

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07561-9 - Memoirs of Granville Sharp, Esq.: Composed from his Own Manuscripts, and Other Authentic Documents in the Possession of his Family and of the African Institution

Edited by Prince Hoare

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

INTRODUCTION

Page		Page
VIEW of Mr. Sharp's course of action	4	Establishment of Bamburgh Castle, in Northum-
His family	8	berland
Anecdotes of Archbishop Sharp	9	Thomas, William, and James Sharp
Dr. Thomas Sharp, Archdeacon of Northum-	14	Comparison of the characters of William and berland	16	Granville.....
Dr. John Sharp	16	View of Granville's character and principles..
		23

PART I.

HIS EDUCATION—SITUATION IN EARLY LIFE—DEVELOPMENT OF GENERAL PHILANTHROPY—LIBERATION OF AFRICAN SLAVES IN ENGLAND—HIS UNION WITH AMERICAN COLONISTS IN FAVOUR OF AFRICAN SLAVES—CONSEQUENCES OF THAT UNION.—HIS WRITINGS, TILL THE YEAR 1776.

CHAP. I.

Mr. Sharp designed for trade: his apprenticeship	27
He acquires a knowledge of Greek and Hebrew	29
First act of beneficence	ib.
Decease of his parents: he obtains appointments in the Ordnance Office	30
Literary Controversy with Dr. Kennicott	31
Relieves an African Slave, and places him in service: receives an application from him..	33
Undertakes his defence, and procures his freedom	34
Prosecution commenced against Mr. Sharp and his brother James	35
He receives a challenge: his answer	36
Devotes himself to the study of the law, for his own defence	37
Tract on the Injustice of tolerating Slavery in England	39
Prosecutor deterred from continuing his suit..	40

Addresses a Letter to the Archbishop of Canterbury on the Slave Trade.....	44
Declines the offer of a valuable Living	45
Liberates another Negro Slave	47
Writes to Alderman Beckford and Lord Chancellor Camden	48
Corresponds with Dr. Fothergill, on Religious Worship	50

CHAP. II.

Cause of a third Negro Slave, Thomas Lewis, undertaken at the request of Mrs. Banks ..	52
Lewis brought back from a ship lying in the Downs.....	54
Mr. Dunning's defence	ib.
Petition of the Negro.....	56
Lord Mansfield's conduct and opinions	59
Lewis discharged	60
Lord Mansfield declines further proceedings: Remonstrance of G. S.	61

e

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07561-9 - Memoirs of Granville Sharp, Esq.: Composed from his Own Manuscripts, and Other Authentic Documents in the Possession of his Family and of the African Institution

Edited by Prince Hoare

Table of Contents

More information

xxvi

CONTENTS.

