

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-108-07441-4 - The City of the Sultan, and Domestic Manners of the
 Turks, in 1836: Volume 1
 Julia Pardoe
 Table of Contents
More information

CONTENTS

OF

THE FIRST VOLUME.

CHAPTER I.

The Golden Horn—Stamboul in Snow—The Serai Bournou — Scutari
 —Galata—First View of Constantinople—St. Sophia and Solimaniè
 —Pera—Domestication of Aquatic Birds—Sounds at Sea — Caiques
 —Oriental Grouping—Armenian Costume—Reforms of Sultan Mahmoud—Dervishes — Eastern Jews—Evening—Illuminated Minarets — Romance versus Reason — Pain at Parting — Custom House of Galata—The East versus the West—Reminiscences of the Marseillois Functionaries — The British Consul at Marseilles — The Light-house at Syra—The Frank Quarter—Diplomatic Atmosphere—Straw Huts —Care of the Turks for Animals—Scene from Shakspeare Page 1

CHAPTER II.

Difficulty of Ingress to Turkish Houses — Steep Streets — The Harem
 —The Tandour—The Mangal—The Family — Female Costume—
 Luxurious Habits—The Ramazan—The Dining-room—The Widow
 —The Dinner — The Turks not Gastronomers—Oriental Hospitality
 — Ceremony of Ablution — The Massaldjhe—Alarm in the Harem—
 The Prayer — Evening Offering — Puerile Questions — Opium — Primitive Painting — Splendid Beds — Avocations of a Turkish
 Lady — Oriental Coquetry—Shopping — Commercial Flirtations —
 The Sultana Heybétoullah—A Turkish Carriage—The Charshées — Armenian Merchants — Greek Speculators — Perfumes and Embroidery 16

CHAPTER III.

Turning Dervishes — Appearance of the Tekiè — The Mausoleum —
 Duties of the Dervishes — Chapel of the Convent — The Chief Priest

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07441-4 - The City of the Sultan, and Domestic Manners of the
Turks, in 1836: Volume 1

Julia Pardoe

Table of Contents

More information

xii

CONTENTS.

— Dress of the Brotherhood — Melancholy Music—Solemnity of the Service—Mistakes of a Modern Traveller—Explanation of the Ceremony—The Prayer—The Kiss of Peace—Appearance of the Chapel — Religious Tolerance of the Turks — The French Renegade — Sketch of Halet Effendi, the Founder of the Tekiè 40

CHAPTER IV.

Merchants of Galata—Palaces of Pera—Picturesque Style of Building—The Perotes—Social Subjects — Greeks, European and Schismatic—Ambassadorial Residences—Entrée of the Embassies—The Carnival — Soirées Dansantes—The Austrian Minister—Madame la Baronne — The Russian Minister—Madame de Boutenieff—The Masked Ball — Russian Supremacy — The Prussian Plenipotentiary — The Sardinian Chargé d’Affaires — Diplomacy Unhoused — Society of Pera 56

CHAPTER V.

The Greek Carnival — Kassim Pasha — The Marine Barrack — The Admiralty—Palace of the Capitan Pasha—Turkish Ships and Turkish Sailors—More Mistakes—Aqueduct of Justinian—The Serai — The Arsenal—The “ Sweet Waters ”—The Fanar — Interior of a Greek House—Courteous Reception—Patriarchal Customs—Greek Ladies at Home—Confectionary and Coffee—A Greek Dinner—Ancient and Modern Greeks—A Few Words on Education—National Politeness — The Great Logotheti Aristarchi — His Politics — Sketch of his Father—His Domestic History—A Greek Breakfast—The Morning after a Ball—Greek Progress towards Civilization — Parallel between the Turk and the Greek 65

CHAPTER VI.

