

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

List of Babylonian Kings, with their approximate dates page 9

CHAPTER I.—INTRODUCTION page 13

CHAPTER II.—THE MYTHICAL PERIOD.

Origin and chronology of Babylonian history—The ten antediluvian kings of Berossus—The Flood—The Garden of Eden—The Izdhubar or Nimrod legends page 33

CHAPTER III.—CHALDEA, OR SOUTH BABYLONIA.

Nipur and Ur—Uruk and his buildings—The religion and civilization of Ur—Dungi—The kings of Karrak—The rise of Larsa page 63

CHAPTER IV.—UPPER BABYLONIA.

Cities of Upper Babylonia—Agu-kak-rimi—Sargon I.—Naram-Sin—Hammurabi—Babylon made the capital—The successors of Hammurabi, and the Kassite dynasty—Intercourse with Assyria—The Assyrian conquest of Babylonia page 75

CHAPTER V.—THE ELAMITES IN BABYLONIA.

Elam or Susiana—Invasions of Babylonia by Kudur-nanhundi and Chedorlaomer—Kudur-Mabuk—Flood at Babylon—Wars between Babylon and Assyria—Nebuchadnezzar I. and Maruduk-nadin-ahi—Seven unknown kings page 90

CHAPTER VI.—THE PERIOD OF THE ASSYRIAN WARS.

Obscure kings—Nabu-pal-idina and Assur-nazir-pal—Disputed succession—Conquests of Shalmaneser—The Chaldees—Maruduk-zakir-izkur—Semiramis—The era of Nabonassar—The Babylonian campaigns of Tiglath-pileser page 100

CHAPTER VII.—MERODACH-BALADAN AND THE DESTRUCTION OF BABYLON.

Merodach-baladan, the Chaldean, conquers Babylon—Defeated by Sargon—Sargon king of Babylon for five years—Hagisa—Merodach-baladan retakes Babylon—Battle of Kisu—Belibni governor of Babylon—Assur-nadin-sum—Sennacherib's naval expedition to Nagitu—Revolt of Suzub—Elam devastated by the Assyrians—Battle of Khalule—Destruction of Babylon by Sennacherib. page 115

CHAPTER VIII.—THE RULE OF THE ASSYRIANS.

The successors of Assur-nadin-sum—Nabu-zir-napisti-esir—Babylon rebuilt by Esar-haddon—Succeeded by his son Saulmugina—Wars with Elam—Revolt of Babylonia—Crushed by Assur-bani-pal—Saul-Mugina perishes in the flames of his palace—Nabopolassar appointed governor—He marries the daughter of Cyaxares of Media—The fall of Nineveh page 137

CHAPTER IX.—THE EMPIRE OF NEBUCHADNEZZAR.

Rise of the Babylonian Empire—Egypt and Media—Nebuchadnezzar, his conquests and buildings—Destruction of Jerusalem—Invasion of Egypt—Siege of Tyre—The kingdom of Lydia—Babylon adorned—Character of Nebuchadnezzar—Evil-Merodach—His murder—Nergalsharezer page 152

CHAPTER X.—THE DECLINE AND FALL OF THE BABYLONIAN EMPIRE.

Laborosoarchod—Nabonidus—Babylon fortified—Astyages and Cyrus—Cyrus besieges Babylon—Babylon taken by the Persians—The Darius of Daniel—Return of the Jews from exile—Cambyses and Smerdis—Darius Hystaspes—Revolt and capture of Babylon—Second revolt of Babylon under Arahah—Babylon taken—Decline of Babylon page 170