

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06685-3 - Notes on the Late Expedition Against the Russian Settlements in Eastern Siberia: And of a Visit to Japan and to the Shores of Tartary, and of the Sea of Okhostk

Bernard Whittingham

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

Object of the Writer in joining Naval Expedition. — Its Prospects. — Leave Hong Kong. — Mildness of the Winter in Southern China. — Sail along Shores of Formosa. — Currents found in the Pacific. — Aerolite of extraordinary brilliancy seen. — Approach Straits of Corea. — First Whale Ship seen. — Drift past Japanese Island. — Its Cultivation. — Appearance of the Habitations. — Man overboard. — Commodore's former saving of a Seaman's Life. — Enter Sea of Japan. — Gradual cooling of Sea-water. — Reach Straits of Sangar. — Snow on the Hills. — Excitement consequent on entering Japanese Port for first Time
Page 1

CHAP. II.

Description of the Harbour of Hakodadi. — Fine Mountain Scenery. — Extinct Volcano. — Numerous Fishing-Boats. — Train of Ponies carrying Merchandise. — Japanese kill no Animals. — Exemplified by Tameness of Sea-Gulls and Wild Ducks. — Astonishment expressed by Japanese on being asked for Beef. — Visit of Harbour-Master. — Description of his Boat. — Ensign of the official Position of Occupier. — Astonishment of Japanese at the Appearance of the Interpreters addressing them in pure Japanese. — Demand for Provisions. — Refusal to give Meat. — Prostration before

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06685-3 - Notes on the Late Expedition Against the Russian Settlements in Eastern Siberia: And of a Visit to Japan and to the Shores of Tartary, and of the Sea of Okhostk

Bernard Whittingham

Table of Contents

More information

x

CONTENTS.

Superiors. — Visit from the Lieut.-Governor. — Conversation. — Interview with the Harbour-Master. — Forms of Ceremonial. — Description of the Harbour-Master's Office. — Walk through the Town. — Difficulties thrown in the way of seeing the People. — Japanese Women. — Bazaars arranged. — The Objects exposed. — Description of the Town. — Bhuddist Temple. — Manage to get rid of Police Escort. — Gales of Wind. — Estimation of Merchants. — Another Visit from Harbour-Master. — Vessel seen. — Suspected to be Russian. — Visit to the Governor. — Appearance of high Officials. — Description of the Palace-temple of Governor. — Ceremonies. — Dignity of Governor. — Conversation. — Refreshments. — Interview shortened by Report of another strange Sail. — False Alarm. — Take long Walk in the Environs of Hakodadi. — Visit Bazaar. — Difficulties of Exchange. — Efforts to get Swords. — Their supposed good Temper. — Walk to neighbouring Hamlets. — Civilities of District Headman. — Settle Accounts with Harbour-Master and Merchants. — Sail from Hakodadi

Page 13

CHAP. III.

Difficulty of getting Westward. — Distant View of Matsmai. — The Beauty of its Position. — Fine Peak of Risiri. — Glimpse of Sagalien. — Gale of Wind and Sleet. — Pass Cape Lamanon. — Go Ashore. — Deserted Hamlet. — Proceed further North. — Land. — Interview with Natives. — Description of them. — Large Black Bear caged. — Superstition of the Natives. — Their Worship of the Bear. — Anchor off Baie de la Jonquière. — Visit Settlement. — Coal found. — Stand across for De Castries Bay. — See Ships under Land. — Discovered to be Russian Squadron at Anchor. — Reconnoitred. — Force of the Enemy. — Steamer goes in to find Passage. — Description of Bay. — Position of Russian Ships. — Exchange Shots. — Find no Channel for Frigate. — Cruise off Mouth of Harbour. — Go to the South.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06685-3 - Notes on the Late Expedition Against the Russian Settlements in Eastern Siberia: And of a Visit to Japan and to the Shores of Tartary, and of the Sea of Okhostk

Bernard Whittingham

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xi

— Despatch Brig for Reinforcements. — Cruise. — Return to De Castries Bay. — Find it deserted. — Secrecy of it. — Land. — Signs of hasty Flight - - - Page 68

CHAP. IV.

Sail to the South. — Strange Sail at Night. — Quarters. — Stranger runs into Hornet. — An American. — Flagship seen and joined. — Cruising near Cape Crillon. — Land. — Reinforcements. — Go North again. — Slow Pace. — Again reach Baie de la Jonquière. — Squadron remains there. — Hasty Reconnoitre of the Head of Gulf of Tartary. — Squadron returns to Cape Crillon. — French Ships arrive. — Departure of Flagship for Japan - - - - - 100

CHAP. V.

