

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page.
PREFACE	xli
1279.
I.—23 May. To Margaret, queen of France. License for one of her clerks to study at Paris	3
II.—24 May. To pope Nicholas III. Account of the interview between the kings of England and France at Amiens	4
III.—25 May. To the bishop of Tusculum. Asks him to request the pope to write to the king thanking him for the restitution of the temporalities to Peckham	6
IV.—26 May. To John de Porogiis. Grant of the manor of Quincy for a rent of 100s.	7
V.—28 May. To Peter Albi. License to study at Paris for five years in accordance with the will of archbishop Boniface of Savoy	8
VI.—3 June. To Robert count of Boulogne and Auvergne. Sends a messenger about money left with his steward	8
VII.—4 June. To John de Chishull, bishop of London. Orders him to summon his fellow bishops and suffragans to meet the archbishop at Reading	9
VIII.—6 June. To pope Nicholas III. On his arrival in England found the prior of Canterbury under sentence of excommu- nication	10
IX.—To the justices. In answer to a writ of the king certifies that K. de Verdun was wife of Stephen de Befington . . .	11

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

	Page.
X.—11 June. To John de Reygate and other justices. Requests them to postpone certain proceedings against the earl of Gloucester till the king's return to England	12
XI.—12 June. To Amaury de Chanceus, sheriff of Sussex and Surrey. Demands the delivery of one of his tenants, in the sheriff's custody	13
XII.—14 June. To John de Reygate. Requests him not to infringe the liberties of his see, according to which cases in the Lowy of Tunbridge should be tried there	14
XIII.—17 June To the prior of Christchurch, Canterbury. Desires him to cease his prosecution of Wm. Franceis, parson of Riseberg, in a secular court	15
XIV.—9 July. To the dean of Lincoln. Empowers him to act on his behalf as to revoking the excommunication of the late sheriff of Lincoln by archbishop Kilwardby	16
XV.—11 July. To pope Nicholas III. Asks him to lend him 5,000 marks of the money collected for the crusade, to pay his loan from the merchants of Lucca	17
XVI.—12 July. To Latinus, bishop of Ostia and Velletri. Asks his favour for the bearer, his proctor	20
XVII.—12 July. To the bishop of Tusculum. Complains that certain merchants have procured his excommunication if their loan to him is not repaid at the stipulated time	21
XVIII.—19 July. To the abbot of Bardney. Orders him to receive back certain monks sent away by Kilwardby	23
XIX.—19 July. To the archdeacon of Bedford. Orders him to sequestrate the fruits of Wrestlingworth church	25

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xi

	Page
XX.—19 July. To Ric. Gravesend, bishop of Lincoln. Desires him to proceed against persons who have produced forged apostolic letters	26
XXI.—20 July. To the archdeacon of Canterbury, &c. Orders them to excommunicate persons who are injuring Christchurch	27
XXII.—1279. To Thos. de Ryngemere, prior of Christchurch. Offers him privately absolution for failure in paying the tenth, and dissuades him from applying to Rome	28
XXIII.—31 July. To the chancellor and university of Oxford. Protection and confirmation of their privileges	30
XXIV.—August. To the bishop elect of Dublin. Asks particulars about the date of the excommunication of the bishop of Chichester for not paying the tenth	32
XXV.—4 August. To cardinal Matthæus Rubeus Ursinus. On behalf of the convent of Canterbury in their suit concerning jurisdiction during the vacancy of the see	32
XXVI.—5 Aug. Indulgence for those who pray for the soul of Beatrice, daughter of Henry III.	33
XXVII.—9 Aug. To Anselm. The merchants of Lucca continue to persecute him	34
XXVIII.—To William de Braose, bishop of Llandaff. Desires him to excommunicate the false accusers of Walter, bishop of Exeter	35
XXIX.—To Nicholas of Ely, bishop of Winchester. Requests his presence at the consecration of the bishop elect of Dublin	36
XXX.—To the bishop of Winchester. Invites him to his inthronization, and asks him to send venison and game	37
XXXI.—To the earl of Surrey. Asks him to attend to his tenants' complaint about the excessive quantity of game on his land	38

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xii

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
XXXII.—To the bishop of Winchester. Concerning the admittance to ecclesiastical sepulture of a man who was killed by robbers and buried in the road	39
XXXIII.—9 Aug. To Hickling priory. In reference to the complaint of Alex. of Yarmouth, whom they refuse to admit to their house	40
XXXIV.—To the abbess of Wherwell. Desires her to receive an inmate nominated by him, as is usual by a new archbishop	40
XXXV.—12 Aug. To certain monks of Bardney. Desires them, having been expelled by Kilwardby, to return to their monastery	41
XXXVI.—12 August. To the mayor of Sandwich. Complains of the ill-treatment of clerks	42
XXXVII.—To Richard de Carew, bishop of Saint Davids. Advice about the punishment of W., rector of Penkethlin	43
XXXVIII.—13 August. To Ralph de Fremygham. Requests him to send back T. Malepoudre, of the order of S. Thomas of Acon, to the master	44
XXXIX.—16 Aug. To Walter Bronescombe, bishop of Exeter. Asks him to relax the suspension of the abbey founded by the countess of Devon	44
XL.—16 Aug. To the bishop elect of Dublin and M. Ardicio. Sends the copy of the confession of some monks	45
XLI.—17 Aug. To Robert Kilwardby, late archbishop. Concerning the crimes of a certain bishop	46
XLII.—17 Aug. To cardinal Orsini. Asks advice about the legality of acts done by the late archbishop after his translation, and about the appointment of coadjutors to infirm bishops	47
XLIII.—17 Aug. To the bishop of Tusculum. Desires the Roman court to lend him money collected for the crusade, to pay his debt to the merchants of Lucca	48

