

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06772-0 - An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures:
Volume 1: A Summary of the Evidence for the Genuineness, Authenticity, Uncorrupted
Preservation, and Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures

Thomas Hartwell Horne, Samuel Davidson and Samuel Prideaux Tregelles

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

OF

THE FIRST VOLUME.

ON THE GENUINENESS, AUTHENTICITY, INSPIRATION, ETC.
OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.CHAP. I. — On the Possibility, Probability, and Necessity of a Divine Revelation.

I. Revelation defined - - - - -	Page 1
II. Possibility of a Revelation - - - - -	2
III. Probability of such Revelation shown :—
1. From the Credit given, in all Ages, to false Revelations - - - - -	3
2. From the Fact, that the wisest Philosophers of Antiquity thought a Divine Revelation probable, and also expected one - - - - -	3
IV. Necessity of such Revelation proved :—
1. From the Inability of mere human Reason to attain to any certain Knowledge of the Will of God - - - - -	3—11
2. From the utter Want of Authority, which attended the purest Precepts of the ancient Philosophers - - - - -	11—15
3. From the actual State of Religion and Morals among the modern Heathen Nations - - - - -	16—19
V. Refutation of the Objection, that Philosophy and right Reason are sufficient to instruct Men in their Duty - - - - -	19—32
VI. Possible Means of affording a Divine Revelation - - - - -	32—35

CHAP. II. — *On the Genuineness and Authenticity of the Old and New Testaments.*SECT. I. — On the Genuineness and Authenticity of the Old Testament 36

I. The Hebrew Scriptures, why termed the Old Testament - - - - -	36
II. Great Importance of the Question, whether the Books contained in the Old Testament are genuine or spurious? — Genuineness and Authenticity defined - - - - -	37

VOL. I.

a

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06772-0 - An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures:
Volume 1: A Summary of the Evidence for the Genuineness, Authenticity, Uncorrupted
Preservation, and Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures

Thomas Hartwell Horne, Samuel Davidson and Samuel Prideaux Tregelles

Table of Contents

More information

xviii

CONTENTS OF

SECT. I. — On the Genuineness and Authenticity of the Old Testament, continued.

III. Genuineness of the Canon of the Old Testament	-	-	-	Page 38
1. EXTERNAL PROOFS of the Genuineness and Authenticity of the Canonical Books of the Old Testament	-	-	-	38
(1.) The Manner in which these Books have been transmitted to us	-	-	-	38
(2.) The Paucity of Books extant, when they were written	-	-	-	39
(3.) The Testimony of the Jews	-	-	-	40
(4.) A particular Tribe was set apart, to preserve these Writings	-	-	-	40
(5.) Quotations of them by ancient Jews, and especially by Jesus Christ, and by his Apostles	-	-	-	41—44
(6.) The Evidence of ancient Versions	-	-	-	44, 45
2. INTERNAL EVIDENCE:—
(1.) The Language, Style, and Manner of Writing	-	-	-	45, 46
(2.) The minute Circumstantiality of Time, Persons, Places, &c. mentioned in the Old Testament	-	-	-	46—48
IV. Genuineness and Authenticity of the Pentateuch, in particular, proved:—
1. From the Language itself	-	-	-	48
2. From the Nature of the Mosaic Laws	-	-	-	49
3. From the united Historical Testimony of Jews and Gentiles	-	-	-	50—55
4. From the Contents of the Pentateuch	-	-	-	55—57
V. Particular Objections to the Authenticity of the Pentateuch, considered and refuted	-	-	-	57—61

SECT. II. — On the Genuineness and Authenticity of the New Testament.

I. General Title of the New Testament	-	-	-	-	63
II. Account of its Canon	-	-	-	-	63—65
III. Genuineness of the Books of the New Testament	-	-	-	-	65—67
IV. Their Authenticity proved from,
1. THE IMPOSSIBILITY OF FORGERY	-	-	-	-	67, 68
2. EXTERNAL OR HISTORICAL EVIDENCE, attended by ancient Jewish, Heathen, and Christian Testimonies in their Favour, and also by ancient Versions of them in different Languages	-	-	-	-	69—93
3. INTERNAL EVIDENCE:—
(1.) The Character of the Writers	-	-	-	-	93
(2.) The Language and Style of the New Testament	-	-	-	-	94—96
(3.) The minute Circumstantiality of the Narratives, together with the Coincidence of the Accounts there delivered, with the History of those Times	-	-	-	-	96—103

SECT. III. — On the Uncorrupted Preservation of the Books of the Old and New Testaments.