Difficulty of Obtaining an Insight into Turkish Character — Inconvenience of Interpreters — Errors of Travellers — Ignorance of Resident Europeans — Fables and Fable-mongers — Turkey, Local and Moral — Absence of Capital Crime — Police of Constantinople — Quiet Streets—Sedate Mirth—Practical Philosophy of the Turks—National Emulation—Impossibility of Revolution—Mahmoud and his People—Unpopularity of the Sultan — Russian Interference — Vanity of the Turks — Russian Gold — Tenderness of the Turks to Animals—Penalty for Destroying a Dog — The English Sportsman—Fondness of the Turks for Children — Anecdote of the Reiss Effendi—Adopted Children — Love of the Musselmauns for their Mothers — Turkish indifference to Death—Their Burial-places—Fasts—The Turks in the Mosque—Contempt of the Natives for Europeans — Freedom of the Turkish Women—Inviolability of the Harem—Domestic Economy of

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07441-4 - The City of the Sultan, and Domestic Manners of the
Turks, in 1836: Volume 1

Julia Pardoe

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xiii

the Harem — Turkish Slaves — Anecdote of a Slave of Achmet Pasha—Cleanliness of Turkish Houses—The Real Romance of the East 86

CHAPTER VII.

The Harem of Mustafa Effendi — The Ladies of the Harem — Etiquet-tical Observances of the Harem—Ceremonies of the Salemliek — Jealousy of Precedence among the Turkish Women — Apartment of the Effendi—Eastern Passion for Diamonds—Personal Appearance of Mustafa Effendi—The little Slave-girl—Slavery in Turkey—Gallant Present—The Dinner — Turkish Cookery — Illuminated Mosques—
The Bokshaliks—The Toilet after the Bath—History of an Odalique
—Stupid Husbands—Reciprocal Commiseration — Errors of a Modern French Traveller—Privacy of the Women's Apartments—Anecdote of the Wife of the Kiara Bey—The Bairam Bokshalik—My Sleeping-room — Forethought of Turkish Hospitality — Farewell to Fatma Hanoum—Dense Crowd—Turkish Mob—Turkish Officers—Military Difficulty — The “ Lower Orders ” — Tolerance of the Orientals towards Foreigners—Satisfactory Expedient 109

CHAPTER VIII.

Bath-room of Scodra Pasha — Fondness of the Eastern Women for the Bath—The Outer Hall — The Proprietress — Female Groups — The Cooling-room—The Great Hall—The Fountains—The Bathing Women—The Dinner—Apology for the Turkish Ladies 129

CHAPTER IX.

Cheerful Cemeteries — Burial-ground of Pera — Superiority of the Turkish Cemeteries—Cypresses—Singular Superstition—The Grand Champs—Greek Grave-yard — Sultan Selim's Barrack — Village of St. Demetrius — European Burial-ground — Grave-stones — The Kiosk—Noble View — Legend of the Maiden's Tower — Plague
Hospital of the Turks—The Plague Caïque—Armenian Cemetery—
Curious Inscriptions—Turkish Burial-place—Distinctive Head-stones
—Graves of the Janissaries—Wild Superstition—Cemetery of Scu-tari — Splendid Cypresses — Ancient Prophecy — Extent of Burial-ground—The Headless Dead—Exclusive Enclosures—Aspect of the Cemetery from the Summer Palace of Heybètoullah Sultane —
Local Superstition—The Damned Souls 138

CHAPTER X.

Character of the Constantinopolitan Greeks—The Greek Colony at the Fanar — Vogoride, Logothesi, and Angiolopolo—Political Sentiment—
Chateaubriand at the Duke de Rovigo's — Biting Criticism—Greek

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07441-4 - The City of the Sultan, and Domestic Manners of the
Turks, in 1836: Volume 1

Julia Pardoe

Table of Contents

More information

xiv

CONTENTS.

Chambers —“ What’s in a Name?”— Custom of Burning Perfumes
—The Pastille of the Seraglio — Turkish Cosmetics — Eastern Beauty 157

CHAPTER XI.

The Kourban-Bairam — Politeness of Mustafa Effendi — Depressing
Recollections—Unquiet Night—Midnight March—Turkish Coffee—
A Latticed Araba—The Mosque of Sultan Achmet—Beautiful coupd’œil—Dress of the Turkish Children—Restlessness of the Franks—
The Festival of Sacrifice — Old Jewish Rite — The Turkish Wife—Sun-rise — Appearance of the Troops — Turkish Ladies—Group of Field Officers — The Sultan’s Stud — Magnificent Trappings — The Seraskier Pasha — The Great Officers of State — The Procession—
The Sultan—Imperial Curiosity—The Chèik-Islam— Costume of the Sultan—Japanese Superstition—Vanity of Sultan Mahmoud — The Hairdresser of Halil Pasha—Rapid Promotion—Oriental Salutations —Halil Pasha—Saïd Pasha—Unruly Horses—The Valley of the “Sweet Waters”—Pera 171

CHAPTER XII.

