

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

I N D E X.

- ABERCROMBIE, Major-general, repulsed at Ticonderoga with great loss, i. 332. 335. 339.
- Abreu, Marquis d', Spanish envoy to London, i. 211. 265. 274. 371. ii. 22. Letters from, i. 294. 298. 350.
- Addington, Dr., M.D., some particulars of the court physician, iii. 273. 480. iv. 180. 214. 424. His daughter Eleanor married to James Sutton, Esq., 180. The Doctor's letter to Earl of Chatham, 181.
- Administrations: — Tables of statesmen from 1741 to 1778, i. xxi. ii. xxi. iii. xxvii. iv. xxix.
- Aiguillon, Duchesse d', ii. 127.
- Aix-la-Chapelle, peace of, i. 29.
- Albemarle, his mission to Versailles, i. 40. ii. 244.
- Algarotti, Count Francesco, dedicates his 'Essay on the Opera in Music' to Mr. Pitt. ii. 201. 213. Mr. Pitt makes his acknowledgments, 203.; and admires that work, 213. Mr. Pitt's regret for his death, 291.
- , Count Bonomo, ii. 325, 326.
- Allen, Ralph, Esq., of Prior Park, near Bath, whose character is portrayed by Henry Fielding as Mr. Allworthy, i. 154. His letters to Mr. Pitt, ii. 225. 228. The Bath Address, 223. 227. 228. 253. 255. His character, by Dr. Warburton, 290.
- Almon, Mr., publisher of Junius, iv. 35.
- Alva, Duke of, i. 211. 213. 252. 272.
- Amelia, the princess, i. 36.
- America, North, French encroachments on the frontier of Virginia, i. 40. 207. Lord Loudoun the English commander in, 237. Lord Amherst's command in, 331. English defeated at Ticonderoga, 332. 335. Contest between the English and French in, 376. 378. 403. 425. 439. 452. Conquest of Canada completed by the surrender of Montreal, ii. 67. Taxation of the English colonies in, proposed, 339. The Stamp Act, 340. 362. 372. Exasperation of the Assembly of Virginia, 341. Patrick Henry's speech, 341. Address in reply to the King's speech on the quarrel with the Colonies, 350. Mr. Pitt's speech, 364—373. Repeal of the Stamp Act, 374. 384. 390., et seq. The repeal passed, 403. Resolution of Massachusetts, iii. 6. Division on the repeal, 10. George Grenville's motion that America should support her own establishments, 178. 185. Petition from New York, 186.; relative to the Mutiny Act, 188. 191. 193. 207. 231. Question of taxation of, 192. 203. 232. 233. Various details of American affairs, 247. 251. 255. 335. 371. 455. Riot at Boston, 444.; declared a rendezvous for the King's ships, 467. Affairs in America. iv. 293. 301. 302. 322. 336. 339. 342. 414. 424. Declaration of Rights, 368. Military events of the contest with the Colonies, ii. 429. iv. 408. 477. 484. 489. Lord Chatham's motion for a cessation of hostilities, iv. 433—437. 450—459. France enters into a treaty of commerce and amity with America, 509. Question of independence, 514. Lord Chatham's final speech on America, 519.
- Amherst, Field-marshal Lord, account of his various military services and commands, i. 330. He takes Crown Point and Ticonde-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

546

INDEX.

- roga, 336. He takes Louisbourg, 394. City of Montreal surrenders to, ii. 67. Further details regarding, iii. 335. iv. 477. His letters to Brigadier-General Wolfe, i. 330. 332.
- Amherst, Lieutenant-General William, i. 331.
- Ancaster, Duke of, iii. 368.
- Annesley, Mr., i. 324. 346.
- Anson, Admiral Lord, victories, and office of first Lord of the Admiralty obtained by, i. 23. 236. Blockades Brest, 311.
- Apsley, Lord, appointed Lord Chancellor, iv. 88.
- Armitage, Sir John, i. 347.
- Ashburton, Lord, iii. 475. iv. 41. 50. 57. 105. 107. 262. 322. 524. His ill health, 231. Opinion of Mr. Drunning by Burke and Johnson, 237.
- Austria, affairs of, question of the election of the Archduke Joseph as King of the Romans, i. 37. War of, with Frederic II., i. 215. House of, its views on Italy, 254. Its general interests, ii. 108. iii. 44.
- Austrians defeated by the Prince of Bevern in Silesia, ii. 1. Defeated by Frederic II., 56. 78. Overtures made to England, iii. 15.
- AUTOGRAPHS of English statesmen, &c., prefixed to Vol. I.:—M. d'Abreu, plate 3. Jeffrey Earl Amherst, 8. Viscount Barrington, 3. William Beckford, 3. Duke of Bedford, 8. Earl of Bristol, 8. Ferdinand of Brunswick and Lunenburg, 8. Earl of Bute, 9. Sir Gilbert Elliot, 3. Earl of Exeter, 5. Henry Fox, Lord Holland, 3. Frederic II. of Prussia, 10, 11. George Grenville, 4. Earl of Hardwicke, 1. Earl of Holderness, 3. Thomas Orby Hunter, 1. Sir Benjamin Keene, 3. Earl Marischal Keith, 5. Baron de Knyphausen, 8. Earl of Kinnoul, 8. Henry Bilson Legge, 1. Dr. Markham, 8. Duke of Marlborough, 8. Sir Andrew Mitchell, 3. Duke of Newcastle, 1. Mrs. Osborn, 5. Thomas Pelham, 1. William Pitt, Earl of Chatham, 6, 7. Thomas Pitt, Lord Camelford, 2. Thomas Potter, 3. Richard Rigby, 12. Admiral Lord Rodney, 8. Lord George Sackville, 3. Dr. Seeker, 8. Earl Temple, 9. Earl of Tyrawley, 3. George Marquis Townshend, 8. Dr. Warburton, 5. Horatio Lord Walpole, 5. Horace Walpole, Earl of Orford, 12. John Wilkes, 3. General James Wolfe, 12. Mrs. Wolfe, 5. Sir Joseph Yorke, 3.
- AUTOGRAPHS prefixed to Vol. II.:—Earl of Albemarle, plate 20. Count Algarotti, 16. Ralph Allen, 16. Colonel Isaac Barré, 14. Lord George Beauclerk, 14. M. de Bougainville, 14. Charles Duke of Brunswick, 16. Countess of Chatham [Lady Hester Pitt], 13. George Cooke, Esq., 16. William Duke of Cumberland, 17. Duke of Devonshire, 20. M. de Féronce, 16. Lord Feversham, 14. Conde de Fuentes, 16. Bamber Gascoyne, 16. George III., 18, 19. Marquis of Granby, 20. Earl of Grenville, 16. Right Honourable James Grenville, 13. William Gerard Hamilton, 20. Honourable Thomas Hervey, 14. Viscount Irwin, 14. Admiral Keppel, 20. Comte de Lally, 16. Sir Richard Lyttelton, 13. Lord Litelton, 13. Earl of Northington, 20. Thomas Nuthall, Esq., 14. Honourable George Onslow, 20. Stanier Porten, Esq., 14. Hans Stanley, 14. Laurence Sterne, 15. Dr. George Stone, Archbishop of Armagh, 14. Arthur Villettes, Esq., 14. M. de Voltaire, 15. Honourable Thomas Walpole, 14. Honourable Sir Edward Walpole, 14. Robert Wood, Esq., 14.
- AUTOGRAPHS to Vol. III.:—James Boswell, plate 21. Lord Cardross, afterwards Earl of Buchan, 21. General Burgoyne, 21. The Empress Catherine II., 24. Rt. Hon. Henry Seymour Conway, 26. Rt. Hon. William Dowdeswell, 21. Sir William Draper, 25. Rt. Hon. Henry Flood, 21. GEORGE III., 22, 23. Duke of Grafton, 26. Earl of Hertford, 21. Lord North, afterwards Earl of Guilford, 21. Earl of Radnor, 21. Earl of Rochford, 21. Duke of Rutland, 21. Earl of Shelburne, 26. Rt. Hon. Charles Townshend,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

547

25. Sir Edward Wilmot, 21.
Rev. Edward Wilson, 21. Sir Thomas Wroughton, 21.
- AUTOGRAPHS to Vol. IV.: — Dr. Addington, plate 29. Lord Bridport, when Captain Alexander Hood, 29. Rev. Dr. James Brown, 28. Launcelot Brown, 29. John Calcraft, Esq. M.P., 34, 35. Major Caldwell, 29. Lord Dorchester when Sir Guy Carleton, 29. Earl Camden, 38. Earl of Chatham, written a few months before his death, 27. Sir Philip Francis, 34, 35. Sir Philip's hand compared in similar words and sentences with the autograph writing of Junius, 36, 37. See vol. iii. 302. 368. 400. 415. 420. 430. 444. 453. 478. 481. vol. iv. 2. 44. 50. 128. 175. 190. 194. Dr. Benjamin Franklin, 31. David Garrick, 29. Junius, 2d Jan. 1768, to the Earl of Chatham, 32. Junius, 14th Jan. 1772, to the Earl of Chatham, 33. Hand of Junius and habitual writing of Sir Philip Francis in juxtaposition, and minutely compared, 36, 37. Rev. John Lettice, 29. Thomas Lord Lyttelton, 29. Right Hon. William Pitt, 28. Duke of Richmond, 29. Marquis of Rockingham, 29. Charles Marquis of Granby, afterwards Duke of Rutland, 29. Admiral Sir Charles Saunders, 30. Philip, second Earl Stanhope, 29. Charles Viscount Mahon, afterwards Earl Stanhope, 29.
- Ayscough, Dr. Francis, i. 158.
- Bacon, Nathaniel, his 'Historical and Political Observations' commended, i. 109.
- Barnard, Dr. William, Bishop of Derry, iii. 103.
- , Dr. Edward, Provost of Eton College, character of, iii. 329, 330.
- Barré, Colonel, to the Earl of Chatham, ii. 41. iv. 71. 85. 94. 100. 109. 115. 120. 131. 242. 247. 250. Some account of Colonel Barré, ii. 41. 171. His military services, 42. His parliamentary career, 355. Vice-treasurer, iii. 14. iv. 20. 24. 58. 88. 119. 126. 132. 250. 524.
- Barrington, William Viscount, Secretary at War, i. 188. ii. 99. 171. iii. 418. 494. iv. 250. His Correspondence with Mr. Pitt, i. 354. ii. 404. 406. To Sir Andrew Mitchell on the state of public affairs, in January 1760, ii. 14. 219. 468. iii. 138. Letter to Colonel Barré, iv. 250.
- Bateman, John Viscount, i. 188. 193.
- Bath, city of, address from the, on the peace, ii. 223. 227. 228. 253. 255.
- , Earl of, [William Viscount Pulteney], i. 187. 195. 198. iii. 25.
- Bathurst, Allen Earl, iii. 219.
- , Henry, Lord Chancellor, iv. 65. 72. 74. He succeeds to the earldom, 74.
- Bavaria, Elector of, negotiations with England, i. 37.
- Beauleclerc, Lord George, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 19.
- Beaufort, Henry, fifth Duke of, iii. 236. 395.
- Beaufremont, M. de, squadron commanded by, i. 237, 238.
- Beckford, William, Esq., Lord Mayor; his political career, and speeches in parliament, i. 448. ii. 194. 351. 418. iv. 254. His Gothic mansion of Fonthill, ii. 11. Gives a splendid entertainment at the Mansion House, iii. 431. Celebrated speech of, 461. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, i. 185. 278. 327. 352. 376. ii. 11. 165. 235. To the Earl of Chatham, iii. 176. 201. 251. Lord Chatham's flattering letter to Mr. Beckford, 462. The Lord Mayor to the Earl of Chatham, 463. His death, 463. Petition from the Chatham family to Mrs. Beckford, iv. 240.
- , William, Esq., author of 'Vathek,' &c., ii. 11. iv. 290. 313.
- , Peter, Esq., ii. 11.
- Bedford, John Duke of, a rival of the Duke of Newcastle, i. 33. 56. Is joint secretary with that duke, 40. 48. George II. declines displacing him, 55. Included in a new ministry, 180. His spirited behaviour during the riots on the Militia Bill, 257. 260. He goes to Ireland as Viceroy, 258. 284.

N N 3

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

548

INDEX.

