

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05985-5 - Madame de Staël: Her Friends, and her Influence in Politics and Literature Volume 1

Charlotte Blennerhassett

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS OF VOL. I.

	PAGE
CHAPTER I.
The Necker family—James Necker goes to Paris—The Economists—Necker's attention directed to Public Affairs—His Marriage—Mademoiselle Curchod under the parental roof—Her visit to Lausanne—Gibbon, Moulton, and J. J. Rousseau—Mademoiselle Curchod at Ferney—Goes to Paris—The Neckers' first friends—Madame Necker's friendship for Buffon—Gibbon in Paris—Birth of Anne Germaine Necker, April 22, 1766—Influence of the social atmosphere in Paris upon Madame Necker—Literary importance of the Necker salon —Madame Necker a mother to the poor . . . . .	1
CHAPTER II.
Necker retires from business—Commencement of the reign of Louis XIV.—Turgot—Coronation at Rheims—Queen and Parlement against Turgot—Financial necessities of the French Nation—Necker's appointment—First measures—Montesquieu—Influence of English ideas—The States-General—First Provincial Assembly—Its usefulness—Necker's retirement—Franco-American alliance—Antipathy against England—Dangers of alliance with America—Nature of the American Constitution—Transition from Liberty to Equality, from Reform to Revolution . . . . .	55
VOL. I.	C

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05985-5 - Madame de Staël: Her Friends, and her Influence in Politics and Literature Volume 1

Charlotte Blennerhassett

Table of Contents

More information

x

CONTENTS.

PAGE

CHAPTER III.

Anne Necker and Bonstetten—First acquaintance—Madame Necker's Educational System—Gibbon—Mademoiselle Necker and her Father—Her first literary efforts—Difficulties as to Marriage—Coppet—Necker inconsolable on loss of position—Notes from 1783 and 1785—The Swedes in France—Prince Gustavus becomes King—Count John Axel Fersen—Baron von Staël-Holstein—Matrimonial negotiations—Portrait of Mademoiselle Necker . . . . . 93

CHAPTER IV.

Madame de Staël on Marriage—Baron de Staël's mystical tendencies—The Mesmerists and Illuminati—Morals of the Clergy—Affair of the Necklace—The Court at Fontainebleau—Abolition of Slavery—Estrangement between Gustavus III. and Staël—Figaro—Talleyrand—Influence of the Women—Rousseau and Hobbes—The Bull Unigenitus—Madame Roland—Letters on Rousseau—The Nouvelle Héloïse—Rousseau's Morality antagonistic to Christianity . . . . . 149

CHAPTER V.

Calonne—Necker's Book upon Financial Administration—His Banishment—Loménie de Brienne—May Edicts—Dauphiné—Necker becomes Minister, Aug. 24, 1788—Victualling of France during the winter of 1788-1789—Famine and Anarchy—The French seek a Constitution—Notables again summoned by Necker—Double representation of the Tiers—Mirabeau—Sièyes—Barnave—The Elections of 1789 . . . . . 225

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05985-5 - Madame de Staël: Her Friends, and her Influence in Politics and Literature Volume 1

Charlotte Blennerhassett

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xi

PAGE

CHAPTER VI.

The États Généraux—Mirabeau and Necker—The king begs Necker to remain in office—The Estates unite—Gouverneur Morris—Thomas Jefferson—The Court against Necker—The king dismisses Necker, July 11, 1789—Impression created in Paris—14th July—Necker returns to Paris—Letter from Madame de Staël to Gustavus III—La Fayette and the National Guard—Talleyrand—The Rights of Man—The Veto—Mounier—Plans of flight for the Royal family—Banquet of the Gardes du Corps at Versailles—October days. . . . 305

CHAPTER VII.

France after the October days—Mirabeau—Ministerial Combinations—Close of the year 1789—The three great Political Problems of 1790—Institution of the Clubs in 1789—Necker and the Financial Situation—Appropriation of Church Property—The Court and Mirabeau—Abolition of Titles—Civil Constitution of the Clergy—Anniversary of the 14th of July—The Jacobins—New Issue of Assignats—Death of Mirabeau, 1790—Necker's book upon the Executive . . . . 399

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05985-5 - Madame de Staël: Her Friends, and her Influence in Politics and Literature Volume 1

Charlotte Blennerhasset

Table of Contents

More information

ERRATA, VOL. I.

---

Page,	line.
2,	8, for XIV. read XVI.
5 and 16,	footnotes, for Jacob read James.
53,	19, for XIV. read XVI.
103,	footnote, for Frederick read Frederika.
179,	12, for unequal read unequalled.
224,	14, for on read in.
349,	24, for Toulon read Foulon.
426,	12, for then read than.
428,	5, for XVI. read XIV.
430,	footnote, for remarks read "Reflections."
432,	3, for l'âine read l'ainé.
457,	headline, for 1790 read 1791.