

INDEX.

- ABERDEEN, Lord. Recognizes Maoris as independent nation, 1.
- AUCKLAND. Site recommended by Rev. Henry Williams, 10; examined by Hobson, 11; fixed by Felton Mathew, 12; purchased and taken possession of by Lieutenant-Governor, 12; Major Bunbury recommends troops be concentrated, 17; garrisoned by 96th and 80th Regiments, 19; rumours of attack by Heke, 89; Bainbridge's description, 89.
- AUCKLAND, Lord. City named after, 12.
- BAINBRIDGE, W. T. Description of Auckland, 89; commandeering of drays, 147; recall of Governor FitzRoy, 215; arrival of Governor Grey, 217.
- BALNEAVIS, Lieutenant. Believes pa deserted, 254; extract from diary, 258.
- BARCLAY, Lieutenant. Commands 96th at Kororareka, 67; despatch to Governor, 80; court-martialled, 189.
- BERARD, Captain. Arrives at Bay of Islands, 130; description of Kororareka, 130; participates in loyal ceremony, 131.
- BRAMPTON REEF. How named, 146; British Sovereign strikes, 146; Pomare assists Captain Milne, 151.
- BRIDGE, Major. Arrives at Auckland, 97; attack on Pomare's pa, 107; description of camp, 110; reconnoitres Heke's pa, 114; first experience of battle, 117; in command at Bay of Islands, 122; attacks Kapotai pa, 123; asked by Nene to attack Heke, 129; peace negotiations, 129; brings Heke's letter to the Governor, 134; commands 58th at Ohaeawai, 152; description of attack on pa, 157; induces Despard to postpone assault, 161; description of assault, 169; commands camp at Waimate, 191; superseded in command of 58th by Wynyard, 213; criticizes Despard's tactics, 239; description of skirmish, 244; commands camps at Victoria and Wahapu, 262; meeting with Heke, 287; recommends Governor to meet Heke, 288.
- "BUFFALO," H.M.S. Arrives with detachment of the 80th Regiment.
- BUNBURY, Major. Declares sovereignty over South Island, 6; opinion of Hobson, 9; commands 80th Regiment, 14; recommends increase of force, 17; the Major and the Frenchmen, 18; returns to Australia, 20.
- BURROWS, Rev. Robert. Intercedes with Heke at Kaikohe, 57; description of Kororareka, 76; advises Nene against precipitancy, 101; interviews Heke at Puketutu, 113; further interview with Heke at Ohaeawai, 132; attends to Heke's wounded, 143; receives troops at Waimate, 147; description of Ohaeawai pa, 154; observes its construction, 155; efforts to procure British dead, 174; interview with Heke at Titirangi, 203; letter to Protector of Aborigines, 203; further letter, 208.
- BUSBY, James. Appointed British Resident, 2; assists in drafting Treaty of Waitangi, 5.
- CAMPBELL, Ensign. In charge of blockhouse, 56; surprised at blockhouse, 68; despatch to Governor, 79; present at Puketutu, 116; court-martialled, 189.
- CARLYLE, Thomas. English social conditions, 3.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03998-7 - New Zealand's First War: Or, the Rebellion of Hone Heke

T. Lindsay Buick

Index

More information

300

NEW ZEALAND'S FIRST WAR.

CAUSES of war. Economic conditions, 23; inefficient Government, 25; Heke's jealousy of British authority, 31; hanging of Maketu, 31; imposition of Customs duties, 33.

CHILDREN of Israel. Heke's comparison, 29.

CLARKE, George. Goes with Hobson to Waitemata, 12; appointed Protector of Aborigines; his influence; and FitzRoy's estimate of, 214.

CLENDON, J. R. Sells property to Government and receives grant near Auckland, 9; advises Major Bridge, 122.

COOK, Captain James. Rediscovered New Zealand, 1.

DAVIS, Rev. Richard. Opinion of Heke, 30; estimate of Maori feeling, 51; advises Heke against fusion with Kawiti, 60; suggests meeting between Governor and Heke, 60; receives letter from Heke, 201; opinion of Heke's letter, 202; last days of Heke, 290; final estimate of Heke, 291.

