

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

INDEX TO VOL. I

(The page references in italics refer to footnotes.)

- ABERCORN, 2nd Duke of, 327, 512, 515
- Africa, agreements reached with Germany and France regarding boundaries of our possessions in, 549, 610
- Akers-Douglas, Rt. Hon. A. (afterwards Viscount Chilston), 251
- Albany, H.R.H. Helen, Duchess of, 321, 322, 324, 391, 392, 481, 642, 643, 644, 655, 660
- Alexandra, H.M. Queen, see Wales, Princess of
- Alfred, H.R.H. Prince, see Edinburgh, Duke of
- Alphonso XIII, King of Spain, birth of, 4, 131
- Amphill, Emily, Lady, 223, 642
— Lord, 330
- Arch, Joseph, 21, 104
- Arnott, Lady, begs the Queen to oppose Home Rule in Ireland, 78
- Ashbourne, Lord, Lord Chancellor of Ireland, 7, 25, 171, 282, 344
- Asquith, Mr. H. H. (afterwards Earl of Oxford and Asquith), maiden speech of, 291
- Athole, Duchess of, 305, 306, 521
- Augusta, German Empress, 391, 403, 405, 418, 419, 503, 555, 556, 566
- Australia, centenary of colonisation of, 377; loyalty, 538
- Austria, urged to protest against Russia's treatment of Bulgaria, 220; the Queen's conversation with the Emperor of, 370, 400, 408
- BALFOUR, Rt. Hon. Arthur James, Secretary for Scotland, 171; Chief Secretary for Ireland, 241, 279, 282; pilots Crimes Bill through House of Commons, 242, 279, 298, 337, 353; dines with the Queen, 281, 581; defends the National League, 345, 346, 347; defends the Government's policy at Mitchelstown, 352; successful fight against Irish lawlessness, 372, 464, 563; carries an Irish Land Bill, 372; on his administration of the Crimes Act, 384; news of a plot for his assassination, 435; carries a Light Railways Bill, 464; replies to Mr. Morley's censure of the Government of Ireland, 471; visits the Western Counties of Ireland, 552; defends the findings of the Parnell Commission, 578; meets Mr. Parnell half-way on Land Purchase Bill, 622; introduces Land Purchase Bill, 657; moves Second Reading of Bill, 662
- Battenberg, Prince Alexander of (and see also under Bulgaria), explains causes of his fall to the Queen, 208; future policy and intentions of, 216; stays at Windsor, 228, 249; proposes solution of Bulgarian Government's difficulty, 232, 248; has tea with the Queen, 358; wishes to marry Victoria, daughter of the Emperor Frederick, 397; the marriage opposed by Prince Bismarck, 397, and forbidden by the Emperor William II, 429; marries Fräulein Loisinger and renounces princely rank, becoming Count Hartenau, 469, 473; his gratitude to the Queen for her remembrance of his birthday, 490
— Prince Henry of, husband of Princess Beatrice, makes his home with the Queen, viii; accompanies the Queen, 11, 125, 157, 305, 306, 307, 320, 322, 323, 333, 337, 389, 391, 392, 393, 402, 403, 450, 472, 507, 521, 523, 528, 604, 606, 626; his distress at the abduction of his

- brother Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, 179; proposes to visit Prince Alexander, 188; gives a verbal report to the Queen on Prince Alexander's misadventures, 214; greets the Queen on her birthday, 312; wishes the Queen a happy New Year, 369; his distress when Prince Alexander renounces his princely status, 470, 490; meets the Emperor William II, 598; drives to Birkdale in advance of the Queen, 643; accompanies Queen Elisabeth of Roumania to Ballater, 644
- Battenberg, Prince Louis of (afterwards Marquis of Milford Haven), 204, 213, 321, 328, 337
- Beach, Sir Michael Hicks (afterwards Earl of St. Aldwyn), Chancellor of the Exchequer and Leader of the House of Commons, 7; on the debate on the Address, 14; on the defeat of the Government, 20; opposes Irish Government Bill, 104; Chief Secretary for Ireland, 171; on the Irish policy of the Conservative Government, 183; resigns owing to failure of his eyesight, 241, 278, 281; Queen's sympathy for, 283; proposal to offer him the Board of Trade, 379; accepts offer of Board of Trade, 382; replies to Mr. Gladstone's attack on the Conservative Party, 576
- Beaconsfield, Earl of, anniversary of his death, 109; Sir John Macdonald's likeness to, 438
- Beatrice, H.R.H. Princess (Princess Henry of Battenberg), makes her home with the Queen, viii; accompanies the Queen, 11, 125, 157, 305, 306, 307, 320, 321, 322, 327, 331, 333, 337, 346, 362, 389, 391, 392, 393, 396, 400, 401, 402, 403, 442, 450, 472, 507, 521, 522, 523, 528, 581, 604, 606, 617, 626, 658; her distress at the abduction of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, 179; birth of her eldest son (now Marquis of Carisbrooke), 225; greets the Queen on her birthday, 312; wishes the Queen a happy New Year, 369; tells the Queen of the death of the Emperor William I, 416; tells the Queen of the death of her Aunt Cambridge, 490; is not strong enough to accompany the Queen to Sandringham, 496; birth of her second son, 499; her gifts to the Queen on the fiftieth anniversary of her wedding day, 564; drives to Birkdale in advance of the Queen, 643.
- Bedford, 9th Duke of, 23
- Benson, Dr., Archbishop of Canterbury, writes to the Queen on the vacant see of Durham, 541, 555; supports the Queen's suggestion of offering the See of Winchester to Dean Davidson, 635
- Beresford, Lord Charles, 371
- Bigge, Major (afterwards Lord Stamfordham), viii, 175, 310, 404, 521
- Bismarck, Count Herbert, presented to the Queen on her visit to Berlin, 406; proposed mission to England, 437, 461, 494; attitude towards the Empress Frederick, 447; refuses Sir R. Morier's request to contradict calumnies in the Kölnische Zeitung, 458, 465; influence over the Emperor William II, 461; duplicity of, 467; discusses European affairs with Lord Salisbury, 484; his conversation with the Prince of Wales, 489; expresses his thanks for the Queen's gift, 523
- Prince, attitude towards Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, 4, 11, 189, 198; approves Lord Salisbury's foreign policy, 45; attitude towards England, 50, 154; supports British policy regarding Greece, 82; dislike of Sir R. Morier, 203, 355, 458; policy towards France, 243; induces Italy to join Austro-German Alliance, 244; threatens war against France, 261; urges England to make a defensive agreement with Italy, 269; schemes to incite a Balkan war, 294, 295; his conversation

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

INDEX TO VOL. I

671

- with the Queen, 370, 405, 408, 409 ; report of his threatened resignation, 396, 397 ; duplicity of, 421, 447 ; his difficulties with Emperor William II, 442 ; expresses his thanks to the Queen for the gift of her portrait, 531 ; fall of, owing to differences of opinion with the Emperor, 549, 565, 581, 584, 599 ; bids farewell to the Emperor, 589 ; his leanings towards Russia, 598, 605
- Blandford, Marchioness of, 305
- Blunt, Mr. Wilfrid Scawen, 243, 387
- Boehm, Sir Edgar, and design for doinage, 530 ; death of, 663
- Boulanger, General, rise to power, 4 ; policy of, 244, 262 ; dismissal of, 371, 487 ; trial of, 464
- Bradford, Sir Edward, Chief of Police, 616, 620, 623, 661
- Bradlaugh, Mr. Charles, allowed to take the Oath of Allegiance, 1 ; on Irish affairs, 353, 475 ; carries a Bill making Affirmation legal, 372 ; on Civil List enquiry, 509, 510, 511, 517 ; his visit to India, 572
- Bradley, Dr., Dean of Westminster, 306
- Brand, Mr. Henry (afterwards 2nd Viscount Hampden), 91
- Brazil, Emperor and Empress of, 396, 464, 534
- Bridport, Viscount, 223, 281, 498, 534
- Bright, Rt. Hon. John, votes against Home Rule, 2, 138 ; presents address to the Queen, 310 ; illness and death of, 455
- British New Guinea, question of name for, 381
- South Africa Company, 464, 512, 515, 519, 533, 549
- Brodrick, Hon. St. John, afterwards Earl of Midleton, 15, 72, 411
- Bryce, Rt. Hon. James (afterwards Viscount), Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, 47
- Buccleuch, Louisa, Duchess of, Mistress of the Robes, 324, 333, 472, 521
- Bulgaria, Prince Alexander of (see also Battenberg, Prince Alexander of), kidnapped by Russia and eventually forced to resign the throne, 4, 179 ; policy of, 10, 12 ; British attitude towards, 90, 96 ; released by Russia, 187 ; urged to return to his capital, 189, 191, 192 ; abdication inevitable, 199, 200
- Buller, Sir Redvers, sent on special mission to Ireland, 178, 291 ; recalled, 279 ; his dislike of the Hartington Report, 583 ; appointed Adjutant-General, 608, 623
- Burns, Mr. John, 360
- CAMBRIDGE, H.R.H. George Duke of, escorts the Queen, 309, 323, 338, 450 ; receives memento of Jubilee from the Queen, 325 ; receives the Queen at Hyde Park in his capacity of Ranger, 328 ; present at Silver Wedding of Prince and Princess of Wales, 391, 392 ; on the necessity for increasing the strength of the Army, 410 ; acquiesces with Mr. Stanhope on the appointment of Sir Evelyn Wood to the Aldershot Command, 453, 454 ; writes to Sir Henry Ponsonby on rumours of his retirement and Lord Wolseley's injudicious writings, 563, 570 ; his alarm at the suggestion of abolition of the office of Commander-in-Chief, 577 ; his views on the Hartington Report, 594, 600 ; appointed to War Secretary's Advisory Committee, 602 ; military capacity of, 625, 628 ; question of his resignation, 628, 630
- Campbell-Bannerman, Rt. Hon. (afterwards Sir) Henry, Secretary for War, 42, 46, 630
- Caprivi, Count, appointed to succeed Bismarck, 549, 582, 590, 666
- Carington, Colonel, 145, 498, 534
- Carisbrooke, Marquis of, 225
- Carnarvon, 4th Earl of, 1, 7, 25, 120, 145, 147, 618
- Carpenter, Dr. Boyd, Bishop of Ripon, 314, 561, 649
- Cesarewitch, the (afterwards Emperor Nicholas), his visit to India, 651, 664, 665

