

I N D E X.

The Roman numerals denote the volume ; the Arabic figures, the page.
The letter n marks a reference to the notes.

A.

- ADAIR, Mr. serjeant, appears for the city printers, i 348
ADDINGTON, Mr., (now viscount Sidmouth) moves the House of Commons respecting Mr. John Horne Tooke, ii 258 AMERICA, the war with, its commencement, i 431 the doctrines in opposition to that contest, as stated by Mr. Horne, 432 battle of Lexington, 435 APRECE, sir Thomas, becomes acquainted with Mr. Horne at Montpelier, i 75
ARABIN, general, his portrait placed at Wimbledon, ii 325 ASHBURTON, lord, anecdotes of, i 31 writes a letter against lord Mansfield, 447 a letter on language, addressed to him by Mr. Horne Tooke, ii 7 the most learned lawyer at the English bar, 9

B.

- BARLOW, Mr, anecdotes of, ii 330
BARONS, the English, oppose the introduction of the civil law ii 17
BARRISTERS, their political opinions, ii 401
BEADON, Dr., supports Mr. Horne at Cambridge, i 321 BECKFORD, alderman, his famous reply to the king, when lord mayor, suggested by Mr. Horne, i 157 dies and obtains a statue, ibid.
 account of, ii 278

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06161-2 - Memoirs of John Horne Tooke: Interspersed with Original Documents: Volume 2

Alexander Stephens

Index

More information

I N D E X.

- BINGLEY, his case, ii 168
BOSVILLE, Mr., anecdotes of, ii 308
BROWN, Mr. Timothy, a visitor at Wimbledon, i 306 BUCCLEUGH, late duke of, becomes acquainted with Mr. Horne, i 75 BURDETT, sir Francis, is introduced to Mr. Tooke, ii 233 their intimacy, 306
 is declared one of Mr. Tooke's heirs, 404 BURKE, right hon. Edmund, his character, i 433
BUTE, earl of, his character, i 50

C

- CAMDEN, lord, writes a pamphlet against lord Mansfield, i 47
CHATHAM, lord, account of, i 46
CHURCHILL, Charles, character of, i 353
CLERGY, acted as lawyers before the reformation, ii 17
CLINE, Mr., greatly respected by Mr. Tooke, ii 327 COMMONS, House of, its contest with the city printers, i 343 CONSTITUTIONAL Society, takes part against the war with America, i 435 its revenues, i 144
CONVERSATIONS at Wimbledon, ii 335
CORRESPONDING Society, history of, ii 82
CROSBY, Brass, lord mayor, account of, i 338
CROWE, Mr., a lover of horticulture, ii 332

D.

- DAVY, sir Humphry, is introduced to Mr. Tooke, ii 327
DE GREY, chief justice, declares certainty to be uncertain, ii 10 DUNNING, Mr., (afterwards lord Ashburton) account of, i 31 a letter to, from Mr. Horne, ii 7

E.

- ERSKINE, Mr., (now lord) account of, ii 305
EXCHEQUER, an anomaly in the law of evidence admitted there, ii 403

I N D E X.

EVRE, sir James, one of Mr. Horne Tooke's opponents, ii n 7
presides as judge at his trial, 126

F.

Fox, Charles, his verses at Eton, i 15 declares against the American war, 433 is opposed for Westminster, by Mr. Horne Tooke, ii 50 character of, in early life, 79 address to the electors of Westminster, 168 his generous conduct to Mr. H. Tooke, 248

FRANCIS, Dr., account of, i 356 sir Philip, K. B. ib.

G.

GARRICK, Mr., is threatened by Mr. Wilkes, i n. 256

GEDDES, Dr., anecdotes of, ii 319

GEORGE II. the latter part of his reign happy and prosperous, i 44
III. the commencement of his reign popular, i 45

GLYNN, Mr. serjeant, recommended as knight of the shire for Middlesex, by Mr. Horne, i 103 defends Mr. Horne, on an accusation for publishing a libel, 138
becomes a member of the "Bill of Rights" society, 163 account of, 278

GRANTLEY, lord, (the first) his spirited conduct while attorney-general, i 445
lord, (the present) his character while a commoner, i 143

H.