	Page		Page
CHAP. III.
Occurrences in West Florida.....	62	Account of Anthony Benezet: letter from him to G. S.	98
Letter from G. S. to General Conway, Lieutenant-General of the Ordnance	63	Answer from G. S.	100
Brass Crosby, Lord Mayor of London, sent to the Tower	ib.	Influence of the Tract on Slavery in America .	103
Address from the Ward of Lime Street	64	Attempt of the Slave-dealers to evade Lord Mansfield's decision in the cause of Somerset	104
Crown Lands reclaimed from the Duke of Portland.....	ib.	G. S. assisted by Dr. Fothergill and Mr. Alleyne	106
Letters addressed to him by G. S. on the Nullem Tempus Bill.....	65	Affairs of the Caribbees in St. Vincent's	ib.
The Duke of Portland's answer	67	Letters from G. S. to Dr. Fothergill and Lord Dartmouth	107
CHAP. IV.
The liberty of Negroes in England still undecided	69	Lord Dartmouth desires an interview.....	111
Cause of James Somerset selected for trial of the general question regarding Slaves in England	70	Correspondence with A. Benezet on American affairs	112
G. S. engages Counsel for the suit	ib.	Letter addressed by G. S. to the Bishop of London	116
Cause brought before Lord Mansfield	71	Connection of the concerns of the Slave Trade with the political state of the American colonies	118
Great importance of the question announced by him.....	ib.	Apology for Mr. Sharp's conduct regarding the latter	119
Mr. Hargrave makes an offer of his assistance Retained by G. S.	72	Address of the American Colonies to the King, similar to the mode proposed by G. S., in respect to the Slave Trade.....	120
The cause tried before Lord Mansfield	75	Copies of his tract on Civil Rights sent to America by Dr. Franklin	122
Opened by Serjeant Davy: his argument	76	CHAP. VI.
Followed by Serjeant Glynn (cause adjourned)	77	Conscientious conduct of G. S. in respect to the contest with the colonies	123
Letter addressed to Lord North by G. S.	78	Procures leave of absence from his office in the Ordnance	ib.
G. S. receives offers of assistance from Dr. Fothergill	80	Resigns his office	126
Abridgment of his Tract on Slavery printed in America	81	Affectionate behaviour of his brothers	ib.
—— presented to the Judges and Counsel	82	View proposed of his literary productions....	127
Cause of Somerset resumed by Mr. Mansfield: his arguments.....	83	CHAP. VII.
Followed by Mr. Hargrave.....	84	Criticism by G. S. on Dr. Kennicott's statement of corruptions in the Hebrew Text	130
And by Mr. Alleyne.....	86	Controversy on that occasion.....	135
Mr. Wallace and Mr. Dunning employed against the Negro	87	Referred to Dr. Lowth	ib.
Lord Mansfield's opinions (cause adjourned) [ibid. and	88	Its favourable termination	136
Mr. Dunning's pleading against the Negro....	ib.	Publication relative to the Liturgy of the Prussian Church	ib.
Lord Mansfield's care of the mercantile interests in the West Indies	ib.	Introduction to Vocal Music.....	138
Lord Mansfield gives judgment in the case ..	89	On the pronunciation of the English tongue ..	139
Right of Negroes to freedom in England established.....	92	Religious and political publications.....	140
CHAP. V.
Humane efforts of the Quakers in North America in favour of African Slaves	95	His amusements: barge on the Thames	143
They open a correspondence with G. S.....	96	His skill in music and drawing	145
		Instruction of Omai	147
		Design of it	149
		Conversations with Omai on the subject of adultery	ib.
		Colliers and salters in Scotland	152

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07561-9 - Memoirs of Granville Sharp, Esq.: Composed from his Own Manuscripts, and Other Authentic Documents in the Possession of his Family and of the African Institution

Edited by Prince Hoare

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxvii

PART II.

ACQUAINTANCE WITH GENERAL OGLETHORPE—CAUSE OF IMPRESSED CITIZENS—ATTEMPT AT RECONCILIATION BETWEEN ENGLAND AND HER AMERICAN COLONIES.—ORIGIN OF THE FIRST MOVEMENTS IN ENGLAND FOR THE ABOLITION OF THE SLAVE TRADE.—CORRESPONDENCE ON PARLIAMENTARY REFORMATION.—RENEWAL OF EFFORTS FOR RECONCILIATION WITH THE COLONIES.—VARIOUS CONCERNS.

ESTABLISHMENT OF EPISCOPACY IN AMERICA, IN CONFORMITY WITH THE PRIMITIVE CHURCH OF ENGLAND—PROMOTION OF LEARNING AND RELIGIOUS KNOWLEDGE IN THE AMERICAN COLLEGES.

THE SHIP ZONG.

CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE UNITED STATES—HONOURS CONFERRED BY THEM ON MR. SHARP.

CHAP. I.

	Page
Correspondence with General Oglethorpe	155
Letter from General Oglethorpe, with anecdotes of himself	157
The "Sailor's Advocate" republished by G. S.	160
G. S. applied to on the subject of impressing: his sentiments respecting it	ib.
Letters respecting some impressed freemen of the city of London	162
Cause of Millachip undertaken by the City . .	164
Mr. Sharp's part in it	165
Lord Mansfield's observations on the trial . . .	166
Conversation with Dr. Johnson on the legality of pressing	168
Mr. Sharp's remarks on that conversation . . .	169

CHAP. II.