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

672

INDEX TO VOL. I

- Chamberlain, Rt. Hon. Joseph, President of the Local Government Board, 46; receives deputation of Ulster loyalist Liberals, 91; resigns on the question of Irish government, 92; his objections to Irish Government Bill, 99; influences his friends to vote against the Bill, 138; his influence in Birmingham, 174; supports Lord Randolph Churchill, 237; supports Lord Salisbury's Government on the Crimes Bill, 242, 291, 347; dines with the Queen, 292; his views on the Queen's visit to Birmingham, 292; appointed Chief English Commissioner to Joint Commission on Fishery Dispute, 347; refuses Order of the Bath, 393; supports appointment of Commission to enquire into Times letters, 432; urges Mr. Gladstone to place his Irish policy before the House, 475; with Mrs. Chamberlain dines with the Queen, 498; supports findings of Parnell Commission, 580
- Chambéry, Archbishop of, address from, to the Queen, 592
- Childers, Rt. Hon. Hugh C. E., 38, 39, 42; Home Secretary, 46, 65
- Christian, H.R.H. Prince, of Schleswig-Holstein, husband of Princess Helena, dines with the Queen, 281, 390, 601, 658; takes part in the Queen's Jubilee celebrations as High Steward of Windsor, 329; present at Prince of Wales' Silver Wedding parties, 391, 392; acts as mediator between the Prince of Wales and the Emperor William II, 487, 491, 492, 493, 499, 501; meets the Shah of Persia, 507; goes on board the Hohenzollern to meet the Emperor William, 521; meets the Emperor William at Osborne, 626
- Churchill, Lord Randolph, Chancellor of the Exchequer and Leader of the House of Commons, 3, 171; resignation of, 3, 232; Indian Secretary, 6; defends use of force, 133; on the prospects of the Government, 210; dines with the Queen, 223, 225; on Local Government Reform, 225; wishes the Army to be reduced, 229; Lord Salisbury's opinion of, 255; tries to justify his retirement, 266; defends the course taken by the Government at Mitchelstown, 352; question of his re-admission to the Government, 365; visits St. Petersburg, 366, 367; has interview with Lord Salisbury, 383; on the obligation of Parliament to make adequate provision for the Royal Family, 517; denounces the Parnell Commission as unconstitutional, 579
- Clarke, Sir E., Solicitor-General, 303, 431
- Cleveland, Grover, President of U.S.A., marriage of, 140
- Closure Rule, amendment of, 242
- Coburg, Princess Augustus of, 230, 348
— Prince Ferdinand of, 229, 244, 260, 337, 345
- Connaught, H.R.H. Arthur Duke of, appointment to Bombay command, 220; difficulty of his getting leave, 279; present at the Queen's Jubilee, 320, 322, 328, 333, 334; his views on Indian problems, 502; discussion as to whether he should become Commander-in-Chief in India, 567; leaves India, 591; career of, 624; military capacity of, 625, 629; escorts the Emperor William, 626; on etiquette, 664
- Cork, Earl of, 57, 101, 103
- Corti, Count, Italian Ambassador, 268, 271, 292, 363
- Cranborne, Viscount, 656
- Cranbrook, Viscount (afterwards Earl of), Lord President of the Council, 6, 171, 196, 281, 411, 621
- Crispi, Signor, Italian Prime Minister, 244, 355, 378, 396, 436, 484
- Croke, Archbishop, 275
- Cross, Sir Richard (afterwards Viscount), Home Secretary, 6, 167; letter from the Queen, 41; Indian Secretary, 171, 281, 304; with Lady Cross dines with the Queen,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886-1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

INDEX TO VOL. I

673

- 310; in attendance on the Queen, 333; presents the Gaikwar of Baroda, 363; sees the Queen, 610
- Cunliffe-Owen, Sir Philip, 157, 159
- Curzon, Rt. Hon. George N. (afterwards Marquis), maiden speech of, 267
- DAVIDSON, Dr., Dean of Windsor (afterwards Archbishop of Canterbury), on the unsuitability of Canon Liddon for the Bishopric of Oxford, 427; regarding episcopal vacancies, 539; himself and the episcopacy, 554, 555; expresses thankfulness at Dr. Westcott's appointment to the See of Durham, 577; his appreciation of the Archbishop of Chambéry's address to the Queen, 593; question of the See of Rochester, 640; his gratitude to the Queen, 647; accepts the See of Rochester, 648
- Dawnay, Mrs. Lewis (afterwards Lady Victoria Dawnay), 652
- Day, Mr. Justice, 462
- Denmark, H.M. King of, present at the Queen's Jubilee, 241, 321, 325, 326, 329
- Dilke, Rt. Hon. Sir Charles, 24, 28, 57, 58, 168
- Dillon, Mr. John, M.P., 243, 273, 299, 302, 303, 335, 352, 364, 387, 552, 622, 662
- Dolgorouki, Prince, 189, 191, 204
- Dublin, Lord Mayor of, 243
- Dufferin, Earl (afterwards Marquis) of, Viceroy of India, on the Burma expedition, 13; recounts the Jubilee Celebrations in Calcutta, 277; describes the Indian Representatives at the Jubilee Celebrations in London, 295; reports the impression of the Jubilee on the Indian Representatives, 347; proposal to offer him Embassy at Rome, 378
- EDINBURGH, H.R.H. Duke of, appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Mediterranean Squadron, 8; receives K.C.B., 62; present at the Queen's Jubilee, 323, 328, 333; on the condition of the Navy in the Mediterranean, 399, 409; is visited by the Queen, 498; escorts Queen Isabella of Spain, 604
- Edwards, Rev. A. G. (now Archbishop of Wales), appointed to Bishopric of St. Asaph, 468
- Major, 145, 179, 255, 310
- Egypt, failure of negotiations concerning, 244; Lord Salisbury's "Suggestions" for settlement of problems relating to, 272
- Elphinstone, Lord, 255, 305, 310
- Sir Howard, 255, 420, 581
- Ely, Jane Marchioness of, 145, 257, 310, 493, 498, 614
- Emin Pasha, 456, 464, 535, 547
- Eton College, celebrations for the Queen's Jubilee, 329, 330
- Eugénie, formerly Empress of the French, the Queen visits her at Osborne Cottage, 162; dines with the Queen, 175
- Ewart, Sir H., 255, 496, 498
- FERGUSON of Novar, Mr. (now Lord Novar), 145
- Fergusson, Sir J., Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, 255, 386; dines with the Queen, 310
- Fife, Earl (afterwards Duke) of, his betrothal to Princess Louise of Wales, 506
- Fisher, Mr. Hayes, 352
- Forster, Rt. Hon. W. E., 10
- France, expulsion of Bourbon and Napoleonic Princes, 4; joins the Powers in their collective Note to Greece, 111; political scandals in, 244; Germany threatens war upon, 262
- Frederick William, German Crown Prince (afterwards Emperor), present at the Queen's Jubilee, 241, 244, 323, 327; illness of, 244, 311, 314, 343, 346, 350, 358, 362, 369, 370, 373, 374, 377, 382, 384, 392, 394, 397, 406, 410, 411, 414, 416; accession to the throne, 370, 390, 394; death of, 370, 417, 503; funeral of, 418; portion of his diary published without authority, 438

