

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07144-4 - Northward Ho!: Including a Narrative of Captain Phipps's Expedition

Albert Hastings Markham

Index

More information

I N D E X.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07144-4 - Northward Ho!: Including a Narrative of Captain Phipps's Expedition

Albert Hastings Markham

Index

More information

INDEX.

A.

- ACCIDENT, dangerous, to Elizabeth, 37; account of a terrible, 52; multiplicity of, 91; incredible, 202.
- Adamson, Cuthbert, second lieutenant of Racehorse, 72.
- Admiralty, Mr. Pepys, secretary of the, 59; Earl of Sandwich, First Lord of the, 70; appreciation of work shown by the, 229; courtesy of the, 229; Sir John Barrow, secretary of the, 233; Lord Melville, First Lord of the, 234; Parry's proposal favourably considered by the, 257; Captain Nares selected by the, 287
- Adventurers, expeditions sent out by private, 59.
- Æolus, unkindness of, 105.
- Aldrich, Lieutenant, starts on his sledging journey, 307; good work done by, 319.
- Alfred, King, his relation of an Arctic voyage, 3; Othar's proposal listened to by, 4; Othar relates his adventures to, 8.
- Alert*, H.M.S., selected for Arctic service, 288; sails from England, 290; critical position of, 294, 296; her rudder disabled, 297; winter quarters of, 298; the Discovery rejoined by, 322; reaches Portsmouth, 323.
- Allen, James, master of Carcass, 73.
- Allin, the butcher, killed by a piece of ice, 53.
- Ambassador; see French.
- Amber, corn-like, sand mixed with a, 50.
- Americans, allusion to the, 58.
- Amity*, the, commanded by Poole, 32; second voyage of, 35.
- Amsterdam, Mr. Moxon visits a public house at, 62; weather as warm at the Pole as at, 63, 65; a dogger bound to, 219.
- Anchors, broken by collision with ice, 202; see also Ice-anchors.
- Antarctic research, the glorious cause of, 58.
- Archangel, Burrough winters at, 20; St. Nicholas near to, 35; a dogger bound from, 219.
- Arctic authorities, consulted, 289.
- Arctic discovery, generous view taken of, 234.
- Arctic exploration, Fotherby advocates, 51; the glorious cause of, again taken up, 58; works relating to, 230; Osborn and Markham advocate the renewal of, 285.
- Arctic regions, Hudson's voyages to the, 27; difficulties of navigation in the, 239.
- Armament of ships, reduced for Arctic service, 89.

- Arms, Royal, set up at Spitzbergen, 47.
- Arnold, Harrison and, excellence of their time-pieces, 109.
- Arthur, King, sails to Iceland, 2.
- Articles of war, the "laws of Auleron" the same as the, 11.
- Astrolabe, use of, mentioned, 10.
- Astrologer, Dr. Dee, the learned, 10.
- Astronomer, Mr. Lyon, of Racehorse, 72.
- Astronomical observations made, 149, 181.
- Atlantic, ice seen in the, 233; Buchan ordered to pass into the Pacific from the, 236.
- "Auleron" judgements of the yle of, 11.
- B.
- BACK, George, appointed to the Trent, 236.
- Baffin Bay, its solitude undisturbed, 56; variation of compass in, 119; expedition sent through, 234; Buchan ordered to pass through, 237.
- Baffin, William, Joseph's voyage written by, 44; serves with Captain Joseph, 45; sent by Fotherby to explore, 46; his voyage to the north-west, 54; reaches his highest latitude, 55; allusion to the exploits of, 58.
- Bags, made to carry bread, 192.
- Baird, John, first lieutenant of Carcass, 73.
- Barents, William, allusion to his voyage, 26.
- Barometer, Dr. Irving carries a, 152.
- Barrington, Mr. Daines, subject of Polar discovery revived by, 69; a son of Viscount Barrington (note), 69; exertions of, crowned with success, 70.
- Barrington, Samuel, an Admiral (note), 69.
- Barrington Shute, Bishop of Durham (note), 69.
- Barrow, Sir John, reports collected by, 233; his opinion on Parry's voyage, 283.
- Bates, Josh., captain's clerk of the Racehorse, 73.
- Bears, at Jan Mayen find traces of, 50; unmolested, 200; fox-hunting surpassed by hunting, 201; a watch set to look out for, 271.
- Bear Island, touched at by Poole, 36; sighted by Buchan, 237; severe weather experienced after leaving, 239.
- Beaumont, Lieut. L. A., good work done by, 319.
- Beechey, Lieut. Frederick, appointed to the Trent, 236; his narrative (note), 236; describes the disruption of an iceberg, 242, 243.
- Beef, allowance of, in the navy, 100; cooked for boats, 192.
- Beerenberg, Mount, in Jan Mayen Island, 50.
- Behring Strait, a course to be shaped for, 237; route by, offers least prospect of success, 290.
- Belcher, Sir Edward, Nares served as a mate under, 287.
- Bell, tolling of, used as a fog signal, 111; excessive motion causes the tolling of the, 252.
- Ben, James, draws the long bow, 66.
- Berwick, meet a brig from, 223.
- Beset, Racehorse and Carcass, 139; ships helplessly, 188; Dorothea and Trent, 250.
- Beverley, Dr., accompanies Parry on his sledge journey, 260.
- Biarmians, so-called by Othar, 6; rescue of shipwrecked, 7.
- Birds, instinct of, 123.
- Bird, Mr., accompanies Parry on his sledge journey, 260.
- Biscayan, vessel fired into a, 45.
- Black Point, open water seen off, 190.
- Blackwall, the Amity sails from, 32.
- Blonde*, Racehorse casts off from the, 103.
- Blubber, sent on shore to be boiled down, 37; removal of, 37.

