

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I. PAGE

Early Abolition Movements.—Call of Wm. Lloyd Garrison ;
—his First Imprisonment.—Starting of the Liberator 1

CHAPTER II.

Maria Weston Chapman and the Women of the Anti-Slavery Cause.—The Boston Mob of 21st October, 1835.—Prudence Crandall.—Heroism regardless of Life.—Lydia Maria Child.—Persecutions of the Coloured People.—James G. Birney.—Lane Seminary.—Heroic Determination and self-sacrifice of the Students.—Foundation of Oberlin College.—Amos Dresser . . . 15

CHAPTER III.

Angelina and Sarah Grimké.—Rescue of Two Kidnapped Women.—Massachusetts Soil declared Free.—Convention of Anti-Slavery Women.—Burning of Pennsylvania Hall by the Mob.—Martyrdom of Lovejoy . . . 31

CHAPTER IV.

Freedom of the Press.—Wm. Shreve Bailey of Kentucky.—Old Pioneer Society in 1841.—Change of Tactics in Pro-Slavery Opposition.—The True Church.—The American Church . . . 46

| | | |
|----|--|------|
| vi | CONTENTS. | |
| | CHAPTER V. | PAGE |
| | Fugitive Slaves and their Helpers.—John L. Brown con- demned to Death for aiding the escape of a Coloured Girl.—Rev. Charles Turner Torrey.—Underground Railroad.—The Branded Hand.—Francis Jackson, Esq., of Boston.—Rev. Calvin Fairbanks.—Mexican War.— Annexation of Texas.—Missouri Compromise.—Con- stitutional support of Slavery.—Moral Revolution Principles | 60 |
| | CHAPTER VI. | |
| | 1848.—Rejoicings in Washington over French Revolutionary Liberty.—Penalties for seeking Liberty in America.— Captain Drayton of the Pearl Schooner.—Escape, Pur- suit, and Capture.—The disappointed and heart-stricken Captives.—Edmondson Family.—Emily Russell.—Mo- tion for Abolition of Slavery in the District.—Thomas Garrett.—Samuel D. Burns.—Richard Dillingham | 72 |
| | CHAPTER VII. | |
| | The Year 1850.—Clay's "Omnibus Bill."—Abolition of Slave-trade in the District.—Non-extension of Slavery to California.—Fugitive Slave Law.—Sentiments of Ministers of various Denominations regarding it.— Workings of the Law.—Wm. L. Chapman.—Christiana Tragedy.—Jerry.—Rachel Parker.—Uncle Tom's Cabin. —Sentiments of Abolitionists | 88 |
| | CHAPTER VIII. | |
| | Position of the Coloured People.—Barriers to their Educa- tion.—Miss Miner at Washington.—Mrs. Margaret Douglas and her Daughter Rosa, in Virginia.—National Schools opened to Coloured Children in Boston in 1855. —Repudiation of the Missouri Compromise, March 4th, | |

CONTENTS. vii

| | |
|---|------|
| | PAGE |
| 1854.—Kansas.—State Rights affected.—Passmore Wil- | |
| liamson in the Case of Jane Johnson.—Margaret Garner. | |
| —1856.—Increased Atrocities in the South.—John C. | |
| Underwood.—Rev. Edward Matthews.—Rev. Jesse | |
| M'Bride | 101 |

CHAPTER IX.

| | |
|---|-----|
| Hon. Charles Sumner.—Republican Party.—Election of | |
| 1856.—John C. Fremont.—President Buchanan.— | |
| Southern Fury.—Dred Scott Decision.—1857.—Com- | |
| mmercial Crisis.—Revivals.—1858.—Proscription of Free | |
| Coloured People in Maryland, Virginia, and Arkansas. | |
| —Oberlin Rescue Case.—Interesting Fugitive Trial at | |
| Philadelphia | 115 |

CHAPTER X.

| | |
|---------------------------------------|-----|
| Kansas.—Dr. Doy.—John Brown | 131 |
|---------------------------------------|-----|

CHAPTER XI.

| | |
|--|-----|
| Northern Efforts to propitiate the South all in vain.— | |
| Southern Atrocities.—Rev. Daniel Worth.—Rev. J. G. | |
| Fee.—Northern Sentiment ripens to action.—Election | |
| of President Lincoln.—Secession.—Corner-stone of the | |
| Slaveholding Republic.—War.—Anti-Slavery Measures | |
| of the Government.—Care of the Freedmen | 144 |

CHAPTER XII.

| | |
|----------------------|-----|
| Conclusion | 160 |
|----------------------|-----|