G. S. takes an interest in the political troubles of America	172
His loyal conduct respecting them	174
He takes part in measures for the reconciliation of the Colonies with England	175
Anecdotes respecting the cause of his attempts on that subject	ib.
Interview with the Secretary of State	176
Offers his personal service	177
Seconded by General Oglethorpe	179
His efforts unsuccessful	ib.

CHAP. III.

G. S. renews his attention to the cause of African freedom	182
Addresses the Archbishop of York on the subject	184
Commences a personal application to the Archbishops and Bishops for the Abolition of the Slave Trade	185

Page

Receives a promise of assistance from the greater part of them	186
Letters from the Bishop of St. David's (Dr. York), and Dr. Fothergill	187
Correspondence with the Bishop of Peterborough (Dr. Hinchcliff) on the subject of the Slave Trade	189

CHAP. IV.

G. S. takes an interest in the meetings for Parliamentary Reform	191
Makes application to several of the Bishops on the subject	192
Corresponds with the general meetings throughout the kingdom	193
Anecdotes respecting American independence	195
Interviews with various persons on that subject	196
Mr. Laurens's proposals for peace	197
Anonymous letter received by G. S.	198
Communicated to several persons high in the State	199
Their replies	201

CHAP. V.

Various concerns: armed defence of London . .	203
New places and pensions: interview with Sir J. Mawbey	204
Affairs of Ireland: correspondence with Lord Carysfort	205
Success of Mr. Grattan's motion	ib.
Miscellaneous anecdotes	206

CHAP. VI.

Measures taken by G. S. to promote the establishment of Episcopacy in North America .	207
Conversation with Dr. Price	ib.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07561-9 - Memoirs of Granville Sharp, Esq.: Composed from his Own Manuscripts, and Other Authentic Documents in the Possession of his Family and of the African Institution

Edited by Prince Hoare

Table of Contents

More information

xxviii

CONTENTS.

Page	Page
State of the Episcopal Church in the Colonies	209	Liberal donations of books from G. S. to the libraries of the American Colleges	233
Endeavours to procure ordination for American students	211	Decease of Anthony Benezet: his funeral honours	235
Letter to the Archbishop of Canterbury: account of Nonjuring Bishops in Scotland	ib.	CHAP. VIII.
Dr. Seabury comes to England for consecration: proceeds to Scotland	213	The ship Zong—Cruel transaction in it: G. S. orders a prosecution against all the persons concerned	236
Archbishop of Canterbury authorises G. S. to inform the Americans of his readiness to ordain proper persons from America	214	Action brought by the insurers against the owners of the ship	237
Embarrassment of the Episcopalian Clergy in America: they apply to Dr. Franklin—his advice	215	Account of 132 Negroes thrown into the sea alive: trial of the cause before Lord Mansfield	239
Correspondence on the subject between G. S. and Dr. Manning, Dr. Franklin and Dr. Rush	ib.	Second trial: Anecdote of J. Lee, Esq.; argument of Counsel; Lord Mansfield's opinion	240
Progress of measures taken to obtain the consecration of American Bishops	218	Letters from G. S. to the Duke of Portland, and to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty	241
Two Bishops elected in America: requisition to the Archbishop of Canterbury for their consecration	222	Advantages resulting from the trial	244
CHAP. VII.		Letters to G. S. from the Bishops of Peterborough and Chester	246
Conduct of the American Convention	224	Other Negro Slaves liberated: case of H. Demane	247
Correspondence between G. S. and his Excellency J. Adams, Esq., the American Ambassador	225	Protection of an Otaheitan sailor	249
Difficulties regarding the consecration of the new Bishops. The American Prayer-book	228	CHAP. IX.
Protestant Episcopal Church opened in the United States: the Bishops arrive in England	229	Obligations to G. S. on the part of the American States	250
The Bishops presented by G. S. to the Archbishop of Caeterbury, and consecrated	230	Correspondence with Dr. Franklin, J. Jay, and J. Adams, Esqrs.	ib.
A third American Bishop arrives: consecrated	ib.	Honours conferred on G. S. by the Universities of America	253
Application from other States to G. S. on the same subject	232

PART III.

