

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

NOTICE OF GEORGE STEEVENS, Esq.	1
CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN MR. STEEVENS AND BISHOP PERCY.
STEEVENS TO PERCY. Jan. 11, 1788.—Deaths in his family; Lord Charlemont's advice; Boydell's Shakspeare Gallery, Aldermen John and Josiah Boydell (note); the bad taste of the painters in costume; Malone's edition of Shakspeare expected; line in Spenser's Faëry Queen ; Mr. Monck Mason, (note); Mr. Boswell and his Life of Johnson ; Mr. Jephson's "Julia;" Gibbon's Decline and Fall ; Bruce's Abyssinia ; Goldsmith's Works , and his relative; Mr. Ritson; Bust of Johnson by Nollekens	1
SAME. (A fragment) no date.—Bishop Percy's Nephew	5
SAME. June 2, 1796.—A juvenile work of James I. and "Reulis and Cauteilis"	5
SAME. Oct. 24.—Addresses him as Uncle ; poem in blank verse mentioned by Tyrwhitt; bantering compliments to his Aunt and Cousins; Dr. Farmer's ill health; Rev. H. Meen; Burke and his pamphlet; Thomas's opinion of the "Melibeus;" doubts about its author	5
SAME. Dec. 26.—Mr. Meen's character; "Tale of the Two Swannes"; Ireland's Shakspeare forgeries; the Literary Club ; Dr. Farmer; Gough's "Sepulchral Monuments"	7
SAME. Jan. 3, 1797.—Thomas Watson's EKATOMHIAΘIA ; S. Ireland, senr. and his pamphlet	10
SAME. Jan. 30.—Proposed Mezzotinto of Bishop Percy from Mr. Abbott's painting; sends an ancient poem in blank verse; extract from the "Mirroure for Magistrates"; G. Chalmers's invective against Malone; Dr. Farmer's health; Isaac Reed; visit of the French to Ireland; Literary Club	11
SAME. Feb. 6.—Sends him more old poems; Dr. Farmer; price of the quarto editions of Shakspeare	13
SAME. March 10.—Portrait of Bishop Percy by Abbott; Valentine Green (note); list of old poems in blank verse; Nichols's Progresses of Queen Elizabeth ; Milton and blank verse; Sir H. Englefield and the Club ; Dr. Farmer; Sir John Jervis, afterwards Earl St. Vincent; Milton and his Works	15
SAME. Apr. 12.—Milton and blank verse; Dr. Farmer; Mr. Pinkerton and Mr. Anderson; Vally (Valentine Green); Rupert Green; Bishop Pretymann and Mr. Meen; Bp. Percy's work, "Blank Verse before Milton"	18
SAME. May 1.—"Mr. Anderson's Answer to Pinkerton's Attack," &c.; "Elizabetha Triumphans"; Mr. Meen; Anglo-Saxon verses	20
SAME. July 17.—George Chapman; Jas. Aske; Pontius Pilate's Letter; Higgins; Literary Club ; Mr. Edmund Wigley; Duke of Leeds; Mr. Meen	21
SAME. June 10.—Ireland and the Navy; Dr. Farmer and the Annual Meeting of Emanuel College at the Crown and Anchor; Mr. Meen; Rev. James Plumtre's opinion of the characters of Hamlet and Ghost; prices of the quarto copies of Shakspeare at Leigh and Sotheby's, June 8, 1797	23

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

X

CONTENTS.

SAME. Sept. 3.—Epilogue (by Goldsmith, see note); Dodsley's Papers and Goldsmith's MSS.; Oratorio of Captivity set to music by an eminent composer (Steevens, see note); Songs published (see note), (N.B. Notes * and † are transposed); notice of these pieces; Marlow's Lucan ; Dr. Farmer; Book on China by Sir George Leonard Staunton, and critique on it, and some notice of the author	24
SAME. Sept. 9.—Advice to Dr. Percy on his dealing with the booksellers; Mr. Dodsley's executors; Dr. Warton's edition of Pope; C. and D. (Cadell and Davies, see note)	28
PERCY to STEEVENS. Sep. 10.—Goldsmith's Epilogue and his other MS. works	31
STEEVENS to PERCY. Sep. 14. Mrs. Bulkeley; Goldsmith's Epilogue; Death of Dr. Farmer; "Pursuits of Literature"	32
SAME. Nov. 10.—Examination of Dr. Farmer's papers; supposed debt of Dr. Percy to Dr. Farmer	33
PERCY to STEEVENS. Nov. 12.—Denies his debt to Dr. Farmer	35
MEMOIR OF REV. HENRY MEEN, B.D.	36
CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN REV. MR. MEEN AND BISHOP PERCY.
MEEN to PERCY. July 26, 1796.—Corrections of Bishop Percy's "Blank Verse before Milton" (see note); Dr. Farmer, G. Steevens, and I. Reed	38
SAME. Aug. 6.—Corrections of his "Blank Verse," &c.; Glossary to Chaucer	39
SAME. Oct. 3.—Corrections of the Bishop's work; Bishop Pretzman	40
SAME. Dec. 15.—Corrections continued; preferment of the Bishop's nephew; Isaac Reed; Meen's Poem on "Happiness"	41
SAME. Jan. 23, 1797.—Corrections continued; Dr. Farmer's health	42
SAME. March 14.—Corrections continued; the Bishop's nephew	43
SAME. May 2.—Corrections continued; Mr. Meen goes to Chigwell; Dr. Farmer	44
SAME. June 15.—Corrections continued; Dr. Farmer	45
SAME. Aug. 30.—Corrections continued; Dr. Farmer; Sir Herbert Croft's verses "on returning the key of the gardens at Ham House to the Earl of Dysart"	46
SAME. Dec. 16.—Death of Dr. Farmer; the Bishop's supposed debt to Dr. Farmer; letters (Bishop Percy to Dr. Farmer) consigned to his care by Steevens; Thanksgiving day at St. Paul's (on Lord Duncan's Victory, see note); MS. notes on the New Testament	47
SAME. Nov. 25, 1799.—Isaac Reed and the European Magazine; Dr. John Lettice; Mrs. Scott's poems; Dr. Grainger's poems; Rev. Weldon Champneys (see note)	47
SAME. Feb. 14, 1800.—Translation of Ovid's Epistles by Grainger, &c.; death of G. Steevens; his will and works; Mrs. Scott's poems; Jane Gibbs	49
SAME. Aug. 29.—Dr. Farmer's works and papers	51
SAME. Apr. 8, 1801.—MSS. consigned to his care by Bishop Percy; Mrs. Scott's poems; Dr. Lettice and Isaac Reed; inquiry about Dr. Grainger's poems; death of Miss Steevens; Rev. J. D. Haslewood, and various inquiries	52
SAME. Jan. 29, 1802.—Todd's edition of Milton (note); Milton's copy of "Lycophron;" Mrs. Scott's poems; Dr. Lettice; Dean Vincent; Isaac Reed; Dr. Samuel Berdmore and his pamphlet (note)	54
SAME. March 17.—Milton's copy of "Lycophron"	56
SAME. June 26.—Milton's "Lycophron;" Dr. Lettice and Isaac Reed; Malcolm's "Londinium Redivivum"; "Philosophical Transactions, abridged"	56
SAME. Jan. 1803.—Milton's "Lycophron;" Edition of Goldsmith's works; Steevens's "Shakspeare;" Mr. Todd's "Spenser;" Mr. J. P. Malcolm; Dr. Percy	57
SAME. May 18.—Bishop Percy's health; Milton's "Lycophron;" Todd's "Spenser;" Goldsmith's works	58

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century: Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xi

SAME. Aug. —Charles Goldsmith (see note); Isaac Reed and G. Steevens; curious plate and note respecting men whose heads appear not above their shoulders; Lord Charlemont's "Milton," and notes on "Lycophron," and his keeping the book so long (see note); the European Magazine and Mr. Richard Rolt	60
SAME. March 13, 1804. —Bishop Percy's health; Lord Charlemont; Milton's notes on "Lycophron;" Mr. Rivington; Dr. Lettice's Lectures on "Artificial Memory;" Mr. Todd's "Spenser;" Mr. Warton's edition of "Dryden" (see note); Bishop Majendie and Bishop Bennett (see note)	62
SAME. July 30. —Mr. J. Mayne (see note); Bishop Bennett (see note); Milton's "Lycophron;" Mr. W. Preston's translation of "Argonautics of Apollonius Rhodius;" Isaac Reed; Dan. Braithwaite (see note); J. Scott the Quaker poet	64
SAME. Jan. 20, 1807. —Bishop Percy's health; death of Isaac Reed (see note); Lord Royston's translation of "Lycophron;" Mr. T. Thirlwall's "Selections from Jeremy Taylor" (see note); death of Mrs. Percy (see note); accident to Mr. J. Nichols (see note)	66
MEMOIR OF ROBERT ANDERSON, M.D.	69
CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN DR. ANDERSON AND BISHOP PERCY.
PERCY TO ANDERSON. July 21, 1798. —Commends his "British Poets" and his "Life of Dr. Grainger;" offers him Grainger's MSS.	71
ANDERSON TO PERCY. Nov. 30. —Accepts the offer of Bishop Percy's assistance; obtains Mr. Mundell as a publisher of Grainger's Works, and Mr. G. Paton and Earl of Buchan as contributors of materials; various works in which Dr. Grainger was engaged	72
PERCY TO ANDERSON. Feb. 21, 1799. —Promises the Grainger MSS.; list of Grainger's published poems	74
ANDERSON TO PERCY. June 20. —Mr. G. Paton's ill health and death; visit from Rev. Dr. William Trail; presses Bishop Percy to become the Editor of Grainger; his own literary engagements; Mr. Alex. Thomson's "Pictures of Poetry" and Campbell's "Pleasures of Hope" presented to Bishop Percy by their authors	76
PERCY TO ANDERSON. July 1. —Sends a copy of the "Reliques;" corrects an error in Dr. Anderson's Life of Shenstone	78
ANDERSON TO PERCY. July 31. —Thanks for Bishop Percy's present, &c.; curious information received from Mr. Joseph Cooper Walker; another Poem of Dr. Grainger	79
SAME. Sept. 28. —Some observations on the "Reliques;" commends the Dedication to the Duchess of Northumberland; Alnwick Castle, noticed in a "Monody" by Dr. Anderson (see note); Alex. Thomson and T. Campbell; Mr. Paton and others; "Orpheus Caledonius;" another poem of Dr. Grainger; his own literary labours	81
PERCY TO ANDERSON. June 13, 1800. —Sends him the Collection of Grainger's Poems	83
ANDERSON TO PERCY. June 21. —Mr. (afterwards Sir W.) Scott's first efforts at Ballad writing; critical observations on the Grainger Collection; Dr. Frome and Dr. Currie; his occupations; Mrs. Jane West	83
SAME. Sept. 13. —Grainger's books, and inquiry for his portrait [see p. 295]; Walter Scott and his Ballads; Mr. R. Jamieson and his "Scottish Ballads;" Life and Works of Lord Hailes	86
SAME. Sept. 14. —Mr. Foulis and the French MSS.; Dr. Trail; Mrs. Jane West's poems commended, (see note); old Scottish Ballads of "Lord John and Proud Ellen," and "Child Waters;" Mrs. Brown; Mr. Robert Jamieson, (see note)	88
SAME. Jan. 27, 1801. —Walter Scott and his Ballads; the "Reliques;" Mr. Fraser Tytler (afterwards Lord Woodhouselee); death of Mr. Mundell; Dr. Anderson's Life of Smollett	91
SAME. May 9. —Progress of Grainger's Works, and notes on them; William

