

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07111-6 - New Land: Four Years in the Arctic Regions: Volume 2

Otto Neumann Sverdrup Translated by Ethel Harriet Hearn

Index

More information

INDEX

- AAMOT, ii. 150
 Alexandra Fjord, i. 38, 41, 70, 152, 183, 195; polar-ox shooting in, i. 72
 Amund Ringnes Land, ii. 296
Arctic For, the, an Arctic newspaper, rival to the Friendly One, i. 82
 Arctic Ocean fester, a local blood-poisoning, ii. 9
 Arthur Fjord (formerly known as Arthur Strait), known to be a fjord, ii. 44, 412, 414; cairn built by Sir E. Belcher in 1853, found, ii. 412; small cache made, ii. 412
 Axel Heiberg Land, i. 373, ii. 275, 370, 371; Easter in, i. 373-376; animal life in, i. 420, 424; camp in, ii. 224, 249; herds of oxen seen, ii. 224; explorations from thence, ii. 225-249
- BAADODDEN (Boat Point), ii. 312, 419; black guillemots, eiders, and walruses, ii. 313
 Baadsfjord (Boat Fjord), seals on, i. 226; captivity in, i. 227-235; game on, i. 227; the 'boat'-house in, i. 228; an unpalatable dish, i. 229; a store of food left on, i. 234; other visits paid to, i. 242-244, 272, 282, 333, ii. 416; an awkward bear-hunt, i. 244-247
 Baadsfjordnuten, 'Nuten' (Boat Fjord Peak), in Jones Sound, i. 223, 268-331; disappointing loss of food at, i. 272; cairn built and records of expedition left here, ii. 407, 408
 Bache Peninsula (formerly known as Bache Island), i. 39, 100, 106; fish depot formed on, i. 100; geologically examined by Schei, i. 150
 Bartlett, Captain, of the 'Windward,' Peary's expedition, i. 115; visits the 'Fram,' i. 200
 Bartlett, mate of the 'Windward,' Peary's expedition, i. 115
 Baumann, Captain Victor, appointed second in command of the 'Fram' expedition, i. 2; he and Hassel visit Peary, i. 109-117; he and Raanes on sledge-journey to Norskebugten, i. 484-488; with Hendriksen on sledge-journey, ii. 149; with Stolz on sledge-journey to map East Norskebugten, ii. 149, 264-272; a moment of great danger, ii. 265-268
 Baumann Fjord, in King Oscar Land, ii. 138, 149, 153, 190, 356. See Norskebugten, East
 Bay, Edvard, zoologist of the expedition, i. 3; kills a seal in Melville Bay, i. 22; appointed 'commandant' of the depot at Björneborg for three months, i. 317; receives visitors, i. 428, 487, 488; describes his hermit life, i. 433-458; kills his first bears, i. 440, 451; keeps May 17th in style, i. 445; is left guard at meat depot, Ytre Eide, and is kept busy, ii. 333, 335-346; writes a novel, 'Gunhild,' for Christmas, 1901, ii. 351; his Report, ii. 477-483
 Bay Fjord, i. 137, ii. 289, 392; explored by Fosheim, ii. 290
 Bears, polar, i. 247, 277-279, 355, ii. 7, 72, 165-167, 417 and passim; bears visit the 'Fram,' i. 142, 214, 215; an awkward hunt in Baadsfjord, i. 245-247; a bear stalking a seal, i. 271; does the bear hybernate? i. 307; a Sunday bear, finest and fiercest of the whole expedition, ii. 165; strange conduct of a bear, ii. 185; very plentiful in Greely Fjord in 1901, but few met with in 1902, ii. 357; Bay's experiences, ii. 330-346; a fortunate arrival, ii. 406
 Beechey Island, expedition to, by Baumann, Fosheim, and Raanes, to correct chronometers, and seek the cutter 'Mary,' left by Sir John Ross in 1850, ii. 355, 412-415; not an island, but constitutes extreme south-west corner of North Devon, ii. 413; English depot examined and found despoiled of everything useful, ii. 413; the cutter 'Mary' apparently wantonly dismantled and destroyed except one unseaworthy lifeboat, ii. 413
 Beitstadfjord, Bay and Isachsen map, i. 63, 158; meat brought from, i. 69; a pleasant summer resort, i. 161
 Beitstadfjord Glacier, i. 178, 182, 187, 414; boundary between Ellesmere Land and Grinnell Land, i. 182
 Belcher, Sir E. (1850), i. 354, ii. 298, 412; his 'islands' probably 'icebergs,' except Graham and Buckingham Islands, ii. 298
 Belcher Channel, ice-bound in, ii. 48; betting on chances of escape from, ii. 51
 Betting specialists, ii. 31
 Birthdays and festivals, how they were kept on the 'Fram,' i. 80-83
 Björneborg, i. 316-325, 333, 485, 490, ii. 434; exploration work, i. 31; a valley extends to Moskusfjord, i. 319; Björneborg is made a meat depot, and Bay stays there three months as 'commandant,' i. 317, 433, 458; Baumann and

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07111-6 - New Land: Four Years in the Arctic Regions: Volume 2

Otto Neumann Sverdrup Translated by Ethel Harriet Hearn

Index

More information

496

INDEX.