- Boats, hoisted out to get water, 137; of Carcass, nearly crushed by ice, 139; used for towing a-head, 140, 145; sent for water, 147, 149; of Carcass attacked by walruses, 178; dragged over ice, 186; ordered to be equipped, 191; gunwales of raised, 192; hoisted in, 202; washed overboard, 226; washed on beach, 243; description of Parry's, 260; used to sleep in, 261; necessary for Markham's sledge party, 306; Markham abandons the heaviest of his two, 313.
- Bomb-vessels, Racehorse and Carcass originally, 87.
- Boom-boats, hoisted out, 194; see also (note), 205.
- Bordeaux, ship from, permitted to fish, 45.
- Bounty, paid to men of Phipps's expedition, 77, 92.
- Bread, baked at Smeerenberg, 208.
- Bricks, taken by Phipps, 97; usefulness of, 99.
- Britannia*, H.M.S., the Arctic ships visited by the naval cadets of the, 290.
- Buchan, Captain, his voyage towards the North Pole, 232; appointed to the Dorothea, 235; his journey across Newfoundland, 236; his instructions, 236; highest latitude reached by, 250; his bold expedient, 251; decides upon returning to England, 253.
- Bugle, used by Parry, for calling his men, 272.
- Bumpkin, of Carcass, carried away, 192.
- Burges, James Gee, master's mate of Carcass, 74.
- Burial, of Christian, 177.
- Burrough, Stephen, placed in command of Serch-thrift, 18; assisted by Cabot, 19; discovers the strait leading into the Kara Sea, 20.
- Burrough Strait, sailed through by William, 23.
- Butter, taken in lieu of cheese, 101.
- C.
- CABOT, Sebastian, assists Burrough, 19; dances for joy, 19; appointed first Governor of the Muscovy Company, 20, also (note 2), 32.
- Cannibalism, the crime of, 16.
- Carcass*, selected for Arctic service, 71; Captain Lutwidge appointed to command, 71; Nelson a midshipman in the, 71; officers of the, 73; complement of the, 74; desertions from the, 76; the Racehorse fitted similarly to the, 87; a leak discovered in the, 91; joins Racehorse at the Nore, 105; unable to keep company in a fog, 111; Mr. Floyd sent to the, 116; dull sailing of the, 120, 216; set to the southward during a fog, 131; enveloped in fog, 135; nearly runs into the Racehorse, 138; impeded by ice, 139; jammed in the pack, 139; lost sight of, 142; makes sail to fetch into anchorage, 147; puts to sea, 155; keeps company with Racehorse, 162; signals made to the, 173; boat of, attacked by walruses, 178; collision with the Racehorse, 192; expected to be crushed, 196; made fast to the Racehorse, 205; arrives at the Nore, 228.
- Cathay, company formed with a view to discover a passage to, 21; no passage to, by the North Pole, 29.
- Cats, Kilkenny, allusion to, 17.
- Century, sixth, first Arctic expedition took place during the, 1.
- Chancellor, Pet served with, 22.
- Charles II., sends out an Arctic expedition, 59; the hydrographer of, 68.
- Charts, inaccurate, made for sale, 168, 169.
- Cheese, butter taken in lieu of, 101.
- Cheque, clerk of the, pays the men, 77.
- Cherry Island, voyage undertaken to, 32; Poole returns to, 36;

- Buchan sights, 238; see also Bear Island.
- China, a passage to, via the North Pole, 26; discourse of a passage to, 60.
- Chlorine estimate of water obtained, 108.
- Christian, Swin, death of, 175; burial of, 177.
- Chronometers, Buchan cautioned to ascertain rate of, 237; Parry furnished with pocket, 267.
- Cinders, smiths', stones likened to a, 50.
- Clothing, warm, adopted, 121.
- Cloven Cliff (note), 135; (note), 148; sighted, 157; determine position of, 164.
- Club, seamen form a, 94.
- Cock-boat, derivation of the term, 27.
- Cod, catch a quantity of, 111.
- Cold, slight difference felt in, 110; exaggerated accounts of the, 121; weather extremely, 160; intense, 304.
- Cold Cape, situated in Spitzbergen, 33; Phipps's expedition abreast of, 130.
- Commission, ships provided with the King's, 44.
- Compass, mariner's, not known in the ninth century, 5; see Variation.
- Complements, of Racehorse and Carcass, 74.
- Condensed; see Water.
- Copley Medal, awarded to Lieut. Foster, 257.
- Crane, Mr. John, master of the Racehorse, 72; sent to look for an opening in the ice, 185.
- Creswell, Mr. John, midshipman of Carcass, 74.
- Cross, erected on Spitzbergen by Fotherby, 46.
- Cross-road, Fotherby anchors in, 49.
- Crown Court, Mr. Ben resides in, 66.
- Crow's nest, naval cadets of the Britannia ascend into the, 291.
- Crozier, Lieutenant, appointed to the Hecla, 258.
- Cunningham, John, boatswain of Carcass, 74.
- Current, the ice packed by the, 139; experience a strong, 173, 250, 275; boat sent to try strength of, 175; variableness of, 177; ships and ice drifted by the, 189; a favourable, 200; irregular, on the coast of Spitzbergen, 210.

D.

- DANE, death of a, 175.
- Danish settlements in Greenland, 291.
- Dangerous situation of ships, 196; condition of men on the ice, 248.
- Dangers, vessels exposed to, 53; of ice navigation lessened, 57; of a ship following close astern, 138; of shipwreck, 227; from the disruption of an iceberg, 243.
- Darkness, experienced in a high latitude, 303.
- D'Auvergne, Mr. Philip, midshipman of Racehorse, 73.
- Davis, John, allusion to his voyages, 26; Baffin follows the track of, 55; his exploits alluded to, 58.
- Deadman's Island, in Spitzbergen, 153.
- Dean, Mr. Charles, midshipman of Carcass, 74.
- Death, Willoughby's crew frozen to, 22; Poole plucked from the jaws of, 38; of Swin Christian, 175; escape from the jaws of, 203.
- De Bougainville, the French navigator, 101; Phipps determines to fight with, 102.
- Deer, to be obtained at Fairhaven, 150; the largest quantity of, 173.
- Deer-field; see Rhen-field.
- Deptford, Mr. Floyd joins the Racehorse at, 86; Racehorse sails from, 103; arrival of Buchan at, 253.
- Desertions, from Racehorse and Carcass, 76.

INDEX.

333

- Devil's Island, off Spitzbergen, 135; its position determined, 164.
- Dingle, Richard, made to run the gauntlet, 77.
- Dipping needle, experiments made with the, 118, 153.
- Discipline, severity of, in early days, 76.
- Discovery*, commanded by William Baffin, 54; selected for Arctic service, 288; sails from England, 290; critical position of the, 294; left in winter quarters, 295; reaches England, 323.
- Dispute, novel termination of a, 96.
- Disraeli, Mr., an Arctic expedition sent out by, 286.
- Distance, accomplished by Parry, 282.
- Distilling; see Water.
- Divine service, neglect of, 79.
- Dock, Racehorse and Carcass haul out of, 89.
- Dogs, seals resemble, 125; Dr. Irving followed by a black, 152; procured for the Alert, 291.
- Dogger, a Dutch (note 2), 219.
- Dominus Vobiscum*, the, sails to the north, 13; reaches Meta Incognita, 14; the only Government expedition sent by England, 59.
- Dorothea*, selected for Arctic service, 235; critical position of the, 244; serious damage done to the, 253.
- Dover, Baffin anchors off, 56.
- Drag-belts, made on board Racehorse, 192.
- Drag-ropes, made of horsehair, 261.
- Drake, allusion to the exploits of, 58.
- Dress, altered by easy gradations, 121.
- Drift-wood, found on Jan Mayen Island, 50; met with by Phipps, 122; found on an island off Spitzbergen, 184.
- Drums, beat of, used as fog-signals, 111.
- Ducks, abundance of, at Vogelzang, 148; seen on an island off Spitzbergen, 184; obtained in Magdalena Bay, 245.
- Dundee whale ships, enterprising captains of, 41.
- Dunkin, Mr. Robert, master's mate of Racehorse, 72.
- Dutch, whale fishery profitable to the, 27; allusion to the present work of the, 58; relation of a quartermaster, 61; Ben sails to Japan with the, 67; loss of two whalers, 127; whaler sighted, 130; loss of four ships, 130; Vogelzang named by the (note), 146; two whalers at anchor, 149; particular knack of the, 169; a whaler spoken, 206; four ships seen, 207; two vessels sail, 209; a dogger (note 2), 219; a large ship sighted, 220.
- Dutchman, William Barents, a, 26; in the snow, 152.