I. The Uncorrupted Preservation of the Old Testament proved from the absolute Impossibility of its being falsified or corrupted:—
1. By Jews	-	-	-	-	104—106
2. By Christians	-	-	-	-	106
3. From the Agreement of all the ancient Paraphrases and Versions extant	-	-	-	-	106
4. From the Agreement of all the Manuscripts extant	-	-	-	-	107
II. The Uncorrupted Preservation of the Books of the New Testament proved from,
1. Their Contents	-	-	-	-	108
2. The Impossibility of an Universal Corruption of them being accomplished	-	-	-	-	108, 109

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06772-0 - An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures:
Volume 1: A Summary of the Evidence for the Genuineness, Authenticity, Uncorrupted
Preservation, and Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures

Thomas Hartwell Horne, Samuel Davidson and Samuel Prideaux Tregelles

Table of Contents

More information

THE FIRST VOLUME.

xix

SECT. III. — On the Uncorrupted Preservation of the Books of the Old and New Testaments, continued.

3. The Agreement of all the Manuscripts extant - - -	Pages 109—111
4. The Agreement of ancient Versions, and of the Quotations from the New Testament in the Writings of the early Christians - - -	111
III. General Proofs that no Canonical Books of Scripture either are or ever were lost - - - - -	112
IV. Particular Proofs as to the Integrity of the Old Testament - - -	113—115
V. Particular Proofs as to the Integrity of the New Testament - - -	115—119

CHAP. III. — *On the Credibility of the Old and New Testaments.*SECT. I.—Direct Evidences of the Credibility of the Old and New Testaments.

Their Credibility shown,

I. From the Writers having a perfect Knowledge of the Subjects they relate	120—123
II. From the moral Certainty of Falsehood being detected, if there had been any This proved at large,	123
1. With respect to the Old Testament - - - - -	123—127
2. With respect to the New Testament - - - - -	127—137
III. From the Subsistence, to this very Day, of certain Ordinances or Monuments instituted to perpetuate the Memory of the principal Facts and Events recorded in the Scriptures - - - - -	138—140
IV. From the Establishment and Propagation of Christianity - - -	140—142

SECT. II. — Testimonies to the Credibility of the Old and New Testaments from Civil History.

§ 1. Testimonies from Civil History to the Credibility of the OLD TESTAMENT	144—162
§ 2. Testimonies of Profane Writers to the Credibility of the NEW TESTAMENT - - - - -	162—188
§ 3. Collateral Testimonies to the Truth of the Facts recorded in the SCRIPTURES from ancient Coins, Medals, and Marbles - - -	188—199

CHAP. IV. — *The Divine Authority of the Scriptures.*SECT. I. — Preliminary Observations.

I. Inspiration defined - - - - -	200
II. Its Reasonableness and Necessity - - - - -	200, 201
III. Impossibility of the Scriptures being the Contrivance of Man - - -	201
IV. Criteria of Inspiration . - - - - -	202, 203

SECT. II. — The Miracles, related in the Old and New Testaments, are Proofs that the Scriptures were given by Inspiration of God.

I. A Miracle defined - - - - -	203, 204
II. Nature of the Evidence arising from Miracles - - - - -	205, 206
III. Design of Miracles - - - - -	206—208
IV. Credibility of Miracles vindicated and proved - - - - -	208—213
V. That the Credibility of Miracles does not decrease with the Lapse of Years - - - - -	213, 214
VI. Criteria of Miracles - - - - -	214—220

a 2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06772-0 - An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures:
Volume 1: A Summary of the Evidence for the Genuineness, Authenticity, Uncorrupted
Preservation, and Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures

Thomas Hartwell Horne, Samuel Davidson and Samuel Prideaux Tregelles

Table of Contents

More information

XX

CONTENTS OF

SECT. II. — The Miracles, related in the Old and New Testaments, are Proofs that the Scriptures were given by Inspiration of God, continued.

