

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07114-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner M.D.: With Illustrations of his Doctrines,
and Selections from his Correspondence: Volume 2

John Baron

Table of Contents

More information

C O N T E N T S.

CHAPTER I.

	Page
Consequences of the first Parliamentary Grant—Jenner resident in London—his Anticipations disappointed— Progress of Vaccination abroad, and of Opposition at home—The Napoleon Medal, and other Honours—His alleged Distrust of Vaccination in the case of his own Son . . . . .	1

CHAPTER II.

Continued Progress of Vaccination abroad—Vaccinations at Cheltenham—Arrangements for farther Discussion in Parliament—Second Grant—Interview with Mr. Perceval with a View to limit the Diffusion of Small- Pox by Inoculation . . . . .	50
--	----

CHAPTER III.

Domestic Life—Worgan—Return of the Spanish Vaccine Expedition—Various Honours—Presents from the Presidencies in India . . . . .	71
---	----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07114-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner M.D.: With Illustrations of his Doctrines, and Selections from his Correspondence: Volume 2

John Baron

Table of Contents

More information

vi

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER IV.

	Page
General View of the State of Vaccination—Address of the Five Indian Nations—Influence of Jenner with foreign States—Formation of the National Vaccine Establishment—Causes of his withdrawing from it—Death of his eldest Son . . . . .	98

CHAPTER V.

Case of the Honourable Robert Grosvenor—Jenner's Sentiments on that Subject—His Attempts to liberate a French Prisoner—Elected Foreign Associate of the National Institute—Sir Joseph Banks and the original Paper on Vaccination—Poems in honour of Vaccination . . . . .	155
--	-----

CHAPTER VI.

Libels—Progress of Vaccination—Degree of M. D. by Diploma conferred upon Dr. Jenner by the University of Oxford—Discussions in the College of Physicians—Lord Boringdon's Bill to restrain Small-Pox—Jenner's Occupations in the Country—His Interviews with the Duchess of Oldenburgh and the Allied Sovereigns—Address from Brunn in Moravia—Letter of Soemmering, with Diploma, from Munich . . . . .	181
--	-----

CHAPTER VII.

Death of Mrs. Jenner—Epidemic at Edinburgh—Publication of Sir Gilbert Blane's Tract—Varioloid Epidemics	219
---	-----

CHAPTER VIII.

Summary of Facts relating to Vaccination—Its Influence on the Mortality of Infants, and on Population—Publication of the Circular—Letter to Dr. Charles Parry—Paper on the Migration of Birds . . . . .	242
---	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07114-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner M.D.: With Illustrations of his Doctrines,
and Selections from his Correspondence: Volume 2

John Baron

Table of Contents

More informationCONTENTS. vii

CHAPTER IX.

	Page
Domestic Habits and personal Character—Death and Funeral . . . . .	277

LETTERS

From Dr. Jenner to various Individuals, &c. &c. . . . .	323
---	-----

APPENDIX.

No. I. List of Diplomas, Honours, &c. conferred on Dr. Jenner . . . . .	449
No. II. Reference to the Madrid Gazette, and to Dr. Sacco's Paper on the Varioloid Disease—The Ben- gal Epizootic—A similar Disease in England—Grease and the Variolæ Equinæ . . . . .	455
No. III. List of Medals struck in honour of Vaccina- tion . . . . .	456
INDEX . . . . .	459