E.

- EASTER Sunday, a wretched, 313.
- Ecclesiastic, an enterprising, 10.
- Edge, in command of Margaret, 35; met by Poole, 37; intercedes with Marmaduke to save Poole, 39; commands a fleet with Joseph, 44.
- Edward the Third, expedition during the reign of, 10.
- Edwards, Josh., ice-pilot Carcass, 74.
- Eggs, of ducks, found in the summer, 148; taken by the whalers, 149; in Magdalena Bay obtain a large quantity of, 245.
- Elizabeth, Queen, gentle reminder by, 21; credit due to, 59.
- Elizabeth*, ship, commanded by Poole, 35; bad sailing of, 36; blubber sent on shore from, 37; capsized of the, 37; cargo of, brought to England, 39.
- Elizabethan era, distinguished for maritime achievements, 26.
- Endeavour*, name of Ross's sledge boat, 260.

- England, the most northerly possession of, 47.
- English whalers, loss of, 127.
- English, Jonas, ice-pilot of the Racehorse, 73.
- Enterprise*, Parry's sledge-boat was named the, 260.
- Enthusiasm, a want of, in the present day, 57.
- Equator, weather the same in England as at the, 65.
- Eskimos, finding of, by Othar, 6; the Arctic expedition joined by two, as hunters, 291.
- Example, Mr. Floyd sets a good, 231; the Government sixty years ago set a good, 234.
- Excursion, an imprudent, 247.
- Expedition, earliest account of an Arctic, 1; Alfred the Great relates the history of an Arctic, 3; Nicholas de Lynnas, 9; Master Thorne originates an, 12; Trinitie and Minion sail in an, 15; Serch-thrift despatched on an, 18; an, sent to Burrough Strait, 20; Martin Frobisher's three, 21; the Muscovy Company organize an, 22; Pet and Jackman's, 22; Hudson's, towards the North Pole, 26; Jonas Poole's, 32; in 1611, 34; under Joseph and Edge, 44; under Joseph and Fotherby, 45; Fotherby's in 1615, 49; Baffin's, 54; numerous, sent forth by England, 57; Captain Wood's, 59; of Captain Phipps's, 69; Captain Buchan's, 232; two sent out by England, 234; Sir Edward Parry's 255; of Sir George Nares, 285.
- Exploration, the desire for Arctic, revived, 233.
- F.
- FAIRHAVEN, anchorage of, 147; observations at, 153; Buchan arrives at, 247; Dorothea and Trent return to, 253.
- Famine, early expedition suffers from, 16.
- Feat, Pet's voyage a great maritime, 25.
- Felt, used in the construction of boats, 260.
- Fenton, John, gunner of Racehorse, 73.
- Finland, Othar probably visited, 6.
- Fish, monstrous, 9; unsuccessful attempt to catch, 150; in Spitzbergen there are no, 180.
- Fisherman, an unconcerned, 220.
- Flags, a red, planted on Roige Hill, 240; displayed by Parry in highest latitude, 280; hoisted by Alert in highest latitude, 297; displayed by Markham in the highest latitude reached, 316.
- Fleet, King Arthur sails with his, 2.
- Floe, obtaining water from a, 137; description of, 262; enormous thickness of the, 296.
- Floe-bergs, protection for the Alert, 298, 302.
- Floyd, Mr. Thomas, midshipman of the Racehorse, 73; his narrative forms main feature of book, 77; its accuracy corroborated, 78; his preface and introduction, 81; his narrative, 83; he reads all Arctic books, 84; joins the Racehorse, 86; nearly left behind, 107; his brilliant idea, 107; sent to communicate with Carcass, 116; his ideas regarding the variation of the compass, 118; is rescued from the walrus by Nelson, 184; portions of his journal missing, (note) 185; his error of dates; 197; sent to examine the ice, 198; his preparations for leaving the ship, 199; abrupt termination of his MS., 228; his narrative, compared to others, 229; his difficulty in writing, 230; his good example, 231.
- Fog, Pet and Jackman experience a dense, 24; ships lost in a, 25; Fotherby unable to see on account of a, 49; Racehorse and Carcass

INDEX.

335

- keep company in a thick, 111 ; signals used during a, 111, 142 ; guns heard during a thick, 116 ; winds that produce, 117 ; a bitter enemy, 121 ; observations interfered with by, 131 ; Carcass, hidden from view by a, 135 ; waiting for, to clear, 140 ; unable to see beyond ship on account of, 161 ; a very dense, 190 ; party on the ice overtaken by a thick, 247.
- Fog-bank, mistaken for land, 161, 178.
- Foster, Lieut., appointed to Hecla, 257 ; awarded the Copley medal, (note), 257 ; receives final instructions from Parry, 260.
- Fotherby, Robert, Joseph's narrative written by, 45 ; sails in the Thomazen, 46 ; Baffin sent to explore by, 46 ; possession of Spitzbergen taken by, 47 ; his speech, 47 ; curious incident related by, 48 ; his voyage in 1615, 49 ; visits Jan Mayen Island, 50 : advocates further exploration, 51.
- Foxes, traces of, on Jan Mayen Island, 50 ; to be got at Fairhaven, 150, 151 ; one seen, on an island off Spitzbergen, 184.
- Foguel Sound, see Vogelzang.
- Franciscan ; see Friar.
- Franklin, Lieut., his voyage with Buchan, 232 ; appointed to the Trent, 235 ; his Arctic services ; 235 ; witnesses the disruption of an iceberg, 243 ; follows Buchan into the pack, 251 ; his scheme for reaching the North Pole, 255 ; work done by expeditions sent out in search of, 284 ; his opinion on Arctic research, 325.
- Franklin Sound, Lady, the Discovery winters in, 295.
- French, ship, capture of a, 17 ; ambassador visits Racehorse, 77 ; fleet being fitted out to act against the, 90 ; a great traveller, 172.
- Friar, a Franciscan, his voyage, 10.
- Frobisher, Martin, three expeditions commanded by, 21 ; mention of Jackman having served with, 22 ; allusion to the exploits of, 58.
- Frodsham, Parkinson and, furnish chronometers to Parry's expedition, 268.

G.

- GALES of wind, experienced by Phipps, 217, 221, 224 ; Dorothea and Trent caught in a furious, 251 ; Easter day on the ice in a, 313.
- Galfridus ; see Monumetensis.
- Gamaliel*, the master of, requests help to haul up a dead whale, 48.
- Game, plentiful supply of, 245.
- Geese, seen near Spitzbergen, 184.
- Geoffrey of Monmouth ; see Monumetensis.
- Geographical Society, the Royal, committee formed by the, 286.
- George*, bark, commanded by Pet, 22 ; sails in the track of Serch-thrift, 23 ; falls in with the William, 23 ; anchors at Ratcliffe, 25.
- George the Second, orders the despatch of an expedition towards the North Pole, 70 ; Captain Phipps's book dedicated to (note), 78.
- George the Fourth gives instructions to fit out an expedition, 234.
- Gibraltar, Samuel Barrington employed at relief of (note), 69.
- Gifford, Lieut., leaves Alert with Aldrich, 307.
- Glacier, seen in Spitzbergen, 147 ; an iceberg formed from a 242.
- Gladstone, Mr. reply from the members of his Cabinet, 286.
- Godhavn, arrival of the Alert at, 291.
- Gold, Mr. John, midshipman of Racehorse, 73.
- Gottenberg, meet a ship from, 223.
- Grant-land, Aldrich explores the shores of, 307, 319.