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xiii

	Page
XLIV.—17 Aug. To Benedict Gaietani. Asks for his advice	49
XLV.—17 Aug. To Gentilis. Explains his inability to pay the debt for which he is threatened with excommunication	50
XLVI.—18 Aug. To Kilwardby. Asks his favour for the priory of Christchurch, Canterbury, in a suit at Rome, and also for Robert de Cheleseye	51
XLVII.—18 Aug. To S. de Penecestre. Asks him to hand over the exchange at Canterbury to the keepers, as appointed by the king	52
XLVIII.—22 Aug. To the dean and a canon of Lincoln. Empowers them to visit Bardney abbey and report upon its condition	53
XLIX.—27 August. To the priory of Hedingham castle. Orders them to admit Agnes, daughter of sir Roger de Beauchamp, in whom the queen is interested	56
L.—30 Aug. To Roger de Seyton, canon of Lincoln. Nominates J. de Lascy as his coadjutor	57
LI.—30 Aug. To the prior of Canterbury. Advises him, being in trouble about the collection of the papal tenth	58
LII.—30 Aug. The papal tenth. Testifies as to the conduct of the prior and precentor as to the collectorship	60
LIII.—30 Aug. To the prior and convent of Christchurch, Canterbury. Intends to visit the convent	61
LIV.—1 September. To the official of the archdeacon of Canterbury. Orders him to excommunicate those who have usurped the jurisdiction of the see at Elstowe fair	61
LV.—2 Sept. To Kilwardby. Gives an account of the arrangement he has made with J. de Perogiis about the manor of Quinci in France, and also about the church of Charing	63
Q 8513.	b

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

	Page
LVI.—5 Sept. To the friars in chapter at Cambridge. Asks for their sympathy, and desires them not to absolve pluralists	66
LVII.—5 Sept. To the abbot of St. Augustine's, Bristol. In favour of a poor man who mortgaged land to him	68
LVIII.—20 Sept. To the bishop of Hereford. Gives him the collation of lapsed benefices	69
LIX.—21 Sept. To the bishop of Lincoln. Desires him to desist from troubling the people of his diocese by sequestrations and extortions	70
LX.—23 Sept. The dean of the Arches. Order to deliver to Roger de Rothewelle, the new dean, the seal, muniments, etc.	71
LXI.—24 Sept. To Edward I. Asks him to pro- rogate a letter of summons he has re- ceived	72
LXII.—10 October. To the vicar of Faversham. Gives him the custody of the nunnery of Davington	72
LXIII.—12 Oct. St. Augustine's, Canterbury. Pro- testation by Peckham that his carrying his cross into St. Augustine's abbey, when visiting the king there, is not an assertion of right	73
LXIV.—To the abbot of St. Augustine's, Canterbury. Asserts his jurisdiction over the abbot, for churches appropriated to his monastery, and his right to have the cross borne before him in the monastery	74
LXV.—19 Oct. To the dean of Arches. Desires him to order the master of St. Thomas of Acon to liberate two priests whom he took by violence from St. Clement Danes	75
LXVI.—20 Oct. To Llewellyn. Rebukes him for confiscating the goods of intestates, and otherwise infringing the liberties of the church	77

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xv

	Page
LXVII.—6 Nov. To the bishop of London. Desires him to summon the clergy of his diocese for the purpose of granting an aid to the king	78
LXVIII.—15 Nov. Appointment of J., archdeacon of Exeter, as proctor at Rome	80
LXIX.—16 Nov. To the bishop of Ely. Forbids his interference with the benefices resigned by Roger de Seyton	81
LXX.—19 Nov. Injunctions for Barking nunnery. Supplementing those of John, bishop of London	81
LXXI.—8 Dec. To the dean of Rochford. Desires him to excommunicate N. de Curteney for intruding on the property of the rector of Hockley	86
LXXII.—14 Dec. To the prior of Christchurch. Proxy for convocation at which an aid for the king will be granted	87
1280
LXXIII.—Jan. To the prior and convent of Christchurch. Forbids the appointment of monks as keepers of manors	89
LXXIV.—15 Jan. To R., official of Lincoln. Power to hear a cause between Almaric de Montfort and R. de Wynchelse concerning a prebend	90
LXXV.—26 Jan. To Roger, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. Intimates that he intends to hold a visitation	91
LXXVI.—2 Feb. To R. de Dreyton, treasurer of St. Paul's. Gives him the custody of the seal of John Chishull, bishop of London, who is infirm	92
LXXVII.—5 Feb. To the bishop of Ely. Desires him to inquire whether Roger de Seyton has sufficient dispensation to hold certain benefices	92
LXXVIII.—5 Feb. To the dean and chapter of St. Paul's. Desires them to make certain reforms already enjoined by him	93