- Riots during this administration in Dublin, 468. 471. 475. ii. 61.
 Expectation of his return to London, and views of his party, 229.
 247. President of the Council, 251. His visit to Mr. Pitt. at Bath, 335. iii. 122. Negotiations of Lord Chatham with, 135, 136. His views as to an administration, 302. 333, 334. His letter to Mr. Pitt, i. 288. His death, iv. 66.
 Belleisle, expedition against, ii. 96.
 Capture of, by General Hodgson and Admiral Keppel, 128.
 ———, Maréchal de, i. 207. M. de Contades' letters to, ii. 8.
 Berlin, Austrians enter, ii. 72.
 Bernard, Sir Francis, iv. 325.
 Bernis, Cardinal de, minister of Louis XV., iv. 66.
 Besborough, William [Ponsonby], Earl of, i. 409. iii. 130. iv. 296.
 Bielfield, Baron, negotiation of, ii. 27.
 Blackstone, the celebrated judge, ii. 395.
 Blighe, General, services of, i. 327. 347. Defeated by the French on landing at St. Cas, 350.
 Bolingbroke, Lord, his 'Oldcastle's Remarks on the History of England,' i. 108.
 Boscawen, Admiral, Hon. Edward, i. 331. 394. ii. 16.
 Boswell, James, Esq., to Mr. Pitt, ii. 388. To the Earl of Chatham, iii. 244. Anecdotes by, ii. 197. iii. 106. His travels, and an 'Account of Corsica,' ii. 388. iii. 247. His pursuits, 246.
 Botetourt [Norborne Berkeley], Lord, ii. 192. iii. 306, 307. 311. 318. Appointed Governor of Virginia, 335.
 Bougainville, M. Jean-Pierre de, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 102. His brother Louis-Antoine, the circumnavigator, 103. iii. 119.
 Bourbon, Isle of, ii. 105.
 Boyd, Colonel, ii. 9.
 Bradshaw, Thomas, Esq., iv. 80.
 Bradstreet, Colonel, takes Fort Frontenac, on Lake Ontario, i. 340.
 Braybrook, Baron [Sir John Griffin, created], ii. 274. iv. 133.
 Brett, Sir Percy, iii. 399.
 Bridport, Admiral Lord, ii. 439. iv. 233.
 Bristol, George William [Hervey], Earl of, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, &c., i. 303. iii. 55, 56. He retires from the Vice-Royalty, 279. 348. His embassy to Madrid, i. 364. 371, &c. ii. 22, &c. His Correspondence with Mr. Pitt, i. 364. 371. 418. 466. 473. ii. 22. 216, 217. 229. To the Earl of Chatham, iii. 56. 102. 144. 166. 171. 179. 198. 226. 236, 237. 240. 247. 250. 270. 347. To the Countess of Chatham, 279.
 ———, Augustus John Earl of, iv. 81.
 Brown, Rev. Dr., to the Earl of Chatham, iv. 311.
 ———, Lancelot, Esq., designated 'Capability'; his skill in laying out parks, &c., iv. 178. To the Earl of Chatham, 430. To the Countess of Chatham, 446.
 Brudenel, George, anecdote of, ii. 180.
 Brunswick, Charles William Ferdinand Hereditary Prince of, mortally wounded at Jena, ii. 7. Mr. Pitt's compliment on his success at Minden, 9. Mr. Mitchell's character of, 10. He defeats the French and Saxons at Ermsdorff, 54. His visit to St. James's, and marriage with the Princess Augusta, 271. 276. Speech of a Quaker to, 272. His personal appearance, 280. Returns to Germany, 284. His letters to Mr. Pitt, ii. 271. 324. 326, 327. 412.
 ———, Prince Ferdinand of, commands the Hessian, English, and other forces in Germany, i. 297. Is urged by George II. to cross the Rhine, 309. Defeats the French at Crevelt, 320. His subsequent campaigns against the French, 334. 358. 375. 416. 460. ii. 2. 7. Is invested with the Order of the Garter, i. 360. 364. ii. 44. He retires from the service of Frederick II. 432. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, i. 446. 460. ii. 44. 83. 179. 432.
 ———, Prince Louis of, delivers the Declaration of England and Prussia at the Hague, &c., i. 461.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

549

- Brunswick-Oels, Duke of, poetical record of his death at Quatre-Bras, by Lord Byron, ii. 8.
- Brydges, Sir Egerton, quotations from his writings, iii. 219.
- Buchan, Earl of, ii. 426. iii. 106.
- ‘Buchanan de Jure Regni,’ Lord Chatham’s opinion of, iv. 286.
- Buckingham, Duke of, iii. 363. See Earl Temple.
- Buckinghamshire, John [Hobart], second Earl of, iii. 92.
- Burgoyne, General, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 429. To Lord Chatham, iii. 41. Is sent with troops to Portugal, ii. 177. His surrender to General Gates, at Saratoga, 429. iv. 467, 468. 472. 489. His dramatic pieces, ii. 429.
- Burke, Right Honourable Edmond, quotations from his speeches, &c. i. 106. 409. Interesting letter of Dr. Markham recommending, 430. 432. His notice of Mrs. Wolfe, mother of General J. Wolfe, in the ‘Annual Register,’ 450. His ‘Thoughts on the Cause of the present Discontents,’ ii. 75. Character of George II. by, 75. His character of Lord Keppel, 129. Describes an interview between George III. and Mr. Pitt, 146. His character of Mr. Pitt, 159. 168. His ‘Letter to Mr. Flood, on the Regency Bill,’ 310. His speeches in the House of Commons, 390. iii. 145. 455. His works quoted, ii. 168. 419. 435. iv. 58. 254. High opinion of Mr. Burke entertained by the Duke of Grafton, iii. 110. And by Lord Rockingham, 111. His splendid oration on American taxation, 233. 254. His speech on the Juries Bill, iv. 110. 112. His letter to the Duke of Portland, 177. His speech for the repeal of the Test and Corporation Acts, 220.
- , William, Esq., M. P., iv. 139.
- Burrell, Sir William, Bart., iv. 227
- Bussy, M. de, negotiations of, ii. 124. 126. 128. 136. 141.
- Bute, Earl of, his offices in the Prince of Wales’s household, i. 157. Personal description of, 157. Addresses Mr. Pitt respecting the household of George Prince of Wales, 169, 170. 295. Ministerial negotiations, 192. 228. Is secretary of state, ii. 114. His ministerial negotiations, i. 192. 228., &c. Considered to be the favourite of George III. at the commencement of the new reign, ii. 83. His political views, &c., 90. 106. 148. iii. 58. He is mobbed on going to Guildhall, ii. 167. Administration of, 178. His difficulties, 183. His resignation, 218, 219. He opens a ministerial negotiation with Mr. Pitt, which is unprosperous, 235, et seq. The Bute faction, iii. 443. iv. 494. His letters addressed to Mr. Pitt, i. 156. 169, 170. 223. 240. 301. 316. 318, 319, 320. 323. 335. 349. 416. 475. ii. 114. 128. 136. 146. 151, 152. 236.
- Byng, Admiral, his engagement with M. Galissonière, off Minorca, i. 163. His condemnation, 220. Mr. Pitt intercedes in vain with the king, 221.
- Byron’s Field of Waterloo’ quoted, ii. 8. His opinion of Mr. Beckford’s ‘Vathek,’ 11. His allusion to Commodore Byron, 428.
- , Honourable Captain John, R. N., iii. 210.
- CALCRAFT, John, Esq., ii. 337., &c. A letter to, supposed from Sir Philip Francis, iv. 48. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, ii. 245. 337. 445. To the Earl of Chatham, iii. 363. 367. 390. 393. 396. 399. 412. 423. 429, 430. 432, 433. 435, 436. 441. 443. 467. 474. 488. 493. iv. 32. 42. 57. 60. 65. 68. 74. 80. 102. 122. 125. 138. 140. 142. 150, 151. 172. 224.
- Caldwell, Lieutenant Henry, to General Wolfe, i. 379. 381. Major Caldwell to the Earl of Chatham, iv. 408.
- Camden, Earl:—Charles Pratt, Chief Justice, &c. 167. ii. 231. Lord Chancellor, i. 167. iii. 14. His peerage, &c. ii. 315. 376. 384. iii. 344. 374. Dismissal of the Lord Chancellor, 388, 389. 396. Details of his conduct as a statesman, and opinions as a lawyer, iv. 37. 41. 91. 145. 350. 514. 527. His correspondence with the Earl of

N N 4

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

550

INDEX.

- Chatham, iii. 314. 320. 323. iv. 29. 37. 90. 155. 161. 351. 400. 509. 516. 519. iv. 72. To the Countess of Chatham, iii. 284. 289. 344. 426. iv. 527.
- Camelford, Lord [Thomas Pitt], nephew of Lord Chatham, i. 117., &c. 152. 282. iii. 350. 472. iv. 71. 526. His letters when Mr. Thomas Pitt, giving his uncle an account of his studies at Cambridge, i. 117. 119. 122. 138. 143. 148. 174. 177. Mr. Pitt's letters to him, i. 57—88. 107. 112. 140—155. 282. His elegy on his mother's portrait, i. 152. Horace Walpole's account of Mr. T. Pitt's travels on the Continent, 282. His speech in the House of Commons, iii. 350.
- Campbell, Honourable Alexander Hume, i. 166.
- Canada, conquest of, by General Wolfe and his army, i. 378. 384. Affairs of, ii. 434.
- Cardigan, George [Brudenell], Earl of, iii. 75. 100. 107. Governor of George IV. and the Duke of York; created Duke of Montagu, and on his decease that title became extinct, 75. 110.
- Cardross, Lord, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 426. See Earl of Buchan.
- Carleton, Gen. Sir Guy, serves in North America, i. 404. iv. 293. 409. 469. To the Earl of Chatham, iv. 292. 413.
- Carlisle, Earl of, iv. 103.
- Carteret, Lord, speech of, i. 1.
- , Henry Frederick [Thynne], Baron, iv. 63.
- Catherine II., Empress of Russia, iii. 37. 66. iv. 227. The Empress writes to Mr. Pitt, iii. 161.
- Cavendish, Lord George, moves an address in the Commons, ii. 339. 350.
- , Lord John, ii. 407. iv. 84. 126.
- Charlemont, Earl of, to Henry Flood, iii. 166. 178. 210. 249.
- Chandos, James Duke of, iv. 226.
- Charles III. of Spain: — Political views of Don Carlos when king of the Two Sicilies, i. 253. 254. 273. After the seizure of Falkland Islands, he negotiates with England, iv. 71.
- Charlotte, Queen-Consort of George III., ii. 307. 415.
- CHATHAM, WILLIAM EARL OF, Introductory Memoir of, vol. i. p. v. Mr. Pitt's correspondence with Philip, Earl of Chesterfield, i. 1. 2. His marriage with Lady Hester Grenville; account of her family, 23. Mr. Henry Pelham's great esteem for Mr. Pitt, 35. 43. The latter writes to acknowledge the kindness of that minister and of the Duke of Newcastle, 45. His office of Paymaster of the Forces, 86. 97. His advice to his nephew Thomas Pitt [Lord Camelford] on his course of studies, 57—85. 88. 107. 112. 140. 146. 150. 155. 282. Recommends him to study Demosthenes and Cicero, 152. Various letters to his nephew, 172. Prejudice of George II. against Mr. Pitt, 49. 86. 93.; who complains of the king's dislike of him, 102. 105. 434. Duke of Newcastle writes to him a complimentary excuse for not appointing him Chancellor of the Exchequer, 97. His reply to that minister, 101. The Duke's letters to him respecting George II.'s adverse sentiments, 434—437. He suffers from the gout, 118. 139. 199., &c. His observations on exiles and Lord Bolingbroke, 122. He is unwilling to be second in office to Mr. H. Fox, 133. 182. His remarks on the correspondence relative thereto, 134. He carries the Militia Bill, 156. 257. His appointment as secretary, 178. 199. 209. Dismissed from office, 227. The Pitt Administration, 236. Approbation of his measures against France, 241. Return of the expedition from Rochefort, 279. He refuses to send reinforcements to Germany, 296. 298. His remarks upon the proposed military expenses for aiding the allies, 303. 305. Subsidy to Prussia, 401. A new expedition sent against St. Maloes, 311. Its failure, 318. Mr. Pitt's panegyric on Colonel Clive, 341. 387. Frederic II.'s confidence in, 407. 444. Mr. Pitt offers consolations to the mother of General Wolfe,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

551

451. His speech for a monument to Wolfe, 452. Motion of thanks to the surviving commanders, 453. Declaration of England and Prussia, for a peace, 461. ii. 29. Cherbourg taken, 2. Mr. Pitt and the Duke of Newcastle, 14. He announces the death of George II. to Ferdinand of Brunswick, 74. Reply of that prince, 83. Mr. Pitt's increase of power and influence on the accession of George III., 83. His opposition to the Duke of Newcastle's desire of peace, 91. 183. Sends an expedition against Belleisle, 96. 128. He continues the preparations for a new continental campaign, 106. He resigns in consequence of George III. having rejected his advice on the family compact of the Bourbons, 143. 147. 149. Lady Hester Pitt is created Countess of Chatham, 151. War declared against Spain, 157. Obloquy on Mr. Pitt upon his resignation, 159. Mr. Pitt invited to Guildhall by Beckford, 165. 167. The peace, 194. His objections urged against the preliminaries, 198. Overtures from Lord Bute to, through Mr. Beckford and Lord Shelburne, 235., et seq. Interview between George III. and Mr. Pitt, 240. 250. His speech on the peace, 262. On the question of privilege, and of general warrants, in the case of Mr. Wilkes, 287, 288. Estate bequeathed to him by Sir William Pynsent, 303. Description of Burton Pynsent, 326. 331. Fresh overtures to Mr. Pitt and Earl Temple, 310. 316. His feeble condition from the gout, 336. 391. iii. 168. His dissatisfaction at the state of affairs, ii. 345. Perpetual reports of his counsels being requisite to the State, 357., et passim. His reply to Lord Shelburne, 358. His sentiments as to the dispute with the American continental colonies, 360. His speech on the Address, relative to America, 364. Lord Rockingham's message by Mr. Nuthall to, 397, 398. Offers made to Mr. Pitt by the king, 436. 443. 446. iii. 6. Is appointed

Lord Privy Seal, 14. 55. His elevation to the dignity of Earl of Chatham announced to him by the King's letter, July 29. 1766, 21. Defence of his administration, 88. 98. He desires Lord Shelburne to present his thanks for George III.'s solicitude as to his long-continued ill-health, 105. 179. His speech on the embargo on corn, 125. His negotiations with the Bedford and Gower party, 135, 136. His sentiments on the growing discontents of America, 193. His sentiments on the East India affairs, 199. 212. 214. He receives encouragement from Geo. III. on his administration being left in a minority on the land-tax, 228, 229, 230. His recent illness, from fever and gout, is aggravated, 240. 249. 253. 268. 273. 278. 282. 284. 316. His character and administration attacked by Mr. Wilkes, 242. Junius's panegyric on, 305. Delicacy towards Lord Chatham evinced by the Duke of Grafton, 309. 311. 339. Commission for keeping the privy seal in consequence of the Earl's illness, 319. Precedents cited for his resumption of it, 315. 320. 323. Sir William Draper's testimonial to the Earl, 324. 329. Lord Chatham offers to resign the privy seal, 338. 340. 343. 345. 348. His cordial reconciliation with Earl Temple, 349. Attends the King's levee, 362. The Earl's speeches on the opening of the session of 1770, 368. 369. 377—387. On Lord Rockingham's motion on the state of the nation, 400. His sentiments on the rotten boroughs, 406. On the English constitution, 402. 406. 416. The resolution on judicature in matters of controverted elections, 410. Lord Chatham's speech thereon, 415. 419. His speech on the manning of the fleet, 420. Reply to the Duke of Grafton, 422. His speech on the Civil List, 423. He supports George Grenville's bill on elections, when carried to the Lords, 440. His bill condemning the measures of the Commons for the incapacitating of Mr. Wilkes