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

Cunningham and his Poems; Lord Surrey's Poems; Walter Scott's Ballads; Mr. Thomas Park; Mr. Jamieson; marriage of Miss Percy with Hon. and Rev. Pierce Meade	92
SAME. June 15. —Invitation to Dromore; progress of Grainger's Works; Miss Bannerman's Poems	95
SAME. Aug. 1. —Excursion to Scotland; Grainger's early life; progress of his Works; Bishop Percy's translation of Ovid's Epistles	97
ANDERSON to REV. DR. WILLIAM TRAIL. Dec. 7. —William Cunningham; Grainger's Essay "On West India Diseases"	99
ANDERSON to PERCY. May 8, 1802. —Indisposition, and intended journey to England; Grainger's "Essay on West India Diseases," and Poems (see note); Grainger's birth place, and other particulars and notes; Life of Goldsmith; Mr. Fraser Tytler (Lord Woodhouselee); Walter Scott; Mr. Leyden (see note)	100
ANDERSON to PERCY. July 5. —Proposed visit to Dromore	103
SAME. July 29. —Journey into Scotland with Rev. Thomas Jervis (see note)	104
SAME. Oct. 1. —Kind reception by Bishop Percy, and introduction to several eminent characters; visits J. C. Walker at St. Valeri, (see note,) which he describes; extends his literary acquaintance; General Vallancey; Sir Richard Musgrave; presents of books from their authors; Harvey's MS. notes relative to Spenser	105
SAME. Nov. 6. —His journey to Dublin and acquaintances made there; Mr. Beauford's MSS.; Sir Richard Musgrave; poem of Mr. Boyd, translator of Dante, addressed to Dr. Anderson; Miss Stewart; Preston's version of Apollonius Rhodius	107
LADY DALRYMPLE to PERCY. Nov. 10. —Percy's letters to Lord Hailes; Lord Hailes's Works; Lord Hailes's letters	108
ANDERSON to PERCY. Dec. 16. —Extract from Lady Dalrymple's and Lord Woodhouselee's letters; Percy's answer to the account of Dr. Grainger in the Westminster Magazine (see note)	109
SAME. May 21, 1803. —Mr. Macartney; The influenza; George Paton and Miss Bannerman (see note); Mr. Beauford's MSS. and drawings; Dr. Smith; Bishop Percy's "Key to the Bible;" Mr. Cooper Walker's Essay on the Drama in Italy; Mr. Boyd's poems; Scott's Border Minstrelsy; Johnes's translation of Froissart; Miss Stewart's Ode; Ritson's "Preliminary Dissertation on Metrical Romances"	111
SAME. June 27. —Miss Stewart's Ode to Dr. Percy; quotations from the Ode; alterations suggested	114
SAME. Aug. 16. —Letters relating to the Grainger family; Bishop Percy's ill-health; extracts of letters from Earl of Buchan and Colonel Johnes	115
SAME (resumed). Sept. 15. —Miss Stewart's Ode to Mr. Ereke, and stanzas to Dr. Anderson; Bishop Percy's letters to Lord Hailes; letters of Mrs. Grainger; her character defended; murder of Lord Kilwarden (see note)	117
SAME. Oct. 14. —Miss Stewart's Ode, &c.; letters of Dr. Percy and Lord Hailes; Grainger's Works; Ossian's Poems; Bruce's Travels; Park's Nugæ Antiquæ ; "Northumberland Household Book;" Dr. Jamieson's "Etymological Dictionary of the Scottish Language;" Mr. J. C. Walker's "Essay on the revival of the Drama in Italy" and other works; Sir Richard Musgrave's account of the Insurrection in Dublin; Goldsmith's Works; Mrs. West's play; Walter Scott's "Sir Tristrem;" Death of Mr. Ritson	118
SAME. Jan. 24, 1804. —Death of Mr. Alex. Thomson; Miss Bannerman (see note); Miss Stewart's Ode; Grainger's works	122
SAME. May 6. —The Bishop's health; Grainger's Works; Miss Stewart's Ode; Mr. Stott's verses on Miss Stewart; Dr. Percy's "Northern Antiquities," and edition of Goldsmith; Mr. Owen Rees	124
SAME. July 26. —Herbert's "Select Icelandic Poetry" (see note); extracts from the notes (see note); the "Northern Antiquities"; Grainger's letters	127
PERCY to ANDERSON. Aug. 16. —Bishop Percy's "Runic Poetry" and "Northern Antiquities;" Hon. and Rev. Wm. Herbert; Dr. Blair; Icelandic poets	130

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xiii

ANDERSON to PERCY. Sept. 15.—Bishop Percy's "Runic Poetry;" Mr. Herbert's criticisms and poems; Messrs. Longman and Rees; Miss Stewart's Ode; Miss Bannerman; Grainger's memoirs	131
SAME. Oct. 29.—Miss Stewart's Ode; Mr. Hay Drummond; mis-statement in the notes to the Ode, as to Dr. Percy's preferment; Miss Bannerman and her affairs; benevolence of Dr. Anderson towards William Wight (see note); Dr. Grainger's letter to Mr. Burt; Dr. Anderson's life of Dr. Johnson; Dr. Ryan's work on the Irish Catholics; lines by William Wight, and a prose Address by the same to the unknown author of Chevy Chase	134
PERCY to ANDERSON. Oct. 17.—Mr. T. Armstrong; Bishop Percy's liberality to Miss Bannerman; Messrs. Cadell and Davies, and Goldsmith's Works; anecdotes of Ritson	138
ANDERSON to PERCY. (No date.)—Mr. T. Armstrong, and Mr. T. Robinson and his son	139
SAME. Dec. 4.—William Wight; Bishop Percy's liberality to him; Sir W. Forbes's Life of Beattie, with his correspondence (see note); Mr. Armstrong and Mr. T. Stott; hopeless state of Mr. W. Cunningham; Dr. Grainger's letter to Mr. Burt, and the date of Dr. G.'s death (see note); index to the "Sugar Cane;" Boswell's account of the recitation of the "Sugar Cane;" Boswell's Life of Johnson; Ritson's death; Mr. Selby and the Duke of Northumberland; Col. Johnes and his "Froissart"	140
PERCY to ANDERSON. Feb. 5, 1805.—Dr. Grainger's letter to Mr. Burt; Dr. Grainger's life, and time and place of birth, and death; the "Sugar Cane;" Dr. Smollett and Dr. Grainger; Col. Johnes and "Froissart;" Mr. William Cunningham's death; memoir of William Cunningham	143
ANDERSON to PERCY. April 3.—Dr. Grainger; Col. Johnes; Mr. Laing's new edition of Macpherson's "Ossian," and the forgery; Mr. Armstrong; death of Mr. W. Cunningham, and account of him to be published in Poetical Register	146
SAME. April 9.—Laing's Macpherson; the "Northern Antiquities;" Anderson's Life of Johnson; letters of the Duchess of Somerset (see note); extract from Good's Life of Dr. Geddes (see note)	147
SAME. April 12.—Mr. T. Armstrong and Mr. T. R. Robinson; Dr. Ryan's pamphlet, and new edition of his "History of the Effects of Religion;" Mr. Murray's "Bruce's Travels," with Life; Mr. J. C. Walker's "Essay on the Revival of the Drama in Italy;" Mr. Boyd's translation of the "Araucana," (see note)	148
PERCY to ANDERSON. May ...—Macpherson; Lord Buchan's "Oriental Repasts;" the Duchess of Somerset's letters censured; Dr. Anderson's Life of Shenstone, and critique on it; Dr. Anderson's Life of Johnson; new edition of the "Northern Antiquities;" Mr. W. Davies and the Works of Goldsmith; Ritson's death, and the British Critic (see note); Mr. Armstrong; Mr. T. R. Robinson; young actress at Belfast (see note); verses by Hafiz, Mr. T. Stott	150
ANDERSON to PERCY. June 13.—Mr. Laing and Macpherson; the "Northern Antiquities;" conversation with Mr. Rees and Mr. Longman, and comparison between Percy and Walter Scott; the "Poetical Register," and Dr. Anderson; Mr. T. R. Robinson's Address; Mr. Gillespie's poem on "Refinement;" Dr. Browne's "Observations on Hume," and Professor Stewart	153
SAME. Sept. 3.—Mr. Duhigg's "King's Inns Remembrances;" Mr. T. R. Robinson's poems; Mr. Johnstone's "Lodbrokar-Quida, or the death-song of Lodbrok," with English translation, &c. (see note); Mr. Boyd and his poems	156
PERCY to ANDERSON. Nov. 27.—Criticism on Dr. Anderson's Life of Johnson	158
ANDERSON to PERCY. Dec. 14.—Mr. Boyle the banker, and Mr. John Lays Black; Dr. Anderson's intention to print Dr. Percy's observations on his "Life of Johnson" in the form of notes; Mr. T. R. Robinson, and Miss Stewart's verses to the young poet; "Northern Antiquities"	159

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

xiv

CONTENTS.

- SAME. March 25, 1806.—"Northern Antiquities;" Dr. Anderson's Life of Smollett; the Massachusetts "Historical Collections;" inquiries for notices of Dryden for Walter Scott's new edition; Dedication to the "Evangelical History Harmonised," by Dr. Johnson; Chapter in Mrs. Lennox's "Female Quixote," by Dr. Johnson (see note); Mr. Robinson; failure of Vaccination 160
- SAME. June 28.—Thanks for Grainger's letter; Life of Grainger; Life of Smollett and "Northern Antiquities;" Scott's Life of Dryden and his Plays; Forbes's Life of Beattie; Miss Bannerman's Poems and Tales 162
- SAME. July 13.—New edition of "Key to the New Testament;" Mr. T. R. Robinson's Poems; Mr. W. H. Drummond's poem on "The Battle of Trafalgar," and his MS. of "Lucretius;" Recollections of Dromore and its scenery; the enlarged plan of "Poetical Translations;" the Leslie Controversy; Brown's "Observations on Hume;" "Campbell's Pleasures of Hope;" two Songs by Walter Scott 164
- SAME. Aug. 14.—Bishop Percy's subscription to Miss Bannerman's poems; "Key to the New Testament;" Anderson's Life of Smollett 167
- ANDERSON TO MR. THOS. ROBINSON. Oct. 30.—(See note); compliments him on his son T. Romney Robinson's progress at Trinity College, and mentions his portrait and the success of his subscription 168
- ANDERSON TO PERCY. Nov. 18.—The failure of Bishop Percy's sight; Smollett and Grainger's Lives; R. Jamieson's "Popular Ballads;" Bishop Percy and the Chatterton Controversy; "Key to New Testament," and "Northern Antiquities;" Mr. T. R. Robinson's poems criticised; Boyd's squibs against Moore; Hafiz's (T. Stott) Battle Piece 169
- SAME. Dec. 8.—"Key to New Testament," and "Northern Antiquities;" Grainger and Smollett; R. Jamieson's "Popular Ballads and Songs;" "Northern Antiquities;" Johnes's "Froissart" and "Monstrelet;" the elections; Miss Bannerman's Poems 171
- SAME. March 11, 1807.—Death of Mrs. Percy (see note) and Dr. Anderson's ill health; moral reflections; George Paton's death; Miss Bannerman's Poems; Lord Woodhouselee's "Life of Kames;" Walter Scott's new poem; death of Mr. Wm. Preston (see note); Mr. Stott's and Mr. Boyd's verses on the death of Mrs. Percy (see notes) 173
- SAME. April 23.—Mr. R. Jamieson's "Ballads;" Character of Mr. M'Clean; destructive fire at Col. Johnes's at Hafod; his works 175
- SAME. Dec. 29, 1800.—(See note); list of Old Scottish Songs penès Mr. Fraser Tytler (Lord Woodhouselee), with specimens, and their history 176
- SAME. July 23, 1807.—Introduction of Rev. Mr. Buckminster, an American traveller, to Dr. Percy; reflections on the religious feeling in Ireland; Miss Bannerman and her prospects; Bishop Percy's account of Don Quixote's library, collected by him, and burnt at Col. Johnes's fire in Hafod; Latin version of Cædmon's Anglo-Saxon paraphrase of the Bible; progress of Johnes's works; Critique on Lord Woodhouselee's "Life of Kames;" Grainger's "Key" and "Northern Antiquities;" Dr. Ryan's liberality to Dr. Anderson (see note); Mr. Park's "Royal and Noble Authors," and Warton's "History of English Poetry" (see note); Scott's "Dryden" and "Battle of Flodden"; Hafiz's "Sonnet to Hon. Mrs. Meade" 180
- PERCY TO ANDERSON. Jan. 4, 1808.—The Bishop's strictures on Mr. J. C. Walker and Mr. Ritson, and their conduct; endeavour to conciliate the religious differences of Ireland; inquiries about various works in hand; Messrs. Cadell and Davies 184
- ANDERSON TO PERCY. May 18.—Ill health the cause of silence; summer tour in Cumberland; Messrs. Cadell and Davies, and Goldsmith's Works; Grainger's Works; the "Key," and "Northern Antiquities;" Mr. J. C. Walker, and his "Essay on Romantic Fabling," and his conduct; Dr. John Jamieson's "Scottish Dictionary;" Mr. W. H. Drummond's "Lucretius," and poem on the "Giant's Causeway;" Walter Scott's "Marmion," "The Lay," and "Lady of the Lake" (see note) 186
- PERCY TO ANDERSON. May 24.—Grainger; the "Northern Antiquities," and

