

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05404-1 - Narrative of Services in the Liberation of Chili, Peru, and Brazil,
from Spanish and Portuguese Domination: Volume 2

Thomas Cochrane

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

	PAGE
Brazilian and Portuguese factions — Don Pedro ordered to quit Brazil—Appointed “Perpetual Protector”—Proclaimed Emperor of Brazil—Efforts to obtain foreign officers and seamen—The naval command offered to me—Acceptation thereof—Arrival at Rio de Janeiro—Visit of inspection to the squadron—Condition of the vessels—Inferiority of seamen—Imperial affability—Attempt to evade the terms offered me—This failing, to reduce the value of my pay—Pretended commission conferred—And refused—The point argued—I decline the command—The Prime Minister gives in—Explanatory Portaria—Formal commission—Orders to blockade Bahia—Portuguese faction—Averse to me from the outset,	1

CHAPTER II.

Attempt to cut off the enemy's ships—Disobedience to orders—Letter to the Prime Minister—Worthlessness of the men—Their treachery—Blockade established—Equipment of fireships—Enemy's supplies cut off—Portuguese untrustworthy—Demonstrations of the enemy—His pretended contempt for us—The enemy returns to port—Their consternation at the fireships—Portuguese contemplate attacking us—Flagship recon- Vol. III.	a
--	---

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05404-1 - Narrative of Services in the Liberation of Chili, Peru, and Brazil,
from Spanish and Portuguese Domination: Volume 2

Thomas Cochrane

Table of Contents

More information

vi

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
noitres enemy at anchor—Excessive alarm at my nocturnal visit—Proclamation of the Commandant—Consternation in the city—The authorities decide on evacuating Bahia—Instructions to the Brazilian Captains—Warnings addressed to the authorities—Enemy quits Bahia—Readiness for chase—Numbers of the enemy—Capture of the Convoy—Prizes disabled—Attempt of troops to escape—Prizes sent to Pernambuco—Pursuit discontinued—Reasons for going to Maranham—Reasons for not taking more prizes—Advantages to the Empire,	26

CHAPTER III.

Capture of the Don Miguel—Summons to the authorities—Reasons for threats held out—Proposals for capitulation—Proclamations—Terms granted to Portuguese garrison—Declaration of Independence—Portuguese troops ordered to embark—Symptoms of disobeying the order—Delight of the people on becoming free—Election of a Provisional Government—Letters to the Minister of Marine, . . .	60
---	----

CHAPTER IV.

Captain Grenfell sent to summon Parà—The Junta demands the prize property—My refusal—Imperial approval of my services—Realisation of prize property—Turi Assu sends in its adhesion—Money captured lent to the Junta—Its return to the squadron expected—Possession taken of Parà—Insurrection at Parà—Misconduct of the Maranham Junta—Their persecution of the Portuguese—Steps in consequence—Manifestation of the national delight—The Marquisate conferred on me—Vote of thanks by the Assembleia Geral—My arrival at Rio de Janeiro—Satisfaction with my services—Lady Cochrane joins me,	75
---	----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05404-1 - Narrative of Services in the Liberation of Chili, Peru, and Brazil,
from Spanish and Portuguese Domination: Volume 2

Thomas Cochrane

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

vii

PAGE

CHAPTER V.

First effort to curtail the Imperial power—Portuguese intrigue—Dismissal of the Andradas—The Assembly dissolved by force—Exile of the Andradas—Letter to his Imperial Majesty—My advice partly adopted—and causes ministerial enmity towards me—Ratification of my patent—I demand the adjudication of prizes—Letter to the Minister of Marine—Offer of personal advantage to foreign claims—Squadron remained unpaid—I am appointed a Privy Councillor—The prize vessels plundered—Shameful treatment of Captain Grenfell—Troubles in Pernambuco—Hostility of the Prize Tribunal—Condemns me to the restitution of prizes—Forbids making any capture at all,	95
---	----

CHAPTER VI.

Remonstrance against decree of Prize Tribunal—Settlement of prize question by the Emperor—His Ministers refuse to conform to it—Obstacles thrown in the way of equipment—My services limited to the duration of war—My remonstrance on this breach of faith—Ministers refuse to pay the squadron anything—A fresh insult offered to me—Offer to resign the command—My resignation evaded—Letter to the Prime Minister—Letter to the Minister of Marine,	116
---	-----

CHAPTER VII.

Ministerial malignity towards me—Dangers in Pernambuco—Portuguese threats—My advice thereon—Failure in Manning the squadron—Plot formed to search the flagship—Timely warning thereon—I demand his Majesty's interference—Which was promptly granted—Protest against prize decisions—My advice sought as regards
--	--

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05404-1 - Narrative of Services in the Liberation of Chili, Peru, and Brazil,
from Spanish and Portuguese Domination: Volume 2

Thomas Cochrane

Table of Contents

More information

viii

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
Pernambuco—Letter to his Imperial Majesty—Pointing out the annoyance practised—And tendering my resignation—The Emperor's intervention—His Ministers neglect to fulfil his engagement—Confirmation of my previous patents—But with an unjustifiable reservation—Prize money devoted to advance of wages—Proofs thereof—Baseless imputations on me—Extracts from log—Further distribution of prize money,	133

CHAPTER VIII.