GARDINER, General, 310

Gennadius, M., Greek Minister, 49, 450

George V, H.M. King, see Wales, Prince George of

German Crown Princess, see Victoria

Gibson, Mr., Irish Attorney-General, 352, 568

de Giers, M., Russian Foreign Minister, 68, 239, 368, 465

Gladstone, Mary (Mrs. Drew), marriage of, 7, 39

— Mrs., 7, 95, 328

— Rt. Hon. W. E., on Home Rule, 1; forms his third Ministry, 1, 28, 32, 46; sees Lord Salisbury on Grecian question, 41; on the Irish question, 14, 35, 37, 61, 114, 170; on the antagonism of the House of Lords to the Liberal Party, 74; sends the Queen a memorandum on his Irish policy, 84; introduces Irish Government Bill in House of Commons, 99; introduces Irish Land Bill in House of Commons, 106; his correspondence with the Queen on the Irish question, 119; opens debate on Second Reading of Irish Government Bill, 123; recounts course of debate on Second Reading, 133, 135, 137, 138, 141; recommends dissolution, 143; addresses his constituents in Midlothian, 147; on the election results, 154; tenders resignation of the Government to the Queen, 162; takes leave of the Queen, 168; abandons Irish Land Purchase Bill, 190; opposes Crimes Bill, 242, 290, 291, 293, 298; praises Lord Randolph Churchill, 264; supports Parnellites in their demand for a Committee of Enquiry into Times articles, 303; moves rejection of Crimes Bill, 336; opposes proclamation of National League, 345; attacks Mr. Balfour on Government's policy at Mitchelstown, 352; speaks eloquently on the inevitability of Home Rule, 385; approves Lord Salisbury's foreign policy, 386; takes exception to personnel of Parnell Commission, 431; supports increase of Prince of Wales' income, 462, 516; attacks Mr. Chamberlain and the Liberal Unionists, 475; supports Government on question of Committee for Royal Grants, 509, 511, 520; protests against report of Commission on Times articles, 551; refuses to lead Liberal Party so long as Mr. Parnell leads the Irish Nationalists, 552; result of this manifesto, 552, 655; appeals to the Conservatives to do justice to Mr. Parnell, 576; his Midlothian campaign of 1890, 649; his differences with Parnell, 658

Glyn, Rev. Carr, Vicar of Kensington, afterwards Bishop of Peterborough, 332

Goschen, Rt. Hon. G. J. (afterwards Viscount), on the political situation, 5, 26, 29; opposes Mr. Gladstone's Irish Government Bill, 103, 107, 113, 141; favours dissolution, 131; loses his seat in Edinburgh, 161; asked to join Lord Salisbury's Ministry, 235, 236; becomes Chancellor of the Exchequer, 241, 245, 249, 281; his majority at St. George's, Hanover Square, 273; writes to the Queen on the Government's Irish policy, 284; introduces his first Budget, 299; with Mrs. Goschen dines with the Queen, 305; speaks on Irish question, 385; attends meeting on Naval Estimates, 456; expresses confidence in the Government's policy in Ireland, 476, 580; on the question of new coinage, 530

Granby, Violet Marchioness of (now Dowager Duchess of Rutland), 472

Granville, Earl, becomes Colonial Secretary, 35, 40, 46; supports Mr. Gladstone's Irish policy, 120

Greece, threatens war with Turkey but is disarmed by the Powers, 3, 11, 16; British policy towards, 18, 41, 45, 48, 49, 60; proposed blockade of Greek fleet, 77, 104, 123; Powers agree to raise block-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

INDEX TO VOL. I

675

- ade, 140; H.M. King of, present at the Queen's Jubilee, 241, 321
- Grenfell, General, restores tranquillity in the Sudan, 371, 457
- Grey, Mr. Albert (afterwards Earl), opposes Home Rule, 15, 102
- Sir Edward (afterwards Viscount), maiden speech of, 271
- Grosvenor, Countess, 305
- Lady Henry, 305
- HALSBURY, Lord, Lord Chancellor, 6, 171, 281
- Hamilton, Lord George, First Lord of the Admiralty, 7, 171, 281, 413, 415, 456
- Sir Robert, 54
- Hannen, Sir James, 462
- Harcourt, Rt. Hon. Sir William, supports Mr. Gladstone's Irish Government Bill, 2, 103, 139, 183; Chancellor of the Exchequer, 46; announces abandonment by Mr. Gladstone of Irish Land Purchase Bill, 190; sympathises with Lord Randolph Churchill, 263; supports Irish Nationalists in House of Commons, 276, 280, 315; disparages Mr. Goschen's Budget, 299; indiscreet language of, 346, 347, 351, 385; opposes Commission of Enquiry into Times letters, 432; attacks the Attorney-General on his conduct in the Parnell Commission, 480; leaves the House of Commons in anger, 576; attacks Mr. Balfour personally, 579; refuses to vote on Land Purchase Bill, 657
- Hardinge, Mr. Arthur, 651
- Harman, Sir G., 571, 583, 628
- Harrowby, Earl of, Lord Privy Seal, 6
- Hartenau, Count, see Battenberg, Prince Alexander of
- Hartington, Marquis of (afterwards 8th Duke of Devonshire), objects to Home Rule for Ireland, 1, 30, 91; forms a Liberal Unionist Party to resist Home Rule, 2; refuses to join Mr. Gladstone's Ministry, 35; his speech at the Eighty Club dinner, 79; opposes Mr. Gladstone's Irish Government Bill, 100; moves rejection of Second Reading of Irish Government Bill, 124; refuses to form a Government himself or to join Lord Salisbury's Ministry, 165; promises unostentatious support to Lord Salisbury's Ministry, 174; vindicates the position of the Liberal Unionists, 184; on Local Government, 227; again refuses to join Lord Salisbury's Ministry, 234, 240, 245; supports Lord Salisbury on the Crimes Bill, 242, 299, 347; appointed Chairman of Royal Commission to enquire into administration of the fighting forces, 372; dines with the Queen, 390, 658; speaks in favour of grants for the Prince of Wales' children, 518; issues Report of his Commission on Naval and Military Administration, 551; illness of, 556; on the improved condition of Ireland and the Gladstone-Parnell quarrel, 658
- Hatzfeldt, Count, German Ambassador, on German relations with Bulgaria, 16; discussions with Lord Rosebery on policy to be adopted regarding Greece, 77, 80; presents German views on position in Mediterranean to Lord Salisbury, 269, 271; on health of Crown Prince Frederick, 361; presents his credentials, 394, 421; on the difficult temperament of Crown Prince William, 398, 441; grief of, at death of Emperor Frederick, 420; on misunderstanding between Prince of Wales and Emperor William, 438, 501; meets Empress Frederick on her arrival in England, 450; distress of, at treatment of Empress Frederick by Emperor William, 451; delivers George II's Will to the Queen, 456; informs the Emperor William of participation of Houses of Parliament in Naval Review, 505; suggests to Lord Salisbury that the Queen should give her portrait to Prince Bismarck, 519;