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

552

INDEX.

from sitting in that House, 449. His constitutional speech on this question, 451. Rejection of the bill, and new motion by Lord Chatham on the king's answer to the remonstrance from the city of London, 452. He moves an address to the king on the disorders in America, 457. Thanks of the city of London to the Earl, 458. 464. His condolence to the Duke of Rutland on the death of the Marquis of Granby, 476. His speech on the Spanish seizure of the Falkland Islands, iv. 2—18. et seq. His allusion to Mr. Burke and the opposition, 32. His new motion on the question of elections, 42. His speech thereon, 43. On the prosecution against Mr. Woodfall for printing and publishing a letter of Junius, 50, 51. He quits the house on not being listened to in a debate, 52. His protest on this occasion, 53. His indignation at the treaty with Spain in 1771, 83, 84, 87. His questions for the judges on the Falkland Island dispute, 91. He writes with severity of the ministry, 119. His opinion on the dispute between the House of Commons and the City, on a question of privilege, &c., 137, 141. Intended motion for a dissolution, &c., 154, 157. He communicates this design to Lords Lyttelton and Rockingham, 163, 165. The Earl's speech on the jurisdiction of the House of Commons, and on the danger of collision between the Upper and Lower Houses of Parliament, 167. He moves an address to George III. to dissolve the Parliament, &c., 171. Comparison of Junius's hand-writing with that of Sir Philip Francis, 176. Junius to the Earl, 190. Lord Chatham's poetical invitation to David Garrick, 197. Reply to the Earl by Garrick, 202. His speech in favour of relief to Dissenters, 219. His taste in laying out grounds, 221. Playful petition by the Earl, Countess, and their children, addressed to Mrs. Beckford and W. Beckford, Esq., 240. The Earl's opinion on the India Bill, 276. His speech on American affairs, 345, 371, 374, 377, 384. Lord Chatham's plan for settling the troubles in America, 393. (See APPENDIX, No. I.) His declaration concerning America, made to Dr. Addington, 423, 424, 427. His motion for a cessation of hostilities, 433—437. His motion for an amendment to the Address, on America, 450—459. On the army and navy returns, 464. On the surrender of General Burgoyne, 471—477. On the motion for an adjournment, 478. On the Duke of Richmond's motion for an address to the King, the Earl of Chatham speaks for the last time, 519. He faints, 522. His death, 523. Provision for his family, 526. Public funeral of, 529. Monument in Westminster Abbey of, 529. Cenotaph in Guildhall, 530. Urn at Burton Pynsent, 531. Anecdotes of, ii. 217. iii. 107. His affection for his children evidenced in his letters to Lady Chatham, i. 321, 322, 458. ii. 124, 331, 373. iii. 470. iv. 185, 186, 206, 213, 265, 309. Lord Chatham's Provisional Bill, Appendix, No. I. Mr. Pitt to Dr. Warburton, Bishop of Gloucester, Appendix, No. II. Detached sentences found in Lord Chatham's hand-writing, Appendix, No. III.

CHATHAM, EARL OF, Correspondence of:—MR. PITT to Count Algarotti, ii. 215.; to Ralph Allen, Esq., 223, 226.; to Mrs. Allen, 289.; to Dr. George Stone, Archbishop of Armagh, 64.; to Lord George Beauclerk, 20.; to the Duke of Bedford, i. 284.; to William Beckford, Esq., ii. 158.; to M. De Bougainville, 104.; to Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, i. 439. ii. 9, 74, 156.; to the Earl of Bute, i. 417. ii. 149.; to General Carleton, iv. 407.; to George Cook, Esq., ii. 342.; to the Earl of Chesterfield, i. 1, 2.; to the Duke of Cumberland, ii. 313.; to Mr. Thomas Cumming, i. 121.; to the Earl of Exeter, 293.; to M. de Féronce, ii. 277, 305.; to Henry Flood, Esq., iii. 4.; to the Right Hon.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

553

- Henry Fox, i. 111. 130.; to Frederic II., i. 401. ii. 84. 112.; to George III., 438.; to Bamber Gascoyne, Esq., ii. 205.; to Dr. Warburton, Bishop of Gloucester, 186. 256.; to the Duke of Grafton, 321.; to the Earl of Hardwicke, i. 103.; to William Taylor How, Esq., ii. 291.; to Sir Benjamin Keene, i. 209. 247.; to Baron de Knyphausen, ii. 210.; to Viscount Irwin, 267.; to Lord Lyttelton, 315.; to Sir Richard Lyttelton, 121. 208.; to Andrew Mitchell, Esq., i. 226. 400. 410. ii. 58. 411.; to Sir Andrew Mitchell, iii. 29. 139.; to Thomas Nuttall, Esq., ii. 325. 345. 361. 400. 419. 423. 424.; to the Earl of Northington, 437.; to the Duke of Newcastle, i. 22. 44. 48. 100. 305. 433. 437. ii. 260. 296.; to Lady Hester Pitt, i. 457. ii. 1. 2. 3. 4. 7. 45. 54. 130.; [to Lady Chatham], ii. 330. 331. 335. 336. 363. 373. 375. 390. 393. 416. 439. 444. 448. 449.; to Thomas Hollis, Esq., 203.; to Thomas Pitt, Esq., i. 57. 62. 64. 70. 76. 81. 89. 107. 112. 118. 121. 138. 140. 141. 146. 150. 151. 155. 172. 173. 256. 281.; to George Pitt, Esq., ii. 164.; to Lord George Sackville, i. 423.; to the Earl of Shelburne, ii. 358. iii. 5. 6. 11. 12. 13. 14.; to the Rev. Paul Shenton, ii. 301.; to Earl Temple, i. 363.; to the Earl of Tyrawly, ii. 176.; to Horatio Walpole, Esq., i. 56. 63.; to the Hon. Thomas Walpole, ii. 328.; to Mrs. Wolfe, i. 451.; to M. De Voltaire, ii. 132.
- CHATHAM, EARL OF, his correspondence continued, after his elevation to an earldom: — To Dr. Addington, iv. 180. 184. 443. 484. 494.; to Colonel Barré, iii. 72. iv. 73. 84. 93. 100. 105. 117. 119. 136. 245. 249.; to the Earl of Bristol, iii. 55. 181. 348.; to John Calcraft, Esq., 365. 384. 388. 392. 397. 428. 433. 438. 442. 468. 469. 475. 480. 483. 486. 492. 495. iv. 1. 2. 31. 45. 63. 64. 70. 76. 82. 103. 124. 129. 141. 145. 153. 182. 223.; to Lord Camden, 39. 46. 432.; to General Carleton, 293.; to the COUNTESS OF CHATHAM, iii. 469. iv. 86. 205. 207. 213. 215. 216. 265. 267. 268. 273. 349. 350. 369. 370. 372. 403.; to Henry Flood, Esq., iii. 147.; to the Honourable Colonel Simon Fraser, 466.; to David Garrick, Esq., iv. 201.; to George III., iii. 76. 228. 230. 262. 263. 265. 268. 271. 273. 275. 277. 319. 343.; to the Duke of Grafton, 199. 218. 259. 338. 340. 342.; to the Duke of Grafton and the Earl of Shelburne, 214.; to the Marquis of Granby, 355. iv. 405.; to Thomas Hollis, Esq., 286.; to Viscount Mahon, 402.; to the Lord Mayor, iii. 462.; to the Honourable William Pitt, iv. 440.; to Sir William Beauchamp Procter, Bart., iii. 332.; to the Duke of Richmond, iv. 518.; to the Marquis of Rockingham, 492.; to the Duke of Rutland, iii. 476.; to Stephen Sayre, Esq., iv. 359. 360. 366. 368.; to the Earl of Shelburne, iii. 96. 98. 105. 115. 123. 188. 193. 211. 222. 256. 448. 471. 472. 481. 484. iv. 12. 23. 34. 41. 50. 106. 108. 148. 156. 160. 163. 186. 203. 218. 230. 236. 239. 258. 264. 275. 283. 298. 299. 305. 319. 331. 336. 341. 374. 380. 386. 387.; to the Countess of Stanhope, 54. 495.; to Earl Stanhope, 371. 388.; to the Right Honourable Charles Townshend, iii. 73. 153. 157.; to Mr. Sheriff Townshend, iii. 459.; to the Honourable Thomas Walpole, 291.; to the Honourable William Pitt, iv. 290. 309. 356. 363.; to John Woddrop, Esq. 317.; anonymous to the Earl of —, 414.
- CHATHAM, COUNTESS OF, [Lady Hester Pitt], i. 23. 173. 321. ii. 6. She is created a peeress by George III., 151. Her affectionate language in her letters to her husband, 332. et passim. The Countess speaks in her husband's name to the Duke of Grafton, and writes during his illness for Earl Chatham, iii. 322. 337. &c. Respecting the Countess, see Lord Chatham's Letters, &c. Her letters to her husband, Mr. Pitt, ii. 391. She describes the

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

- character of her sons, iv. 207. Her ladyship's correspondence: — To Dr. Addington, 423.; to Lancelot Brown, Esq., 448.; to John Calcraft, Esq., iii. 413.; to Major Caldwell, iv. 410.; to Lord Camden, iii. 317. 322. 346. iv. 425.; to General Carleton, 420.; to the Earl of Chatham, 370.; to Thomas' Coutts, Esq. 486.; to Sir William Draper, iii. 327. 329.; to the Duke of Grafton, 282. 316. 336.; to the Right Honourable James Grenville, 310.; to Thomas Nuthall, Esq., 282.; to the Earl of Radnor, 331.; to the Earl of Shelburne, 288. 299. 300.
- CHATHAM, JOHN EARL OF, his birth, i. 173. His early years, iii. 65. 470. iv. 240. 292. 408. 413. 511. 526.
- Chelsea pensioners, Mr. Pitt's Bill for their relief from usurers, i. 111.
- Chesterfield, Earl of [Philip Dormer Stanhope], visits France for his health, i. 1. His public life, 1. His observations on the Earl of Chatham, 401. iii. 21. Remarks of, on public affairs, i. 206. 279. 236. 243. 414. ii. 156. 196. 251. 315. 351. 360. 376. 422. iii. 33. 136. 169. 225. 253. 267. 276. 302.
- Choiseul, Duke de, negotiations of peace commenced by the, ii. 48. 97. 124. 139. 141. Further details of his ministry, iii. 94. 117. 131. 243. Is dismissed from office by Louis XV. iv. 63.
- Christian VII., of Denmark, confines Caroline Matilda, sister of George III., in the Castle of Cronenburg, ii. 440. Liberation of the Queen, 441.
- Chudleigh, Miss, ball given by, ii. 46.
- Cider, tax on, ii. 253. 281.
- Clare, Earl of, iii. 210. 410.
- Clarendon's, Earl of, 'History,' opinions of Earl of Chatham and Lord Grenville on, i. 113.
- , Thomas Villiers, Lord Hyde of Hendon, created Earl of, iii. 97. iv. 179.
- Clavering, Sir Thomas, iii. 429.
- Clive, Robert Lord, praise of, by Mr. Pitt, i. 341. 387. iii. 358. iv. 81. Concludes certain treaties in Bengal, iii. 59. 61. Colonel Clive to J. Payne, Esq., chairman of the Court of Directors, i. 341.; to Mr. Pitt, i. 387. Mr. Walsh to Lord Clive, iii. 93. His lordship to Mr. Strachey, iv. 227.; to General Wedderburne, iv. 257. Malcolm's 'Life of Lord Clive,' quotations from, i. 387. 392.
- Club, the Ministerial, at the Cocoa-tree, ii. 277. 309. The Opposition Club, Albemarle-street, 276. 299.
- Coccei, Baron de, ii. 56. 58.
- Commons, House of, rules and precedents of the, ii. 199. Privileges of the, 269. 287. Question of the exercise of its judicature in controverted elections, iii. 410. 415. Motion relative to the elections, by George Grenville, 439. Mr. Herbert's bill to regulate the consequences of expulsion of members from the House, 441. The question if expulsion incapacitates from future elections, 446—449. 458. Debates in the House of Lords on the Middlesex election, &c., iv. 42. Right of election, maintained by Junius, 44. The New Shoreham petition, 59. 170. The reports of the speeches in the House being published, reckoned a breach of privilege, 95. 96. Motions connected with parliamentary reform, iv. 78. 146. 177. Duke of Richmond's motion respecting the jurisdiction of the House of Commons, 167.
- Contades, Maréchal de, defeated at Minden, ii. 7. His correspondence taken with his baggage, and since published, 8.
- Conway, Right Honourable Henry Seymour, Secretary of State, a distinguished general, ii. 315. iii. 15. 101. 109. 177. 266. 275. 281. 288. 293. 398.; to Mr. Pitt, ii. 446. 453. iii. 15.; to Lord Chatham, 77. 126. 130. 172.; to Sir Andrew Mitchell, 29. 82.
- Cook, George, Esq., to Mr. Pitt, ii. 338. 344. 350.; to the Earl of Chatham, iii. 222.
- Cooper, Sir Grey, ii. 338.
- Coote, Colonel Sir Eyre, defeats Hyder Ali, iv. 124.
- Corn, embargo on; orders in council, iii. 78. Earl of Chatham's speech