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

XV

“Key;” the case of Cadell and Davies and Goldsmith’s Works stated at large	189
ANDERSON TO PERCY. July 14. —Death of Dr. T. Percy the Bishop’s nephew, and remarks on his character (see note); death of Dr. Anderson’s elder brother; works in hand; statement relative to Goldsmith’s Works; Miss Bannerman, Dr. John Jamieson, and Mr. W. H. Drummond; Belfast College and Dr. David Irving (see note)	192
SAME. Aug. 26. —Bishop Percy’s correspondence with Mr. Stevenson relative to Dr. Irving; his character and works; Dr. J. Jamieson; Mr. Coucher’s poems; Dr. Graham’s Essay on Macpherson’s Ossian; notice of the Spanish patriots and their success	194
SAME. Nov. 15. —Dr. David Irving’s works, and testimonials	196
SAME. Dec. 6. —Dr. Irving; Mr. Laing stimulated to answer Dr. Graham’s book; works in hand; Walter Scott’s new edition of Swift and Somers’s Tracts, and his increasing reputation; Mr. Brougham gives offence by his Essay on Cevallo’s Exposition in the Edinburgh Review; Sir Brooke Boothby, and his works (see note)	197
SAME. April 28, 1809. —Dr. Anderson’s illness, and intended tour; illness of Mr. Laing	199
SAME. May 12. Short notice of Dr. Anderson’s tour	200
SAME. June 6. —Fatal illness of Mr. Robert Bourne, and lines on his death by David Carey and Miss Stewart; extract from the preface to vol. VI. of General Vallancey’s “Collectanea de Rebus Hibernicis,” and “Relics of Burns”	200
SAME. Jan. 3, 1810. —Bishop Percy’s blindness; Lord Woodhouselee’s “Life of Petrarch;” Jubilee at Dromore; application to Principal Brown for degree of D.D. for Mr. W. H. Drummond; Dr. David Irving a candidate for the office of Rector of the High School	204
DR. DAVID IRVING TO PERCY. Jan. 27. —Returns thanks for Bishop Percy’s testimonials in his favour for the Rectorship of the High School, which he did not obtain	205
DR. W. H. DRUMMOND TO PERCY. Feb. 1. —(See note); Account of the Irish Harp Institution; Dr. Richardson and Swift’s Letters; inquiries for a copy of Oppian	206
ANDERSON TO PERCY. Aug. 28. —Journey to Kildress; Lord Woodhouselee’s Life of Petrarch	208
SAME. Oct. 26. —Stay at Kildress	209
SAME. Dec. 6. —Journey from Dromore to Portpatrick; third edition of Dr. Milner’s “Inquiry into certain vulgar opinions concerning the Catholic Inhabitants and Antiquities of Ireland,” greatly enlarged; and dispute about St. George; Dr. W. H. Drummond’s poem on the “Giant’s Causeway;” Mr. Douglas’s Biographical Sketch of the late Lord Melville; the King’s illness; political news	210
SAME. May 15, 1811. —Recital of his wrongs and injuries, and the state of his feelings; the revision of his poetical biography, with Oldys’s MS. notes; Life of Smollett, with his Works; Life of Grainger necessarily abridged (see note); Weber’s work; Cromek’s “Remains of Nithsdale and Galloway Song;” Weber’s edition of Ford’s Plays (see note)	211
SAME. June 17. —Inscription for a mausoleum for Robert Bourne, Esq.	213
SAME. June 22. —Works sent to Bishop Percy, Cromek’s “Relics of Burns,” and Traditional Songs [written by Allan Cunningham, a genius akin to Burns]; account of Ritson’s death; Anderson’s account of James Tytler; some remarks on Miss Seward’s Works (see note); Weber’s editions of “Ford,” “Beaumont and Fletcher,” and “Northern Antiquities” (see note); Scott’s “Vision of Don Roderick;” deaths of Lord President Blair and Lord Melville; Dr. W. Trail’s Life of Simson the mathematician, including the Geometrical Analysis of Pappus	215
SAME. Aug. 17. —Intended journey to Ochtertyre to visit Mr. Ramsay, with a short account of him (see note); Scott’s “Don Roderick” criticised; Weber’s “Northern Antiquities” described	217
SAME. Sept. 13. —Notice of an article in the Edinburgh Annual Register on

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

xvi

CONTENTS.

Macpherson's publications, and Bishop Percy's Reliques; Hall's "Select Letters," one from Mr. MacGowan to Shenstone on Erse poetry; a young American traveller; Select Papers of the Belfast Literary Society	219
MR. SHENSTONE to MR. M'GOWAN. Sept. 24, 1761.—On Erse poetry; commendation of Mr. T. Percy and his collection of English and Scotch Ballads, and progress of his work, the future "Reliques of Ancient Poetry"	220
ANDERSON to MEREDITH DARBY. Oct. 9, 1811.—Death of Bishop Percy, with Notice of that event by Dr. Anderson, from Edinburgh Evening Courant	223
MEMOIR OF JAMES GRAINGER, M.D.	225
List of his Works; Percy's contributions to the Grand Magazine	232
POEMS BY, OR SUPPOSED TO BE BY DR. GRAINGER, not printed in his Works: Three Epigrams; Ode to Love; Ode to Contentment	234
CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN DR. GRAINGER AND BISHOP PERCY.
GRAINGER to PERCY. Oct. 22, 1756.—Inquiries about Camoens; the state of the London Theatres; Mrs. Cibber, Miss Pritchard, and Shuter (see note); Mr. H. Dill's Tragedy of "Minorca;" John Slade's "Love and Duty" (see note); Bally's Prize Poem (see note); begs the loan of the first Elegy of Tibullus, translated by Percy (see note)	240
PERCY to GRAINGER. March 24, 1757.—Notes on Dr. Grainger's Tibullus	242
GRAINGER to PERCY.—Medical directions for his sight; remarks on Mr. Percy's Notes on Tibullus	244
SAME. March 30.—Medical advice; Tibullus; inquiries after friends	246
SAME. Feb. 1758.—Death of George Augustus second Earl of Sussex (see note); Mr. W. Strahan, and the Grand Magazine (see note); Mr. Percy's Song of "O Nannie, wilt thou gang with me?" (see note); Ovid's Elegy on Tibullus, translated by Percy; Rev. Robert Binnel's opinion of it (see note)	247
SAME. Feb. —Dr. Grainger's examination before the College of Physicians; Dr. Griffiths and Shui-ping-Sin (see note); Mr. Binnel's notes on Tibullus; proof sheets; Home's tragedy of Agis (note); Tibullus; Mr. T. Apperley	248
SAME. Feb. —Dr. Griffiths and the Chinese novel; Henry 3rd Earl of Sussex; Tibullus; the Grand Magazine	249
SAME. April 4.—Dodsley's Collection of Poems and play; Mr. Home's "Agis;" Percy's Contributions to the Grand Magazine	251
SAME. April 14.—Dr. Griffiths; Miss Anne Guthridge, afterwards Mrs. Percy; Miss Sophy and Dr. Grainger's unsuccessful courtship	252
SAME. May .—Dr. Percy's matrimonial prospects; medical advice; Johnson's Shakspeare; Tibullus	253
SAME. May 13.—Translation of Ovid's Epistles; medical advice	254
SAME. May 30.—Percy's Translation of Ovid's Epistles, and Grainger's critique on a specimen; Dr. Johnson's opinion of their value; the poem of Avon (see note)	255
SAME. June 27.—Percy's Translation of Ovid's Epistles, and their disposal	258
SAME. July 20.—Death of Mr. John Douglass, surgeon (see note), and notice of him; Tibullus; Ovid's Epistles; Johnson's Shakspeare	260
SAME. Aug. 1.—Ovid's Epistles; Preface to Tibullus; Chinese novel	261
SAME. Aug. 23.—Tibullus, and Rev. Robert Binnel	263
SAME. Oct. 18.—Account of Dr. Grainger's Tour in Scotland; Dr. Stewart of Wolverhampton, and his marriage (see note); Dr. Percy's approaching marriage; Dr. Grainger appointed travelling tutor to Mr. Bourryau; Ovid's Epistles; Dr. Percy's Ode on the death of Earl of Sussex (not known to be preserved); Tibullus	264
SAME. Jan. 10, 1759.—Ovid's Epistles (see note); Smollett's illiberal review of Tibullus; Shenstone's Miscellany; Dodsley's "Cleone" (see note)	268
SAME. Feb. 17.—Translation of Ovid's Epistles, and Chinese novel (see note)	269
SAME. March 31.—Dr. Grainger's intended departure from England; sends his translation of Ovid's Epistles of Hero and Leander	270
SAME. April 9.—His departure for St. Kitt's; final adieus	271
DR. GRAINGER to MR. BURT. A long letter about his marriage	271

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xvii

GRAINGER TO PERCY. Jan. 16, 1761.—Robert Lloyd's Odes (see note); the style of Mason and Gray; Macpherson's Fragments from the Erse . . .	275
SAME. June 5.—Sterne's Tristram Shandy; Hurd's Dialogues; Lord Lyttelton's Dialogues; Macpherson's "Fragments" . . .	276
SAME. June 5, 1762.—Sends presents; domestic affairs; Percy's literary projects; Don Quixote and Indian poetry; state of literature in the West Indies; Percy's Chinese Romance and Bourryau's opinion of it; Dr. Grainger's "Cane Piece" (see note); requests remarks on it from Mr. Percy and Mr. Binnel; conquest of Martinique; curious anecdotes concerning it . . .	276
SAME. June 25.—The "Sugar Cane;" Dr. Percy's Chinese novel; private affairs . . .	279
SAME. April 18, 1763.—The "Sugar Cane;" private affairs; public news . . .	282
SAME. Nov. 30.—Dr. Grainger's return to London; the "Sugar Cane;" deaths of Mr. Shenstone and Rev. Robert Binnel (see note) . . .	284
SAME. Jan. 22, 1764.—Chevy Chase; Petrarch and Lord Surrey; Kempfer and Kircher; the "Sugar Cane;" Mr. White's "English Verb" (see note) . . .	285
SAME. March 24.—Highway robbers; the "Sugar Cane" . . .	286
SAME. April 6.—The "Sugar Cane;" Mr. Percy's "Dissertation on the English Drama" . . .	286
SAME. April 30.—Dr. Grainger about to return to St. Kitt's . . .	287
SAME. May 14.—On Shenstone's poems . . .	287
SAME. May 25, 1765.—Disapproves of Mr. Percy's design to write the "History of the House of Percy," with his reason; proposes to go to St. Vincent; the "Sugar Cane;" presents promised; Mr. Percy's "Ballads" . . .	288
SAME. Sept. —"Reliques of Ancient Poetry;" private affairs; the "Sugar Cane," how received . . .	290
SAME. Dec. 4, 1766.—The Ancient Ballads; Mr. Lye's Saxon Dictionary (see note); Dr. Johnson's Shakspeare; Miss Williams's "Miscellany;" private affairs . . .	293
MRS. GRAINGER TO PERCY. Jan. 27, 1771.—Dr. Grainger's picture . . .	295
ALLEN TO PERCY. Jan. 15, 1774.—Mrs. Percy's pension; Percy's account of Dr. Grainger, inserted in the Whitehall Evening Post . . .	295
MRS. GRAINGER TO PERCY. July 19, 1779.—Private affairs; account of the feast of the Rosiere, at Bethune, in Flanders . . .	296
BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICE OF JAMES BOSWELL, ESQ.	300
CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN MR. BOSWELL AND BISHOP PERCY.
BOSWELL TO PERCY. March 8, 1784.—Mr. Boswell's pamphlet on the state of the nation; illness of Dr. Johnson; proposes to publish "The Praises of Dr. Johnson, by contemporary writers" . . .	302
SAME. July 8.—Health of Dr. Johnson; resolves to practise at the English bar . . .	303
SAME. March 20, 1785.—Death of Dr. Johnson; his intention of publishing the "Life of Johnson;" "Tour to the Hebrides;" "Pope's Note" concerning Dr. Johnson . . .	303
SAME. July 12, 1786.—"Journal of a Tour to the Hebrides;" solicits contributions for "Life of Johnson;" new edition of the Tatler (see note); laments the Bishop's removal to Dromore . . .	304
PERCY TO BOSWELL. March 5, 1787.—Sends him some anecdotes of Dr. Johnson; Eustace Budgell; Mr. Boswell's connection with Lord Lonsdale . . .	305
BOSWELL TO PERCY. Feb. 9, 1788.—Progress of the "Life of Johnson;" dines at Mr. Malone's, and conversation about Dr. Johnson; Johnson and Francis Barber; Boswell elected Recorder of Carlisle; Malone's "Shakspeare;" the Literary Club . . .	308
PERCY TO BOSWELL. Feb. 28.—Congratulates him on his preferment; Dr. Johnson's visit to Easton Mauduit; history of the Literary Club . . .	310
BOSWELL TO PERCY. March 12, 1790.—Death of Mrs. Boswell; "Life of Johnson;" Mr. Burke's Speech on France, and Lord Stanhope's answer; Sir Joshua Reynolds; Dr. Percy's "Goldsmith" . . .	312

VOL. VII.

b

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

xviii

CONTENTS.

SAME. April 9. —"Debate on the Corporation and Test Acts;" "Life of Johnson;" Goldsmith's "Encyclopædia" (see note); Sir Joshua Reynolds; notice of Letters in Boswell's "Life of Johnson" relative to Bishop Percy	313
BOSWELL to J. ABERCROMBIE. June 11, 1792. —Letters of Dr. Johnson (see note); "Life of Johnson;" Johnson's letter to Bishop White; Johnson's Sermons; Mr. Courtenay's poetical review of Johnson's works, and character of him	314
SAME. July 28, 1792. —Second edition of the "Life of Johnson;" Young's criticism on Gray's "Elegy" (see note); dissertation on the elements of written language; Mr. Agutter's sermon on Johnson's death; lost letter of Johnson to Mr. Odell; correction of chum to cham ; Sir Joshua Reynolds's "Tour to the Netherlands"	315
BOSWELL to SIR ANDREW MITCHELL. Aug. 28, 1764. —The return of Mr. Mitchell from Berlin; asks advice concerning his intended continental tour	317
SAME. Dec. 26. —His continental tour; Rev. W. Johnson Temple (see note)	320
LETTERS RELATIVE TO DR. SAMUEL JOHNSON.
MISS SEWARD to BOSWELL. March 25, 1785. —Early years of Johnson; Mrs. Lucy Porter; letters of Johnson to Mrs. Porter; letters to Gent. Mag.; letter to Chancellor Thurlow (see note); conversation between Johnson and Miss Seward on the subject of Mrs. Elizabeth Aston (see note); letter of Johnson to Mr. Levett; Johnson's verses, when a child, on having killed a duck; Mrs. Porter's recollections of Johnson (see note)	321
SAME. March 25. —Character of the "Tour to the Hebrides;" Boswell's ancestry, and reflections on it; Mrs. Montagu (see note); opinions of the "Tour to the Hebrides"	326
MISS SEWARD to GENT. MAG. Jan. 10, 1786. —Strictures on Dr. Johnson, and on the review of the "Tour to the Hebrides;" David Garrick	328
BOSWELL to GENT. MAG. March 9. —Relative to a scurrilous attack on the "Tour to the Hebrides" (see note)	331
MISS SEWARD to GENT. MAG. April 12. —On the character of Dr. Johnson as drawn by his various biographers	333
BOSWELL to GENT. MAG. April 17, 1788. —Observations on Mrs. Piozzi's "Anecdotes of Dr. Johnson"	338
A. D. to GENT. MAG. July 7, 1787. —A defence of Dr. Johnson in "Olla Podrida," by Bishop Horne	340
MISS SEWARD to GENT. MAG. Aug. 9. —Observations on the character of Dr. Johnson in "Olla Podrida"	341
BOSWELL'S Advertisement relative to Johnson's Conversation with His Majesty, and Johnson's Letters to Lord Chesterfield; Alexander Chalmers's "Lesson in Biography," &c.; Extract from Byrom applicable to Boswell	344
MISS SEWARD to GENT. MAG. Oct. 13, 1793. —Dr. Johnson's "Verses on a Sprig of Myrtle from a Lady"	345
BOSWELL to GENT. MAG. Nov. 16. —On the above communication of Miss Seward	346
MISS SEWARD to GENT. MAG. Dec. 14. —In reply to Mr. Boswell; Bishop Newton's character of Johnson	350
MR. BOSWELL to GENT. MAG. Jan. 20, 1794. —In his own vindication, with letter from Mr. E. Hector	356
REV. H. WHITE to GENT. MAG. March 19. —On the "Verses on the Sprig of Myrtle"	362
SAME. Oct. 21. —On the character of Mr. Seward as drawn by Dr. Johnson; Miss Seward acknowledges the letters of "Benvolio" as hers	363
BOSWELL to GARRICK. Sept. 18, 1771. —Mr. Gray's death and character; Mr. Mickle and his tragedy; General Pascal Paoli; Johnson's intended journey to Scotland; Mr. Donaldson's edition of Shakspeare	364
SAME. April 11, 1774. —Death of Dr. Goldsmith; Dr. Morell's Prometheus (note); Johnson and his "Northern Tour"	366
BOSWELL'S "Remarks on the Profession of a Player." In three Essays. First printed in 1770	368—383