- Graves, Mr. Thomas, third lieut. of Racehorse, 72.
- Gravesend, Trinitie and Minion sail from, 15; visit of Cabot to, 19; Hopewell sails from, 27; Baffin departs from, 55.
- Green, Nicholas, killed by falling ice, 53.
- Greenland, subdued by King Arthur, 2; probable discovery of, by Othar, 6; Hudson sights the east coast of, 28; Poole's error regarding, 33; Elizabeth ordered to keep company with squadron as far as, 35; Liverpool Island on coast of, 49; spacious sea between Spitzbergen and, 51; "Sander-son his hope," on the coast of, 55; relation of a quartermaster of a ship, 61: less cold at the Pole than at, 65; Buchan ordered to pass between Spitzbergen and, 236; Buchan examines the pack towards, 251; Beaumont explores the northern coast of, 319.
- Greenland whalers, masters of, selected as ice-pilots, 88.
- Greenwich time, accuracy of, 237.
- Guinea, exaggerated account of the heat off the coast of, 122.
- Guns, carried by Racehorse and Carcass, 89; firing of, used as fog signals, 111, 142; mysterious report of, 116; accounted for, 120; fired by Racehorse and Carcass, 131; hove overboard, 226.
- H.
- HAKLUYT, narrative of De Lynna's voyage by, 10; he censures the writers of an early period, 14.
- Hakluyt Headland, Fotherby rounds, 46; ice seen north of, 132; bearing of, 145; observed, 156; its position determined, 164; steer towards, 205; rounded by Parry, 259.
- Hakluyt, Mount, named by Fotherby, 50.
- Hamburg, a Snow, bound to, 115.
- Hammerfest, arrival of Hecla at, 258.
- Hangcliff, distance from, 219.
- Hardships, early voyagers endured greater, 57; did not expect that many would survive the, 194.
- Harpoon, new gun, carried by Phipps, 122.
- Harrison and Arnold's timekeepers, excellence of, 109.
- Harvey, Henry, first lieut. of Racehorse, 72; promoted to rank of commander, 229.
- Harwich, Fotherby sails from, 49; Phipps anchors off, 109.
- Hebrides, probably visited by De Lynna (note), 10.
- Health, of men, precautions taken for the, 101.
- Hecla*, Parry appointed to command the, 257; anchors in Treurenberg Bay, 259; Parry's return to the, 281; sails for England, 281.
- Hecla Cove, named by Parry, 259.
- Heligoland, Othar's residence in, 3; his return to, 8.
- Henry the Eighth, memorial for an Arctic expedition submitted to, 13; encourages maritime enterprise, 15; his generosity and sympathy, 18; the Dominus Vobiscum sent out by, 59.
- Hills, Thomas, his description of a mermaid, 31.
- "Hold with Hope," named by Hudson, 51.
- Hopewell*, name of Hudson's vessel, 27; sails from Greenwich, 27; reaches a high latitude, 42; under the command of Captain Marmaduke, 42.
- Hore, Master, encourages Arctic discovery, 15.
- Horner, Christopher, ice-pilot of the Racehorse, 73.
- Horns, sound of, used as fog signals, 111.
- Horsehair, used for dragropes, 261.
- Howe, Lord, relief of Gibraltar by, (note) 69.

- Hudson Bay, variation of compass in, 119.
- Hudson, Henry, his voyage towards the North Pole, 26; reaches his highest latitude, 28; distance over-estimated by (note), 28; returns to England, 29; makes two more voyages, 30; his murder, 30; land named by, 51; allusion to the exploits of, 58.
- Hughes, Mr. Robert, midshipman of Carcass, 73.
- Hull, ship of, met at Spitzbergen, 37; shipwreck men swim to ship of, 38; Poole arrives at, 40.
- Hydrographer, a brief discourse written by the, 60; simple nature of the, 60; sorely puzzled, 65, 268; his reasons for advocating Arctic research, 68; truthfulness of voyages believed in by the, 70.
- Hydrometer, misapplication of the term (note), 149.
- I.
- ICE, terrible abundance of, 20; William severely handled by, 23; unable to make progress through, 24; unable to see out of main-top on account of, 24; great store of, seen by Hudson, 28; seen by Poole not very heavy, 33; met, close to Spitzbergen, 35; ship almost split by piece of, 41; met in 75° N. Lat., 46; progress arrested by, 46; Fotherby repulsed by, 48; Baffin experiences no hindrance from, 55; at the North Pole there is no, 63; a large body of, seen, 115; treated like land, 115; round Jan Mayen Island, 119; ships crushed by the, 127; seen north of Hakluyt Headland, 132; sighted by Phipps, 133; appeared like a high continent, 134; a solid body of, 135; sailing amongst loose, 136; ship's way stopped by, 138; smooth water always obtained in the, 141; battling with the, 156; an ocean of, 158; unsatisfactory view of the, 161; no opening to be found in the, 176; meet the main body of the, 180; ships completely surrounded by, 185; imprisoned by the, 186; heavy nature of the, 198; serious collision with the, 202; favourable change supposed to have taken place in the, 233; Buchan meets the main body of the, 238; heavy accumulation of, 239; Buchan's unsuccessful struggle with the, 246; heavy barrier of, 249; ship's progress arrested in Smith Sound by, 292; heavy nature of the, 296.
- Ice-anchors, ships provided with, 88; one put out on each bow, 140.
- Iceberg, description of an, attended with fatal results, 52; a large, 181; in the Atlantic, 233; Beechey describes the formation of an, 242, 244; size and weight of an, 245; forms a prominent feature of Arctic scenery, 291; Alert nearly destroyed by an, 293.
- Iceland, King Arthur sails to subdue, 2; a voyage to, considered an Arctic one, 2; not the same as the present island, 2; visited by De Lynna, 11.
- Ice-pilots; see pilots.
- Ice-poles, used on board Racehorse, 138, 140.
- Ice-saws, ships supplied with, 88; probable use of, 96; men set to work with, 189.
- Iceicles, hang at the ropes' ends, 159; snow falls like, 160.
- Impostors, exposure of, 171.
- Instruments, mathematical, supplied to Phipps, 99; sent on shore, 131; astronomical, got on board, 155; tents erected for, 208.
- Irving, Charles, surgeon of Racehorse, 72; his apparatus for distilling water, 75; joins the Racehorse, 99; his advice regarding diet, 100; chlorine estimation