DESPARD, Colonel. Arrives at Auckland, 136; Governor's instructions to, 145; proceeds to Bay of Islands, 146; difficulties en route to front, 147; selects Waimate as base, 148; meets Waaka Nene, 150; meets Pomare, 151; pushes on to Ohacawai, 152; begins attack on pa, 157; sends for gun from Hazard, 160; attack on Waaka's Hill, 163; decides to storm pa, 166; tribute to soldiers, 172; decides to retire, 180; conference with native allies, 181; attack resumed, 183; occupies deserted pa, 184; collects military material, 195; orders levelling of earthworks at Waimate, 197; urges Governor to prosecute war, 206; forms camp at Kororareka, 215; prepares to resume hostilities, 219; advance on Ruapekapeka, 230; examines enemy position, 237; begins attack on pa, 251; preparations to storm, 253; empty pa occupied, 257; leaves for Sydney, 263; is made C.B., 263.

ECONOMIC changes, 24.

FITZROY, Governor. Arrives at Auckland, 22; inherits difficulties, 26; requests assistance from Sydney, 39; orders re-erection of flag-staff, 39; meets chiefs at Waimate, 41; abolishes Customs duties, 41; offers reward for capture of Heke, 48; gives instructions for defence of Kororareka, 55; calls Legislative Council together, 84; speech to Council, 85; attitude towards fall of Kororareka, 96; correspondence with Sir E. Home, 98; expedition against Heke despatched, 99; letter to Waaka Nene, 104; orders capture of Pomare, 105; releases Pomare, 108; congratulates Lieut.-Colonel Hulme, 128; plans a new campaign, 134; instructions to Colonel Despard, 145; recalls Despard and Hulme, 189; hesitates to prosecute war, 192; letter to Despard, 206; his peace terms, 207; proclamation of pardon, 212; is recalled, 215; his impressions of Grey, 216; his kindly forethought, 217.

FLAGSTAFF. History of pole, 2; native view of staff, 24; Captain Mayhew's attitude, 34; is cut down by Heke, 38; cut down second time, 47; cut down third time, 49; is re-erected with blockhouse, 55; is cut down for fourth time, 69; Captain Stanley commissioned to re-erect it, 296; re-erected by former rebels, 298.

FREE, Lieutenant. Description of charge at Ohacawai, 168.

FRENCH. Intervention feared, 3; frigate arrives, 18; King of France's men, 43; Le Rhin arrives at Bay of Islands, 131.

INDEX.

