

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-04821-7 - On Sledge and Horseback to Outcast Siberian Lepers

Kate Marsden

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

PREPARATIONS.

The writer's object—Kindness of Her Imperial Majesty the Empress of Russia—The herb reputed to arrest the progress of leprosy—"No remedy"—Efforts to relieve the sufferings of lepers—"Shoot them!"—The claims of religion and humanity—Lepers in the East—Arrival in Moscow—The "Golden Headed City"—Journeys to St. Petersburg, and the gift of the Empress—Work in Moscow—Noble-minded Russians—Newspaper exaggerations—Kindness from high and low—Taken for a spy—Clouds clear away—"A pleasure trip"—My outfit—Mounting the sledge—Off	Page 1
---	---------------

CHAPTER II.

FIRST EXPERIENCES ON THE ROAD.

The pleasures of sledging along a broken-up road—Wolves—A cheap "hotel"—Frozen lakes—"Survival of the fittest"—Village dwellings—A chivalrous soldier—Ekaterinberg prison—Irbit Fair—A chaotic sledge-ride—"Pirate" drivers—Tjumen hospital—Roses in Siberia—A polluted river, and what the people thought of it—The peasants' love for the Empress—A petition to the Empress—Farewell to English hospitality	18
---	----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-04821-7 - On Sledge and Horseback to Outcast Siberian Lepers

Kate Marsden

Table of Contents

More information

xii

Contents.

CHAPTER III.

MOSTLY MISHAPS.

- Minor inconveniences—A specimen of “Young Siberia”— Russian harness—Shoeing horses—An accident—A smash
 —We are shot on to a river—Another accident—Those horses!—Tobolsk—Safe at Inkalisk—A levée—Visits to Inkalisk prison—A pitiable sight—Convicts travelling in winter—A petition to “Her Highness”—Visit to a “vagabond house” Page 36

CHAPTER IV.

CLANKING CHAINS.

- Home comforts at Omsk—An additional escort provided—
 Omsk prison and hospital—Free dinners for the poor—
 Deserted!—Meeting a gang of prisoners on the road—
 Scene in an étape—A great work for Russian ladies—A day of reformation draws nigh—Tomsk prisons—Dangers of crossing thawing rivers 52

CHAPTER V.

TARANTASS TRAVELLING.

- Krasnoyarsk and its institutions—Improvements in the Russian prison system—Character of the true Siberian—
 Buying a tarantass—How to “mount” a tarantass—
 Tarantass “rheumatism,” its diagnosis and development
 —Kansk, and its prison—Crossing a ferry, and arrival at Irkutsk 65

CHAPTER VI.

NEARING THE LEPERS.

- Committee formed at Irkutsk—My reception at the meeting, and the results of the deliberations—Official documents showing the position of the lepers in the Viluisck Circuit

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-04821-7 - On Sledge and Horseback to Outcast Siberian Lepers

Kate Marsden

Table of Contents

More informationContents.

xiii

since 1827—Sixty-four years' pleading—Miseries of the Yakutsk lepers—The leper outcast's doom—Departure for Yakutsk—Journey up the Lena—Chasing the Governor's steamer—Arrival in Yakutsk . . .	Page 73
---	---------

CHAPTER VII.

YAKUTSK—THE PROVINCE, AND THE PEOPLE.

Area, population, &c., of Yakutsk—Native traits and habits—Poverty of the people partly caused by leprosy—Rules of etiquette—Laying up stores for twelve months—Kindness of the Archbishop—Formation of a Local Committee for the lepers—"A chiel amang us takin' notes"—Arrangements for forming the cavalcade to the lepers—My outfit—The start for the 2000 miles' ride on horseback	87
---	----

CHAPTER VIII.

FIRST EXPERIENCES OF THE TWO THOUSAND MILES ON HORSEBACK.

What the map says—Sinking into bogs—Camping out—Mosquito torments begin—Sleeping in an old graveyard—A singular chorus—Siberian thunderstorm—A dead horse and an eagle—Filthy yourtas —Ravages of mosquitoes—A witch-fable—Earth-combustion—Fallen trees—Some results of our shaking—Bear alarms, and scaring methods—Food of natives—Frozen corpses—Graves with a tragic history—Keeping my journal—Depression—Arrival at Viluisk	97
---	----

CHAPTER IX.

MISERIES OF THE LEPERS.