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

676

INDEX TO VOL. I

- presented to the Queen on the occasion of the Emperor William's visit, 626
- Hawaii, H.M. Queen of, present at the Queen's Jubilee, 241, 321, 325
- Healy, Mr. Timothy (afterwards first Governor-General of the Irish Free State), 15, 215, 475, 662; supports Mr. Gladstone's Irish Government Bill, 100
- Helena, H.R.H. Princess (Princess Christian), dines with the Queen, 281, 305, 601, 658; attends a Drawing-room, 305, 472; accompanies the Queen, 307, 327, 328, 521; has tea with the Queen, 358, 658; present at Prince of Wales' Silver Wedding parties, 391, 392
- Heligoland, cession of, to Germany, 549, 611, 612, 613, 614, 621
- Henderson, Sir E., Commissioner of Police, 64
- Herschell, Lord, Lord Chancellor, 46
- Holkar, Maharajah of Indore, head of representative Indian Princes at the Queen's Jubilee, 241, 296, 317, 333, 347; proposes to visit England, 507
- Holland, Sir H. (afterwards Viscount Knutsford), Colonial Secretary, 252, 281; on centenary of Australian Colonisation, 377; submits alternative names for British New Guinea to the Queen, 381; offer of a peerage to, 383, 386; sympathises with the Queen on treatment of the Empress Frederick, 447; suggests to the Queen reply to the King of Portugal's telegram, 467; presents messengers from Matabeleland to the Queen, 476; on policy regarding British South Africa Company, 512, 519, 533
- Hopetoun, 7th Earl of, reports to the Queen his reception in Melbourne, 538
- Houston, Mr., Secretary of the Irish Loyal and Patriotic Union, 463
- How, Dr. Walsham, Bishop Suffragan of Bedford, 281; Bishop of Wakefield, 560, 563
- IDDESLEIGH, Earl of (formerly Sir Stafford Northcote), Foreign Secretary, 3, 167, 169, 171, 229; First Lord of the Treasury, 6; reports interview with Bulgarian Delegates, 238; entertains Bulgarian Delegates, 248; makes way for Lord Salisbury at Foreign Office, 249; refuses any other office, 251, 253; sudden death of, 241, 254; Queen's regard for, 252, 254, 256; Memorial service for, 259
- Ireland, question of Home Rule splits the Liberal Party, 2; variety of opinions in Cabinet upon, 9, 92; Mr. Gladstone's proposals concerning, 84; Cabinet considers provisions of Irish Government Bill, 93, 94; Mr. Gladstone introduces Irish Government Bill in House of Commons, 99; meeting of protest against Home Rule, 105; introduction of Irish Land Sale and Purchase Bill in House of Commons, 106; debate on Second Reading of Government Bill, 123, 133, 135, 137, 138, 141; defeat of, 142; policy of Conservative Government towards, 178; Land Purchase Bill abandoned by Mr. Gladstone, 190; obstructionist methods by Irish supporters in House of Commons, 242, 243, 267, 272, 276, 280, 290, 307, 312, 315, 353; disturbance caused by Times articles on "Parnellism and Crime," 242, 297, 298, 302, 372, 422; introduction of the Crimes Bill, 242, 293; opposed by Mr. Gladstone, 242, 290, 291, 293; abortive Round Table Conference, 242, 256, 266; introduction of Irish Land Bill, 243; Mr. Goschen on Government's Irish policy, 284; Second Reading of Crimes Bill, 298; scene in House of Commons when Crimes Bill passes through Committee, 316; Crimes Bill passes through Report Stage, 335; visit of Prince Albert Victor and Prince George of Wales to, 335; Crimes Bill passes the House of Commons, 337; National League pro-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

INDEX TO VOL. I

677

- claimed, 344; opposed by Mr. Gladstone, 345; debate on the riots at Mitchelstown, 352; Unionist meeting in Dublin, 363; successful operation of the Crimes Act, 364, 385, 568; agitation not political but a social revolution, 387; Commission appointed by Parliament to enquire into Times articles on "Parnellism and Crime," 430, 434, 462; improved state of, as described by the Viceroy, 468; domination of Irish affairs in Parliament, 550; Land Purchase Bill introduced by Mr. Balfour, 551, 588, 622, 657; debate on findings of the Parnell Commission, 578; split in the Nationalist Party on Mr. Parnell's leadership, 656, 658, 659
- Irving, Henry (afterwards Sir), plays before the Queen, 497
- Isabella, Queen of Spain, received by the Queen, 604
- Italy, secret agreement made with, for defence of Mediterranean and Near East, 244, 268, 271, 272; King and Queen of, receive the Queen, 396
- JAMES, Rt. Hon. Sir Henry (afterwards Lord), 463, 581
- Jenner, Sir William, 7, 129, 453, 456
- Jubilee, account of celebrations in honour of, and distinguished visitors present at, 320–335
- KALNOKY, Count, Austrian Foreign Minister, 244, 266, 408, 436, 488, 491
- Karolyi, Count, Austrian Ambassador, 270, 276
- Kaulbars, General, Russian Special Commissioner to Bulgaria, 4, 215, 216, 217, 220
- Kenmare, Earl of, 57, 111, 117
- Kimberley, Earl of, Indian Secretary, 46
- King-Harman, Colonel, 177
- Knollys, Sir Francis (afterwards Viscount), 501, 528
- Knutsford, Viscount, see Holland, Sir Henry
- Kuch Behar, Maharajah and Maharani of, received by the Queen, 304; invited to stay at Windsor, 310; Maharani decorated with Order of the Crown of India, 310; presents a pendant to the Queen, 334
- Kutch, Rao of, received by the Queen, 311, 334, 346; letter from the Queen to, 354
- LABOUCHERE, Mr., M.P., Proprietor and Editor of Truth: the Queen objects to, as Minister, 25; on reform of the House of Lords, 72, 73, 74; condemns Government's Irish policy, 183, 657; denounces Lords Salisbury and Hartington, 267; opposes Crimes Bill, 335; gives eye-witness account of riot at Mitchelstown, 352; criticises Lord Salisbury's foreign policy, 386; adjourns debate on Commission Bill, 431; persistent opposition to Prince of Wales' Children Bill, 462, 508, 509, 511, 515, 520
- Lansdowne, 5th Marquis of, Governor-General of Canada, refuses offers of Colonial or War Offices, 250; reports Canada's loyalty and devotion, 317; becomes Viceroy of India, 392; his proposals for the Provincial Councils and for the introduction of the elective principle, 506, 526; writes to the Queen on the success of Prince Albert Victor's visit to India, 571; on appreciation of Sir F. Roberts' disinterested conduct, 623; instructed to receive Cesarewitch with all due deference, 665
- Lascelles, Mr. (afterwards Sir) Frank, Chargé d'Affaires at Sofia, 16, 82, 175, 182, 193, 198, 217
- Lathom, 2nd Earl of, Lord Chamberlain, 285, 472
- Lees, Dr. Cameron, 649
- Lefevre, Mr. Shaw (afterwards Lord Eversley), 267, 387
- Leighton, Sir Frederick (afterwards Lord), P.R.A., 280, 283, 380
- Leo XIII, Pope, 364, 366
- Leopold II, King of the Belgians,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

678

INDEX TO VOL. I

- present with Queen Marie at the Queen's Jubilee, 241, 320, 322, 325, 326, 333; comes over for the Silver Wedding of the Prince and Princess of Wales, 390, 391, 392; congratulates the Queen on the safety of Stanley, 459; letters from, to the Queen, 531, 537; visits the Queen, 606
- Letsie, Chief of the Basutos, congratulates the Queen on her Jubilee, 342
- Lewis, Sir Charles, 302, 305
- Lewisham, Viscount (now Earl of Dartmouth), 273, 281
- Liddon, Dr., 427, 595, 637
- Lightfoot, Dr., Bishop of Durham, death of, 539
- Linton, Sir James, P.R.I., suggests foundation of an Order of Merit for those distinguished in Arts and Letters, 260, 270
- Lobengula, King of Matabeleland, 476, 533
- Loch, Sir Henry, 519
- Loe, General von, 394
- London County Council, election of the first, 464
- Londonderry, 6th Marquis of, Viceroy of Ireland, 282, 335, 363, 468, 490
- Lumley, Sir J., 181, 355
- Lyons, Viscount, British Ambassador in Paris, 261; death of, 363
- Lytton, 1st Earl of, appointed Ambassador in Paris, 355, 365, 485, 495
- MCCARTHY, Mr. Justin, leader of the Irish Nationalists who seceded from Parnell, 422, 552, 655, 656, 662
- Macdonald, Sir John, his likeness to Lord Beaconsfield, 438
- Mackenzie, Dr. (afterwards Sir Morell, called in to attend the Crown Prince Frederick of Germany, 311, 343, 350, 358, 361, 377, 382, 384, 392, 394, 397, 402, 406, 411, 414, 416, 419
- Mackinnon, Sir William, Chairman of Imperial British East Africa Company, 595, 601
- McNeill, Sir J., 521, 567, 656
- Magee, Dr., Bishop of Peterborough, 658, 667
- Malet, Rt. Hon. Sir Edward, British Ambassador in Berlin, 80, 361, 408, 458; reports Prince Bismarck's views on Bulgarian question, 198; his discussion with Prince Bismarck on British Mediterranean policy, 269; on private nature of Lord Randolph Churchill's visit to Russia, 367; informs the Queen of health of Emperor William I, 375; on the loyalty of Prince Bismarck to Emperor William I, 376; the Queen's visit to, 406; reports that Emperor Frederick is dying, 416; the Queen's opinion of, 450; reports to Lord Salisbury the success of his dinner to the Emperor William II, 485; on the misunderstanding between the Prince of Wales and the Emperor William II, 492; reports the Emperor's delight at being made a British Admiral, 504; reports conversation with Prince Bismarck on the latter's relations with the Emperor William II, 565, 590; reports conversation with the Emperor William II on Prince Bismarck's resignation, 584, 591; informs the Queen of success of Prince of Wales' visit to Berlin, 591
- Manners, Lord John (afterwards seventh Duke of Rutland, q.v.), Postmaster-General, 7
- Martin, Sir Theodore and Lady, 528
- Matthews, Mr. Henry, Q.C., M.P. (afterwards Viscount Llandaff), recommended by Lord Salisbury for Home Office, 167, 281; dines with the Queen, 292; considers Parnell Commission essential, 431; proposal to offer him a Judgeship, 445, 450; advises that capital sentence on Mrs. Maybrick be commuted, 527; his incompatibility at the Home Office, 450, 616, 623, 626, 647; on the disaffection in the Police Force, 619, 662
- Mitchelstown, riot at, 243, 352, 385

