdoms, 124; coinage of, 156.
- Wei Shang, a Chinese Leander, ii. 67.
- Weights and coins of ancient China, ii. 57; weight-money, specimen of 7th century, 80, n. 1; weights, Egyptian and Babylonian, ii. 443, 444, 446, 447.
- Welsh laws of Howel on cutting timber, ii. 51.
- "Welsh mortgage" met with in China, Malabar, Egypt, and among Basques and Berbers, 323; nature of, ii. 417, 419, 420.
- Wen, king of Chow, 44, ii. 40, 121 n.; Wen and Wu, ii. 78, 92, 108.
- Wen-hien-thong-khao, encyclopædia of Ma-twan-lin, ii. 98.
- Wen-ti, minister of, on riches, ii. 199.
- Wen-ti of Wei Dynasty, ii. 128.
- Wen-ti—the learned prince, ii. 237.
- Wen-tien-hsiang on everlasting obligations, ii. 214.
- West of Thebes—the Necropolis, 89.
- Western Asia, protectorate of China in, ii. 117; intercourse with, 128.
- Western traders' overtures rejected, ii. 140.
- Wheels, philosophy of, in China, ii. 62, 63.
- White Syrians of Strabo, 386.
- Widowed gendre, Basque son-in-law, his portion, 218.
- "Widow's hills," ii. 342.
- Widow's son, in Oriental romance, 379.
- Widows, position of Chinese, ii. 347; "Hall of Rest" for, 355; not allowed to sell land, 359.
- Wife, Egyptian, position of, 200; if offending, to depart with her property, 202; various phrases for workman's, 205; allowance of 1,800 drachms to, 208; her consent necessary to her husband's acts, 209, 210; endowed in the interest of the children, 210; Babylonian wife compared to midday sun, 238; her dowry liable for husband's father's debts, 346; her property reverts to her own family, 377; husband required to join wife's tribe in parts of Arabia, 523; status of acknowledged wife in China, ii. 67, 68; "wife having the conduct of an officer," 349; inherits from husband, 347; not lawful to marry any member of deceased wife's tarwad, 469.
- Wills, 12th Dyn., Egyptian, 203; of foreigners, temp. Ptolemy I. and II., 221, 222; unknown in Babylonia, 377; will of Yang-chi, ii. 202; that ascribed to Kang-hi, 282, 283; wills in modern China, 351; objections to legalizing wills apart from marriage in Malabar, 473.
- Winckler, genealogy proposed by, 263.
- Witch and emaciated person, proposal to burn, ii. 51.
- Witnesses, six required for smallest transaction in Egypt, 195; qualifications of, in Georgia, 458; three required at Gortyn, 478; qualifications of, in Syro-Roman code, 491; examined under torture in China, ii. 376.
- Woman sells herself as servant or concubine, 92; "woman's language" in Akkad, 264.
- Women as witnesses to deeds, 371; Lycians said to be ruled by, 429; women in Carian and Lycian inscriptions, 429, 430; women's apartments at Tiryns and Mycenæ, 445; "women and two elders" of Minæan tribe make gifts, 509; influence of women in ancient Arabia, 521; position of, in Oman, 528; in East Africa, 531; in Asben and Towarek tribes, 539; in Canary islands, 543; women employed in Chinese palace instead of eunuchs, ii. 138; wages of, in modern China, 310, 315; penalties for offences against, 353; only imprisoned on capital charges, 371.
- Wonderful stories, book of, 402.
- Woo chang, confluence of the Han and Kiang at, ii. 13.
- Wood on climate of Pamir plateau, 16; on kishlak of Badakshan, ii. 43, 44.
- Wood, repulse of English expedition under Benjamin, ii. 272.
- Writings, inspector of, in 5th Dyn. tomb, 55; "writing for money," a sort of mortgage bond, 182; marriage with and without, in Syro-Roman code, 492; old Berber, mainly used by Towarek women, 540.
- Written characters, where invented, 4; introduction of written deeds in Egypt, 191.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02185-2 - Primitive Civilizations: Or, Outlines of the History of
Ownership in Archaic Communities, Volume 2

Edith Jemima Simcox

Index

More information

554

INDEX.