SETTLEMENT OF A COLONY AT SIERRA LEONE—ITS HISTORY.—ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ST. GEORGE'S BAY COMPANY.—DISTRESSES AND DANGERS OF THE COLONY—ASSISTANCE GRANTED BY PARLIAMENT.—SURRENDER OF THE TERRITORY TO THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

MR. SHARP'S LETTERS—LETTERS FROM THE SETTLERS—HE SENDS A VESSEL TO THEIR RELIEF—SOLICITS THE PROTECTION OF THE MINISTER—OBTAINS A CHARTER FOR THE COMPANY.

ANECDOTES OF NAIMBANNA, PRINCE OF SIERRA LEONE.

CHAP. I.

Consequences of the freedom of Negroes in England	257	Letter from G. S. to the Archb ^p . of Canterbury	261
They wish to found a colony in their native country: apply to G. S.	260	Thoughts on the proposed settlement in Africa	265
		Mr. Smeathman undertakes to conduct the Negroes to Sierra Leone	268
		Assistance obtained from Government: Mr. Smeathman dies: the expedition delayed	ib.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07561-9 - Memoirs of Granville Sharp, Esq.: Composed from his Own Manuscripts, and Other Authentic Documents in the Possession of his Family and of the African Institution

Edited by Prince Hoare

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxix

	Page		Page
CHAP. II.
Summary history of the settlement at Sierra Leone: the Sierra Leone Company formed	270	Further account of the colony, from G. S. to John Jay, Esq., America	334
CHAP. III.		CHAP. IX.
History continued	278	G. S. delivers an account of the state of the colony to the Lords of the Treasury	337
CHAP. IV.		Various correspondences on the state of the colony	340
The colony laid waste by the French	283	G. S. proposes to form a Company for its protection	347
CHAP. V.		The Company formed: correspondence with Mr. Wilberforce concerning its shipping	348
Pecuniary difficulties of the Sierra Leone Company	293	Memorial of G. S. to the King for the grant of a Charter to the Company	350
CHAP. VI.		CHAP. X.
Surrender of the colony to Government	303	G. S.'s interview with Mr. Pitt, and several letters to him	351
CHAP. VII.		The concerns of the colony undertaken by the Company	355
Mr. Sharp's part in the settlement	312	Letters of G. S. on that subject	357
Land purchased: difficulties of the outset	313	CHAP. XI.
Account of the sailing of the Colonists, and their establishment at Sierra Leone, in a letter to Dr. Lettsom	315	The Charter obtained	364
Letters from the settlers to G. S.: their perils; dispersed by a Native Chief	320	Great respect entertained for G. S. by the African Chief at Sierra Leone	365
G. S. sends the brig Myro to their relief	324	Anecdotes of Naimbanna: he sends his son to England, to the care of G. S.	ib.
Mr. Whitbread's present: letter to the settlers from G. S.	ib.	Correspondence of G. S. with King Naimbanna: education of the young Naimbanna	368
G. S. applies to Mr. Pitt for protection to the colony	328	His father dies: he returns to Sierra Leone—dies	370
CHAP. VIII.		Generous behaviour of Naimbanna's mother	371
Mr. Sharp's solicitude for the colony	329	CHAP. XII.
Letter from the Old Settlers: artifices of the Slave-dealers to distress them	330	Mr. Sharp's continued interest in the colony: another African sent to England for education	372

PART IV.

MR. SHARP'S MEANS OF EXPENDITURE.—VARIOUS TRUSTS.—CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE MEMBERS OF THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.
 SOCIETY FOR THE ABOLITION OF THE SLAVE TRADE—ITS PROGRESS—MR. WILBERFORCE SUPPORTS THE CAUSE IN PARLIAMENT—BILL BROUGHT IN BY MR. FOX AND LORD GRENVILLE.
 MR. SHARP'S CONDUCT AS CHAIRMAN OF THE SOCIETY.—ANECDOTES OF MR. PITT RELATIVE TO THE ABOLITION OF THE SLAVE TRADE.
 RELIGIOUS SOCIETIES.—AFRICAN INSTITUTION.—PROTESTANT UNION.

