

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02192-0 - To-morrow: A Peaceful Path to Real Reform

Ebenezer Howard

Index

More information

INDEX

A

- Act of Parliament for enforcement of rates unnecessary, 61. (See Parliament.)
- Administration, Chapters vi., vii., viii., and ix.; diagram 5; effects of dissatisfaction with, not greater than in any other municipality, 99
- Agricultural Land, its low value compared with city land, 21; its probable future rise in value, 138
- Allen's, Mr. Grant, Description of London, 150
- Allotments, their favourable situations, 26; high rents usually charged for, 26
- Ancient Mariner, Parody on, 155
- Appropriation of wealth-forms advocated by Socialists, 119; a new creation of urged as a counter programme, 124
- Austen, Professor Roberts, on the despair of London Statues, 8

B

- Bakeries, 78
- Balfour, Right Hon. A. J., on migration to towns, 89; real question for working classes is one of production, not of division, 118

- Baker, Sir Benj., Sewerage of London, 26; London Railways, 133
- Banks, Penny, precursors of Post Office Banks, 84; Pro-Municipal, 84
- Barwise, Dr., Water famine in Derbyshire, 9
- Beauty and Utility, Emerson on, 153
- Bees, Tolstoi on, 102
- Binnie, Sir Alexander, Sewerage of London, 26
- Birmingham, profits on gas, 62; cost of water, 162
- Blake's resolve, 12
- Boffin, Mr. and Mrs., 66
- Bruce, Lord, Liquor Traffic, 2
- Brussels, Boulevard du Midi compared with Grand Avenue, 16
- Buckingham, J. S., his scheme combined with others, 112
- Building lots, number and size, 32; estimated rents, 33
- Societies, a field for, 85
- Burns, Mr. J., M.P., L.C.C., 85, 142

C

- Canals, 130, 131, Appendix, diagrams, 6, 7
- Capital, How raised, 13, 37; security for, 58-60. (See

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02192-0 - To-morrow: A Peaceful Path to Real Reform

Ebenezer Howard

Index

More information

170

INDEX.

Wealth Forms and Vested Interests.)
 Cawston, Arthur, Scheme for London improvement, 150
 Central Council, Its rights, powers, and duties, 67; delegation of its powers, 68; how constituted, 70
 Chamberlain, Right Hon. Joseph, Limits of municipal activity, 64
 Charitable Institutions, 19, 61
 Children and water famine, 9; nearness to schools, 42
 China, Effects of opium, 2
 Churches, 16, 33
 Circle Railway, 16; cost of, 52, 54; Railway and Canal Traffic Act (1894), 55
 Cities, Alarming growth of, 2; true mode of growth, 45
 Clifford, on growth of railways, 129
 Coales, Mr. H. G., Water power, 166
 Cobbett, on London, 3
 Common ownership of land; how brought about, 12, 126
 Communism, Difficulties of, 94-6
 Compensation for improvements, 27
 Competition, Rents fixed by, 13, 17, 69, as test of systems, 17; effect on prices, 77
 Consumers' League, 79
 Co-operative farms, 17
 — kitchens, 15
 — organisation and disorganisation, 86
 — stores, 78
 — principle, ample scope for growth of, 19, 66, 80
 Country, depopulation of, 3
 Country life and town life contrasted and combined, 7-11
 County Councils, Larger powers for, 136
 Cow pastures, 17
 Cricket fields, 58
 Crystal Palace, 14, 73

D

Daily Chronicle. Cost of rehousing, 46; Schools at Eastbourne, 56; middle course between Socialism and Individualism, 94; Paraguay experiment, 99; art and culture for all, 128; on windmills, 164
Daily News. Life in our villages, 4
 Darwin, Chas., on necessity for coherence, 91
 Debentures A, Rate of interest and how secured, 12, 13, 58
 — B, Rate of interest and how secured, 36, 37, 58
 Departments, The, 68
 Diagrams. The Three Magnets, 8; Garden City, 12; Ward and Centre, 14; Vanishing Point of Landlord's Rent, 22; Administration, 90; Water supply, 130; Social Cities, 130
 Dickens, Chas., An appeal for homes, 51
 Distribution, A more just, of wealth, combined with greater production, 119

E

Eastbourne, School at, 56
Echo. On milk, 25; on children's school playgrounds, 36
 Electricity, profit on, in Manchester, 62
 Electric light, 24; appendix, 166
 Emerson, R. W., 153
 Estimates, 52
 Experimental method, James Watts', 91

F

Factories, 16; diagram, 3; estimated rents, 34

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02192-0 - To-morrow: A Peaceful Path to Real Reform

Ebenezer Howard

Index

More information

INDEX.

