

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06586-3 - Topography of Thebes, and General View of Egypt: Being a Short Account of the Principal Objects Worthy of Notice in the Valley of the Nile

John Gardner Wilkinson

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

Preface	Page v	Ancient Egypt, and its early civilization	Page vii—xxi
Introduction, on the power of

CHAPTER I.

Topography of Thebes, or Diospolis Magna.

Name of Thebes	1	Wealth of Thebes	43
Time of its foundation unknown	2	Its decline and fall	44
The most ancient part	ib.	The city and Libyan suburb.
First objects to be visited there .	3	Gardens and houses	45
Temple-palace or palace-temple of Old Qoorneh	ib.	Christian inmates. Arab inva- sion. Small temple of Me- deenet Haboo	46
Dedication. The word Pharaoh (Note)	5	The original part	48
Shrines and sacred subjects	6, 7, 8	Additions by various kings	49
Other ruins on the west bank	9	Egyptian embattlements	ib.
Memnonium, temple-palace of Remeses II.	ib.	Great temple-palace of Remeses III.	50
Granite Colossus	10	His pavilion. Game of chess	51
Its size and weight	12	Parts of the temple	52
Tomb of Osymandyas	13	Speech of the god to the king	53
Battle scenes	16—21	Egyptian columns	54
Conquests of the Egyptians	22, 23	Mons. Champollion	55
The Jews	25	The other parts of the building	59
Astronomical subjects in the Memnonium	27	Procession of the king and his attendants	61
Other ruins	28, 29	The coronation ceremony	63
Temple-palaces of Amunoph III.	31, 32	Another procession	64
Vocal statue of Memnon	33	Historical subjects; captives	65
Height of the two Colossi of Amunoph	35	Of what country	66
The sound, and its real cause	36	Return after victory	67
Other Colossi in the avenue lead- ing to the temple	38	Another expedition	69
Rise of the alluvial soil and bed of the river	40	Revolt of the allies	73
Other ruins. The temples of Thebes numerus	41	Temples protected against rain at Thebes	75
The 100 gates not of the city; no wall	42	Other ruins near Medeenet Haboo	76
		The sacred lake of the dead	78
		The queen's tombs	79
		Pallades or pellices Jovis	80
		Antiquity of the arch	81
		Dayr el Medeench	82

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06586-3 - Topography of Thebes, and General View of Egypt: Being a Short Account of the Principal Objects Worthy of Notice in the Valley of the Nile

John Gardner Wilkinson

Table of Contents

More information

xxiv

CONTENTS.

	Page		Page
Ptolemy Physcon	83	Sculptures and style of building	91
Judgment scene	85	Its obelisks	92
Intent of one of the side chambers	86	Question respecting Amun-neitgori, the founder	93 and 96
Errors in reading Ptolemaic names	87	Peculiar vaulted chambers	94
Masonry connected by wooden dove-tailed cramps	89	Supposed communication to the tombs of the kings	98
Dayr el Bahree	90	Road to the tombs of the kings	99

CHAPTER II.

Bab, or Biban el Molook, "The Gate" or "Gates of the Kings."

Tombs of the kings	100	Tomb of Memnon, so called	114
Belzoni's tomb	101	Portraits of the kings	116
Originally closed	102	Other tombs	117
Its parts and plan	103	A queen the original occupant of the tomb No. 14.	118
Its length; its sculptures	105	Tomb usurped by a later king	119
The four divisions of the world	106	Other tombs. Supposed passage through the rocks. Tombs open in the time of the Ptolemies	120, 121
Egyptian drawings	107	Tombs in the Western Valley	122
Sculptures of the other chambers	108
Bruce's Harper's tomb	109
The kitchen chamber	110
Arms; furniture	111
The Harpers. The occupants of these small chambers	113

CHAPTER III.

Tombs of Priests and Private Individuals.

