

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07784-2 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 9: 1896–1901

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER XII

1896 pp. 1–110

The Jameson Raid—Mr. Chamberlain's action—Kaiser's telegram to President Kruger—Queen's indignation—And Prince of Wales's—Queen's letter to Kaiser—Mr. Rhodes resigns Cape Premiership—Sir H. Robinson in Pretoria—Queen's message to Mr. Kruger—Flying Squadron mobilised—Lord Wolseley's views—Mr. Goschen explains Flying Squadron—Kaiser's reply to Queen—Question of suzerainty—Prince Henry of Battenberg ill—Lord Salisbury on Kaiser—Great Britain and Alliances—King Leopold and Lord Salisbury—Death of Prince Henry—Queen's grief—Dr. Jameson and his officers—Royal Victorian Order—Prince Henry's body brought home in warship—Queen and Thames floods—Nile advance sanctioned—Debate in Commons—Queen and Emperor of Austria—Government Education Bill—England and Russia—Death sentences at Pretoria—Remitted after protest—Queen on education—Lord Roberts's Warrior Charger—Troubles of Queen Maria Christina—Coronation at Moscow—Followed by disaster—Debate on Jameson Raid—Battle of Firket—Cabinet and Mr. Rhodes—Education Bill to be dropped—Queen's protest—But Cabinet persist—Commons and Chartered Company—Greece and Crete—Li Hung Chang at Osborne—Queen and Lord Wolseley on Indian Army—Dr. Jameson's officers deprived of their commissions—Queen's eyesight—Crisis at Zanzibar—Death of Prince Lobanoff—Queen's Hindustani lessons—Queen on Mr. Balfour—Mr. Chamberlain on America—Bishop Davidson on Queen's reign—Tsar at Balmoral—Queen reigns longer than any predecessor—Dongola reoccupied—Conversations with Tsar—Queen and Prince "David" of York—Lord Salisbury and Tsar—An early "moving picture"—Visit of Tsar to France—Death of Archbishop Benson—Queen's sympathy—Lord Salisbury on choice of successor—Queen's views—

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07784-2 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 9: 1896–1901

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

ix

Dr. Temple new Archbishop—Dr. Creighton for see of London—Venezuela difficulty approaching settlement—Dr. Jameson released—Kaiser's seasonable wishes.

CHAPTER XIII

1897 pp. 111–218

Plague in Bombay—Kaiser and the Jubilee—New battalions and new conditions for the Guards—Coventry and the Jubilee—Lord Mayor and the Jubilee—Greece and the Powers—The Prince and London hospitals—"Diamond Jubilee"—Lord Salisbury's suggestions—Sir Alfred Milner for South Africa—No crowned heads asked for Jubilee—Proposals for outdoor service before St. Paul's—Autonomy suggested for Crete—India and the Jubilee—Germany violent against Greece—Empress Frederick's views—Lord Salisbury's comment—Queen appeals to King of Denmark—Definite policy adopted—Dr. Davidson on Jubilee arrangements—Queen meets President Faure—Powers blockade Crete—Queen sees Emperor Francis Joseph—Sir Arthur Sullivan and Jubilee music—Turko-Greek War—Sarah Bernhardt acts before the Queen—Defeat of Greeks—Queen appeals to Tsar—And brings pressure on King of Greece—Charity bazaar catastrophe in Paris—Queen telegraphs to Kaiser about armistice—His "rude" answer—Queen urges Greece to yield—Orders sent to recall Greek troops from Crete—Australia and Federation—Queen's birthday—Colonial troops for Jubilee—Colonial Premiers to be Privy Councillors—Prince of Wales and Jubilee—Service in St. George's Chapel—Queen goes to London—Hearty reception—Greeting of family and guests—Jubilee Day—The procession through London—Enthusiastic welcome—Service outside St. Paul's—Return south of the Thames—Indian celebrations—And earthquakes—Congratulatory letters—Addresses from both Houses—Welcome by children in Hyde Park—Return to Windsor—Review of Colonial troops—Party for House of Commons at Windsor—Bishop Creighton's impressions of the Jubilee—Duke of Connaught's military claims—Commons debate on South Africa—What order for King of Siam?—His reception at Osborne—Jubilee expenses—Duke and Duchess of York's visit to Ireland—The Nizam and the Queen—Indian frontier fighting—Queen's anxiety—Affection and respect for "Georgie and May"—Queen and her native

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07784-2 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 9: 1896–1901

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

x

CONTENTS

troops—Death of Duchess of Teck—Jubilee Institute of Nurses—Queen and military reform—A Cabinet Committee—Scheme accepted by Cabinet—Queen not satisfied—Lord Elgin justifies frontier wars—A Colonial Premier and the Queen's portrait.