HARDY, Mr., his introduction to Mr. Tooke, ii 82

HARTES, the Miss, account of, ii 162

HASTINGS, Mr., his trial, i 79

HOGARTH, account of, i 358

HORNE, John, father of John Horne Tooke, some account of, i 6 his family, 6 et seq.
was an officer in the train bands, 10 becomes poulterer to the prince of Wales, 13

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06161-2 - Memoirs of John Horne Tooke: Interspersed with Original Documents: Volume 2

Alexander Stephens

Index

More information

I N D E X.

- HORNE, John, (the subject of these memoirs) born in Newport street, i 6
- is sent to Soho Square Academy, 13
 - removes to Westminster school, 14
 - is afterwards sent to Eton, ib.
 - character while a boy, 16
 - loses the sight of his right eye, 17
 - elopes from a school, in Kent, 18
 - anecdote concerning his birth, 21
 - is sent to Cambridge, 22
 - becomes an usher at a boarding school, 23
 - his opinions concerning education, 25
 - a great advocate for learning, 27
 - enters into orders as deacon, at the earnest recommendation of his father, 28
 - is attached to the study of the law, 29
 - becomes a member of the society of the Inner Temple, 30
 - associates with Mr. Dunning and Mr. Kenyon, 31, 32
 - is ordained a priest, 33
 - obtains the chapelry of New Brentford, 34
 - visits France, 35
 - is promised preferment in the church, 36
 - his character as a clergyman, 37
 - his hatred to popery, 38
 - becomes kind and attentive to the sick, 39
 - turns politician, 41
 - is a great admirer of the earl of Chatham, 57
 - becomes a political writer, ib.
 - account of his first pamphlet, 59
 - travels into Italy, 67
 - becomes acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan, 68
 - sees and converses with Mr. Wilkes at Paris, 69
 - visits Voltaire and Sterne, 71
 - his letter to Wilkes from Montpellier, 76
 - dispute and reconciliation with the patriot, 83
 - becomes a popular divine, 85
 - assists Mr. Wilkes in the Middlesex election, 92

I N D E X.

- HORNE, John, his letters to sir Wm. B. Proctor, i 97 rescues colonel Luttrell from the mob, 102 recommends serjeant Glynn for Middlesex, 103 convicts M^cQuirk of murder, 105 seizes on the murderers of Clarke, 106
 opposes the execution of the Spital Fields' weavers, 109 writes and publishes a work on this subject, 114 composes and publishes a sermon, 116 dispute with Mr. Onslow, 120 letter to him, 121
 prosecution for a libel, 137
 trial at Kingston, 138
 acquittal and motion for a new trial, 140
 proves lord Mansfield to have misdirected the jury, 143
 moves and carries an address to the king, 146
 pens a remonstrance from the city of London, 151 draws up the famous reply to George III. 156 demands a pledge for the constitution, 160 founds the "Bill of Rights" society, 163 conceives the idea of supporting Bingley, 168 the result, 174
 his dispute with Mr. Wilkes, 176 correspondence with that gentleman, 179 accuses Mr. Wilkes of meanness, 208 takes a degree at Cambridge, 320 is opposed by Mr. Paley, Mr. Hubbard, and lord Mumford, 321
 opposes the House of Commons respecting the liberty of the press, 332 vindicates the claims of the newspapers, by means of the city magistrates, 338 contest with Junius, 363
 determines to be called to the bar, 418
 resigns his living at Brentford, 419 retires to a cottage in the neighbourhood, ib.
 his talents and qualifications for the bar, 420

I N D E X.