CHAP. I.
Means of expenditure employed by G. S. in forming the colony of Sierra Leone	383
His management of a large business	384
Legacy of Fairsted from Mrs. Oglethorpe	385
Plan for a General Asylum	ib.
Reform of London Workhouse proposed	387

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07561-9 - Memoirs of Granville Sharp, Esq.: Composed from his Own Manuscripts, and Other Authentic Documents in the Possession of his Family and of the African Institution

Edited by Prince Hoare

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxxii

Page	Page
Regard for literature	458	Respect shown by the Bible Society, and by the Shropshire Auxiliary Bible Society	470
Great confidence reposed in G. S.	460	His epitaph	471
Anecdote of the late Mr. Perceval, Chancellor of the Exchequer	461	The African Institution erects a Monument to his memory.....	472
Person and manners.....	462	Inscription	473
Miscellaneous memoranda	463
CHAP. II.		CHAP. III.
Decline of health	466	Further remarks on Mr. Sharp's character....	474
Imminent danger in London	ib.	Eulogium by Mr. Clarkson, and by Archdea- con Corbett.....	478
His last illness, and death	468	Letter describing his character, from Mr. Macaulay	480
Directors of the African Institution desire to attend his funeral	469	—— from the Rev. Mr. Owen	481

PART VI.

CATALOGUE BY MR. SHARP OF THE BOOKS WRITTEN BY HIM, AND OF OTHER WORKS IMMEDIATELY RELATING TO THEM.

OBSERVATIONS ON MR. SHARP'S BIBLICAL CRITICISMS, BY THE LORD BISHOP OF ST. DAVID'S. ADDITIONAL TESTIMONIES.

BRIEF REMARKS ON HIS MORAL AND POLITICAL WRITINGS. CONCLUSION.

CHAP. I.		CHAP. III.
Catalogue by Mr. Sharp of the works written by him, &c.	487	Observations on Mr. Sharp's Biblical Criti- cisms, by the Bishop of St. David's.....	500
CHAP. II.		His doctrines of the Greek Article, and of the Hebrew Conversive Vau : their great value	ib.
Mr. Sharp's literature: his own humble esti- mation of it	497	Violent opposition to the former a proof of its strength	501
His early indulgence of reading	498	Examined by Dr. Wordsworth, the Rev. C. Winstanley, the Bishop of St. David's, Dr. Hales, and the Bishop of Calcutta ..ib. and	502
His style in writing	499	Critical examination of a passage in Jude	503
CHAP. III.		Mr. Sharp's Greek Rule.....	504
Observations on Mr. Sharp's Biblical Criti- cisms, by the Bishop of St. David's.....	500	His Hebrew Rules: first proposed by him....	505
His doctrines of the Greek Article, and of the Hebrew Conversive Vau : their great value	ib.	Approved by Bishop Horsley: final correction of a particular Rule	ib.
Violent opposition to the former a proof of its strength	501	Posthumous memorandum concerning that rule	506
Examined by Dr. Wordsworth, the Rev. C. Winstanley, the Bishop of St. David's, Dr. Hales, and the Bishop of Calcutta ..ib. and	502	CHAP. IV.
Critical examination of a passage in Jude	503	Further testimonies respecting Mr. Sharp's criticisms	508
Mr. Sharp's Greek Rule.....	504	From the Bishop of St. David's	ib.
His Hebrew Rules: first proposed by him....	505	Mr. Sharp's interpretation of several texts re- commended in the Bishop's Diocesan Charge	509
Approved by Bishop Horsley: final correction of a particular Rule	ib.	CHAP. V.
Posthumous memorandum concerning that rule	506	Mr. Sharp's moral writings: their unison with his religious opinions	514
CHAP. IV.		The Law of Nature; Law of Liberty; Law of Passive Obedience	ib.
Further testimonies respecting Mr. Sharp's criticisms	508	His opinions concerning spiritual agencies ..	515
From the Bishop of St. David's	ib.	His political writings: every where favourable to freedom	516
Mr. Sharp's interpretation of several texts re- commended in the Bishop's Diocesan Charge	509	Law of Retribution	ib.
CHAP. V.		Eloquent appeal to the Archbishops and Bishops	517
Mr. Sharp's moral writings: their unison with his religious opinions	514	Tract on the injustice of Slavery, unanswerable	518
The Law of Nature; Law of Liberty; Law of Passive Obedience	ib.	System of frank-pledge: his reasons for pre- ferring it.....	519
His opinions concerning spiritual agencies ..	515	Letters to Mr. Pitt, and Mr. Perceval	ib.
His political writings: every where favourable to freedom	516	Authorities from Scripture and English history	520
Law of Retribution	ib.	Parliamentary suffrage: his ideas on it adverse to universal suffrage	521
Eloquent appeal to the Archbishops and Bishops	517	His condemnation of a proposal for universal suffrage	ib.
Tract on the injustice of Slavery, unanswerable	518	Variety of his writings	522
System of frank-pledge: his reasons for pre- ferring it.....	519	Their commendation	ib.
Letters to Mr. Pitt, and Mr. Perceval	ib.	Conclusion.....	523
Authorities from Scripture and English history	520
Parliamentary suffrage: his ideas on it adverse to universal suffrage	521
His condemnation of a proposal for universal suffrage	ib.
Variety of his writings	522
Their commendation	ib.
Conclusion.....	523

