

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

1886 (JANUARY TO JULY) pp. 1–163

A year of political difficulties—Mr. Goschen's advice—Dukes of Edinburgh and Connaught—Cabinet and Ireland—Prince Alexander and Bulgaria—Greece and Turkey—Queen opens Parliament—Lord Dufferin on Burma—Mr. Gladstone's ambiguous speech—Mr. W. H. Smith for Ireland—Queen and Mr. Goschen and Lord Hartington—Mr. Smith and the G.C.B.—Fleet sent to Crete—Mr. Smith and Coercion—Ministry defeated on Address—Lord Salisbury resigns—Queen reluctant to change—Sees Lord Salisbury—And wishes to see Mr. Goschen—Advised to send for Mr. Gladstone—Sir H. Ponsonby's Mission—Mr. Gladstone Prime Minister—Queen thanks Lord Salisbury—And offers him Dukedom—Mr. Gladstone's audience—Refusal of Lord Hartington and others to join him—Queen's opposition to Home Rule—Mr. Morley for Ireland—Mr. Gladstone's Cabinet formula—Lord Rosebery for Foreign Office—And Mr. Campbell-Bannerman for War Office—Prince of Wales's views—Mr. Gladstone and Greece—Queen talks to Lord Rosebery—And promises to assist him—Lord Salisbury and Lord Rosebery—Continuity of Foreign Policy—Trafalgar Square Riot—Queen's correspondence with Mr. Gladstone—And with Lord Rosebery—Difficulties about Household—Mr. Gladstone's sketch of Irish policy—Sir E. Henderson resigns headship of Police—Sir C. Warren appointed—Sir R. Morier and Lord Rosebery—Debate on House of Lords—Queen regrets Mr. Gladstone's speech—Correspondence between them—Question of blockading Greek fleet—Fear of Home Rule among Irish Loyalists—Lord Hartington firm—Prince Bismarck and Lord Rosebery—Mr. Gladstone's policy further explained—Long memorandum—Arrangement about Eastern Roumelia—Cabinet accept principle of Home Rule—Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Trevelyan resign—Irish peers and M.P.'s to leave Westminster—Mr. Gladstone introduces Home Rule Bill—Mr. Parnell accepts it—Opposition by Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Hartington—Non-party Anti-Home Rule meeting in

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

x

CONTENTS

the Opera House—Mr. Gladstone introduces Land Bill—Efforts of Unionist Liberals against Home Rule—Resignations in the Household—Blockade of Greece—Queen opens Colonial and Indian Exhibition—Urges Mr. Gladstone to alter his course—Mr. Gladstone moves Second Reading of Home Rule Bill—And Lord Hartington moves its rejection—Queen visits Liverpool—Lord Salisbury's advice, if Bill defeated—Birth of King Alphonso XIII—"Ulster will fight"—Mr. Gladstone's concessions to obtain Second Reading—Mr. Bright's letter—Decision of Mr. Chamberlain's friends—Greece gives way—Blockade raised—Final night of debate—Bill defeated by 30—Cabinet advises Dissolution—Queen accepts—Lord Rosebery at Balmoral—Mr. Parnell, Lord Carnarvon, and Lord Salisbury—Queen enters Jubilee Year—Deprecates Mr. Gladstone's whirlwind campaign—His defence—Comte de Paris an exile in England—Election going against Ministry—Russia and Batoum—Breach of Treaty of Berlin—Queen's disgust—Mr. Gladstone's letters and telegrams—Government defeated at the polls—Queen receives representatives of native races—Mr. Gladstone resigns.

CHAPTER II

1886 (JULY TO DECEMBER) . . . pp. 164–240

Queen asks Lord Salisbury to form a Government—And hopes for a Coalition—Lord Salisbury appeals to Lord Hartington—And offers to serve under him—Lord Hartington refuses Coalition—But promises outside support—Lord Salisbury's audience—Forms Ministry—Lord R. Churchill to lead the House—Queen's advice to Mr. Gladstone—H.M.'s correspondence with Lord Hartington—Seats of Liberal Unionists in House—Queen on dogs—Lord R. Churchill states Government policy—Prince Alexander of Bulgaria kidnapped—Queen's indignation—And anxiety for immediate action—Irish Debates in Commons—Lord Hartington strongly supports Government—Mr. Parnell and rents in Ireland—Mr. Gladstone's views—Conspirators at Sofia overthrown and imprisoned—Prince safe at Lemberg—Indignities offered him—Queen on policy to be pursued—Mr. Gladstone abandons his Irish Land Bill—Prince Alexander goes back—Lord Salisbury on British Foreign