The goddess Athor	125	A procession and tribute from Ethiopia	136
Crude brick arches	126	Arrival of a princess from that country	137
Priest's wives. Subjects of the frescos	127	Egyptian slaves	138
Crude brick pyramids with vaulted chambers	128	A chase of wild animals	139
Tombs of the time of the 26th Dynasty. The largest tomb in Thebes	129	Hill of Shekh Abd-el-Qoorneh	140
Its plan and distribution	131	Tombs sold a second time	141
Chambers in the pits	132	The subjects of the tombs an epitome of human life	142, 143
The occupant of this tomb	133	Pigs rarely represented. Names in tomb No. 16, confirming the tablet of Abydus	144
Style of the sculpture of this era	134
Tombs of Qoornet Mur'raee	135

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06586-3 - Topography of Thebes, and General View of Egypt: Being a Short Account of the Principal Objects Worthy of Notice in the Valley of the Nile

John Gardner Wilkinson

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

XXV

Page	Page
A funeral procession with the coffin. Egyptian Boats	145	The women and children. The offerings	154
Fish. Liturgies or parentalia. A party of guests. Music	146	Use of bellows and glue	155
Preparation for a feast	147	Some notion of perspective	156
Handsome vases, &c. Trades	148	Grand funeral procession of boats	157
Letter of Athanasius. Young Amunoph II. and his mother	149	The Egyptians fond of caricature	ib.
Some elegant Egyptian figures and vases	150	The sacred lake	159
Curriers. Egyptian chariots of wood	151	Error of the learned Larcher	ib.
A rich tribute. The most interesting tomb at Thebes.	152	Other tombs	160
Northern nations. Gloves. Bear and elephant	153	Prescribed rules of art	161
		Nothing borrowed from the Greeks	162
		Decline of Egyptian art	163
		Order in which the ruins are to be visited by a traveller, who takes a cursory view of Thebes	164

CHAPTER IV.

'Luq'sor, El Uq'sor, or Aboo 'I Haggág, called by the ancient Egyptians "Southern Tapé;" and El Karnak.

Temple-palace of Luqsor	166	Sculptures of Shishak, who took Jerusalem	181
The obelisks	167	Thebes besieged by Ptolemy Lathyrus, and destroyed	182
Parts of the building	168	The Persian conquest	183
The great Colonnade	169	The south-west propyla, lake, &c.	184
Sanctuary rebuilt by Alexander	170	The western lake and ruins about it	185
The ancient quay	171	Other parts of Karnak	186
Temple of Karnak	172	Historical sculptures and wars	187
The principal part of it	173	Names of captured places	189
The grand hall of 134 columns	174	Assyrian nation, perhaps Canaanites	190
The oldest part	175	Return to the Nile. A bridge	191
Total length of the building 1180 feet	176	Mount Lebanon	192
Karnak the oldest temple at Thebes	177	Other battle scenes	193
Its original dimensions	178	Captives of Sheshonk (Shishak)	195
The sanctuary and various additions	179
The grand hall, and sphinxes connecting the parts	180

CHAPTER V.

Manners and Customs of the ancient Egyptians.

Private houses; tombs; temples	198	Houses of the city of Diospolis	201
Distribution of the houses	200	Gardens; irrigation	202

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06586-3 - Topography of Thebes, and General View of Egypt: Being a Short Account of the Principal Objects Worthy of Notice in the Valley of the Nile

John Gardner Wilkinson

Table of Contents

More information

xxvi

CONTENTS.

	Page		Page
Vine; wine	203	Camels; animals; sheep	244
Beer; the lotus	205	Geese; poultry	245
Papyrus	206	Eggs hatched by artificial means	246
Trees	207	Other customs	249
Persea	209	Respect for old age	250
Mimosa, &c.	210	Punishment for offences	251
Cultivated productions	211	Women; money; gold	252
The use of wheat	213	Revenue and commerce	253
Another grain	215	Ships sent round the Cape of Good Hope; their boats	254
Beans	216	Dresses and ornaments; em- balming	256
Fish; clover	217	Figures of the four genii; writ- ing from right to left	257
Flax; fine linen	218	Glass and other vases	258
Vegetable oils	219	Early use of glass	259
Botanical productions	220	Productions of modern Egypt	ib.
Medicinal plants	ib.	Of the winter season	261
Artificial flowers	222	Of summer	263
Desert plants	223	Fruits	265
Sports of the field. Game	224	Dates	266
Fishing. Hippopotamus	225	Produce in different parts of Egypt. Land measures	267
The chase	227	Quantity produced on the fed- dan. Weights and measures (Note)	268
Animals of the desert	228	Returns from different crops; expenses, taxes, &c.	270—273
Wolves in Egypt. The four castes; their subdivisions	229	Extra produce in three crops	274
Priests	230	Government of the provinces, and salaries of the governors	277
Soldiers	233	Exactions	279
Regiments. The testudo	234	Mohammed Ali	282
The army	236	Prices in the capital, in 1827	283
Military punishments	238
Games; music; instruments	238
Songs and entertainments	240
The guests anointed; furniture of rooms	241
Mode of eating	242
Chess or draughts. Games	243

CHAPTER VI.