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xix

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICE OF REV. GEORGE ASHBY	384
CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN MR. ASHBY AND DR. PERCY.
ASHBY to PERCY. Description of the Howard Book at Cambridge	385
SAME. (Extract.) Oct. 28, 1769.—Observations on the “Northumberland Household Book,” [or perhaps the Howard Book]	385
SAME. Dec. 13, 1773.—“Peebles to the Play” and “Christ’s Kirk on the Green”	386
SAME. Dec. 21.—Old Scotch Songs; the Glossary to Douglas; Scotch writers; Scotch phrases; Baal and Druidism; Beltain, and the analogy of languages	386
SAME. March 30, 1774.—The “Reliques,” remarks promised; Death of Miss Hester Percy; helpless state of Mr. Ashby’s father, Edmund (see note); improvements in the “Reliques” suggested	388
SAME. April 19.—Account of a curious Legend or Miracle Play, called “Consolatorium Peccatorum;” the “Howard Book”	389
SAME. May 22.—Oly Prancing (see note); Mr. Lambe’s “Flodden Field” (see note)	391
SAME. June 8.—On the same subject	392
SAME. July 5.—On the same subject	392
SAME. April 16, 1776.—On the same subject	293
CORRESPONDENCE OF THE REV. GEORGE ASHBY WITH OTHER LITERARY MEN.
ASHBY to (see note). June 12, 1760.—On the purchase of a book; the Visitation Book of Leicestershire, 1619	394
Notice of Mr. Ashby’s paper on a coin of Nerva	395
ASHBY to RICHARD GOUGH, Esq. Feb. 14, 1773.—On Mr. Gough’s error in the preface to Archæologia , respecting Henry Ferrars and the Goadbys; Horsley’s Inscriptions; house at Shepreth, Cambridgeshire	395
ASHBY to GENT. MAG. Nov. 1774.—On a passage in Hamlet (see note); “Unaneled,” &c.	396
SAME. March 1, 1776.—On the same subject	397
SAME. March .—On celebrated large diamonds	399
ASHBY to GOUGH. March 26.—A MS. copied for Mr. Gough; attack on Mr. Bryant, relating to some ancient coins; the new rooms at Somerset House of the Royal and Antiquarian Societies	400
SAME. April 10.—Mr. Bryant on the Apamean Medal (see note); Dr. Hunter and his cabinet of coins; on the general subject of coins; on an ancient gold ring (see note); Biographia Britannica , and Dr. Kippis (see note); the Bayeux Tapestry	401
SAME. May 21.—On the subject of coins, in reply to Mr. Bryant	404
SAME. Oct. 23.—Roman Milliary at Leicester (see note); Mosaic Pavements (see note); Blomefield’s Norfolk; Burton’s Leicestershire, and Sir T. Cave’s MS. copy (see note); Lord Chetwynd; Bridges’s Northamptonshire; Hutchins’s Dorsetshire; Dr. Gower’s Cheshire; Roman Milliary at Leicester; the Apamean coin; attack on Mr. Gough in Gent. Mag. (see note); Mr. Tyson’s drawing from Feckenham Church (see note); Mr. Tyson’s preferment (see note)	405
SAME. Dec. 17.—Leicester Roman Milliary; the Apamean coin; Sir J. Cullum’s MS. copy, with additions, of Sir Richard Gippes’s “Suffolk Gentry;” and collection of Suffolk Epitaphs; the Oculist’s stamp	408
SAME. Jan. 2, 1777.—Roman Milliary, and Roman coin; Sir John Cullum and Mr. Lort; the Roman road at Spittle in the Street; the Royal Society and the President’s speeches; Mr. Planta, &c. (see note)	409
SAME. Dec. 11.—Thetford (see note); Satirical Medal of Lion and Lambs; Mr. Charlton’s History of Whitby (see note)	411
SAME to JOHN NICHOLS, Esq. May 13, 1781.—Relative to reprinting Mr. Ashby’s “Essay on Gentoo Laws” (see note)	412
SAME to MR. WILLIAM HERBERT. April , 1787.—An Historical Dissertation on Lady Eliz. Tirwit’s Book of Prayers, and Queen Katharine Parr’s Prayers	412

b 2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

XX

CONTENTS.

SAME to GOUGH. March 12, 1788. —Death of Mrs. Nichòls; Lady Tirwit's Book of Prayers &c.; Mr. Gough's "Sepulchral Monuments"	418
SAME to NICHOLS. April 3. —Laneham's Kenilworth; Lady Tirwit's Book of Prayers (see note)	420
SAME. April 12. —The Gold Book; Holmes' Academy of Armory; Queen Elizabeth and Mary Queen of Scots (see note)	422
SAME to HERBERT. June 4, 1790. —The Gold Book; David Clement's account of Rare Books, and an error in a date; the "Nice Wanton" and the "Shepherd's Calendar"	424
SAME to NICHOLS. June 23. —County Histories, Sir William Burrell, and Craven Ord; Sir Thomas Cave's copy of Burton's Leicestershire (see note); Mr. Peck's MSS.; Bishop More's MSS. at Cambridge	425
SAME. Aug. 6. —Suggestions and Materials for the History of Leicestershire (see note); reprint in Gent. Mag. of the "Gold Book;"	427
MR. RICHARD GREEN's account of a Manual of Devotions of Queen Katharine Parr, bound in plated silver	428
GOUGH to GENT. MAG. Aug. 6. —On the Queen's Prayers	429
HERBERT to GENT. MAG. Sep. 10. —On the same subject	430
ASHBY to MR. NICHOLS. Dec. 8. —On the same subject	430
HERBERT to GENT. MAG. Jan. 16, 1791. —On the same subject	432
ASHBY to GENT. MAG. March 10. —On the same subject	435
ASHBY to NICHOLS. June 21, 1790. —Nichols's Materials for his Leicestershire; Dr. Foote Gower's Collections for Cheshire (see note)	435
SAME. Nov. 7, 1791. —Bridges's Northamptonshire (see note); Mr. Pennant's method with Mr. Ashby	436
SAME. March 23, 1800. —Mr. Daines Barrington on the Statutes; his portrait desired; discovering lost maidenheads by sneezing	436
Additional Notes to the Ashby Article	437
NOTICE OF REV. MICHAEL LORT, D.D.	438
CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN DR. LORT AND BISHOP PERCY.
LORT to PERCY. Jan. 31, 1781. —Governor Pownall's Paper on the Origin and Progress of Letters (see note)	438
SAME. April 5. —Relating to Dr. Percy's promotion in the Church; the death of Mr. Thrale; Dean Milles and Rowley's poems	438
SAME. Oct. 2, 1782. —Notice of Rev. William Allen (see note), chaplain at Lisbon; Dr. Percy's son; Col. Barré	440
SAME. Oct. 11. —Relative to Bishop Percy's son; Lord Shelburne	441
SAME. Oct. 12. —Dr. Heberden's brother at Madeira; Lord Howe's fleet	441
SAME. Nov. 11. —Bishop Percy's son; Mr. Herschel and the Georgium Sidus Dr. Neville Maskelyne, Astronomer Royal (see note)	442
SAME. Jan. 15, 1783. —Relative to some degree given at Lambeth; American Independence, and anecdote of Dr. Franklin; Mr. Ritson and his attack on Warton, &c.; Dr. Johnson's ill health; the meeting of Parliament, and a petition against translation of Bishops; the Constitutional Society, and Pamphlet by Sir William Jones (see note); Dean Tucker's Letters to Lord Shelburne (see note)	442
SAME. Jan. 28. —Dean Tucker's Pamphlet (see note), and Dr. Paley's Consecration Sermon; London and Court news; Mrs. Siddons	444
SAME. Feb. 25. —Political news, Lord Shelburne dismissed, and the state of parties; Mrs. Thrale, and Dr. Johnson's health; "A Letter found near Strawberry Hill" on the Rowley controversy	445
SAME. March 11. —State of parties; Franklin's "Reformed Common Prayer"	446
SAME. March 13. —Political news; the Empress of Russia	447
SAME. March 18. —The Duke of Portland Premier; Bishop Watson's Letter to the Archbishop of Canterbury" (see note)	448
SAME. March 24. —Death of Archbishop Cornwallis; Archbishop Moore; political news; Bishop Watson's pamphlet; the Court; Dr. James Scott; his shooting Mr. Allgood (see note)	448

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

XXI

SAME. April 2. —Political changes; changes in the Church; pamphlet attributed to Dean Shipley	450
SAME. April 15. —Mr. Pitt Prime Minister (see note); newspaper politics; Bishop Watson's Sermon at Court; abridgment of Cruden's Concordance by Taylor; new book of Coats of Arms; Sir William Jones's "Dialogue" (see note); Dean Shipley's pamphlet (see note); funeral of Archbishop Cornwallis; various editions of Shakspeare in hand	451
"A Card to the Bishop of Llandaff"	453
SAME. April 19. —New Lord Lieutenant; illness of Bishop Yonge and Lord Hardwicke	453
SAME. April 29. —Death of Bishop Percy's son; deaths of Dr. Stinton and Bishop Yonge; Irish promotions; Malone's pamphlet on Shakspeare	454
SAME. May 10. —Political news; Irish appointments; death of Prince Octavius (see note); Croft's and Sir G. Page's book sales, and Gulston's Illustrated Granger	455
SAME. May 19. —The Primate Dr. Robinson; Dr. Stinton's death; preferments in the Church; Dr. Scott returns; Mr. H. Howarth, the eminent Counsel (see note); illness of Lord Hardwicke; Mrs. Thrale's reduced fortunes; Canne's Bible; translation of Solomon's Song by Mrs. Anne Francis (see note); Mr. Ritson's pamphlet against the editors of Shakspeare; Mr. Capel's School of Shakspeare	456
SAME. June 3. —Thanks Bishop Percy for his congratulations on his marriage (see note); character of his wife (see note); Bishop Newton's reasons for marrying (note); Bishop Watson and Mr. Cumberland (see note); Lord Hardwicke's health	457
SAME. June 6. —Mr. Cumberland and Bishop Watson (see note); "The Country Curate's Answer;" Rowley's Poems, by Herbert Croft; "Life of the Countess of Devonshire;" Countess of Carlisle confined in the Tower during the Interregnum	458
SAME. Aug. 7. —Dr. Johnson's health, and his portrait by Opie (see note); Lord George Gordon's pamphlet; Bishop of Nova Scotia	459
SAME. Feb. 14, 1784. —Death of Dean Milles (see note); opposition to Sir Joseph Banks in the Royal Society (see note)	460
SAME. Feb. 24. —Mr. King elected President of the Society of Antiquaries pro tempore ; Lord De Ferrars expected to preside (see note); death of Dr. Morell (see note); strong party against Sir Joseph Banks; ill health of Dr. Johnson; institution of a weekly club in Essex Street (see note); the Literary Club; the Portland Vase described by Bartoli and Wright	461
SAME. Feb. 28. —Defeat in the Royal Society of the party against Sir Joseph Banks; Mr. William Preston, afterwards Bishop of Leighlin (see note); cherries at 2s. 6d. a-piece to treat Billy Pitt; the Dissenters, Republicans, and Reformers in his favour	462
SAME. March 26. —Mr. Richard Gamon disappoints the Duke of Chandos's expectations (see note); the Great Seal stolen; illness of the Prince of Wales; Jeremy Taylor burnt his "Liberty of Prophesying;" sale of the Yelverton library	463
SAME. July 27. —Mrs. Thrale's marriage with Piozzi; Major Vallancey; Eugene Aram's Celtic Dictionary; his great talents (see note); Chatterton's Work and his Will	464
SAME. Aug. 19. —On some application to the Archbishop of Canterbury; a Bishop of Nova Scotia proposed; troubled state of the Irish; the Yelverton MSS. (see note)	465
SAME. May 5, 1785. —Dublin Antiquarian Society; Governor Pownall and Mr. Ledwich relative to the Ship Temple; death of Alderman Norfolk, Mrs. Lort's father; death of Dr. Johnson, and anecdotes of him (see note); Bishop Preston, and his rise; T. Warton made poet laureate (see note)	466
SAME. June 24. —Prints of the Prince of Wales and Primate of Ireland; the new Antiquarian Society of Dublin (see note); Sir Ashton Lever's Museum (see note); Mr. Duane's coins; prints of the Emperor of China's battles with

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

xxii

CONTENTS.

