

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03240-7 - Secrets of Conjuring and Magic: Or How to Become a Wizard

Edited by Jean Eugène Robert-Houdin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	PAGE
EDITOR'S PREFACE . . . . .	v
AUTHOR'S PREFACE AND DEDICATION . . . . .	vii
THE HOME OF ROBERT-HOUDIN . . . . .	i
The Priory— Electro-Mechanical Arrangements— An Electric Porter—Method of ascertaining at a distance of a quarter of a mile the Number and Character of the Visitors—Letter-box, indicating, at any distance, the Kind and Quantity of the Correspondence—The Way to secure to one's Horse Punctuality at Meal-times, and full Measure of Corn—An Irresistible Alarum—All the Clocks made to keep Time together—Big-bell Apparatus wound up by the Passing and Repassing of the Servants, without their Knowledge—Mode of compelling the Cook to have the Dinner ready at such Time as you please—Tell-tale Apparatus for Regulating the Temperature of a Hothouse—Fire Alarm—A Trap for Thieves—The Pistol Gallery; the Winner crowned by Electricity—An Aërial Railway . . . . .	pp. 2 to 18
INTRODUCTION . . . . .	19
CONJURING AND ITS PROFESSORS . . . . .	21
History of Conjuring—Cup-and-Ball Tricks among the Romans—The first Conjurors who visited Paris—Pinetti and his Imitators—The False- bottom Principle—Comte, Conjuror and Ventrilo-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03240-7 - Secrets of Conjuring and Magic: Or How to Become a Wizard

Edited by Jean Eugène Robert-Houdin

Table of Contents

More information

xii

Table of Contents.

	PAG
quist—Döbler and his new Illusions—Philippe and his Tricks—Establishment of the Soirées Fantastiques by Robert-Houdin—The Conjurors of Paris, the Provinces, and Foreign Countries.
THE ART OF CONJURING . . . . .	25
Conjuring divided into various Branches :—1. Feats of Dexterity ; 2. Experiments in Natural Magic ; 3. Mental Conjuring ; 4. Pretended Mesmerism ; 5. The Medium Business ; 6. Parlour Magic.
GENERAL PRINCIPLES . . . . .	32
What a Conjuror should Do, and what he should Avoid in his Performances.
THE HAND . . . . .	37
Description of the Hand, and of its various Functions in Conjuring.
ESCAMOTAGE, PRESTIDIGITATION . . . . .	41
Explanation of these two Terms.
CHAPTER I.—COIN TRICKS :—
RULES AND DIRECTIONS FOR THE EXECUTION OF VARIOUS SLEIGHTS WITH COINS . . . . .	45
I. The Palm Proper . . . . .	46
II. The Tourniquet . . . . .	51
III. The Pincette . . . . .	54
IV. The Coulée . . . . .	55
V. The Italian or “Thumb” Palm . . . . .	57
Disappearance by Means of the Sleeve . . . . .	59
Disappearance by Means of the Cravat . . . . .	59
CHANGES :—
Modes of Substitution of one Coin for another . . . . .	61
Change by Means of the Palm proper . . . . .	62
”          ” Coulée . . . . .	62
”          ”          a Tray . . . . .	63
THE WAND . . . . .	65

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03240-7 - Secrets of Conjuring and Magic: Or How to Become a Wizard

Edited by Jean Eugène Robert-Houdin

Table of Contents

More information

Table of Contents.		xiii
		PAGE
THE TABLE . . . . .		66
POCKETS AND POCHETTES . . . . .		68
THE COAT SLEEVES . . . . .		71
GESTURES :—
Formal Movements, Feints, and “ Temps ” . . . . .		73
THE EYE . . . . .		76
THE “ BONIMENT ” OR “ PATTER ” . . . . .		78
TRICKS WITH COINS :—
I. THE MELTING COIN.—To melt a Five-Franc piece, held in the Hand, at the Flame of a Candle, to cause it to pass into the Candle, to take it out again in a melted condition, and again to restore it to its original state . . . . .		89
II. THE FLYING COINS.—To make one or several Five-Franc pieces travel invisibly from the one hand to the other; and afterwards to pass through a Table and fall into a Tumbler held beneath . . . . .		93
III.—THE SHOWER OF MONEY.—To produce Coins from different Objects, under the very Eyes of the Spectators . . . . .		104
IV. THE MULTIPLICATION OF MONEY.—To Increase at the Pleasure of one of the Spectators the Number of certain Golden Coins which such Spectator holds fast in his Hands. A curious incident, with a laughable termination . . . . .		110
V. MAGICAL FILTRATION OF FIVE-FRANC PIECES.—Two Five-Franc pieces, each wrapped in a Handkerchief, are entrusted to two Spectators, placed at a distance one from the other. The Performer, withdrawing one of the Coins through the Substance of the Handkerchief, sends it to join the other Coin, without going near the Handkerchief which contains it . . . . .		117

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03240-7 - Secrets of Conjuring and Magic: Or How to Become a Wizard

Edited by Jean Eugène Robert-Houdin

Table of Contents

More information

xiv

Table of Contents.