Republican Government proclaimed at Pernambuco—Its Concordat—The President Carvalho—Threat of Bombardment—A bribe offered to me and refused—The revolt admitted of palliation—It was fast becoming general—Intimidation ineffectual—The revolutionists expect Foreign aid—Pernambuco taken possession of—Payment of prize money—The accounts rendered in due course—Orders to put down revolt at Pará—Character of the revolution—Difficulty in finding proper Governors—Revolt at Ceará—Steps taken to surpress it—They prove successful—The insurgent leader killed—Measures for preserving tranquillity,	157
---	-----

CHAPTER IX.

Arrival at Maranham—Character of disturbances there—I assume the military command—Proclamation commanding surrender of arms—Condition of the people—Corruption of the authorities—Murderous propensities—Difficulty in detecting assassins—Letter to Minister of Marine—Pacification of Parahyba—Doubts as to the President's sincerity—He establishes secret agencies—Extraordinary memorials—Public complaints of the President—Bruce endeavours to intercept them—My reply to the memorialists—Letter to the Minister of
---	--

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05404-1 - Narrative of Services in the Liberation of Chili, Peru, and Brazil,
from Spanish and Portuguese Domination: Volume 2

Thomas Cochrane

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

ix

PAGE

Marine--Enclosing complaints of the Consuls—Bruce prepares to resist my authority—Complaints of the British Consul—He considers my presence necessary—Letter of the French Consul—Detailing shameful atrocities—Danger of collision with foreign states—Suspension of the President—Provision for future Government—Conduct of the faction at Rio de Janeiro—No instructions sent for my guidance—Letter to the Minister of Marine—The Ministry had previously deposed Bruce—But turned on me for anticipating their own act,	179
---	-----

CHAPTER X.

Misrepresentations made in England—Letter to the Emperor—Tendering my resignation—Repayment demanded from the Junta—Conduct of the Prize Tribunal—No adjudication of prizes intended—Letter to the interim President—Demanding the sums owing to the squadron—Disturbance in Pará—Statement of Account to the Junta—Offer of compromise—Imperial decree—Right of the squadron to the claim,	212
---	-----

CHAPTER XI.

Imperial approval—Continued enmity of the Administration—Junta refuses to pay the squadron's claim—I persevere in the demand—Junta agrees to pay the amount in bills—This refused—Arrival of a new President—But without authority for the assumption—Intrigues to establish him in office—I order him to quit the province—And send him to Pará—Letter to the President of Ceará—International animosities—The squadron left to provide for itself—Abuse of authority—Explanations to Minister of Marine—Of transactions at Maranhão—Letter to Carvalho e Mello—Anticipating ministerial displeasure—The Junta reimburses part of its debt	226
---	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05404-1 - Narrative of Services in the Liberation of Chili, Peru, and Brazil,
from Spanish and Portuguese Domination: Volume 2

Thomas Cochrane

Table of Contents

More information

X

CONTENTS.

PAGE

CHAPTER XII.

- I quit Maranham for a cruise—Bad state of the frigate—Connivance at illicit trade—We are compelled to proceed to England—The frigate reported to the Brazilian Envoy—Who cheats me of £.2,000—His assumption that I had abandoned the service—My contradiction thereof—Order to return to Rio—Reasons for not doing so—Brazilian Envoy tampers with my Officer—Who acquaints me therewith—Envoy stops pay and provisions—Declares that the Brazilian Government will give me nothing!—Captain Shepherd's reply—I prepare to return to Rio—The Envoy dismisses me from the service—Without reason assigned—He declares that I voluntarily abandoned the service—Receipts for accounts transmitted to Brazil—These denied to have been sent, . 247

CHAPTER XIII.

- I am dismissed the service by the Brazilian Government—
Without any acknowledgment of my services—Inconsistency of this with former thanks—Though dismissed
I am tried as a deserter—And am refused all compensation—Report of recent Commission on the subject—
False representations—But partially true conclusions—
My original patents never set aside—Untrue assumptions as to my dismissal—My claims founded on the original patents—Less than half the interest due paid—
Opinions of eminent Brazilians thereon—My services tardily acknowledged—No act of mine had annulled them—The Estate conferred, not confirmed—Promises on account of Chili unfulfilled—The whole still my right, 269

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05404-1 - Narrative of Services in the Liberation of Chili, Peru, and Brazil,
from Spanish and Portuguese Domination: Volume 2

Thomas Cochrane

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xi

PAGE

CHAPTER XIV

Proclamation for payment of Officers and Men—Log extracts in proof thereof—The sum given up to the squadron disbursed—Denial thereof by the Brazilian Government —Though made to serve as advance of wages—The amount received at Maranham—Fully accounted for—By the receipts of the Officers—Officers' receipts—Extracts from log in further corroboration—Up to my arrival in England—All our prizes monopolized by Brazil—The conduct of the Brazilian Government unjustifiable, . . .	288
--	-----