- the Tartars; Henderson's set of Hogarth's prints; Alexandrian New Testament (see note); thinks of visiting Bishop Percy at Dromore . . . 469
- SAME. Aug. 15.—Journey to Chester, &c.; Mr. Travis's answer to Gibbon; Robert Heron's (Pinkerton's) "Letters on Literature;" Dr. Johnson's Prayers; Boswell's conversation with the King relative to the title of the Pretender . . . 471
- SAME. Oct. 31.—Manuscript of the Gospels in Dublin College Library; Mrs. Piozzi and her "Anecdotes of Dr. Johnson;" Boswell's "Tour to the Hebrides;" Johnson's Dictionary; Sir John Hawkins's Life and Works of Johnson; Hawkins's "Ignoramus;" Italian play of Baptista Porta, found by Dr. Farmer at Clare Hall; De Foe's History of Union of Scotland with England, and his other proposed works; the Earl of Bristol (Bishop of Derry, and Mrs. Yearsley (see note); portraits of Irish patriots . . . 472
- SAME. Dec. 16, 1786.—Mr. Pinkerton and his works; Dr. Towers's Life of Dr. Johnson; Whiteboys in Ireland; American Bishops; Bishop Seabury and his mitre; charge in the annotated Tatler against Swift (see note) . . . 474
- SAME. March 8, 1787.—Disturbed state of the Church in Ireland; the Dissenters and the Test Act; the American Bishops; Mrs. Piozzi and her marriage . . . 477
- SAME. March 21.—The Irish Church and the Dissenters; Mrs. Piozzi and her intended work on Johnson; supplementary volume of Johnson's Works, "The Debates in the Senate of Lilliput" (see note); review of the "Sublime and Beautiful," by Murphy, not Johnson . . . 478
- SAME. April 3.—Rejection of the Repeal of the Test Act; political tactics; the republication of Sherlock and Hoadly's pamphlets on the Dissenters; Dr. Wm. Campbell's answer to the Bishop of Cloyne (see note); poetical squib against the Duke of Norfolk on his turning Protestant; female association in Ireland against payment of tithes; a curious pamphlet of the same kind published 1659 in England, with an extract . . . 479
- SAME. April 9.—The Dissenters and their pamphlets; Bishops Shipley and Watson; Dr. James Macknight's translation of the Epistles, (see note); Lady Percy, that was in the King's Bench prison with Sheriff Sayre, (see note); The King has the gout . . . 482
- SAME. May 13.—Journey to Cambridge and Ely with Bishop Barrington; the Dublin MS. of St. Matthew's Gospel about to be published; the Alexandrian MS.; sermon to prove the authenticity of the Doxology; Dr. Bentley's volumes of the New Testament; "The World" conducted by Capt. Topham and Mr. Miles Peter Andrews; Priestley's letter to Mr. Pitt; Lord North's last speech and total blindness; Rev. Jos. Berington's letter to Priestley, and other Roman Catholic pamphlets, (see note); Lindsay's Liturgy used in America; Irish Society for Christian Knowledge; portrait of O'Leary; Mrs. Piozzi and "Johnson's Letters;" Sir John Hawkins pulled to pieces in the Monthly Review (see note); Bp. Percy's Letter on Fossil Horns in Ireland (see note); Pinkerton on the Celts . . . 483
- SAME. June 26.—Controversial pamphlets (see note); Courayer's Last Sentiments (see note); David Williams's Liturgy on Universal Principles (see note); Peaufort's Map of Ireland; the state of the Irish Church; fire at Dodsley's warehouses, and works burnt . . . 486
- SAME. Aug. 14.—Dr. Inglis elected Bishop of Nova Scotia; doctrine of the General Assembly of Scotland, respecting the head of the Church; Mr. Wharton, a Popish priest, converted, and his pamphlet; O'Leary's letter . . . 488
- PERCY to LORT. March 2, 1788.—Mr. Browne's pamphlet vindicating the Government relative to the Articles of Limerick; Dr. Porteus made Bishop of London; London nuisances . . . 490
- LORT to PERCY. April 17.—Bishop Porteus; preferments in the Church; Mr. Soame Jenyns and his works; Mr. Bruce's Travels satirised by Mr. J. C. Walker in his "Irish Bards;" "Johnson's Letters," and Mrs. Piozzi; Dr. Priestley called Anti-Christ; state of the Church in America; emigrants to America (see note) . . . 492

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxiii

SAME. May 21. —Dr. Farmer's marriage with Miss Hatton broken off; Mr. Cottingham's marriage to Miss Wollery, with a short account of the lady and her family	495
SAME. Aug. 1. —Mr. Cottingham and his marriage; pamphlets on Ireland by Dr. Hales and Mr. Browne; Dr. Hales's "Survey;" African expedition, and Mr. Ledyard (see note); the Westminster Election; robbery of coins and medals at the Duke of Devonshire's	496
SAME. April 13, 1789. —Dr. Lort's ill-health; the King's illness and recovery; the pamphlets issued at that period; the Dissenters and the Test Act; Mrs. Piozzi's "Travels;" Miss Hatton married; intended celebration at St. Paul's for the King's recovery	498
SAME. June 14. —Barrett's "History of Bristol," and Chatterton; Mr. Ritson repulsed at the Society of Antiquaries; Mrs. Piozzi's Travels; the Dissenters and the Test Act	499
SAME. July 11. —Lord Stanhope's Bills for Toleration; Dr. Farmer's pamphlet on Shakspeare; "Hints to the New Association;" Barrett's "History of Bristol"	501
SAME. March 12, 1790. —Dr. Lort's account of his tour in the North	502
SAME. April 16. —Sends a number of pamphlets, with remarks; Mr. Burke and his "Reflections on the French Revolution;" African Association; George Steevens and his tricks on Gough and Pegge; the American inscription, inserted in the Archæologia	504
SAME. May 1. —The Popish Bishops' opposition to the proceedings of the Committee relative to their suit to Parliament; letter to one of the Bishops; Lord Petre's letter to Bishop Horsley	506
Remarks on Lord Petre's letter by Bishop Percy	507
SAME. May 8. —Bishop Horsley's pamphlet against the Dissenters; "Apology for the Clergy and Liturgy," and other pamphlets; Soame Jenyns; Johnson's Monument proposed (see note); Steevens's satire on the Antiquarian Society	507
SAME. May 14. —Proposed oath of the Catholics; English newspaper to be printed in Paris, and Mr. Courteney; the lost books of Livy; Mr. Whaley the Irish traveller, and his journey to Jerusalem	509
SAME. June 16. —Sir Robert Chambers's letter sent to H. Walpole; Sir William Scott and Mr. Steevens; papers relative to Rowley lodged in British Museum by Dr. Glynn; Sir Robert Chambers's letter recommended to be published in European Magazine (see note); the Arabic translation of Livy; anecdote of Mr. Whaley (see note); Bruce's Travels; the African Association; Mr. George Chalmers's edition of De Foe's works	510
SAME. July 13. —Dr. Lort's accident, and Mrs. Percy's illness; sends pamphlets; remarks on them	511
SAME. July 17. —De Foe's Life; Dr. Thomas Campbell's "Strictures on the History of Ireland;" Dr. D. A. Beaufort's transcripts from Lord Carew's MSS. at Lambeth	512
SAME. Aug. 3. —Druidical Temple transplanted by General Conway to Park place, near Henley; the lost books of Livy; sends pamphlets; the names of four Roman Catholic Bishops; the Irish Catholics and the oath; the "Layman's Letter;" two rectors of Marylebone at one time	512
SAME. Aug. 5. —Sends pamphlets; Sir H. Englefield elected Vice-President of Society of Antiquaries	514
SAME. Aug. 24. —Relative to Mr. Smith and Mrs. Hill of Marylebone; Bishop Percy's sermon; animal magnetism; George Chalmers's Life of De Foe; Dr. John Carrol, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Baltimore	514
SAME. Sept. 4. —Mrs. Hill; Mrs. Percy's ill-health; Mr. Steevens on the supposed disinterment of Milton's corpse	516
PERCY to MRS. LORT. Feb. 1791. —On the death of Dr. Lort	517
MRS. LORT to PERCY. Feb. 27. —Promises to return all the Bishop's letters; relative to Mrs. Hill	518

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

LETTERS BETWEEN DR. LORT AND DR. BIRCH.

- BIRCH to LORT. May 9, 1761.—Mr. Lort's proposed Life and Correspondence of Dr. Bentley; illness of Bishop Sherlock 519
- LORT to BIRCH. May 12.—Dr. Bentley's letters; Lord Granville; Bentley's works 519
- SAME. Nov. 29, 1762.—Lord Bacon's letters; MS. of Quine Ecalp, the noted Black 520
- SAME. Nov. 13, 1764.—On the letters of Howard Earl of Northampton to Carr Earl of Somerset (see note) 520
- SAME. Dec. 2.—Lord Northampton's letters; copy of a letter of the Earl of Northampton to the Earl of Somerset 522
- SAME. Nov. 29, 1765.—MS. account of Charles II.'s escape after the battle of Worcester (see note); Sir David Dalrymple, Lord Hailes 523

LETTERS FROM DR. LORT TO THE HON. HORACE WALPOLE.

- LORT to RICHARD CUMBERLAND, Esq. (see note). Dec. 22, 1759.—Dr. Bentley's "Lucan;" requests Mr. Cumberland to introduce him to Mr. Walpole 525
- Some cursory Remarks on Walpole's Catalogue of Royal and Noble Authors, by Dr. Lort 525
- LORT to WALPOLE. Feb. 7, 1760.—Further Remarks on "Royal and Noble Authors;" Lady Masham; Lady Harmonia, Countess of Warwick, an authoress; Lord Capel's "Daily Observations;" pamphlet ascribed to Mr. Robert Walpole 529
- SAME. Feb. 25.—Lord Delawar's account of Virginia; Lord Chandos's "Horæ Subsevicae" (see note); Ballad of "Christ's Kirk of the Green;" Lord Grey's "Account of the Plot" 530
- SAME. July 27.—Mr. Lort's sermon before the University 531
- SAME. March 14, 1762.—Commends the "Anecdotes of Painting" 532
- SAME. May 10, 1765.—Correspondence of Carr Earl of Somerset and Overbury 532
- SAME. June 3.—Murder of Sir Thomas Overbury; Sir John Holles 533
- SAME. Feb. 4, 1773.—Relative to a book of anecdotes; Admirable Creighton 534
- SAME. July 5, 1775.—Relative to a curious case of incestuous marriage 534
- SAME. June 11, 1776.—Vertue's print of Charles I. and his Queen, the same as that published by Van Voorst; mention of it in the Minutes of Society of Antiquaries 534
- SAME. July 10.—Thanks for some pictures sent by Mr. Walpole 535
- SAME. Aug. 1.—Sends prints of Wilson the painter, and St. Paul's Cross 535
- SAME. Aug. 6.—Mr. Waddilove's letter on English Portraits in Spain 535
- SAME. Aug. 7.—Notes of St. Paul's Cross; Muntz on Encaustic Painting; Mr. Waddilove; Dr. Maty; Mr. Lort's intended journey to the North 536
- SAME. June 20, 1778.—Mr. Lort's paper on Celts, &c.; Viscount Shannon's "Discourses" 537
- SAME. July 20.—"Clubbe's Physiognomy," and Hogarth's print; Shirley's travels; Hogarth's works; materials for the "Narrative" relating to Chatterton; letter of Chatterton to the "Town and Country Magazine" 537
- SAME. July 29.—On Chatterton's Poems 540
- SAME. Sept. 4.—Rowley controversy; Mr. George Catcott against Warton, and defence of Rowley 540
- SAME. Jan. 11, 1779.—Mr. Waddilove's letter about pictures which belonged to Charles I. at Madrid; Mr. Swinburne's "Account of Spain" 541
- SAME. May 18.—Sends a drawing by Mr. Tyson; Mr. Grimm engaged to make a drawing of the "Embarkation of Henry VIII." at Windsor (see note); Mrs. Penny's poems 541
- SAME. June 3.—Article relative to the Arundel Marbles in Gent. Mag., supposed to be by Judge Blackstone; MS. with notes by Sir John Cullum 542
- WALPOLE to LORT. June 4.—The MS. illustrative of the portraits on panel of Henry VI. &c., at Bury, and description of them (see note) 542
- LORT to WALPOLE. June 11.—On the above royal portraits; Hogarth's