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886-1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

INDEX TO VOL. I

679

- Monro, Mr. James, C.B., Chief Commissioner of Police, 452, 616, 620, 623
- Moore, Evelyn, 281
- Morier, Sir R., British Ambassador in St. Petersburg, 63; reprimanded for his action regarding Russo-Turkish Treaty, 67, 69; the Queen's disapproval of his conduct, 181, 188, 191, 203, 380; telegraphs news of release of Prince Alexander, 186; telegraphs inimical attitude of Russia to Prince Alexander, 197; disliked by Prince Bismarck, 203, 355, 458, 465; is reprimanded by Lord Salisbury, 239; transfer to Rome postponed, 355, 363
- Morley, Rt. Hon. John (afterwards Viscount), Chief Secretary for Ireland, 1, 46, 101, 184; takes chair at National Protest Meeting to congratulate Mr. Parnell and arraign Government, 463; censures the recent Government in Ireland, 471; opposes grants for the Prince of Wales' children, 516; refuses to vote on Land Purchase Bill, 657
- Mundella, Rt. Hon. A. J., President of the Board of Trade, 46
- NAPIER of Magdala, Lord, death of, 556, 557
- Naval and Military Administration, Royal Commission on, 372, 412, 551, 582, 583, 589, 594, 600
- Navy, British, increased building scheme adopted for, 456, 464
- Netherlands, The, death of King William III of, 550, 655, 659
- New Zealand, has first Labour Government in the world, 668
- Norfolk, 15th Duke of, presents the Queen's congratulations to the Pope on the fiftieth anniversary of his Priesthood, 363
- Novikoff, Madame, 260
- O'BRIEN, Mr. W., M.P. for South Tyrone, 124, 243, 364, 552, 579, 662; failure of his visit to Canada, 317
- O'Connor, Mr. T. P., M.P., opposes introduction of Irish Criminal Law Amendment Bill, 293; on proposed Commission, 431
- O'Connor, Mr. (afterwards Sir Nicholas), 231
- Onslow, 4th Earl of, on affairs in New Zealand, 667
- Oudh, King of, the Queen informed of his death by his widow, 353
- PAGET, Sir Augustus, Ambassador in Vienna, 380; reports Emperor's pleasure at meeting the Queen, 408; reports Austria's friendly attitude, 437; informs Prince of Wales of Emperor William II's unwillingness to meet him, 488, 491
- de Paris, le Comte, 151
- Parnell, Mr. C. S., accepts Home Rule on behalf of Nationalists, 2, 99, 141; moves Amendment to the Address, 184; his attitude to the letter purporting to be his published by The Times, 297, 298, 372, 422; denounces the Crimes Bill, 315; objects to appointment of Commission of Enquiry into Times articles on "Parnellism and Crime," 430; vindication of, 463; his meeting with Lord Spencer, 463; receives the Freedom of Edinburgh, 463; welcomed as guest at Hawarden, 463; damages himself by his admissions in witness box, 498; his action brought against The Times compromised, 550; co-respondent in the O'Shea divorce case, 552, 656; all but twenty-six of the Irish Nationalists secede from his leadership, 552, 657, 659; starts violent campaign in Ireland, 552; absent from the House of Commons, 576; supports the Land Purchase Bill, 622, 657
- "Parnellism and Crime," Special Commission to enquire into articles in The Times on, 430, 434, 462, 550, 575, 578
- Pauuncfote, Sir Julian (afterwards Lord), 395, 606
- Peel, Rt. Hon. Arthur W. (afterwards

- Ist Viscount), Speaker of the House of Commons, 274, 275, 314, 657
- Persia, Shah of, pays state visit to the Queen, 462, 473, 507; visits her at Osborne, 519
- Phelps, Mr., American Minister, 444, 446
- Pigott, an Irish journalist, 463, 468, 472, 480
- Ponsonby, Rt. Hon. Sir Frederick, allusions to his Letters of the Empress Frederick, 312, 359, 408
- Rt. Hon. Sir Henry, sent by the Queen to negotiate with Mr. Gladstone, 27; his opinion of Sir J. Linton's suggestions for an Order of Merit for Arts and Letters, 270; dines with the Queen, 291, 498, 602, 656; writes to Sir J. Pauncefote on procedure, 395; reports his conversation with the Duke of Cambridge on the strength of the Army, 410; on the strained relations between the Prince of Wales and the Emperor William II, 494, 500; accompanies the Queen to Sandringham, 496; reports his conversation with Dean Davidson as to the latter's preferment, 544; writes to Dean Davidson on the vacant Bishoprics, 560; commanded to prevent discussion on abolition of office of Commander-in-Chief, 577; on the question of the Duke of Connaught's promotion, 629; instructed to find out from Lord Hartington and Mr. Campbell-Bannerman their views for the Duke of Connaught's future, 630
- Portugal, death of King Louis of, 464, 531; her endeavours to assert her claims in Africa frustrated, 538, 549, 631; King Carlos of, writes to the Queen urging her to influence her Government to accept their conditions for a Treaty, 650
- Prendergast, General, conquers Burma, 13
- Primrose, Mr. (afterwards Rt. Hon. Sir Henry), 152, 159
- Procedure, reform of, 371, 388
- RAIKES, Rt. Hon. H. C., 581
- Reay, Lord, Governor of Bombay, 305, 379
- Reid, Mr. (afterwards Lord Chancellor as Lord Loreburn), 475
- Revelstoke, Lord, 659
- Rhodes, Rt. Hon. Cecil, 464
- Richmond and Gordon, 6th Duke of, President of the Board of Trade, 7
- Ritchie, Rt. Hon. J., President of the Local Government Board, pilots a Bill for establishing County Councils, 371; proposal to offer him the Home Office, 450, 661
- Roberts, General Sir Frederick, 567, 571, 599, 601, 604, 608, 609, 623
- Robilant, Count, Italian Foreign Minister, 266, 269
- de Ros, Lady, 581
- Rosebery, Countess of, 309, 349
- 5th Earl of, appointed to Foreign Office, 44, 46; has interview with Lord Salisbury on foreign policy, 49; on policy towards Greece, 59, 77, 80; reprimands Sir R. Morier, 69; visits the Queen at Balmoral, 145; congratulates the Queen on her Jubilee, 147, 338, 341; on the reform of the House of Lords, 394; elected Chairman of the first London County Council, 464; acquiesces in the cession of Heligoland, 621; death of his wife, 654; the Queen's sympathy for, 663
- Roumania, Elisabeth, Queen of, received by the Queen, 642, 646
- Rowton, Lord, 105, 234
- Roxburghe, Duchess of, 51, 57, 175, 281, 327, 390, 450, 495
- Royal Grants, Committee appointed to consider, 435, 462, 470, 474, 508, 509, 514, 515, 520
- Rudolph, Crown Prince of Austria, present at the Queen's Jubilee, 241, 320, 321, 327; suicide of, 464
- Russell, Sir Charles, formerly Attorney-General, 303, 316, 431, 463, 578
- Mr. T. W., 475
- Russia, Emperor of, Alexander III, his implacable attitude towards Bulgaria, 4, 90, 97, 181, 197, 198;