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

555

- on the scarcity of, 125. Dissatisfaction respecting, 144.
- Cornwall, Mr., iv. 18. 20. His talent in debate, 24. 147. 148. 282. Appointed to office, 326.
- Cornwallis, Honourable General Edward, iv. 26.
- Corsica, Theodore King of, i. 242. English design on that island, 242. iii. 159. 244.
- Cotton manufactures, ii. 420.
- Cosne, Colonel de, Secretary of Legation at Madrid, i. 372. 418.
- Coutts, Thomas, Esq., to the Countess of Chatham, iv. 485. 511. 515. Her reply, 512.
- Coxe, Archdeacon, his 'Pelham Administration' quoted, i. '10. 29. 33. 37. 40. His 'Memoirs of Lord Walpole,' 27. 63. 136. iii. 89. &c.
- Coventry, George William, sixth Earl of, iii. 394.
- Craven, Earl of, iii. 416. His motion on the manning of the navy, 420.
- Croker, Mr., quotations from, iii. 106.
- Crosby, Brass, Esq., Lord Mayor, iii. 480.
- Cumberland, William Augustus Duke of, i. 6. 10. Is defeated at Laffeldt, 22. His hostility to the Duke of Newcastle, 36. 178. Appointed to command an army of observation in Germany, 227. His dislike of Mr. Pitt, ib. Defeated by Maréchal d'Estrees, and loses Hanover, 240. The duke's retreat to Stade, 250. By the convention of Closter-Seven, he agrees that his army shall not serve against Louis XV. during the war, 277. Affection of his father, George II. for, 296. 325. Present in Henry VII.'s chapel at the funeral of George II., ii. 81. Various allusions to, 237. 244. 259. 310. 313. 315. His death, 329. The duke's letter to Mr. Pitt, 311.
- , Henry Duke of, brother of George III., iii. 82. 236. Marries Lady Anne Horton [or Luttrell], iv. 199.
- Cust, Sir John, Speaker of the Commons, resigns, iii. 395.
- DAUBEITZ, General, defeated by the hereditary Prince of Brunswick, ii. 54.
- Dashwood, Sir Francis, ii. 99. Appointed Chancellor of the Exchequer, 178.
- Daun, Count, military career of the Austrian general, ii. 55. 78.
- Davis, Sir John, his discourse on Ireland, i. 147. 149.
- Debt, the National, iii. 146. The business of 'Change Alley alluded to, iv. 16. 88. Dr. Price's pamphlet on the Sinking Fund, &c., 201.
- De Grey, Lord Chief Justice, iv. 144.
- Delany, General Oliver, on the taxation of the colonies in America, iii. 192.
- Devonshire, William Duke of, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, &c., i. 91. First Lord of the Treasury, 180. His negotiations in forming the administration, 181. 183. 184. 187. He succeeds the Duke of Newcastle, 194. His subsequent politics, ii. 178. 183. His death at Spa, 294. Mr. Pitt's character of, 296. To Mr. Pitt, ii. 241.
- Dodington, Mr., i. 194. His diary quoted, 135. 386. ii. 87. 90. 99. 106. Is created Lord Melcombe, ii. 148.
- Donoughmore, Baroness of, i. 478.
- Dowdeswell, Right Honourable William, Chancellor of the Exchequer, ii. 282. iii. 22. 24. 88. 224. 414. 487. iv. 21. 85. 93. 103. 105. 109. Epigram on, 204. His epitaph by Edmund Burke, iii. 22. His correspondence with the Earl of Chatham, 22. 450.
- Downshire, Marquis of, i. 135. 167. 189. 193. iii. 24. 116. iv. 27. 325.
- Draper, Sir William, to the Earl of Chatham, iii. 325. 328. Account of, 325.
- Drummond, Dr. Hay, Bishop of St. Asaph, i. 441.
- Du Quesne, Fort, Major Grant defeated at, i. 382.
- Drogheda, Charles Earl of, his regiment of light dragoons, ii. 60. 65. His character, 62. 66. Account of this nobleman, 67.
- Duplin, Viscount [Thomas Hay], character of, i. 161. 303.
- Dundas, Sir Laurence, iii. 357.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

- Dury, General Alexander, his death at St. Cas, i. 320.
- Dutens, M. his 'Mémoires d'un Voyageur qui se repose,' i. 122.
- Dyson, Mr., member for Yarmouth, his liberality to Dr. Akenside, ii. 394. iv. 121.
- EDGEUMBE, Richard Lord, his talent as a poet and artist, i. 188. iii. 127, 128. 130.
- Edward Augustus, Prince [brother of George III.], created Duke of York and Albany, and promoted to be a rear-admiral, i. 157. 319.
- Effingham, Thomas Earl of, ii. 11.
- Egremont, Charles Earl of, Secretary of State, ii. 115. His sudden death, 235. Character of his father, Sir William Wyndham, by Mr. Speaker Onslow and by Pope, 115.
- Eliot, Honourable Edward James, marries Lady Harriot Pitt, iv. 373. Her early death, 373.
- Elizabeth, Queen of Bohemia, daughter of James I.; her death, i. 245.
- Elliot, Sir Gilbert, ii. 221. He intercedes for Sir James Stewart, then in exile, i. 214. Allusions to, iii. 241. iv. 122.
- Elliot's Light-horse; this troop distinguishes itself at Ermsdorff, ii. 54.
- Enfield Chace, oak woods of, ii. 424, 425.
- Ensenada, Marquis d', exile of, ii. 70. His enmity to England, 70.
- Erskine, Thomas Lord, Lord Chancellor, ii. 428. iv. 114.
- Estrées, Maréchal d', his victory at Hastenbech, i. 240.
- Evelyn's Memoirs, &c., quoted, i. 245.
- Eyre, Sir James, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, iii. 474.
- Exeter, Brownlow Earl of, to Mr. Pitt, respecting the Rutland militia, i. 292. Mr. Pitt's reply, 293.
- FALKLAND Islands, dispute with Spain as to the, iii. 95. Called Les Isles Malouines, 119. 490. iv. 30. 62. 72. 80. 87. 100. 122. 128.
- Ferdinand VI., king of Spain marries the daughter of John V. of Portugal, i. 203. 364. Affairs of the Court of Aranjuez in his reign, 253, 254. 263—276. Dies of grief for the loss of his queen, 365.
- Féronce, M. de, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 283. 304.
- Fetherstonehaugh, Sir Matthew, to Lord Clive, iii. 145.
- Feversham, Anthony [Duncombe] Lord, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 155. His family and descendants, ib.
- Fitzherbert, William, Esq., a Lord of Trade, his death, and beneficent character, iii. 92.
- Fitzherbert, Mrs., ii. 173.
- Fitzpatrick, Honourable Richard, Secretary-at-War, iv. 227.
- Flanders, Dutch, victories and conquests of the French in, i. 17. 22.
- Fleury, Cardinal de, i. 3.
- Flood, Henry, Esq., to Mr. Pitt, iii. 1. 148. His parliamentary reputation, 2. 167. iv. 296. To Lord Charlemont, iii. 144. 148.
- Fox, Right Honourable Henry, declines the seals of Secretary of State, i. 86. 101. [Created Baron Holland, 110.] George II. desirous that Mr. Fox should be included in the ministry and be leader in the Commons, 124. His reply to the King's intimation, 128. Is named a Lord of the Regency, 132.; which appointment gives umbrage to Mr. Pitt, 135. George II., Newcastle, and others, in vain endeavour to prevail on these statesmen to act in union, 180—193. 229. 231., &c. He comes into office, ii. 181. His peerage, 218. Continued disunion of Lord Holland and Mr. Pitt, 311. His political views and opinions, iii. 270. His letter to George II., i. 128. His correspondence addressed to Mr Pitt, i. 110. 124. 127. 129. 131, 132. 199.
- , Right Honourable Charles James, his speeches in Parliament, iv. 113. His accession to office, 229. Lord North's laconic epistle to, 327. Is attacked by a mob in Palace-Yard, 140. His politics, &c. 332.
- France, affairs of: — the French invasion of Dutch Flanders, i. 15.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

557

248. Designs in the East and West Indies, 206. Projected invasion of England or Ireland, 207. 420. 476. Amount of the French army and navy, 208. 237. Expeditions sent by Earl of Chatham against, 241. 279. Overtures of peace with England, indirectly made by the Duke de Choiseul, ii. 48. 124. Peace concluded, 194. House of Bourbon, the family compact of sovereigns of the, i. 303. ii. 140. 142. iii. 67. Negotiations, iii. 113. Preparations for war by France and Spain against England, iv. 57. 65. 68. Treaty of commerce with the United States of America, 509.
- Francis, Sir Philip, preserved a record of speeches of Lord Chatham and one of Lord Mansfield, long inedited, iii. 368. 377. 400, 401. iv. 2. 128. 196. His opinion on Lord Chatham similar to that of Junius, 176. On the Falkland Islands, iv. 128. Letter to Mr. Calcraft, 48. As to the question of Sir Philip's authorship of the Letters of Junius, see iii. 369. 420, 421. 430. A letter of Sir Philip on the news from America, iii. 444. (See the fac-similes, among the autographs in vol. iv. for the identity of Junius and Sir Philip Francis.)
- Franklin, Dr. Benjamin, ii. 374. iv. 297. 301. 323. 376. 381. 388. 396. 481. To Earl Stanhope, iv. 385.
- Fraser, Hon. Colonel Simon, to the Earl of Chatham, iii. 465. He was son of Simon Lord Lovat, 466.
- Frederic II.; his subtlety, i. 27. French hostile to, i. 209. Death of his mother Sophia Dorothea, daughter of George I., of England, 238. His preparations in 1757 against Austria, 215. Bill passed for a treaty with, and a British force to co-operate with, 223. 225. Subsidiary treaty of England with, 300. His reverses and victories, 233. 236. 243. 297. 349. 386. 414. ii. 1. 56. 72. 77. 86. He besieges Dresden, ii. 55. Retakes Berlin, 72. Intercedes with George II. for the civil rehabilitation of Marshal Keith, i. 395. The reply to Frederic, 400.
- Anecdotes of, 416. 445. ii. 30. His principles of government, ii. 109. Political transactions of, ii. 27. 29. 108. iii. 29. 37. 44. 67. 83. 139. His 'Poésies Diverses,' 43. His 'Philosophe de sans Souci,' 44. The King of Prussia to George II., i. 413. ii. 86. To Mr. Pitt, i. 385. ii. 77. 107. Reply to, by Mr. Pitt, in French, 112.
- Frederick, Colonel, his 'Memoirs of Corsica,' and scheme for recovering his father Theodore's kingdom of Corsica, i. 242.
- Fuentes, the Count de, Spanish ambassador at St. James's, i. 351. 371. His despatches to the Spanish minister, General Wall, ii. 89. 96. 98. 100. 105. Description of the Spanish Count and his lady, 46. Memorial on the Newfoundland Fishery by, 68. Mr. Pitt's reply thereto, 69.
- Furze, Peregrine, Esq., to Mr. Pitt, i. 5.
- GARRICK, David, to the Earl of Chatham, iv. 198. Invited to Burton Pynsent by the Earl, 197. He replies to the poetical invitation, 202.
- Gascoyne, Bamber, Esq., to Mr. Pitt, ii. 204.
- Gates, General, to the Earl of Thanet, after the action at Saratoga, iv. 489.
- George II.: — the King, visits Hanover, i. 29. 34. 51. His intention of dismissing the Duke of Bedford from office, 47, 48. His not doing so irritates the Duke of Newcastle, 55. Concerned at the death of Henry Pelham, 90. The King's prejudice against Mr. Pitt, 49. 86. 93. 102. 105. Admits Henry Fox of his Cabinet Council and a Commissioner of the Regency, 124—134. Revisits Hanover, 132. His resistance to the wishes of his grandson, Prince George, relative to Lord Bute, &c., 170. 172. Is jealous of his son, of the Duke of Cumberland and Mr. Fox, 178. Sends for Mr. Pitt, 179. Endeavours to form a new ministry, 180. 182. 184. Levee on his birth-day described, 190. Refuses Mr. Pitt's application for the par-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

558

INDEX.

- don of Admiral Byng, 220, 221. Appoints new ministers, 231. 236. The King's speech alluding to Hanover, 295. He pardons Earl Maréchal Keith, 394. 400. 415. Anecdotes of George II., i. 358. His speech on opening Parliament in 1759, 448. His death in Oct. 1760, particulars of, ii. 74. Walpole's account of this event, 74. Smollett's recapitulation of his reign, 75. Burke's tribute of respect to his memory, 75. His funeral in Westminster Abbey, 81. Letter to, from Rt. Hon. Henry Fox, i. 128. To Ferdinand of Brunswick, 309.
- George III.: — Household of the Prince of Wales at Leicester House, i. 157. 170. 191. 296. 325. His letter to the king, his grandfather, neglected, 169. Requests to choose his servants, 171. How much indebted to the elder Pitt, 241. Secrets and views of the Prince's court, 417. His decorum and graceful demeanour exhibited on his accession, ii. 77. His first speech to Parliament, 82. His malady, and the Regency Bill, 307. Details of the chief political events of his reign, ii. 142. 157. 183. 184. 218. 235. 340. 362. 402. 436. 466. iii. 6. 53. 67. 79. 125. 130. 135. 137. 150. 196. 214. 229. 230. 257. 260. 262. 266. 285. 293. 368. 387. 398. iv. 1. 2. et seq. 52. 57. 60. 74. 125. 134. 151. 171. 200. 238. 242. 261. 306. 318. 335. 340. 368. 489. [see America, India, Chatham.] His conduct with regard to the Earl of Chatham, ii. 147. 149. 237. 250. Creates Lady Hester Pitt, Countess of Chatham, 151. Is resolved to firmly support Lord Chatham, iii. 226. 228. 238. 253. 343. His message for a provision for the Dukes of York, Gloucester, and Cumberland, 236. Motion in the House of Lords on the state of the nation, iii. 400. Administration of Lord North, 412. iv. 171. Dissensions in the Cabinet, and the King sick, 60. The King outraged by a mob, 172. His speech on signing preliminaries of peace, 194. Anecdotes of George III., i. 408. iii. 179. Various of the King's speeches, ii. 82. 194. iii. 89. 100. 125. 368. 487. iv. 471. The Royal Marriages' Bill, iv. 199. 203. 209. His correspondence with [the Earl of Chatham, when] Mr. Pitt, ii. 436. 438. 443. 455. 457. 463. 464. 466. Informs him of having raised him to the peerage, iii. 21. The King's numerous letters to the Earl of Chatham, commanding his services, and on various ministerial affairs, iii. 24. 51. 53. 54. 60. 66. 74. 134. 195. 136. 137. 138. 170. 227. 229. 231. 252. 260. 263. 265. 266. 271. 272. 274. 275. 318. 343.
- George IV.: — The Governor of the Prince of Wales was the Earl of Holderness, iv. 150. 153. His preceptors, Drs. Markham and Cyril Jackson, 151. The Earl of Chatham's opinions on the education of a prince, 153.
- Germain, Lord George, moves a conference with the Lords, when the members of the Lower House are ordered to withdraw, on some irrelevant plea, iv. 52. 57. 58. 61. His duel, 61. Joins the Rockingham party, 62. Enters office under Lord North, 340.
- Gibbon, Edward, Esq., historian, particulars relating to, ii. 6. 31. His character of John Wilkes, 95. Of Count de Lally, 145. Anecdotes by, 407. To Mr. Holroyd, iv. 404. 508.
- Gibraltar, state of the fortress, i. 201—204. 217. Question of restoring it to Spain in exchange for Minorca, 249. 255. 269. State of defence of, iv. 13. 47. 51. 466. Designs of Spain against, 56.
- Gifford, Mr., remarks on a passage of Perseus, i. 75.
- Glynn, Mr. Serjeant, his high character by Lord Chatham, iii. 483. His motion for an inquiry into the administration of criminal justice, iv. 45. Is counsel for the Lord Mayor, 144. Recorder of London, 229. 234.
- , Dr. Robert, M. D., his Seatonian prize poem, iv. 309.
- Gower, Granville Levison, Earl, Master of the Horse, i. 236. iii.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