- others visit Bay at, with meat for the depot, i. 428, 487, 488; Fosheim succeeds Bay as 'commandant', ii. 9
- Bjørnebugten (Bear Bay), ii. 419
- Björnekaplandet, ii. 249 and note, 272, 273, 356, 399, 403, 406
- Bjørneleiren (Bear Camp), ii. 361
- Bjørneodden (Bear Point), north coast of North Devon, ii. 417
- Björnesund (Bear Sound), i. 483, ii. 241; observations taken, ii. 395
- Björnesvingen (Bear Corner), ii. 356
- Blaafjeld (Blue Mountain), opposite Greely Fjord, ii. 204, 362, 365; teeming with hares, ii. 367
- Blaamanden (The Blue Man), in King Oscar Land, ii. 191, 213, 386
- Böfelfjord (Buffalo Fjord), ii. 465
- Borgen, a high summit inside Ytre Eide, used as a look-out, ii. 330, 426
- Borgenodden (Borgen Point), ii. 429
- Botanical results of the expedition. See Appendix, ii. 467
- Bræbugten (Glacier Bay), east of Cape Sparbo, ii. 417
- Braskerud, Ove, member of the expedition, i. 4; death of, i. 237; cross to his memory, i. 323, ii. 37, 439
- Braskerudflya, in the glaciated portion of Ellesmere Land, i. 174, 177
- Brevooert Island, i. 168, 193, 194, ii. 392
- Bridgman, Mr. (Peary's owner), visits the 'Fram,' i. 200; his kind offer, i. 200
- Buckingham Island, i. 475, ii. 298
- CAMP CLAY, on Pim Island, Greely's camping-ground, i. 28, 88; Svendsen and Olsen visit this scene of horrors, i. 95
- Cañonfjord, ii. 290
- Cape Camperdown, on Bache Peninsula, i. 150, 196, ii. 457, 461
- Cape Dönnning-Hansen (from Lindström's corruption of the title of the old novel, 'Donninghausen'), ii. 308, 331 and note
- Cape Farewell, i. 12; water unusually warm in summer of 1902, ii. 443
- Cape Hawke, i. 199
- Cape Herschel, i. 201
- Cape Isachsen, in Isachsen Land, ii. 297; no open water here, ii. 297
- Cape Levvel (Cape Live Well), i. 409, ii. 1; Independence Day at, i. 410-413
- Cape Lockwood, east of Isfjeldodden, ii. 280
- Cape Nordvest (Cape North-West), i. 408
- Cape Osborn, north of Becchey Island, ii. 414
- Cape Rutherford, i. 35, 39. See Rutherford Peninsula
- Cape Skogn, north coast of North Devon, ii. 418
- Cape Sparbo, a peninsula on the north coast of North Devon, ii. 416
- Cape Svarten (Black Cape), north coast of North Devon, ii. 418
- Cape Sydvest (Cape South-West), i. 367, 413; depot formed on, ii. 147; sledge-journey to, by Isachsen and Hassel, ii. 149, 295-298; Graham Island hidden in fog, ii. 295; discover mountain (Nicolays Fjeld) as the northern extremity of North Cornwall, ii. 296; a sound (Hendriksen) running west, ii. 296; passed Ringholmen, Nathorsts Halvø, Kristoffers Bugt, Danskesundet, Dyrebugten, and due north to Renkappet and to Isachsen Land, ii. 296, 297; the ice long closed here, ii. 297; hard time for dogs, ii. 297; May 17th on Louises Fjord, ii. 297; north-east to Hassel Sound, ii. 298; by Skjærtorsdagskap and De To Kratere to Cape South-West, ii. 298; back to 'Fram' by Graham Island and Nordstrand, ii. 298
- Cape Vera, in North Devon, ii. 42, 43, 311, 424, 433
- Cape With, ii. 280
- Cardigan Strait, ii. 43, 424, 433
- Carey Islands, i. 206
- 'Ceres,' the, of the Royal Greenland Trade, lends the 'Fram' a man, ii. 443
- Children's toys, well-carved bone, found in an ancient Eskimo habitation at Steinkulfjord, ii. 420
- Christiania, the 'Fram' sailed from, June 24, 1898, i. 4; official reception by the Government, and by the municipal authorities at home-coming, Sept. 1902, ii. 449
- Christiansand, i. 5; festivities at, ii. 449; Colin Archer, from Larvik, comes on board the 'Fram' at, ii. 449
- Christmas, how kept on the 'Fram,' (1898), i. 81-83; (1899), i. 307-310; (1900), ii. 119, 120; (1901), ii. 351, 352
- Christmas cakes, i. 82, 307 and note, ii. 351
- Christmas fare, i. 310
- Christmas novel, a, 'Gunhild,' by Bay, ii. 351
- Christmas presents, i. 82, 310
- Christmas tree, ii. 113, 119, 351
- Clarence Head, i. 206
- Clothing and footwear put in order, ii. 325
- Coal discovered in Steinkulfjord, King Oscar Land, ii. 272, 420
- Cobourg Island, i. 209, ii. 440; myriads of sea-birds on, i. 209
- Cocked Hat Island, i. 28, 30, 142, 193
- Colin Archer, Larvik, builder of 'Fram,' i. 2; comes on board at Christiansand, ii. 449
- Colin Archer Peninsula, ii. 41
- Cone Island, in Jones Sound, i. 210, ii. 353, 419, 440; cairn built and records of the expedition left here, ii. 407, 411
- DÆNGE, how prepared, i. 273, 410
- Danskesundet (Danish Sound), ii. 296
- Dedrick, Dr., of the 'Windward,' Peary's expedition, i. 115, 116; visits the 'Fram,' i. 200
- De Lazy Point, i. 474
- Depot Point, Baumann Fjord, ii. 142, 153
- Depotodden (Depot Point), Heureka Sound, ii. 190, 191, 222
- De To Kratere (The Two Craters), i. 369, ii. 298; excursion towards, made by Schei, ii. 147
- Devil's Thumb, a rock in Melville Bay, i. 21, ii. 440
- 'Diana,' the, Peary Relief Expedition ship, i. 217

INDEX.

