

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-04460-8 - The Croker Papers: The Correspondence and Diaries of the Late Right Honourable John Wilson Croker, Secretary to the Admiralty from 1809 to 1830: Volume 3

Edited by Louis J. Jennings

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS OF VOL. III.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1843-1844.

	PAGE
Mr. Croker's Acquaintance with Samuel Wilberforce—Article on "Rubrics and Ritual"—Dr. Wilberforce on the Tractarians—His Review of certain Episcopal Charges—Bishop Phillpotts' Remarks on Newman and Pusey—Mr. Henry Drummond on Jewish and Modern Ecclesiastical Architecture—The "Young England" Party—Mr. Croker's reference to it in the Quarterly Review —Lockhart's description of the Leaders—Sir James Graham's Opinion—"Disraeli alone is Mischievous"—Sir Robert Peel's Sketch of the Political Situation—"The Times are out of Joint"—Mr. Lockhart on Alison's History—Lord Brougham and the Corn Law League—Criticism of Jesse's Life of Selwyn—Letter from the Duke of Rutland—Lord Ashburton's Advice to Peel to "Nail his Colours to the Mast"—Peel's Reply—Letter from Sir Peter Laurie—Carlyle on "Cromwellian Confusion"—Disturbed State of Ireland—Prosecution of O'Connell—Subsequent Proceedings in the House of Lords—The Reversal of O'Connell's Conviction—Mr. Croker's Letters to the King of Hanover—His Opinion of Railroads	1

CHAPTER XXIV.

1845-1846.

Political Events of these two years—Difficulties of Sir Robert Peel—Bill, Increasing the Endowment of Maynooth—Sir James Graham's Complaints of the Press—Mr. Croker on the Discontent of the Tory Party—Sir Robert Peel's own Views—The Landed Interest—The Potato Disease—Progress of the Anti-Corn-Law League—Peel's Change of Ground on Protection—His Treatment of the Cabinet—Dismay of his Supporters—Corre-	α 2
---	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-04460-8 - The Croker Papers: The Correspondence and Diaries of the Late Right Honourable John Wilson Croker, Secretary to the Admiralty from 1809 to 1830: Volume 3

Edited by Louis J. Jennings

Table of Contents

More information

iv

CONTENTS OF VOL. III.

PAGE

spondence between the Duke of Wellington and Mr. Croker—The Duke on Peel's Policy—Lord Brougham's Criticisms—Mr. Croker to Sir R. Peel and Lord Ashburton—Mr. Gladstone's Disapproval of Mr. Croker's Views—Lord Ashburton on Peel's Course—Announcement in the Times of Peel's intention to Repeal the Corn Laws—The Duke's Position—His Determination to stand by Peel—Mr. Croker complains of having been Misled by Peel—The Duke of Rutland on the Democratic Tide—The Bill for the Repeal of the Corn Laws—Correspondence between the Duke of Rutland and Mr. Croker—Letters to Lord Brougham and Sir James Graham—Mr. Croker's Opinions of the Repeal Bill—His Narrative to Sir Henry (Lord) Hardinge—The Repeal Debates in the Lords—Lord Lonsdale's Perplexities—His Reference to "Israeli"—Mr. Lockhart on the "New Timon"—Mr. Croker's Account of a Conversation with the Duke of Wellington—Letters from Wellington and Lord Stanley—Lord George Bentinck and Lord Lyndhurst—Correspondence on the Subject—Lord Lyndhurst's Statement as to his Appointments—A Visit to Strathfieldsaye	26
---	----

CHAPTER XXV.

1847.

The Differences between Mr. Croker and Sir R. Peel—The Duties of a Party-Leader towards his Followers—Miss Martineau's Calumnies—Last Letters between Peel and Croker—Mr. Croker's Articles in the Quarterly Review —His Criticisms of Peel—And of the "Free Trade" Policy—State of Ireland in 1847—No such thing as "perfect Free Trade"—Lord George Bentinck and "his Jew"—Proposed Payment of Roman Catholic Priests—Letter from Lord Stanley—Pamphlet on Peel's Commercial Policy—Lord Stanley's Reply—Lord George Bentinck—His rapid Advance in Political Life—The Rallying-point of the Protectionists—Lord George's Character—His letters to Mr. Croker—The Duke of Wellington and his Statue—His Strong Feeling against its Removal from Hyde Park Corner—Complaints of his "Persecution by all Factions" in 1808—Lord George Bentinck on Free Trade—Expediency of raising Revenues from Duties on Imports—Colonial Produce—The Question of Jewish Disabilities—The Potato Famine—Lord George on his own Career—His Impatience of the Apathy of "Vested Interests"—The Bank Charter Act of 1844—The Coercion Bill—Resignation of Lord George Bentinck as Leader of his Party—Continued Activity in Public Life—His Sudden and Mysterious Death	91
---	----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-04460-8 - The Croker Papers: The Correspondence and Diaries of the Late Right Honourable John Wilson Croker, Secretary to the Admiralty from 1809 to 1830: Volume 3