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07561-9 - Memoirs of Granville Sharp, Esq.: Composed from his Own Manuscripts, and Other Authentic Documents in the Possession of his Family and of the African Institution

Edited by Prince Hoare

Table of Contents

More information

xxxii

CONTENTS.—ERRATA.

APPENDIX.

	Page		Page
No. I. A few particulars of the Establishment at Bamburgh Castle.....	iii	eminent lawyer in defence of that inhuman transaction	xvii
II. Remarks on the case of John Hylas and his Wife	iv	IX. Some remarks on a late attempt to vindicate the Slave Trade by the laws of God	xxj
III. Address of the Ward of Lime Street to the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor ..	vii	X. Letter from Mr. Afzelius to his Excellency the Swedish Ambassador in London, respecting the invasion of Sierra Leone by the French	xxiv
IV. On the opinions of Mr. Hume and others concerning the supposed natural inferiority of Negroes	ix	XI. Regulations for the settlers at Sierra Leone	xxvii
V. Virginian Petition to his Majesty ...	xi	XII. Plan of a General Asylum proposed by Mr. Sharp, to which he offered to appropriate the Estate and Manor of Fairsted	xxx
VI. Remarks on Mr. Sharp's "Short Introduction to Vocal Music," by William Shield, Esq.	xii	XIII. Comparison of brute animals with man: a fragment.....	xxxii
VII. Spanish regulations for the gradual enfranchisement of Slaves	xvi
VIII. An account of the murder of 132 Negro Slaves on board the ship Zong, with some remarks on the arguments of an

ERRATA.

Page 14, line 1	for Smallridge, read Smalridge.
17, note	for Ethelstone, read Adderstone.
ditto	for been washed in, read drifted in.
35, line 20	for Muysen, read Muysson.
80, line 11	for have, read had.
94, last line but two of note ...	dele the words See Appendix.
104, line 14	for procedure, read proceedings.
160, line 7	for Introduction, read addition to the Introduction.
192, second line of note.....	for the preceding, read a preceding.
222, line 13 et passim	for Prevost, read Provost.
284, line 3	read the line thus: All the information which was thus obtained, concurred, &c.
335, last line but five	for Nambanna, read Naimbanna.
337, line 21 et passim	for Rohanna, read Robanna.
344, last line but three	for Facitus, read Tacitus.
348, note	for Purchase read Purchas.
393, last line	dele his; and for demanded, read demands.
399, last line but one of note.....	for £500, read £5000.
418, line 19	for Larthenas, read Lanthenas.
420, line 23	for Sessions, read Session.
437, last line but four of note ...	for 1805, read 1815.
453, line 4	for brother's, read brothers'.
463, line 6	for actions, read action.
477, last line of note	for 213, read 263.