171

Failures foundation of success,
95; causes of former considered, chap. x.

Fairman, Frank, Poor cannot be raised without depressing rich, 118

Farningham, Miss Marianne,
"1900?" 107

Farquharson, Dr., on rings of middlemen, 24

Farrar, Dean, Growth of cities, 3

Floods and water famine, 9, 154

Force without compared with impulse within, 139

Freedom. (See Liberty.)

G

George, Henry, All blame on landlords, 125

Goethe, Duty the demand of the hour, 116

Gorst, Sir John, on growth of cities, 3, 11

Grand Arcade. (See Crystal Palace and Local Option.)

— Avenue, 16, 32, 33

Green, J. R., on sudden changes,
1

Ground rents 1s. 1d. per head,
32; how applied, 33

H

Hastings, Rev., on Paraguay experiment, 99

Hawthorne. Human nature, like a potato, requires trans-planting, 128

Hobson. Physiology of industry, 87

Hugo, Victor, on Parasitism, 20

Hyndman, Mr., Views of, 121

Hygeia, 20

I

"Impossibility," An, becomes a reality, 89

Increment of land value secured by migrants, 21

Individual taste encouraged, 15

Individualism and Socialism, line between must not be sharply drawn, 92-3; an excellent principle but should be associated with co-operation, 96; thus carrying out principle advocated by Lord Rosebery, 119; society may become more Individualistic and more Socialistic, 118

Inspection, 15, 69

Insurance against accident or sickness, 21

Interest. (See Debentures.)

Irrigation, 156, 159

Isolated efforts, necessity for, 96

Issues, distinct, raised at election times, 71

J

Jerusalem, Blake's Resolution, 12

K

Kelvin, Lord, duration of calms,
164; on windmills, 164

Kidd, Mr. Benj., on antagonism between interests of society and of individual, 119

L

Labour leaders, a programme for, 86

— saving machinery, object lesson in, 49

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02192-0 - To-morrow: A Peaceful Path to Real Reform

Ebenezer Howard

Index

More information

172

INDEX.

- Land compared with other wealth forms, 120, 124
- Landlord, Average man a potential, 126; landlords will become divided into two camps, 137, 138; their Nemesis, 148
- Landlord's rent, meaning of term, 28; vanishing point of, 22; insignificant amount in Garden City, 32
- Land system may be attacked without attacking individuals, 20, 126, 137
- Large farms, 17
- Laundries, 78
- Lawn tennis courts, 58
- Leases contain favourable covenants, 33
- Liberty, Principles of, fully observed, 18, 83, 96, 113, 143
- Library, Public, diagram 3; cost, 52, 57
- Lighting, 10, 18, 62, Appendix.
- Local option and shopping, 74; its effects on prices, quality, and wages, 76; it diminishes risks, 76; reduces working expenses, 77; checks sweating, 79; application to liquor traffic, 79
- Local Self-government, Problem of, solved, 68
- London, Growth of, Lord Rosebery on, 3; high rents, 21, 145; their impending fall, 145; sewerage system "unalterably settled," 26; area too small for its population, 31; growth chaotic, 36; Garden City contrasted with, 45; cost of its school sites and buildings compared with Garden City, 41; cost of dwellings contrasted, 46, 47; cost of water supplies, 162; excessive number of shops, 72; want of railroad system, 133; contrast with Garden City's system, 131; its future, chap. xiv.; its continued growth generally anticipated, 143; this leads to mistaken policy of London County Council, 144; its large debt and small assets, 145, 146; simultaneous fall of ground values and rise of rates as the withdrawal of population makes debt per head larger, 146; cost of moving to and from work ever increasing, 147; comparison with Garden City in this respect, 161; slum property falls to zero, 147; transformation of London, 148; London on strike against its landlords, 149; the "squalid village," unless entirely reconstructed, will become deserted, 149; existing proposals for reconstruction of, 150

M

- Machinery, 49
- Magnets, The Three, 8
- Management expenses, 57
- Manchester, profit on electricity, 62
- Mann, Tom, on the depopulation of the country, 4
- Manufacturers, choice of workmen, 74
- Markets, 72; town forms a natural market for farmers, 13, 18
- Marshall, Professor, on London overcrowding, 31; on organised migration, 106
- Marshall, A. and M. P., on excessive number of shops in London, 72
- Mason, Mr. Chas., C.E., on subways, 48
- Master-Key, 5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02192-0 - To-morrow: A Peaceful Path to Real Reform

Ebenezer Howard

Index

More information

INDEX.