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

xi

Policy—Its inevitable weaknesses—Government desire European support for Prince—Prince Bismarck discourages idea—Prince Alexander to abdicate—Queen and Government protest—His explanation to Queen—Cabinet and Lord Salisbury's Foreign Policy—Sir R. Morier's attitude—Tsar's treatment of Prince—Sir W. White on situation—Prince Alexander's views—Queen and Mr. Gladstone on Bulgaria—Prince Alexander to keep quiet—Gen. Kaulbars' Mission—Holding firm language to Russia—Duke of Connaught for Bombay command—Lord Salisbury's speech at Guildhall—Russian nominations for Principality—Lord R. Churchill and the Government—His talk with the Queen—Lord Salisbury's comments—Queen and children—Prince Alexander at Windsor—Prince Ferdinand of Coburg and Bulgaria—Queen suggests a European Commissioner—Lord R. Churchill resigns—Queen's annoyance—Her appeal to Mr. Goschen—And to Lord Hartington—Bulgarian delegates in England—Lord Salisbury and Sir R. Morier—Lord Hartington refuses to form or join Government.

CHAPTER III

1887 pp. 241–369

Mr. Goschen Chancellor of Exchequer—Bulgarian delegates and Prince Alexander—Mr. W. H. Smith Leader of the Commons—Lord Salisbury resumes Foreign Office—Queen thanks Lord Hartington—Lord Iddesleigh and Colonial Office—Lord Iddesleigh's sudden death—Queen's grief—Queen and Sir R. Morier—Lord R. Churchill and the Queen—Order for Arts and Letters suggested—Scares of war—Opening of the Session—British policy in the East—Lord R. Churchill and Liberal Unionists—Proposals for entente with Italy—Prince Bismarck presses this policy on England—Entente arranged—Egyptian question—Queen and Speaker Peel—Proposals for entente with Austria—Jubilee Celebrations in India—Sir M. Hicks Beach resigns—Mr. Arthur Balfour appointed Chief Secretary—Cabinet and "Order of Merit"—Queen favourable—Stormy and obstructive Debates in Parliament—Queen and Mr. Gladstone—Queen and state of Ireland—Liberal Unionists and Coercion—The Court and innocent divorcees—Drawing-room regulations—Lord Salisbury's advice—Queen's agreement—H.M. at Birmingham—Violent opposition to Coercion in Commons

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

xii

CONTENTS

—Entente with Austria arranged—Household Cavalry and the Provinces—Scene in the Commons—Prince Bismarck's tortuous policy—Indian Princes coming to Jubilee—"Parnell letter" published in The Times—Crimes Bill read Second Time—Queen visits Grande Chartreuse—Privilege debate on the "letter"—Innocent Divorcees at Drawing-room—Queen inspects Abbey preparations for Jubilee—"Unblushing obstruction"—Queen opens People's Palace—Queen and Mr. Bright—German Crown Prince's throat disease—Dr. Morel Mackenzie sent for—Birthday—Commons' Service in St. Margaret's—Dr. Mackenzie's satisfactory report—Jubilee Celebrations in Canada—Sir D. Smith's and Sir G. Stephen's benefactions—Queen receives Kings and Queens, Princes and Princesses—Jubilee Day—Procession to Westminster Abbey—Thanksgiving Service—Queen surrounded by her family—State Dinner—Numerous Presentations—Queen at Children's Fête in Hyde Park—And at Festivities in Slough, Eton, and Windsor—Two Indian servants for the Queen—Queen at Kensington—And at Buckingham Palace Garden Party—Reception of Indian Princes at Windsor—Royal Princes in Ireland—Crimes Bill through the Commons—Bulgaria elects Prince Ferdinand—Queen at Hatfield—Her Majesty's title—Lord Rosebery's Congratulations on Jubilee—And Chief Letsie's—Proclamation of National League—Debate in Commons—Crown Prince in Scotland—Commission on Fishery dispute with U.S.A.—Mr. Chamberlain Chief Commissioner—Maharajah Holkar on his visit—Prince Ferdinand's success—Queen and Lady Rosebery—Dr. Mackenzie knighted—Mitchelstown Debate—Queen's dog "Noble"—Queen and India—Mr. Gladstone and Law and Order—Trafalgar Square Meetings—Bad news from San Remo of Crown Prince—Disease pronounced malignant—Riot in Trafalgar Square—Crown Prince's political position—Queen and Pope Leo XIII—Lord Lytton and "kissing hands"—Lord R. Churchill's visit to Russia—Queen on her Jubilee Year.