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

XXV

frontispiece to "Gulliver's Travels;" "The Second Anticipation," ascribed to Barry; Lens on "Costume"	544
SAME. Aug. 31.—Sends books; introduction to the Latin Narrative of Henry Sixth's visit to Bury (see note)	544
SAME. Sept. 8.—Mr. Walpole's criticisms on Hirschfeld's "Theory of Gardening;" "Théorie des Jardins;" Mr. Whateley on "Gardening;" the Empress of Russia and the Jesuits; Dr. Lort appointed Chaplain to Archbishop Cornwallis	545
SAME. Dec. 23, 1780.—John Carter's drawing of the head of Henry III. (see notes)	546
SAME. 1781.—Sheldon's sale (see note); Prince Charles of Lorraine	547
SAME. April 2.—J. Carter's head of Henry III.	547
SAME. Sept. 17.—MS. on painting sent by Bishop Hinchliffe; notes made during his visit to Surrey; statue of a Saxon king found in Westminster Hall; John Carter	548
SAME. Nov. 8.—Mr. Walpole's intended memoir of Madame Du Deffand (see note); wishes for a just character of Voltaire; pamphlet containing letters by Chev. Boufflers	549
SAME. March 7, 1782.—Picture of one of the Turner family	549
SAME. Dec. 20.—Dr. Lort leaves Lambeth; letter from Dr. Ewin to Sir Walter Rawlinson, announcing the death of Rev. William Cole (see note)	550
SAME. Jan. 6, 1786.—Sends "Life of Father Archangell"	550
SAME. July 16, 1788.—Rev. G. Ashby and his MS. book of prayers of Queen Katharine Parr; robbery of coins at the Duke of Devonshire's	551
SAME. July 25.—Passage in "Mélanges de Vigneuil Marveille" relative to Sir Kenelm Digby and his lady	551
SAME. July 28.—Thanks Mr. Walpole for his remarks on Mr. Ashby's MS. volume; the Devonshire medals; Lord Buchan's "Life of Napier;" Mr. Mason's pamphlet on the "York Lunatic Hospital;" intended journey to Boulogne to see antiquities	551
SAME. Nov. 10.—Dr. Gregory's memoir of Chatterton for the Biog. Britannica	553
SAME. July 6, 1789.—Mr. Porter, and letter recommending him to Dr. Postlethwaite	553
SAME. Aug. 4.—Mr. Barrett's "History of Bristol," and materials for the "Narrative" relative to Chatterton (see note)	553
FARMER, REV. DR. to GENT. MAG. May 25, 1792.—Relative to Walpole's correspondence with Chatterton (see note)	554
LORT to WALPOLE. Aug. 7, 1789.—Sends some verses from an old Cambridge collection; the Latin letter introduced by Barrett in the Preface to his History of Bristol written by Dr. Glynn; the two sons of the Duke de Liancourt brought to England for education	555
WALPOLE'S conduct towards Chatterton; Dr. Gregory's opinion; copy of Dr. LORT'S vindication of Mr. Walpole with regard to Chatterton, from the Biographia Britannica	556
On Chatterton's knowledge of Heraldry, in a letter to Mr. Bigland, Somerset Herald, probably by Rev. James Dallaway	565
LETTERS OF DR. PERCY AND DR. BIRCH.
NOTICES OF THE REV. DR. THOMAS BIRCH	567
PERCY TO BIRCH. April 21, 1763.—Works of the Duke of Buckingham; "Key to the Rehearsal" (see note)	567
SAME. July 2.—Thanks for papers; the "Miscellanea Aulica;" Langbaine's Works, with Oldys's MS. notes (see note); letter from the Duke of Buckingham to Charles II.; inquiry for old books; Dr. Farmer offers assistance to Dr. Birch; "Specimens of Runic Poetry," by Dr. Percy	568
SAME. July 12.—Sonnet by Hentzner, printed by Mr. Walpole (see note); intended edition of the "Earl of Surrey's Works," and his Life, with a Glossary by Rev. Edward Lye	570

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

xxvi

CONTENTS.

SAME. Jan. 15, 1764.—The Duke of Buckingham and the Countess of Shrewsbury (see note); "Key to the Rehearsal" (see note)	571
SAME. April 26.—New edition of the "Spectator"; the Earl of Hardwicke a contributor to the Spectator (see note); information required relative to authors of the "Tatler" and "Guardian"; Percy's essay on the "Origin of the British Stage" (see note)	573
SAME. May 10.—Inquiries after Bp. Pearce's Papers in the "Spectator" (see note); newspapers of the time of the Spectator required	574
SAME. June 12.—Inquiries relative to certain papers in "Spectator" (see note)	575
SAME. June 15.—"The Spy on the Spectator;" "Critical Remarks on Spectator, Tatler," &c.	576
SAME. Feb. 2.—Presents Dr. Birch with the "Reliques of Ancient Poetry" (see note)	577
SAME. July 27.—Inquiry relative to the situation of Assistant Librarian of the British Museum (see note)	577
MEMOIR OF REV. ARCHDEACON NARES	578
Character of Archdeacon Nares by the Rev. W. Beloe	585
CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN ARCHDEACON NARES AND BISHOP PERCY.
NARES TO PERCY. 1782.—Mr. Nares invites Bishop Percy to Easton Mauduit (see note)	588
SAME. Sept. 7, 1800.—Resident on his Archdeaconry at Lichfield; Bishop Percy's review of Nichols's "Leicestershire" in the "British Critic" (see note); other reviews of Bishop Percy; Peter Pindar and W. Gifford (see note)	588
SAME. Oct. 17.—Relative to the living and estate of Easton Mauduit	590
SAME. Jan. 19, 1801.—The review of Nichols's "Leicestershire;" meeting of Parliament; Continuation of the new Harleian Catalogue; Mr. Malone's accident; Bowles's "Don Quixote;" Mr. David Casley (see note)	591
SAME. Sept. 13.—Mrs. West's "Letters to a young Man on his first Entrance into Life;" the Harleian Catalogue; Wm. Godwin criticised (see note); death of Gilbert Wakefield, and his character (see note); Rev. Thomas Gisborne (see note)	592
SAME. Nov. 27.—Review of Mrs. West's "Letters to a young Man;" Mr. Thomas Carter the composer of the tune of "O! Nanny, wilt thou gang wi' me?" (see note)	593
SAME. April 26, 1802.—Dr. Caulfield's pamphlet; Rev. Peter Roberts's reply to Volney (see note); the influence of the book; Life of Goldsmith, inquiry whether from Dr. Percy's information; letter from Mrs. West; pension from rectory of Easton Mauduit to the Bishop of Peterborough	594
SAME. April 28.—Sir Richard Musgrave's reply to Dr. Caulfield; Dr. Caulfield's defence (see note); Rev. Dr. Samuel Smith (see note); visit to Mrs. West at Market Harborough; pension from Easton Mauduit Rectory; Life of Goldsmith	597
SAME. Sept. 2.—Bishop Percy and the editorship of the "Reliques;" Dr. Caulfield	598
SAME. Nov. 12.—The Society of Antiquaries and the Rosetta Stone; pension from Easton Mauduit Rectory; Mrs. West; Mr. Warton about to publish Dryden's Works, with a selection from the Warton correspondence	599
SAME. April , 1803.—The Easton Mauduit pension; Mrs. West's "Infidel Father;" Ritson's insolent attack on Bishop Percy; Dr. Leyden's "Complaynt of Scotland" (see note); Mr. G. Ellis (see note); Mr. William Gifford (see note) and his edition of "Massinger"	600
SAME. Sept. 9.—Mr. Ritson and Bishop Percy; Bishop Percy on Fall of Stones from the Clouds, the Cuckoo, &c (see note)	603
SAME. Feb. 6, 1804.—Death of Ritson; his work on "Animal Food"	604
SAME. Aug. 16.—Ritson's "Metrical Romances;" Bishop Percy's remark on Lady Mary W. Montagu and Queen Caroline	605

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxvii

PERCY to NARES. Dec. 28. —Bishop Percy's note on Ritson's attack, intended for the "British Critic" (see note)	606
LETTERS OF MR. ARCHDEACON NARES TO VARIOUS LITERARY FRIENDS.
NARES to GENT. MAG. June 13, 1789. —Dr. Burney's History of Music, and anecdotes of W. Crotch, the infant musical genius (see note)	608
NARES to DR. PARR. April 10, 1794. —Apology for errors in the "British Critic;" Bryant and his tract on Justin Martyr; Dr. Parr's remarks on Wakefield; Dr. Parr's Sermons	609
NARES to J. NICHOLS. June 14, 1805. —Warburtonian Lectures (see note); Shaw's History of Staffordshire	610
NARES to REV. R. POLWHELE. Jan. 26, 1810. —Mr. Polwhele's review of Whitaker's St. Neot , and memoir of the author; his critiques on Warner and Drew	610
Happiness. A Fable, by Rev. Archdeacon Nares	611
NARES to GENT. MAG. July 3, 1811. —Sir Samuel Morland the inventor of the Steam Engine	612
NARES to NICHOLS. Sept. —Parody on a song in "The Camp;" "Enlisting a Critic for the Edinburgh Review"	613
NARES to POLWHELE. March 13, 1812. —Intention of resigning the Editorship of the British Critic ; promises to recommend Mr. Polwhele to his successor; the novel "Thinks I to myself;" Rev. Edward Nares the supposed author; his publications; notice of him	614
NARES to NICHOLS. Nov. 16, 1812. —Preface to the "Lectures" of Dr. Purdy; memoir of Rev. Dr. Purdy by Mr. Archdeacon Nares	615
NARES to POLWHELE. Nov. 10, 1813. —Galt's "Life of Wolsey;" Mr. Polwhele's Review of Northcote's "Life of Sir Joshua Reynolds"	618
NARES to NICHOLS. Dec. 30. —Rev. Wm. Milton's paper "On the Draught of Carriages" (see note)	619
NARES to GENT. MAG. Feb. 1, 1814. —M. Von Feinagle's "Art of Memory" proved to be as old as the time of Cicero	619
NARES to NICHOLS. March 17. —Critique on Mr. Francis Baily on "Annuities"	621
SAME. May 23. —Bishop Gleig's Review of Dr. M'Crie's Life of John Knox (see note); Bishop Gleig offers a review of Bishop Horsley's Charges	622
NARES to GENT. MAG. (See note). Sept. 15. —Mr. Archdeacon Nares's description of Bremhill, the residence of W. L. Bowles	622
SAME. May 2, 1827. —The subject continued	625
NARES to NICHOLS. Jan. 8, 1815. —A Paper by the Rev. J. Hellins on the Hyperbola	626
NARES to GENT. MAG. Jan. 2, 1815. —Mr. Nares's "Essay on Craniology" (see note)	627
NARES to POLWHELE. Jan. 25, 1815. —Mr. Polwhele's review of Northcote's "Life of Sir Joshua Reynolds" (see note); Mr. Nares on the literary merits of Malone, Steevens, Northcote, and Mason (see note); Bishop Middleton the new editor and proprietor of the British Critic	630
NARES to GENT. MAG. Sept. 25, 1815. —On "Bocardo" at Oxford	631
SAME. Dec. 11. —On the construction of Organs	632
NARES to NICHOLS. Jan. 29, 1816. —General Fitzpatrick's Epitaph upon himself; Sir R. Fanshaw's copy of his "Lusiad;" "Letter on Enthusiasm" (see note); ninth vol. of Nichols's "Literary Anecdotes;" notice of country newspapers	633
SAME. March 15. —Notice of the ninth vol. of "Literary Anecdotes" (see note); on the account of the Nares family in that work; Epitaphs on the Nares Family (see note)	634
SAME. April 25, 1817. —The Pope's Rescript against Bible Societies	635
SAME. April 28. —Sends a Memoir of Rev. Wm. Beloe (see note)	635
NARES to GENT. MAG. June 4. —Five Latin Poems by Rev. T. Warton	636
SAME. Sept. 4. —Memoir of Rev. Samuel Partridge, by Archdeacon Nares	637
NARES to NICHOLS. Oct. 9, 1819. —Review of Rev. J. W. Whitaker's "Inquiry into the Interpretation of the Hebrew Scriptures" (see note)	638
SAME. Jan. 26, 1821. —Memoir of Mrs. John Hunter, by Arch. Nares	638

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

xxviii

CONTENTS.