173

- “Merrie England,” inconsistency of its proposals, 122
- Mexico experiment, 98
- Middlemen, their number reduced, 24
- Migration, organised, secures, (a) combined advantages of town and country, chapters i. ii. iii. etc.; (b) full increment of land values for migrants, 21; (c) saving of compensation in respect of business disturbance, 41, 46; (d) large reduction in railway rates, 25, 45; (e) the advantages and economies of a well-planned city, 45; (f) a splendid system of water supply within its own territory, (Appendix); (g) proximity of workers to work, 48, 161; (h) a greater extent of local self-government, 68; (i) plenty of space and avoids over-crowding, 84; (j) opportunities for economic use of money, 88; (k) a way of escape from present municipal obligations, 145; (l) a field of work for unemployed, 89; is advocated by Wakefield, 104; by Professor Marshall, 106
- Milk, saving effected in the case of, 25
- Mill, J. S., his endorsement of Wakefield, 105; on the ephemeral nature of wealth, 120
- Misgovernment, check upon, 67
- Money not consumed by being spent, 87; importance of dispensing with its unnecessary use, 88; set free from its enchantment, 88
- Monopoly, no rigid, 18; evils of may be avoided in the case of shops, and advantages of competition secured, 75
- Morley, Right Hon. J., on Temperance, 2; on the gradual adoption of new ideas, 82
- Motive power, Appendix
- Mummary and Hobson, “Physiology of Industry,” 87
- Municipal enterprise, growth of, how determined, 19; its limits, 64; at present small range compared with private, 99
- N
- Nationalisation must be preceded by humbler tasks, 85
- Neale, Mr. V., on excessive number of shops in London, 72
- Need, An urgent, 116
- Nunquam. (See Merrie England.)
- O
- Old age pensions. (See Pensions.)
- Order and freedom, reconciliation of, 143
- Ornamental waters, Appendix
- Over-crowding prevented, 84
- Owen, A. K., Experiment of, 98
- P
- “Palingensia; or The Earth’s New Birth,” 130
- Paraguay, Experiment in, 99
- Parasitism, effect of suppression of, Victor Hugo on, 20
- Parks and gardens, 14, 16, 32; cost of, 57
- Parliamentary powers unnecessary in the early stages of railway enterprise, but requisite later; so in relation to the reform initiated by proposed experiment, 128-136

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02192-0 - To-morrow: A Peaceful Path to Real Reform

Ebenezer Howard

Index

More information

174

INDEX.

- Parry, Mr. John., 19 tons of water per head per day, 154
- Pensions, 21, 61, and Diagram
- Philanthropic Institutions, 19, 61
- Plan, importance of in building cities, 45
- Playgrounds. (See Parks.)
- Police, 61
- Poor law administration, 61
- Population, England and Wales, 23
- Prices raised to producer, diminished to consumer, 25, 142
- Private and public enterprise. (See Municipal.)
- Production, Right Hon. A. J. Balfour on necessity of increased production, 118; increased production secured and distribution rendered more just, 119
- Pro-Municipal enterprise, chap. viii.
- Public-houses. (See Temperance.)
- these suffice to do, chaps. iv and v.
- Rates levied by outside bodies, provision for, 52, 60
- Receipts of Local Authorities for 1893-4, 23
- Recreation, boating, bathing, skating, 156. (See Parks.)
- Rents, computation of, in England and Wales, 23
- Revolution, Social, at hand, 135
- Rhodes, Dr., on growth of cities, 3
- Richardson, Sir B. W., on Hygeia, 20
- Mr., How it can be done, 42
- Risk of shopkeepers, 76
- Roads, cost of maintenance small, 16, 17; estimated cost, 52-4
- Rosebery, Lord, compares London to a tumour, 3; on borrowing from Individualism and Socialism, 119
- Ruskin, Mr. J., no air is sweet that is silent, 12

R

- Railways, their rapid growth, 129; a carefully planned system of, 131; chaos in London, 133; construction of railway system was a large order; a larger one remains to be executed, 140, 141
- Rates, reduction in, 25, 45, 55, 142
- “Rate-rent,” meaning of term, 28; revenue raised entirely by rate-rents, which are fixed by competition, 13, 17, 20, 69; tenants in occupation have some preference, 27; assessed by a committee, 69; estimate of, from agricultural estate, chap. ii.; from town estate, chap. iii.; what

S

- Sanitation, 15; Sir B. W. Richardson on, 20
- St. James Gazette* on dangerous growth of cities, 4
- Schools, sites for, 16; comparison with London, 41; estimated cost of buildings and maintenance, 52, 55
- Semi-municipal industry, meaning of term, 72, 73
- Sewage, 17; Victor Hugo on, 20; cost of system, 52; difficulties in London, 26
- Shaw, Mr. Albert, on science of city life, 63
- Shaw-Lefevre, Right Hon. G. J., on chaotic growth of London, 36
- Shops, factories, &c., estimated rents from, 34; excess of

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02192-0 - To-morrow: A Peaceful Path to Real Reform

Ebenezer Howard

Index

More information

INDEX.