- HORNE, John, becomes an economist—an anecdote, i 421 interposes in behalf of his friend Mr. W. Tooke, 422 libel on sir Fletcher Norton, 428 is ordered to the bar of the House of Commons, 429 prevents the estate of Mr. W. Tooke from being included in an enclosure bill, 430 declares against the American war, 431 denies the right of taxing the colonies, 432 publishes an advertisement, accusing the king's troops of murder, 435 is prosecuted for a libel, 448 his trial and defence, 449 is sent to the King's Bench prison, ii 1 situation there, 3
his generous conduct to a poor woman, 6 addresses a letter to Mr. Dunning on language, 7 is released from prison, 11 is seized with the gout, 13 applies for a call to the bar, 14
is rejected by the benchers of the Inner Temple, 18 publishes a tract against the American war, 21 becomes an agriculturist, 25 returns to town, after a short stay at Witton, 26 reform of parliament, history of, 30 and 31 supports Mr. Pitt in a plan for a parliamentary reform, 34 publishes a pamphlet on this subject, 35
his plan, 37
supports the prerogative of the crown, 39 determines not to make any innovations, ib.
objects to universal suffrage, 41
sides with the earl of Shelburne, 44 agrees to Mr. Pitt's scheme respecting the decayed boroughs, 48 associates with lord Camden and Mr. Pitt, 49 declares against Mr. Fox, 50 publishes vol. i. of his great work on language, 54
addresses a letter to the prince of Wales, 68

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06161-2 - Memoirs of John Horne Tooke: Interspersed with Original Documents: Volume 2

Alexander Stephens

Index

More information

I N D E X.

- HORNE, John, publishes his two pair of portraits, ii 70 his opinion of the claims of the East-India Company, 80 rescues some Englishmen from slavery, 81 objects to the plan of universal suffrage, 82 becomes a candidate for Westminster, 83
 address to the electors, 84
 opposes Mr. Fox, 87
 loses the election, 89
 address to the House of Commons, 92
 trial with Mr. Fox, 100
 speech in court, 101
 he leaves London and retires to Wimbledon, 109 his opinion relative to the French revolution, 113 is exposed to the artifices of a spy, 116 arrested and sent to the Tower, 120 transferred to Newgate, 125
 arraigned at the Old Bailey, 133
 refuses to pay the income tax, 157 scheme for rendering him independent, 160 particulars of his fortune, 161 account of his daughters, 162 becomes once more a candidate for Westminster, 163
 loses his election, 229 becomes acquainted with sir Francis Burdett, 233 is returned for Old Sarum, 238
 his speeches in parliament, 240, 241 is disqualified by an act of the legislature, 260 engages in a suit in Chancery, 271 controversy with Dr. Geddes, 319 his opinion concerning the middle ages, 404 he opposes an unjust claim, under the name of a tax, 406 account of his illness, 410 statement of his disease, 421 death, 446

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06161-2 - Memoirs of John Horne Tooke: Interspersed with Original Documents: Volume 2

Alexander Stephens

Index

More information

I N D E X.

- HORNE, John, burial, ii 449
 description of his person, ii 450 conversation, 451, 456
 character, 453
 political principles, 463
- J.
- JAMES, major, account of, ii 321
- JOYCE, the rev. Jeremiah, his alarming note to Mr. Tooke, i 119
- JUNIUS, first mentions the name of Mr. Horne, i 107 predicts the result of the controversy between Mr.
 Horne and Mr. Onslow, 144 praises the society for supporting the Bill of Rights, 166
 account of his first appearance, 359 attacks Mr. Horne, 362
 Mr. Horne's reply, 363
- K.
- KENYON, Mr., afterwards lord Kenyon, some account of, i 32
 his attack on Mr. Horne Tooke, 103 his charge to the jury, 109
- KING's Bench prison, unhealthy, ii 1 its miseries, 2
- KNIGHT, Mr., greatly respected by Mr. Tooke, ii 332
- L.
- LANSDOWNE, marquis of, his character, i 159
- LAWLEY and the King, a case referred to, by Mr. Horne Tooke, ii 11
- LLOYD, Robert, character of, i 353
- LONDON, city of, presents an address to the king, supposed to be penned, in part, by Mr. Horne, i 147 presents a remonstrance to the throne, wholly written by Mr. Horne, 152 votes a statue to Mr. Beckford, 157

I N D E X.