Allied Squadron left at Cape Crillon. — Further Objects to be attained. — State of French Frigate Sibylle. — Anchor in Aniwa Bay. — Fishing Station of Japanese. — Inspect it. — Japanese Rule over Southern Sagalien despotic. — Fertility of the Island. — La Sibylle proceeds to the South, the Squadron to the North. — Sea of Okhotsk. — Perpetual Fogs. — Coldness of its Waters. — Evidences of the Discharge of a large Body of fresh Water. — Distance of the River Amùr. — Its Current encountered. — Fall in with H. M. S. Barracouta. — History of the Doings of the Pacific Squadrons. — Off extreme Northern Point of Sagalien. — Currents. — Deception of Obman Bay. — Endeavour to enter Gulf of the Amùr. — Difficulties. — Saw a Brig inside. — Its Movements indicative of being Russian. — Further Trials to find Passage. — Soundings. — Try the Western Shore. — Approach near Brig. — Deserted and set on Fire. — Visited. — Half the Crew captured. — Information from Prisoners - - - - - 119

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06685-3 - Notes on the Late Expedition Against the Russian Settlements in Eastern Siberia: And of a Visit to Japan and to the Shores of Tartary, and of the Sea of Okhotsk

Bernard Whittingham

Table of Contents

More information

xii

CONTENTS.

CHAP. VI.

Steer towards Aian. — Fogs. — Arrival at Aian. — Its Appearance. — Is deserted. — Land. — Information derived from chief Factor. — Dig for buried Guns and Stores. — Ill Success of Search. — Find concealed China. — Use of Settlement to Russia. — The Natives. — Archbishop. — Interview with him. — Barracouta leaves Squadron. — Returns with half of the Diana's shipwrecked Crew. — Sick Russians put on Shore. — Salmon and Trout caught. — Landing of Seamen. — Reflections. — Sail again for Cape Elizabeth. — Meet H. M. S. Encounter. — Southwards through Sea of Okhotsk. — Arrive at Aniwa Bay. — Skirt Shores of Sagalien, and Risiri and Rifunsiri Islands. — Conduct and Appearance of Russian Prisoners. — Distance at which Capes were visible. — Pass Matsmai. — Enter Sangar Straits. — Arrive at Hakodadi - Page 135

CHAP. VII.

Visit of Harbour-Master. — The Comings and Goings of the Ships confuse him. — Changed Appearance of the Port. — Proceed into the Country in Boats. — Villages continuous. — Inhabitants civil. — Fly-fishing. — Astonishment of the Natives. — Matrons and Maids. — Early Marriages. — Visit to Governor. — The Garden of the Temple. — French Sick lodged in a Temple. — Its Priest. — Apparent essential Ceremonies. — Tea-gardens. — Freedom permitted to unmarried Women. — The Governor visits the Frigate. — Retinue and State. — "The Illustrated News" invariably chief Topic of Conversation. — European Ladies' Dresses and Dancing incomprehensible. — Ideas of Architecture. — Luncheon. — Habits of Eating. — Powers of Drinking. — Curiosity and Intelligence of Governor. — Differences of Costume between Chinese and Japanese. — Walk into the Country. — Island of Yezzo. — Late Conquest by Japanese.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06685-3 - Notes on the Late Expedition Against the Russian Settlements in Eastern Siberia: And of a Visit to Japan and to the Shores of Tartary, and of the Sea of Okhostk

Bernard Whittingham

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xiii

—Interior inhabited by Ainos.—Description of Ainos.—
Wealth of Country - - - - Page 159

CHAP. VIII.

Leave Hakodadi.—“Beating” out.—Outsail Consort.—Gale of Wind in the Pacific.—Shores of Nipon.—Islands off the Bay of Yeddo.—Active Volcano.—Appearance of Land near Simoda.—Reach Simoda.—Badly chosen Port.—Difficult of Access.—Small.—Loss of Russian Frigate Diana.—Details of Russian Movements.—Russians escape.—Build a Vessel.—Distress of the Shipwrecked Officers.—Their Accounts of Japan.—American Treaty.—Russian Treaty.—Sail to the South.—The magnificent Spectacle presented by Fitsujiama Mountain.—Japanese Group happily situated.—Evidences of its Wealth and Fertility.—Van Diemen’s Strait.—Its Current.—Clusters of Volcanic Islands.—Active Volcano.—Island of Kiusu.—Its Government.—Importance.—Distant View of South-western Shores of Japan.—Island of Amakusu.—Christians.—Conduct of Dutch.—Nagasaki to Windward - - - - 187

CHAP. IX.