CHAPTER IV

1888 pp. 370–460

Lord Salisbury on the Jubilee—Queen on Lord R. Churchill—Crown Prince and political business—Good reports of his health—Australian Centenary Celebrations—Changes

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07782-8 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 7: 1886–1890

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

xiii

of Viceroy, Ambassadors, and Ministers—Lord R. Churchill's views—"Order of Merit" postponed—British New Guinea—Tracheotomy necessary for Crown Prince—Lord R. Churchill's report to Lord Salisbury—"Dotation Fund" for Royal Grandchildren?—Mr. Gladstone in Irish debate—Mr. Balfour defends his administration—New Rules of Procedure—Death of Emperor William—Emperor Frederick to Queen—Silver Wedding of Prince of Wales—Emperor and Empress Frederick arrive in Berlin—Mr. Chamberlain and the G.C.B.—Lord Rosebery and Reform of House of Lords—Queen in Florence—Intrigues in Berlin—Prince Bismarck and a proposed Royal marriage—Importance of Prince William—Duke of Edinburgh on the Navy—Queen meets Emperor of Austria—Queen in Berlin—Meeting with Empress—And with Emperor—Visit to Empress Augusta—Talk with Prince Bismarck—Sir M. Mackenzie on Emperor's illness—Good effect of Queen's visit—Queen, Lord Salisbury, and Mr. Smith on Defence—Duke of Cambridge, Lord Wolseley, and Mr. Stanhope—Hartington Commission appointed—Emperor's relapse—Lord Salisbury on want of big guns—Death of Emperor Frederick—Queen's appeal to Emperor William II—Funeral of Emperor Frederick—Empress Frederick's troubles—"O'Donnell v. The Times"—Statement by Mr. Parnell—Letter of Queen to Emperor William—About his mother and his political visits—Emperor's reply—Lord Salisbury on Dr. Liddon—Views of Queen and of Dean Davidson—Cool relations between Britain and Germany—Mr. Parnell proposes Special Committee—Government offers Royal Commission—Mr. Parnell's anger—Debates on Commission Bill—Emperor Frederick's "Worth"—Queen on the "Appanage"—Lord Salisbury on European situation—Sir John Macdonald—Differences between Emperor William and Prince of Wales—Queen's views—Prince Bismarck's ill-temper—Empress Frederick's proposed visit—U.S.A. Government and Lord Sackville—Question of Mr. Matthews—Queen on "persecution" of Empress Frederick—"Jack the Ripper" murders—Queen's anxiety—Sir C. Warren resigns from Police—Arrival of Empress Frederick—Mr. Monro succeeds Sir C. Warren—Sir E. Wood for Aldershot Command—Queen's views—Mr. Smith's ill-health—Queen and Mr. Bright—Naval ship-building—Gen. Grenfell's victory at Suakin—Bismarckian attacks on Sir R. Morier—Lord Salisbury on Suakin and Zanzibar.