The Military College— Achmet Pasha and Azmi Bey—Study of Azmi
Bey—His grateful Memovies of England and the English—The Establishment—The Lithographic Presses— Extemporaneous Poetry—Halls of Study — Number of Students — Mathematical Hall — The Sultan’s Gallery—The Mosque—The Mufti—The Turkish Creed —
The Imperial Closet — The Gallery of the Imperial Suite — The Retiring-Room—The Printing-Office—The Hospital—The Refectory
—The Professor of Fortification — Negro Officers—Moral Condition of the College — Courtesy of the Officers— Deficiencies of the Professors —The Turks a Reading People —Object of the Institution—
Reasons of its Failure —Smiling Enemies—Forlorn Hope — Russian Influence—Saduk Agha—Achmet Pasha—Azmi Bey — Apology for my Prolixity 194

CHAPTER XIII.

Invitation from Mustapha Pasha of Scodra — The Caique, and the Caiquejhes —How to Travel in a Caique —Hasty Glances —Self-Gratulation —Scutari —Imperial Superstition —The Seraglio Point
—Dolma Batchè — Beshiktash —The Turning Dervishes—Beglièr-
bey—The Kiosks — A Dilemma—A Ruined Palace—An Introduction —A Turkish Beauty — A Discovery —A New Acquaintance—
The Buyuk Hanoum — Fatiguing Walk — Palace of Mustapha
Pasha—The Harem —Turkish Dyes—Ceremonies of Reception—
Turkish Establishment—The Buyuk Hanoum—Turkish Chaplets—

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07441-4 - The City of the Sultan, and Domestic Manners of the
Turks, in 1836: Volume 1

Julia Pardoe

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xv

The Imperial Firman—Pearls, Rubies, and Emeralds—The Favourite Odalique—Heyminè Hanoum—A Conversation on Politics—Scodra Pasha—Singular Coincidence—Convenience of the Turkish Kitchen—Luxury of the Table—Coquetry of the Chibouk—Turkish Mode of Lighting the Apartments—Gentleness towards the Slaves—Interesting Reminiscences—Domestic Details—Dilaram Hanoum—A Paragraph on Pearls—A Turkish Mirror—A Summons—Scodra Pasha—Motives for Revolt—The Imperial Envoy—Submission—Ready Wit of the Pasha's Son—The Reception Room—Personal Appearance of the Scodra Pasha—Inconvenient Courtesy—Conversation on England—Philosophy—Pleasant Dreams—The Plague-Smitten 216

CHAPTER XIV.

Procession of Betrothal—Preliminary Ceremonies—The Mantle of Mahomet—The Palace of the Seraskier Pasha—The Palace Square—Picturesque Groups—An Interior—Turkish Children—Oriental Curiosity—Costume of the Turkish Children—Military Music—The Procession—Hurried Departure of the Crowd—The Seraskier's Tower—The Fire Guard—Candidates for the Imperial Bride—Imperial Expedient—Saïd Pasha—Policy of the Seraskier—An Audience—The Biter Bitten—Ingenious Ruse—Sublime Economy—Brilliant Traffic—The Danger of Delay—The Marriage Gifts—An Interesting Interview 255

CHAPTER XV.

Fine Scenery—The Coast of Asia—Turkish Cemeteries—The Imperial Seraï—The Golden Horn—Mount Olympus—The Arabajhe—The Araba—The Persian Kiosk—The Barrack of Scutari—The Mosque of Selim III.—The Slipper of the Sultana Validè—The Imperial Guard—Military Material—The Macaroni Manufactory—Sublime Targets—A Major of the Imperial Guard—Triumph of Utilitarianism—The Rise of the Vines—The Holy Tomb—Encampments of the Plague-smitten—The Setting Sun—Return to Europe—The Square of Topp-hannè 276

CHAPTER XVI.

Turkish Superstitions—Auguries—The Court Astrologer—The Evil Eye—Danger of Blue Eyes—Imperial Firman—The Babaluk—The Ceremony—Sable Pythonesses—Witchcraft 289

CHAPTER XVII.

Imperial Invitation—Disagreeable Adventure—Executed Criminal—Efficacy of Wayside Executions—Tardy Conversions—Mistaken

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07441-4 - The City of the Sultan, and Domestic Manners of the
Turks, in 1836: Volume 1

Julia Pardoe

Table of Contents

More information

xvi

CONTENTS.