b 2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xvi

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
LXXXIX.—6 Feb. To the dean and treasurer of St. Paul's and Fulk Lovel, archdeacon of Colchester. Power to act for the bishop who is infirm	94
LXXX.—17 Feb. To the chancellor of York. Gives the reasons for sequestering his benefice	95
LXXXI.—1280. To the archdeacon of London. Appoints him official according to the composition between the dean and chapter and archbishop Boniface	96
LXXXII.—26 Feb. To Adam de Hales, clerk. Creates him official of the diocese of Winchester, vacant by death of bishop Nicholas Ely, vice R. de Feringes	98
LXXXIII.—26 Feb. To Adam de Hales, clerk. Instructions	98
LXXXIV.—28 Feb. To the archdeacon of Oxford. Desires him to repeat to the Carmelite and Austin Friars his prohibition of hearing confessions	99
LXXXV.—1 March. To the bishop elect of Lincoln. Allows him to admit to Barton church, in the patronage of the convent of St. Mary de Prè, late held by Roger de Seyton	100
LXXXVI.—17 March. To the bishop elect of Lincoln. Forbids him to assign to the late prior of Luffield a portion outside the monastery, and desires him to order women not to frequent the cloister	101
LXXXVII.—19 March. To the abbot of Bardney. Orders him to receive back into the abbey certain monks	102
LXXXVIII.—25 March. To the bishop of Norwich. Requests him to pay a sum of money left with him by Kilwardby, at the approaching parliament at London	104
LXXXIX.—31 March. To the prior and convent of Ely. Being pressed by his creditors, asks them to be security for him for 1,000 marks	105

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS. xvii

	Page
XC.—31 March. To Hugh Balsam, bishop of Ely. To the same effect	106
XCI.—31 March. Bardney abbey. Appoints J. de Lascy to complete the visitation of the abbey of Bardney begun by Kil- wardby, in conjunction with the bishop elect of Lincoln	108
XCII.—1 April. To Edward I. In answer to a letter from the king asserts his right to visit his chapels	109
XCIII.—2 April. To J. de Lascy. Orders him to execute the will of Wm., bishop of Ely, one of the executors of which is dead	110
XCIV.—7 April. To Edward I. During his visi- tation of Lichfield excused certain clerks in accordance with the king's letters, but summoned others	111
XCV.—7 April. To Anthony Bek. Explains his citation for absence at the visitation at Lichfield	112
XCVI.—7 April. To the archbishop of Dublin. Concerning the exemption of the royal chapel of Penkridge	112
XCVII.—8 April. To Fulk Lovel, archdeacon of Colchester. Is sorry to hear of his re- fusal of the bishopric of London	113
XCVIII.—8 April. To Geoffrey de Mortemer, arch- deacon of London. Notice of the in- tended consecration of the bishop of Lincoln	115
XCIX.—9 April. To the prior of Tutbury. Forbids him to pay the pension which the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield has obliged him to grant to his cook	115
C.—11 April. To the prior of the Friars Preach- ers at Oxford. Concerning a delinquent friar	117
CI.—13 April. To his official of Winchester. Allows the executors of the late bishop to deal with his goods	118

	Page
CII.—14 April. To John de Somersete. Is willing for the bearer, a servant of the prince of Wales, to speak with Amauri de Montfort, if not displeasing to the king nor dangerous	119
CIII.—22 April. To Thomas, prior of Christchurch, Canterbury. Concerning money matters. Intends to consecrate the bishop of Lincoln at Lambeth	120
CIV.—30 May. To the bishop of Exeter. Has not revoked but only suspended the excommunication of a bailiff of the king	121
CV.—4 June. To his official of Canterbury. Concerning certain repairs to be done in the church of Bishopsburn, of which Otto Caputh was rector	122
CVI.—4 June. To Merton College. Exhorts them to observe the founder's intentions	123
CVII.—22 June. To the abbot of St. Edmunds. Against Ralph de Anne', who is injuring Christchurch	124
CVIII.—10 July. To Llewellyn. Is pleased at his composition with the bishop of Bangor	125
CIX.—22 July. To the rectors in exempt places. Grants to the rectors in exempt places in his diocese their ancient rights in testamentary and other causes	127
CX.—22 July. To the dean of Newcastle-under-Lyne. Orders him to excommunicate certain persons who have deprived the church of Mucklestone of tithes, etc.	128
CXI.—24 July. To the dean of Gartree. Orders him to sequestrate the fruits of Horton church for the repair of the chancel and to compel the prior of Wolston to contribute	129
CXII.—27 July. The dean and canons of Wolverhampton. Excommunicates them for resisting his visitation and cites T. de Camilla, who styles himself dean	130

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xix

	Page
CXIII.—29 July. To Edward I. Has received his letter, and will defer the execution of the sentence against Osbert of Bedford	132
CXIV.—To William de Senkeworth, canon of Lichfield. Sentence passed on him for various crimes	133
CXV.—9 Aug. To Llewellyn, prince of Wales. In reply to a question about the observance of the peace between him and Edward I.	135
CXVI.—1280. To pope Nicholas III. Antony Bek, the king's secretary, has surrendered some of his benefices	137
CXVII.—3 Sept. To the prior and convent of Winchester. Advice on the election of a bishop	138
CXVIII.—10 Sept. To pope Nicholas III. Recommends that the money collected for a crusade should be assigned to Edmund, earl of Lancaster	140
CXIX.—Sept. To the bishop of Chichester. Desires him to restore Julian la P. to the church of Compton	141
CXX.—17 Sept. To the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. Desires him not to interfere with the church of Aldelym which he has commended to A. de Eastry	142
CXXI.—26 Sept. To cardinal Orsini. Explains the false reports about his allowing plurality of benefices	143
CXXII.—26 Oct. For Antony Bek. Denies that he has obtained letters apostolic, forbidding his conferring any ecclesiastical honour on Antony Bek	144
CXXIII.—3 Nov. To the bishop of London. Orders him to appoint collectors of the fifteenth granted by convocation	145
CXXIV.—6 Nov. To Peter, papal vice-chancellor. Asks for directions how to deal with a monk of Pontefract and Montacute, imprisoned in London for forgery	146