175

- in London, 72; multiplication of prevented, 74; risk of shop-keepers reduced, 76. (See Local Option and Crystal Palace.)
- Sinking fund for land, 13, 20, 28, 35; for works, 52, 60
- Slum property declines to zero, 147; is destroyed and sites converted into parks, 147
- Small holdings, 17
- Smoke, absence of, 165
- Social cities, diagram 7, chap. xiii.
- Socialism complete, difficulty of, Daily Chronicle, 94; programme of Socialists does not represent a basis on which an experiment can safely proceed, 97; inconsistency of Socialistic writers, 120; their neglect of the land question, 125; their threats little heeded, 136; and their efforts meet with little success, 139
- Spence, scheme of common land administered by parish, 107; the difference between this and my own chiefly one of method, 108
- Spencer, Herbert, advocated common land administered by State, 109; his reasons for withdrawing his proposals, (a) evils attending State control, 110; (but my scheme, like Spence's, free from these evils, 110); (b) difficulty of acquiring land on equitable terms, and of yet making it remunerative to purchasers, 110; (this difficulty completely overcome in my proposals, 111); the "dictum of absolute ethics" that all men are equally entitled to the use of the earth practically realised under my scheme, 112; his objection on principle to State control rebuked out of his own mouth, 110
- Star, The*, on depopulation of country, 4
- Stereoscopic view of life, 93
- Strand to Holborn, new street 46
- Strikes, the true and the false, 86; of London against landlordism, 149
- Subways, growing need for, 48; their economy, 54; spoil used for raising reservoirs, 160
- Sun, The*, on subways, 48
- Sweating, opportunity for public conscience to express itself against, 79

T

- Temperance, Right Hon. John Morley on, 2; Lord Bruce on, 2; experiment may lead to temperance reform, 79
- The Times* on sudden changes, 1; on windmills, 164
- Three Magnets, Diagram, 8
- Tillett, Mr. Ben, on depopulation of country, 4
- Tolstoi, Count Leo, illustration of swarm of bees, 102
- Topolobampo experiment, 98
- Town life and country life contrasted and combined, 7
- Tramways, 62, 132
- Trees, 15, 32, 58

U

- "Unearned increment" a misnomer, 21
- United States, Cities of, 45, 46,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-02192-0 - To-morrow: A Peaceful Path to Real Reform

Ebenezer Howard

Index

More information

176

INDEX.

V

Variety in architecture, 15 ; in cultivation of soil, 17 ; in employments, 112, 113

Vested Interests, indirectly threatened, become divided, 136 ; the same thing has occurred before, 137 ; vested interests of skill, labour, energy, talent, and industry, the most important of all vested interests consolidated by the same force which divides the vested interests of land and capital in twain, 139

Villages, Depopulation of. (See Country.)

W

Wages, Effect of competition upon, 77

Wakefield, Art of Colonization, 104 ; J. S. Mill's view of it, 105

War, implements of, drop down, 141

Ward, Mrs. Humphrey, all changes preceded by sporadic efforts, 95

Wards, town divided into by boulevards, 14 ; each ward in a sense a complete town, 38 ; work on one practically complete before commencing on another, 39

Washington, U.S.A., its magnificent streets, 46

Waste products, utilisation of, 25

Water, scarcity of in country, 9 ; in London, 154 ; floods and water famines, 154, 155

Water-supply usually a source of revenue, 62 ; a new system of, diagrams 6 and 7, Appendix ; this system not an essential part of work, 155

Water-falls : instead of degrading let us create, 166

Watt, Jas., on the importance of constructing models, 91

Wealth-forms for the most part extremely ephemeral, 120 ; J. S. Mill on, 120 ; further view on, 125

Westgarth, Mr. William, prizes for essays on reconstruction of London, 150

Wilkinson, Rev. Frome, on high rents charged for allotments, 26

Windmills, 163, 164

Winter Garden. (See Crystal Palace.)

Women may fill all offices in municipality, 70, 92

Work, plenty of, 49, 88, 124, 140, 149

Workmen's trains, 149