	PAGE
TRICKS WITH COINS ( continued ):—
VI. THE INTELLIGENT COIN . . . . .	121
VII. THE TWO HATS.—Two Five-Franc pieces having been placed in a Hat, to make them pass invisibly into another . . . . .	124
VIII. THE GOLDEN COIN IN A DINNER-ROLL.— To find a Golden Coin in an unprepared Dinner- Roll fresh from the Baker's . . . . .	126
CHAPTER II.—CARD TRICKS . . . . . 130
VARIOUS SLEIGHTS EMPLOYED IN THE EXECUTION OF CARD TRICKS.
GENERAL SLEIGHTS:—
I. To Make the Pass . . . . .	134
II. False Shuffles . . . . .	139
The French Shuffle . . . . .	139
The Italian Shuffle . . . . .	140
The Partial Shuffle . . . . .	141
The Classifying Shuffle . . . . .	142
The "Fan" Shuffle . . . . .	143
III. To Force a Card . . . . .	146
IV. To Change a Card . . . . .	151
V. To Palm a Card . . . . .	156
VI. To Replace a Palmed Card . . . . .	161
VII. To Get Sight of a Card . . . . .	163
SPECIAL SLEIGHTS USED IN THE PERFORMANCE OF PARTICULAR TRICKS WITH CARDS:—
I. The Card Thought of . . . . .	164
II. The Pass, Reversed . . . . .	168
III. To Slide Back a Card . . . . .	169
IV. The Wide or Long Card . . . . .	171
V. The Bridge . . . . .	172
VI. Marked Cards . . . . .	173
VII. Cards arranged in a given Order . . . . .	176

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03240-7 - Secrets of Conjuring and Magic: Or How to Become a Wizard

Edited by Jean Eugène Robert-Houdin

Table of Contents

More informationTable of Contents.

XV

	PAGE
<hr style="border-top: 1px dashed black;"/>
ORNAMENTAL SLEIGHTS :—
I. To Make the Pass with One Hand . . . . .	178
II. To Change a Card with One Hand . . . . .	186
III. To Ruffle the Cards . . . . .	188
IV. To Throw a Card . . . . .	190
V. To Spring the Cards from Hand to Hand . . . . .	193
VI. The Cards simultaneously Turned Over . . . . .	196
VII. To Pick up an outspread Pack of Cards . . . . .	198
VIII. To Change one Pack for another . . . . .	199
TRICKS WITH CARDS :—
I. CLAIRVOYANCE BY TOUCH.—A Card having been secretly chosen, to Shuffle it well with the rest ; to place the Pack in the Pocket of a Spectator, and to produce therefrom the Chosen Card after a given number (fixed by the Audience) of other Cards . . . . .	202
II. MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. —To cause Three Cards to Leave the Hands of One Person, and Pass into those of Another, without yourself going near either of them . . . . .	207
III. THE CARDS PASSING UP THE SLEEVE.—To allow a Card to be Drawn, and having thoroughly Shuffled it with the rest, to make it Appear inside your Vest at any given Number, making all the Cards Pass in succession up your Sleeve . . . . .	211
IV. THE CARDS MADE LARGER AND SMALLER.—( Sequel to the “ Cards passing up the Sleeve.” ) With any Pack, to Cause the Cards to Increase to an extraordinary Size ; then to make them Smaller, and after having Reduced them to very minute dimensions, to make them Disappear altogether . . . . .	216
V. THE LADIES’ LOOKING-GLASS. — Eight Cards having been Chosen by different Persons, to have them Replaced in the Pack, and the Pack well Shuffled ; then after having Shown that the Cards

B

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03240-7 - Secrets of Conjuring and Magic: Or How to Become a Wizard

Edited by Jean Eugène Robert-Houdin

Table of Contents

More information

xvi

Table of Contents.

	PAGE
TRICKS WITH CARDS ( continued ):—
are neither at Top nor Bottom, to cause them by a slight Movement successively to take those Positions . . . . .	221
VI. THE SYMPATHETIC CARDS.—Two Packs of Cards having been placed upon a Table, and Two of the Spectators having secretly withdrawn One Card from each, to cause both Cards to be identical, although the Performer has remained throughout at a distance from the Table . . . . .	227
VII. THE ELECTRIFIED CARDS.—Four Cards having been Drawn, to Shuffle them well with the rest, and having placed them in a small Case, to cause them to Rise therefrom at the Command of the Spectators . . . . .	231
VIII. THE POWER OF THE WILL.—Four Cards having been freely Chosen, Replaced in the Pack, and Shuffled, to hold up all the Cards in the Hand, and by the Power of the Will, to cause the four Chosen Cards to rise in turn from the Pack . . .	238
IX. THE MESMERISED CARDS.—Having had Three Cards Drawn, Replaced, and Shuffled with the rest, to place the Pack in a Tumbler, and to Make such Cards Rise out of the Pack at Command, under the very eyes of the Spectators. . . . .	241
X. THE METAMORPHOSES.—Four Cards having been Selected from a Pack, to Make one of them Change successively into each of the three others . . .	245
XI. A MAGICAL TRANSFORMATION.—To Cause the Ace of Spades to Change Visibly into the Queen of Hearts . . . . .	249
XII. THE CARD THOUGHT OF.—A Card having been thought of by a Spectator, to Cause another Card Chosen from the Pack by another of the Company to be the Very One which was Mentally Selected . . . . .	251