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xx

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
CXXV.—11 Nov. The royal chapels. Notarial attestation of a sentence of excommunication on those who neglect the previous sentence	147
CXXVI.—17 Nov. To the bishop of Ely. The prior of Ely has urged the infringement of Peckham's prohibition of the use of the mutilated office proposed by the Benedictine chapter at Abingdon	150
CXXVII.—25 Nov. To the dean of Norwich and others. Against persons who detain the rents of the nunnery of Carhowe	152
CXXVIII.—13 December. To Edward I. Will grant John de Ausone longer license to study at Paris, when he knows how he has spent his time there	153
CXXIX.—To Edward I. Litera captionis (i.e. invocation of the secular arm), against Thos. de Aldelyne and others, excommunicated	153
CXXX.—13 Dec. To Roger de Longespee, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. Has authorised Ph. of Cornwall to complete the visitation of his diocese	154
CXXXI.—13 Dec. To Philip de St. Augustine. Commission to complete a process begun in the visitation of the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield	155
CXXXII.—13 Dec. To the bishop of Chichester. Desires him to pay £20 to the merchants of Lucca as his share of money lent for the affairs of the bishops and clergy of the province in the time of Kilwardby	156
1281.
CXXXIII.—4 Jan. To G. Giffard, bishop of Worcester. Explains his proceedings about the church of Chipping Norton	158

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xxi

	Page
CXXXIV.—5 Jan. To the prior of Christchurch. Hopes to spend Easter with him, as the king is not going to France next summer, especially if there is peace or truce be- tween the kings of France and Spain .	160
CXXXV.—8 Jan. To the bailiff of South Malling. Forbids his molesting poachers at Ring- mer if they are doing the penance en- joined	161
CXXXVI.—10 Jan. Sentence of excommunication against those who impede his visitation	161
CXXXVII.—10 Jan. Injunctions for the prior of Cokes- ford. Appointing persons to assist him and restricting hunting and chess playing	162
CXXXVIII.—To R. de Gravesend, bishop of London. Concerning the hanging of a clerk by Sir Hamode Hauteyn, and Peckham's re- fusal to confirm the election of the bis- hop of Winchester	165
CXXXIX.—To the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. Forbids him and his officials exacting more than legal dues, and desires him to take a suffragan	167
CXL.—15 Jan. To the chancellor of the university of Oxford. Orders him to declare Michael de Norhampton, executor of Richard King of Almain, excommunicated.	169
CXLI.—20 Jan. To Thomas de Weyland, justice. Complains of the conduct of Robert de Lytlebyr, his clerk	169
CXLII.—20 Jan. To the official of the bishop of Exeter. For the surrender of Culm- stok church by Robert Everard who has married	170
CXLIII.—26 Jan. To P., his official. Will search the archives about testamentary juris- diction when at Canterbury. Will hold an ordination at Sudbury in the first week in Lent. Asks him to ascertain whether the merchants of Sens will lend money .	172

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xxii

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
CXLIV.—30 Jan. To Richard de Gravesend, bishop of London. Cannot confirm Richard, elect of Winchester. Has not acted to his prejudice about Walden nor Bardney	173
CXLV.—To the priory and convent of Christchurch, Canterbury. Has heard scandalous reports about the monastery	174
CXLVI.—11 Feb. To the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. Desires him to reunite the church of Ottokeshale, which he has unlawfully divided	175
CXLVII.—17 Feb. To the prior of Yarmouth. Asks for evidence about extortion practised by his (the archbishop's) clerks	176
CXLVIII.—19 Feb. To the bishop of Norwich. Desires him to stop the extortions practised by his officers	177
CXLIX.—22 Feb. To Edward I. Explains the excommunication of the clerks of the king's chapels	178
CL.—23 Feb. To the archbishop of Dublin. The excommunication of the canons of Penkrige, etc., only affects those who resist his jurisdiction	179
CLI.—25 Feb. To Edward I. Concerning the excommunication of the king's clerks. Complains that he has deprived him of his right without judgment	180
CLII.—To Edward I. Defends the excommunication of the clerks of his chapels, who refused to prove their exemption from his visitation. They have no jurisdiction over the people	181
CLIII.—25 Feb. To the official of the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. He is to forbid the people confessing to or receiving the sacrament from unauthorised persons	183
CLIV.—24 March. To Edward I. Has ordered the sentences against his clerks to be deferred till parliament, except those of Penkrige	184

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More informationTABLE OF CONTENTS. xxiii

	Page
CLV.—25 March. Martin IV. to Peckham. On the death of Nicholas III.	185
CLVI.—25 March. To the bishop of Norwich. Asks for a repayment of money which the bishop has received from the property of Canterbury cathedral	186
CLVII.—31 March. To the prior and chapter of Canterbury. Is obliged to put off his visit to them. Will accompany the king to the continent	188
CLVIII.—31 March. To the nuns of Burnham. Will pursue his right to nominate a nun, in spite of their refusal and the alleged prohibition of the earl of Cornwall	189
CLXIX.—2 April. To pope Martin IV. As the king cannot take part in the expected crusade, advises that the money collected should be assigned to his brother Edmund	190
CLX.—4 April. Peckham to Peter, papal vice-chancellor. Asks for instructions about a criminous monk. Complains of privileges in England supported by forgery	192
CLXI.—24 April. To the bishop of Norwich. Orders him to sequester the profits of deaneries of which the deans are not resident	193
CLXII.—6 May. To the chancellor of Oxford. Directs part of the farm of the church of Newnton to be given to the poor, and the remainder paid to the merchants of Lucca	194
CLXIII.—19 May. To the convent of Christchurch, Canterbury. Postponed his visit to them on account of the king's intended voyage to France, and is now going to Bath	195
CLXIV.—21 May. To Edward I. Appoints the archdeacon of Canterbury and the dean of Arches his proctors concerning the royal chapels	196