497

- Dietary, travelling, daily, per man, i. 326 ; per dog, i. 327
- Disco Bay, ii. 441
- Disco Island, Davis' Strait, i. 19, ii. 442
- Djæveløen (Devil Island), ii. 481, 482, 483
- Dogs for the expedition: Norwegian (Swedish) elk-dogs procured from Indherred, i. 11 ; destroyed as useless, i. 297. Eskimo sledge-dogs from Egedesminde and Godhavn, i. 13, 17, 19 ; their valuable qualities, i. 18, 78 ; comparison of the various breeds, i. 18 ; dog-driving, i. 41 ; a dog-load, i. 70 ; how best to care for, i. 78, 288 ; their traits, i. 79, 327 ; 'Tiger's' vicious propensities, i. 187 ; Eskimo method of securing dogs to ice, i. 110 ; the dog and its ailments, i. 288-290 ; daily dietary per dog when travelling, i. 327 ; a curious trait, i. 327 ; a dangerous spill, i. 344-346 ; their music when taken on board, ii. 40 ; 'Svartflekken' mauled by wolves, ii. 219 ; dogs scared by a weird ice-image, ii. 245 ; the dogs and the seals, ii. 260 ; heroic conduct of a mother, ii. 279, 280 ; 'Turisten's' broken rib doctored, ii. 293 ; 'one touch of nature,' ii. 297 ; difficult to get them on board, ii. 322 ; two dogs killed by a polar ox, ii. 348 ; a fall over a precipice with a bear, ii. 358 ; a disputed point settled, ii. 382 ; parting from old friends at Godhavn, ii. 442
- Dredging operations of the expedition, for a report on, see Appendix, ii. 467, 477
- Dying people, a, ii. 207-212
- Dyrebugten (Deer Bay), ii. 296
- EAST CAPE (Östkap), ii. 280
- Egede, Hans, Apostle of Greenland, i. 13, 17
- Egedesminde, i. 13-17 ; Eskimo sledge-dogs procured at, for expedition, i. 13 ; mixed population at, i. 13 ; a grand day at, i. 14 ; the pastor of, i. 45, ii. 441
- Eider-ducks, i. 20, 63 ; how to start a colony, i. 65, 66 ; quantities met with on journeys ; myriads at Ytre Eide, ii. 302 ; evidences of their cultivation by Eskimo at St. Helena, ii. 311
- Eidsbotn, ii. 42 and note
- Eidsfjord, on Norskebugten, ii. 144, 151 ; examined by Schei, ii. 258
- Ellef Ringnes Land, ii. 298
- Ellesmere Land, i. 28, 120, 210, 482. First trip across, i. 40-70 ; descend to Leffert Glacier, i. 40 ; out of Alexandra Fjord, i. 41 ; in Hayes Sound, i. 42 ; a base for mapping operations, i. 43 ; the first taste of polar-ox flesh and milk, i. 48-67 ; 'Juliana' soup, i. 48, 53 ; Peary met with near Fort Juliana, i. 57-61 ; Bay and Isachsen map Beitstadfjord, i. 63. Second expedition to cross, i. 120-141 ; polar oxen in, i. 121, 126, 138, 141 ; their methods of attack and defence, i. 127-129 ; triangulations in, i. 122 ; steep cañons in, i. 132 ; Tommen, i. 135 ; Isachsen and Braskerud report on glaciated portion of, i. 170-182 ; Leffert Glacier, i. 171 ; country much broken, i. 172 ; geology of, i. 177 ; vegetation of, i. 181 ; zoology of, i. 181, 182 ; remains of Eskimo settlements in, i. 190-192 ; once the haunt of reindeer, i. 192 ; sledge-journey through, i. 241-275 ; big game in southern portion of, i. 257, 258, 260-266, 275 ; western portion named Kong Oscars Land (q.v.), i. 348
- Eskimo of Greenland, social conditions of, i. 15 ; marriage and other customs of, i. 15, 16 ; murder rare in Danish Greenland, but common on west coast, i. 16 ; their fox-traps, i. 63 ; their ancient settlements met with, i. 64, 184, 188, 190, 191, 207, 210, ii. 211, 212, 227, 245, 258, 303, 311, 313, 361, 394, 411, 420 ; parties of, visit the 'Fram,' i. 101-108 ; their music and singing, i. 104 ; some igdloos of, sighted, i. 113, 114 ; a dying people, ii. 207-212 ; evidences of their cultivating the eider-duck on St. Helena, ii. 311 ; a curious find of carved bone articles at Stenkulfjord, ii. 420
- Etah. See Littleton Island
- Ekkremtbugten, a bay in Hell Gate, ii. 306
- FAIR ISLE, the Orkneys, i. 6, ii. 444
- Falkberget (Falcon Mountain), ii. 308
- Finsko, i. 100, note
- Fire on board the 'Fram,' i. 207, 462-465
- Flagler Fjord. See Nordfjord
- Flafund, the sound between Heiberg Land and Schei Island, ii. 373
- Footgear, new, ii. 26, 143
- Fort Juliana, i. 48, 56, 68, 69, 120, 152, 154, 183 ; meeting with Peary at, i. 57 ; severe cold while at, i. 98-100 ; Eskimo settlements, i. 184, 190-192
- Fosheim, Ivar, member of the expedition, i. 4 ; is keen on bear-hunting, i. 239, 245-247, 249, 417, vol. ii. passim ; describes Kolotengva's visit to the 'Fram,' i. 102-108 ; gets frost-bitten, i. 268 ; his winter work as carpenter, i. 298, ii. 109 ; on the track of reindeer, i. 391-394 ; succeeds Bay as 'commandant' at Björneborg, i. 458 ; his experiences there, ii. 9 ; has Arctic Ocean fester, ii. 9 ; he and Raanes journey to Heureka Sound, ii. 249 ; explore east side of Heureka Sound northwards, ii. 192, 273-294 ; a fruitless midnight walk, ii. 47, 158
- Fosheim's Baby (Peak), in Havnefjord, i. 218 ; visited by Schei and Bay, to dredge and geologize, i. 221
- Fosheimsæter, i. 147, 230
- Foulke Fjord, Greenland side of Smith Sound, i. 26, 193, 200 ; hares in, i. 27
- Fourth Camp (Fjærdeleirsplads), on Jones Sound, i. 354, 358 ; boat beached here, ii. 300
- Fox in wolves' cage, ii. 121, 354, 424
- Foxes, white, trapping, i. 283
- 'Fram,' Second Polar Expedition of the, i. 1 ; Dr. Nansen offers Captain Sverdrup the command, i. 1 ; loan of 'Fram' by Government, i. 2 ; sets sail from Christiania, June 24, 1898, i. 4 ; Greenland sighted, i. 8 ; ice and seals, i. 8, 9 ; off Godthaab, i. 13 ; at Egedesminde, i. 13-17 ; dogs and ski, i. 18 ; dogs taken on board, i.

VOL. II.

2 K

13, 17, 19; first whale, i. 20; a shoal of grampuses, i. 20, 21; walrus-catching, i. 23; in Foulke Fjord, Smith Sound, i. 26; past Littleton Island and Lifeboat Cove, i. 27, 28; ptarmigan-shooting in Rutherford Bay, t. 30; depot started on Pim Island, i. 30; walrus-shooting, mode and danger, i. 31-34, 205; first meeting with polar oxen, i. 35-62; meeting with Peary at Fort Juliana, i. 57; short expeditions to Ellesmere Land undertaken, i. 40-70; preparing for winter, i. 72; Olsen's night on Alexandra Fjord, i. 72, 73; life on board, i. 76; a last sunset, i. 76, 274; how Christmas, 1898, was spent, i. 82-87; Greely's camping-place and expedition, i. 88-96; severe cold, i. 97-100; Kolotengva and other Eskimo visit the 'Fram,' i. 101-119; Baumann visits Peary, i. 109-119; another visit to Ellesmere Land, i. 120-141; a bear visits the 'Fram,' i. 142; Constitution Day on the 'Fram,' i. 144-148; summer journeys to Ellesmere Land and Nordfjord, i. 149-164; snow-blindness, i. 155, 397; another journey to Ellesmere Land, i. 170-182; the 'Fram' goes north for Pim Island, i. 193; turned back by the ice, i. 195; preparing for winter, i. 196; hear of letters from home, i. 199; visited by a party from the 'Windward,' i. 200; leaving Smith Sound, i. 205; fire, i. 207; myriads of sea-birds on Cobourg Island, i. 209; botanizing in Fram Fjord, i. 211; Havnefjord, in Jones Sound, winter quarters for 1899-1900, i. 219-226; boating expeditions on the fjord, i. 219-226; a rough journey to South Cape, i. 227; illness on board, i. 221; a party detained at Baadsfjord, i. 227-235; death of Braskerud, i. 237; a double-walled tent a success, i. 240, 242, 295; second visit to Baadsfjord, i. 242-247; an awkward bear-hunt, i. 245-247; on to Stormkap, i. 248; happy hunting-grounds, i. 256-267, ii. 71-87; preparations for winter, i. 276-284; supply of meat, i. 287; winter quarters, 1899-1900, and winter occupations, i. 291-304; more sickness, i. 304, 310; Christmas festivities, 1899, i. 310-313; New Year's Eve, i. 312; expedition to Björneborg, i. 316-338; daily dietary, i. 326; through Hell Gate, i. 339-351; misfortunes, i. 344-346; brandy 44° below zero, i. 359; a toilsome journey to Land's End, i. 360; Easter in Heiberg Land, i. 373-376; new land! i. 376; Isachsen and Hassel set to explore it, i. 376; mock-suns, i. 399; 80° 55' N., i. 404; Independence Day at Cape Levvel, i. 410-413; a moment of peril, i. 419, 420; Björneborg visited, i. 427; Bay's hermit life, i. 438-458; fire on board the 'Fram,' i. 462-465; Schei and Hendriksen journey to King Oscar Land, i. 466-483; the first reindeer shot, i. 469-473; preparations for leaving Havnefjord, i. 496; Isachsen's journey to north side of Norskebugten, ii. 1-8; Fosheim returns from Björneborg, ii. 9, 10; he has Arctic Ocean fester,