- and specific gravity of the sea, ascertained by, 108; salt water converted into fresh by, 113; see note, same page; a high hill ascended by, 152; followed by a black dog, 152.
- Isabella, Cape, reached by the Alert, 323.
- J.
- JACKMAN, Charles, commands the William, 22; served as mate with Frobisher, 22; goes to sea and is never heard of, 25.
- James, King, Spitzbergen taken possession of in name of, 47.
- Jan Mayen Island, Racehorse to the eastward of, 119.
- Japan, a passage to, vid the North Pole, 26; discourse of a passage to, 60; a ship sails across the North Pole from, 67.
- Joseph, Benjamin, in command of a fleet, 44; despatched on a voyage of discovery, 45.
- Joseph Henry, Cape, Markham starts on the ice from, 308; parties separate off, 309; reached by Markham on his return journey, 318.
- K.
- KARA Sea, strait discovered leading into the, 20; the George and William enter the, 23.
- Kilkenny; see Cats.
- King of Prussia*, whaler, spoken with by Phipps, 141.
- Knight, John, allusion to voyage of, 26.
- L.
- LAPLAND, Burrough sails along the northern coast of, 20; Pet and Jackman separate off, 22.
- Land, Hudson discovers, 28.
- Latitude, obtained by using an astrolabe, 10; Hudson reaches his highest, 28; supposed, reached by Marmaduke, 42; highest, reached by Baffin, 55; of Nore-light, determined, 108; high, reached by Phipps, 159; rewards for reaching a high, 232; highest reached by Buthan, 250; Parry reaches his highest, 277; Parry's surpassed by Alert's sledge parties, 303; Markham crosses the 83rd parallel of, 314; Markham reaches the highest, 316.
- Leaks, discovered in Racehorse and Carcass, 91.
- Leap-frog, played on the ice, 187.
- Lee Road, Joseph's expedition sails from, 46.
- Letters, sent to England by a Snow, 115; sent by whaler Rockingham, 132.
- Liverpool Island approached by Fotherby, 49.
- Longitude of Fairhaven, 153.
- Longitude, Board of, clothing to Arctic ships supplied by the, 92; ditto issued, 116.
- Lucas, Mr. Charles, midshipman of Racehorse, 73.
- Lutwidge, Commander, appointed to command Carcass, 71; commander of the Carcass, 73; receives same rate of pay as Captain Phipps, 133; reference to the journal of (note), 185; his report on the ice, 186; promoted to the rank of Captain, 229; Parry's scheme conceived from the report of, 256.
- Lynna, Nicholas de, the voyage of, 9; visits Iceland, 11; governed by the "laws of Auleron," 11.
- Lyon*, loss of English whaler, 130.
- Lyon, Israel, astronomer in Racehorse, 72; instruments provided for, 99; latitude of Nore-light determined by, 108; experiments with the dipping needle conducted by, 118; latitude of Vogelzang determined by, 147.

M.

- MACCARONI taste, ships fitted in the, 104.
- Mackarel, a mermaid speckled like a, 31.
- Magdalena Bay, Dorothea and Trent meet at, 238; excursions and observations taken in, 240; game obtained at, 245.
- Magdalena Point, in Spitzbergen, 131.
- Magnetic attraction, hydrographer puzzled by, 65.
- Magnetic needle, variation of, 55; at the Pole, always pointing north, 64; Lieut. Foster ordered to make observations with the, 258.
- Magnetism, terrestrial, in the ninth century, ignorance of the laws of, 5.
- Markham, Commander, starts on his northern journey, 308; comparisons between Parry's journey and that of, 310; nature of the road travelled by, 312; heavy boat abandoned by, 313; reaches the highest latitude, 316; returns to the Alert, 319.
- Markham, Mr. Clements, his unremitting exertions, 285; his exertions rewarded, 287.
- Marmaduke, Captain, in command of a Hull whaler, 39; reprehensible conduct of, 39; met near Spitzbergen, 42; mistake regarding his reaching a high latitude explained, 42.
- Mary Margaret*, Edge commands the, 35; fitted for whaling, 35; wrecked off Spitzbergen, 37.
- Materials, for house building taken, 97; for experiments numerous and heavy, 104.
- Mathematical; see Instruments.
- Masts, rolling of ship endangers, 225.
- Mate, killed by falling of a piece of ice, 53.
- Maudlin Sound, Fotherby anchors in, 46.
- McClintock, Sir Leopold, superintends fitting out Alert and Discovery, 288.
- Meals of Parry's sledge party, 269.
- Mediterranean, expedition intended for the, 92.
- Melville Bay, dangers of, 56
- Melville, the Earl of, a plan submitted to, 234.
- Memorial submitted to Henry the Eighth, 13.
- Men, difficulty of getting, for Arctic service, 76; exemplary conduct of, 194; work day and night, 195.
- Mercator, Gerard, the authority for De Lynna's voyage, 10.
- Merchants of London, Hudson sent out by the, 26.
- Mermaid, marvellous story of a, 31.
- Meta Incognita, reached by the Dominus Vobiscum, 14; Frobisher discovers ore in, 21.
- Midshipman's berth, not a good place to write a book in, 230.
- Midshipmen, able seamen borne in lieu of, 71; a well clothed, 199.
- Miller, David, master's mate of Racehorse, 73.
- Minikin pin, no hole big enough to put in a, 143.
- Minion*, one of two ships sent out in 1536, 15.
- Moffin's Island (note), 168; ice-pilots never went east of, 169.
- Moment, an anxious, 252.
- Monarch, Merry, subject of Polar exploration revived during reign of, 60.
- Monmouth, Geoffrey of; see Monumetensis.
- Monumetensis, Galfridus, his Histoire of the Kings of England, 1.
- Mortar, bricks and, taken in Phipp's expedition, 97; usefulness of, 99.
- Moss, Dr., starts with Markham, 309.
- Mount of God's Mercy, named by Hudson, 28.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07144-4 - Northward Ho!: Including a Narrative of Captain Phipps's Expedition

Albert Hastings Markham

Index

More information

- Moxon, Mr. Joseph, writes a discourse on the passage by the North Pole, 60.
- Mulock, Joshua, master's mate of Carcass, 74.
- Munchausen, an Arctic, 172.
- Murder, and cannibalism, crimes of, 16; of Hudson by his crew, 30.
- Muscovy Company, Cabot governor of, 19; disappointed at results of Burrough's voyage, 20; result of Queen Elizabeth's communication to the, 21; expedition organized by, 21; incorporation of the, (note) 32; voyage undertaken under auspices of the, 32; Jonas Poole's instructions from the, 35; benefited by the capture of whales, 40; prize confiscated to the, 45; despatch of a fleet by the, 45; persuaded to venture the sum of 2,000*l.*, 52; continue to send vessels to the north, 52.
- Muskets discharged by men on ice as signal of distress, 248.
- N.
- NARES, Sir George, his Polar expedition, 285; appointed to the command of expedition, 287; instructions received by, 288; sails from England, 290; critical position of ships described by, 293; takes advantage of an opportunity to push on, 297; his description of Alert's winter quarters, 298, 300; fully aware of the difficulties to be overcome, 306; his account of the start of the sledge parties, 307; decides on returning to England, 320; communication made to, by her Majesty, 304.
- Narwhal, difference between the, and the walrus (note), 178.
- Navy Board, orders from the, for equipment of Arctic ships, 86.
- Navy, Royal, articles of war, for the use of the, 11; offence in the, punishable by death, 40; condensed water first used in the, 75; manners of victualling the, 100; idle hands in the, 235.
- Nelson, Horatio, a midshipman in the Carcass, 71, 73; disperses the walruses, 184.
- Newfoundland, reached by the Trinitie and Minion, 16; Buchan's voyage across, 236.
- Nicholas, St., a port in White Sea, 36.
- Nips, Dorothea and Trent subjected to severe, 250.
- Norway, formerly called Scantia, 3; conquest of islands appertaining to, 3; probable visit to, by Othar, 6; a sloop from, fallen in with, 112; coast of, under their lee, 223, 227.
- Norwegians, Iceland peopled by the, 2.
- North-East Island, ice infringes on, 186; water seen off, 188.
- North Pole, subjugation of islands under the, 3; accounts of the, being reached a thousand years ago, 5; De Lynna's voyage of discovery to 9; expedition sent for the discovery of, in 1527, 13; the Dominus Vobiscum sails to the, 14; voyage of discovery to the, in 1536, 15; Frobisher's expedition to the, 21; voyages of Davis, Weymouth, and Knight, to the, 26; allusion to Hudson's voyage to, 29; Hudson sent to discover a passage by the, 26; his intention to sail right across the, 27; no passage to Cathay by the, 29; voyage undertaken towards, 32; passage to be attained by, 33; Poole ordered to attempt discoveries to, 35; William Baffin's voyage to the, 54; Mr. Moxon writes a discourse on a passage to the, 60; reasons for believing in the accessibility of, 61; reached by a Dutch ship, 62; objections to a passage by the, 64; less cold at the, than in Greenland, 65; an open sea about the, 66; successful voyage to