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xxiv

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
CLXV.—21 May. To Roger, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. Desires him to send a proctor to complete the matter between them	196
CLXVI.—27 May. To Edward I. Will make a compromise with the dean of Lichfield, whose benefice of Northflete he has given to another	197
CLXVII.—29 May. To Edward I. The case between J. de Berewik and N. de Audeby, concerning Droxford, must go on	199
CLXVIII.—10 June. Archiepiscopal visitation. Excommunication of persons who intend to interfere with his visitation or jurisdiction	200
CLXIX.—9 July. The abbot of Gloucester to Peckham. Assents to the collation of Ric. of Gloucester to the church of Chipping Norton	201
CLXX.—11 July. To Peter Albi alias Blanci. Disapproves of suggestions made by him as to carrying out the will of Boniface of Savoy	202
CLXXI.—To the archdeacon of Derby. Appoints him coadjutor of the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield	203
CLXXII.—14 July. To the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. Appoints the archdeacon of Derby as his coadjutor, according to his wish	205
CLXXIII.—15 July. To cardinal Orsini. Complains of the delay in the case of the bishop elect of Winchester	206
CLXXIV.—18 July. To the abbot of Ghent. Asks whether he will sell or let Lewisham to him	207
CLXXV.—19 July. To the bishop of Rochester. Orders him to place the churches belonging to Bayham abbey under an interdict	208

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More informationTABLE OF CONTENTS. xxv

	Page
CLXXVI.—22 July. To the bishop of Bath. Asks his help against the abbot of Cumbermere, who has sued the prior of Ware in the king's court	209
CLXXVII.—24 July. To the archdeacon of Lewes. Sequestration of the profits of Bayham abbey	210
CLXXVIII.—30 July. To the bishop of London. Orders him to cite the clergy to meet at Lambeth, on October 7th	211
CLXXIX.—30 July. To the bishop of London. Complains of his having disregarded his ordinances for Walden abbey. The building of a new synagogue in London must be stopped	212
CLXXX.—3 August. To pope Martin IV. Reminds him of the troubles of his province	213
CLXXXI.—11 August. To the abbot of St. Alban's. Desires him to revoke a sentence in a cause between the Cistercians and Friars Minors at Scarborough, to the prejudice of the latter	214
CLXXXII.—11 August. To the bishop of Winchester. On behalf of the Friars Minors at Scarborough, who are threatened with an adverse sentence by the abbot of St. Alban's	216
CLXXXIII.—13 August. To the dean of Winchester. Sequestration of Twyford church for the vicar's contumacy	217
CLXXXIV.—16 August. To the bishop of Salisbury. Complaining of his neglect to institute to the church of Inkpen, on the presentation of the prior of Dudley	218
CLXXXV.—24 August. To the official of Winchester. Orders him to forbid Carmelite friars and others preaching without license	219
CLXXXVI.—25 August. To cardinal Hugh of Evesham. Disbelieves the report that he favours the cause of the bishop elect of Winchester	219

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xxvi

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
CLXXXVII.—25 August. To the dean of Pevensey. Has absolved the abbot, etc., of Bay- ham	220
CLXXXVIII.—3 Sept. To the dean and chapter of Rouen. Answers their complaint about the sequestration of the church of Ottery	221
CLXXXIX.—13 Sept. Reading abbey. Injunctions supplementing previous ones of Kil- wardby	223
CXC.—15 Sept. To the prior of Christchurch. Asks him to take depositions of the monks in writing, to save time at the visitation	226
CXCI.—18 Sept. To cardinal Matthew Orsini. Asks aid in recovering property of the see lately in Kilwardby's possession. The bishop elect of Winchester was re- fused on account of plurality	227
CXCII.—19 Sept. To cardinal Hugh of Evesham. Is dissatisfied with his advice to desist from opposing the confirmation of the bishop of Winchester now that he has appealed to the pope	228
CXCIII.—20 Sept. Martin IV. to Peckham and his suffragans. Desires them to assist Rey- mund Angerii, sent to the king to procure the liberation of Amauri de Montfort	230
CXCIV.—23 Sept. To the barons and bailiffs of Rye. Orders them to remove the dis- traint on tenants of Ric. de Waleys at Newendon	235
CXCV.—28 Sept. Edward I. to Peckham and the bishops. Forbids their discussing matters pertaining to his crown at the council at Lambeth	235
CXCVI.—28 Sept. Edward I. to Peckham and the bishops. To the same effect as the pre- ceding letter	236

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xxvii

	Page
CXCVII.—19 Oct. To the bishop of London. Orders him to sequestrate churches in his diocese belonging to exempt monasteries which have refused to attend his provincial council	237
CXCVIII.—2 Nov. To Edward I. Asks him to order the dean of Rochester to proceed against converted Jews who have apostatised	239
CXCIX.—2 Nov. To Edward I. Defends the liberties of the church, referring both to the Bible and to the history of England	239
CC.—7 Nov. To Antony Bek. Cautions him against felling timber on his benefices or holding more than one without dispensation	244
CCI.—9 Nov. To the prior and chapter of Christchurch. Orders about the almoner, etc., until his approaching visit	245
CCII.—13 Nov. To the deans of Pickering and Ryedale, and the vicar of Scarborough. Desires them to deny the validity of the sentence of the abbot of St. Alban's against the friars of Scarborough	246
CCIII.—14 Nov. To the mayor and burgesses of Scarborough. The conservators of the Cistercian monks have no jurisdiction over the Friars Minors	248
CCIV.—24 Nov. To Edward I. On behalf of the bishop of St. Asaph, whose privileges are disregarded by the king's justices	249
CCV.—24 Nov. To Roger Mortimer. Asks him to dissuade his daughter from proceeding against the bishop of St. Asaph in the king's court	250
CCVI.—24 Nov. To Isabella de Mortimer. Requests her to desist from a suit against the bishop of St. Asaph	251
CCVII.—1 Dec. Edward I. to Peckham. Forbids his proceeding against Henry de Bray, his clerk, for non-residence	252