559

54. 135. Is created Marquis of Stafford, 55. Lord President, 285. 302. 490. iv. 51. 127.
- Grafton, Duke of, administration of the, and political career, ii. 239. 317. 319. 434. 452. He informs Mr. Pitt of a message to him from George III., 371. He resigns the seals as secretary, 415. 422. Negotiations of, with Earl Temple and Mr. Pitt, 446. 452. iii. 6. His union with Charles Townshend, ii. 452. With Mr. Conway, iii. 9. His ministry, 5. 26. 54. 76. 97. 100. 107. 110. 170. 195. 213. 224. 239. His friendly consultations with Lord Chatham, iii. 257. 375. 339. The administration, new modelled upon the illness of Lord Chatham; is designated as the Duke of Grafton's, 285. 293. 309. 314. 334. 337. 391. 399. 400, et seq. His resignation, 412. 425. iv. 81. Speech of the Duke relative to George III., replied to by Lord Chatham, iii. 422. His talents as an orator, iv. 44. Lord Privy Seal, 179. His correspondence addressed to Mr. Pitt, ii. 317. 318. 323. 371. 452. 459. To the Earl of Chatham, iii. 54. 57. 79. 88. 100. 107. 110. 163. 168. 149. 204. 216. 224. 231. 239. 255. 257. 268. 311. 339. 341. To the Countess of Chatham, iii. 281. 283. 334.
- Grammont, Beatrice de Choiseul-Stainville, Duchess de, ii. 125. Is guillotined, 126.
- Granby, Marquis of, his services in Germany applauded, i. 417. ii. 116. 221. 311. Appointed commander-in-chief, iii. 33. 53. 364. 365. 391. 392. 394. 398. 428. His death, 476. His letter to Mr. Pitt, ii. 72. To Lord Chatham, iii. 32. 354.
- , Marquis of [afterwards fourth Duke of Rutland], to Lady Chatham, iv. 406. To the Earl of Chatham, 507.
- Grandison, John Earl, iii. 2.
- Grantham, Thomas [Robinson], Lord, iii. 91. 97.
- Granville, John [Carteret], Earl of, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, &c.; his public services, and politics, VOL. IV.
- i. 134. 180. ii. 23. 113. His character by Walpole, 114. Anecdote of, 246. To Mr. Pitt, 113.
- Gray, Sir James, iii. 97. 106. 121. 123. To Mr. Pitt, ii. 119.
- Grenville, Honourable George, his official career, i. 25. 93. 98. ii. 183. 218. 220. 319. 321. 350. 364. 368. iii. 324. 334. 411. 439. His death regretted by Lord Chatham, 479. 480. 486. His marriage, i. 165. ii. 4. Death of Mrs. George Grenville, iii. 366. Panegyric of by Edmond Burke, i. 106. iii. 486. Mr. W. Knox, speaking of him, is also quoted, 486. His house at Wotton, ii. 4. His speech against the expelling of J. Wilkes, iii. 350. His Election Bill, iv. 329. His letters to Mr. Pitt, i. 163. 196. 243. 338. To the Countess of Chatham, iii. 366. To Lord Clive, 358.
- , Lady Hester, see Countess of Chatham.
- , Right Honourable James, i. 13. ii. 272. 330. 458. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, 284. 441. 458. 466. To the Countess of Chatham, 271. 281. iii. 306. 307. iv. 421. 428.
- , Mr. James, son of the preceding, iv. 109. 133. 149.
- , Colonel Richard, iv. 208.
- , Captain Thomas, R.N., killed in Admiral Anson's action with a French fleet, i. 23. 341.
- , William Lord, his preface to twenty-three letters of the Earl of Chatham on the studies of Thomas Pitt, Lord Camelford, i. 58. 113.
- Grimaldi, the Marquis, to the Count de Fuentes, ii. 91. 92. 95. 139. 141.
- Guerchy, Count de, French ambassador to St. James's, iii. 119.
- Guilford, Earl of, iv. 334.
- HABEAS CORPUS Act, Bill to explain and amend the, i. 317.
- Hale's 'History of the Common Law,' i. 144.
- Halifax, Earl of, Secretary of State, ii. 183. 229. iv. 69. 72. 143. His death, 179.
- Hamilton, Right Honourable Wil-

O O

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

- Iam Gerard, Irish Chancellor of the Exchequer, to John Calcraft, Esq., ii. 298. 377. 380. 382. 396. iii. 203. 324. 333. 483. iv. 25. 59. 63. 69. 179. Account of his celebrated single-speech, i. 126. ii. 298. iii. 2. Further Allusions to him, 166.
- Hampden, Robert Viscount, i. 408.
- Hanover, visits of George II. to, i. 29. 34. 51. 132. Affairs of the Electorate, 209. 236. 296. 299. 308. ii. 90. The city taken by the French, i. 240. 250.
- Hanoverians, English jealousy of, in the reign of George II., i. 338.
- Harcourt, Earl of, ambassador at Paris, iv. 128. 151.
- Hardwicke [Philip Yorke], Earl of, Lord Chancellor, i. 33. Temporary minister on the decease of Mr. Pelham, 90. Is created an Earl, 89. His assistance to the Duke of Newcastle, 99. 179. Resigns the office of Lord Chancellor, 194. His ministerial negotiations; 227. &c. Regard of George III. for, ii. 82. Describes the interview between Lord Bute and Mr. Pitt, 236. 242. His friendly correspondence with Mr. Pitt, i. 89. 227. 230. 232, 233. 443. ii. 16. 68. 81. The Hardwicke MSS., iii. 274.
- Haslang, Count, Bavarian ambassador, i. 37. 39.
- Havannah, the, capture of this city, ii. 181.
- Havre-de-Grâce bombarded by Lord Rodney, i. 420. 422.
- Hayes, Earl of Chatham's house at, i. 321, 322. ii. 423. iii. 289. 291. 300.
- Hawke, Admiral Edward, Lord, reason of the return of his fleet from Rochefort, i. 277. 279. His victory over Admiral de Conflans, 453. 454. 467. Appointed to the admiralty, iii. 135. iv. 58.
- Henley, Sir Robert, i. 234. ii. 106.
- Hertford, Francis Seymour Conway, Marquis of, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, ii. 315. iii. 51. Master of the Horse, 55. His mission to Versailles, 117. To the Right Hon. Seymour Conway, 117. To the Earl of Chatham, 52.
- Hervey, Hon. Augustus, a Lord of the Admiralty, iv. 107.
- , Hon. and Rev. Frederick, iii. 103. Bishop of Cloyne, 180.
- , Hon. Thomas, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 197. Some account of, 197.
- Hesse, Frederic, Landgrave of, his character, i. 244. ii. 86. An ally of Frederic II. and George II., 313.
- Hessian troops, subsidizing of, i. 305. 313. 401.
- Hillsborough, Earl of, i. 135. 189. His marriage with Baroness Stawell, 167. See Marquis of Downshire.
- Hodges, Sir James, M.P., iii. 150.
- Holbourne, Admiral, inert conduct of, i. 239.
- Holderness, Robert Earl of, i. 160. 236. 312. 360. ii. 99. iv. 151. 153. His letter to Mr. Pitt, 312.
- Holland, Henry Baron, i. 86. 101. 110. 124—135. 180—193. 229. &c. See Right Hon. Henry Fox.
- Holland, blame attributed to the Dutch troops, i. 6. 9. 10. Dutch Flanders invaded by the armies of Louis XV., 15. &c. The Dutch carrying trade of West India produce, 357. Release of the Surinam ships, 396.
- Hollis, Thomas, Esq., to Mr. Pitt, ii. 200. iv. 269.
- Holmes, Rear-Admiral Charles, i. 404.
- Honduras, bay of, the logwood trade, ii. 89. 120.
- Hood, Captain Alexander, ii. 439. To the Countess of Chatham, 284. To the Earl of Chatham, iv. 233. Created Baron Bridport, 233.
- Hop, Lieut.-Gen., ambassador from Holland to George II., i. 356.
- How, William Taylor, Esq., to Mr. Pitt, ii. 212. 222.
- Howe, George Augustus Viscount, his death in battle in America, i. 339.
- , Admiral Lord, his opinion on conjunct military and naval expeditions, i. 279. Commands the fleet in the St. Maloes expedition, 311. 318. 323. 346. Takes the command in the Mediterranean, on the war with Spain, iv. 56.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

561

- Presents a petition for increase of the half-pay of naval officers, 248. His memorandum addressed from Lower Britany to Mr. Pitt, 463.
- Hunter, Thomas Orby, Esq., his despatches from Rotterdam, addressed to Mr. Pitt, relate particulars of the campaign of 1747, and of his own negotiations, i. 7—22.
- Huntingdon, Francis [Hastings] Earl of, iii. 97. 99. 104.
- Hussey, Richard, Esq., counsel to the Admiralty, iii. 111.
- Hutchinson, Right Hon. Hely, anecdotes of, i. 477.
- ILCHESTER, Earl of; the swannery and decoy at Abbotsford, the seat of, iii. 34.
- India, eulogium of Clive, Watson and Pococke, i. 341. Colonel Clive's letter to Mr. Pitt on the state of affairs in, 387—392. His Letter to the Chairman of the East-India Company, 341. Re-establishment of the company's affairs, iii. 59. Treaties concluded by Lord Clive, 61. Further details on our relations with the East Indies, iii. 93. 150. 155. 163. 175. 176. 181. 183. 195. 196. 205. 213. 214. 216. 269. 495. iv. 101. 104. 114. 123. 124. 229. 234. 241. 254. 263. 270. The India Bill, iv. 209. 238. 252. 273. 339.
- Impressment of Seamen, warrant for the, iii. 480. 481. 490. iv. 22. 43.
- Inchiquin, Earl of, i. 469.
- Informations ex-officio, iv. 19.
- Ireland, viceroys, parliamentary proceedings in, and affairs of, i. 258. 284. 288. 290. ii. 60. iii. 2. 51. 167. iv. 296. 303. 306. Riotous assault on the Irish parliament, in fear of its purposing an union with England, i. 468. 475. Poyning's act, iv. 319.
- Irwin, Viscount, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 266.
- JABLONOFFSKY, Prince, founds a literary society, iii. 162.
- Jackson, Rev. Dr. Cyril, sub-preceptor to George IV., iv. 151.
- Jenkinson, Mr. [subsequently Earl of Liverpool], ii. 168. A Lord of the Admiralty, iii. 135. iv. 127. 229. 340.
- Jersey, Earl of, iii. 368.
- Johnson, Dr. Samuel, particulars of, and remarks by, ii. 154. 197. 391. 395. iii. 92. 106. 160. His advice to Boswell to study law, 246.
- Johnstone, Governor, his duel with Lord George Germain, iv. 61.
- Joseph, the Archduke, i. 37.
- Junius, to the Earl of Chatham, iii. 302. 356. iv. 190. Opinion on certain of the letters, whether authentic, iii. 305. Quotations from Junius, bearing upon a similarity of style with that of speeches of Lord Chatham reported by Sir Philip Francis, iii. 377. 378. 380—387. 400—407. 416. 418. 453. iv. 44. 173. 177. 'Junius identified' quoted, iii. 400. 420. 453. iv. 80. 176. He laments the loss of the Marquis of Granby, iii. 478. To the Earl of Mansfield, 481, 482. On Lord Barrington, 494. His letter to the King, iv. 35. On the Duke of Grafton's powers as an orator, 44. He reports the speech of Lord Sandwich, 47. Treats of the claim to Falkland Islands, 91, 92. Various quotations from, 80, &c. His letter to the Earl of Chatham, 190.
- Juries, the Bill respecting, proposed by Right Hon. W. Dowdeswell, iv. 102. 105. 106. Lord Chatham's opinion, 108. Debates upon it, 109. Mr. Burke's speech, 110. Summary of the debate, 112. Mr. C. J. Fox's speech, 113.
- KEENE, Sir Benjamin, concludes a separate treaty at Madrid, i. 50. 203. 209. Mr. Pitt's instructions to, 248. His reply reporting the disposition of the Court of Madrid, 263. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, i. 112. 262, 263. ii. 70.
- Keith, Earl Marichal, attainted for the rebellion in 1715, pardoned by George II., i. 394. 415. ii. 1. To Mr. Pitt, 415.
- , Mr., British Minister at St. Petersburg, ii. 27.
- Keppel, Admiral Lord, ii. 128. 319. iii. 130. iv. 58. 236. His charac-

