

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06997-7 - An Encyclopaedia of Cottage, Farm, and Villa Architecture and Furniture

J. C. Loudon

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

	Page		Page
Preface	v	List of Books quoted	xv
List of Engravings	xii	List of Contributors	xix

INTRODUCTION - - - - - 1

BOOK I.

DESIGNS FOR LABOURERS' AND MECHANICS' COTTAGES, AND FOR DWELLINGS FOR GARDENERS AND BAILIFFS, AND OTHER UPPER SERVANTS, AND FOR SMALL FARMERS AND CULTIVATORS OF THEIR OWN LAND.

CHAP. I.

Model Designs for Cottages, exhibiting in each Model all the Accommodations and Arrangements for Comfort and Convenience of which the smallest Dwellings of this Class are susceptible

I. A Cottage of One Story; combining all the Accommodation and Conveniences of which human Dwellings of that Description are susceptible

II. A Cottage of One Story; combining the Accommodations and Conveniences of Design I, differently arranged, and with the Addition of a Veranda

III. A Cottage of Two Stories; combining the Accommodations and Conveniences of Design I, differently arranged, and with an additional Bed-room

CHAP. II.

A miscellaneous Collection of Designs for Cottage Dwellings, with Critical and Analytical Remarks

IV. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, without Children

V. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, with Two or more Children, with a Cow-house and Pigsty

VI. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, with an Apprentice, Servant, or grown-up Son or Daughter

VII. A Dwelling of Two Rooms, and a Back Kitchen, for a Man and his Wife

VIII. A Dwelling of Two Rooms, for a Man and his Wife

IX. A Dwelling in the Swiss Style, for a married Couple and Family, with a Cow-house and Pigsty

X. A Dwelling for a married Couple and One Child, with a Pigsty

XI. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, and One or Two Children, with a Cow-house and Pigsty

XII. A Dwelling of Two Stories, for a Man and his Wife, with a Servant and Two or Three Children, with a Cow-house and Pigsty

XIII. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, with Two or more Children

XIV. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, with One Servant, and a grown-up Son or Daughter

XV. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, without Children

XVI. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, without Children

XVII. A Dwelling with Two Rooms and a Bed-closet, for a Man and his Wife, with an Apprentice or Servant

XVIII. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, without Children

XIX. A Dwelling of Two Rooms, for a Man and his Wife, without Children

XX. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, with Children, and having a Cow-house, Pigsty, &c., attached

XXI. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, without Children

XXII. A Dwelling for a Gardener, or other Servant, on a Gentleman's Estate, who has a Wife, but no Children

XXIII. A Dwelling of One Story, for a Man and his Wife with a Family of Children; having a Cow-house and Pigsty attached

XXIV. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, without Children, having Two Rooms, and other Conveniences

XXV. A Dwelling for a Working Man, with a Family of Children

XXVI. A Cottage Dwelling in the German Swiss Style, for a Man and his Family, with Accommodation for two Horses and a Cow

XXVII. A Dwelling for a Man and his Wife, with Children, or a Servant, with the usual Conveniences in a detached Building

XXVIII. A Cottage in the Old English Manner, containing a Kitchen, Living Room, and Two Bed-rooms

XXIX. A Cottage Dwelling of Three Rooms, with various Conveniences

XXX. A Cottage Dwelling with Five Rooms, and various Conveniences

XXXI. A Dwelling with Five Rooms, with Conveniences, in the Old English Style, where the building Material is chiefly Stone

XXXII. A Cottage Dwelling with Two Sitting-Rooms, in the Old English Manner, where Timber, Brick, and Slate are the Materials used for the Walls and Roof

XXXIII. Two Cottage Dwellings, under the same Roof; each having Two Rooms and other Conveniences

XXXIV. A Cottage Dwelling of Two Rooms, intended as a Gate Lodge

XXXV. A Cottage Dwelling of Three Rooms, with Back Kitchen, Cow-house, and other Conveniences

XXXVI. A Dwelling with Four Rooms, a Back Kitchen, and other Conveniences

XXXVII. A Dwelling of Four Rooms, with other Conveniences, intended as a Lodge, or a House for a Bailiff or Head Gardener