301

- GIPPS, Sir George. To direct Hobson, 4; appoints Hobson's officers, 8; countermands land sale, 13; authorized to send 100 soldiers to New Zealand, 14; his opinion of Hobson and Nias, 15; receives petition from Wellington settlers, 19; sends reinforcements to New Zealand, 97; rumoured visit to New Zealand, 216.
- GRAHAM, Captain. Arrives in H.M.S. Castor, 234; provides Colonel Despard with additional gun, 245; presides at peace meeting between Heke and Waaka Nene, 286.
- GRANT, Captain. Arrives with detachment of 58th, 97; present at attack on Puketutu pa, 120; participates in attack on Kapotai pa, 124; killed at Ohacawai, 170; his body lying exposed, 175; his body not recovered with others, 176; buried at Waimate, 177; his body mutilated, 187.
- GREY, Governor. Arrives at Auckland, 216; proceeds to Bay of Islands, 218; disapproves of disposition of troops, 219; declares against native "neutrality," 220; demands declaration from Heke and Kawiti, 222; decides to proceed with war, 227; instructs Despard accordingly, 228; passes Arms Importation Bill, 229; joins the troops, 234; examines Ruapekapeka pa, 237; insists on an additional gun, 245; directs Taonui to watch Heke, 248; requests Kawiti to send women and children out of pa, 250; treasonable letters, 259; discusses peace terms, 268; proclamation of unconditional pardon, 271; meeting with Heke, 288.
- HADFIELD, Rev. Octavius. Installed at Otaki, 10; keeps Ngati-Toa in check, 20.
- HABATUA, Te. Cuts down flagstaff, 38; is rebuked by Heke, 47; is wounded at Pukenui, 143; his pa is destroyed, 188; he is received into the Church, 296.
- HARIATA. Daughter of Hongi Hika, 28; is sent as envoy to Nene, 102; description of, by Merrett, 279.
- HAURAKI. Fights at Waikare, 125; death and burial, 127.
- "HAZARD," H.M.S. Takes troops to Bay of Islands; is recalled from Wellington; jettisons guns at East Cape, 55; sailors and marines fight at Kororareka, 64; council of war held on board, 73; receives fugitives on board, 73; her guns trained on town, 75; returns to Auckland, 89; supplies rockets, 110; receives troops on board, 121; Major Bridge completes his plans on board, 122; supplies big gun, 160.
- HECTOR, Cornthwaite. Directs guns at Kororareka, 56; drives off rebels, 70; protests against evacuation of town, 73.
- HEKE, Hone. Presents flagpole for Maori flag, 2; manifests restlessness, 26; personal history, 27; attitude at Paihia, 32; resents American whalers being fined, 33; seeking a cause of quarrel, 36; followers cut flagstaff down, 38; letter to the Governor, 42; cuts flagstaff down, 47; again cuts flagstaff down, 49; conference with Williams and Burrows, 57; joins Kawiti, 59; plans attack on Kororareka, 62; attacks flagstaff, 69; builds pa at Puketutu, 109; refuses to negotiate for peace, 114; successfully defends his pa, 120; letter to the Governor, 133; begins building pa at Ohacawai, 132; is wounded at Pukenui, 142; letter to the Governor, 194; further letter to the Governor, 201; his tone again turbulent, 223; letter to Kawiti, 241; joins Kawiti at Ruapekapeka, 249; letter to the Governor, 273; meets Waaka Nene, 286; meets Governor Grey, 288; his last public act, 289; death and burial, 290.
- HEMANS, Mrs. "England's Dead," 66.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03998-7 - New Zealand's First War: Or, the Rebellion of Hone Heke

T. Lindsay Buick

Index

More information

302 NEW ZEALAND'S FIRST WAR.

"HERALD," H.M.S. Takes Hobson to Waitemata, 7 and 10; takes Major Bunbury south, 15.

HILL, Lord. Limits troops in New Zealand, 15.

HOBSON, Governor. Arrives at Kororareka, 4; negotiates Treaty of Waitangi, 6; stricken with paralysis, 7; establishes town at Russell, 9; selecting site for capital, 10; establishes Auckland, 12; appeals for military aid, 15; becomes Governor, 21; his death, 21.

HOME, Captain Sir Everard. Correspondence with the Governor, 98; agrees to delay his departure, 99; treats Pomare kindly, 107; explores Kawakawa River, 229; superintends delivery of supplies, 234; visits Kawiti, 293; meets Heke and Pene Tau, 294.

HONGI HIKA. His last "word," 29.

HONOURS. Conferred, 263.

HULME, Lieut.-Colonel. Arrives in New Zealand, 20; commands force against Heke, 40; accompanies the Governor to Waimate, 41; takes Pomare prisoner, 105; abandons movement against Kawiti, 109; marches on Puketutu, 110; arrives at Okaihau, 112; attacks Puketutu pa, 116; formulates new plan of campaign, 134; is superseded by Colonel Despard, 135.

HYMNS, Maori. Morning and evening, 111.

JOHNSON, Lieutenant. Description of march, 112; personal history, 160; lands gun at Kawakawa, 246; estimates of Heke and Kawiti, 287; visits Kawiti, 293.

KAIKOHE. Residence of Heke, 27.

KAPOTAI. Tribesmen attack Kororareka, 67; their pa attacked, 122.

KAWAKAWA. Navigable river, 33.

