Books of enduring scholarly value

Literary Studies

This series provides a high-quality selection of early printings of literary works, textual editions, anthologies and literary criticism which are of lasting scholarly interest. Ranging from Old English to Shakespeare to early twentieth-century work from around the world, these books offer a valuable resource for scholars in reception history, textual editing, and literary studies.

The English and Scottish Popular Ballads

Harvard's first professor of English, the American scholar Francis James Child (1825–96) had previously prepared a collection of English and Scottish ballads, published in 1857–9, before he embarked on producing this definitive critical edition. Organised into five volumes and published in ten parts between 1882 and 1898, the work includes the text and variants of 305 ballads, with Child's detailed commentary and comparison with ballads and stories from other languages. Although he did not live to fully clarify his methods of selection and classification, modern scholars still refer to the 'Child Ballads' as an essential resource in the study of folk songs and stories in the English language. The work also contains a helpful glossary of archaic terms and a long list of sources. Volume 1, Part 2 (1884) contains ballads 29–53, including 'King Arthur and King Cornwall' and 'Captain Wedderburn's Courtship'.

Cambridge University Press has long been a pioneer in the reissuing of out-of-print titles from its own backlist, producing digital reprints of books that are still sought after by scholars and students but could not be reprinted economically using traditional technology. The Cambridge Library Collection extends this activity to a wider range of books which are still of importance to researchers and professionals, either for the source material they contain, or as landmarks in the history of their academic discipline.

Drawing from the world-renowned collections in the Cambridge University Library and other partner libraries, and guided by the advice of experts in each subject area, Cambridge University Press is using state-of-the-art scanning machines in its own Printing House to capture the content of each book selected for inclusion. The files are processed to give a consistently clear, crisp image, and the books finished to the high quality standard for which the Press is recognised around the world. The latest print-on-demand technology ensures that the books will remain available indefinitely, and that orders for single or multiple copies can quickly be supplied.

The Cambridge Library Collection brings back to life books of enduring scholarly value (including out-of-copyright works originally issued by other publishers) across a wide range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and in science and technology.

I HAVE again to express my obligations and my gratitude to many who have aided in the collecting and editing of these Ballads.

To Sir HUGH HUME CAMPBELL, for the use of two considerable manuscript volumes of Scottish Ballads.

To Mr. ALLARDYCE, of Edinburgh, for a copy of the Skene Ballads, and for a generous permission to print such as I required, in advance of a possible publication on his part.

To Mr. MANSFIELD, of Edinburgh, for the use of the Pitcairn manuscripts.

To Mrs. ROBERTSON, for the use of Note-Books of the late Dr. JOSEPH ROBERTSON, and to Mr. MURDOCH, of Glasgow, Mr. LUGTON, of Kelso, Mrs. ALEXANDER FORBES, of Edinburgh, and Messrs. G. L. KITTREDGE and G. M. RICHARDSON, former students of Harvard College, for various communications.

To Dr. REINHOLD KÖHLER's unrivalled knowledge of popular fiction, and his equal liberality, I am indebted for valuable notes, which will be found in the Additions at the end of this volume.

The help of my friend Dr. THEODOR VETTER has enabled me to explore portions of the Slavic ballad-field which otherwise must have been neglected.

Professors D. SILVAN EVANS, JOHN RHYS, PAUL MEYER, and T. FREDERICK CRANE have lent me a ready assistance in literary emergencies.

The interest and coöperation of Mr. FURNIVALL and Mr. MACMATH have been continued to me without stint or weariness.

It is impossible, while recalling and acknowledging acts of courtesy, good will, and friendship, not to allude, with one word of deep personal grief, to the irreparable loss which all who are concerned with the study of popular tradition have experienced in the death of SVEND GRUNDTVIG.