Journey from Alexandria to Thebes.

Remains of the ancient city of Alexandria	288	Invasion of the Moslems. Omer orders the library to be burnt. Present canal	293
Pillar of Diocletian, called of Pompey	289	Journey to El Qaherah. Saïs. Boolâq	294
Catacombs; ancient city; com- merce	290	Death of Ismaïl Pasha	295
Library	291	The square of Usbeqésh in Qa- herah	296
Schools	292

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06586-3 - Topography of Thebes, and General View of Egypt: Being a Short Account of the Principal Objects Worthy of Notice in the Valley of the Nile

John Gardner Wilkinson

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxvii

	Page		Page
Principal bazaars. Caliphs' tombs	297	Tombs of individuals	332
Morostan, or lunatic asylum.		Causeways	333
Mosks	298	Repaired by the Caliphs	334
El Ezher. Soltan Hakem, the prophet of the Druses	299	Pyramid of Cheop's daughter	ib.
Pointed arches in 1003 A. D.		Nature of the rock. Food of the builders	335
Mosk of Soltan Hassan	300	Another older pyramid. Busiris	336
Mosk of e'Tayloon, or Tooloon	301	Pyramids of Saqqára. Stone arch	337
Pointed arch, upwards of 300 years before it was known in England	302	Pyramids of Dashoor	338
Slave-market. Gates. Name of the city of Qaherah	303	Site of Memphis	339
Its foundation	304	Foundation of Memphis	340
The citadel built by Yoosef Saláh-e'deen	305	Note on the rise of the bed of the Nile and of the soil of Egypt	ib.
Joseph's well and hall	306	Course of the Nile changed by Menes	341
Tombs of the Memlook Soltáns	307	Bahr Yoosef called Menhi from him	ib.
Mekkeh pilgrims. Population of Qaherah	308	Deities of Memphis and parts of the temple of Phthah	342
Remains of Egyptian Babylon	309	The Delta. The three sea-ports Alexandria, Rosetta (Rasheed), and Damietta (Damiat)	343
Old inscription on wood of the time of Diocletian	310	Papyrus; Ibis; Tanis	345
Nilometer in the Isle of Roda	311	Monolith at Tel-e'Tmai. Other ancient and modern towns. Tanta; Dessooq	346
Pointed arches (Note)	312	Bubastis. Coptic dictionary. The Saeed	347
The inundation; its height	313	Quarries of Maasara	348
Graduated column	314	Dyke of Menes. False pyramid. Fyoom	349
Lowest and highest rise of the Nile	315	Its productions and ruins. Obelisk and crude brick pyramids	350
Heliopolis	316, 317	Lake Mæris. Ruined towns near Kom - Weseem, and Dimay	351
Balsam of Matarééh and holy tree	318	Qasr Kharoon, temple, &c.	352
The red mountain and petrified wood	319	Sites of other ancient towns, and former extent of the Fyoom	353
Sooez canal	320	Pyramid of Howára. The canal or Bahr Yoosef was the Lake Mæris	354
Level of the Red Sea	321	The Labyrinth of Menes and the other kings one and the same monument	355
Elevation of the land	322
The mounds of the Jews. The pyramids	323
The great pyramid	324
An unopened passage	325
No hieroglyphics	326
Their object unknown	327
The second pyramid	328
Style of building	329
The third pyramid	330
The sphinx	331
Has not negro features	ib.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06586-3 - Topography of Thebes, and General View of Egypt: Being a Short Account of the Principal Objects Worthy of Notice in the Valley of the Nile

John Gardner Wilkinson

Table of Contents

More information

xxviii

CONTENTS.