ii. 9; summer journeys, ii. 9; scientific work, ii. 15, 31, 35; magical transformation from winter to summer, ii. 18; strange animal (? glutton) seen, ii. 26; a bet, ii. 31; fierce behaviour of terns, ii. 32; the 'Fram' leaves Havnefjord, ii. 37, 40; westward, ii. 40; ice-bound in Belcher Channel, ii. 48; preparing to winter, ii. 51; sledge-journey to shore, ii. 52; sudden break-up of the ice, ii. 55; dogs and sledge-party safe on board, ii. 55-59; through Cardigan Strait to Gaasefjord, ii. 60; investigations, ii. 60-67; abundance of game, ii. 71-83; wolves, ii. 84, 85; more 'water-sledges' made, ii. 88; snowstorm and misfortune, ii. 88-99; an awful night, ii. 95; new Arctic surgery, ii. 99; bringing the meat from Nordstrand, ii. 104; preparing for winter in Gaasefjord, ii. 105; new sleeping-bags, ii. 109; work, 106-110, 123; trapping wolves and foxes, ii. 109-122; Christmas, 1900, on the 'Fram,' ii. 119, 120; new footgear, ii. 126; preparing for spring journeys, ii. 127; a problem to solve: does a sound exist north of Greely Fjord? ii. 127; second start to explore Norskebugten, ii. 127-146; four exploring parties start: (1) Sverdrup and Schei to explore Heureka Sound and solve problem, ii. 149-263; (2) Baumann and Stolz to map Norskebugten (q.v.) and Baumann Fjord, ii. 149, 264-272; (3) Fosheim and Raanes to assist Sverdrup (Heureka Sound) (q.v.), ii. 149-192, 273-294; (4) Isachsen and Hassel to Cape South-West (q.v.), ii. 149, 295-298; the problem solved, ii. 189, 232; return of the sledge-parties, ii. 263, 272, 294, 298; dredging expedition to Jones Sound (q.v.) and Hell Gate, ii. 299; getting the 'Fram' ready for sea, ii. 304; botanical trip to Nordstrand, ii. 310, 317; mapping unknown part of North Devon, ii. 310-317; August 7th, and still ice-bound in Gaasefjord, ii. 318-320; boring and mining the ice, ii. 321; closed in and shut out, ii. 324; preparing for a second winter in Gaasefjord, ii. 325, 349; hunting for winter food, ii. 333-349; Bay has a lively time at the meat-heap, ii. 333, 335-346; winter work on board, ii. 348-359, 355; economy in certain foods, ii. 350; Christmas, 1901, on the 'Fram,' ii. 351, 352; a sand-path to assist disintegration, ii. 352; plans for spring work, 1902: (1) Sverdrup and Schei to map Greely Fjord (q.v.) and districts, ii. 355-405; (2) Isachsen, Fosheim, and Hassel to Jones Sound (q.v.), to build cairns and leave records of the expedition, ii. 355, 407-411; (3) Baumann and Fosheim to Beechey Island (q.v.), to correct chronometers by English place-determinations, look for Sir John Ross's depot and his cutter 'Mary' left there in 1850, ii. 355, 412-415; (4) Isachsen and Baumann to map coast of North Devon (q.v.), ii. 355, 415-419; Lands Lokk, 81° 41' N. reached, ii. 370; preparing for summer work, ii. 421; scientific and

- dredging operations, ii. 421-421; anchor weighed, ii. 426; a trying time with the ice-floes, ii. 431-434; out of the fjord at last, ii. 435; homeward, i. 486; festive reception at Godhavn, iii. 441, 442; trifling accidents, ii. 442-444; telegrams at Stavanger, hospitalities en route, and official reception at Christiania, ii. 445-450; summary of expenses incurred, ii. 452. For reports on the Geological, Botanical, Zoological, and Meteorological results of the expedition, see Appendices, ii. 455-494
- Fram Fjord, near Cone Island, i. 210, ii. 112; vestiges of former habitations on, i. 210; abundant remains of animal life, i. 210; luxuriant vegetation, i. 210
- Frams Havn (Fram Haven) in Rice Strait, the 'Fram's' winter quarters for 1898-9, i. 30
- Franklin, Sir John, and his expedition, i. 76
- Friendly One*, the, an Arctic newspaper, i. 82, 84-87; the first and last number for 1899, i. 312
- Fuglefjord (Bird Fjord), ii. 258; flights of geese and skuas, ii. 259; quantities of seals, ii. 260, 261
- Fugleøen, an island in Fuglefjord, ii. 258
- Fulmars, ii. 42, i. 437
- GAASEDALEN (Goose Valley), ii. 83
- Gaasefjord (Goose Fjord), i. 336, 419, 427, 484, ii. 10, 217; a pretty spot, ii. 12; stay in, ii. 60-435; richness of fauna, ii. 64; fox stalking the puppies, ii. 67; bear and ox-shooting, ii. 71-78; abundance of game, ii. 71-83; sledge-journeys from, ii. 88-104; preparing to winter in, ii. 105
- Galgeodden (Gallows Point), the wolf-snare and trap, ii. 115, 117; Greylegs is caught, ii. 117
- Geological results of the expedition. See Appendix, ii. 455
- Glacier Strait, i. 206
- Gletcherfjord (Glacier Fjord), ii. 245
- Glödgd, a Christmas liqueur, ii. 352
- Glutton (?) seen, ii. 26
- Godhavn, coal taken in at, i. 19; Eskimo sledge-dogs procured at, i. 19; kind reception there on return voyage, ii. 441; parting from some of the dogs, ii. 442; a nosegay from, ii. 444
- Godthaab, i. 13
- Graham Island, i. 479, ii. 298; depot formed on, ii. 147; passed by Isachsen and Hassel in a fog, ii. 295
- Graham Land, i. 477
- Grampus, the, i. 20, 21
- Greely, General, fate of expedition, i. 77, 88-95; camping-ground at Camp Clay, Pim Island, i. 88-95; the 'Proteus' lost, i. 88; privations and heroic conduct of the party, i. 91-93; their rescue by Colwell, i. 94, 95
- Greely Fjord, ii. 189, 204, 210, 231; Sverdrup and Schei start on sledge-expedition to map tracts west of, ii. 355-405; game scarce, ii. 356, 360; a bear-hunt and a somersault, ii. 357-361; a depot left at an Eskimo house, ii. 361; rough going, ii. 363; Blaafjeld teeming with hares, ii. 367; a large bay discovered, ii. 368; a distant cape reached, ii. 369; are not the 'countries' in the west 'islands'? ii. 369; at 81° 40' N.: north and west sea, Axel Heiberg Land to the south, ii. 370; map drawn and cairn built, ii. 370; across Nansen Sound to Heiberg Land, ii. 371; down Heureka Sound, ii. 372; observations taken at Kvitberg, ii. 373; how May 17th was spent, ii. 375-383; Blaamanden and Bay Fjord, ii. 384-397; temptation to go to head of Bay Fjord, and over to Pim Island for mails left there by American ship, ii. 392; a remarkable hare run, ii. 392; at the cache, ii. 395; some glaciers examined in Ulvefjord, ii. 396; a race with spring, ii. 396; a paradise in a glacier valley, ii. 397; return to the 'Fram,' ii. 398-405; the first geese of the year, ii. 399
- Grethas Öer (Gretha Islands) in Bay Fjord, ii. 290, 394
- Grisefjord (Pig Valley), ii. 465
- Gula Berget (Yellow Mountain), ii. 493
- 'Gunhild,' a Christmas novel, written by Bay, ii. 351
- Gypsum stones plentiful at Vakkerkap, ii. 213
- HAAØEN (Dogfish Island), i. 158
- Hareneset (Hare Point), ii. 356; Baumann and Raanes part from Sverdrup and Schei here, ii. 356, 406
- Hares, Arctic, i. 121, 228, ii. 46, 81-83, and passim; the 'square' of the Arctic hare, ii. 181; a country teeming with them, ii. 182-194; very numerous at Blaafjeld, ii. 367; a remarkable run, ii. 392
- Hassel, Sverre, member of the expedition, i. 4; he and Baumann visit Peary, i. 109-112; acts as steward, i. 304; accompanies Isachsen to Norskebugten, i. 376, ii. 1-8; to Cape South-West, ii. 148, 295-298
- Hatøen (Hat Island), in Bay Fjord, ii. 394
- Havnefjord (Harbour Fjord) in Jones Sound, i. 217, 252, 269, ii. 439, 440; the 'Fram's' second winter harbour, i. 218, 252, 253; boating expeditions in, i. 219-226; seals in, i. 219; summer in, i. 496; getting ready for sea, i. 496; the latest to be cleared of ice, ii. 36; the 'Fram' leaves, ii. 37
- Hayes Sound, Ellesmere Land, i. 35, 39, 42, 43, 141, 168, 171, 183; maps of, i. 36, 37
- Heiberg, Consul Axel, one of the three who fitted out the expedition, i. 1, ii. 451
- Hell Gate. See Helvedesporten
- Helvedesporten (Hell Gate), south-coast of Ellesmere Land, i. 339, 419; a trip through, i. 339-351; its waters difficult to navigate, i. 340; an Eldorado for sportsmen, i. 489; whole coast rich in fossils, ii. 316
- Hendrick, Joe and Hans, the two Eskimo who kept the survivors of the 'Polaris' alive, i. 28
- Hendriksen, Peder Leonard, member of the expedition, i. 3; an expert walrus-catcher,