M.

- MACHIAVELLI, observations concerning, ii 431
- MACKINTOSH, sir James, his first acquaintance with Mr. Horne, ii 29
 account of, 333
- MALLET, Mr., account of, i 357
- MANSFIELD, is accused of injustice as a judge, i 141 is found to have misdirected the jury, 143 his conduct in the case of Bingley, 169
 his character, 441
 opposes Mr. Horne Tooke's call to the bar, ii 5 the enemy of Mr. Horne, ii n. 7
- MOIRA, lord, Mr. Tooke's opinion of him, ii 403
- MORRIS, Mr., account of, ii 286
- MURPHY, Mr., account of, i 357 is refused to be called to the bar, ii 15 more particulars concerning, ii 427
- MURRAY, general, account of, ii 324

N.

- NEWSPAPERS, brief history of, i 322 anecdote of the editor of a daily paper, ii 45 opinions of the reporters on political affairs, ii 401

O.

- OLIVER, alderman, his conduct, i 338 is committed to the Tower, 345
 account of, ii 235
- ONSLOW, right hon. George, prosecutes Mr. Horne for a libel, i 137
 loses his cause, and moves for a new trial, i 140 is again foiled, 143
 is opposed by Mr. Horne at the general election, 145 letter to, from Mr. Wilkes, 231 moves the house of commons relative to the printers, 329

I N D E X.

P

- PAINE, Thomas, account of, ii 323
- PEARSON, Dr. George, the favourite physician of Mr. Tooke, ii 327
- PITT, William, (first earl of Chatham) character of, i 46
 the part taken by him during the American war 433 William, (right hon.) his opinion relative to the justice of the war with America, ib.
 proposes a parliamentary reform, ii 34 becomes chancellor of the exchequer, 44 is made first lord of the treasury, 46 produces his last plan of reform, 47 is greatly deceived relative to domestic disturbances, 115
- PRECEDENTS, two, quoted by lord Mansfield against Mr. Horne Tooke, ii 9
- PRICE, Dr. Richard, writes a tract in conjunction with Mr. H. Tooke, ii 21
- PRINTING, as connected with newspapers, history of, i 321
- PRINTERS, case of, i 322

R.

- REFORM in parliament, history of, ii 32 plan for, supported by Mr. Sheridan, duke of Norfolk, major Cartwright, Dr. Jebb, &c. 40
- RICHMOND, duke of, his character, i 433
- ROCKINGHAM, marquis of, his character, id. ib.
- ROMILLY, sir Samuel, Mr. Tooke's opinion of him, ii 402
- ROSENHAGEN, Mr., passes some time with Mr. Horne, i 70
- RUSHWORTH, Edward, esq., M. P. petitions the House of Commons, respecting the eligibility of Mr. J. H. Tooke, ii 258

S.

- SARUM, Old, Mr. Tooke becomes one of its members, ii 238
- SAWBRIDGE, Mr. alderman, account of, ii 282

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06161-2 - Memoirs of John Horne Tooke: Interspersed with Original Documents: Volume 2

Alexander Stephens

Index

More information

I N D E X.

- SAWBIDGE, John, solicits the advice of Mr. Horne, i 108
- SAVILLE, sir George, his character, i 433
- SCOTT, Mr. William, and Mr. Hobbes, visitors at Wimbledon, ii 325
- SHELBURNE, lord, afterwards marquis of Lansdowne, character of, ii 159 some account of, 433
- SMOLLET, Dr. Tobias, account of, i 355
- SOCIETY for supporting the "Bill of Rights," by whom founded, i 163 Constitutional, the remark concerning, 175
the Speculative, ii 29
Mr. Tooke and sir James Mackintosh, members of, ib.
- ST. GEORGE'S FIELDS, riot in, i 103

T.

