

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05987-9 - Madame de Staël: Her Friends, and her Influence in Politics and Literature: Volume 3

Charlotte Blennerhassett Translated by Jane Eliza Gordon Cumming

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS OF VOL. III.

CHAPTER I.	PAGE
Goethe and Madame de Staël—The Horen — On the Influence of the Passions —Madame de Staël in Weimar—Goethe at Jena—Madame de Staël's Reception at the Court—Schiller—Goethe's Return to Weimar— Die Naturliche Tochter Eugenie —The New Year of 1804 at Weimar—Karl August—Duchess Amalie—Duchess Louise—Knebel—Wieland—Henry Crabbe Robinson—Johannes von Müller—Goethe's Annals —Contrast between German and French Views	1

CHAPTER II.

Madame de Staël in Berlin—Fichte—Literary Berlin—Court Ball—F. Gentz—A. W. Schlegel's Lectures, 1802-1804—Murder of the Duc d'Enghien—Necker's death, April 10, 1804—Letter to Gouverneur Morris— Du Caractère de M. Necker et sa Vie Privée —Johannes von Müller—Joseph Bonaparte—Letter to the Duchess Louise of Saxe Weimar—Journey to Italy—Napoleon's popularity in Italy—Vincenzo Monti—Madame de Staël in Milan—Parma—Bologna—Rome—Naples—Madame de Staël leaves Italy— Corinne .	78
--	----

VOL. III.

b

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05987-9 - Madame de Staël: Her Friends, and her Influence in Politics and Literature: Volume 3

Charlotte Blennerhassett Translated by Jane Eliza Gordon Cumming

Table of Contents

More information

vi

CONTENTS.

PAGE

CHAPTER III.

The Winter of 1806 in Geneva—Madame de Staël's Amateur Theatricals—Rouen and the Château d'Acosta—Publication of Corinne in the Spring of 1807—Napoleon's Decree of Banishment—Madame de Staël visits Paris secretly—Coppet in the year 1807—Madame Récamier and Prince Augustus of Prussia—Prospère de Barante—François Guizot—Ascent of Mont Blanc—Second Journey to Germany—Munich— Schelling and F. Jacobi—Arrival in Vienna—The Imperial City in 1808—The Prince de Ligne—Return to Weimar— Goethe and Knebel—Wieland—Farewell to Germany . . .	188
--	-----

CHAPTER IV.

Benjamin Constant's Marriage — Journal Intime — Adolphe — Coppet in 1809—Oehlanschlager—Werner—The “Shuna- mite”— Sappho —Trip to Lyons—Talma—Plan of Emigra- tion to the United States—Interview between Auguste de Staël and Napoleon — Talleyrand's disgrace — Napoleon married to Marie Louise, 1810—Letter from Madame de Staël to Napoleon, 1810—Suppression of De l'Allemagne —The Manuscript saved	252
---	-----

CHAPTER V.

Madame de Staël's early Religious Views—Lacretelle—Religious reaction in France—Saint Martin—Jacob Böhme—Jean de Rocca in Geneva, 1810—He becomes Madame de Staël's second Husband—The Imperial Prefects at Geneva—Banishment of Montmorency and Madame Récamier—Solitude at Coppet— Pamphlet against Suicide — Preparations for Flight—The Russian Campaign—The Polish Question—Austria—Russia —The Emperor Alexander	328
---	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-05987-9 - Madame de Staël: Her Friends, and her Influence in Politics and Literature: Volume 3

Charlotte Blennerhassett Translated by Jane Eliza Gordon Cumming

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

vii

PAGE

CHAPTER VI.

Arrival in Sweden—Recollections of Fersen and Bernadotte— Arrival in England, 1813—Death of Albert de Staël—Nar- bonne's Death—Publication of the book De l'Allemagne —Its Importance—South Germany—North Germany—Lessing— Herder—Winkelmann—Immanuel Kant—Madame de Staël and English Society—Lord Byron—J. Rogers—Coleridge— Godwin—William Wilberforce—Visit to Lord Liverpool at Coombe Wood—The Considérations on England—Madame de Staël in favour of Constitutional Monarchy	404
---	-----

CHAPTER VII.

The Restoration—The Emperor Alexander and Louis XVIII.— Madame de Staël's Return to Paris—The Emperor Alexander and Wellington at her house—Benjamin Constant active as a Journalist—Louis XVIII. and the Charter—Madame de Staël at Coppet in 1814—Need of rest—Albertine de Staël's Betrothal to the Duc de Broglie—Napoleon's Return from Elba—Madame de Staël leaves Paris—The Hundred Days —Talleyrand and Fouché's Administration—Richelieu— Albertine de Staël's Marriage—Madame de Staël's last Illness and Death	479
EPILOGUE	578
INDEX	587