Edited by Louis J. Jennings

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS OF VOL. III.

v

CHAPTER XXVI.

1848-1849.

	PAGE
General Correspondence of these and preceding Years—Death of Sir William Follett in 1845—His early Success at the Bar—Great and Peculiar Reputation—His Politics—His Letter on his Illness—Correspondence between Mr. Croker, Lord Lyndhurst, and Sir James Graham—Letter from the Duke of Wellington on the Battle of Quatre Bras—Anecdotes of Mr. Pitt and Lord Grenville—Charges against Mr. Huskisson of Dabbling in the Funds—Lord Liverpool's Family and Character—Bishop Phillpotts on Forms of “Grace before Meat”—Lord Aberdeen on the Homeric Poems—Sir P. Francis and Junius—A Letter of Advice to Sir G. Sinclair—Pitt and the “Doctor”—Reminiscences of the Duke of Wellington—Division of Land into Small Holdings—Mr. Henry Drummond's Opinion—The Bishop of Oxford on the Conservative Leaders—“Blundering Feebleness and Dishonest Audacity”—Lord Lonsdale on French Affairs—Notes on Pope by Mr. Hallam and Samuel Rogers—The Duke of Wellington and French Politics—Proposed Statue to Lord George Bentinck—The Duke's Recollections of Lord Castlereagh—Letters from Mr. Charles Arbuthnot—And from Mr. Lockhart—Macaulay's History—Bishop Phillpotts' Criticisms—Remarks of the Duke of Rutland M. Guizot on the Corn Laws—Letters from Mr. J. C. Herries—Lord Lonsdale and Arthur Young's Travels—Notes on Difficult Passages in Pope by Lord Mahon	167

CHAPTER XXVII.

1850-1851.

Louis Philippe in England—Contributes to an article in the Quarterly —Anecdotes of the Ex-King—His recollections of Robespierre and Louis XVIII.—On French history—“The Future a Chaos”—Death of Louis Philippe—Suggestions and Recollections of the Duke of Wellington—Mr. Croker's Reminiscences of Curran—And of Kirwan—Archdeacon Manning “not yet gone abroad”—Lord Stanley (Derby) on Political Prospects—Future Dangers—The Tories “struggling against hope”—The “No Popery” Cry—Lord Holland's “Foreign Reminiscences”—Defeat and Resignation of Lord John Russell—Tory Prospects—The Bishop of Exeter on Free Trade and Taxation—Lord Stanley and the Government—His Forecast of Events—The Whigs and the Peelites—Anecdotes given by the Duke of Wellington—Prince Metternich's Opinion of Lord Holland's “Foreign Reminiscences”
--

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-04460-8 - The Croker Papers: The Correspondence and Diaries of the Late Right Honourable John Wilson Croker, Secretary to the Admiralty from 1809 to 1830: Volume 3

Edited by Louis J. Jennings

Table of Contents

More information

vi

CONTENTS OF VOL. III.

PAGE

- His Vindication of Himself and Refutation of Lord Holland's Statements — The "Système Metternich" — Lord Derby on Reform — Mr. Locke King's Bill — Mr. Croker on cheap Railroad Literature — Correspondence with Mr. Murray — Macaulay's "History" — Events in France — Remarks by Lord Derby — Louis Napoleon and the French War Party — Letter from Lord Lyndhurst 205

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1852–1853.