O O 2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

- ter by Edmond Burke, ii. 129.
To Mr. Pitt, 129.
- Keppel, Hon. Frederick, Lord Bishop of Exeter, ii. 135. His marriage with Louisa, daughter of Sir Edward Walpole, ib.
- Kildare, Earl of, party of the, i. 289, 210.
- Kinnoul, Earl of, his mission to Lisbon, i. 282. iv. 176. Instructions to, ii. 16. His Letter to Mr. Pitt, 17.
- Knyphausen, Baron de, Prussian statesman, speaks of the designs of France, i. 206. His mission to London, 301. 313. 446. ii. 210. To Mr. Pitt, i. 412.
- LACY, Count, Austrian commander, iii. 79.
- Lally, Comte de, Commander of the French forces in India, i. 206. History of his unjust and cruel execution, ii. 144. High character of, by Gibbon, 145. His letter to Mr. Pitt, 144. His son, M. de Lally Tolendal, obtains a rehabilitation of his memory, &c., 145.
- Land-tax, the, iii. 224. iv. 57.
- Law, Dr. Edmund, Bishop of Carlisle, iv. 327.
- Learning, the best introduction to public life, i. 140. Samuel Johnson's observation on the state of, ii. 154.
- Lee, General, iii. 111.
—, Mr., iv. 144.
- Leeds, Thomas Duke of, i. 187.
- Legge, Commodore the Honourable Edward, i. 24.
- , Right Honourable Henry Bilson [Chancellor of the Exchequer, 1754—1761], his correspondence addressed to Mr. Pitt, i. 24. 28. 166. 183. His character described, 27. His mission to Frederic II. 27. Is reprimanded, 29. Enjoys the friendship of Mr. Pitt, 97. 101. His wife created Baroness Stawell, 167. Included in various administrations, 184. His dismissal, 227. Is reinstated, 236. Retires from office, ii. 99.
- Leicester House, George Prince of Wales' establishment at, i. 157. 170. 191. 296. 325.
- Leignitz, victory of Frederic II. over the Austrians near, ii. 56.
- Leslie, Lieutenant, to Brigadier General Wolfe, i. 384.
- Lettice, Rev. John, to the Earl of Chatham, iv. 313.
- Libel, law of, iv. 43. 95. See Wilkes, and Junius.
- Lifford, Baron, ii. 273.
- Ligonier, Lord, military services, and offices of, i. 238. 345. 411. 424. iii. 33.
- Lippe, Count de la, ii. 177.
- London, corporation of the city of, its address to George III. for the dismissal of ministers, iii. 427. 429. 432. Entertainment by the Lord Mayor, &c., 431. The King's answer to the Remonstrance from the City, 452. 458. A fresh remonstrance from, 484. Dispute of the City with the House of Commons relative to the newspapers, &c. reporting the debates, iv. 96. 121. 125. 129. 130. 135. 137. The Lord Mayor sent to the Tower, 138. Riots in London and Westminster in consequence, 139, 140. Lord Chatham's opinion on this question of privilege, 141. The question of embankment on the river Thames, near Durham Yard, 150. The Adelphi, in the Strand, built, 150. 158, 159, 160.
- Lonsdale, James Earl of, i. 347.
- Lords, House of, strangers [including the Commons in a conference] ordered to withdraw during a debate on Spain, iv. 51. The Earl of Chatham overpowered by clamour enters a protest, 52. Motion in the Commons on this subject, 53. Conference with the Commons, tumultuous, 58. 61. The tapestry hangings in the, 55. 73. 86. 374. Debates of the Lords, see Earl of Chatham.
- Loudoun, Lord, commands in North America, i. 237. His inactivity, 239.
- Louis XV., policy of, i. 41. Projects an invasion of England and Ireland, 207, 208. Attempted assassination of, by Damien, ii. 127. Ministry of Duc de Choiseul, iii. 131. Dismisses him at the instigation of the Countess du Barri,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

563

- iv. 64. Appoints Cardinal de Bernis as successor to Choiseul, 66. The French king menaces war against the English, 68. 128.
- Louisbourg, the English obtain possession of, i. 322. 345. Thanks of Parliament to Amherst and Boscawen for this conquest, 394.
- Ludlow, General, tomb at Vevay, near Geneva, of, i. 121.
- Luttrell, Colonel Henry Lawes, opponent of Mr. Wilkes, is declared duly elected for Middlesex, iii. 353, 354. 379. His election confirmed, 411. 417. 450. iv. 42.
- Lyttelton, Sir George [Lord Lyttelton], his public services and writings, i. 87. 93. His talent for set debates and solemn questions, 106. 161. Allusion to his poetry, 164. Created a peer, 194. iv. 74. 163. Earl Temple's letter on his death, 222. His 'Persian Letters,' iii. 103. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, ii. 303. 314. To the Earl of Chatham, iv. 195. 220. 344.
- , Sir Richard, i. 148. Account of, 180. 192. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt on political and ministerial affairs, 180. 442. 471. ii. 123. 172. 207. 307. His death, and monument to, iii. 472.
- , William Henry, Governor of South Carolina, captured at sea, i. 147. Created Lord Lyttelton, 147. iii. 91.
- , Dr. Charles, Bishop of Carlisle, ii. 207.
- Lyttleton, Thomas Lord, iv. 220. 344.
- MACARTNEY, George Earl, his public services, iii. 17. 173. To Sir Andrew Mitchell, 36. 78. 80. To Mr. William Burke, 17. 38.
- Mackenzie, Hon. James Stuart, ii. 122. 311. His account of his removal from office, 312. iii. 58. 241. iv. 80. 83.
- Mahon, Port, i. 200. 207. 219.
- , Charles Viscount [afterwards Earl Stanhope], iv. 402. Marries Lady Hester Pitt, 373. 402. Portraiture of Philip second Earl Stanhope in the 'History of England' by, 55. Lord Mahon to the Earl of Chatham, 497. His inventions, 440. 442.
- Mahon, Viscountess, iv. 373.
- Malmesbury, James Earl of, iv. 67.
- Malone, Anthony, Esq., iii. 102.
- , Judge, iii. 102.
- , Edmond, critic, iii. 102.
- Manchester, Duke of, iv. 27. 47. 51. 86.
- Mann, Sir Horace, English minister at Turin, i. 282. Horace Walpole's correspondence with, see Walpole.
- Mansfield, Earl of, William Murray, Esq., his influence in the House of Commons, i. 86. 102. Lord Chief Justice of the King's Bench, &c., 159. Ministerial negotiation intrusted to, 231. iii. 285. 439. His speeches in the House of Lords, ii. 382. 384. iii. 374. 419. He resigns the Wool sack, 481. Junius apostrophizes Lord Mansfield, 482, 483. 493, 494. iv. 17. 36. The Earl's legal opinions, and course in political affairs detailed, iv. 43. 45. 49. 110. 144. 191. 196. 328.
- Marchmont, Earl of, motion relative to the power of the House of Commons in controverted elections, iii. 418. 425. 495. iv. 58.
- Maria Theresa, the Empress Queen, i. 43. ii. 93. iii. 69.
- Markham, Dr., Archbishop of York, preceptor to George III., i. 430. iv. 66. 151. To the Duchess of Queensbury, i. 430.
- Marlborough, the Duke of, sent with Commodore Howe against the French coast, i. 311. 318. His return, unsuccessful, to England, 323. Appointed to the command in Germany, 325. 334. He complains of the appointment of the Hanoverian General Spoken, 337. He dies of fever during the campaign, 348. His character by Smollett, 349. His letters to Mr. Pitt, i. 334. 337. 348.
- Martin, Samuel, Esq., secretary to the Treasury, i. 166. ii. 221. 261.
- Martinico taken by Monckton and Rodney, ii. 172.
- Mary, Princess, daughter of George II., married to Frederick Prince of Hesse, i. 244.
- Maseres, Francis, Esq., iv. 401.

O O 3

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

- Maurepas, Count de, iv. 429.
 Mauritius, expedition to the, ii. 105.
 May, Thomas, his 'History of the Parliament,' i. 115.
 Maynard, Serjeant, anecdote of, iv. 237.
 Melcombe, Lord, ii. 148. See Dodington.
 Mendip, Baron [Welbore Ellis], particulars of, i. 188, ii. 116.
 Meredith, Sir William, iii. 488. His motion for repealing a clause in the Nullum Tempus Bill, iv. 98, 103, 139, 252.
 Militia Bill, the, proposed by Mr. George Townshend, i. 220. Riots throughout England in consequence of, 257, 260, ii. 101, 413. Review of the militia by George II., 5. The King's message in relation to its extended service in case of an invasion, 5. Edward Gibbon speaks of his captivity in the militia, 6. Mr. Henry Flood proposes a Militia Bill for Ireland, iii. 2.
 Minden, battle of, i. 417, ii. 7.
 Minorca, Island of, i. 200, 249, 269, iv. 47.
 Mirepoix, Marshal Duke de, his character, i. 41.
 Mitchell, Sir Andrew, resides at the court of Frederic II. as English negotiator; his despatches addressed to Mr. Secretary Pitt, i. 224, 393, 394, 407, 444, ii. 14, 43, 56, 409, iii. 46, 48, 67. To the Earl of Holderness, i. 206, ii. 79. To the Duke of Newcastle, 55. To General Conway on the differences between Frederic II. and Ferdinand of Brunswick, 432. Allusions to him, iii. 16, 19, 77. His interviews with Frederic II., ii. 56, iii. 67, 139. To Mr. Conway on the journey of Frederic II. to Silesia, 44, 46.
 Mitchell MSS., the, referred to, ii. 10, 27, 44, 82, 100, 166, 207, 236, 312. Account of them, 409, iii. 37, 139.
 Monson, John Lord, iii. 89.
 Montagu, George Duke of, iii. 75, 110. ———, Lord Charles Greville, iv. 27.
 Montague, Mrs., her account of Viscount Duplin, i. 161.
 Montcalm, Marquis de, attacked in Quebec by Wolfe, i. 403, 425, ii. 102, 104.
 Moreton, Sir William, recorder of London, i. 166.
 Mulgrave, Constantine, Baron, his attempt to discover the north-east passage, iv. 20.
 Munchausen, Baron, Hanoverian minister at the Court of St. James's, i. 304, 306.
 Murray, William, Esq., solicitor-general, &c., i. 86. See Mansfield, Earl of.
 NAPLES, affairs of, and political views of Carlos, the King of the two Sicilies, i. 253, 254. Carlos, succeeding his brother Ferdinand VI. on the throne of Spain, secures Naples to his third son Ferdinand, 273, 365, ii. 32. Interesting details by Mr. Stanier Porten to Mr. Pitt, relative to the court of Don Carlos at, 31—40. Ferdinand IV., king of, 32.
 Nares, Mr. Justice, iv. 82, 83.
 Newcastle, Thomas [Pelham] Duke of, public life and administration of, i. 22. Considers the Duke of Bedford a political rival, 33, 36, 55. Complains of the Duke of Cumberland and Earl of Sandwich, 36. His negotiations with Bavaria and Austria, 37, 43. Takes some offence with, but is reconciled to Henry Pelham, 55. Succeeds his brother as Premier, 85. His explanations to Mr. Pitt on his choice of the ministry, 95, 408. Accession of Henry Fox to the cabinet, 124—134.; of Charles Yorke, 159, 160. His retirement, 182, 194. His confidence in Mr. Pitt, and his own return to office as Prime Minister, 229, 236, ii. 14, 106. Informs him of the state of public business, 23, 26, &c. (See below, the details in his letters.) His dissension with Lord Bute as to Prussia, &c. causes his resignation, and is succeeded by Bute, 178. Decline of the Duke's influence and party, 206. Is Lord Privy Seal, 315, 338. Conference of Lord Chatham with, iii. 399. His Correspondence with Mr. Pitt, testifying his friendship and admiration of that statesman's