- Wu, emperor of the Han Dynasty (Han-wu-ti), ii. 105-7, 109, 111, 118; favourite currency of, 116.
- Wu, king of Leang Dynasty, ii. 146.
- Wu, son of Wen, ii. 18, 22, 28, 44.
- Wu, state of, ii. 97.
- Wu-heou, usurpation of Empress, ii. 133; examinations regulated by, 144.
- Wu-tching, president of Hanlin college, ii. 230.
- Wu-ti = the warlike Prince, ii. 237.
- Wu-tsung, anti-Buddhist edict of, ii. 148.
- Wu-tsung-ming, ii. 246.
- Yang-chi quoted, ii. 57; will of, 202; advice to his sons, 203; provisions for relations and servants, 204, 205; on tutors, 311; custom of his family, 362 n.
- Yang-choo, ii. 87; Epicurean egotism of, 89-91.
- Yang-chow, see Hang-chow.
- Yang-jin innovating Tang financier, ii. 150, 151.
- Yang-ke-ching objects to horse fairs, ii. 246.
- Yang-koui-shan, philosopher quoted by Choo-hi, ii. 213.
- Yangs, regency of the three, ii. 242.
- Yang-se-khy, advice to Seu-en-tsong, ii. 242.
- Yao, legendary emperor of China, 17, 32, ii. 17, 29, 45, 46.
- Yao and Shun, ii. 89, 91, 92.
- Yarim or Yarkand river, ii. 3, 5.
- Yarkand and Khotan, village clusters in, ii. 44; Yarkand and Cashgar welcome Chinese protectorate, 287.
- Year, length of Chinese, ii. 23; of Egyptian, ii. 441; of Babylonian, 437; Peruvian, 454.
- Yeha, inscription from, 510.
- Yeliutache, ii. 172, 227.
- Yeliu-tchoutsai, minister of Ogatai, ii. 175-7, 224.
- Yellow caps, insurrection of, ii. 121; yellow mantle, the badge of Buddhism, 145.
- Yellow river, change of its course, ii. 116 and n., 230, 287.
- Yemenite inscriptions, 19; intercourse between Yemen and Egypt, 501; commercial importance of ancient cities of, 503; noble ladies unveiled in, 521.
- Yen and Tse, alliance and gifts between, ii. 81.
- Yen-tze, quotation from, ii. 95, n. 2.
- Yenta demands a market for horses, ii. 246-8.
- Yesien, Chinese emperor captured by, ii. 242.
- Yew, king of Chow, ii. 28.
- Yi King, Chinese classic, 31, ii. 16, 200, 202, 207, 488-90.
- Yin, Bamboo annals end with reign of, ii. 29.
- Yng - tsong, Ming emperor taken prisoner by Tatars, ii. 242, 243.
- Yng-tsong, Sung emperor, ii. 170.
- Yo-fei, general and scholar, ii. 174.
- Young married women the victims in Chinese society, ii. 354.
- Yu, the great, hydraulic achievements of, 276; emperor of China, ii. 17, 20, 29, 30, 57; enumerates nine classes of land, 13; metal work the favourite industry of, 61.
- Yuen Wei Dynasty, ii. 144; sales of land restricted by, 150.
- Yule, Sir Henry, on Pegolotti, ii. 234.
- Yu-mon passage or Jade gate, 18.
- Yung-ching, Mantchu emperor, ii. 274, 281-6, 357, 380.
- Yung-lo deposes his nephew, ii. 239; tomb of, 241 n.
- Yunnan, rebellion in, ii. 278.
- Yuruks, 415.
- Zabibija, Arab queen, tributary to Tiglath-pileser III., 511.
- Zabid, women of, 523.
- Zabu, king of Babel, 282.
- Zaiton, see Zayton.
- Zaleucus, legislation ascribed to, 447, 448.
- Zamasumiddin, at war with Assyria, 291.
- Zarpanit and Merodach, gifts dedicated to, 286.
- Zayton = Chinchow, ii. 217, 218, 231, 232.
- Zerca el Yemamah, long-sighted Arab lady, 529.
- Zi = spirit, 235.
- Zimbabwe ruins, 518.
- Zodiac, constellations of, ii. 437.
- Zophar the Naamathite, 499.