

C O N T E N T S.

CHAPTER I.

LYDIA.

	Page.
ARRIVAL at Smyrna—Costume—Description of the Town—Casino Ball—Slave-market—Manners of the People—Greek Church —Antiquities—Egyptian Customs—Departure for Magnesia— Caravan Bridge—Natural History on the way—Khan at Mag- nesia—Journey to Thyatira, one of the Seven Churches—its Antiquities	1

CHAPTER II.

MYSIA.

Journey to Sóma—Inscriptions—Proceed to Pergamus—its An- tiquities and Situation—A Khan—Natural History of the Country—Adramyttium—Assos—its Architectural Remains— its Tombs—Manners of the People—Alexandrian Troy—its Ruins—Hot-springs—Stone Quarry with Columns—Enée— Implements and Customs of the Ancients retained—Plains of Troy—Arrival at the Dardanelles—Abydos and its Antiquities	25
---	----

CHAPTER III.

CONSTANTINOPLE.

French Steamboat—Arrival at Constantinople—Climate—De- scription of the City—Bazaars—Change of Costume by the Turks—Habits of the People—Dancing Dervises—Antiquities —The Sultan—his Policy—Situation of the City	84
---	----

CHAPTER IV.

BITHYNIA.

	Page.
Departure from Constantinople—Burial-ground—New Road— Dil Ferry—Manners of the People—The Country—Natural History—Arrival at Nicæa—its Remains—Discovery of In- scription—Pass of the Mountain Léfky—Vizier Khan—Power of the Firman—Sohoót	102

CHAPTER V.

PHRYGIA.

A Forest—Oneóenoo—Singular Caves—Mountains and Table- lands—Curious Geological features—Kootáya—Extraordinary Rocks—Expedition to seek Doganlu—Customs of the People —Æzani—its Antiquities—Inscriptions—Habits of a private Family—Delicacy of the Manners—Departure for Altuntash— Sichanleé—Sandookleé—Dumbóri-ovasy—The Plague—Cat- chíburloo	123
---	-----

CHAPTER VI.

PISIDIA.

Journey to Sparta—Reception of a Governor at his Province— Honesty of the People—Singular Pass of the Mountains— Alaysoón—Ruins of Sagalassus—Natural History.	162
--	-----

CHAPTER VII.

PAMPHYLIA.

Arrival at Booják—Visit to the Ruins of a splendid City, probably Selge—Beérmargy—Descent of the Taurus range—Plains of Pamphylia—Adalia—Visit to the Pasha—Botany—Excursion
--	--

CONTENTS. ix

	Page.
to ancient Cities, probably Perge, Isionda, Pednelissus, Syl- lium, Side, and Aspendus—Return to Adalia—Domestic man- ners of a Greek Family—Departure	171

CHAPTER VIII.

LYCIA.

Voyage to Phaselis—Olympus—Phineka Bay—State of the Pea- santry—Passage of the Mountains to Antiphellus—Ruins of Patara—City of Xanthus—Inscriptions and curious Sculpture —Tombs—Cottage—Ancient Customs preserved—Explore the Valley of the Xanthus—Ancient City of Tlos—Greek Su- perstitions—Horses of the country—Mácry, the ancient Tel- messus—Curious Tombs cut in the rocks	209
--	-----

CHAPTER IX.

CARIA.

Route by Dollomón, Koógez, Hoóla—Variation of Season— Moóla—Gipsies—Stratoniceia—its Ruins and Inscriptions— Mylasa—Primitive mode of felling timber—Labranda—Kizzle- jik and Báffy to Miletus—its Ruins—Inhospitability of the Pea- santry—afterwards explained	247
--	-----

CHAPTER X.

SOUTH OF LYDIA.

Priene—Sansoón—Thunder-storm—Natural History—Chánly— Scala Nuova—Ephesus—its Remains—Idín, the ancient Tralles —A Market-day—Valley of the Mæander	268
--	-----

CHAPTER XI.

PART OF THE WEST OF PHRYGIA.

Caroura—Valley of the Lycus—Laodiceia—Remains—Hiera- polis—its Ruins—Curious Hot-springs—Vultures	279
--	-----

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER XII.

LYDIA.

	Page.
Aneghoól — Philadelphia — Opium-gathering — Sardis—its Remains—Cavalcades of Travellers—Camels—Cassabá—Return to Smyrna—RETROSPECT—The People—Climate—Scenery ..	287

SUPPLEMENTARY CHAPTER.

REMARKS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF TRAVELLERS	304
--	-----

APPENDIX.

Appendix A.—Remarks on Greek Inscriptions	311
Appendix B.—Ancient and Modern Customs compared	333
INDEX	341
LIST OF PLACES mentioned in the Journal, as pronounced by the people, and as written by the Royal Geographical Society	345