CHAPTER XIV

1898 pp. 219–327

“Matured soldiers”—Queen and the Press—The next Viceroy—Queen and Rev. Cosmo Lang—Queen and convents—New Zealand and Duke of York—The Duke and U.S. Navy—Duke of Norfolk on convents—Appeal from Queen Maria Christina—Port Arthur and Wei-hai-wei—Cabinet and Russia—Spain and United States—President Faure and Queen's portrait—Battle of Atbara—M. Faure visits Queen—Netherlands Queen at Cimiez—Honours for native Indians—Death of Mr. Gladstone—Queen's sympathy—Prince of Montenegro at Balmoral—Funeral of Mr. Gladstone—Queen on Viceroy's duties—Queen and Dr. Jameson's officers—Debate on foreign policy—Speech by Mr. Chamberlain—Kaiser and England—Injury to Prince of Wales's leg—Lord Salisbury and Mr. Chamberlain—Policy in the Punjab—And on the Nile—Queen visits Prince of Wales—Lord Salisbury and the Kaiser—Queen and the phonograph—Spain and Gibraltar—Queen and Sir R. Warburton—Lord Curzon and frontier policy—Queen and Council of India—Queen Maria Christina and Gibraltar—Mr. Balfour's representations—Queen Wilhelmina comes of age—Battle of Omdurman—Kaiser's congratulations—Service at Khartoum—Peerage for Sir H. Kitchener—Outbreak in Crete—Empress of Austria assassinated—Lord Salisbury on Gibraltar—Queen and Queen Maria Christina—The Powers and Crete—Sir H. Kitchener up the White Nile—Finds M. Marchand at Fashoda—Hoists flag and returns to Khartoum—Death of Queen of Denmark—Deadlock in Anglo-French negotiations—Lord Salisbury and French Ambassador—Queen and Army Bandmasters—Sir E. Bradford on anarchist peril—Mr. Morley and the Life of Gladstone—Queen's views—Queen and Mecca pilgrimages—Fashoda negotiations—M. Marchand at Khartoum—Russia and France—Queen and India Office—H.M.'s anxiety about Anglo-French relations—Lord Kitchener at Balmoral—Fashoda to be evacuated—Queen congratulates Lord Salisbury—King Menelek and Queen's phonograph—Bandmasters' commis-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07784-2 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 9: 1896–1901

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

xi

sions—Queen and Lord Kitchener at Netley—M. Cambon succeeds M. de Courcel as Ambassador—Death of Sir William Jenner—Health of troops in Soudan—Lord Salisbury on War Office—Kaiser and the Queen—Lord Dufferin on England's eminent position—Mr. Chamberlain and Colonial Governors.

CHAPTER XV

1899 pp. 328–451

Gordon Memorial College at Khartoum—President Faure and the Queen—Sir W. Harcourt and Protestantism—Kaiser's fortieth birthday—Death of Prince Alfred of Coburg—Difficulties about Bandmasters' commissions—Sir H. C. Bannerman as Liberal leader—Death of President Faure—Queen, Tsar, and Kaiser—Progress of Australian Federation—C.-in-C. and discipline of the Army—Queen's anxiety—Coburg succession—Mr. Rhodes and the Kaiser—Destruction of Mahdi's tomb—Correspondence between Lord Kitchener and the Queen—Queen and Lord Salisbury on Army discipline—Duke of Connaught and Coburg—Kaiser on Coburg—And on Lord Salisbury—French feeling for the Queen—Petition of Transvaal Uitlanders—Memorandum by Queen on C.-in-C.'s position—Seven-day journalism—Views of Dr. Temple and Dr. Davidson—Lord Salisbury's advice to Queen—H.M.'s views—Lord Salisbury persists—Queen's eightieth birthday—Kaiser and Samoa—Complains to Queen of Lord Salisbury—Lord Salisbury's reply—Queen's letter to Kaiser—Cabinet and Transvaal—Seven-day journalism abandoned—Queen's anxiety about Transvaal—Duke of Albany for Coburg—The Dreyfus affair—Debate on Transvaal—Lord Salisbury and our position abroad—Queen Wilhelmina on fear of war—Dreyfus condemned by Rennes Court-martial—Queen's indignation—Military preparations in S. Africa—Dreyfus liberated—British demands refused by Boers—Reserve called out—Parliament summoned—England abused by French press—Army in S. Africa to reach 70,000 men—Queen sees Sir Redvers Buller, their commander—Ultimatum by Boer Government—British Colonies invaded—Mr. Chamberlain's views—War strongly supported in Parliament—Queen on suggested taxation—And on successful mobilisation—Anxious situation in Natal—Loyalty of Canada, Australia, and New Zealand—Sir G. White shut up in Ladysmith—Samoan agreement with Germany—Bandmasters' commis-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07784-2 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 9: 1896–1901

