

GENERAL INDEX.

A			PAGE
ABSTINENCE prescribed previous to certain religious ceremonies . . .	170	Anonymous informations . . .	360
Abusive Language , between equals . . .	354	Appeals , right of making, note upon . . .	ibid.
to an officer of government . . .	ibid.	encouraging such as are groundless . . .	438 between officers of the same tribunal . . .	355	generally to be received and taken . . .
from a slave to his master . . .	356	cognizance of . . .	451 to an elder relation . . .	ibid.	Army , government of . . .	208 to a parent . . .	357	Arrests and escapes . . .	420 from a wife to her husband's relations . . .	ibid.	Affociations , whether secret or public, strictly prohibited . . .	546
from a widow to her deceased husband's parents . . .	358	Astronomers , punishment of offences committed by . . .	21
Accessaries , how distinguished from principals . . .	32	neglecting to observe the celestial appearances . . .	187 to a theft, how distinguished from accessaries to a robbery . . .	299	Astronomical Board at Peking, commonly called Tribunal of Mathematics, note . . .	21
Accident , definition of, in cases of homicide . . .	314
Act of Grace or Pardon , how carried into effect . . .	19	B misapplication or disregard of . . .	457	Banishment , temporary is the third, and perpetual, the fourth degree of punishment . . .	2
Addressee to government, intercepting . . .	254	places of . . .	44
Adeodato , an Italian missionary, sentenced to be imprisoned for attempting to propagate the Christian religion . . .	532	extraordinary or military . . .	45
Adoption of Children , to what extent allowed . . .	84	returning from, prematurely . . .	423
Adultery , see Criminal Intercourse .		delay in executing a sentence of . . .	425
Affrays , punishment of the parties concerned in . . .	311, 326	services to be performed during . . .	458
Aged and infirm, exceptions in favour of care of . . .	25, 93	Barrow , Mr. his account of Travels in China, reference to . . .	318 establishments for the benefit of . . .	ibid.	Bodily injuries, punishment for inflicting, proportionate to the injury sustained . . .	325
		Books , possession and concealment of such as are prohibited . . .	179
		4 D 2	Books ,

Ediths,

GENERAL INDEX.		573
	PAGE	PAGE
E
Edicts , imperial, non-execution of,	65	False and malicious accusations 364 falsification of	392	reports of public proceedings 549 destroying or discarding	ibid.	reports of robberies 557 delay in expediting	71	Falsification of an Imperial edict 392
Embankments of rivers, damaging or de-		of verbal orders 394 stroying	471	Family property, disposal of, without neglecting duly to repair and main-		leave 92
tain	472	Female offenders, punishment of 459
superintended by the Emperor in per-		curators, misconduct of 510
son	479	Festivals and days of ceremony, observ-
Embassies , foreign, no trade allowed with		ance of 180 persons belonging to	259	provincial 191
to consist of a limited number of per-		Fetters and handcuffs, description of lxxv sons	544	to be used in securing prisoners 431
to be duly announced by the viceroy		Fines , tables of lxxii of the province in which they ar-		Foreigners , application of the laws in cases rive	ibid.	of offences committed by 36, 515
Embezzlement of public property	277	communication with, clandestinely supplementary clauses concerning	552	beyond the boundaries 232, 237
Enrolment of the people, mode of	79	important exemption in favour of 523 to correspond with their professions	82	Forfeited property , concealment or denial
Errors and failures in public proceedings	31	of 145
in military operations	215	appropriation of note 271
Errors and informalities in public docu-		Forgeries and frauds 392-403
ments	67	Fortified places, scaling the walls of 206
Eunuchs , restriction in the employment of	412	regulations concerning the gates of ibid.
Examination , judicial, to correspond with		Fraud , an instance of, punished 530
the charges received	444	Frontiers , the protection of 232
Execution , slow and painful, note concern-		Funerals , regulation of 190
ing	269
instances of	539, 540	G
Expreses and public posts	252	Gaming , punishment of 412
Expres-messengers guilty of delay	256	Gates of cities and fortified places, to be exceeding their allowances	257	closed and bolted at regular periods 206
Expres-post , reserved for important dif-		Graves , disturbing 293 patches	260	Great officers of state not authorised to
Extorting property by threats	288	confer appointments 51
loans and unfair sales	386	addresses in favour of 62
F
False weights and measures	165	H pretences, obtaining property under	289	Harbouring thieves and robbers 297 and deceitful addresses to the sove-		Harvests , destroying or damaging 104 reign	395	Hau-kiou-choaan , a Chinese Novel, edited by the Bishop of Dromore, note upon 107
		Heat