Humanity—Summary Mode of Execution—The Palace of Asmè
Sultane—Entrance of the Harem—Costume of the Slaves—Nazip Hanoum—Ceremonious Reception—The Adopted Daughter—Costume of the Ladies of the Seraï—Beauty of the Slaves—Extraordinary Arrangement—Rejected Addresses—The Imperial Lover—
Sacredness of Adoption in Turkey—Romantic Correspondence—
Ladies of the Household—The Mother of the Slaves—Peroussè Hanoum—Crowded Audience—The Imperial Odalique—Music of the Harem—The New Pet—The Kislar-Agha—The “Light of the Harem”—The Poetical Sultan—Indisposition of the Sultana—The Palace Gardens—The Imperial Apartments—The Dancing Girl—
Reluctant Departure—Ballad by Peroussè Hanoum 298

CHAPTER XVIII.

Kahaitchana—The Barbyses—The Valley of the Sweet Waters—Imperial Procession—National Interdict—Picturesque Scene—The Princess Salihè and her Infant—Forbearance of the Sultan—The Toxophilites—Imperial Monopoly—Passion of the Sultan for Archery
—Record-Columns—The Odalique’s Grave—The Lost One—Azmè
Sultane—Imperial Courtesy—A Drive through the Valley 321

CHAPTER XIX.

Easter with the Greeks—Greek Church at Pera—Women’s Gallery—
Interior of a Greek Church—The Sanctuary—The Screen—Throne of the Patriarch—The Holy Sepulchre—Singular Appearance of the Congregation—Sociability of the Ladies—L’Echelle des Morts—
Shipping—Boats and Boatmen—Church of the Fanar—Ancient Screen—Treasure Chests—The Sanctuary—Private Chapels—A Pious Illumination—Priests’ House—Prison—Remedy against Ma-homedanism—Midnight Mass—Unexpected Greetings—The Patriarch—Logotheti—Russian Secretaries—Russian Supremacy in Turkey—Affinity of Religion between the Greeks and Russians—
The Homage—Pious Confusion—Patriarch’s Palace—Lovely Night-
Scene—Midnight Procession—Serious Impressions—Suffocating Heat
—Dawn 332

CHAPTER XX.

Feasting after Fasting—Visit to the Patriarch—Gorgeous Procession—Inconvenient Enthusiasm—Indisposition of the Patriarch—The Ceremony of Unrobing—The Impromptu Fair—The Patriarch at Home
—The Golden Eggs 353

CHAPTER XXI.

High Street of Pera—Dangers and Donkeys—Travelling in an Araba

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07441-4 - The City of the Sultan, and Domestic Manners of the
Turks, in 1836: Volume 1

Julia Pardoe

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xvii

—Fondness of the Orientals for their Cemeteries—Singular Spectacle
—Moral Supineness of the Armenians—M. Nubar—The Fair—Armenian Dance — Anti-Exclusives — Water Venders — Being à la
Franka—Wrestling Rings—The Battle of the Sects 360

CHAPTER XXII.

The Mosques at Midnight—Baron Rothschild—Firmans and Orders—
A Proposition—Masquerading—St. Sophia by Lamplight—The Congregation—The Mosque of Sultan Achmet—Colossal Pillars—Return to the Harem—The Chèik-Islam—Count Bathiany—The Party—St.
Sophia by Daylight — Erroneous Impression — Turkish Paradise—
Piety of the Turkish Women—The Vexed Traveller — Disappointment—Confusion of Architecture — The Sweating Stone — Women's Gallery — View from the Gallery — Gog and Magog at Constantinople — The Impenetrable Door—Ancient Tradition — Leads of the Mosque—Gallery of the Dome—The Doves — The Atmeidan—The Tree of Groans— The Mosque of Sultan Achmet—Antique Vases—
Historical Pulpit—The Inner Court—The Six Minarets—The Mosque of Solimaniè — Painted Windows — Ground-plan of the Principal Mosques—The Treasury of Solimaniè— Mausoleum of Solyman the Magnificent—Model of the Mosque at Mecca —Mausoleums in General—Indispensable Accessories—The Medresch—Mosque of Sultan
Mahmoud at Topp-hannè 373

CHAPTER XXIII.