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

xii

CONTENTS

sions at last!—Queen inspects Household Cavalry—German Emperor and Empress at Windsor—Death of Lady Salisbury—Queen and Kaiser—Queen and Count Bülow—Khalifa defeated and killed—Emperor and Empress at Sandringham—Queen and Grenadiers—Battle of Modder River—Naval Brigade at Ladysmith—Question of Delagoa Bay—A “black week”—Stormberg, Magersfontein, Colenso—Lord Wolseley on our Generals—Sir R. Buller’s despair about Ladysmith—Directed by Cabinet to persevere—Queen’s spirit—Lord Roberts to command in S. Africa—With Lord Kitchener as Chief of Staff—Sir R. Wingate on the Queen—Tsar’s sympathy—Duke of Connaught and the War—Kaiser’s Christmas letter—Departure of Lord Roberts—Queen’s Christmas tree for wives and children of soldiers—New Year greetings from Kimberley.

CHAPTER XVI

1900 pp. 452–636

Hopes for the New Year—Australia and the Empire—City of London Imperial Volunteers—Severe casualties in officers—Untoward incidents—India and the War—Queen’s chocolate for soldiers—Lord Roberts at the Cape—Australian Federation—Prayers for use in war—Spion Kop—Lord Roberts’s plan—Military measures—The Queen’s urgency—Fleet and mobilisation—Mafeking and the Queen—Criticism of Generals—Debate on war—Kaiser’s advice—Queen and native forces—Relief of Kimberley—Capitulation of General Cronje—Relief of Ladysmith—Congratulatory—Queen’s telegrams—Creation of Irish Guards—Queen going to Ireland—Irish regiments to wear shamrock—Queen and Kaiser—Queen and Houses of Parliament—H.M.’s drives through London—Spontaneous enthusiasm—Queen on terms of peace—Lord Curzon on the war—Lord Roberts in Bloemfontein—Lord Rosebery on Queen’s exertions—Prince of Wales and Paris Exhibition—Congratulatory from Kaiser—Ladies and South Africa—Queen’s entry into Dublin—Cordial welcome—At Viceregal Lodge—Prince shot at in Brussels—Queen, Cabinet, and Lord Roberts on disasters—Queen at Dublin Castle—Queen’s chocolate saves life—H.M.’s activities in Ireland—Spion Kop despatches—Queen’s concern at publication—Memorandum by Lord Lansdowne—Sir G. White at Windsor—Visit of King and Queen of Sweden—Relief of

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-07784-2 - The Letters of Queen Victoria: Volume 9: 1896–1901

Edited by George Earle Buckle

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

xiii

Mafeking—Australian Federation Bill—Queen’s eighty-first birthday—Lord Roberts in Pretoria—“Boxer” rising in China—King Menelek and Queen Taitou—Anxiety about Pekin—Troops and ships for China—Lord Roberts on prospects in S. Africa—Lord Hopetoun for Governor-General of Australia—Khedive at Windsor—Hospitals in S. Africa—Grave news as to Pekin Legations—International forces—Queen’s failing health—Assassination of King Humbert—Death of Duke of Coburg—Queen’s scarves for Colonial soldiers—Relief of Pekin Legations—Parliament to be dissolved—Duke and Duchess of York to visit Australia—Flight of Mr. Kruger—Mr. Goschen to retire—Queen needs rest—Lord Roberts for C.-in-C.—Queen’s disappointment—Duke of Connaught’s claims—Lord Lansdowne to leave War Office—The General Election—Lord Roberts on the situation—Sir R. Buller coming home—The strain on the Queen—Lord Salisbury on changes in Cabinet—Lord Lansdowne for Foreign Office—Mr. Brodrick for War Office—Sanitary condition of Windsor town—King Leopold and Sipido—Death of Prince Christian Victor—Lord Kitchener and Indian command—Queen seriously ill at Windsor—But continues at work—Partial recovery—Inspects Australian troops—Promotion for Lord Kitchener—Disembodiment of militia—Question of enquiry into war—Queen inspects Life Guards—And Canadian troops—Queen’s anxiety about pay and pension of C.-in-C.—Continued illness—H.M.’s thanks to Militia, Yeomanry, and Volunteers—Arrival at Osborne—Progress of illness—Death of Lady Churchill—Bad nights and little food.

CHAPTER XVII

1901 (JANUARY) pp. 637–642

Sad New Year—Queen receives Lord Roberts on his return—And gives him the Garter and an earldom—Sunday service in drawing-room—Decorations for officers—Reception of Mr. Chamberlain—Last days—Final illness and death.

INDEX p. 643

GENEALOGICAL TABLE At end

The descendants of Queen Victoria.