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xxviii

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
CCVIII.—3 Dec. To the bishop of Salisbury. Desires him to name a coadjutor, being old and blind	253
CCIX.—15 Dec. To his official. Releases the sequestration of the fruits of St. Augustine's abbey for non-attendance at a council, on account of a composition with a previous archbishop	255
CCX.—Dec. To the official of Winchester. Citation of the executors of the late bishop for the performance of his promise to the Friars Minors at Southampton	255
CCXI.—28 Dec. To the bishop of London. Summons the bishops to meet at the Temple in accordance with the pope's letter about the liberation of A. de Montfort	256
CCXII.—Dec. To Edward I. Justifies the deprivation of H. de Bray of the church of St. Weonard	257
CCXIII.—Injunctions to Glastonbury abbey at a visitation, including rules for the monks, and directions about the debt of the convent	259
CCXIV.—Nunneries. Ordinance against nuns leaving their convents, and against plurality of benefices	265
1282.
CCXV.—1 Jan. To Gregory de Rokeslee. Orders him to pay money of the late archdeacon of Canterbury to the present archdeacon	267
CCXVI.—Jan. To the official of the archdeacon of Sudbury. Citation of the abbot and convent of St. Edmund's concerning their tenure of certain churches	267
CCXVII.—7 Jan. To the bishop of Exeter. Intends to visit his diocese	269

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xxix

	Page
CCXVIII.—Jan. To the bishop of Hereford. Warns him to desist from attempting to prejudice the rights of the church of Canterbury	269
CCXIX.—7 Jan. Cantilupe, bishop of Hereford to Peckham. Declines to excommunicate Robert Lowys, of Gloucester, his official, as Peckham has ordered	271
CCXX.—13 Jan. To the bishop of Salisbury. Orders him and his chapter to send to him the names of certain persons fit to be his coadjutor	273
CCXXI.—Jan. To the dean and chapter of Salisbury. To the same effect as the preceding	275
CCXXII.—19 Jan. To pope Martin IV. Credence for J. de Pontisara, R. de Florentia, and P. de St. Augustino	275
CCXXIII.—1282. To R. de Florentia and P. de St. Augustino, his proctors at Rome. Sends money and instructions about the bishops of Winchester and Hereford, etc.	276
CCXXIV.—19 Jan. To cardinal Hugh of Evesham. Defends his proceedings against the bishop elect of Winchester	281
CCXXV.—19 Jan. To cardinal John Chioletti. Commends to him the affairs of his church	282
CCXXVI.—22 Jan. To the dean of Arches. Desires him to inquire concerning molestation of his tenants at Lambeth by order of the abbot of Westminster	283
CCXXVII.—22 Jan. To William Norman. Desires him to consult with certain persons concerning the complaints of the people of Lambeth about the abbot of Westminster	284
CCXXVIII.—29 Jan. To the proctor of the Friars Minors at Rome. Desires him to resist the oppression of the friars at Scarborough by the Cistercians	284

Q 8513.

c

	Page
CCXXXIX.—1 Feb. To the sheriff of Warwickshire. Desires him to set free Robert de Ablyntone, rector of Halford, in prison at Warwick	285
CCXXX.—6 Feb. To Edward I. Will relax the sentence against Adam de Fileby, archdeacon of Shropshire, who is opposing the archbishop at Rome, if he acts as he professes at the king's command .	286
CCXXXI.—7 Feb. To Edward I. Refers to the papal letters on behalf of Amauri de Montfort, and asks the king to consent to his liberation	287
CCXXXII.—7 Feb. To the bishop of Hereford. Warns him to execute his orders referred to in a previous letter	290
CCXXXIII.—9 Feb. To Edward I. Begs him to stay proceedings against a rector in the diocese of Norwich, whose case is before the archbishop's court	291
CCXXXIV.—12 Feb. To the prior and convent of Southwick. Regulations for the diet, etc., of Andrew, late prior	292
CCXXXV.—14 Feb. To Martin IV. An account of forged papal letters authorising the payment of the collectors of the tenth in aid of the Holy Land	293
CCXXXVI.—14 Feb. The bishop of London to Peckham. Reports a conversation with the king about the liberation of A. de Montfort	297
CCXXXVII.—17 Feb. To the bishop of London. Orders him to excommunicate the bishop of Hereford	299
CCXXXVIII.—18 Feb. To the bishop of Salisbury. Nominates H. de Brandeston, archdeacon of Dorset, his coadjutor	301
CCXXXIX.—18 Feb. The bishop and chapter of Salisbury. Composition concerning the appointment of a coadjutor to the bishop	302