- The Conservative Party in 1852 — Its Return to Power — Lord Derby's First Administration — Previous Discouragements of the Party — Mr. Disraeli — Mr. Croker's Anticipations — His Belief that the Country was Conservative — His Advice to the Ministry — The Mistake of "a Budget before Christmas" — Mr. Croker's Criticisms upon the Budget — Lord Derby's "Raw Troops" — Lord Lonsdale on Mr. Disraeli — Irish Difficulties — Mr. Disraeli's "Powers of Speech" — Lord Hardwicke on Party Prospects — Downfall of the Derby Ministry — Mr. Croker's Retrospect of its History — Opinion of Mr. S. H. Walpole — Presumed Attack upon Mr. Croker in Mr. Disraeli's Budget — Lord John Russell's anomalous Position — Lord Lonsdale's Review of the Derby Ministry — His Account of a Conversation with Disraeli — Mr. Drummond and Conservative Principles — His Opinion that "all is up" — Death of the Duke of Wellington — Notes by Mr. Croker of his Last Interview with the Duke — The Cloak worn by the Duke at Waterloo — "Up Guards and at them!" — The Duke's Version — Letter from Lord Hardinge on the Funeral Car — Prince Metternich to Lord Londonderry — Dr. Johnson's Letter to Bennet Langton — Mr. Panizzi on the Readers in the Museum Library — Letter from Mr. Hallam — M. Guizot on French Politics — Lord Raglan's Account of the "Three Days" in June (1815) — Correspondence with Lord Palmerston — Lord Russell's 'Memoirs of Moore' — Mr. Croker's Article in the Quarterly — Lord Strangford's Opinion of it — Correspondence with Sir J. Graham — Letters from Lord Strangford — Lord Aberdeen and the Emperor Nicholas 252

CHAPTER XXIX.

1854.

- The Controversy over Lord John Russell's 'Memoirs of Moore' — Mr. Croker's Challenge — His Policy of "Living Down" Slander —

Cambridge University Press

978-1-08-04460-8 - The Croker Papers: The Correspondence and Diaries of the Late Right Honourable John Wilson Croker, Secretary to the Admiralty from 1809 to 1830: Volume 3

Edited by Louis J. Jennings

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS OF VOL. III.

vii

PAGE

- Mr. Disraeli's attack upon him—Not a Reader of Novels—Never read 'Coningsby' or 'Vivian Grey,' or a volume of Dickens—Repudiates the Suggestion of "Retaliating" on Mr. Disraeli—Hook's Novels—Mr. Croker and O'Connell—Letter from Lord Lyndhurst—The "Biography" of Mr. Disraeli—The Crimean War—Mr. Croker opposed to it, and agrees with Mr. Bright—His Reasons—Correspondence with Mr. Murray—Mr. Croker's attacks on Napoleon III.—Announces his Retirement from the Quarterly Review—Correspondence with Lord Lyndhurst—Mr. Croker denies being a "Russian"—His Views on the Eastern Question—And on the French Alliance—Lord Lonsdale's Opinions on Russia and America—Lord Raglan's thanks to Mr. Croker—Defeat of the Aberdeen Ministry—The "Raw Coffee" in the Crimea—Mr. Pitt and the Faro Bank at Goosetree's—Was Pitt a Gambler?—The Borough of Midhurst—Lord Brougham on the Fitzherbert Marriage—The Weakness of Government—Power of the Press—The Force which controls Public Opinion—Mr. Secretary Johnston—Last Letter from Mr. Lockhart—His Death 300

CHAPTER XXX.

1855–1857.

- Loss of many Old Friends—Mr. Croker's Unflagging Interest in Public Affairs—Letters from the present Duke of Wellington and Sir Robert Peel—Mr. Croker to Lord Campbell—Baron Parke's Peerage—Entailed Estates—The Life Peerage Question—A Difficulty in "Pope"—Explanation by the Duc d'Aumale—Dean Trench on the Ignorance of Candidates—The Waverley Novels—Mr. Henry Drummond on the Crimean War—Last Letter from Lord Strangford—His Death—Letter from Lord Palmerston—Mr. Croker's Reply—Correspondence with Lord Lyndhurst and the Duke of Rutland—Reminiscences of the Canning Administration—Letter from Lord Hatherton—Mr. Croker's State of Health—Recurrence of Fainting Fits—Last Letter to Mr. Murray—Lord Brougham on French Politics—Letter to M. Guizot in Defence of Wellington—The Tory Party and the Reform Question in 1832—The "Conway Papers"—Gift to the British Museum—Mr. Croker's Declining Health—His Patience under Suffering—His Religious Faith—Last Moments—Prayer on the Death of his Son—The End 344