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

565

- abilities, i. 26. 31. 34. 43. 47. 54. 85. 95. 237. 241. 302. 306. 311. 408. 411. 434—436. 445. 448. ii. 23. 26. 46. 87. 220. 237. 239. 243. 259. 263. 268. 297. 288. 293. To Earl Temple, i. 359.
- Newcastle MSS., the, quotations from, i. 35. 36. 46. ii. 55, 56.
- North, Frederic Lord, character of by Edmond Burke, i. 409. Remarks of, i. 477. His Lordship's letter to Mr. Pitt, returning thanks to the King for his appointment to office, ii. 470. iii. 285. Succeeds the Duke of Grafton as Prime Minister, 412. An impeachment threatened by the discontented party in London, Westminster, and Parliament, 432. State of the ministry, 435. 437. 443. His desire of a peace, 489. Debates during his administration, iv. 2. 42. 45. 47. 57. Difficulties of the minister, 63. 68. 119. 123. 135. 143. 150. 152. 154. 403. Attacked by a mob, 139. Obtains the rangership of Bushy Park, 179. Changes in the ministry, 179. 326. His Resolutions on America, 402. 404. 507.
- * North Briton, No. 45. of the, prosecutions, &c. on account of, ii. 192. 230. 261. 263. No. 45. burnt by the hangman, 270. Riots on account of, 270.
- Northington, Robert Henley Earl of, Lord Chancellor, account of, i. 162. Promises his support to Mr. Pitt, ii. 450. President of the Council, iii. 14. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, ii. 434. 440. 447. 449. His resignation, iii. 266. 276.
- Northumberland, Duke of, ii. 240. Account of the family of Sir Hugh Smithson, who succeeding to the earldom, was created a duke, iii. 74. 76. 81. 88.
- Norton, Sir Fletcher, attorney-general, ii. 261. 289. 352. Speaker on the death of Sir John Cust, iii. 395. iv. 58. 214.
- Nowell, Dr., sermon of, preached before the House of Commons, ii. 408.
- Nugent, Right Honourable Robert, created Earl, i. 418. His family, 418. A Lord of Trade, iii. 112.
- Nuthall, Thomas, Esq., attacked by a highwayman on Hounslow Heath; his death, ii. 166. His public services, 325. His letters addressed to Lady Chatham, ii. 166. 181. 230. To Mr. Pitt, ii. 349. 399. 401. 407. 417. 421. 424.
- OLIVER, Alderman, iv. 121. 126. 127. 130. 132. 187.
- Onslow, George, Esq., iv. 53. 205. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, ii. 374. 378. 381. 387. 394. 402. Created Earl of Onslow, ii. 374.
- Orange, Anne Princess of, daughter of George II., i. 356. 358. 397. Her death, 399.
- , William Prince of, Stadtholder, i. 399.
- O'Reilly, Spanish general, iii. 490. 492.
- Orford, George Earl of, commands the militia at a review of that body by George II., ii. 5—6.
- , Horace Earl of, the celebrated historian and letter-writer, i. 455. See Horace Walpole.
- Osborn, Mrs., to Mr. Pitt, i. 220.
- Ossory, John Earl of Upper, i. 258.
- PALMERSTON, Henry [Temple] Viscount, ii. 350.
- Panin, Count, Russian minister, iii. 78—79. iv. 227.
- Paoli, General Pascal, ii. 389. iii. 159. 244.
- Pechlin, Colonel, his mission to St. Petersburg, ii. 27.
- Pelham, Right Honourable Henry, details of his administration addressed to Mr. Pitt, by the Duke of Newcastle, and from Archdeacon Coxé, i. 10. 27. 29. Ministerial difficulties of, 33. 47. 51. His death, 85. 90. His letters to Mr. Pitt, 49. 52. Death of his daughter Catherine, Lady Lincoln, ii. 56.
- Pembroke, Henry [Herbert] Earl of, i. 169.
- Pensions, grants of, i. 284. ii. 99. iii. 424.
- Petition, right of, iii. 453. 458.
- Philips, Sir John, i. 218.
- Pitt, Honourable William, to the Earl of Chatham, iv. 287. 294. 354. 357. 361. 365. 441. To the Countess of Chatham, 364. 375.

O O 4

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

566

INDEX.

435. 438. 510. To Lancelot Brown, Esq., 431. Allusions to his childhood, ii. 392. 417. iii. 65. iv. 184. 207. 213. 240. 266. 269. His education at Cambridge, iii. 26. iv. 290. 295. 308. 362. Bishop Tomline's description of young Pitt's character and abilities, iii. 35. iv. 287, 288. 295.
- Pitt, James Charles, third son of the Earl of Chatham, ii. 124. iv. 213. 216. 217. 268. 495.
- , Lady Harriot, iv. 215. 373.
- , Lady Hester, iv. 373. 402.
- , Thomas, Lord Camelford, letters on his studies, by his uncle the Earl of Chatham, i. 57. Account of his son and daughter, 57. See Camelford.
- , George, Esq., of Strathfieldsay, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 163. He is created Baron Rivers, 163.
- , Mr. John, of Strathfieldsay, i. 52.
- Politeness, rules and definition of, i. 73. 79.
- Pope, Alexander, his 'Essay on Man' defended by Dr. Warburton, ii. 154.
- Porten, Sir Stanier, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 31—40.
- Portland, Duke of, iii. 26. 130.
- Portugal, affairs of this kingdom, ii. 16. War with Spain, 175. British auxiliaries, 177. iii. 67. 92.
- Potter, Thomas, Esq., to Mr. Pitt, i. 153. 158. 178. 257. 277. 365. Announces that Mr. Pitt's appointment to be Secretary of State is probable, 178. Question of promoting Mr. Potter, 188. 192. Assists in repressing riots on the militia bill, 260. His sickness and death, 366. His son introduced by Mr. Pitt to Thomas Pitt, Esq., at Cambridge, 172. 174.
- Pringle, Lady, iv. 374.
- Printers, prosecution of, iii. 494. iv. 36. 48. 96. 115. 116. 125. 129.
- Protestants of Ireland, the, i. 479. Bill for the Relief of Protestant Dissenters, iv. 200. 205. 219. 257.
- Prussia, declaration of England and, for a general peace, i. 461. Minute with the ministers of, ii. 29. For the affairs and wars of this state, see Frederic II.
- Prussia, Prince Henry of, brother of Frederic II., ii. 27.
- Puffendorf's treatise 'De statu imperii,' translated by E. Bohun, i. 176.
- Puissieux, M. de, French Secretary of State, i. 40.
- Pulteney, William Viscount, i. 187. He joins the Duke of Devonshire's administration, 195. 198.
- Pynsent, Sir William, bequeathes an estate to Mr. Pitt, ii. 303. 420.
- Pythagoras's injunction to taciturnity, i. 72.
- QUEBEC, capture of, by General James Wolfe, i. 370. 376. 403. 425. Mr. Pitt narrates it, in French, to Ferdinand of Brunswick, 439. His speech on, 452. iv. 351. 354.
- Queensbury, Catherine, Duchess of, her beauty celebrated, i. 431.
- RADNOR, Earl of, to the Earl of Chatham, iii. 330.
- Regency Bill, debates on the, ii. 307.
- Religion, Mr. Pitt's observations on, addressed to his nephew, i. 73.
- Richmond, Charles Duke of, his death, i. 46.
- , Charles Duke of, Secretary of State, ii. 415. iii. 395. 455. His motion on the subject of Spain and the Falkland Islands, iv. 1—18. 52. 84. A patron of the fine arts, 78. 93. His death, 78. Particulars of his parliamentary course, 167. 464. 498. 501. 513. 518. 528. His Correspondence with the Earl of Chatham, iv. 78. 89. 97. 391. 516.
- Rigby, Right Honourable Richard, to Mr. Pitt, i. 465. 468. 475. His portrait written by Horace Walpole, 465.
- Rivers, George [Pitt] Baron, ii. 163. Mr. Pitt's correspondence with, 163, 164.
- Robinson, Sir Thomas, Secretary of State, i. 96.
- Rochford, Earl of, negotiates relative to Falkland Islands, ii. 229. iv. 122. 128. His mission to Paris, iii. 113. 115. 131. Is Secretary of State, 338. iv. 78. 80. 128. 512. His letters to Earl of Chatham, iii. 131. 242.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

567

- Rockingham, Marquis of, receives the blue ribbon, i. 361. 364. ii. 44. 184. Is desirous that Mr. Pitt should be made Premier, 397. Reply of Pitt, 398. Administration of Lord Rockingham, 315. 333. 339. 355. 379. His communications through Mr. Nuttall to Mr. Pitt, 399. 401. iii. 5. His ministry is dissolved, ii. 435. 453. Subsequent parliamentary conduct of, iii. 395. He moves that the Lords should take the state of the nation into consideration, 400. Is seconded in the motion by Lord Chatham, 400 et seq. His motion on the exercise of judicature in elections, 415. It is negatived by the Lords, 418. Chatham's opinion of the marquis, 481. He writes on the prospect of war with Spain, iv. 26. His party in opposition to Lord North, 63. 131. 303. 450. 468. His correspondence with the Earl of Chatham, iii. 414. 415. 419. 445. 447. 455. 456. 489. 491. iv. 26. 166. 399. 432. 450. 457. 462. 470. 472. 487. 489. To the Countess of Chatham, iii. 401. 408.
- Rodney, Admiral Lord, his victory in the West Indies, i. 420. Bombarde Havre-de-Grâce; his despatches to Mr. Pitt, 421. He takes the island of Martinique, ii. 172, 173.
- Rolle, Lord, i. 384.
- Rosslyn, Earl of [Mr. Wedderburne, Baron Loughborough and Lord Chancellor], ii. 352. See Wedderburne.
- Rundle, Dr. Thomas, Bishop of Derry, iii. 103.
- Rushout, Sir John, ii. 281. iii. 112.
- Russia, political and military transactions of this empire detailed, ii. 27. Mr. Hans Stanley, ambassador to, iii. 15. 17. Treaty with, 24. 31. The court of Catherine II. described, iii. 37. 66. 161. 174. Treaties and wars alluded to, iii. 78. 86.
- Rutland, Duke of, to the Earl of Chatham, iii. 478. Approbation of George III. expressed for, iii. 53. 55. The Duke approves of his son Lord Granby's conduct in a crisis of ministerial affairs, 391. 397.
- Rutland, fourth Duke of, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, iv. 406. 507.
- Ryder, Sir Dudley, his death at the moment when a patent of peerage was preparing for him, i. 159.
- SACKVILLE, Lord George, his attack on the Earl of Tyrawly relative to Gibraltar, i. 218. Account of his military services, 326. His Letters to Mr. Pitt, 326. 367. His despatches addressed to the Earl of Holderness, i. 374. His conduct in the battle of Minden reprehended, 417. Mr. Pitt declines affording him protection, 423. 458. He demands a court-martial on his conduct, 424. &c. His arrogant behaviour, and sentence of the court, ii. 24. Speeches in Parliament of, 170. iii. 184.
- Sandwich, John Montagu, Earl of, assists in the peace of Aix-la-Chapelle, i. 8. 12. 18. 28. He gives umbrage to the Duke of Newcastle, 36. Appointed First Lord of the Admiralty, ii. 221. Secretary of State, 251. His speech respecting the state of the fortress of Gibraltar, iv. 47. Again appointed to the Admiralty, 65. 87.
- Sandys, Baron, ii. 281.
- Saunders, Admiral Sir Charles, services of, i. 405. His high character, 453. ii. 319. To the Earl of Chatham, iv. 231. Is appointed First Lord of the Admiralty, iii. 54. 57. Resigns, 130. His death, iv. 232. Had the command of a fleet about to sail from Portsmouth, 261.
- Savile, Sir George, iv. 126. 131.
- Savoy, Charles Emanuel Duke of, his daughters, i. 364. House of Savoy, and affairs of Sardinia, iii. 420, 421.
- Saxe, Marshal Count de, his campaigns, i. 10.
- Sawbridge, Alderman, iii. 436, 437, 438. 474. iv. 66. 118. 146.
- Sayre, Mr. Sheriff, iv. 349. The Earl of Chatham to, 359, 360. 366.
- Scarborough, Richard [Lumley Saunderson,] Earl of, iii. 88.
- Scotland, Union with: Act passed for amending the representation of the larger shires, iv. 147. 149.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

568

INDEX.

- Scott, Sir Walter, Diary of, iv. 184.
 —, Dr. James, his Letters signed Anti-Sejanus, popular, iv. 66.
 Sebright, Sir John, ii. 223. 226.
 Secker, Dr. Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, account of, i. 440.
 His letters to Mr. Pitt, i. 440, 441.
 Selden, John, MS. notes of, i. 109.
 Sellon, Mr. Jasper, ii. 48.
 Selwyn, George, anecdote of, ii. 180.
 Senegal, French settlement in, taken, i. 221. 348.
 Sewell, Sir Thomas, Master of the Rolls, ii. 298.
 Shannon, Earl of, ii. 299.
 Shelburne, William [Petty] Earl of, ii. 218. 229. He negotiates between Bute and Pitt, 235. 248. His military services, 241. The Earl informs Mr. Pitt of the debates in both Houses of Parliament, 353. Communications to the Earl, by Mr. Pitt, on the Ministerial negotiations, iii. 5, 6. 333, &c. He is succeeded by Lord Weymouth, 338. Other particulars of, iv. 137. 303. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, ii. 241. 353. 451. iii. 7. To the Earl of Chatham, iii. 90. 96. 104. 113. 121. 182. 191. 206. 212. 219. 232. 253. 484. iv. 20. 30. 35. 105. 146. 158. 159. 165. 170. 188. 199. 209. 217. 226. 238. 252. 254. 259. 261. 262. 270. 279. 296. 302. 317. 322. 326. 334. 339. 461. 465. 480. 513. To the Countess of Chatham, iii. 286. 292. 298. iv. 427.
 Shenton, Rev. Paul, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 299.
 Shipley, Dr. Jonathan, Bishop of St. Asaph, iv. 302.
 Sidmouth, Henry Viscount, iv. 180. 184.
 Silesia, invasion of, by Frederic II., iii. 46. 83.
 Sloper, William, Esq., ii. 193.
 Solmes, Count, minister of Frederic II., iii. 39.
 Soubise, Prince de, his campaigns, i. 334. 348. 368.
 South Lodge, Enfield Chase, a residence of Mr. Pitt, i. 25.
 South-Sea Company, affairs of the, i. 52, 53.
 Spain, treaty of Madrid, in 1750, with England, i. 50. 52. Sir Benjamin Keene's instructions for negotiations with, 248. State of Madrid and of the court, 263. Disunion between Ferdinand VI. of Spain and his brother Carlos, King of the Two Sicilies, 273. Accession of Charles III., 365. ii. 32. The Family Compact [of the house of Bourbon], i. 303. ii. 140. 142. iii. 67. Earl of Bristol's despatches from Madrid, i. 364. 371. 418. 466. 473. ii. 22. Sir Stanier Porten's description of Charles III., and court, when at Naples, ii. 31—40. Maria, daughter of Augustus II. of Poland, queen of Charles III., described, 36. Disputed claim to the Newfoundland fishery, 68. Mr. Pitt's reply to a memorial on this subject, 69. War declared against England, by, 157. Tumults in, iii. 67, 68. A breach with England imminent, 491. 493. Difficulties occur in appointing an English ambassador to Madrid, iii. 96—99. 106. Sir James Gray's mission to, 123. Dispute of England with, 132. Spain seizes on the Falkland Islands, iv. 1. 22. Prospect of a war with England, 28. 30. 56. Mr. Harris recalled from Madrid, 67. Charles III. still negotiates for some time, 71. His declaration, 74. The English nation exasperated at the convention, 80.
 Spence, Rev. Joseph, author of 'Anecdotes,' 'Polymetis,' &c., ii. 295.
 Spencer, John Earl, iii. 112.
 St. Maloes, expedition against, i. 311. Failure of the English at, 318. 323. 347.
 Stanhope, Philip, second Earl, account of, by Viscount Mahon, iv. 55. To the Countess of Chatham, 398.
 —, Grizel Countess of, granddaughter of the Earl of Haddington, iv. 54.
 Stanley, the Right Honourable Hans, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 116. 124. 139. iii. 19. 36. To Earl Chatham, 64. 82. He was nephew of Sir Hans Sloane, ii. 116. His character, 116. Ambassador to St.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