XXXVIII. A Dwelling of Three Rooms, with a Back Kitchen, and other Conveniences, intended as a Porter's Lodge, or Gardener's House

XXXIX. Two Dwellings for Country Labourers, under One Roof, with Two Rooms in each, and other Conveniences

XL. Two Cottages of Three Rooms each, under the same Roof, with Cow-house, Pigsty, and other Conveniences to each

XLI. Six Cottages grouped together, with a view to Economy in building them

XLI.I. A Cottage of Three Rooms, in the Elizabethan Style

XLI.III. A Cottage of Three Rooms, with Back

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06997-7 - An Encyclopaedia of Cottage, Farm, and Villa Architecture and Furniture

J. C. Loudon

Table of Contents

More information

viii

CONTENTS.

	Page		Page
Kitchen, Cow-house, and other Conveniences	158	LXIX. A Cottage Dwelling, in the Old English Style, with Kitchen, Parlour, Business Room, Three Bedchambers, and other Conveniences	212
XLIV. A Cottage of Three Rooms and a Back Kitchen on the Ground Floor, with various Conveniences	163	LXX. A Cottage Dwelling of Four Rooms, with other Conveniences	214
XLV. A Dwelling of Four Rooms, with Back Kitchen, and other Conveniences	163	LXXI. A Castellated Lodge, as a Dwelling for a Gardener or other Upper Servant, on a Gentleman's Estate	214
XLVI. A Cottage Dwelling of Four Rooms, with a Back Kitchen, Cellar, and other Conveniences	164	LXXII. A Dwelling of Six Rooms, with various Conveniences	223
XLVII. Two Cottages for Country Labourers, under One Roof, with Four Rooms in each, Back Kitchen, Pigsty, and other Conveniences	168	LXXIII. A Dwelling, Three Stories high, with Four Rooms, and various Conveniences	224
XLVIII. A Dwelling of Four Rooms, with a Back Kitchen, and other Conveniences	175	LXXIV. Design for a Cottage Dwelling, in the Old English Style, and of a Construction suitable for having Part of the Walls covered with Weather Tiling	227
XLIX. A Dwelling suitable for a Lodge or Toll-house, having Three Rooms, and other Conveniences	176	LXXV. A Cottage in the Old English Manner, containing on the Ground Floor a Living-Room, Kitchen, and other Conveniences, with Two Bed-rooms over	231
L. A Cottage Dwelling of Four Rooms, with other Conveniences	176	LXXVI. A Cottage Dwelling One Story high, containing Six Rooms, a Wash-house, and other Conveniences	236
LI. A Cottage Dwelling of Six Rooms, with other Conveniences	179	LXXVII. The Model Cottages of the Labourer's Friend Society, as erected at Shooter's Hill, Kent	237
LII. Ideas for altering the Front of an old Cottage, at present in a dilapidated State	181	LXXVIII. Six Cottage Dwellings, built at Abersychan, near Pontypool, in South Wales, with One common Wash-house and Bakehouse	238
LIII. A Cottage for a Village Tradesman	182	LXXIX. Twelve or more Cottages in a Row, with a Kitchen, Wash-house, and other Conveniences in common; the whole heated by the Fires in the Public Kitchen	241
LIV. Two Cottage Dwellings for Labourers, under One Roof	184	LXXX. Eighty Dwellings of the humblest Class, placed together, with a view of being heated by One common Fire, and enjoying other Benefits, on the Cooperative System	244
LV. A Cottage of One Story, with Four Rooms, a Kitchen, and other Conveniences	186	LXXXI. A portable Cottage for the Use of Emigrants and others	251
LVI. A Dwelling of Four Rooms, with other Conveniences, and a large Rustic Portico	190
LVII. Two Dwellings under One Roof, Two Stories high, with Four Rooms in each, and other Conveniences	191	CHAP. III.
LVIII. A Labourer's Cottage of Two Rooms, with other Conveniences	192	Designs and Directions for Exterior and Interior Finishing, as connected with Furnishing, and for the Fittings-up, Fixtures, and Furniture of Cottage Dwellings	258
LIX. Two Cottages of One Room and a Back Kitchen each, under the same Roof	196	SECT. I. Designs and Directions for the Exterior Finishing of Cottage Dwellings	259
LX. Two Dwellings under One Roof, each containing Four Rooms, with a Back Kitchen and other Conveniences	196	SECT. II. Designs and Directions for the Interior Finishing of Cottage Dwellings	272
LXI. A Dwelling of Three Rooms on the Ground Floor, with a Back Kitchen and other Conveniences	197	SECT. III. Designs and Directions for Internal Fittings-up for Cottage Dwellings	281
LXII. A Dwelling of Four Rooms on Two Floors, with various Conveniences	201	SECT. IV. Designs and Directions for Fixtures for Cottage Dwellings	282
LXIII. Two Dwellings of Two Rooms each, under One Roof	202	SECT. V. Designs and Directions for Cottage Furniture and Furnishing	298
LXIV. Two Dwellings under One Roof, each Three Stories high, and having Three Rooms, and other Conveniences	202
LXV. A Dwelling of Three Rooms, with other Conveniences	205
LXVI. A Cottage Dwelling of Two Rooms, with a Smithy, Shoeing-shed, and Three-stalled Stable	205
LXVII. A Cottage Dwelling of Five Rooms, in Two Floors	211
LXVIII. A Dwelling of Four Rooms, with other Conveniences	211