Antiquities of Constantinople — Ismäel Effendi — The Atmeidan—The Obelisk—The Delphic Tripod — The Column of Constantine — The Tchernberlè Tasch—The Cistern of the Thousand and One Columns
— The Boudroum — The Roman Dungeons—Yèrè-Batan-Seraï —
The Lost Traveller—Extent of the Cistern—Aqueduct of Justinian
—Palace of Constantine — Tomb of Heraclius — The Seven Towers
— An Ambassador in Search of Truth — Tortures of the Prison — A Legend of the Seven Towers 405

CHAPTER XXIV.

Balouclè—The New Church—Delightful Road—Eyoub—The Cemetery
—The Rebel's Grave—The Mosque of Blood — The Hill of Graves
—The Seven Towers— The Palace of Belisarius — The City Walls
— Easter Festivities — The Turkish Araba — The Armenian Carriage—Travellers—Turkish Women — Seridjhes—Persians—Irregular Troops— The Plain of Balouclè—Laughable Mistake—Extraordinary Discretion — The Church of Balouclè — The Holy Well —
Absurd Tradition — The Chapel Vault — Enthusiasm of the Greeks

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07441-4 - The City of the Sultan, and Domestic Manners of the
Turks, in 1836: Volume 1

Julia Pardoe

Table of Contents

More information

xviii

CONTENTS.

— A Pleasant Draught — Greek Substitute for a Bell — Violent Storm 434

CHAPTER XXV.

Figurative Gratitude of the Seraskier Pasha — Eastern Hyperbole —
Reminiscences of Past Years—A Vision Realized—Strong Contrasts
—The Marriage Fêtes — Popular Excitement — Crowded Streets—
The Auspicious Day—Extravagant Expectations—The Great Cemetery — Dolma Batchè — The Graud Armoury — Turkish Women —
Tents of the Pashas—The Bosphorus — Preparations—Invocation—
The Illuminated Bosphorus—A Stretch of Fancy—A Painful Recollection — Natural Beauties of the Bosphorus — The Grave-Yard —
Evening Amusements—Well Conducted Population 446

CHAPTER XXVI.

Repetition — The Esplanade — The Kiosk and the Pavilion — A Short Cut—Dense Crowd—A Friend at Court—Curious Coup d'Œil—The Arena — The Orchestra — First Act of the Comedy — Disgusting Exhibition—The Birth of the Ballet — Dancing Boys — Second Act of the Drama—Insult to the Turkish Women—The Provost Marshal
—Yusuf Pasha, the Traitor—Clemency of the Sultan—Forbearance of an Oriental Mob—Renewal of the Ballet—Last Act of the Drama —Theatrical Decorations—Watch-dogs and Chinese—Procession of the Trades — Frank Merchants — Thieves and Judges — Bedouin Tumblers—Fondness of the Pashas for Dancing — The Wise Men of the East 460

CHAPTER XXVII.

Succession of Banquets—The Chèik Islam and the Clergy—Sectarian Prejudices—The Military Staff — The Naval Chiefs — The Imperial Household—The Pashas—The Grand Vizier—Magnificent Procession—Night Scene on the Bosphorus — The Palace of the Seraskier Pasha—Palace of Azmè Sultane—Midnight Serenade—Pretty Truants—The Shore of Asia — Ambassadorial Banquet — War Dance—
Beautiful Effects of Light 478

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Monotonous Entertainments — Bridal Preparations — Common Interest
—Appearance of the Surrounding Country — Ride to Arnautkeui —
Sight-loving Ladies—Glances and Greetings—Pictorial Grouping —
The Procession—The Trousseau—A Steeple-Chase 488

CHAPTER XXIX.

The Bridal Day—Ceremony of Acceptance—The Crowd—The Kislar

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-07441-4 - The City of the Sultan, and Domestic Manners of the
Turks, in 1836: Volume 1
Julia Pardoe
Table of Contents
More information

CONTENTS. xix

Agha and the Court Astrologer — Order of the Procession — The Russian Coach — The Pasha and the Attachés — The Seraskier —
Wives of the Pashas — The Sultan and the Georgian Slave 500

CHAPTER XXX.

A New Rejoicing — Scholastic Processions — Change in the Valley —
The Odalique's Grave — The Palace of Eyoub — The State Apartments — Return to Pera 509