KAWITI. His followers become troublesome, 43; his reasons for entering the war, 46; becomes popular, 47; suggests fusion with Heke, 59; throws divining-stick, 63; attacks Kororareka, 64; fights British at Puketutu, 119; builds pa at Ohaeawai, 132; resents Heke's peace suggestion, 144; defends Ohaeawai, 145; responsible for its lines, 154; peace negotiations, 200; begins to build Ruapekapeka pa, 200; offers to make peace, 210; will not surrender land, 211; refuses to make peace, 267; living at Waiomio, 291; meets Waaka Nene, 293; becomes Christian, 294; death, 297.

KAWITI, Maihi Paraone. Succeeds his father, 297; re-erects flagstaff, 298.

KERIKERI. Made base by British troops, 112; troops return to mission station, 121; Colonel Despard lands at, 146.

KORORAREKA. Description of, 4; Hobson reads Proclamations, 5; Government at, 7; Felton Mathew's advice, and disturbances at, 15; social state of, 23; preparations for defence of, 55; attack on, 64; town evacuated, 73; town burned, 78; troops return to, 215; Grey addresses chiefs, 219; troops leave for Ruapekapeka, 230.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL. Not called together, 22; abolishes Customs duties, 41; discusses fall of Kororareka, 84; passes Arms Importation Bill, 229.

MAIKI HILL. Flagstaff erected thereon, 2.

MAKETU. Murders Robertson family, 31; chiefs decide to surrender him, 32.

INDEX.

303

- MAORI Gazette. Native letter, 95.
- MATHEW, Felton. Arrives as Surveyor-General, 8; condemns Waitemata Isthmus as site for town, 11; fixes site for Auckland, 12.
- MERRETT, James. Description of bayonet charge, 119; visits Tako, 186; visits Heke, 279; visits Kawiti, 292.
- MISSIONS. State of, 95, 130, 275.
- NATIVE trade. Falling off, 24; Europeans dissatisfied, 26.
- NENE, Tamati Waaka. Meeting at Paihia, 32; guarantees good behaviour of Heke, 42; takes up arms against Heke, 100; attitude towards Heke, 101; skirmishes with Heke, 103; guides Hulme to Puketutu, 109; invites Bridge to return and attack Heke, 129; fights Heke at Pukenui, 136; meets Colonel Despard, 149; refuses to storm Ohaeawai, 161; assures Despard of continued support, 183; advances on Ruapekapeka, 239; repulses native attack, 243; opposes storming of pa, 253; enters empty pa, 256; pensioned, 263; negotiates pardon for rebels, 271; makes peace with Heke, 286; letter to Major Bridge, 287.
- NEW ZEALAND COMPANY. Colonizing scheme, 4; causes native unrest, 22; estimate of the Treaty of Waitangi, 32; manoeuvres for FitzRoy's recall, 216.
- NGATI-WHATUA. Sell site of Auckland, 12.
- NIAS, Captain. Quarrels with Hobson, 7; Sir George Gipps's opinion of, 15.
- "NORTH STAR," H.M.S. Arrives with troops, 97; takes troops to Bay of Islands, 105; celebrates Queen's birthday, 131; assists in Ruapekapeka campaign, 230.
- OHAEAWAI. Building of pa suggested by Heke, 133; Heke taken from Ohaeawai to Tautoro, 145; British troops arrive in front of the pa, 153; description of pa, 154; attack commenced, 157; assault ordered, 166; assault repulsed, 171; burial of dead, 176; Despard decides to retire, 180; is persuaded to resume attack, 183; pa deserted by defenders, 184; alleged torture of British soldiers, 185; moral effects of assault, 188; pa destroyed, 188.
- OTUIHU. Site of Pomare's pa, 105; Kawiti refuses to meet Mr. Williams at, 211.
- PANAKAREAO, Nopero. War with Heke, 30; joins Waaka Nene, 197; present at Ruapekapeka, 243.
- PENE TAUI. Defender of Ohaeawai pa, 145; pa built on his land, 153; he reproves Mr. Burrows, 155; he defends assaulted point of pa, 167; interview with Captain Home, 294.
- PHILLPOTTS, Lieutenant. Is taken prisoner at Kororareka, 61; describes conditions in stockade, 72; takes command of defence, 73; bombards town, 75; is killed at Ohaeawai, 170; buried at Waimate, 177; personal characteristics, 177.
- POMARE. Is misled by Captain Mayhew, 34; suspected of treason, 105; taken prisoner, 106; released, 108; arrives at Waimate, 150; leaves Ohaeawai, 151; his death, 296.
- ROBERTSON, Mrs. Murder of, 31.
- ROBERTSON, Acting-Commander. Is recalled from Wellington, 48; receives instructions from FitzRoy, 55; lands men at Kororareka, 64; is attacked by Kawiti, 64; is wounded, 66; services recognized, 67.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-03998-7 - New Zealand's First War: Or, the Rebellion of Hone Heke