BOOK II.

DESIGNS FOR FARM HOUSES AND FARMERIES, COUNTRY INNS AND PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS.

CHAP. I.
Designs for Farm Houses and Farmeries, exhibiting various Degrees of Accommodation, from the Farm of 50 to that of 1000 Acres, suitable to different Kinds of Farming, and in different Styles of Architecture	354
SECT. I. General Principles and Model Designs for Farm Houses and Farmeries	355
1. General Principles and Model Designs for the Arrangement of a Farm House	355
2. Fundamental Principles, Directions, and Model Designs, for the Construction and Arrangement of the various Parts which compose a Farmery	373
CHAP. II.
A Collection of miscellaneous Designs for Farm Houses and Farmeries, in different Styles of Architecture, and adapted to different Kinds of Farms; with Specifications, Estimates, and accompanying Remarks	418
SECT. I. Miscellaneous Designs	418
I. A Bailiff's Cottage, in the Old English Style, intended for the Manager of a Farm in the Neighbourhood of London	418
II. A Farmery in the Old English Style, chiefly calculated for Dairy Husbandry, and conducted by a Bailiff, for the Proprietor of the Land	434
III. A Farm House and Farmery suitable for a Farm of 600 Acres of Turnip Soil, executed at Halstone, in Dumfriesshire	441
IV. A Farm House and Farmery suitable for an extensive Turnip Farm, executed at Gatestack, in Dumfriesshire	445
V. A Farm House and Farmery for a Farm of 150 Acres of Arable and Pasture Land in Buckinghamshire	448
VI. A Farm House and Farmery for a Farm of 600 Acres of Turnip Soil, in Ayrshire, under a Rotation of Five Years, and em-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06997-7 - An Encyclopaedia of Cottage, Farm, and Villa Architecture and Furniture