INDEX.

341

- the, 69; George the Third orders an expedition to sail towards the, 70; no prize money to be gained at the, 76; Captain Phipps's expedition to, 84; a piece of, for a walking-stick, 95; a Frenchman who had been beyond the, 172; Buchan's voyage towards the, 232; reward for reaching the, 232; Ross's expedition to the, 235; Buchan's orders to reach the, 237; Sir Edward Parry's attempt to reach the, 255; his instructions to reach the, 258; an expedition decided on to explore the regions round the, 287; the primary object to reach the, 288; the Alexis enjoys a winter nearer the, than any one else, 303; Markham gets within 400 miles of the, 316; not attainable by Smith Sound, 319.
- Nore, arrival of the Prosperous at the, 60; Racehorse and Carcass sail from the, 77; arrive at the, 105; dip of the magnetic needle at the, 153; the Racehorse and Carcass arrive at the, 228.
- Nore-light, latitude of, determined, 108.
- Novaya Zemlya, strait separating, from Vaigatz Island discovered, 20; Speedwell lost on a reef near, 60.
- O.
- OATMEAL, used in the navy, 101.
- Obi, river, expedition sent to, 21.
- Objections to a passage to the North Pole answered, 64.
- Observations, at Fairhaven, 153; completed, 155; good, 160; commenced at Smeerenberg, 209.
- Officers, of Racehorse, of Carcass, list of, 72; selection of, for Captain Phipps's expedition, 88; careful selection of, 287.
- Ordnance, piece of, hove overboard by disruption of iceberg, 53.
- Ore, gold, obtained by Frobisher, 21.
- Orfordness, arrival of the Racehorse and Carcass at, 228.
- Osborn, Admiral Sherard, his exertions for the despatch of an expedition, 285; rewarded by success, 287.
- Othar, presentation of, to King Alfred, 3; his proposal listened to, 4; his departure, 4; he discovers new lands, 5, 6; rescues shipwrecked men, 7; returns to England, 8; his account of whaling, 9.
- Oxford, a friar of, his voyage, 10.
- P.
- PACIFIC, Buchan ordered to pass from the Atlantic to the, 236.
- Pack, the, sighted by Phipps, 133; reconnoitring along the, 135; sailing along edge of, 156; solidity of, 161; unable to enter, 176; great pressure exerted by, 187, 193; drifting of, 193; unchanged, 211; change supposed to have taken place in the Polar, 233; reported impenetrability of, 246; Buchan examines the edge of, 251; Buchan takes his ship into, 251; met by Parry, 262; nature of, in a high latitude, 277; great pressure exerted by, 300.
- Palæocrystic ice, massiveness of the, 301.
- Parhelion, seen by Parry, 274.
- Parkinson and Frodsham furnish chronometers to Parry, 268.
- Parliament, act of, offering rewards for reaching a high latitude, 232.
- Parr, Lieutenant, acts as second to Markham, 308; starts to obtain relief for party, 318.
- Parry, Lieutenant, sails in Ross's expedition, 235.
- Parry, Sir Edward, his voyage towards the North Pole, 255; his services in the Arctic region, 257; starts on his sledge journey, 260; his routine while travelling, 266; beset in the snow, 273;

- reaches his highest latitude, 277; returns to the Hecla, 281; distance accomplished by, 282; report of, proves the difficulty of the Spitzbergen route, 289; Markham's journey compared with that of, 310; opinion of, regarding Arctic explorations, 325.
- Parry, John, purser of Carcass, 73.
- Patriotism of Englishmen may yet be aroused, 58.
- Pay, special rate of, 75.
- Paul's, St., Canon of, Cathedral, sails in an Arctic expedition, 13; (see note) 307.
- Pease, used in the navy, 101.
- Pennington, Josh., second lieutenant of Carcass, 73.
- Pepys, Mr. Samuel, arguments of, 59.
- Pet, Arthur, in command of George, 22; served with Sir Hugh Willoughby, 22.
- Phipps, Captain the Honourable, his voyage, 69; selected for the command, 71; Captain of H.M.S. Racehorse, 72; same rate of pay as Commander Lutwidge, 75; he corroborates Mr. Floyd's narrative, 78; his book (note), 78; result of voyage of, 80; his abilities, 84; reduces armament of ships, 89; time pieces entrusted to the care of, 99; his determination to fight with De Bougainville, 102; his abilities as an orator, 108; his experiments with the dipping needle, 118; precautions on sighting of ice, 133; reaches a high latitude, (note) 159; interrogates and exposes impostors 171; book used for compilation of Chap. IX. (note) 185; sends Mr. Walden to examine ice, 190; orders boats to be equipped, 191; his intention to abandon ships, 192; explores the ice, 195; his account of breaking an anchor, 203; decides to return to England, 213; his account of a severe gale, (note) 226; his narrative compared with that of Mr. Floyd, 229; Parry's scheme conceived from the report of, 256.
- Pink, meaning of the term (note), 59.
- Polaris*, U.S. exploring ship, reaches a high latitude, 289.
- Polar ice, sighted by Wood, 60.
- Polar pack, Hudson's report on state of, 29.
- Polar voyage, Pet's not strictly one, 25; the last, 323.
- Policy, warlike, displayed by the English, 17.
- Poole, Jonas, sails in Amity, 32; his error regarding the identity of Spitzbergen, 33; his observations regarding a passage, 33; error made by, regarding dates, 34; again engaged in 1611, 35; relates capsizing of Elizabeth, 37; in command of two ships in 1612, 40; his mistake about Captain Marmaduke, 42.
- Popularity of Arctic enterprise, 270.
- Pork, allowance of, in navy, 100.
- Portsmouth, Alert and Discovery sail from, 290.
- Prayers, day commenced with, 268; the day concluded with, 271.
- Press-gang, ordered to be ready, 91.
- Prize money, not to be gained at the North Pole, 76.
- Proclamation regarding bounty issued, 90.
- Programme of the Alert's sledging campaign, 305, 307.
- Proven, arrival of the Arctic expedition at, 291.
- Provisions, scarcity of, 193; depôt of, established at Walden Island, 259.
- Pullen, Mr., reads prayers to the sledgers, 307.
- Pumps, chains, fitted to Racehorse and Carcass, 75; all hands employed at the, 225.
- Purchas, his accounts of early voyages, 34.
- Purcell, carpenter of the Carcass, 74.