- TACITUS, his observations relative to great cities, i 160
- TEMPLE, earl, (now marquis of Buckingham,) moves the House against Mr. Horne Tooke, ii 246
- THURLOW, lord, character of, i 439 persecutes Mr. Horne for a libel, 448 his conduct in the House of Lords, ii 259
- TOOKE, Mr. William, becomes treasurer to the Bill of Rights, i 163 applies to Mr. Horne for advice and assistance, 424 conversation with Mr. Horne, 425 determines to make Mr. Horne Tooke his heir, 430 his character, ii 264
- TOWNSHEND, alderman, solicits the advice of Mr. Horne, i 108
account of, ii 284
- TOOKE, John Horne, (the subject of these memoirs,) account of his birth, i 6 is sent to an academy in Soho Square, 13 account of, while at Westminster School, 14

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06161-2 - Memoirs of John Horne Tooke: Interspersed with Original Documents: Volume 2

Alexander Stephens

Index

More information

I N D E X.

- TOOKE, John Horne, is sent to Eton, 14
 character while a boy, 16
 loses the sight of his right eye, 17 elopes from his school-master, 18 anecdote of, 21
 is sent to Cambridge, 22
 becomes an usher at a boarding-school, 23
 his opinions concerning education, 25
 a great advocate for learning, 27 enters into holy orders as a deacon, 28 becomes attached to the study of the law, 29 enters into the society of the Inner Temple, 30 associates with lords Ashburton and Kenyon, 31
 is ordained a priest, 33
 obtains the chapelry of New Brentford, 34
 visits France, 35
 is promised preferment in the church, 36 character of, as a clergyman, 37
 his hatred to popery, 38
 his kindness and attention to the sick, 39
 turns politician, 41
 is a great admirer of the earl of Chatham, 57
 becomes a political writer, ib.
 publishes his first pamphlet, 59
 travels into Italy, 67
 becomes acquainted with the elder Sheridans, 68 is introduced to Mr. Wilkes at Paris, 69 visits Voltaire and Sterne, 71 letter to Wilkes, 76 dispute and reconciliation with that gentleman, 83 becomes a popular divine, 85
 assists Mr. Wilkes in the Middlesex Election, 92 letter to sir W. B. Proctor, 97 rescues colonel Luttrell (now lord Irnham) from the mob, 102
 recommends Mr. serjeant Glynn for the county of Middlesex, 103

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06161-2 - Memoirs of John Horne Tooke: Interspersed with Original Documents: Volume 2

Alexander Stephens

Index

More information

I N D E X.

- TOOKE, John Horne, convicts M^cQuirk of murder, i 105
 seizes on the murderers of Clarke, 106
 opposes the execution of the Spital Fields' weavers, 108 publishes a work on this subject, 114 composes a sermon, 116
 dispute with Mr. Onslow, 120 letter to that gentleman, 121 prosecution for a libel, 137
 trial at Kingston, 138
 acquittal and motion for a new trial, 140 accuses the earl of Mansfield of misdirecting the jury, 143 moves and carries an address to the king, 146
 pens a remonstrance from the city of London, 151 the lord mayor's reply to the king, 156 demands a pledge from the opposition, 160
 founds the Bill of Rights Society, 163 supports Bingley, 168 dispute with Wilkes, 176
 correspondence with that gentleman, 179
 takes a degree at Cambridge, 320 opposes the House of Commons, 332 vindicates the liberty of the press, 338
 contest with Junius, 363
 determines to be called to the bar, 418
 resigns his living at Brentford, 419 becomes an economist—anecdote, 421 interposes in behalf of Mr. W. Tooke, 422 libel on sir Fletcher Norton, 428 ordered to the bar of the House of Commons, 429 vindicates the rights of his friend Mr. W. Tooke, 430 declares against the American war, 431 denies the claim to tax the colonies, 432 accuses the king's troops of murder, 435 is again prosecuted for a libel, 443 trial and defence, 449

VOL. II.