J. C. Loudon

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

ix

	Page		Page
ployed partly in breeding and partly in feeding Stock	452	Haddingtonshire; consisting of 500 Arable Acres under a Six-course Shift	528
VII. A Farm House and Farmery for Three Ploughs, erected at Ingliston in Dumfriesshire	454	XXXV. A Farm House and Farmery at Elcho Castle, Perthshire, adapted for a Farm of Six Ploughs, under the Turnip Husbandry	537
VIII. A Farm House and Farmery for Three Ploughs, erected at Alton, in Dumfriesshire	457	XXXVI. A Public House and Farmery; the Publican being, at the same time, a small Farmer and a Butcher	544
IX. A Farm House and Farmery for a small Farm for breeding Sheep and Cattle, erected at Holecleugh, in Dumfriesshire	457	XXXVII. A House and Out-buildings for a Cheese Dairy Farm of from 500 to 350 Acres, in Cheshire	545
X. A Farm House and Farmery for a Farm of Two Ploughs, erected on the Grebten Estate, in Dumfriesshire	459	XXXVIII. A Mixed Stock Farm, in a high (hilly) Country, employing only One Pair of Horses	546
XI. A Farm House and Farmery for Four Ploughs, designed, and in Part executed in Dumfriesshire	460	XXXIX. A Farmery for a Garden Farm of 200 Acres, situated near a Town, employed wholly in Tillage, where no Stock is kept but Horses and Family Cows, and where the whole Produce is sold	549
XII. The Villa Residence and Farmery of Riddenwood, in the Parish of Kirkinahoe, Dumfriesshire, in the Occupation of the Proprietor, James Kerr, Esq.	462	XL. A Farmery for a Farm of 500 Acres, kept in a Rotation of Corn Crops and Pasture, producing Turnips, and employed partly in breeding and partly in feeding Stock	551
XIII. A Farm House and Farmery for 100 Acres of Land, to be cultivated on the Norfolk System, with a Flour Mill driven by Wind	471	XLI. A Farmery for a Farm of 500 Acres of Arable Turnip Land, kept under alternate Corn and Pasture, and employed in breeding and in feeding Stock, as well as in sending Corn to Market	552
XIV. A Farm House and Farmery for a Farm of Two Ploughs, in the County of Northumberland	475	XLII. A Dairy Farm of 500 Acres, kept in a Rotation of Corn Crops and Grass; One half being supposed to be in Hay or Pasture	552
XV. The Farm House and Offices at Cocklaw East Farm, on the Beaufront Estate, Northumberland	476	XLIII. A Farmery for a Clay Land Arable Farm of 500 Acres, not producing Turnips, and kept chiefly, or wholly, in Tillage	554
XVI. A Farm House and Farmery for Seven Ploughs, executed at Newham Barus, in Northumberland	477	XLIV. A Farmery for a Farm of 150 Acres, kept in a Rotation of Crops and Pasture, producing Turnips and Potatoes; and employed partly in feeding and partly in breeding Stock	555
XVII. A Farm House and Farmery for Fourteen Ploughs, suited to the Northumbrian Husbandry	479	XLV. A Farmery for a Cottage Farm of 25 Acres	556
XVIII. A Farm House and Farmery for Ten Ploughs, Ten Cows, Twenty Young Cattle, and other Live Stock, adapted to the Husbandry of Northumberland	482	XLVI. A Farmery for a Cottage Farm of 30 Acres, with Remarks, showing how it may be extended so as to serve for a Farm of 50, 80, or 100 Acres	557
XIX. A Farmery of Five Ploughs, with Cows, Cattle, and other Stock in Proportion, suitable for the Northumbrian Husbandry	484	Secr. II. Examples showing the Manner of displaying Architectural Style in Farm Buildings	560
XX. A Farm House and Farmery for Three Ploughs, adapted to the Northumbrian System of Culture	485	Secr. III. On constructing temporary, portable, and ambulatory Farmeries; and on altering Mansions, Monasteries, Manufactories, and other Buildings, so as to render them fit for Agricultural Purposes	566
XXI. The Farm House and Offices for a Farm of Six Ploughs, called Hallington New Houses, on the Beaufront Estate, in Northumberland	486	Secr. IV. Designs for various Buildings, such as Corn Mills, Kilns, Malt-houses, Cider-houses, &c., connected with Agriculture and Rural Economy	568
XXII. The Farmery at Calley, in Kirkcudbrightshire, suitable for a Galloway Crop and Pasture Farm of 400 Acres	496	I. The Construction of a Building for containing the Machinery of a Corn Mill to be impelled by Water, with introductory Observations on Buildings for Mills generally, on Flour Mills, and on the different Kinds of Water-wheels	568
XXIII. A Farmery for a small French Farm, as given by Morel-Vindé	497	II. The Construction of a Building for containing the Machinery and Apartments belonging to a Vertical Windmill, with Remarks on the different Kinds of Windmills	583
XXIV. A Farm House and Farmery suitable for a Farm of from 300 to 500 Acres in France	499	III. A Malt Kiln, with the requisite Appendages, and Directions for their Use	589
XXV. For a Court of Feeding-houses, built for the late Thomas Hibbert, Esq., at Chalfont Lodge, Buckinghamshire	508	IV. A Hop-oast, or Kiln for drying Hops	592
XXVI. A Farmery for extensive Ironworks, erected at Abersychan, near Pontypool, in South Wales	511	V. A Hop-kiln, or Oast, on an improved Principle, erected in 1832, at Teston, in Kent	595
XXVII. A Farmery for a Farm of 250 Acres, in the Valley of Strathmore, where a Rotation of Seven Crops is followed, the Grass Division being pastured the Second Year	512	VI. An improved Limekiln	600
XXVIII. A Farmery for a particular Situation, suitable for 80 Acres of Arable Land, and 300 Acres of Pasture, in the Carse of Gowrie	514	VII. A Kiln for burning Bricks or Tiles, or other Earthenware used in the Construction of Buildings; and which may also be used as a Kiln for burning Lime or Clay for Manure, or coking Coal or Peat, or charring Wood, impregnating Timber with Pyroligneous Acid, Kiln-drying Corn, or drying Corn in the Sheaf in Wet Seasons, and for other Agricultural Purposes	605
XXIX. The Farm House and Farmery of Starston Place, near Harleston, in Norfolk, suitable for a Farm of 350 Acres under the Norfolk System of Culture	516	VIII. A Cider house, Mill, and Press, according to the Plan most generally approved of in the Counties of Hereford and Worcester	609
XXX. A Farmery for a Farm of 300 Acres of Arable Land, and 500 of Pasture, in the West Highlands	519	IX. A Cider-house, Mill, and Press, with the different Implements connected with Cider-making	615
XXXI. A Farmery for 200 Acres of Arable Land, and 300 of Pasture, in the West of Scotland	520	X. A House for breeding and fattening Poultry on a large Scale, with Remarks on their
XXXII. A Farm House and Farmery for 200 Acres of Arable Land, and 300 of Pasture, in Ross-shire	522
XXXIII. A Farm House and Farmery for 500 Acres, half Pasture and half Arable, erected at —, in the Parish of Tarbat, Ross-shire	523
XXXIV. The Farmery at Greendykes, in a