Q.

QUEEN, (see Elizabeth) letter from the, 323.

R.

Racehorse, bomb vessel, selected for Arctic service, 71; Captain Phipps takes command of, 71; list of officers of, 72; complement of, 74; desertions from, 76; appointment of Mr. Floyd to, 84; fittings of, similar to Carcass, 87; a leak discovered in, 91; leaves Deptford, 103; receives a visit from a large walrus, 124; has to shorten sail for Carcass, 136; puts to sea, 155; sails along edge of pack, 156; Carcass keeps company with, 162; forced into the ice, 165; fires a gun to recall party, 182; Carcass comes into collision with, 192; expected to be crushed, 196; release of, 203; anchors at Smeerenberg, 206; free of the ice, 212; delayed by dull sailing of Carcass, 216; heavy gales experienced by the, 217, 221, 224; throws two guns overboard, 226.

Rain, a nuisance, 163; unusual fall of, 263.

Raleigh, allusion to the exploits of, 58.

Ramsay, John, gunner of Carcass, 74.

Rambles enjoyed on shore, 151.

Rayner, Robert, his description of a mermaid, 31.

Rebecca, loss of English whaler, 130.

Record office, Public, 229.

Reindeer, obtained in Magdalena Bay, 245; brought by Parry for sledging purposes, 258.

Release of ships, 204.

Rhen-field, ships abreast of the, 173.

Revolution, one of Poole's squadron, 35; bound to St. Nicholas, 36.

Resolutions formed by young officers not carried out, 228.

Results, of Hudson's voyage, 29; of Buchan's expedition, 254.

Rewards, offered for reaching a high latitude, 232.

Rigging, of ships examined, 89.

Ritenbank, arrival of the Alert at, 291.

Robinson, James, clerk on board Carcass, 73.

Rockingham, whaler, communicate with, 126; information obtained from master of, 127; whales a good prize for the, 128; again sighted, 132.

Rocks, ships drifting towards, 196.

Rodney, Sir George, his command at, 83.

Ropes, beaten with sticks in order to relieve them of ice, 240.

Ross, Sir John, his voyage to Baffin's Bay, 56; his expedition for the discovery of a north-west passage, 235; Buchan, ordered, if possible, to communicate with, 237; beset in snow, 273.

Ross, Sir James, appointed as lieutenant to Hecla, 258; accompanies Parry on his sledge journey, 260.

Rotge Hill, ascent of, 240.

Routine, daily, carried out by Parry, 266; Markham's, identical with Parry's, 310.

Royal Society; see Society.

Rudder, of Alert disabled, 297.

Ru-hworth, Edward, midshipman of Carcass, 74.

Rusians, death of ten out of fifteen, 130.

S.

SAILS, unbent and repaired, 154; to balance a, 224; see Studding-sails.

Sailor of to-day, not inferior to those of earlier times, 58.

Sanderson, his hope, reached by Baffin, 55.

- Sandwich, Earl of, First Lord of the Admiralty, 70; visits the Racehorse and Carcass, 77.
- Saunders, Sir Charles, his expedition laid aside, 92.
- Saws; see Ice saws.
- Scott, George, mid-shipman on board the Racehorse, 73.
- Scoresby, Dr., his report of the ice, 256.
- Scurvy, Markham's party attacked with, 314; disabled state of party by, 316; distressing condition of Markham's sledge party from, 318; magnitude of outbreak of, 321.
- Seal, Greenland, mistaken for a mermaid, 31; a large number of, seen, 125, 128.
- Seamen, gunners, allusion to, 96.
- Seamen, able, borne in lieu of midshipmen, 71; given to be superstitious, 91; liable to temptation, 94; their ideas regarding the expedition, 95.
- Searle, Richard, master's mate to Carcass, 74.
- Sea worthies, never to be forgotten, 58.
- Serch-thrift*, fitting out of, 18; departure of, 20.
- Seven Islands, land supposed to be the, 174; (note), 175.
- Shane, James, master's mate on board Racehorse, 74.
- Sheerness dockyard, officers of, imposed upon, 107.
- Ships, preparations to abandon, 191, 198; miraculous escape of, 204.
- Shipwreck, of Mary Margaret, 37; of Elizabeth, 37; narrow escape from, 132.
- Shipwrecked fishermen, re-cue of, by Othar, 7.
- Shoals, precautions to avoid, 174.
- Shocks, received from striking ice, 136, 143, 165.
- Shetland, ships arrived at the coast of, 109; visit of fishermen from, 110; fishermen get drunk, 110; birds accompany ships from, to Spitzbergen, 123.
- Siesta of whales not disturbed, 41.
- Signals, appointed for keeping company, 162; made to Carcass, 173.
- Sledges, reindeer thought useful for dragging, 258; start of Parry's, 260; sent out by the Alert in the autumn, 299; leave the Alert for the spring campaign, 306; difficulties in advancing the, 312.
- Sledge boat, description of Parry's, 260.
- Smeerenberg, Phipps anchors off, 206; derivation of its name, and description, 207; survey of harbour, 209.
- Smuggler, sail suspected of being, 112.
- Snow, met with, 115, description of (note), 115.
- Snow, mountain covered with, 50; falls in stellar formation, 160; like icicles, 160; ropes doubled in thickness by fall of, 201; harder at night than during the day, 266; used to keep the Alert warm, 302.
- Snow-blindness, precautions to avoid, 266.
- Society, Royal, fellow of, Mr. Moxon, 60; papers read before, 70; specimens collected for the, 180; President and Council of the, submit scheme for Polar exploration, 234; Copley Medal of the, awarded to Lieut. Foster, (note) 257; committee appointed by the, 286; see Geographical.
- Soundings, attempt to obtain, 115; obtained off Spitzbergen, 138; 144, 158, 165, 175, taken to avoid shoals, 174; obtained in cracks through ice, 193; obtained N.W. of Shetland, 218; Specimens reserved for Royal Society, 180.
- Southey, his mistake regarding rating of Nelson, 71.
- Speedwell, sent out, commanded by Captain Wood, 59; loss of, 60.
- Spitzbergen, probable discovery of, by Othar, 7; discovery of whale fishing in sea of, 27; sighted by

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07144-4 - Northward Ho!: Including a Narrative of Captain Phipps's Expedition

Albert Hastings Markham

Index

More information

INDEX.