Nagasaki Harbours.—Defences.—Signs of high Cultivation.—Cordons of Boats still used against Foreigners.—Uncivil Treatment of English Officers by Japanese Authorities.—Ill Effects of a bad Treaty.—Climate in Summer.—Difficulties in obtaining Refreshments or Provisions for the Ships.—Exercise Ground given.—Attempts to alter the undignified Position of a Great Power.—Law made since Captain Pellew’s Visit in 1808.—Visit to the Governor.—Steam Tender employed.—Accompanied by Native Boats.—Description of Boats.—Inner Harbour.—Dutch Ships of War.—City of Nagasaki.—Dezima.—Interview.—Less Politeness than at Hakodadi.—Old Feelings of Contempt

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06685-3 - Notes on the Late Expedition Against the Russian Settlements in Eastern Siberia: And of a Visit to Japan and to the Shores of Tartary, and of the Sea of Okhostk

Bernard Whittingham

Table of Contents

More information

xiv

CONTENTS.

kept alive.—Talents of Japanese in conducting Conversations.—Refreshments.—The Endeavours to get the Terms of the Convention carried out foiled.—Return from Interview.—Dutch Commodore visits English Commodore privately.—English and French Admirals arrive at Nagasaki.—At so late a Season another Expedition sent to the Amùr.—Its Chances of Success.—Mistakes made during the two last Summers.—Prospects for next Campaign.—Russian Prisoners request to be landed.—The Conditions.—Fruitless Negotiation.—Trade with Japan.—Difficulties of Exchange.—Causes.—Probable Consumption of Woollen and Cotton Fabrics.—Copper Mines—Less valuable.—Require the Aid of Science and superior Mechanics.—Missionary Field.—Caution.—Medical Missionaries.—Benefit to be derived from Resident Diplomatic Agents.—Regrets at leaving Japan after so short a Glimpse.—Advantages possessed by the Japanese - - Page 210

CHAP. X.

Leave Nagasaki in Steamer under Sail.—Gale of Wind.—Fruitless Attempt to put back under Steam.—Run before the Gale.—Approach the Yang-tse-Kiang.—Shanghai.—Aspect the Year before when held by the Rebels.—State of the Rebellion.—The Christianity professed by “the Brethren.”—New Testament Distribution.—Leave Shanghai.—Hong Kong.—Increase.—Coasts of Cochin China.—Singapore.—Chinese Monopolies.—Industrial Trades.—Cultivated Interior of Island.—Pulo Penang.—Its Beauty.—Partially destroyed.—Waterfall.—Fort.—Ceylon.—Richness of Cocoa-nut Trees.—Chinese Emigration proposed.—Old Fort.—Promenade.—Lady Overboard.—Endeavours to find her fruitless.—Aden.—Its Strength.—Its Aridity.—Shores of Red Sea.—Suez.—Desert Roads.—Cairo.—Its peculiar Character.—Gardens.—Railroad.—Alexandria.—M. de Lesseps’ Scheme of a Canal from Peluse to Suez.—Advantages to Egypt.—Effect upon our

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06685-3 - Notes on the Late Expedition Against the Russian Settlements in Eastern Siberia: And of a Visit to Japan and to the Shores of Tartary, and of the Sea of Okhostk

Bernard Whittingham

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

XV

Eastern Possessions. — English Policy. — Strength of the Defences of Alexandria. — Malta. — French and English Soldiers in the Cafés. — Improvements in the Works. — Maltese Architecture. — Gibraltar. — Its Strength discussed. — Tarifa. — Cintra. — Reach Southampton Page 245

APPENDIX I.

On the Repulse at Petropaulski. — Its Causes, unknown to the Public — Mystified. — Losses caused by this System. — The Question to be answered. — The apparent Incomprehensibility of this Failure. — The Operations at Petropaulski and De Castries Bay compared - - 295

APPENDIX II.

Suggestions for future Operations in the Gulf of Tartary. — Whence good Charts are obtainable. — Description of Ships to be used. — Light Steamers with heavy Guns. — Colliers. — Blockade of Northern Entrance to the Gulf of Amùr. — The Employment of Troops seemingly useless. — Hopes of early News from Gulf of Tartary. — Lesson taught last Spring - - - - - 298