INDEX TO VOL. I

681

- terminates arrangement in Treaty of Berlin by which Batoum made a free port, 4, 153, 161; declares Bulgarian elections illegal, 218; refuses to acknowledge election of Prince Ferdinand, 244; importance of, in European affairs, 246; his desire for friendly relations with England, 369
- Rutland, 7th Duke of, 405, 408 (and see Manners, Lord John)
- SACKVILLE, Lord, British Minister in U.S.A., given his passports, 371, 444
- St. Albans, Duchess of, 56
- Salisbury, Marchioness of, 257, 309, 328, 329, 338, 545
- 3rd Marquis of, Prime Minister and Foreign Secretary, 6; urges Queen to open Parliament in person, 7; on the Irish question, 9, 13, 19; his Ministry of 1886 defeated, 20, 22; advises Queen to consult Mr. Goschen, 26; declines offer of a Dukedom, 34; on policy towards Greece, 45; on the impossibility of a Conservative Ministry without a General Election, 116; sends his Memorandum on Dissolution to the Queen, 128, 135; sent for by the Queen to form a Government, 163; forms his second Ministry of 1886, 166, 167, 171; on the Bulgarian crisis, 182; on the disabilities of British foreign and diplomatic services, 193; reports differences of opinion in Cabinet upon British policy in South-Eastern Europe, 202; advises policy to be pursued in South-Eastern Europe, 211, 220; has difficulties with his Cabinet, 229; takes over Foreign Office as well as Premiership, 241, 249, 281; makes secret agreements with Italy and Austria for defence of Mediterranean and Near East, 244, 255; his reputation in Europe, 246; his reasons for not offering Colonial Office to Lord Iddesleigh, 253; dines with the Queen, 256, 390, 601; on the threatening situation in Europe, 262; on the necessity for a policy of gaining time in Europe, 264; his opinion of the Tsar of Russia, 265; reconstructs his Ministry, 281; presents his portrait to the Queen, 327; visited by the Queen at Hatfield, 337; sends the Queen copy of secret Treaty between Germany and Austria, 361; submits proposed Statutes for an Order of Merit in Science and Art, 375; reports postponement of proposals, 380; his interview with Lord R. Churchill, 383; on reform of the House of Lords, 395, 398; on the question of defence, 414; suggests Canon Liddon for the vacant See of Oxford, 426; reports views of Cabinet upon Commission on Times letters, 431; on the importance of friendly relations with Austria, 436; submits to the Queen draft of Note on slave trade at Zanzibar, 443; reports Naval Estimates to the Queen, 456; reports situation in the Near East, 459; reports his conversation with Count Herbert Bismarck, 483; discusses proposed changes in the Cabinet, 490; on Great Britain's representation at the Paris Exhibition, 495; on Mr. Parnell's reputation, 498; suggests to the Queen that she should give her autographed photograph to Bismarck, 518; present at Osborne for the visit of the Emperor William, 521; congratulates the Queen on the Emperor William's visit, 523; his opinion of the Emperor William, 532, 573; his recommendations for the vacant See of Durham, 540, 558; illness of, 545, 556, 557; submits names for honours in connection with opening of the Forth Bridge, 557; his negotiations on African boundaries not prospering, 607; lines of settlement of African boundary question, 610; views on the cession to Germany of Heligoland,

- 613, 614; the Queen's confidence in, 617; difficulties with his Cabinet, 618; is averse to the Queen's wish to offer the See of Winchester to Dean Davidson, 632; wishes the choice of the Sees of Rochester and Worcester to be offered to Dean Davidson, 639; explains reasons for persisting that the See of Winchester should not be offered to Dean Davidson, 644; his efforts to obtain Mr. Matthews's resignation, 646; explains position regarding Portugal, 652; has doubts about the expediency of removing Mr. Matthews, 661; recommends Dr. Magee, Bishop of Peterborough, for the Archbishopric of York, 666
- Samoa, treaty signed concerning, 464; German policy towards, 484; difficulties in, 490
- Saunderson, Col. Rt. Hon. Edward J., 15, 291
- Saxony, H.M. King of, present at the Queen's Jubilee, 241, 320, 321, 325
- Selborne, 1st Earl of, his influence over Mr. Gladstone, 356
- Singh, Sir Partab, presented to the Queen, 304, 333, 334
- Smith, Mr. Justice A. L., 462
- Sir Donald (afterwards Lord Strathcona), his gifts to mark the Queen's Jubilee, 319
- Colonel Euan (afterwards Sir Charles) British Agent at Zanzibar, 535, 546, 645
- Rt. Hon. William Henry, Chief Secretary for Ireland, 1, 12, 15; War Secretary, 6, 171; declines offer of the Order of the Bath, 17; refuses to reduce the Army, 229; becomes First Lord of the Treasury and Leader of the House of Commons, 241, 249, 281; on proceedings in the House of Commons, 263, 266; commends conduct of Mr. Speaker Peel to the Queen, 274; describes scene in House of Commons on introduction of Irish Criminal Law Amendment Bill, 293; proposes that The Times be prosecuted for libel for articles on "Parnellism and Crime," 303; dines with the Queen, 310, 658; describes Jubilee Service at St. Margaret's, Westminster, 313; congratulates the Queen on her Jubilee, 322, 331; his views on the Session, 353; asks leave to appoint a Royal Commission to enquire into Naval and Military affairs, 412; moves the appointment of a Commission to enquire into Times articles on "Parnellism and Crime," 430, 434; his health gives way, 453, 477, 490, 551, 607, 608, 610, 611, 626; is sent abroad, 456, 616; on the necessity for a Committee on Royal Grants, 470, 474, 508; obtains the Queen's approval for Constitution Hill to be a public thoroughfare, 500; reports the debate on the findings of the Committee on Royal Grants, 515; reports Third Reading of Prince of Wales' Children Bill carried, 520; moves resolution of thanks to Judges of the Parnell Commission, 569, 575; on the split in the Irish Nationalists, 656, 658, 659, 662; the Queen's opinion of, 659
- Spencer, 5th Earl, Lord President of the Council, 46; his knowledge of conditions in Ireland, 120, 298; his meeting with Parnell, 463
- de Staal, M., 215, 217, 218, 222
- Stambouloff, Regent of Bulgaria, 216, 217, 244
- Stamfordham, Lord, see Bigge.
- Stanhope, Hon. Edward, Colonial Secretary, 171; proposal to offer him the War Office, 250; War Secretary, 281, 411, 413, 415, 567, 574, 602, 627; urges appointment of Sir Evelyn Wood to the Aldershot command, 453; asked by the Queen to support the Duke of Cambridge, 454; the Queen's instructions to, regarding commands of foreign expeditions, 455; attends a meeting to consider naval estimates, 456; his objections to

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

INDEX TO VOL. I

683

- Lord Wolsey's article in Harper's Magazine, 572; suggests Sir F. Roberts's period of command in India be extended two years, 608; his ideas regarding the office of Commander-in-Chief, 628
- Stanley, Col. the Hon. Sir Frederick (afterwards Lord Stanley of Preston), Colonial Secretary, 6; President of the Board of Trade, 171, 282; Governor-General of Canada, 379; reports the popularity of Prince George of Wales at Quebec, 637
- H. M., 456, 459, 464, 535, 537, 546, 596, 601
- Lady, 309
- Stansfeld, Mr. J., President of Local Government Board, 46
- Stephen, Mr. Condie (afterwards Sir), 186, 187, 193, 651
- Sir George (afterwards Lord Mountstephen), his gifts to mark the Queen's Jubilee, 319
- Stephenson, Sir T., commander of British troops in Egypt, 310
- Swaine, Colonel (afterwards General Sir Leopold), Military Attaché in Berlin, 263, 376, 417, 439, 473, 488
- Sydney, Lord, death of, 568, 572
- TALBOT, Dr., Vicar of Leeds (afterwards Bishop of Winchester), See of St. Albans offered to and refused by, 560, 563, 595
- Teck, Duchess of, 285, 309, 327, 392, 534
- Princess May of (now H.M. Queen Mary), 285, 309, 392, 534
- Terry, Ellen, plays before the Queen, 497
- Thornton, Sir Edward, British Ambassador in Constantinople, 51, 180, 183, 188, 189, 203, 216
- Times, The*, articles on "Parnellism and Crime," 242, 297, 372; Commission appointed by Parliament to enquire into, 430, 434, 462; issue of Commission's Report, 550
- Tipperary, disturbance at, 551
- Trafalgar Square, riot of unemployed in, 52, 54, 58; Report of Committee of Enquiry into, 64; further riots in, 243, 357, 359; closed to public meetings, 358
- Trevelyan, Mr. George O. (afterwards Rt. Hon. Sir George), Secretary for Scotland, 46; resigns on the question of Irish Home Rule, 92; speaks against Irish Government Bill, 138; speaks against Irish Land Bill, 662
- UNITED States of America, request recall of Lord Sackville from, 371, 444; interfere with British seal trade in the Behring Sea, 606, 608
- VAUGHAN, Dean, Master of the Temple and Dean of Llandaff, urges preferment for the Dean of Windsor, 543, 635, 636; on the vacant See of Durham, 575
- Victoria, German Crown Princess, afterwards Empress Frederick, 44; on England's policy towards Greece, 48, 55; tries to promote cordial relations between Germany and England, 82; value to British Foreign Secretary of her private information, 195; summarises European situation, 246; begs the Queen to send Dr. Morell Mackenzie, 311; her anxiety about her husband's health, 314; present at the Queen's Jubilee, 322, 328, 331, 333; her grief at her husband's illness, 359; her devotion, 370, 374; accompanies her husband from San Remo on his accession to the throne, 392; entertains the Queen at Charlottenburg, 401; her bravery at her husband's death, 419; her distress at seeing her late husband's charger, 434; her difficult position, 447; arrives in England to spend the winter, 450; receives German Embassy, 452; leaves England, 472
- Victoria, H.M. Queen:
- 1886 Opens Parliament in person, 1, 8, 11; her absorbing interest in politics, 4; her views on the Irish Home Rule question, 16, 91, 93, 102, 112, 118; distress