345

- Hudson, 28; Poole mistakes Greenland for, 33; sea not navigable in May, 34; ice met close to, 36; an open sea reached off, 46; coast of, cleared by wind of ice, 115; the Racehorse abreast of, 123; well-named, 125; appearance of, 125; ships of war at, 130; never visited in early part of the year, (note) 2, 148; difficulty of recognition, 164; correct chart of, 168; bearing of Seven Islands from (note), 175, no fish at, 180; the most northern point of, 190; general remarks on, 210; Buchan ordered to sail between Greenland and, 236; formation of icebergs in sea of, 242; Lieut. Fisher, ordered to visit coast of, 258.
- Springfield*, whaler, loss of, 127, 130.
- Squall, struck by a heavy, 221; frequent and heavy, 222.
- Stamford, John, boatswain, H.M.S. Racehorse, 73.
- Steamship, dangers lessened in, 56.
- Steer-man, relation of a Dutch, 62, 63; commanded to steer due north, 67.
- Stern-post of William damaged, 24.
- Stoked vessel, 36.
- Storm, pinnace destroyed by a southerly, 36.
- Strong, John, purser to H.M.S. Racehorse, 72.
- Studding-sails, hauled down on sighting the ice, 133; cut up to make drag belts, 192.
- Sun, great heat of the, 33, 153; early rising and late setting of the, 110; its shape, 110; at midnight, 7° above horizon, 114; not seen for six days, 120; melts snow on a floe, 137; departure of the, at Aler's winter quarters, 303; return of the, 304.
- Sundays, non-observance of, 79.
- Swedish, a, ship sighted, 223.
- Swell, sets ship towards pack, 140; a heavy, from the S.W., 145; from the south, 165; a great, from the S.W. 220; increases, 222.

T.

- TABLE ISLAND, a depôt established by Parry at, 278; reached by Parry, 281.
- Tacking (note), 134.
- Temperature, little alteration of, 110; of water at a great depth 112; exaggeration of, 122; little difference of, in twenty-four hours, 267; whilst asleep in boats, 272; lowest recorded, 304; difference of, experienced by Parry and Markham, 310.
- Tempest, a severe, 225.
- Thames, Dorothea and Trent sail out of the, 237; the Hecla arrives in the, 281.
- Thermometer, used for obtaining deep-sea temperatures, 112; sunk to the depth of 120 fathoms, 128; raised by being exposed to the sun, 153; at freezing-point, 160.
- Thomazen*, name of Fotherby's ship, 46.
- Thunderstorm, a heavy, 106.
- Tide, a very irregular, at Fairhaven, 154.
- Timbers, cracking of the ship's, 252.
- Timekeepers, entrusted to the care of Phipps, 99; excellence of, 109.
- Toilet, sledging parties limited, 268.
- Tomahawks, used to support the feet whilst climbing, 241.
- Toms, John, midshipman of the Carcass, 74.
- Trawl, put over to catch fish, 180.
- Travelling, monotonous, 262; Parry's routine whilst, 266; dresses for, 268.
- Trent*, selected for Arctic service, 235; Franklin appointed to command, 235; Lieutenant Beechey, first lieutenant of, 236; George Back, mate in, 236; a relief party

- sent out from the, 249; seriously damaged, 253.
- Treurenberg Bay, selected as an anchorage for Hecla, 259.
- Trinitie*, one of two ships sent out in 1536 to discover a N.W. passage, 15.
- Trinity Harbour, named by Fotherby, 47.
- Tropics, weather moderate as in England in the, 65.
- Trumpets, used as fog signals, III.
- U.
- UPERNIVIK, arrival of the Alert and Discovery at, 291.
- V.
- VAIGATZ ISLAND, strait discovered separating, from Novaya Zemlya, 20; George and William agree to meet off, 23.
- Variation of compass, the greatest, 55; observed by Baffin, 56; experiments made on by Phipps, in Hudson and Baffin bays, 119; 118; at Fairhaven, 153; determined, 181.
- Vogelhoek, of Barents, approached by Hudson, 28.
- Vogelzang (note), 135; (note), 146; its position determined by Mr. Lyon, 147; (note), 148; one point forming the sound called, 150; Smeerenberg deeper than, 207.
- Volleys of small arms as fog signals, III.
- W.
- WALDEN, Frederick, midshipman of Racehorse, 73; sent to examine ice, 190; island named after, 191.
- Walden Island, depôt of provisions left at, by Parry, 259.
- Wallace, Thomas, assistant surgeon of Carcass, 73.
- Wallis, William, surgeon of Carcass, 73.
- Walrus, a large, seen, 124; attack a boat, 178; difference between a narwhal and (note), 178; pleasure of being attacked by, 179; ferocious attack by, 183.
- Wapping, arrival of Fotherby at, 48; place of J. Ben's residence, 67.
- Wardhus, George and William, part company off, 22.
- Water, apparatus for distilling, 75; sea, converted into fresh, 113; first used in the navy, 114; send boat for, 131; obtained from a floe, 137; boat sent for, 147, 149; ships complete with, 154; waterproof canvas, used in construction of boats, 260.
- Weather, foul, ships separated by, 36; coldness of, affected by winds, 119; exceeding thick, 132; variable, 140; after leaving Bear Island, encounter severe, 239; Parry experiences thick, 264.
- Weazel, supposed to be seen, 184.
- Waygat Strait, ships abreast of, 173; current in, 210.
- Weights, Elizabeth capsized by removing, 37; dragged by Parry's sledge parties, 262.
- West, carpenter of H.M.S. Racehorse, 73.
- Weymouth, George, allusion to voyage of, 26.
- Whales, early mention of the capture of, 9; Mary Margaret, fitted to kill, 35; capture of seventeen, 40; so many seen as to be impossible to count, 41; a sleepy, 41; Bordeaux ship permitted to kill, 45; the capture of, an object, 45; curious story connected with a dead, 48; three seen, 122, 128.
- Whale fishery, prosecuted by Joseph and Edge, 44; reports relating to, 52.
- Whale ships, yearly voyages to Baffin's Bay, 56; loss of seven,

INDEX.

347

- 130; two Dutch and four English at anchor, 149; captains of, stimulated by offer of rewards, 232; two selected for Buchan's expedition, 235; disagreeable news received from, 246.
- Wheels, supplied to Parry for sledge journey (note), 261.
- White, Mr. George, starts under Markham, 309.
- White Sea, Burrough sails into, 20.
- William*, bark, commanded by Jackman, 22; bad sailing of, 23; falls in with the George, 23; damaged condition of, 24; novel mode of heaving up, 24; loss of, 25.
- Willoughby, Sir Hugh, his ill-fated expedition, 22.
- Winds, unfavourable to sailing of Racehorse, 106; continuance of unfavourable, 109; attended by fog, 117; temperature affected, 119, 137; smell ice-like, 120; variable, experienced, 129; inconstant off the coast of Spitzbergen, 210.
- Winter, arrangements for passing the, 302.
- Wood, Captain, supports Mr. Pepys' arguments, 59; commands the Speedwell and Prosperous, 59.
- Woolwich, Racehorse anchors a little above, 103; sails from, 105.
- Writing, difficulty of, on board ship, 230.
- Wykeham, George, third lieutenant of Carcass, 73.
- X.
- XEBEC, similar to a pink, (note) 59.
- Y.
- YARN, galley, any, believed in by Mr. Moxon, 61.
- Z.
- ZEMLYA; see Novaya.

THE END.