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03240-7 - Secrets of Conjuring and Magic: Or How to Become a Wizard

Edited by Jean Eugène Robert-Houdin

Table of Contents

More informationTable of Contents.

xvii

PAGE

TRICKS WITH CARDS (continued):—

- XIII. THOUGHT ANTICIPATED.—To Place the first Card that Comes to Hand on a Table, and to Predict that whatever be the Card another Spectator may Please to Think of, such Card shall be identical both in Suit and Value with that which you have previously Removed from the Pack . . . 254
- XIV. THE THOUGHTS OF TWO PERSONS ANTICIPATED.—To Cause a Card Secretly Thought of by one Person to Appear at such Number in the Pack as another Spectator may Choose at pleasure 256
- XV. THE FOUR ACES.—To Make the Four Aces Travel to different Parts of the Pack, to Transform them into other Cards, and Cause them to Multiply to an unlimited extent . . . . . 260
- XVI. THE CARD IN THE POCKET-BOOK.—To have a Card freely chosen from a Piquet Pack; marked with a Pencil and replaced in the Pack; to hand the Cards to be Shuffled, and while the Spectator is still Shuffling, to take a Pocket-Book out of one's own Coat Pocket, and show that the Marked Card has already passed into such Pocket-Book . . . 267
- XVII. NOW!—To have three Cards drawn by three different Persons, and replaced in the Pack; then to Cause these Cards to appear at such Numbers as may be Chosen . . . . . 269
- XVIII. THE FLYING ACES AND KINGS.—The four Kings having been placed under a Hat, to make them come from thence into your Hand, while you send in their place four Aces which you have just shown to the Company . . . . . 272
- XIX. THE PROTEAN PACK OF CARDS.—Three Cards having been drawn by three different Persons and replaced in the Pack, to cause the Pack to Change again and again into Thirty-two Cards of the same kind as those which were drawn . . . 275

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03240-7 - Secrets of Conjuring and Magic: Or How to Become a Wizard

Edited by Jean Eugène Robert-Houdin

Table of Contents

More information

xviii

Table of Contents.

	PAGE
CHAPTER III.—SUNDRY EXPEDIENTS USED IN CON- JURING, AND TRICKS OF VARIOUS DESCRIP- TIONS . . . . .	279
To Palm Corks, Lumps of Sugar, and other Objects of small size . . . . .	279
A Digestive Dessert.—To Eat Corks . . . . .	281
Sundry Methods of Vanishing Articles for which the Assistance of a Table is necessary . . . . .	284
First Method. —To Vanish an Article in the act of Picking it up . . . . .	285
Second Method. —To Vanish an Article in the act of Throwing it up into the Air . . . . .	285
Third Method. —To Vanish an Article in the act of Throwing . . . . .	286
Fourth Method. —To Vanish an Article by Rolling it away . . . . .	287
Fifth Method. —Substitution of one Article for Another by means of the Second Method . . . . .	287
Sixth Method. —To Vanish a Pack of Cards . . . . .	288
Seventh Method. —To Change a Pack of Cards into a Bird . . . . .	288
Eighth Method. —To Introduce a Cannon-Ball into a Hat . . . . .	289
THE CHINESE RINGS.—To Make Solid Metal Rings Link one into Another, and to Form therewith Chains of various kinds . . . . .	291
THE CRYSTAL BALLS.—Mysteriously to Produce certain Crystal Balls, to Cut them in half with the Hand, to Change their Colour, and to make them Pass one into another . . . . .	301
THE CANNON-BALL TRICK.—To Produce one or more Cannon-Balls from a Hat lent by one of the Spectators . . . . .	312

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03240-7 - Secrets of Conjuring and Magic: Or How to Become a Wizard

Edited by Jean Eugène Robert-Houdin

Table of Contents

More informationTable of Contents. xix

	PAGE
THE PLUMES AND SHOWER OF SWEETS.—After having Produced from a Silk Handkerchief a considerable number of Military Plumes, to Produce therefrom also a quantity of Bonbons, which are Distributed among the Spectators . . . .	318
CHAPTER IV.—THE CUPS AND BALLS . . . . .	326
Appliances and Accessories necessary for the Performance of the trick of the Cups and Balls . . .	327
General Principles. . . . .	328
Feints. . . . .	332
Burlesque Introductory Address . . . . .	337
Old Method of Working the Cups and Balls . . .	339
Conus' Method           "       "       " . . . .	343
Bosco's Method         "       "       " . . . .	348
CHAPTER V.—THE BIRTH OF FLOWERS ; or, Magical Vegetation . . . . .	354
THE MIRACULOUS FISHERY ; or, The Bowls of Gold Fish . . . . .	362
THE MARVELLOUS EQUILIBRIUM. . . . .	369
CONCLUSION . . . . .	373