- i. 25; is seriously unwell, i. 303; his experience with a wolf, i. 431; accompanies Schei on journey to King Oscar Land, i. 466-483; accompanies Baumann on sledge-journey, ii. 149; his ice-measurements, ii. 348
- Hendriksen Sound, immediately north of Nicolays Fjeld, ii. 296
- Heureka Sound, i. 482, 483, ii. 140, 189, 223-372; Fosheim and Raanes journey to east side of, ii. 273-294; their task, ii. 273; hunting polar oxen, ii. 274, 275; arm of the sea at Isfjeldodden: fjord or sound? ii. 275; animal life abundant, ii. 281-290; head of the fjord? ii. 281; grass and creeping willow, ii. 281; back to the sound, ii. 284; how May 17th was kept, ii. 285; no outlet for Bay Fjord, ii. 290; surveying on return journey to the 'Fram' by Baumann Fjord and Lille Bjørnekap, ii. 293
- Hexefjeld (Witch Mountain), i. 133
- Hunting-grounds, happy, i. 256-267, ii. 71-87
- Hvalrosfjord (Walrus Fjord), i. 338, 375, 427, 484, ii. 102, 431, 432; Baumann and Schei visit, ii. 10
- Hvalroskap (Walrus Cape), ii. 434, 435
- Hyperitodden (Hyperite Point), in Axel Heiberg Land, i. 483, ii. 3, 243, 248, 249
- ICEBERGS, fantastic shapes of, i. 9
- Indherred, Norwegian (Swedish) elk-dogs procured in, for expedition, i. 11
- Indre Eide (Inner Isthmus), ii. 10, 424, 426; the beach strewn with fossils, the water teeming with sea-birds, ii. 303
- Isachsen, Captain Gunerius Ingvald, cartographer of the expedition, i. 3; he and Braskerud visit and report on the glaciated part of Ellesmere Land, i. 170-182; he and Hassel visit explore north of Norskebugten, i. 376, ii. 1-8; Cape South-West, ii. 149, 295-298
- Isachsen Land, north of Danskesundet, ii. 297; north-western parts low sandbanks, ii. 297; on west side ice pressed in wave-like ridges, ii. 297
- Isfjeldodden (Iceberg Point), in Greely Fjord, ii. 205, 275, 289, 362
- JAMMERBUGTEN (Bay of Woe), just outside Hell Gate, ii. 305, 308, 310, 332
- Jökelfjord, i. 171, 181
- Jones Sound, in Hell Gate, i. 221, 317, 330, 333, 484, ii. 101, 310, 419, 434, 439; decided on for winter quarters, 1899-1900, i. 202; dredging expedition to, ii. 299-309; to Fourth Camp for the boat, ii. 300; birds' eggs (?) and walrus-meat, ii. 300, 301; Ytre and Indre Eide yield a scientific harvest, amusing shooting, good food, ii. 303; Simmons reports the results of the trip in fauna and flora fairly good, ii. 305-309; Isachsen, Fosheim, and Hassel build cairns and leave records of the expedition at Cone Island and other places in, ii. 355, 407-411; icebergs in, are usually found between South Cape and Cone Island, ii. 416
- 'Juliana' soup, i. 48, 53
- KADAVERELVEN (Corpse River), a river in Gaasefjord, ii. 424
- Kane Basin, i. 1, 169, 198, 200, 202
- Kennedy Channel, i. 1
- Kjær, Dr. I., who made a provisional examination of fossils found by Schei, ii. 407
- Knipetangen (The Pincers), i. 152, 158
- Kobbegutten (Seal Bay), ii. 316
- Köla Paaalsen, Mount, i. 48
- Kolotengva, the daring Eskimo, visits the 'Fram,' i. 102-108; he entertains his hosts, i. 104; accompanies Baumann and Hassel to Peary's vessel, i. 109-114; he communicates much information about Peary and the country, i. 113
- Komager, i. 100 and note
- Konebaad, an Eskimo woman-boat, i. 191 and note
- Kong Christians Land (King Christian Land), ii. 296
- Kong Oscars Land (King Oscar Land), (see Ellesmere Land), i. 347, ii. 332, 433; narrative of Schei and Hendriksen's journey to, i. 466-483; big-game shooting, i. 469-483; animal and plant life, i. 480; geological formation, i. 480-482; Bay, Simmons, and Isachsen visit western fjords, ii. 15. See Norskebugten, East
- Kringsjaa, north side of Fram's Havn, i. 73, 143; favourite haunt of insects, i. 152; the outlook in Jones Sound, ii. 20, 35
- Kristoffers Bugt (Kristoffer Bay), in King Christians Land, ii. 296
- Kvitberg (White Mountain), in Axel Heiberg Land, ii. 204, 372; a good place to take observations, ii. 373
- LADY ANN Strait, i. 206, 209, ii. 440
- Lands Løkk (Land's End), 81° 40' N. on Greely Fjord, in King Oscar Land, the most northerly point reached by the expedition, i. 358, 419, 467; 494, ii. 11, 13; 307; observations taken at, i. 490, ii. 370
- Larus glaucus* on Braskerudfya, i. 177
- Larvik, the 'Fram' is equipped at, for expedition, i. 2; Colin Archer from, visits the 'Fram,' ii. 449
- Leffert Glacier, i. 40, 190; explored, i. 170-181
- Libbey, Professor, visits the 'Fram,' i. 200
- Lifeboat Cove, where the 'Polaris' (Hall's expedition) was stranded in 1872, i. 28
- Lille Bjørnekap (Little Bear Cape), i. 352, 354, ii. 251, 400, 406; an Eldorado for sportsmen, ii. 293
- Lille Sandør (Little Sandbank), i. 281, 322, 331, 493
- Lindström, Adolf Henrik, steward on the 'Fram,' i. 4; is seriously unwell, i. 304
- Littleton Island (Etah), i. 27; the cairn erected in 1877 by Allan Young when searching for Nares' expedition, found, i. 27
- Louises Fjord, south-east of Cape Isachsen, ii. 297