CHAPTER V

1889 pp. 461–548

The Queen's aspirations—Sir R. Morier and the German Press—Queen and her Ambassador—King of Portugal and a Demerara death sentence—Bismarckian perfidy—Prince Alexander's marriage and retirement—Pigott at the Commission—Forgery of "letter" exposed—Queen and "Count Hartenau"—Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Gladstone—Queen and Lobengula's Indunas—Lord Salisbury on William II—Queen visits Spanish Queen Regent—Emperor William and Empress Frederick—Prince of Wales's grievances against Emperor William—Emperor and Prince Christian's negotiation—Lady Ely resigns—Queen at Sandringham—Henry Irving and Ellen Terry—Mr. Parnell at the Commission—Constitution Hill—Lord Salisbury and Royal controversy—Duke of Connaught on India—Queen attacked by rheumatism—Queen Hon. Colonel of Garde Dragoner—Emperor Admiral-of-the-Fleet—Lord Fife to marry Princess Louise of Wales—Shah visits Queen at Windsor—Proposed Vote for Queen's Grandchildren—Committee appointed—Queen indignant at certain names—Lord Salisbury explains—Mr. Gladstone's support of grant—British South Africa Company—Queen and religious riots in India—Limitation of grant to Prince of Wales's children—Emperor at Osborne—Reviews in his honour—Emperor's thanks—Sentence on Mrs. Maybrick—Queen in Wales—Prince Bismarck to the Queen—King Carlos succeeds King Louis in Portugal—Emperor at Athens—Revolution in Brazil—Mr. H. M. Stanley at Bagamoyo—Does Dr. Davidson desire to be a bishop?—Views of Archbishop Benson and Dr. Vaughan—Bishop Lightfoot dead—Lord Salisbury ill—Col. Euan Smith on Mr. Stanley.

CHAPTER VI

1890 pp. 549–668

Destruction of Laeken by fire—Queen and Archbishop Benson—Lord Salisbury on bishops—Dean Davidson's advice—Queen's views—Duke of Cambridge and the Army—Queen's "Golden Bridal Day"—Prince Bismarck and Emperor William—Lord Wolseley and Mr. Stanhope—Mr. Parnell and the Crimes Act—Labour Conference at Berlin

CONTENTS

xv

—Queen on Lord Wolseley—Debate on Report of Parnell Commission—Queen on Report of Hartington Commission—Dr. Westcott to succeed Dr. Lightfoot—Resignation of Prince Bismarck—Queen’s views on Army Reform—Emperor and Prince Bismarck—Discussion of Hartington Report—Queen at Aix—Archbishop of Chambéry’s Address—Duke of Cambridge as Commander-in-Chief—Sir William Mackinnon on Uganda—Queen and Commander-in-Chief—Queen and Emperor at Darmstadt—Queen and Duke of Connaught’s claims—Mr. H. M. Stanley at Windsor—Lord Wolseley and Sir F. Roberts—Queen and Queen Isabella—Queen’s Birthday, Emperor William and King Leopold—U.S.A. and Behring Sea—Negotiations with Germany about East Africa—The Stevenson Road—Queen approves firmness—Mr. Stanhope on Sir F. Roberts, Lord Wolseley, and Sir R. Buller—Mr. Smith’s ill-health—Suggestion to exchange Heligoland—Deprecated by the Queen—Accepted by Cabinet—Equivalent being Zanzibar and Kenya—Reluctantly approved by Queen—Death of Lady Ely—Resignation of Mr. Monro from Police—Sir E. Bradford his successor—Queen’s confidence in Lord Salisbury—Prime Minister and Cabinet—Police Strike—Parliament and Heligoland—Sir F. Roberts and Indian Command—Duke of Connaught and Military Posts—Lord Wolseley’s opinion—Emperor William at Osborne—Duke of Connaught an Army reformer—Queen and Lord Salisbury on bishoprics—Dr. Davidson’s value—Queen’s correspondence with Archbishop Benson—Death of Canon Liddon—Prince George in Canada—Bishopric for Dr. Davidson—Queen of Roumania at Balmoral—Lord Salisbury on Dr. Davidson—Queen and Portugal—An impromptu dance at Balmoral—Dr. Davidson and the Queen—Mr. Gladstone in Midlothian—King Carlos and Queen—Death of Mrs. Grey—And of Lady Rosebery—And of King William III of the Netherlands—Mr. Parnell’s divorce—Mr. Gladstone’s letter—Split in Irish Party—Queen’s appreciation of Mr. Smith—Committee Room No. 15—Queen and Queen Emma—Lord Salisbury and Mr. Matthews—Mr. McCarthy new Irish Leader—Lord Rosebery and the Queen—Precedence in India during Cesarewitch’s visit—Archbishopric of York—Dr. Magee—New Zealand and the Queen.

INDEX pp. 669–688