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS. xxxi

	Page
CCXL.—20 Feb. To Peter, bishop of Exeter. Postponing his visitation	304
CCXLI.—23 Feb. To the dean of Exeter. De- sires him to summon the creditors of the late bishop of Exeter to prove their claims	305
CCXLII.—25 Feb. To his proctors at Rome. An account of transactions in England	306
CCXLIII.—27 Feb. To the bishop of Exeter. De- sires him not to molest the arch- deacon of Barnstaple, whom he has sent to Rome	311
CCXLIV.—2 March. To Adam de Hales, official of Winchester. Orders him to ex- communicate those who put to death a man who took sanctuary in Warb- lington church	311
CCXLV.—8 March. To Antony Bek. Cannot release the sequestration of Ringwood church	313
CCXLVI.—13 March. To the bishop of Wor- cester. Has ordered the dean of Arches to stay proceedings about Campden church till parliament	314
CCXLVII.—15 March. To the bishop of London. Repeats his order to him to excom- municate the bishop of Hereford	315
CCXLVIII.—25 March. To the bishop of Coventry. Gives his reason for deferring the revocation of a cause in the arches court, at the bishop's request	316
CCXLIX.—26 March. To the prior of Christ- church, Canterbury. Asks him to send for oil and chrism, which he will consecrate on Maundy Thurs- day	317
CCL.—31 March. To his proctors at Rome. An account of the process between himself and the bishop of Hereford	318

c 2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xxxii

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
CCLI.—April. To the official of the court of Canterbury. Concerning a false appeal of Robert de Wichio, whom he orders to be excommunicated	320
CCLII.—April. Excommunication of Robert de Wychio	321
CCLIII.—1 April. To Edward I. Writes, as desired, to the bishops, concerning the new disturbances in Wales	323
CCLIV.—1 April. To the bishops of his pro- vince. Orders them to excommuni- cate the Welsh, who are disturbing the peace	324
CCLV.—2 April. Bishop of Bath to Peckham. The king allows Peckham to take Montfort to London	325
CCLVI.—23 April. Peckham and his suffragans to pope Martin IV. Informs him of the liberation of Amauri de Mont- fort	325
CCLVII.—Peckham and his suffragans. Com- plaints of the exercise of the archi- episcopal jurisdiction, and of the proceedings in his court	328
Peckham's reply to the preceding	332
CCLVIII.—25 April. Ordinances for the arch- bishop's official. Ordinances for his official concerning appeals, etc., in consequence of the complaints of the bishops	334
CCLIX.—April. The official of the archbishop's court. Decision of Peckham's com- missioners, about the complaints concerning his official	337
CCLX.—26 April. Peckham to Christchurch, Canterbury. Is grieved at their dis- sensions and complaints of the prior. Intends to visit them shortly	339
CCLXI.—Ordinances by Peckham for Christ- church, Canterbury	341

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xxxiii

	Page
CCLXII.—Injunctions by Peckham, at his visitation of Christchurch, Canterbury	346
CCLXIII.—28 April. To Edward I. Asks him to set free Richard de Braunford, and his son, now in prison	348
CCLXIV.—30 April. To the official of the archdeacon of Chester. Advice concerning a friar who is said to have contracted matrimony	348
CCLXV.—1 May. To Edward I. Asks him to order the arrest of David de Shevenok	350
CCLXVI.—1 May. To cardinal Gaetano. Has not given a benefice to B. de Ferentino, as he cannot speak either English or Latin	350
CCLXVII.—2 May. To the bishop of London. Desires him to excommunicate the Welsh rebels and their adherents	352
CCLXVIII.—10 May. To Edward I. Asks him to order the arrest of Sir Thos. de Leukenore	353
CCLXIX.—10 May. To the prior of St. John's. Complains of his exercising rights in the manor of Halewe to which he is not entitled	354
CCLXX.—11 May. To Godfrey Giffard, bishop of Worcester. Asserts his right to hear the appeal in the case of Lanthony priory	355
CCLXXI.—11 May. To the prioress of Stratford. Cannot accept her excuses for not receiving Isabella Bret	356
CCLXXII.—12 May. To Bernard de Languisello, bishop of Porto. Asks him to look after the interests of the see of Canterbury	357
CCLXXIII.—12 May. To cardinal Glusiano de Casate. Asks for his favour in matters concerning his see. Complains of detraction	358

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xxxiv

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
CCLXXIV.—13 May. To the bishop of Chichester. Desires him to admit W. de Chyltham to Bignor church, at the queen's request	359
CCLXXV.—19 May. To the collectors of the subsidy. Orders them to send the money to the merchants of Lucca at London	359
CCLXXVI.—19 May. To his treasurer. Orders him to provide an escort for the money, if the sheriff of Kent desire it	360
CCLXXVII.—20 May. To the bishop of Chichester. Requests him to compel the rector of Bilsham chapel to repair the chancel	360
CCLXXVIII.—22 May. To Edward I. Intercession for Amauri de Montfort	361
CCLXXIX.—23 May. To Adam de Hales, his official at Winchester. Appoints R. de Lacy to succeed him, but desires him to attend to the collection of the subsidy	362
CCLXXX.—28 May. To the bishop of Llandaff. Confirms his process about the admission of Robt. de Hamme to Cayrewent church	363
CCLXXXI.—28 May. To the bishop of Exeter. Commission to inquire about the conduct of the archdeacon of Cornwall and the vacancy of Egloshayle church	364
CCLXXXII.—28 May. To the dean of Arches. Orders him to compel the Austin friars to return the deed of feoffment of certain land granted to them, which they cannot hold	365
CCLXXXIII.—2 June. To the bishop of London. Defers attending to certain complaints of the nuns of Stratford until he comes to London	366