	Page		Page
Management, and on the Suitableness of Poultry as Live Stock for the Farm Labourer; and Designs for altering or building their Cottages accordingly	622	besides public Rooms, Thirty Bed-rooms, and Stabling for Twenty Horses	678
SECT. V. Designs for Farmery Dwellings for Ploughmen and other yearly Servants employed on the Farm	627	II. A small Country Inn, with Stabling, Skittle-ground, Tea-garden, and Bowling-green	630
I. Two Ploughmen's Cottages, such as are in common Use in the Carse of Gowrie; with a Notice of the Bothies, or Lodges for single Men, in the same District	629	III. A small Village Inn, or Alehouse, in the Italian Gothic Manner	632
II. Two Country Labourers' Cottages, built at Showerdown Braes, on the Beaufront Estate, in Northumberland	631	IV. An Inn in the Italian Style	635
III. Two Ploughmen's Cottages, in a Village near Salisbury, Wiltshire	632	V. A Suburban Public House in the Old English Style	636
IV. A double Cottage for Farm Labourers, erected in Gloucestershire, on the Estate of William Lawrence, Esq., near Cirencester	634	VI. A Hedge Alehouse of the smallest Size	639
V. A double Cottage, intended for Farm Labourers, in Gloucestershire	635	VII. A Country Public House in the Italian Style	692
VI. A Cottage for a Farm Labourer and his Wife, without Children	639	VIII. A small Inn or Public House in the Swiss Style	693
VII. A Cottage for a Farm Labourer with several Children; or a Bothy (a Boothie, or little Booth) for three unmarried Ploughmen	642	SECT. III. Of the Finishing, Fittings-up, Fixtures, and Furniture of Country Inns and Public Houses	695
VIII. The improved Farm Labourer's Cottage of France, as given by Morel-Vindé	643	1. Of the Finishing, Fittings-up, Fixtures, and Furniture of the Bar of an Inn or Public House	695
IX. A double Cottage for Farm Labourers, with Places between the Two Dwellings for hatching and fattening Poultry early in the Season	64	2. Of the Finishing, Fittings-up, Fixtures, and Furniture for the other Offices of Inns	698
SECT. VI. Of the Exterior and Interior Finishing, and the Fittings-up and Furniture, of Farm Houses and Farmeries	650	3. Of the Finishing, Fittings-up, Fixtures, and Furniture of the Inn generally	702
1. Of the Finishing, Fittings-up, and Furniture of the Farm House, and the Offices of the Kitchen Court	650	4. Of the Finishing, Fittings-up, Fixtures, and Furniture of the Kitchen and Scullery of Inns and Public Houses	707
2. Of the Finishing, Fixtures, Fittings-up, and Furniture of Farmeries	662	CHAP. IV.	-
CHAP. III.	-	Designs for Parochial Schools	726
Designs for Country Inns and Public Houses of various Degrees of Accommodation, from the Hedge Alehouse to the Mansion Inn, with its Gardens, Farm, and Park	675	SECT. I. Of the Fundamental Principles, and the Rules derived from these Principles, for designing and fitting up Schools for the Education of Children in Masses	727
SECT. I. General Principles for composing Model Designs for Country Inns and Public Houses	676	1. Fundamental Principles, and General Rules deduced from them, for designing Schools for Infant Instruction	727
SECT. II. Miscellaneous Designs for Country Inns and Public Houses	678	2. Fundamental Principles, and Rules deduced from them, for designing Schools for Mutual Instruction	730
I. A Country Inn in the Italian Style; having,		SECT. II. Miscellaneous Designs for Parochial Schools	740
		I. A Parochial School, in two Stories, for 400 Children, with a House for the Master and Mistress	740
		II. A Parochial School, in One Story, for 100 Boys and 80 Girls, including a Residence for the Master and Mistress	751
		III. A Country School, in the Italian Style, including a Dwelling for the Master and Mistress	757
		SECT. III. Of the Finishing, Fittings-up, Fixtures, and Furniture of Parochial Schools	758