- MAAGEBERGET (Gull Mountain), ii. 300, 310, 333
- Maagebugten (Gull Bay), ii. 308
- Maiodden (May Point), in Heureka Sound, ii. 190, 223, 361, 386, 389
- Mathiesen, Herr, Superintendent of Egedesminde, i. 13
- May Seventeenth on board the 'Fram,' i. 139, 144; programme of the day's festivities, i. 145; at Björneborg, i. 455; at Cape Levvel, i. 410-413; on Heureka Sound, ii. 210, 215; on Cañon Fjord, ii. 268; on Greely Fjord, ii. 285; on Louises Fjord, ii. 297; at Smörgrautberget, ii. 375-383
- Meheia, high portion of Amund Ringnes Land, ii. 298
- Melville Bay, i. 21, ii. 440
- Meteorological results of the expedition. See Appendix, ii. 484
- Middagskollen, 'Kollen' (Noonday Hill), ii. 12, 13, 101, 319, 320, 321, 426
- Midnight walk, Fosheim's long, ii. 157, 158
- Mock-suns seen, i. 399, 400
- Moisture, how to avoid, i. 71
- Mökkafjord (Muck Fjord), in Heureka Sound, ii. 214
- Mölje, i. 82
- Moskufjord (Musk Fjord), the slaughter-ground of large numbers of the polar ox, i. 273, 276, 281, 319, 332, ii. 21, 408
- Mosquitoes common, ii. 482
- NABBEN (The Knoll), ii. 41
- Nansen, Dr., offers Sverdrup command of the expedition, i. 1
- Nansen Sound, ii. 371
- Nathorst, Professor, Stockholm, who undertook the examination of the plant fossils, ii. 460
- Nathorst Halvö (Nathorst Peninsula), south-west of Amund Ringnes Land, ii. 296; much vegetation and many reindeer-tracks, ii. 296
- New Land: Isachsen and Hassel journey to explore north side of Norskebugten, i. 376, ii. 1-8; report land steep and precipitous, ii. 3; large fjord with island in midst, ii. 4; everywhere evidences of abundance of life, ii. 4; a large fjord (? sound, ii. 233) running eastwards, ii. 5; open water stops further investigations, ii. 6. Second journey (Björnekaplandet), ii. 127, 135-142; Storsjöen first camp, ii. 129; north of Eidsfjord, south of Store Björnekap, ii. 129; swimming through the snow, ii. 131; camp in -61° Fahr., ii. 132; still north, ii. 133; abundant signs of animal life, ii. 134, 137, 139; a lonely mountain, ii. 138; polar oxen and wolves, ii. 139; meat stored at Depot Point, ii. 142. Third journey (Sverdrup and Schei) to explore Baumann Fjord and Heureka Sound, ii. 149-263; along Storsjöen, north of Nordstrand, south-west of Eidsfjord, ii. 151; up Vendomfjord: herds of oxen, plenty of ground game, abundant vegetation, ii. 157; Fosheim's midnight walk, ii. 157, 158; a Sunday bear, finest and fiercest of the whole expedition, ii. 165; bears constant visitors, ii. 165-168; at last! a fjord running north, ii. 168; Troldfjord, ii. 169-173; wrongly named the Gates of the Kingdom, ii. 173; a valley trending east, ii. 174; a polar idyl, ii. 176, 177; hares forming up in rings, ii. 181; the country teems with hares, ii. 182-194; a bear's strange conduct, ii. 185-188; the fjord sighted, 78° 50' N.: Heureka! ii. 185; a sound running north, ii. 188; wolves, ii. 189, 197-199, 216-221; north of Heureka Sound, ii. 190; sledges part company: Sverdrup and Schei to west of sound, Fosheim and Raanes to east (see Heureka Sound), ii. 192; rough travelling, ii. 198-200; weather-bound, ii. 203; Eskimo ruins, ii. 205; Schei's bad shooting, ii. 206; a dying people, ii. 207-212; a summer day and a winter night, ii. 210, 211; gypsum stones from the cliffs, ii. 213; keeping May 17th, ii. 215; a disturbed night, ii. 216-221; southwards by Depotodden and Maiodden, ii. 222; exploring and geologizing on Storöen, ii. 227; a large seal, ii. 228; gulls and geese coming north, ii. 228, 229, 237, 246; Björnesund visible to west, ii. 231; solution of the problem confirmed, ii. 231, 232; exploring Skaarefjord, ii. 233; a perilous drive, ii. 236; Björnesund and Ulvefjord explored, ii. 241; tent-like formation of the ice, ii. 245; south for Björnekaplandet, ii. 249; a stony land, fossilizing, ii. 250-257; Lille Björnekap, geese and venison, ii. 253; geese and skuas, ii. 259; open water inside Fugleöen, ii. 259; a dangerous crossing, ii. 262; return to the 'Fram,' ii. 263
- New Year festivities, i. 312, 313
- Nicolays Fjeld (Nicolay Mountain), the northern extremity of Cape South-West, ii. 296
- Nielsen, Herr, superintendent, at Egedesminde, ii. 441
- Nödtvedt, Jacob, second engineer on the 'Fram,' i. 3; his winter's work as smith and tanner, i. 79, 297, 313, ii. 109
- Nordenskiöld and his expedition, fate of, i. 77
- Nordfjord (Flagler Fjord), i. 63, 150, 152, ii. 465; expedition undertaken to, i. 63; Eskimo remains at, i. 63-65; polar-ox stalking on, i. 121-122; another visit to, i. 153-164; enchanting views, i. 154; Svendsen is unwell at, i. 154-157; seals, bears, and polar oxen, i. 158
- Nordodden (North Point), ii. 290
- Nordstrand, ii. 85, 89, 298, 310, 328, 415; meat depot there, ii. 85; a shelter from the storm, ii. 94-96; Simmons goes on a botanical trip to, ii. 310, 316, 317
- Nordstrandselven, ii. 85
- Noresund, i. 63, 141, 153
- Norfolk Inlet, ii. 43
- Norskebugten, i. 414, 420, 484, ii. 3, 6, 357; bear-hunting in, i. 484; sledge-journey planned to explore, ii. 89
- Norskebugten, East, and Baumann Fjord,