	PAGE		PAGE
Heat of summer-months, indulgence to prisoners and convicts in consideration of	489	Imperial palaces, passing through gates leading to	205
Hereditary rank , instances of its being annulled	501	presents, delivery of	180 not to be solicited	52	rank, how privileged	39 rule of succession to	49	retinue, failing in its attendance	196
High treason	269, 544	intrusion into space allotted to	204 trial and sentence of persons guilty of	493	roads, trespasss on	197
Ho-chung-tong , minister of China, his history	491	temple, entering unauthorizedly	193
Homicide (see Killing, Murder)	304—323	Impostors , pretending to be officers of government	398 examination of the body in cases of	452	pretending to be great officers of state	399 trials of persons charged with	521, 563, 566	Imprisonment , unlawful and forcible	335
Hoppo , or superintendant of the port of Canton, his edict	521	as a punishment, note upon	431
House-breakers , punished as robbers	555	of innocent and unimplicated persons	433
House-burning , accidental	415	Improper conduct , such as is not specifically provided against by any existing law	419 malicious	417	Incest , or criminal intercourse between relations	406
I		Indulgence to offenders , for the sake of their parents	20
Imperial almanac, counterfeiting	396	in consideration of their age, youth, or infirmities	23
barges, stealing from	552	Infanticide , note upon	347 blood, how privileged	5	Informations , irregularity in presenting	359 edict, non-execution of	65	anonymous	360 equipage and furniture, charge of	178	neglecting or declining to receive	361 guards, failing in their duty	195	such are not to be received, but transferred to others	364 manifesto, announcing a pardon to all persons who, after having been seduced to associate with the rebels, return to their duty	542	false and malicious	ibid. medicines and provisions, preparation of	177	table of reference in cases of	367 palaces, entering unauthorizedly	194	of offences punishable with extraordinary punishment	378 labourers in	198	against relations	371
gates of, passing through irregularly	199	presented by prisoners	374 passports and certificates of persons employed in	200	upon subjects affecting civil as well as military affairs	376 carrying weapons into	ibid.	on behalf of the private concerns of officers of government	377 shooting or throwing missile weapons against	202	fraudulent alterations in	462 soldiers on guard in, to be armed	ibid.	in cases of robbery, how to be prevented	557 convicted persons not to be employed in	203	magistrates suppressing, or compelling others to suppress	558
		Inheritance , regulations respecting	84, 525
		Injuries , neglecting to prevent those which are known to be designed, or to give information of such as are known to have actually been committed	323
		Insurrection ,

www.cambridge.org

576

GENERAL INDEX.