2 M

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06161-2 - Memoirs of John Horne Tooke: Interspersed with Original Documents: Volume 2

Alexander Stephens

Index

More information

I N D E X.

- TOOKE, John Horne, is sent to the King's Bench prison, ii 1 situation there, 3
 generous conduct to a poor woman, 6 letter to Mr. Dunning, 7 is released from prison, 11 attacked by the gout, 13
 applies for a call to the bar, 14
 is rejected by the benchers of the Inner Temple, 18 tract against the American war, 21 addicts himself to agriculture, 25 returns to the capital, 26 reform of parliament, 30 supports Mr. Pitt, in the cause of reform, 34 pamphlet on this subject, 35
 his plan, 37
 supports the prerogative of the crown, 39
 declares against innovations, ib.
 objects to universal suffrage, 41
 sides with the earl of Shelburne, 44 agrees to Mr. Pitt's scheme for disfranchising the rotten boroughs, 48
 associates with lord Camden, &c., 49 declares against Mr. Fox, 50
 publishes vol. i. of his great work on language, 54
 addresses a letter to the prince of Wales, 68 publishes his two pair of portraits, 70
 rescues some Englishmen from slavery, 80
 becomes a candidate for Westminster, 83
 address to the electors, 84
 opposes Mr. Fox, 87
 loses his election, 89
 address to the House of Commons, 92
 trial with Mr. Fox, 100
 speech in court, 101
 retires to Wimbledon, 109 opinion relative to the French revolution, 113 exposed to the artifices of a spy, 116

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06161-2 - Memoirs of John Horne Tooke: Interspersed with Original Documents: Volume 2

Alexander Stephens

Index

More information

I N D E X.

- TOOKE, John Horne, arrested and sent to the Tower, ii 120
 transferred to Newgate, 125
 arraigned at the Old Bailey, 133
 refuses to pay the income tax, 157 scheme for rendering Mr. Tooke independent, 160 particulars of his fortune, 161
 account of his daughters, 162
 becomes once more a candidate for Westminster, 165
 loses his election, 229 becomes acquainted with sir F. Burdett, 233 is returned for Old Sarum, 238
 his speeches in parliament, 240 disqualified by an act of the legislature, 260 suit in chancery, 271
 controversy with Dr. Geddes, 319 opinion concerning the state of the middle ages, 404 opposes an unjust tax, 406 account of his illness, 410 statement of his maladies, 421
 death, 446
 burial, 449
 description of his person, 450
 character, 453
 political principles, 463

W.

- WILKES, John, the commencement of his acquaintance with Mr. Horne, i 69
 receives a letter from him, 76 wishes to obtain an employment, 80 denies the receipt of the letter from Montpelier, 82 character of, 88
 is assisted by Mr. Horne in his election for Middlesex, 93 is sent to the King's Bench prison, 101 attains the summit of popularity, 161 his debts liquidated by a society, 167

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-06161-2 - Memoirs of John Horne Tooke: Interspersed with Original Documents: Volume 2
Alexander Stephens
Index
More information

I N D E X.

- WILKES, John, dispute with Mr. Horne, i 177 correspondence with Mr. Horne, 200 threatens Mr. Garrick, 256 his conduct in respect to the printers, 335 proposes a parliamentary reform, ii 34
his character, 229
- WARNER, Dr., some account of, ii 288
- WOODEALL, H. S., examination of, in the case of an alledged libel against Mr. Onslow, i 135 private letter to, from Junius, 144

V.

- VOLTAIRE, is visited by Mr. Horne, i 70

Z.

- ZENOBIO, count, anecdotes of, ii 329

END OF VOL II.

Printed by C. WOOD,
Poppin's Court, Fleet Street.