- in King Oscar Land, mapping expedition to, by Baumann and Stoliz, ii. 149, 264-272; Baumann attacked by herd of thirty polar oxen, ii. 265-268; coal found at Stenkulfjord, ii. 271, 272; line from point south of Troldfjord to Björnekaplandet, ii. 272; return to 'Fram,' ii. 272
- North Cornwall, i. 355, ii. 147
- North Devon, i. 209, ii. 424, 439; mapping expedition to, ii. 310-317; St. Helena to Cape Vera, ii. 310, 311; Baadodden and Viksfjord, ii. 312-314; across the ice on Vestfjord to St. Helena, ii. 315; Hell Gate to Nordstrand, ii. 316, 317. Second mapping expedition to, by Isachsen and Bay, ii. 415-419; through Jones Sound to Cape Sparbo, ii. 416; along the coast to Baadodden, ii. 417-419; by Stormkap to Gaasefjord, ii. 419; examine coal-beds at Stenkulfjord, ii. 420
- North Greenland, Inspector of, ii. 441
- North Kent, in King Oscar Land, i. 420, 467, ii. 308, 412, 415, 431
- ORRESTAD Light, on Jæderen, ii. 449
- Olsen, Karl, chief engineer on the 'Fram,' i. 3; his bad night's experience near Pim Island, i. 72; is nearly lost, i. 95; is tinsmith, coppersmith, gunsmith, and instrument-maker, i. 296, 297; twice dislocates his arm, ii. 91, 423; its strange setting, ii. 97; his work the fourth winter, ii. 348, 350
- PAYER HARBOUR, i. 194, 200, 201; letters from home left here by Mr. Bridgman, i. 200; unable to procure them, i. 202; tempted to endeavour to reach them, ii. 392
- Peary, Lieutenant, met with at Fort Juliana, i. 57; experiences intense cold, i. 98; invited to spend Easter on the 'Fram,' i. 107; is visited by Baumann and Hassel, i. 109-117; at Foulke Fjord, i. 200
- Pim Island, i. 28, 168, 193, 194; meat depot (Kjöthaugen, Meat-heap) started on, i. 30; Olsen has a bad night's experience near, i. 72; meat-heap visited, i. 77
- Polar expeditions, can disasters to, be prevented? i. 77
- Polar idyl, a, ii. 176, 177
- Polar oxen (musk ox), first meeting with, i. 35-62; stalking, i. 43-47, 121, 122, 161, 257, 258, 260-266, 483, ii. 5, 11, 21, 62, 92; shooting in Ellesmere Land, i. 126; their well-defined methods of attack, defence, and retreat, i. 126-129, ii. 157, 376; herds of, i. 138; an unpleasant predicament, i. 161; herds seen on journey to Heureka Sound and Greely Fjord, ii. 156-263, 373, 374; a herd of thirty attack Baumann, ii. 265-268; a touching sight, ii. 176, 177; meat depot at Cape South-West disturbed by, ii. 295; a bull kills two sledge-dogs, ii. 348; an unusually fierce herd, ii. 376-378; stand in no great awe of wolves, ii. 391
- 'Polaris,' the, loss of, in 1872, i. 28
- Princess Charlotte Monument, i. 209
- Princess Marie Bay, i. 150
- Prins Gustav Adolfo Hav (Prince Gustav Adolf Sea), ii. 296; only one iceberg (probably glacier ice) met with here, ii. 296
- Ptarmigan-shooting, i. 30, 37, 227
- RAANES, OLUF, mate on board the 'Fram,' i. 2; accompanies Baumann on sledge-journey, i. 484-488; accompanies Fosheim on sledge-journey, ii. 149, 192
- Reindeer-shooting, i. 469-473, 478, 483, ii. 26
- Renbugten (Reindeer Bay), i. 347, 424, 489, ii. 306, 331
- Renkappet (Reindeer Cape), north of Danksesundet (Danish Sound), ii. 297
- Rice Strait, north of Frams Havn, i. 29, 30, 34, 51, 142, 168, 190, 193; Svendsen (doctor) buried here, i. 167
- Rigets Port (The Gates of the Kingdom), a misnomer, ii. 173
- Ringholmen, in Hendriksen Sound, ii. 296
- Ringnes, Brothers, Messrs., two of the three who fitted out the expedition, i. 1, ii. 451
- Rink, Dr. H., statistics, etc., relating to Upernivik, i. 20
- Risviken, 'Fram' weather-bound at, ii. 449
- 'Rivalen,' the, awful accident to, off Spitzbergen, i. 33
- Robeson Channel, i. 1; Peary reports it full of old polar ice, i. 58
- Ross, Sir John, depot left by him on Beechey Island in 1850 examined, and found despoiled, ii. 413; the cutter 'Mary' wrecked, everything useful wantonly destroyed, ii. 413
- Rundfjeld, a point of vantage in the glaciated portion of Ellesmere Land, i. 174
- Rutherford Bay, i. 29, 35
- Rutherford Klara, i. 168
- Rutherford Peninsula, ptarmigan-shooting on, i. 30, 34
- Salix arctica* on west coast of Ellesmere Land, i. 836
- Sand pathway, a, and its effects, ii. 352, 406, 421
- Sandspollen, ii. 42 and note, 311
- Sankt Helena (St. Helena Island), an interesting little island off North Devon, ii. 43, 310, 320, 424, 433; traces of Eskimo, ii. 311; conveniently situated for observations between points in North Devon and King Oscar Land, ii. 311
- Scheis Ó (Schei Island), ii. 373
- Sea-birds, myriads of, on Cobourg Island, i. 209
- Sea-sickness, i. 5, ii. 439
- Seals, i. 9, 10, 189, 194, 195, 219, 226, 422, ii. 40, 42, and passim; the bladdernose described, i. 10, 11, 30, 34; seals follow a boat, i. 220; a very large one in Heureka Sound, ii. 228; one nearly caught alive by the dogs outside Fuglefjord, ii. 260
- Schei, Per, geologist of the expedition, i. 3; undergoes amputation, i. 100; his experiences bear-hunting, i. 278, 279; his and Hendriksen's narrative of journey to King Oscar Land, i. 466-483; stalks and shoots his first reindeer, i. 469-473, 478; bear-hunting, i. 474-476; polar oxen,

INDEX.