T. Lindsay Buick

Index

More information

304 NEW ZEALAND'S FIRST WAR.

- ROUGH, Captain. Explores Waitemata Harbour, and appointed Harbour-master, 12.
- RUAPEKAPEKA. Kawiti builds pa, 200; troops march on pa, 237; description of pa, 247; attack commenced, 251; Heke withdraws, 253; pa discovered to be empty, 256; fight to recapture pa, 257; "treasonable" letters found, 259; camp broken up, 262; list of killed and wounded, 263.
- RUHE. Incites Heke to rebellion, 35.
- RUSSELL. Town established by Hobson, 13.
- SELWYN, Bishop. Rebuked by Heke, 30; describes fall of flagstaff, 39; is present at Kororareka, 74; buries the dead, 77.
- SHORTLAND, Lieutenant. Member of Hobson's staff, 8; Acting-Governor, 17; decides to mark time, 22.
- SINCLAIR, Doctor. Insists on re-erecting flagstaff, 48; attends Legislative Council, 84; proclamation of pardon, 271.
- "SLAINS CASTLE." Description of, 97.
- TAONUI. Joins Nene, 100; takes umbrage at Governor's letter, 104; captures Te Ahuahua pa, 128; fights Te Kahakaha at Pukenui, 137; advocates war with Heke, 198; set to watch Heke, 248.
- TASMAN, Abel. Discovers New Zealand, 1.
- TAWHAI, Mohi. Joins Nene, 102; skirmishes at Ohaeawai, 160; argues with Despard, 182; proceeds to Ruapekapeka, 235; takes up advanced position, 238; protests against storming pa, 253.
- "TORY." Sails for New Zealand, 4.
- WAIKARE. Kapotai pa attacked, 123.
- WAIMATE. Hobson recuperates at mission station, 7; FitzRoy meets chiefs at, 41; Waaka Nene arrives, 100; British troops arrive, 147; Heke's attitude towards, 152; camp established at, 191; station evacuated, 214.
- WAITANGI, Treaty of. Terms of, 6; Major Bunbury takes it south, 15; Heke's attitude, 28; chiefs decide to respect it, 31.
- WAITEMATA. Selected as site for capital, 12.
- WILLIAMS, Rev. Henry. Head of Anglican Mission, 7; meets Hobson, 10; suggests site for capital, 10; makes peace in native war, 30; calls meeting of chiefs at Paihia, 32; origin of Kawakawa unrest, 43; defends Treaty at Paroa, 52; meets Heke at Kaikohe, 57; he rebukes Heke, 58; present at Kororareka, 74; his estimate of the situation, 95; makes proposals to Heke, 129; seeks to recover dead at Ohaeawai, 171; conducts peace negotiations, 200; accused of writing treasonable letters, 259; his humanizing influences, 276.
- WILLIAMS, Rev. William. Advises conciliation, 38.
- WILMOT, Sir Eardley. Sends troops to New Zealand, 16; receives memorial from Nelson settlers, 19.
- WILMOT, Lieutenant. Sets up guns at Ohaeawai, 156; objects to storming pa, 161; is promoted, 262.
- WYNYARD, Lieut.-Colonel. Assumes command of the 58th, 213; proceeds to Ruapekapeka, 231; enters pa, 256; is made C.B., 262.

W. A. G. SKINNER, Government Printer, Wellington.

[1,000/12/25—23272]