General appearance of Viluisk—One doctor to 70,000 population—Father John Vinokouroff—Consultation—Looking
--	--

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-04821-7 - On Sledge and Horseback to Outcast Siberian Lepers

Kate Marsden

Table of Contents

More information

xiv

Contents.

for a hospital site—A midnight repast—Site of former hospital—Story of a supposed child-leper—Demoralisation of lepers in filthy yourtas—Setting off to a leper settlement—The mother and her leper-boy in the forest—Marking tracks for the journey—A motley group Page 110

CHAPTER X.

AMONG THE LEPERS.

A treacherous forest-path—Among the lepers at last—The lame, the halt, and the blind—Gifts to the lepers—Indescribable condition of the yourtas—Living with the dead—A healthy girl of eighteen with the lepers—A Russian's noble offer—Perils of the return journey—Alarms from bears and wild horses—A leap from the river—An unpleasant walk through the forest . . . 119

CHAPTER XI.

THROUGH FIRE TO THE LEPERS.

A girl's gratitude—Another journey—A weird spectacle—Choosing a site for the hospital—A priest's petition—Discussing the proposed hospital—Mutilated lepers—Haunted by leper faces—Lepers carried on bare-backed bullocks—A midnight march—Dashing through darkness—Forest solitudes, and screeching owls—An heroic husband—Children in yourtas—The earth on fire—Picking our way through the flames—A mad horse—Pitch-darkness—My little collie guides me—Seventy miles a day—A lone sick woman 127

CHAPTER XII.

FINISH OF THE TWO THOUSAND MILES' RIDE.

A sagacious dog—Twenty years a leper—Burying lepers—Father John's testimony—Leprosy "sent by the devil"

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-04821-7 - On Sledge and Horseback to Outcast Siberian Lepers

Kate Marsden

Table of Contents

More informationContents.

xv

—Ill again—Another faithful dog—An appeal for a hospital—A night of horrors—Forest perils, and swamp troubles—Baptism of a leper's child—Lepers crawling through the snow—The Holy Communion—In extremities—I succumb—My entry into Yakutsk in a cart—Troubles—Taken for a political spy at Yakutsk—Back to Irkutsk	Page 140
---	-----------------

CHAPTER XIII.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Reception at Irkutsk—Journey to Moscow—Incidents by the way—Opinion of scientific experts—Kindness of the American Ambassador—Meeting of medical men—Offers of help from Sisters of Mercy—My report to the Medical Society of Moscow—Letters of thanks	156
--	-----

CHAPTER XIV.

WHAT IS TO BE DONE?

The Leper Colony—Medical opinions on the methods proposed—Sympathy in London—My plans for the future—The claims of lepers all over the world—The one sufficient motive—For Christ's sake	172
--	-----

APPENDIX OF OFFICIAL PAPERS from Governors of Provinces, and other Persons in Authority	197
---	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-04821-7 - On Sledge and Horseback to Outcast Siberian Lepers

Kate Marsden

Table of Contents

More information

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS.

Her Imperial Majesty the Queen	Frontispiece.
Map of Route	To face page 1
Kate Marsden in Travelling-dress, with Map of her Route	” ” 15
Her Imperial Majesty the Empress of Russia, with Autograph Signature	” ” 33
Ordinary Sledge-travelling in Siberia	” ” 35
Murderers' Implements	” ” 59
Breaking up of the River	” ” 63
Destitute Leper—taken from Life	” ” 72
My Home in a Cargo-boat for three weeks on the River Lena	” ” 85
Our start from Yakutsk	” ” 87
Setting out on our ride of Two Thousand Miles	” ” 97
Hut or hovel of Lepers	” ” 118
The way in which the Lepers are herded together	” ” 123
Camping out at Midnight in the Forest	” ” 127
A Scene from Leper life	” ” 135
Tent-life among the Lepers	” ” 139
A Dog's Sagacity in Saving Lepers from Bears	” ” 140
Leper Woman at entrance of Hut	” ” 142
A poor Leper Woman dragging her food across the snow	” ” 144
A rough ride across the Marshes	” ” 147
Pastoral Letter from Bishop Meletie of Yakutsk	” ” 153
Meletie, Bishop of Yakutsk and Viluisk	” ” 154
The last stage of the journey in breaking-up season	” ” 163
The proposed Leper Colony	” ” 175
The Princess Shachovskoy, the Three Sisters who are already at work amongst the Lepers, and Self	” ” 192
Diploma of the Russian Imperial Red Cross Society	” ” 197