503

- i. 482, 483; accompanies Sverdrup on journey north of Greely Fjord, ii. 149-263; has rich field of fossils, ii. 250-257; accompanies Sverdrup on journey to map Greely Fjord, ii. 355-405; his Report, ii. 455-466
- Scott-Hansen, Captain, captain of the flagship 'Heimdall', which tows the 'Fram' to Christiania, ii. 448
- Slidrefjord, in Heureka Sound, ii. 274
- Simmons, Herman Georg, botanist of the expedition, i. 3; has a high fever, i. 310; goes on a dredging expedition to Jones Sound and Hell Gate, ii. 209-309; on a botanical trip to Nordstrand, ii. 310; his Reports, ii. 467-476, 484-494
- Sir Robert Inglis Peak (Inglefield's highest point, 1852), i. 209, 218
- Skaarefjord, ii. 237
- Ski, those of the Lapps are better than those of the Eskimo for polar use, i. 18
- Skjærtorsdagskap (Maundy Thursday Cape), ii. 298
- Skrabdalsodden (Dredging Valley Point), ii. 319
- Skrabedalen (Dredging Valley), ii. 304, 320, 426
- Skrællingodden, ii. 211, 212, 384
- Skrællingøen, in Alexandra Fjord, i. 195 and note
- Skreia (Landslip), island in Jones Sound, i. 217, 259, 284, 314, 330, 460, 493, ii. 32, 33; cairn built and records of expedition left here, ii. 407, 411
- Skrusodden (Pressure-ice Point), north coast of North Devon, ii. 418
- Sleeping-bags, new, ii. 109, 125
- Smith Sound, i. 1, 119, 190, 193; leaving, i. 205
- Smörgrautberget (Butter Porridge Mountain), in Scheis Ö, ii. 199, 204, 207, 271-374
- Smörgröd, butter porridge, the standing dish at the farthest point north, ii. 207, 370
- Snow-blindness and its treatment, i. 141, 155, 156, 397
- Sorte Væg (Black Wall), ii. 461
- South Cape. See Sydkap
- Spækodden (Blubber Point), in Hell Gate, ii. 308; many fossils found, ii. 316, 331
- Sparre, Admiral, offers flagship 'Heimdall' to tow the 'Fram' to Christiania, ii. 448
- Stavanger, pilot for, at Utsire, ii. 444; the 'Fram' is met by vessels from, ii. 447; the town authorities pay a visit, ii. 447; telegrams and hospitalities, ii. 448
- Stenkjær, in Beitstadjord, Nordfjord, i. 68, 97, 160
- Stenkulfjord (Coal Fjord), in Baumann Fjord, King Oscar Land, coal found in, ii. 271, 272, 420
- Stolz, Rudolf, member of the expedition, i. 4; accompanies Baumann on mapping expedition to East Norskebugten, ii. 149, 264-272
- Stordalen, a large valley in Havnefjord, i. 218, 389; the valley explored, i. 221, ii. 13
- Store Bjørnekap (Great Bear Cape), i. 352, 353, ii. 129, 152, 253, 402; a shingle of fossils, ii. 253; 'gulled' at, ii. 404
- Store Sandør (Great Sandbank), i. 288, 322
- Storfjord (Great Fjord), ii. 5, 183, 186, 189, 232
- Stormkap (Cape Storm), in Jones Sound, i. 248, 250, 332, ii. 419; cairn built and records of expedition left here, ii. 407, 411
- Storøen, island in Heureka Sound, ii. 4, 189, 223, 361, 394; cache prepared here for Greely Fjord return party, ii. 353, 406
- Storsjøen (Great Lake), ii. 69, 129, 145, 151; polar oxen preserve, ii. 145, 147
- Sunday bear, a, ii. 165
- Sunset, watching a last, i. 76, 274
- Svartenhuk Peninsula, ii. 440
- Svensden, Johan, doctor of the expedition, i. 3; is attacked with snow-blindness, i. 154-156; illness and death, i. 154, 165; a strange oversight, i. 165; is buried in Rice Strait, June 16, 1899, i. 167
- Sverdrup, Capt. in Otto, commander of the expedition, i. 1; his principal sledge-journeys: discovers land north of Greely Fjord (see New Land), ii. 149-263; maps Greely Fjord (q.v.), ii. 355-405; reaches 81° 40' N., ii. 370
- Sydkap (South Cape), in Jones Strait, i. 223, 330, 401, 460, ii. 419; cairn built and records of expedition left here, ii. 407, 408; cache formed at, ii. 408
- Sydkapfjord (South Cape Fjord), i. 222, 330, ii. 14
- TABLE ISLAND, ii. 44
- Terns, fierce reception by a colony of, ii. 32
- 'Tjalfe,' the, of the Royal Greenland Trade, lends the 'Fram' a man, ii. 443
- Tommen (Thumb) mountain, i. 155, ii. 392
- Trangsund (Narrow Sound), in Hell Gate, i. 484, 486; ii. 429
- Troldfjord (Troll Fjord), in Baumann Fjord, ii. 169-173, 231, 272
- Twin Glacier, i. 38
- ULVEDALEN (Wolf Valley), ii. 281-284
- Ulvefjord (Wolf Fjord), ii. 3, 241, 242; some glaciers in, examined, ii. 396
- Ulyingen, an island in Ulvefjord, ii. 242, 398
- Upernivik, i. 20; exports, i. 20; great breeding-ground of eider-ducks, i. 20; home letters had been sent up to, ii. 441
- Utsire sighted and pilot taken, ii. 444
- Uveirsleiren (Bad Weather Camp), i. 386-394
- VARGTOPPEN (Wolf Top), ii. 459
- Vakkerkap (Fair Cape), ii. 213; gypsum stones fallen from the cliffs, ii. 213
- Vendomfjord (Turn-back Fjord), in Baumann Fjord, ii. 149, 162, 231
- Veslefjord (Litt'e Fjord), east side of Heureka Sound, ii. 289
- Vestfjord, ii. 315
- Viksfjord, ii. 314
- Vindfangerbugten, last farewells taken at, i. 5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07111-6 - New Land: Four Years in the Arctic Regions: Volume 2

Otto Neumann Sverdrup Translated by Ethel Harriet Hearn

Index

More information

504

INDEX.

- WALRUSES, i. 25, 31, 201, 205, 217, 337, ii. 327, and passim; method and danger of hunting described, i. 31-34
- Water-proof garments, i. 35, ii. 126, 143
- Water-sledge, the, a success, i. 325, ii. 101, 123; more made on the same pattern, ii. 88
- Wellington Channel, ii. 412
- Whitsunfjord discovered and explored, ii. 228; Björnesund visible from, ii. 231
- 'Windward,' the, Peary's ship, i. 215; visited by Baumann and Hassel, i. 109
- Winter life, work, and diversions (1898-9), on the 'Fram,' i. 77-82; 1899-1900, i. 291-304; 1900-1, ii. 106-110; 1901-2, ii. 348-351, 385
- Winter to summer, magical transformation from, ii. 18
- Wolf winter, a, ii. 111-118
- Wolves, ii. 84, 85, 112, 142, 221, 235, 389; two caught and caged, ii. 117, 423; are very numerous in Heureka Sound, ii. 156-263, 273, et seq.; are cautious generals, ii. 142; an attack in force, ii. 216
- YTRE EIDE (Outer Isthmus), ii. 10, 102, ii. 300, 337, 424, 429, 431, 434; quantities of geese and eider-ducks, ii. 302; meat depot formed here with Bay as guard, ii. 333-346
- Ytterøen (Outer Island), i. 152
- ZOOLOGICAL results of the expedition. See Appendix, ii. 477

THE END.