	Page		Page
Return of the water from the Lake	355	Tanoof. Dahroot. Mouth of the Bahr Yoosef	386
The Bathen of D'Anville is purely imaginary	356	The first Dôm trees. Hieracon	387
The Oasis parva. Warm springs ib.		Crocodile mummies	388
Height of the level of the Oases	357	E'Sioot, Lycopolis. Wolf mummies	389
El Hayz and Farafreh	358	Bed of alabaster. Gow, Antæopolis	390
Oases of the Blacks	359	Hoax practised on the Pope. Tahta	391
Oasis of E'Dakhleh	360	Serpent of Shekh Hereedee	392
The Great Oasis	ib.	The white monastery	392
Temple of El Khargeh	361	Ruins of Athribis	393
Other ruins and villages in the Great Oasis	362	Soohag; E'Khmin or Panopolis	394
Desert east of the Nile. Two convents; ruins; porphyry quarries; Mÿos Hormos, &c.	363	Geergeh. Ruins of Abydus	396
Gebel e' Zayt and sulphur mines. Benisooef. Journey to Minyeh	364	Tablet, or list of kings. Acanthus grove	399
Heracleopolis; Hajar e'Salâm	365	How, or Diospolis parva; tomb there	400
Bahnasa	366	Chenoboscion: ancient grottoes	401
Gisr-el-Agoos, a crude brick wall	367	Dendera. Egyptian architecture	402
The wall of Sesostris	368	The zodiac. Portico of the great temple of Athor	403
Acoris, now Tehneh. Greek inscriptions; quarries; hieroglyphic tablets	369	Parts of the temple and its antiquity	405
Taha-el-amoodayn	370	Small temple or chapel of Isis and other ruins	406
Minyeh: the modern cemetery	371	The Tentyrites enemies of the crocodile	408
Grottoes of Beni Hassan	372	The crocodile	409
Style of the painting	373	Qeneh	410
The subjects relating to private life	374	Coptos, Ruins of	411
The strangers neither Jews nor Greeks	375	Communication with the Myos Hormos and other ports of the Red Sea	412
The animals. Games and other subjects	376	Qoos, Apollinopolis parva	413
Dwarfs	378	Medamôt	414
The Speos Artemidos	379	Ababdeh desert. Emerald and other mines. Roads to the ancient sea-ports	415
Ruins of Antinoe	380	Road from Coptos to Berenice	417
Grottoes at El Bersheh. Statue on a sledge	382	Nechesia and the Leucospotus	419
Hermopolis Magna, Oshmoonayn. Gebel Toona	383	The emerald mines: temple and stations on the road to them	420
The supposed site of Alabastron	384	Saltness of the water of the Red Sea	422
Sculptured grottoes and alabaster quarry	385

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06586-3 - Topography of Thebes, and General View of Egypt: Being a Short Account of the Principal Objects Worthy of Notice in the Valley of the Nile

John Gardner Wilkinson

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxix

CHAPTER VII.

From Thebes to Nubia.

	Page		Page
Hermouthis now Erment	423	Diluvial deposit. Pliny's use of
Tuot and Gebelayn	424	the word "peninsula"	457
Zodiac of e'Dayr	425	Granite quarries: obelisk left in
E'sué, Latopolis	426	them. Pillar of Caracalla	458
Contra Laton. Natron. Hamr	428	Syenite and granite. Rocks of
Stone quay and pyramid. Kom		E'Sooan. The principal in-
Ahmar	429	habitants descended from the
El Kab Eilethyas, its remains	430	Turkish soldiers left there by
Ponds with natron. Sculptured		Soltan Selem	459
tombs	433	Dates of E'Sooan. Island of
Agricultural and other subjects	434	Elephantine; its name	460
Edfoo, Apollinopolis Magna	435	Ruins of Elephantine. The god
The founders of the present		Kneph not the same as Amun	461
temple	436	Other ruins lately destroyed by
A smaller building. Quarries		the Turks	462
of Hagar Silsili	438	The Nilometer	ib.
The use of sandstone. Colored		Garrison of Elephantine. Greek sculpture	442	troops of Psamaticus. The
Rain in Upper Egypt	444	pottery found there	463
Grottoes and tablets of Silsiliis.		The Nobatæ. Four islands of
The deities.	445	Philæ	464
The presiding deity. Ombos,		Island of Sehayl. Journey to the great temple	447	Philæ	465
Double entrance of the great		The first cataract. Island of temple	449	Philæ	466
The other temple	ib.	Oldest part of the temple of
Other ruins, date of the original		Isis; color and architecture	467
temple	450	Chapels of Esculapius and Houses burnt. Stones of por-		Athor: Nectanebo's name on phyry, &c.	451	the original temple	468
Narrowness of the valley beyond		The quay. Other ruins	460
Edfoo. Junction of the sand-		Island of Biggeh. Older edifice
stone and granites. E'Sooan,		there. The Roman arch. Big-
Syene: meaning of the name	452	geh Abaton	470
Temple of Nero and Domitian.		Tablets on the rocks of the early
Supposed tropical well	453	Pharaohs	471
No bridge at E'Sooan. Sara-		Frontier of Ethiopia. Conquests
cenic wall and tombs	454	of the Romans as far as Napata	472
Cufic tomb-stones. Style of		Names of Egyptian monarchs in
Cufic at different periods	455	Ethiopia	473
Invention of the pointed arch	456	Nubia. Dabod	475