BOOK III.

DESIGNS FOR VILLAS, WITH VARIOUS DEGREES OF ACCOMMODATION, AND IN DIFFERENT STYLES OF ARCHITECTURE.

	Page		Page
CHAP. I.	-	House and Offices, and their relative Connection with the Gardens and Grounds	823
The Fundamental Principles of laying out a Villa, including the House and the Grounds	763	III. A Suburban Villa of Two Acres and a half, the House and Grounds built and laid out by an Architect for his own Residence	826
SECT. I. Of the Choice of a Situation for a Villa Residence	763	IV. A Villa in the Anglo-Italian Style, with Three principal Rooms, and with a Stable and Coach-house	834
SECT. II. Of the Position of the House, and the Arrangement of the Grounds of a Villa Residence	767	V. A Parsonage House for a particular Situation in Somersetshire	841
SECT. III. Of adapting the Architectural Style and interior Arrangement of the House to the Character of the Situation	773	VI. A Cottage Villa in the Gothic Style	844
CHAP. II.	-	VII. A Villa in the Old English Manner, adapted to a gently elevated Situation, with good Views on three Sides	846
The Beau Idéal of an English Villa	790	VIII. The Villa of Hannayfield, the Residence of—Hannay, Esq., in the Neighbourhood of Dumfries	850
SECT. I. The Beau Idéal of an English Villa described	790	IX. A small Villa, or Parsonage, in the Italian Style	853
SECT. II. Map of the Demesne and Park, and Ground Plan and Elevations of the House of Beau Idéal Villa	813	X. A Cottage Villa, showing how Advantage may be taken of a sloping Bank	855
CHAP. III.	-	XI. A Villa in the Modern Style of Architecture, Fire-proof, and suitable for a Marine Residence, for the occasional Occupation or the permanent Abode of a small Family of Fortune	859
Miscellaneous Designs for Villas, with various Degrees of Accommodation, and in different Styles of Architecture	821	XII. A double Suburban Villa, adapted for a particular Situation in the Suburbs of Leicester	870
I. A Grecian Villa, of a medium Size, for a Gentleman of Fortune	821
II. The Accommodations of a Villa of moderate Size, exhibited in the Ground Plan of the