	PAGE		PAGE
Laws, military	193—267	Merchandize, false manifests of	156 criminal	269—462	valuation of	164
seducing persons to transgress	403	illicit exportation of	238 delay in the execution of	435	Men, a Chinese measure of land, note how to be observed in framing a judicial sentence	455	upon	94 false construction of	461	Military affairs, expresses concerning	212 relative to public works	463—474	breach of secrecy upon	213 supplementary	489. 525. 529. 543—563	arms and accoutrements, clandestine sale of	222
Licences of priests	83	destroying or casting away	223 of salt-merchants	148	prohibition of to private citizens	224
of commercial agents	163	theft of	276 of labourers in the Imperial palace	200	duties, relaxation of, and absence from	ibid.
Licences and passports, crossing a barrier		exercise and discipline	220 without	232	forces, employing without authority	208 granting or obtaining under false pretences	233	how to be employed in cases of insurrection	209
Literary degrees, partiality in conferring	55	not to be employed by princes or hereditary nobles	229
Litigation, exciting and promoting	375	horses and cattle	241
Lost and forgotten property	161	clandestine sale of	221 officers, not taking the field according to their instructions	215 unfaithful to their trust	217
		conniving at depredations committed by the soldiers	218 favour shewn to the relatives of	230 interference of in civil affairs	77 operations, to be regularly reported	210
		errors and failures in	215
		extract of an official report of	540 service, desertion from	228
		supplies, application for, and transmission of	214
		Monopolizers and unfair traders	164
		Monuments, public, not to be constructed except on suitable occasions	183
		defacing and destroying	411
		Mortgages, regulations concerning	101, 529
		Mourning, for deceased relations, how enforced	188 degrees of	lxxv, 487
		for the Emperor Kien-lung , directions concerning	486
		Murder, (see Homicide and Killing)	303 compromising and concealing, in the case of a relation deceased	322
		Musicians, exceptions in favour of	22
			Naval

GENERAL INDEX.		577
N	PAGE	PAGE
Naval force, Chinese destitute of	note 238
O
Offences, of officers of government	9
public	10
private	11
committed previous to their elevation	15
of persons not liable to banishment	12
of persons of the military class	13
of astronomers	21
of artificers, musicians, and women	22
of persons already under sentence of punishment	23
of persons surrendering voluntarily	27
of persons charged with several offences	29
of members of public departments, in their official capacity	30 committed by foreigners	36. 515
who are participators in	40
committed by persons seduced by others	403
miscellaneous	411
compromise and concealment of	415
against propriety	419
against nature	569
Officers of government, such as are removed without being disgraced	14
such as are disgraced as well as removed	16 limitation to their liability to punishment	note 51 enumeration of the principal, extracted from the Chinese Court Calendar	54 dismissal of, for misconduct	56
quitting their stations without leave	57 to proceed to their stations as soon as appointed	58
attendance of, at court	59
irregular interference of, with their inferiors	ibid. combination and collusion among	62
to have generally free access to the Emperor	181
Officers of government, honorary attendance upon, limited	184
neglecting their parents	189
guilty of exciting and causing rebellion by oppressive conduct	221 when deceased, their families to be conveyed home at the public expence	264 not to perform allotted services by substitutes	ibid. interference with public affairs without authority	401
to reside in the official buildings allotted to them	469 statement of crimes and misdemeanours committed by	491—514
Official dispatches, how transmitted	54
alteration of the contents of	74
conveyance of	252
on public affairs, proper style and tenor of	182
Ordinary cases, explanation of the term,	note 305
P
Palanquin, or sedan-chair of the Chinese, note upon	263
Paper-currency, unknown in China	note 124
Parents, their power over their children	note 292 disobedience to, and neglect of	374
Parricide, crime of, generally described	3
punishment of	305
Pecuniary malversation	382
table of reference in cases of	383
Period within which deserters may obtain pardon by surrendering	229 of responsibility for the consequences of a wound	327
Perjury, wilful and corrupt	note 364
Personal services to be levied impartially	86
to be allotted impartially	87
evasion of, generally	88
by concealment or desertion	89
excessive demand of	91
Piracies on the high seas	555
Police, nocturnal, regulation of	230
4 E	Police