VII. Application of these Criteria,

- | | | |
|--|---|----------------|
| 1. To the Miracles wrought by Moses and Joshua | - | Pages 220, 221 |
| 2. To those of Jesus Christ and his Apostles | - | - 222—230 |

VIII. Examination of some of the principal Miracles recorded in the New Testament

IX. Particularly of the RESURRECTION of Jesus Christ

- | | | | |
|--|---|---|---------|
| 1. Christ's Prophetic Declaration concerning his Death and Resurrection | - | - | 239—241 |
| 2. Evidence of Adversaries of the Christian Name and Faith to the Reality of this Fact | - | - | 242—248 |

- | | | | |
|--|---|---|----------|
| 3. The Character of the Witnesses | - | - | 248—256 |
| 4. The Miracles wrought by these Witnesses | - | - | 256, 257 |

Concluding Observations on the Resurrection of Christ

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|----------|
| - | - | - | 257, 258 |
|---|---|---|----------|

X. General Summary of the Argument furnished by Miracles

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 259—261 |
|---|---|---|---------|

XI. A Comparison of the Scripture Miracles and pretended Pagan and Popish Miracles

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 261—270 |
|---|---|---|---------|

SECT. III. — On Prophecy.

I. Prophecy defined

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|-----|
| - | - | - | 271 |
|---|---|---|-----|

II. Difference between the pretended Predictions of Heathen Oracles and the Prophecies contained in the Scriptures

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 272—277 |
|---|---|---|---------|

III. Use and Intent of Prophecy

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|-----|
| - | - | - | 278 |
|---|---|---|-----|

IV. Chain of Prophecy, and Classification of Scripture Prophecies

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|-----|
| - | - | - | 279 |
|---|---|---|-----|

CLASS I. Prophecies relating to the Jewish Nation in particular

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 279—284 |
|---|---|---|---------|

CLASS II. Prophecies relating to the Nations or Empires that were Neighbouring to the Jews

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 284—290 |
|---|---|---|---------|

CLASS III. Prophecies directly announcing the Messiah; their Number, Variety, and minute Circumstantiality

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 290—298 |
|---|---|---|---------|

CLASS IV. Prophecies delivered by Jesus Christ and his Apostles

- | | | | |
|---------|---|---|---|
| 298—306 | - | - | - |
|---------|---|---|---|

The five Causes assigned by Mr. Gibbon for the Diffusion of Christianity shown to be inapplicable

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 307—310 |
|---|---|---|---------|

Objections from the alleged Non-Universality of the Christian Religion refuted

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 310—328 |
|---|---|---|---------|

Predictions of the Apostles relative to the Corruptions of Christianity and the Spread of Infidelity

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 328—330 |
|---|---|---|---------|

Objections, taken from the alleged Darkness and Uncertainty of Prophecy, shown to be unfounded

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 331—333 |
|---|---|---|---------|

CHAP. V. — *Internal Evidences of the Inspiration of the Scriptures.*SECT. I. — The System of Doctrine and the Moral Precepts which are delivered in the Scriptures, are so excellent and so perfectly holy, that the Persons, who published them to the World, must have derived them from a purer and more exalted Source than their own Meditations.

§ 1. A Concise View of the Religion of the Patriarchal Times

- | | | | |
|----------|---|---|---|
| 335, 336 | - | - | - |
|----------|---|---|---|

§ 2. A Summary View of the Doctrines and Precepts of the Mosaic Dispensation

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 337—350 |
|---|---|---|---------|

The Mosaic Dispensation Introductory to Christianity

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 350—352 |
|---|---|---|---------|

§ 3. A Summary View of the Doctrines and Precepts of the Gospel Dispensation

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 353—380 |
|---|---|---|---------|

§ 4. On the Objections of Unbelievers to the Doctrine and Morality of the Bible

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---------|
| - | - | - | 381—401 |
|---|---|---|---------|

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06772-0 - An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures:
Volume 1: A Summary of the Evidence for the Genuineness, Authenticity, Uncorrupted
Preservation, and Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures

Thomas Hartwell Horne, Samuel Davidson and Samuel Prideaux Tregelles

Table of Contents

More information

THE FIRST VOLUME.