NARES to POLWHELE. Feb. 12.—Mr. Nares's efforts for Mr. Polwhele's preferment (see note); death of Rev. Dr. Edmund Outram (see note)	640
SAME. May 8.—The Royal Society of Literature	641
SAME to NICHOLS. May 8.—Review of "Memoirs of the Mexican Revolution, by Wm. Davis Robinson"	641
SAME. June 28, 1822.—Mr. Nares's "Glossary" (see note)	642
SAME. Jan. 10, 1823.—Rev. Gilbert Wakefield, and his father the Rev. George Wakefield	642
NARES to GENT. MAG. Jan. 4.—On books picked up at stalls; Rev. George Wakefield	642
SAME. March 1.—On the same subject. The poems of the Rev. George Wakefield and Edward Moore compared	645
NARES to NICHOLS. March .—Query relative to the author of "Umbritii Cantiarum Poemata" (see note)	648
NARES to GENT. MAG. Nov. 6.—Mr. John Chalkhill the real author of "Thealma and Clearchus," and two Songs in Walton's "Angler" (see note)	648
NARES to NICHOLS. Nov. 11.—Atterbury's Correspondence	652
SAME. Nov. 14.—Sends review of "Gleig's Letter to Sir Edward Knatchbull" (see note)	652
NARES to POLWHELE. April 5, 1824.—Rev. Canon Hugh Bailye (see note); Honorary Associates of the Royal Society of Literature	652
SAME. Sept. 10.—Mr. Polwhele's "Poetical Epistle to Archdeacon Nares," to be forwarded to his Majesty	653
NARES to NICHOLS. Dec. 11.—Review of Rev. G. Sackville Cotter's "Translation of Six Comedies of Terence"	654
NARES to GENT. MAG. (See note). Oct. 14, 1825.—On certain innovations in the English language	654
SAME. March 30, 1826.—The "Poemata" of Vincent Bourne commended	656
SAME. Aug. 20.—The same subject continued	657
SAME. Aug. 16.—Mr. James Elphinstone and his works; a specimen of Elphinstone's poem on Education (translated into current English)	658
NARES to J. B. NICHOLS. Dec. 4.—On death of his father, John Nichols, esq.	659
NARES to GENT. MAG. Feb. 19, 1827.—Early History of Blanco White and his conversion (see note); History of Antonio Gavin, a Spanish priest	659
SAME. The same subject continued	663
Memoir of the Rev. Blanco White	664
NARES to POLWHELE.—Mr. Polwhele's "Constantinople," a poem, commended	668
Memoir of Rev. John Hellins, by Archdeacon Nares	669
NARES to POLWHELE. Aug. 29, 1827.—Royal Society of Literature	671
NARES to GENT. MAG. Oct. 16.—On the architectural improvements at Cambridge	671
NARES to NICHOLS. Dec. 7.—Memoir of Joseph Planta, Esq. by Mr. Archdeacon Nares	677
SAME. Dec. 18, 1828.—Relative to the second wife of the Rev. Theophilus Buckeridge (see note)	679
NARES to POLWHELE. Jan. 17, 1829.—Remarks on Mr. Polwhele's "Traditions and Recollections" (see notes); Congratulates him on his recovery of his patrimony	680
DR. DRAKE to NICHOLS. Aug. 6, 1818.—Requesting the insertion in Gent. Mag. of Mr. Nares's review of Dr. Drake's "Shakspeare and the Times"	680
Nares's Epitaph on Miss Susan Proby	681
MEMOIR OF JOSEPH COOPER WALKER, Esq., M.R.I.A.	681
Mr. Walker's Anecdotes of Carolan the Irish Bard, and his contemporaries, Charles M'Cabe, James Whyte, Fil O'Feighny, and David Murphy	689
CORRESPONDENCE OF JOSEPH COOPER WALKER, Esq.
WALKER to RICHARD GOUGH. July 9, 1787.—Mr. Gough's additions to

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

XXIX

"Ireland" in his "Camden's Britannia;" Mr. Walker's "Irish Bards;" his "Essay on Irish Dress"	696
SAME. Sept. 4.—Offers his assistance to Mr. Gough; plan of the "Essay on Irish Dress;" Mr. Beauford; Dr. Ledwich; Mr. Conyngham's Drawings	697
GOUGH to WALKER. Sept. 13.—Mr. Beauford's Map, and Mr. Mackenzie's Nautical Surveys; advice on the "Essay on Irish Dress;" Mr. Douglas's "Nenia Britannica;" Mr. Nichols will be glad of Mr. Walker's correspondence; Mr. Walker's proposals for Observations on the North of Ireland	698
WALKER to GOUGH. Sept. 26.—Mr. Beauford's map; list of drawings in the possession of Mr. Cooper; papers in the Transactions of the Irish Academy; extinct volcanoes in Ireland; Griennon's Map of Ireland; Vallancey's Military Survey; Mackenzie's Nautical Surveys; Walker's proposals; Poole and Cash's "Views in Dublin;" Milton's Seats of the Nobility; Bishop Pococke's Minutes and Register of the Philosophical Society of Dublin (see note); "Natural History of Ireland;" Lodge's "Peerage;" inquiry for Mr. Wright's papers	699
GOUGH to WALKER. Oct. 24.—Mr. Cooper's drawings; Griennon's and Andrews's maps of Ireland; Mr. Wright's papers (see note); Scale's Hibernian Atlas	700
WALKER to GOUGH. Oct. 30.—Cooper's drawings; character of Irish maps; inedited maps of Ireland in the Lambeth Library; Wright's Travels; Mr. Coxe's Tour in Ireland; "Tour of Two English Gentlemen;" Vallancey's "Vindication of the Ancient History of Ireland;" Lord Kenmare; Ledwich and Beauford; Harris's "History of Dublin;" Rutty's "Spas of Dublin"	701
WALKER to PERCY. Oct. 30.—Duke of Rutland's successor; the Duke's funeral; MSS. addressed to Duke of Northumberland relating to Ireland	702
WALKER to GOUGH. Nov. 10.—Correctors of Mr. Gough's proof sheets; Mr. Walker's "Essay on Irish Dress"	703
SAME. (No date).—"Poyning's Law;" the old Countess of Desmond; Irish County Maps; Castle of Ardfinnan in Tipperary	704
SAME. (No date).—Assistance to Mr. Gough from Mr. Beauford and Dr. Campbell	705
GOUGH to WALKER. Nov. 24.—Correction of the press; bargains with booksellers	705
WALKER to GOUGH. Dec. 3.—Ferrar's "History of Limerick;" discoveries in the Tipperary bogs; discovery of antiquities; Brien's harp	706
SAME. May 3, 1788.—Publication of the "Essay on Irish Dress"	706
SAME. June 26.—Corrections relative to Tarah, &c.	706
SAME. Sept. 9.—Mr. O'Connor's anecdotes of his family; proposals for a work by Miss Charlotte Brooke	707
SAME. Sept. 20.—Inquiries about copies of his "Irish Dress" sent to Mr. Elmsly	707
WALKER to PERCY. Sept. 16.—"Recollections of the Life of Shenstone" (see note); White's "Orations of Cicero;" Hoole's translation of Ericilla's poem; Charlotte Smith's "Emmeline;" Robertson's "History of America;" anecdote of Charles V.; Ritson's visit to Ireland	708
WALKER to GOUGH. Dec. 21.—Print of Irish Dresses from MS. Froissart at Oxford	709
GOUGH to WALKER. Jan. 12, 1789.—Conclusion of Mr. Gough's additions to "Ireland" in Camden's Britannia; the "Irish Dress" not advertised; remarks on the plates; slow progress of the second volume of "Sepulchral Monuments"	709
WALKER to GOUGH. Feb. 22.—Reviews of the "Irish Dress" by English Review and Gent. Mag.; complains of the latter Review	710
WALKER to PERCY. Sept. 22.—Writes to Mr. Ritson relative to his attack on Bishop Percy; writes to Mr. Hayley on the subject of the "Reliques;" Mr. Shee	710
SAME. Nov. 7.—Mr. Ritson's reply to Mr. Walker, with extracts; Mr. Walker's tour to Buxton; meets with a pupil of old Parry, who plays some tunes 1000 years old; Mrs. Lacy of Carlisle	711

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

XXX

CONTENTS.

- WALKER to GENT. MAG. Aug. 20, 1790.—Remarks on several articles in Gent. Mag. ; Mr. J. Ussher ; signature of Clio in the "Spectator ;" anecdote of the Poets Pope and Phillips ; new edition of "The World ;" new edition of Henry Brooke's Works, by his daughter 712
- WALKER to PERCY. Aug. 3, 1791.—Ball given by the Elector of Mentz 718
- SAME. Aug. 21.—Dr. Ledwich and his work ; Grose's "Ireland ;" Mr. Gandon's monument for Grose ; death of Rev. Mervyn Archdall (see note) ; Dr. Ledwich preparing papers for the Dublin Transactions ; Mrs. Smith's novels of "Celestina" and "Hermione ;" Colonel Vallancey's "Tour in Ireland ;" Mr. Walker proposes to make a tour on the Continent ; Lord Charlemont ; the Russian Court presents the Dublin Academy with a Greek translation of Virgil ; Mr. Graydon presents them with fossils ; Bristol ; Mrs. Yearsley ; the Maid of the Hay-stack ; Chatterton's mother and sister ; lines occasioned by Mrs. Gunning's pamphlet 713
- SAME. Sept. 14.—Miss Gunning and the King of France ; Bulgari's Greek translation of Virgil (see note) ; Mr. Boyd's poems ; Mr. Ritson ; Paine and his Life, by Mr. George Chalmers ; Mr. Kirwan and Mrs. O'Neil ; original portraits found at Delville ; his intended tour to Italy ; requests an introduction to Sir William Hamilton 717
- PERCY to WALKER. Sept. 24.—Gives a letter of introduction to Mr. Byres at Rome (see note) ; Lord Charlemont ; the handwriting of Milton in his copy of Lycophron identified ; Mr. Byres, the Pope's antiquary ; Mons. Mallet's "Introduction to the History of Denmark" 718
- WALKER to PERCY. Frankfort, July 23, 1792.—Mr. Byres ; Mr. Moir, his nephew and successor, ridiculed on the Italian stage ; M. Mallet and his letter ; state of society at Rome ; Sir William Hamilton and society at Naples ; the hermit of the mountain ; various incidents of his tour 719
- SAME. Jan. 6, 1793.—The attack of the Defenders on Mr. Blacker and others ; the engagement at Carricknacross ; Mr. John Foster the Speaker's efforts to quell the riots (see note) ; return to Dublin 723
- SAME. 1794.—(See note) ; on the conduct of Mr. Ritson towards Bishop Percy 725
- WALKER to PINKERTON. Nov. 16.—Mutual correspondence desired ; Mr. Ledwich and Mr. Walker's contributions to the Academy Transactions ; Mr. Elmsly ; General Vallancey ; Miss Charlotte Brooke's Relics of Irish Poetry 728
- WALKER to PERCY. March 7, 1797.—Murder of Rev. Dr. W. Hamilton and Mrs. Waller (see note) ; capture of Spanish ships ; Hayley's "Life of Milton ;" the history of blank verse in England ; on the restriction of the Sonnet by the Italians 729
- SAME. (Date unknown).—Notes on passages in the "Reliques," and on the first edition of Shakspeare ; genius of Shakspeare ; hints to Mr. Malone on the Irish character ; Dr. Warton and his edition of Pope's works ; Dr. Burney's "Memoirs of Metastasio," and "History of Music" 731
- WALKER to PINKERTON. March 13.—His literary prospects ; on the death of Horace Walpole ; scenery of Wicklow 733
- WALKER to PERCY. March 20.—Observations on blank verse among the Italians and French 734
- SAME. March 25.—Same subject continued 736
- SAME. April 2.—Poem of the Earl of Essex ; Mr. Marsden's "Catalogue of Dictionaries ;" death of Mr. Pinkerton's child ; illness of the Earl of Meath (see note) 739
- SAME. May 20.—Authenticity of Percy's Han Kiou Chouan ; Mr. Catcott and the Chatterton Papers (see note) ; state of politics ; Dr. Hussey's "Pastoral Letter ;" Dr. Hamilton's widow ; Dr. Browne's "Lectures on Civil and Ecclesiastical Law ;" "Memoirs of Sir Joshua Reynolds" 740
- SAME. June 6.—Correspondence with Mr. Catcott ; Chinese novel ; Sir Herbert Croft's "Love and Madness" (see note) ; the first edition of "Italia Liberata ;" the political state of Ireland 741

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxxii

WALKER to PINKERTON. June 27. —Observations on Italian poets and historians	742
WALKER to PERCY. July 8. —On English blank verse	743
SAME. Aug. 25. —On the same subject	744
SAME. March 14, 1798. —Lord Surrey's "Geraldine" (see note); the author of "The Orange;" arrest of Irish conspirators	745
SAME. March 20. —Lord Surrey's "Geraldine;" the Irish conspirators; state of Ireland; Dr. Young's Paper on Colours	747
WALKER to PINKERTON. May 12. —Pinkerton's History of Scotland commended (see note)	748
SAME. Dec. 2. —Pinkerton's "Poetical Works"	749
SAME. Jan. 19, 1799. —Mr. Walker's Memoir on Italian Tragedy	750
SAME. Feb. 26. —Walker's Essay on the Revival of the Dramatic Art in Italy	750
SAME. June 1. —Same subject	750
SAME. June 24. —Death of James Tassie, the gem engraver; Rev. James Johnstone's collection of books on Northern Literature	751
SAME. Dec. 1. —Comedies of the German nun Hroswitha (see note); Walker's Essay on the "Revival of the Drama in Italy;" his other works; various new works noticed	751
SAME. April 26, 1806. —Letter on Walker's "Irish Bards;" publication of his Essay "On the Drama in Italy"	752
SAME. Oct. 2. —On his "Irish Bards" and "Essay on the Drama;" Lord Holland's "Life of Lope de Vega;" Irving's "Life of George Buchanan," and his "Lives of the Scottish Poets"	753
PINKERTON to WALKER. Jan. 15, 1807. —His Geography; remarks on Walker's "Essay on the Italian Drama"	753
WALKER to PINKERTON. Jan. 22. —Observations on the execution of his "Essay on the Italian Drama;" desires the French translations of his works	754
WALKER to OWEN REES. May 2. Inquires for the foreign translations of his works; Sir Egerton Brydges's "Censura Literaria"	755
WALKER to REV. H. BOYD. Nov. 29, 1804. —Mr. Walker's severe illness; thanks for Miss Stewart's Ode	756
PERCY'S Remarks on the above letter, censuring the duplicity of Mr. Walker and Mr. Boyd	757
MEMOIR of REV. THOMAS CAMPBELL, LL.D.	759
Conversation between Dr. Johnson and Dr. Campbell on the right of Conquest	762
LETTERS BETWEEN DR. CAMPBELL AND BISHOP PERCY.
CAMPBELL to PERCY. Feb. 27, 1787. —On the MS. Annals of Ulster, in relation to Mr. Pinkerton's work	767
SAME. Aug. 27. —Sends Mr. Pinkerton's work; particulars of the repairs of his church; visit to Paris; opinions formed of the people; their Celtic origin	768
SAME. Oct. 25. —Character of the English by a French lady; interview with Pinkerton (see note); intention of writing a summary view of the ecclesiastical and literary history of Ireland for the Dublin Chronicle; Colonel Vallancey's fourteenth volume; Mr. O'Connor's threat to Dr. Campbell relative to a work by him, which was printed but never published	770
CAMPBELL to PINKERTON. Feb. 6, 1788. —Burke's "Hibernia Dominicana;" the Trias Thaumaturga; Pinkerton's "Lives of the Scottish Saints;" the Dublin Chronicle, containing "Slight Sketch of the Ecclesiastical History of Ireland;" the origin of this work	772
CAMPBELL to PERCY. Feb. 26. —Recites letter to Pinkerton (see note); Mr. Grattan, and the political state of Ireland (see note)	773
SAME. Dec. 15. Mr. Grattan and the "History of the Revolution of Ireland" (see note); progress of his "Summary View," &c. and observations on it (see note); outline of his intended "Memoirs of the Religion and Literature of Ireland"	774
SAME. March 29, 1790. Thanks for the Bishop's exertions in his brother's favour	776

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

xxxii

CONTENTS.