578	GENERAL INDEX.
	PAGE	PAGE
Police officers , duty of	420	Proceedings , judicial, in cases in which all the offenders have escaped 29
refistance to, when performing their duty	ibid.	in cases in which only some of the offenders have absconded 34 periods allowed them in pursuing thieves and robbers	ibid.	in cases in which the laws appear contradictory 37
how punished when guilty of conspiring with thieves and robbers	556	in respect to the application of new laws 43
Portuguese at Macao, edict addressed to	515	false and deceitful report of 396
Post-houses , to be kept in repair	255	against superior magistrates 455 principal apartments of, reserved for particular persons	262	Prognostics , pretending to discover 401
Precious metals must be paid to government free from alloy	140	Proposals , making such as are illegal 413
Presents , acceptance of	387	Prophecies , on public affairs, prohibited 187
from the great hereditary nobles	391	Prosecutors not to be detained after the trial is concluded 445
Pretending sickness or death	401	Public buildings 463
Priests of Foe and Tao-ffe, laws relative to	42	due preservation and repair of 468 privately assuming the character of	83	looms, misapplication of 467 marriage of, interdicted	118	posts and expresses 252
drefs and behaviour of	186	property 124
Principals and accessaries, distinction between	32	privately lending and employing 133
Prisoners , escaping and rising against their keepers	422	fraudulent appropriation of 135 escaping through the connivance of the keepers	426	regulations respecting the receipt and issue of 139 securing the persons of	431	vexatious proceedings, in the receipt and issue of 140 ill treatment of	ibid.	responsibility for the damage or loss of 141 not to be allowed sharp instruments	ibid.	regular transmissiion of, from inferior to superior jurisdictions 142 making groundless appeals	438	intermediate charge of 145 supplies of food and clothes to	439	embezzlement of 277 occasional indulgences to	ibid.	misapplication of 466 indulgence to, when distinguished by their rank or former services	440	ways, regulations concerning 471 committing suicide	441	encroachment upon 473
at liberty either to plead guilty, or to protest against the charges against them	456	works, regulations concerning 463
Prisons , remark upon	431	ordering, without authority ibid. guards and attendants of	90	unnecessary and unserviceable 464 rescue from	281	to be conformable to rule and custom 465 abuses committed in, a statement of	509—514	Punishments , table of degrees of lxxiv. 1
Privileged classes, described	5	variation of, in respect to the Tartars 12 exceptions in favour of	7	how mitigated 13
note upon	490	rule for increasing and diminishing 38 infliction of, in an illegal manner 453 mitigation under particular circumstances 489
		Quarrel-

579

4 E 2

www.cambridge.org

GENERAL INDEX.		581
	PAGE	PAGE
Trial and sentence of several officers of the province of Canton	509	Unjust sentences, consequences of the declaration and execution of 447
of a British seaman, upon a charge of homicide	521	table exemplifying cases of 449 remarks on the foregoing	515	reversal of 450
of certain Chinese and Tartars convicted of embracing the Christian religion	532	Ujury , definition of 158 of Chen-te , a Chinese, who entered the Imperial palace with the supposed intent to assassinate the Emperor	537	Note upon 530 of Whang-chang-whay , a Chinese, upon a charge of homicide by gun-firing	563 of Lieu-hoey-kuey , a Chinese, upon a charge of having killed his hired servant	566
Tribunals , why so named	note 22 responsibility of the constituent officers of	note 30
V & U
Vaccination in China, its introduction by the surgeon of the English factory	note 319
Veterinary art, exercise of	243
Vicious and dangerous animals, to be marked and secured	248
Visitation of lands, suffering from any calamity	96
		W
		Warrant of execution, proceedings on the receipt of 460
		Witnesses , prevarication of 446
		Wives (see Marriages) lending for hire 110 regard to rank and priority among ibid. distinction between inferior and principal ibid. Worship , forms of, among the Chinese, different opinions respecting note 169 certain forms of, prohibited 174 Wounds, Wounding , see Killing, Striking, &c. periods of responsibility for the consequences of 327
		Y
		Yong-tching , Emperor of China, his prefatory edict lxix

THE END.

Strahan and Preston,
Printers-Street, London.