xxi

SECT. II. — The Harmony and Connection, subsisting between all the Parts of Scripture, are a further Proof of its Authority and Divine Original - - - - -	Pages 402, 403
SECT. III. — The Preservation of the Scriptures is a Proof of their Truth and Divine Origin - - - - -	404
SECT. IV. — The Tendency of the Scriptures, to promote the present and eternal Happiness of Mankind, constitutes another unanswerable Proof of their Divine Inspiration - - - - -	405
I. Appeals of Christian Apologists and Testimonies of Heathen Adversaries to the Effects of the Gospel upon the first Christians - - - - -	406—409
II. Beneficial Effects of Christianity upon Society in general - - - - -	410—412
III. On the Political State of the World - - - - -	413—415
IV. On Literature and the Fine Arts - - - - -	415—419
V. Historical Facts further attesting the Benefits conferred by the Gospel upon the World - - - - -	419—424
VI. Effects produced by Christianity in private Life, compared with those produced by Infidelity - - - - -	424—430
SECT. V. — The Advantages possessed by the Christian Religion over all other Religions, a demonstrative Evidence of its Divine Origin and Authority - - - - -	430
Peculiar Advantages of Christianity over all other Religions, in
I. Its Perfection - - - - -	432
II. Its Openness - - - - -	432
III. Its Adaptation to the State and Capacities of all Men - - - - -	432, 433
IV. The Spirituality of its Worship - - - - -	434
V. Its Opposition to the Spirit of the World - - - - -	434
VI. Its Humiliation of Man, and exalting of the Deity - - - - -	435
VII. Its Restoration of Order to the World - - - - -	435
VIII. Its Tendency to eradicate all evil Passions from the Heart - - - - -	435
IX. Its Contrariety to the Covetousness and Ambition of Mankind - - - - -	435, 436
X. Its restoring the Divine Image to Man - - - - -	436
XI. Its mighty Effects - - - - -	436—438
SECT. VI. — Inability to answer all Objections, no just Cause for rejecting the Scriptures. — Unbelievers in Divine Revelation more credulous than Christians - - - - -	438—445
CHAP. VI. — Recapitulation of the Evidences for the Truth and Divine Authority of the Scriptures. — Moral Qualifications for the Study of the Sacred Writings.
I. Necessity of a Divine Revelation - - - - -	446—449
II. Genuineness and Authenticity of the Scriptures - - - - -	449—451
III. Uncorrupted Preservation of the Scriptures - - - - -	451
IV. Credibility of the Scriptures - - - - -	452
V. Their Divine Inspiration - - - - -	453, 454
VI. The Scriptures, and not Tradition, the only inspired Rule of Faith and Morals - - - - -	454—465
VII. Moral Qualifications for the Study of the Scriptures - - - - -	466, 467

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06772-0 - An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures:
Volume 1: A Summary of the Evidence for the Genuineness, Authenticity, Uncorrupted
Preservation, and Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures

Thomas Hartwell Horne, Samuel Davidson and Samuel Prideaux Tregelles

Table of Contents

More information

xxii

CONTENTS OF

APPENDIX.

NO. I. — *On the Books commonly termed the Apocrypha.*SECT. I. — On the Apocryphal Books attached to the Old Testament.