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06586-3 - Topography of Thebes, and General View of Egypt: Being a Short Account of the Principal Objects Worthy of Notice in the Valley of the Nile

John Gardner Wilkinson

Table of Contents

More information

XXX

CONTENTS.

	Page		Page
The temple. An Ethiopian king	476	Temple at Amada	491
Inscriptions at Gertassee	477	Temple at Derr, the capital of Nubia, of Remeses II.	492
Tafa, Taphis, ruins	478	Ibreem, Primis parva	494
Kalabshee. Talmis, the great temple	480	Aboo-Simbel. Two temples	495
The deity. Inscriptions of king Silco and others	481	The Colossi. The Egyptians not black	497
The Bayt-el-wellee	482	Total depth of the larger excavated temple	498
Remeses II.; question concerning him	483	Ferayq. Farras, Phthuris	ib.
Sculptures representing his victories	484	Coptic inscriptions of the time of Diocletian	ib.
Temple of Dendoor	486	Wadee Halfeh. View of the second cataract. Distance from the sea. (Vide also Appendix C.)	499
Gerf Kossayr; Cush	487	Temples of Samneh	501
Temple of Dakkeh. Ergamenes, the Ethiopian king	488	Tasitia and Pnouns	502
Its founder. The deity Hermes Trismegistus	489
Hierasyaminon and Saboaa	490

CHAPTER VIII.

Chronology of the Kings of Egypt.

The Pyramids and the Shepherds	505	The Chronological table of the Pharaohs	508 et seq.
Era of Menes. Construction of the Chronological table	506	The Ptolemies	519 et seq.

CHAPTER IX.

Chronology of the Caliphs and Moslem Kings of Egypt.

Mohammed; his origin	527	Conquest of Spain	537
His successors, the caliphs	528	The discord of the Moslems	538
Alee (or Ali); his character and death. His sons	529	The Chronological table of the Caliphs	540
The 12 Imams of Persia. Rapid successes of the Moslems	530	The Omniades	ib.
Invasion of Egypt	531	The Abbasides	542
Treachery of John Mecaukes (Note on Arab coinage)	532	Cotemporary Dynasties	543
Payment of tribute	533	The Aqlabééh	ib.
Taking of Alexandria	534	The Tolooneéh	544
Conquest of Upper Egypt	535	The Fowátem, or Fatemite Dynasty in Africa	545
———— of Western Africa	536	The Fowátem in Egypt	547
		Aioobite Soltans in Egypt	549

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06586-3 - Topography of Thebes, and General View of Egypt: Being a Short Account of the Principal Objects Worthy of Notice in the Valley of the Nile

John Gardner Wilkinson

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxx

	Page		Page
Baharite Memlook kings of Egypt	551	Circassian or Borgite Memlook kings of Egypt	555
Salahééh Baharite kings	552	Conquest of Egypt by Soltan Seleem	557

APPENDIX.

A.—Things required for travelling in Egypt, and general instructions to those who visit it either from Europe or India	559
B.—English and Arabic Vocabulary	569
C.—On the Steam Communication with India through Egypt	585