569

- Petersburg, iii. 15. 19. 29. 77. 173.
- Stahremberg, Count de, ii. 126. 139. iii. 79.
- Sterne, Rev. Laurence, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 16. His dedication of 'Tristram Shandy' to Mr. Pitt, 13. The poet Gray's opinion of that romance, 13. Sterne's sermons characterised, 13.
- Stewart, Sir James, to John Stewart, Esq., i. 215. His writings, ii. 426. Letter in his favour by Sir Gilbert Elliot, and subsequent pardon by George III., i. 214.
- Stone, Dr. George, Archbishop of Armagh, i. 158. 229. His letters to Mr. Pitt, 229. ii. 59.
- , Andrew, Esq., under Secretary of State, &c., i. 34. 134.
- Storer, Dr., to Mr. Calcraft, iii. 476.
- Strange, Lord, ii. 235.
- Strathmore, John Earl of, his journey through Spain and Portugal, i. 282.
- Stuart, Prince Charles, in the Highlands, i. 6. Dismissed from Paris, 12. 14.
- Suffolk, Henry [Howard] Earl of, iv. 65. 69. Lord Privy Seal, 72. 76. 340.
- Sullivan, Mr., on Indian affairs, iii. 184. 189. His India Bill debated, iv. 209.
- Sweden, factions of the Hats and Caps, alluded to, iv. 20.
- Sydenham, Dr., iii. 251.
- Symmers, Mr., extracts from his letters to Sir Andrew Mitchell, ii. 168—171. 178. 206.
- TALBOT, Earl, appointed Lord Stewart, ii. 106. His duel with Mr. Wilkes, 192.
- Temple, Sir Richard, Bart., of Stowe, i. 23. Further account of the present Duke of Buckingham's ancestor, 186.
- , Earl, i. 165. Appointed First Lord of the Admiralty, 186. 194. He relates to Mr. Pitt the endeavours of George II. in the forming a new ministry, 187. Lord Privy Seal, 236. His parliamentary conduct, 317. Asks the decoration of the blue ribbon of George II.; is refused it, and resigns the Privy Seal, 439. He eventually obtains the Garter, 474. He resigns office, together with Mr. Pitt, ii. 143. 269. Retires to Stowe, and in opposition, 310. 316. Is desired by George III. to form an administration in conjunction with Mr. Pitt, 443. 445. Disagreement between those ministers, 468. Renewed offer, to the Earl, of being Prime Minister, iii. 13. His reconciliation with Lord Chatham, his illustrious brother-in-law, 349. iv. 154. 157. 325. 374.
- Temple, George Grenville [Nugent Temple], succeeds his uncle, as Earl, iii. 363. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, i. 186. 190. 324. 362. 438. ii. 446. [with Earl of Chatham] iii. 361. 391. 439. iv. 37. 154. 329. 393. 444. To the Countess of Chatham, ii. 192. 193. 279. 307. 414. 467. iii. 349. 351. 353. 356. 357. 359. 362. 394. 410. 431. iv. 333. 445. 493. 506. To the Earl of Northington, ii. 441.
- Tenucci, Bernardo, Marquis, character of the Neapolitan minister, ii. 40. 119.
- Thatched-House, a dinner at the, alluded to, iii. 359. Meeting at the, 391.
- Thurlow, Lord Chancellor, iii. 435. iv. 65. 72. 75.
- Tomline, Dr., Bishop of Lincoln, iii. 35. iv. 287. 295. 354.
- Torgau, Frederic II.'s victory at, dearly obtained, ii. 78.
- Tories, in commencement of George III.'s reign, ii. 251.
- Townshend, Hon. Charles, Chancellor of the Exchequer, &c., account of, i. 181. 192. ii. 99. 183. 218. 266. 351. 452. 456. He accepts office, 466. iii. 170. 175. 176. 225. He is reckoned contumacious by the ministry, 235. 240. The budget proposed by, 249. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, ii. 265. 456. 462. 464. [to Earl of Chatham] iii. 149. 154.
- , Hon. George, assumes the command of the army at Quebec on the death of General Wolfe, i. 181. Afterwards Vice-roy in Ireland, and Marquis Townshend, 181. 192. 442. His militia bill, 222. 257. His letters

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

- to Mr. Pitt, i. 216. 222. 345. 452. ii. 412. George Townshend succeeds his father as viscount, 412. Is Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, iii. 279. 435. iv. 60. Secretary of State, 340.
- Townshend, Hon. Thomas, a fine scholar, ii. 407. iv. 61.
- , Mr. Sheriff, to the Earl of Chatham, iii. 458. 460. Allusions to, 443. Lord Chatham's letter to, 459. iv. 118. 134.
- Turkey, wars, &c., of, iii. 66. 79. iv. 77.
- Tyrawly, Earl of [Field Marshal Hon. James O'Hara], his talents and services, i. 200. His character, 203. His spirited defence before parliament on a charge made against him respecting the fortifying of Gibraltar, 218, &c. He serves in Portugal, ii. 174. His romantic character, 177. His letters to Rt. Hon. Henry Fox, i. 200—204. To Mr. Pitt, i. 217. ii. 174. His note to Lady Chatham, iv. 208.
- UTRECHT, articles of the treaty of, i. 251. Mr. Pitt's condemnation of this peace, 411. Frederic II. alludes to it, ii. 108.
- VALENTIA, Arthur [Annesley] Viscount, subsequently Earl of Mountnorris, iv. 23.
- Vauxhall, property at, iv. 150.
- Villetes, Arthur, Esq., to Mr. Pitt, reporting some overtures for a peace by the Court of Versailles, ii. 48.
- Viri, Count de, i. 302.
- Voltaire, M. de, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 131. Allusion to a letter from, to Frederic II., 26. 29. The great Frederic's character of, 30. 44. Obtains subscriptions in England for the benefit of a female descendant of Corneille, 131. 133.
- WALDEGRAVE, James Earl of, his talents as ambassador, i. 3. He communicates to the Duke of Newcastle the King's [George II.] wishes relative to Mr. Fox, 124. 132. He gives an account of this negotiation, 133. His description of Lord Bute, 156. Governor of the young prince [George III.], 157. His Memoirs quoted in allusion to Leicester House, &c., 171. 231. 236. Political affairs he was concerned in, 180. 231. 360.
- Wales, Frederic Prince of, his marriage with Augusta of Saxe-Gotha, i. 3. Mr. Pitt, groom of the bed-chamber to, 3. Countenances the opposition to Mr. Pelham, 33. His opinion of Lord Bute, 157.
- , Princess of, mother of George III., i. 170. 295. 296. ii. 106. 307. iv. 129. 134.
- Wall, General Richard, of Irish origin, Minister of Ferdinand VI. of Spain, i. 210. 252. 265. 274. 371. Resigns his office as Spanish secretary, 474. ii. 22. 70. iii. 4. To the Conde de Fuenles, ii. 137.
- Walpole, Hon. Sir Edward, to Mr. Pitt, ii. 134. Some account of, 134.
- , Horatio [afterwards Baron Walpole,], his 'Rhapsody of Foreign Politics,' i. 56. His speech relating to Saxony, 63. Commissioned to bring about an agreement between Mr. Pitt and Mr. Fox, 135. His persuasions to the former, 144. His correspondence with Mr. Pitt, i. 116. 144. 455.
- , Honourable Horace [Earl of Orford], quoted respecting the affair of Lord George Sackville, i. 424. His description of the fall of Wolfe at Quebec, 425. He writes to Mr. Pitt, ii. 292. To Mr. George Montagu, i. 455. ii. 81. 173. 179. 183. 218. To Sir Horace Mann i. 184. 198. 208. 282. 424. 439. ii. 135. His 'Catalogue of Royal and Noble Authors,' i. 456. Some interesting quotations from his 'Memoirs of George II.,' i. 182. 184. 218. 221. 229. 239. 257. 290. 296. 300. 318. 341. 358. 375. 417. 448. 452. 455. 465. 476. ii. 8. 78. His letter to Mrs. Montague, respecting the 'Life of Lord Herbert of Chisbury,' 292.; to the Marchioness du Defand, i. 145.; to General Conway, ii. 196. iii. 112. 362. iv. 64.; to Lord Hertford, ii. 275. 280. 307. Various remarks and narratives of, i. 317. et passim.
- , Honourable Thomas, to the

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

INDEX.

571

- Earl of Chatham, iii. 61. 289.; to Mr. Nuthall, ii. 333, 334.
- Walsh, Mr., to Lord Clive on the affairs of the East India Company, iii. 93.
- Warburton, Dr., Bishop of Gloucester, his correspondence with Mr. Pitt, i. 283. 315. ii. 153. 160. 169. 184. 189. 195. 211. 253. 257. Gratification expressed by Mr. Pitt on being able to obtain the bishopric for, 153. Literary and theological reputation of Warburton, 154.
- Warmly [Gloucestershire] Company for converting copper into brass, iii. 306, 307. 311. 318.
- Warrants, General, their illegality, ii. 288.
- Wedderburne, Mr., speech of, ii. 352. iii. 357. 475. iv. 23. 31. 34. 35. Solicitor-General, 65. 72. 81. His joke as to certain printers who had been arrested, 115. 138. 140. 322.
- Weld, Edward, Esq., uncle of Cardinal Weld, ii. 173. His widow was Mrs. Fitzherbert, 173.
- West, Rear-Admiral Temple, compliment by George II. to, i. 168. His death, 246.
- , Mr. Gilbert, poet, some account of, i. 246. ii. 439.
- West India Islands, English and French, i. 40. ii. 172. 174. 339. 420. iii. 491. iv. 47.
- Weymouth, Lord, ii. 311. iii. 285. 338. His resignation occasions changes in Lord North's ministry, iv. 60. 63.
- Whately, Thomas, Esq., iv. 75. Junius is sarcastic as to his merit, 75. His essays, 75.
- Wheble, Mr., printer, apprehension of, iv. 115.
- Wheeler, Rev. John, i. 71.
- Wildman, Hon. Major-General John, i. 355.
- Wilkes, John, expense of his election for Aylesbury, i. 239. Gibbon's description of, ii. 94. His duel on account of the 'North Briton,' 192. 261. He is committed to the Tower, 230, &c. 261. 263. 269. 271. Is expelled the House of Commons, 273. Question of privilege, 269. 287. 288. Resides at Paris, iii. 242. His letters to Mr. Pitt, i. 239. ii. 93. His return to London occasions the cry of Wilkes and liberty, iii. 323, 324. His expulsion from the House, 349. Is re-elected for Middlesex, after a contest with Mr. Dingley, 352. The election declared to be void, 353, 354. Lord Chatham's speech on this topic, 379. 410. 316. Lord Chatham's Bill relative to Wilkes' being incapacitated from re-election, 449. The earl's speeches, 451. iv. 42. Lord Camden's opinion on the subject, iv. 38. Case of Wheble, the printer, 115. Mr. Wilkes refuses to obey the order of the Commons to appear in the House, except as member, 163. 187.
- Willes, Lord Chief Justice, i. 234. iii. 24. 111.
- Wilmot, Sir Edward, Bart., an eminent physician, to the Earl of Chatham, iii. 27.
- , Sir John Eardley, biography of, iii. 24.
- , Sir Robert, letter of, iii. 25.
- Wilson, Rev. Edward, to the Countess of Chatham, iii. 26. 34. 65. Tutor of Right Honourable William Pitt, 26.
- Wintringham, Sir Clifton, medical writer, iii. 272.
- Woddrop, John, Esq., to the Earl of Chatham, iv. 316.
- Wolfe, Lieutenant-General Edward, i. 462.
- , General James, services of, at the Isle of Aix, i. 279. He informs Mr. Pitt that he accepts the command in North America, 373. 378. His despatches to Mr. Pitt on the state of the operations, 403. His character, ib. His despatches to the Earl of Holderness relative to the attack on Quebec, 404. 425. His fall in the moment of victory, 426. 440. 442. Monument in Westminster Abbey of, 452. B. West's picture of the death of, ii. 41.
- , Mrs. to Mr. Pitt, i. 450. 459. 462. Pension to, and bequests by, 462.
- Wood, Robert, Esq. to Mr. Pitt, ii. 246. 249. Account of the writings of, i. 432. His 'Essay on the

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06751-5 - Correspondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham: Volume 4

Edited by William Stanhope Taylor and John Henry Pringle

Index

More information

572

INDEX.

- Original Genius of Homer,' ii. 246.
- Woodfall, Mr., printer of Junius, his case in the King's Bench, iii. 494. iv. 36. 48.
- , Mr., his edition of Junius quoted, iv. 96. 190.
- Wroughton, Sir Thomas, to the Earl of Chatham, iii. 161.
- YARMOUTH, Countess of [Madame de Walmoden], mistress of George II., i. 295. Her influence, 361.
- Yonge, Sir George, his letter to his constituents, on General Warrants, ii. 294. iii. 399. 411.
- Yorke, Hon. Charles, Attorney-General, i. 159. 160. ii. 161. His patent of precedence, 298. Ministerial arrangements including him, iii. 8. Appointed Lord Chancellor, and a patent for creating him Baron Morden was preparing when his death took place, 398.
- Yorke, Sir Joseph, his missions to the Hague and to Berlin, i. 294. 300. Secret negotiations of, 446. To Mr. Pitt, i. 356. 396. To Sir Andrew Mitchell, ii. 71. 82. 181. 251. iii. 42.
- ZUCCARELLI, landscape painter, ii. 326.

THE END.

LONDON :

Printed by A. SPOTTISWOODE,
New-Street-Square.