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

at defeat of Government, 22 ; reluctance to send for Mr. Gladstone, 23 ; appreciation of Lord Salisbury, 31 ; memorandum of her interview with Mr. Gladstone, 34 ; begs Mr. Gladstone to be explicit in his policy, 42, 60 ; advises Lord Rosebery on conduct of foreign affairs, 47, 55 ; difficulty of filling posts in Household, 51, 56, 57 ; on the usefulness of the House of Lords, 75 ; memorandum on Irish question, 83 ; concerning appointments to Windsor canonries, 106, 109, 110 ; on Socialist disturbances, 110 ; opens Colonial and Indian Exhibition at South Kensington, 114 ; expresses to Mr. Gladstone her disapproval of his Irish policy, 118, 169 ; recounts her visit to Liverpool to open the International Exhibition of Navigation and Commerce, 125 ; telegraphs congratulations to President of U.S.A. on his marriage, 140 ; sanctions Mr. Gladstone's request for dissolution, 144 ; enters on the fiftieth year of her reign, 148 ; her disapproval of Mr. Gladstone's speeches in Scotland, 149 ; receives Indian and Colonial subjects, 157 ; deprecates Mr. Gladstone's actions, 159 ; accepts resignation of Mr. Gladstone's Government and sends for Lord Salisbury, 163 ; suggests co-operation with Liberal Unionists, 164 ; bids farewell to Mr. Gladstone, 168 ; urges Lord Hartington to give all possible support to Lord Salisbury's Ministry, 172 ; memorandum on prevention of cruelty to animals, 176 ; her horror at the kidnapping of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, 179, 186 ; suggests action to be taken regarding Russia, 188, 197, 201, 216 ; orders congratulatory telegram to be sent to Prince Alexander, 193 ; attitude towards suggested Council of Powers, 197 ; sends letters giving details of Russia's treatment of Prince Alexander to Mr. Gladstone, 212 ; urges British support for Bulgaria, 215, 217 ; expresses horror at Russia's treatment of Bulgaria, 218, 220 ; her surprise at resignation of Lord Randolph Churchill, 232, 234 ; urges Lord Hartington to join Lord Salisbury's Ministry, 235

 1887 Jubilee Celebrations, 241, 320, 332 ; opens People's Palace, Mile End Road, 241, 307 ; lays foundation stone of Imperial Institute, 241 ; reviews Metropolitan Volunteers, the Army and the Navy, 241 ; insists that Viscount Cross be retained in Cabinet, 247 ; expresses her satisfaction at Mr. Goschen's inclusion in the Cabinet, 250 ; expresses to Lord Hartington her approval of his actions, 250 ; writes letters of sympathy to Lady Iddesleigh, 256, 257 ; her anger at Lord Randolph Churchill's indiscretions, 259, 379 ; on the disgraceful behaviour of the Irish members in the House of Commons, 280, 319 ; gives her ruling on presentation at Court of ladies who have divorced their husbands, 285 ; goes to Birmingham to lay foundation stone of the Law Courts, 288 ; goes to Aix-les-Bains, 295 ; her visit to Grande Chartreuse, 299 ; sends her portrait to the Monastery, 301 ; receives Addresses from the Lord Mayor and Corporation and the Lord Lieutenant of London, 304 ; gives audience to the Maharajah of Kuch Behar and his wife, 304, 310, 334 ; visits Westminster Abbey, 306 ; discusses Jubilee arrangements with Lord Salisbury, 307 ; goes

INDEX TO VOL. I

685

- to Earl's Court and sees Buffalo Bill's "Wild West," 307; takes tea at the Mansion House, 309; her statue unveiled at Windsor, 329; receives report of successful visit of her grandsons to Dublin, 335; visits Lord and Lady Salisbury at Hatfield, 337; thanks Lord Rosebery for his letter and gift, 340; begins to learn Hindustani, 344; hears of death of her old servant Skerrett, 344; her wish for an Indian Bodyguard, 348; Mrs. Craik's devotion to, 350; loses a favourite dog, 354; her anxiety about the Crown Prince Frederick's illness, 360; receives the Gaikwar and Maharani of Baroda, 362; sends her congratulations to the Pope, 364; his reply, 367
- 1888 Stays in Florence, 370, 393; visits the Emperor and Empress Frederick at Berlin, 370, 394, 397, 401; her conversation with the Emperor of Austria, 370, 400, 408; her conversation with Prince Bismarck, 370, 405, 409; warns the Prince of Wales against Lord R. Churchill, 374; sends congratulatory telegram on Australian Centenary, 377; her views on Austro-German Treaty, 379; her alarm at Lord R. Churchill's views, 379; confers a peerage on Sir Henry Holland, 386; present at family reunion to celebrate Silver Wedding of the Prince and Princess of Wales, 391; receives General von Loe, emissary from the Emperor Frederick, 394; receives and visits King and Queen of Italy, 396; receives and visits Emperor and Empress of Brazil, 396; death of her courier Kanné, 402; her views on military matters, 413; telegraphs to German Crown Prince (William) to look after his mother, 416, 417; her grief at the death of the Emperor Frederick, 417, 465; writes to the Emperor William on the question of a home for his mother, 423; asks the Prince of Wales to give her the Order of St. John, 433; displeased with her grandson Emperor William II, 433, 441; question of grants for the children of her younger sons, 435, 462; refuses Lord Salisbury's request to defer the visit of the Empress Frederick, 443; sorrowful meeting with the Empress Frederick on her arrival in England, 450; condoles with Mr. Bright in his illness, 455; receives George II's will from the Emperor William II, 456; urges suspension of German company in Zanzibar, 457
- 1889 Permits the Emperor William II to visit her, 461, 467, 473, 477, 499, 500, 505; stays at Biarritz, 461; is welcomed in France by President Carnot, 461, 477; meets the Queen Regent of Spain at San Sebastian, 461, 478, 481; visits the Prince and Princess of Wales at Sandringham, 461, 468, 495; confers rank of Admiral of the Fleet on the Emperor William, 461; Shah of Persia pays a State Visit to, 462, 507; gives her consent to the marriage of Princess Louise of Wales to the Earl of Fife, 462, 506, 508; distressed at the resignation of Lady Ely, 462, 493; shocked to hear of the relinquishing of his princely status by Prince Alexander, 462, 469, 473; receives messengers from Lobengula, King of Matabeleland, 476; visits the Duke of Edinburgh, 498; watches