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xxxv

	Page
CCLXXXIV.—6 June. To the bishop of St. Asaph. Hears that his cathedral was accidentally burnt during the war. Cannot proceed in the case as the bishop wishes. Will send to the king about it	367
CCLXXXV.—8 June. To Girardus Blancus, bishop of Sabinum. Will confer a benefice on Simon de Cruce	369
CCLXXXVI.—8 June. To Richard de Ware, abbot of Westminster. Desires him to prevent B. de Clare from suing the prior of Merton in the Exchequer	370
CCLXXXVII.—8 June. To Bogo de Clare. Complains of his speaking against him, of his neglecting his benefices, and of his suing the prior of Merton	371
CCLXXXVIII.—15 June. To the prior of Christchurch, Canterbury. In favour of Robt. Poucyn, who is accused of having divulged the secrets of the chapter to the archbishop	372
CCLXXXIX.—24 June. To William de Montfort. Orders him to procure the liberation of R. de Braunford and his son	373
CCXC.—25 June. To Edward I. Requests him to order Reginald le Arceveke to be reinstated in Poundstock church	375
CCXCI.—1 July. To cardinal Savelli. Thanks him for assisting his proctor at Rome	376
CCXCII.—1 July. To Jerome of Ascoli, bishop of Palestrina. Defends his conduct in the case of the bishop elect of Winchester	377
CCXCIII.—2 July. To the bishop of Exeter. Orders him to stay action upon the decree of his commissaries concerning tithes of tin	378
CCXCIV.—4 July. To Edmund earl of Cornwall. Is compelled to punish his steward, Wm. de Moneketun

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xxxvi

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
CCXCV.—7 July. To the bishop of Lincoln. Asks him to allow the prior of Lewes to farm the church of Melton	380
CCXCVI.—14 July. To the bishop of Norwich. The sequestration of Redgrave and Risby must be committed to the archdeacon of Sudbury	381
CCXCVII.—23 July. To his proctor at Rome. Con- cerning an appeal of the bishop of Hereford against Peckham's sentence of excommunication	382
CCXCVIII.—To his proctor at Rome. An account of the process against Camilla	384
CCXCIX.—23 July. To the bishop of Rochester. Desires him to attend to the petition of a woman against her husband for ill-treatment and adultery	387
CCC.—24 July. To Edward I. Is at Canter- bury, in consequence of a dispute between the prior and convent of Christchurch	388
CCCI.—24 July. To Robert Burnell, bishop of Bath. Is bound to accompany the king in his expedition. Asks him to assist in settling the dispute in the priory at Canterbury	389
CCCII.—[28 July.] To Cosa, a Florentine mer- chant. The dean and chapter of Lichfield and Rener of Florence have agreed about the prebend of Har- borne	390
CCCIII.—28 July. To his official. Inhabitants of his diocese are not to be cited beyond it	390
CCCIV.—29 July. To the dean of Malling and others. Desires them to call upon rectors and vicars to pay the arrears of the fifteenth	391
CCCV.—29 July. To William de Newerk, arch- deacon of Huntingdon. Asks him to send some one to treat of a dispute connected with the province of York	392

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xxxvii

APPENDIX I.

	Page
I.—[1279], 16 June. To Thos. Bek and J. de Kirkeby. Asks for letters patent to the master of the Exchange at Canterbury, as he will not obey the previous letters close	392 e
II.—1279, 3 Aug. To Edward I. Requests him to issue letters of innotescimus in performance of his grant of the exchange and mint at Canterbury to the archbishop	392 e
III.—1280, 1 April. Collation of No. XCII. and Royal Letter 1198	392 f
IV.—1280, 17 May. To Edward I. Has confirmed the election of Richard de Graveshende as bishop of London	392 f
V.—[1280], 5 July. To Edward I. Thanks for food and wine sent to Wales. Complains that the canons of Penkridge have caused parishioners of Lichfield to be arrested	392 g
VI.—1280, 19 July. To Edward I. Asks for restitution of the temporalities for Walter de Chepmanesford, newly elected prior of New Place or Aldebury, near Guildford	392 g
VII.—1280, 6 Aug. To Edward I. Asks for restitution of temporalities to Henry de Hameledon, newly elected prior of St. Denis, Southampton	392 h
VIII.—[1280, Sept.] To the prior and convent of Canterbury. Asks them to assent to the consecration of the bishop of St. David's, at Lincoln, at the king's wish	392 i
IX.—1280, 10 Oct. To Edward I. Has confirmed the election of Peter of Exeter (Quivil) as bishop of Exeter	392 j
X.—1281, 18 Jan. To Edward I. Has accepted the resignation of Godfrey, abbot of Creke, on account of his age	392 j
XI.—1281, 26 Jan. To Edward I. Asks him to remove Thomas de Aldelyme from the church of Aldelyme, which he has commended to Anselm of Eastray	392 k

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05145-3 - Registrum Epistolarum Fratris Johannis Peckham, Archiepiscopi
Cantuariensis: Volume 1

Edited by Charles Trice Martin

Table of Contents

More information

xxxviii

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
XII.—1281, 28 March. To Edward I. Desires him to put Reyner of Florence in possession of the churches of Harborne and Edgebaston	392 k
XIII.—1281, 10 Sept. To Edward I. Requests the release of Alfred de Blakedisc, absolved from excom- munication	392 l
XIV.—1282, 22 May. Collation of No. CCLXXVIII. and Royal Letter 1698	392 m
XV.—[1282], 31 July. To Edward I. Begs him to take into his favour the bishop of Winchester	392 n

 APPENDIX II.

Translation of letters in French	392 n
--	--------------