SAME. April 6. —Rev. Mr. Hudson; Rev. Dr. Paul's curate; life of Dr. Goldsmith	777
SAME. May 20. —Dr. Goldsmith's "Present State of Learning in Europe"	778
SAME. June 16. —Death of Rev. Dr. Lyon, and Dr. Campbell's brother's preferment; progress of the "Life of Goldsmith;" inquiry for his works; Archbishop Robinson and Bishop John Hotham	778
SAME. June 30. —Goldsmith's "Life," and inquiries about the materials; thanks for Dr. Campbell's brother's preferment, and particulars of the living	780
SAME. July 23. —His brother's induction	781
SAME. Aug. 3. —Colonel Vallancey's "Collectanea" (see note); Ledwich and Beaufort propose a joint production about Vallancey	782
SAME. Sept. 9. —Receives an anonymous letter from London; Mr. Ledwich the reviewer of Col. Vallancey's work in Sleater's paper; "Life of Goldsmith" (see note); Sir Richard Perrot's Life	783
SAME. Sept. 22. —Colonel Vallancey's "Nostradamus Hibernicus"	784
SAME. Aug. 13, 1791. —Dr. Campbell building a church; lawsuit respecting his nephew; marriage of Dr. Hales	785
SAME. Jan. 5, 1792. —His various engagements; state of the Roman Catholics	786
SAME. Feb. 3. —Intended journey to London; Mrs. Percy's health; Boswell's "Life of Johnson;" Roman Catholics; illness of Lord Rokeby, Abp. of Dublin	787
SAME. Jan. 12, 1793. —The Militia Act in Ireland; death of Maurice Goldsmith, brother of the Poet (see note)	789
SAME. Sept. 16. —Dr. Campbell's brother's trouble respecting his tithes; sends a Sermon; Bishop Bennett's charge	790
SAME. April 16, 1795. —The state of the tithe question in Ireland; troops in Ireland	791
SAME. April 22. —The state of parties relative to Catholic emancipation	793
REV. CHARLES CAMPBELL to PERCY. Feb. 19, 1810. —Inquiries about form of Prayer for Fast Day; death of his uncle, Dr. Thomas Campbell; his brother goes to Botany Bay	795
SAME. Feb. 28. —Further account of his uncle's death	796

LETTERS BETWEEN DR. CAMPBELL AND RICHARD GOUGH, Esq.

LORD DACRE to GOUGH. June 17, 1783. —On Mr. Gough's edition of Camden's "Britannia;" Dr. Campbell's offer of assistance	797
GOUGH to LORD DACRE.—Thanks for the offer of Dr. Campbell's assistance	797
LORD DACRE to GOUGH.—Incloses a letter he has received from Dr. Campbell	798
SAME. Jan. 7, 1784. —Dr. Campbell sends notes on Ireland for Mr. Gough; extract from his letter	798
GOUGH to CAMPBELL. Jan. 10. —Details his plan of editing Camden's "Britannia"	799
SAME. Jan. 20, 1788. —Requests information on the Government of Ireland from the time of Camden to the present	799
CAMPBELL to GOUGH. Feb. 9. —The imperfection of Dr. Campbell's "Philosophical Survey;" Danish Forts; Round Towers; Edmund Burke's MSS.; promises a sketch of the Irish Constitution from Roderic O'Connor to George the Third; strictures on Mr. Gough's "History of the Constitution"	800
GOUGH to CAMPBELL. Feb. —Thanks for his corrections; his correspondents Walker, Ledwich, and Beaufort	802
CAMPBELL to GOUGH. Feb. 20. —Sends part of his "Essay on the Irish Constitution;" notice of Mr. Gough's errors; sends "Patrick's Purgatory"	803
GOUGH to CAMPBELL. Feb. 25. —Acknowledges the receipt of the packet, and settles future correspondence	804
CAMPBELL to GOUGH. March 3. —Sends the remainder of the "Sketch;" error of Mr. Gough respecting the Irish Bishops	804
SAME. April 11. —Accounts for delay in sending the "Sketch"	805
SAME. April 15. —Terms of correspondence; the Round Towers and Rathes	805

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xxxiii

SAME. April 28. —Thanks for introduction to Mr. Walker; various errors corrected; remark upon fidelity in the printing the "Sketch," and gives his reasons	806
GOUGH to CAMPBELL. May 3. —Defends himself from the charge of mutilating the "Sketch"	807
SAME. July 2. —Urges dispatch; refers to his former letter	808
SAME. June 4, 1789. —Presents him with "Ireland," extracted from Camden's "Britannia"	809
MEMOIR OF REV. EDWARD LEDWICH, LL.D., F.S.A.	809
CORRESPONDENCE OF DR. LEDWICH AND BISHOP PERCY.
LEDWICH to PERCY. 1795.—"Anthologia;" arguments against "Scrutator;" Introduction to Vol. II. of Grose's Ireland; Clinch, author of "Freemasonry," his literary acquirements	816
SAME. June 25, 1799. —Wishes to place his son with Mr. Stott of Dromore	816
SAME. June 29. —State of affairs in France	816
SAME. July 13. —The state of France continued; his intended Preface to his Works	816
SAME. July 18. —Promises not to mention the Bishop by name in any future publication; Sir Richard Musgrave busy in writing (see note)	817
SAME. July 23. —Settlement of his son and daughter; inquiry about the old Irish language spoken in the Mourne mountains	818
SAME. Aug. 6. —The Round Towers originally belfries; burning of Mr. J. C. Walker's house	818
SAME. Aug. —The jurisdiction of the Bishop does not extend to Mourne; the history of the "Red-shanks;" alarm of French invasion	819
DUBOURDEIN to PERCY. June 20. —Inclosing a sketch of the foundation of one of the Round Towers	821
LEDWICH to PERCY. Aug. 14, 1802. —Account of a singular discovery of rings of gold and silver, supposed to be bracelets	821
SAME. Aug. 28. —Mr. Beauford's MS. notes on Macpherson's "Ossian," compared with the original Erse and Irish Poems; history of these old ballads; Mr. Beauford's method of treating his subject; regrets he cannot assist Dr. Anderson's inquiries; Col. Vallancey's rudeness censured by Dr. Ledwich and Mr. Beauford	822
SAME. Oct. 6. —Dr. Anderson purchases Mr. Beauford's "Essay;" Dr. Ledwich apologises for his responsibility in the transaction; Dr. Ryan on the "History of the Effects of Religion on Mankind, &c."	825
SAME. Oct. 24. —Estimate of Dr. Anderson's talents; extract from Merula; sells his books; contemplates a new edition of his "Antiquities," and Campbell's "Strictures;" Sir Richard Musgrave	826
SAME. Jan. 12, 1803. —His "Antiquities;" Sir Richard Musgrave; Dr. Ryan's book; inquiry for extracts from Pelagius; Dr. Beauford and Mr. Edgeworth propose to publish an Irish Camden	827
SAME. Feb. 3. —Mr. Brownlow's MS. Pelagius; the various opinions respecting Pelagius, and a list of his works; scheme of the new edition of the "Antiquities"	828
SAME. Feb. 23. —Death of his infant son; Usher quoted on Irish History; Usher and the MS. Pelagius compared	829
SAME. Apr. 28. —Incloses a letter from Dr. Anderson; Hay's "History of the Rebellion" (see note)	831
SAME. Sept. 13. —His son-in-law, Counsellor Ridgeway, engaged to take down the trials by Government, for publication; state of the Irish Government (see note); the Fagel collection secured for Trinity College Library; Sir Richard Musgrave; criticisms on Plowden (see note); great emigration to England	832
SAME. Sept. 23. —Execution of Emmet; his supposed correspondence with Miss Curran (see note); counsel and evidence on his trial	833
SAME. Dec. 5. —Ritson's scurrility; Sir Richard Musgrave's works; Baron

VOL. VII.

c

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07740-8 - Illustrations of the Literary History of the Eighteenth Century:
Consisting of Authentic Memoirs and Original Letters of Eminent Persons, and Intended
as a Sequel to the 'Literary Anecdotes': Volume 7

John Nichols

Table of Contents

More information

xxxiv

CONTENTS.

Smith's pamphlet; state of the Romish clergy; progress of the "Antiquities" interrupted by illness; Government defended against Cobbett's strictures	834
SAME. Dec. 15.—Improved state of his health; dissertation on the word Culdee ; on the colour of the monkish dress	836
SAME. Dec. 5, 1804.—State of his health; the Round Tower at Down Patrick; Colonel Vallancey and the Dublin Society; Mr. Davies's Celtic Antiquities; King's "Ancient English Castles"	837
SAME. Apr. 16, 1805.—Lord Strangford's "Poems of Camoens;" state of Irish Literature; Sir Richard Musgrave withstands the Catholic claims; pamphlet by Bishop O'Beirne	838
SAME. Aug. 16, 1806.—Mr. Robert Mitford and Lord Redesdale, with the history of Mr. Mitford (see note); the Dublin Society; purchases a villa at Dundrum; Irish Literature; St. Patrick; Sir John Carr's "Stranger in Ireland"	839
SAME. Feb. 14, 1807.—Death of Mrs. Percy; death of Counsellor W. Preston, and his character; third edition of the "Antiquities;" Mr. Beauford's MS. "History of Ireland"	842

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN DR. LEDWICH AND RICHARD GOUGH, Esq.

GOUGH to LEDWICH. March 21, 1787.—Solicits his assistance for "Ireland;" plan of his Additions to Bishop Gibson's Observations; wishes information on ancient monuments	843
LEDWICH to GOUGH. March 22.—His failure in the publication of the History of the Queen's County, which he proposes to send to Mr. Gough; settles the mode of correspondence; commends the "Sepulchral Monuments;" desires Mr. Gough's opinion of Langbek's "Scriptores Danici;" complains of the conduct of Colonel Vallancey	844
GOUGH to LEDWICH. June 11.—Sends him his sheets on "Ireland;" plan of his work	845
LEDWICH to GOUGH. June 24.—Commends Mr. Gough's plan, and describes his own; promises to obtain the assistance of Mr. A. Beauford (see note); Mr. Beauford's character and pursuits; sends drawings; mentions persons who have collections of drawings; caution respecting Col. Vallancey	846
SAME. July 14.—Character of Dr. Campbell; Archdall's "Monasticon;" list of authors on natural history; doubts of the assertions of Irish historians relative to the peopling of Scotland; Mr. A. Beauford's promised assistance; suggests a Supplement, and offers materials	848
SAME. Sept. 18.—Engages Messrs. A. Beauford, J. C. Walker, and Austin Cooper as contributors; suggests the publication of Camden's other works; describes the nature and extent of his collections; short history of an Historical Society formed by Mr. Conyngham; gives an outline of his intended work	849
GOUGH to LEDWICH. Sept. 29.—Sends the proof sheets of "Ireland;" the Triumvirate, Ledwich, Beauford, and Walker; query about the Dublin Society; Mr. Astle's account of the Ogom; wishes for his opinion on the Round Towers, &c.	852
SAME. Nov. 24.—Observations relative to the proof sheets; Dr. Ledwich's Essay, in the Archæologia	852
LEDWICH to GOUGH. Dec. 10.—Literary Societies in Ireland; Ogom inscriptions; promises the history of his own County	853
GOUGH to LEDWICH. Dec. 27.—The Antiquarian Society and Dr. Ledwich's paper; mistake about Gough's Camden; work wanted on Saxon and Gothic buildings; intends to avoid etymology and politics	854
LEDWICH to GOUGH. Dec. 31.—Sends materials as additions, and promises further aid if required	855
GOUGH to LEDWICH. June 4, 1789.—Sends him a copy of "Ireland"	856