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

686

INDEX TO VOL. I

- the Trooping of the Colour on her seventieth birthday, 499; accepts the Hon. Colonelcy of a German Regiment, 504, 521; objects to personnel of Committee on Royal Grants, 509; her objections overruled by Lord Salisbury, 510; hears Albani and the two de Reszkes sing, 513; writes to the Viceroy of India on the subject of "Moharram," 513; agrees not to press for grants for children of her younger sons, 514, 517; receives the Shah at Osborne, 519; and the Emperor William, 521; reviews seamen and marines of the German Fleet, 522; bestows the Order of the Garter upon Prince Henry of Prussia, 522; enjoys a short visit to North Wales, 528; suggests that the Prince of Wales should visit the Principality, 528; allows British Naval officers to attend reception given by Empress Frederick, 530; sends telegram of congratulation to Mr. H. M. Stanley, 535; on candidates for Bishopricks, 536; writes to Sir H. Ponsonby on the episcopal vacancies, 541
- 1890 Friendly visit of the Emperor William to, 549; demurs at the cession of Heligoland, 549, 612, 614, 615; opposes abolition of office of Commander-in-Chief, 551, 577, 597, 599, 600, 630; hears of destruction of Palace of Laeken by fire, 553; writes to Archbishop Benson on vacant See of Durham, 553; her views on the filling of episcopal vacancies, 562; fiftieth anniversary of her wedding, 564; her views on the Report of the Hartington Commission on Army Administration, 582, 600; receives the Archbishop of Chambéry, 592; refers Sir William Mackinnon's request for troops to Lord Salisbury, 598; meets Emperor at Darmstadt, 598; her annoyance that the Duke of Connaught was not appointed Commander-in-Chief in India, 599; her wishes regarding the Duke of Connaught, 603, 624, 630; receives Queen Isabella of Spain, 604; rejoices that the Government are firm on the Behring Sea fishery question and the African boundaries, 608; her grief at death of Lady Ely, 614; goes to Kensal Green to visit Lady Ely's grave, 617; her confidence in Lord Salisbury, 617; suggests changes in the Cabinet, 617, 626, 647; much impressed by singing of Melba and the two de Reszkes, 618; urges preferment of Dean Davidson to the See of Winchester, 632, 633, 634; writes to Archbishop Benson on the subject, 634; vexed at Lord Salisbury's persistence in opposing her views for Dean Davidson, 639, 646; receives the Queen of Roumania, 642; has an impromptu dance at Balmoral, 647; urges Lord Salisbury to accept condition of treaty laid down by Portugal, 651; refuses to receive King Milan, 653; replies to the King of Portugal's request, 653; hears of Lady Rosebery's death, 654; shocked by the Parnell divorce case, 656; sends Prince Edward of Saxe-Weimar to represent her at the funeral of King William III of the Netherlands, 659; shocked to hear of Sir Edgar Boehm's death, 662; her anxiety as to the correct reception of the Cesarewitch in India, 664; consents to be Godmother to the Earl of Onslow's son, 668
- WADDINGTON, M., 262, 366
Waldegrave, Earl, 292

INDEX TO VOL. I

687

- Wales, H.R.H. the Prince of (afterwards H.M. King Edward VII), suggests names for office in the Government, 38, 40; agrees with the Queen's views on Irish Home Rule, 120; his visit to Ireland postponed, 282; goes to Germany for the Emperor William I's ninetieth birthday, 285; attends a Drawing-room, 305; present at opening of People's Palace, Mile End Road, 309; present at the Queen's Jubilee Celebrations, 321, 328, 333; stays with the Queen at Balmoral and unveils her statue, 354; receives letter from Lord Randolph Churchill on Russian affairs, 367; writes to the Queen about Lord Randolph Churchill, 373; his Silver Wedding festivities, 390; visits the Queen at Windsor, 394; goes to Berlin for the funeral of the Emperor Frederick, 417, 418, 420, 488; his strained relations with his nephew Emperor William II, 438, 467, 473, 485, 488, 491, 492, 493, 500, 501; visits the Queen at Balmoral, 443; meets the Empress Frederick on her arrival in England, 450; receives the Queen at Sandringham, 496; lunches with the Queen on her seventieth birthday, 500; asks the consent of the Queen to the marriage of his daughter Louise to the Earl of Fife, 506; escorts the Emperor William II to Osborne, 521, 626; visits Berlin, 549, 591; lunches with the Queen on the occasion of the Queen of Roumania's visit, 642
- H.R.H. the Princess of (afterwards H.M. Queen Alexandra), goes to tea with the Queen, 12; dines with the Queen, 285, 389, 521; takes the Queen's place at a Drawing-room, 305, 472; present at the opening by the Queen of the People's Palace, 309; present at the Jubilee Celebrations, 321, 322, 328, 329; her Silver Wedding parties, 390, 391, 392; accompanies her husband to Berlin for the funeral of the Emperor Frederick, 417, 419, 421; entertains the Queen at Sandringham, 496, 497; lunches with the Queen on her seventieth birthday, 500; the engagement of her daughter Louise to the Earl of Fife, 505; present at the Naval Review in honour of the Emperor William's visit, 521, 522; visits Osborne on the occasion of the Emperor William II's visit, 626; stays at Balmoral during Queen of Roumania's visit, 642, 644
- Wales, Prince Albert Victor of (afterwards Duke of Clarence), visits Dublin, 335; dines with the Queen, 390; present at the funeral of Emperor Frederick, 419, 420; helps to receive the Queen at Sandringham, 496; escorts the Shah of Persia to Windsor, 507; meets the Emperor William II on his arrival in British waters, 521; his visit to India, 571; escorts Queen Elisabeth of Roumania to Ballater, 644; dances a quadrille with the Queen, 647
- Wales, Prince George of (now H.M. King George V), visits Dublin, 335; meets the Empress Frederick on her arrival in England, 450; meets the Emperor William II on his arrival in British waters, 521; invested with the Order of the Black Eagle by the Emperor William, 587; his popularity when visiting Quebec, 637
- Wallace, Sir Donald Mackenzie, 651, 665
- Warre, Dr., Headmaster of Eton, 330
- Warren, Sir Charles, appointed Commissioner of Police, 66, 110, 112; resigns, 448, 616
- Webster, Sir Richard, Attorney-General (afterwards Chief Justice Lord Alverstone), 462, 480, 578
- Westcott, Canon, question of his appointment to the See of Durham, 554, 555, 558, 561, 562, 633
- Westminster, 1st Duke of, 10, 23

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Index

More information

688

INDEX TO VOL. I

- White, Sir William, 51, 188, 189; on the situation in the Near East, 206
- William I, King of Prussia, German Emperor, failing health of, 375, 389; death of, 390
- William, Prince of Prussia (afterwards Emperor William II), present with his wife at the Queen's Jubilee, 241, 320; his accession to the throne, 370, 421; pays visits to other European Monarchs, 370, 462; his misunderstanding with the Prince of Wales, 371, 438, 467, 473, 485, 488, 491, 492, 493, 500, 501; his treatment of his mother, 371, 424; given power to sign documents for his grandfather, 376; telegraphs news of death of his grandfather, 390; his impulsiveness, 398, 441; his apparent leanings towards Russia, 421; his intended meeting with the Tsar, 425; refuses his consent to his sister's marriage with Prince Alexander of Battenberg, 429; appointed Admiral-of-the-Fleet in the British Navy, 461, 504; visits the Queen at Osborne, 462, 484, 520; dines with Sir Edward Malet, 485; confers Red Eagle (1st Class) on Prince Alfred, eldest son of the Duke of Edinburgh, 502; telegraphs his safe return to the Queen, 523; reiterates his pleasure at his appointment as Admiral-of-the-Fleet, 526; inspects Mediterranean squadron of the British Fleet, 532; foreign policy of, 549; desire to co-operate with Socialists, 549, 565; accepts Prince Bismarck's resignation, 549, 581; his policy towards England, 549; receives Prince of Wales in Berlin, 549, 591; pays a friendly visit to the Queen at Osborne, 549, 626; invites British Government to take part in a Conference on Labour controversies, 569; explains circumstances which led up to Prince Bismarck's resignation, 584; bids farewell to Prince Bismarck, 589, 591; congratulates the Queen on her birthday, 605; sends his best wishes for 1891 to the Queen, 665
- Winterfeldt, General, 421
- Wolff, Sir Henry, 244, 273
- Wolseley, Field-Marshal Viscount, injudicious writings of, 371, 564, 570, 572, 574; sent to Australia to review the troops, 393; on deficiencies in the Army, 411, 415; differs from the Duke of Cambridge, 455; his dislike of the Hartington Report, 583, 589, 594; suggested transfer to India, 603, 604; on the military capacity of the Dukes of Cambridge and Connaught, 624, 627; suggests that the Duke of Connaught be made Commander-in-Chief immediately, 628
- Wood, General Sir Evelyn, appointed to Aldershot Command, 453, 454, 455, 603
- ZANZIBAR, slave trade at, 443, 637; blockade of, 460; distressing news from, 466; German policy towards, 484; difficulties in, 490; Sultan writes to the Queen, 529; price paid for the protectorate of, 549, 621; death of the Sultan, 570
- Zetland, Marquis and Marchioness of, 534