

CONTENTS.

VOLUME I.

PART I. HISTORICAL ASSOCIATIONS.

Chapter	Page
I. Earliest Traditions,	1
II. From the Accession of the Stuarts to the Death of James III.,	11
III. From the Accession of James IV. to the Battle of Flodden,	22
IV. From the Battle of Flodden to the Death of James V.,	34
V. From the Death of James V. to the Abdication of Queen Mary,	48
VI. From the Accession of James VI. to the Restoration of Charles II.,	81
VII. Historical Incidents after the Restoration,	99

PART II. LOCAL ANTIQUITIES AND TRADITIONS.

I. The Castle,	121
II. King's Stables, Castle Barns, and Castlehill,	134
III. The Lawnmarket,	158
IV. The Tolbooth, Luckenbooths, and Parliament Close,	184

VOLUME II.

V. The High Street,	1
VI. The High Street and Netherbow,	29
VII. The Canongate and Abbey Sanctuary,	56
VIII. St Leonards, St Mary's Wynd, and the Cowgate,	90
IX. The West Bow and the Suburbs,	113
X. Leith and the New Town,	136
XI. Ecclesiastical Antiquities,	157

c

APPENDIX.

No.	Page
I. Edinburgh,	201
II. Ancient Maps and Views of Edinburgh,	201
III. Churches,	205
IV. Corporation and Masonic Halls,	206
V. Wrychtishousis,	208
VI. Porteous Mob,	209
VII. Lady Ann Bothwell's Lament,	209
VIII. Armorial Bearings,	211
IX. The Restoration. Burning of Cromwell, the Pope, &c.,	211
X. West Bow. Major Weir,	213
XI. Old Bank Close. Assassination of Sir George Lockhart by Chiesley of Dalry,	215
XII. Sir David Lindsay,	216
XIII. Umfraville's Cross,	216
XIV. Greyfriars' Monastery,	217
XV. The Whitefriars' Monastery,	218
XVI. St Katherine's Well,	218
XVII. Claudero,	218
XVIII. St Giles's Church,	221
XIX. Ancient Lodgings,	223
XX. The Pillory,	225
XXI. James Craig, Architect. Plan of the New Town,	227