Derivation of the Term Apocrypha	- - - - -	Page 469
Reasons why the Apocryphal Books were rejected from the Canon of Scripture:—
I. THE APOCRYPHAL BOOKS POSSESS NO INTERNAL AUTHORITY TO PROCURE THEIR ADMISSION INTO THE SACRED CANON.
1. Not one of them is extant in pure ancient Biblical Hebrew	- - - - -	470
2. They were all written subsequently to the cessation of the Prophetic Spirit	- - - - -	470
3. Not one of the Writers or Authors of them, in direct terms, advances any claim to Inspiration	- - - - -	470
4. The Apocryphal Books contain many Things which are either fabulous or contradictory to the Canonical Scriptures in Facts, Doctrines, and Moral Practice, and also contradictory to authentic profane History	- - - - -	471
[i.] Fabulous Statements	- - - - -	471
[ii.] Statements which are contradictory to the History related in the Canonical Books, and to other statements contained in the Apocryphal Books	- - - - -	471, 472
[iii.] Contradictory Doctrines	- - - - -	472
[iv.] Immoral Practices commended in the Apocryphal Books, which practices are prohibited in the Scriptures	- - - - -	473
[v.] Passages in the Apocryphal Books which are so inconsistent with the relations of all other profane Historians, that they cannot be admitted without much greater Evidence than belongs to these Books	- - - - -	473
II. THE APOCRYPHAL BOOKS POSSESS NO EXTERNAL EVIDENCE TO PROCURE THEIR ADMISSION INTO THE SACRED CANON.
1. They were never received into the Sacred Canon by the ancient Jewish Church; and therefore they were not sanctioned either by Jesus or by his divinely inspired Apostles	- - - - -	474—479
2. No Jewish Writers, subsequent to the time of Jesus Christ, have cited the Apocryphal Books as forming part of their Canon of Scripture. On the contrary, many eminent Jewish Writers have altogether rejected them	- - - - -	479
3. The Apocryphal Books were not admitted into the Canon of the divinely inspired Scriptures in any Catalogue of the Sacred Books recognised by any Council of the ancient Christian Church, nor in any Catalogues published by the Fathers or Ecclesiastical Writers of the first four Centuries	- - - - -	480—499
4. Testimonies of the principal later Divines of the Eastern or Greek Church, and of the Latin or Western Church, from the fifth to the fifteenth Century, that the Apocryphal Books form no part of the Canon of divinely inspired Scripture	- - - - -	499—502
5. Confessions of learned Romanists in the sixteenth Century, who lived before, during, and after the so-called Council of Trent, that the Apocryphal Books are no part of the Canon of the divinely inspired Scriptures	- - - - -	503—505
6. The Apocryphal Books are rejected by the Oriental or Greek Church from the Canon of Scripture	- - - - -	505, 506
The uninspired Apocryphal Books placed in the same rank with the inspired Writings by the modern so-called Council of Trent	- - - - -	507
III. Actual Value of the Apocryphal Books	- - - - -	509, 510

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06772-0 - An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures:
Volume 1: A Summary of the Evidence for the Genuineness, Authenticity, Uncorrupted
Preservation, and Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures

Thomas Hartwell Horne, Samuel Davidson and Samuel Prideaux Tregelles

Table of Contents

More information

THE FIRST VOLUME.

xxiii

SECT. II. — On the Writings usually called the Apocryphal Books of the New Testament.
I. Enumeration of these Apocryphal Writings	Pages 511, 512
II. External Evidence to show that they were never considered as inspired or canonical	512—515
III. Internal Evidence	515—525
IV. These Apocryphal Books are so far from affecting the Credibility of the genuine Books of the New Testament, that the latter are confirmed by them	525—527
NO. II. — On the Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures.
I. Nature of Inspiration	527, 528
II. Observations on the Inspiration of the Old Testament	528, 529
III. And of the New Testament	529—532
IV. Conclusions derived from these Considerations	532—536
NO. III. — On the Ascension of Jesus Christ
	536—538
NO. IV. — On the Descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles
	538—541
NO. V. — Examination of the Difficulties attendant on the Propagation of Christianity
	542—549
NO. VI. — A Table of the chief Prophecies relative to the Messiah
	549
CHAP. I. — The principal Prophecies relative to the Messiah, with their Accomplishment, in the very Words of the New Testament
	549
SECT. I. — Prophecies relative to the Advent, Person, Sufferings, Resurrection, and Ascension of the Messiah
	549—555
SECT. II. — Predictions relative to the Offices of the Messiah
	555—562
CHAP. II. — The principal Predictions by Jesus Christ, relative to his Sufferings, Death, Resurrection, the Spread of the Gospel, and the Destruction of Jerusalem
	562
SECT. I. — Predictions (for the Confirmation of his Disciples' Faith) that they would find Things according to his Word
	562
SECT. II. — Predictions of Jesus Christ, relative to his Sufferings, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension
	563—566
SECT. III. — Prophecies by Jesus Christ, relative to the Destruction of Jerusalem
	566—576
SECT. IV. — That there is Salvation only through Christ—and the Danger of rejecting it
	576, 577
NO. VII. — Proofs of the Genuineness of Josephus's Testimony concerning Jesus Christ
	578—582
NO. VIII. — Alleged Contradictions to Philosophy and the Nature of Things
	582—596
NO. IX. — On the Contradictions to Morality, falsely alleged to exist in the Scriptures
	597—612
INDEX	613—624