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-06997-7 - An Encyclopaedia of Cottage, Farm, and Villa Architecture and Furniture

J. C. Loudon

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xi

	Page		Page
XIII. A small Grecian Villa or Casino, to be placed on an Eminence, commanding extensive Prospects in two Directions only	877
XIV. A Villa in the Old Scotch Style, erected, in 1831, at Springfield, near Glasgow	879
XV. A Mansion in the Style of a Scotch Baronial House of the Sixteenth Century, with the Accommodation and Arrangements suitable to a Villa of the Nineteenth Century	885
XVI. A Cottage Villa, built at Chailley, in Sussex, for General St. John	890
XVII. A Villa in the Old English Style, the Idea taken from the Ruins of Berwick House in Wiltshire	893
XVIII. A Villa Residence in the Tudor or Old English Style	897
XIX. A Villa in the Grecian Style, for a large Family, residing chiefly in the Country, with an Income of from 6000 l. to 10,000 l. a Year	914
XX. A Villa for a small Family, in the castellated Style of Gothic Architecture	919
XXI. A Villa in the latest Style of pointed Architecture, with an Essay on the Application of that Style to domestic Purposes	920
XXII. A Villa in the Gothic Style	946
XXIII. An Italian Villa on a considerable Scale	946
CHAP. IV.
Designs for Appendages to Villas	963
SECT. I. Stable Offices	963
SECT. II. Riding-Houses	966
SECT. III. Dog-Kennels	971
SECT. IV. Ornamental Dairies and Poultry-Houses	973
SECT. V. Aviaries and Menageries	975
SECT. VI. Architectural Conservatories	975
SECT. VII. Terrace Parapets and other mural Ornaments	982
SECT. VIII. Ornamental Garden Structures	985
SECT. IX. Entrance Lodges and Gates	997
		CHAP. V.
		Of the Finishing, Fittings-up, and Fixtures of Villas	1007
		SECT. I. Of the Exterior Finishing of Villas	1007
		SECT. II. Of the Interior Finishing of Villas	1010
		SECT. III. Of the Fixtures and Fittings-up of Villas	1018
		1. Of the Fittings-up and Fixtures of Villa Offices	1018
		2. Of the Fittings-up and Fixtures of the Dwelling-rooms of Villas	1027
		CHAP. VI.
		Of the Furniture of Villas	1039
		SECT. I. Grecian and Modern Furniture for Villas	1039
		1. Furniture for Villa Offices	1040
		2. Grecian and Modern Furniture for the Porch, Entrance Hall, and Billiard-room	1040
		3. Grecian and Modern Furniture for the ParLOUR and Dining-rooms	1043
		4. Grecian and Modern Furniture for the Library	1053
		5. Grecian and Modern Furniture for the Drawingroom and Music-room	1058
		6. Grecian and Modern Furniture for Bed-rooms and Dressing-rooms	1079
		7. Nursery Furniture	1086
		SECT. II. Gothic Furniture for Villas	1088
		1. Gothic Furniture for Halls	1088
		2. Gothic Furniture for Parlours and Dining-rooms	1089
		3. Gothic Furniture for a Library	1092
		4. Gothic Furniture for a Drawingroom	1094
		5. Gothic Furniture for Bed-rooms	1097
		SECT. III. Elizabethan and Mixed Ancient Furniture for Villas	1098

BOOK IV.

THE PRINCIPLES OF CRITICISM IN ARCHITECTURE.

CHAP. I.		CHAP. III.
Of the Principle of Fitness as applied to Architecture	1106	Of the Expression of Architectural Style	1114
		SECT. I. Of the universal and inherent Beauties of Architectural Composition	1114
		SECT. II. Of the different Styles of Architecture	1122
CHAP. II.
Of the Expression of the End in View, in Architecture	1112		