

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

- ABSTINENCE, Napoleon's, ii. 257
Accouchement of the Countess Bertrand, i. 338
 _____ of Marie Louise, ii. 367
Adamant, arrival of, i. 317
Admiralty, English, i. 483
Albuera, battle of, ii. 194
Alexander, emperor of Russia, his character, i. 228, 248. His views on Turkey, 382. Asks Napoleon's advice respecting the conduct of his ambassador in China, 510. His attention to military trifles, ii. 48. Proposes that Napoleon should marry his sister, 159
Alexandria, i. 375
Algerines, i. 171, 306, 502
Allies, their declaration at Vienna, ii. 481
Ambassadors, not the representatives of sovereigns, ii. 175
 _____ Persian, anecdote of, ii. 292
Amherst, lord, his embassy to China, i. 469. Ought to have gone through the Ko-tou, 475, 509. ii. 68. Arrives at St. Helena, and visits Napoleon, 112. The emperor's opinion of his embassy, 174
Amiens, the treaty of, first violated by the English, ii. 21
Anecdotes, i. 35, 58, 105, 124, 180, 322, 429, 435, 488, 496. ii. 4, 5, 35, 36, 65, 118, 124, 146, 172, 154, 219, 220, 268, 292, 300, 348, 361, 369
Anglesea, marquis of, wounded at Waterloo, ii. 162
Angoulême, duc d', ii. 392
 _____ duchess of, i. 487
Antommarchi, Dr., his letter to Signor S. Colonna, ii. 498
Archambaud, i. 165
Arcola, ii. 2, 226
Aristocracy, English, condemned by Napoleon, i. 478. ii. 252, 380

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

530

INDEX.

- Army, Napoleon's confidence in, ii. 268
- Artois, count d', his conduct at Lyons, i. 104. His escape, ii. 270
- Assassination, defended by Talleyrand, ii. 191
- Napoleon's few precautions against, ii. 225
- fears of at Longwood, ii. 272
- of General Duphot, ii. 353
- Assassination (intended) of Napoleon, i. 339, 341, 344, 345, 354, 449, 461
- of Joseph Bonaparte, ii. 310
- of Saliceti, ii. 312
- of Sir H. Lowe, ii. 390
- Atheism, denied by Napoleon, i. 444
- Austerlitz, battle of, i. 225
- Austria, the emperor of, his private understanding with Napoleon after the return from Elba, i. 297. His character, ii. 9. Forbids the murder of Napoleon, 42. Implores pardon of Napoleon, 43. His ideas of high birth, 296
- BAGGAGE, excess of in the English armies, ii. 50
- Baildon, Dr., ii. 443
- Balcombe, Mr., i. 425. ii. 103
- Mrs., i. 385, 415
- Misses, i. 385, 415
- Balmaine, count, i. 168, 475, 511. ii. 14, 295
- Balston, captain, ii. 89
- Bankruptcy, national, ii. 189
- Barber, Mr., ii. 373
- Baring, gunner of the, ii. 98, 102, 108, 114, 464
- Baring, Mr., letter of his firm to Bertrand, ii. 180
- Barras, character of, i. 188. ii. 171, 225. Made general in chief by the convention, 361
- Barrère, ii. 171.
- Bathurst, lord, i. 19. ii. 75, 142, 397, 445
- Bavarians, defection of, ii. 394
- Baxter, Mr., i. 278, 285, 286
- Beauharnois, Eugene, his first interview with Napoleon, i. 180
- Bed-room, Napoleon's, described, i. 40
- Beet-root, sugar from, i. 423
- Belgians, attached to Napoleon, i. 424
- Belgium, ii. 56
- Bergen-op-Zoom, siege of, ii. 194
- Berri, duke de, i. 417
- Bernadotte, ii. 43, 364
- Bernstorff, his despatches opened, ii. 288

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

531

- Bertrand, count, accompanies Napoleon to St. Helena, i. 2. Takes up his abode at Hut's Gate, 17. Receives a visit from Sir H. Lowe respecting the necessity of Napoleon being daily seen by some British officer, 38. Condemned to death by the French government, 81. Removes to Longwood, 169. His brother no longer an exile, 425. Bill drawn by him for Sir H. Lowe's approval, 426. Receives a letter from Messrs. Baring and Co. ii. 180. Wishes for a certificate of life for the countess, 184. Letter to Sir H. Lowe respecting Mr. Elphinstone's presents, 461. To the gunner of the Baring, 464. To Sir H. Lowe respecting the grievances at Longwood, 471. To Cardinal Fesch, 478. To Lord Liverpool, 502.
- countess, i. 17. Her accouchement, 338
- Bessière, Madame la Maréchal, i. 454
- Bingham, Sir George, i. 244
- lady, i. 434
- Blacas, i. 225, 486, 489
- Blakeney, captain, ii. 210
- Blucher, character of, i. 200. His contempt for the French, 429. Saved by his Cossacs, 429
- Bonaparte, Buonaventura, ii. 297
- Joseph, i. 232, 359, 360. ii. 310
- Lucien, ii. 291, 293
- Napoleon, leaves the Bellerophon for the Northumberland, i. 1. His habits during the voyage to St. Helena, 7. Arrival at St. Helena, 8. Residence at the Briars, 11. Removes to Longwood, 15. Begins to write his memoirs, 17. Generosity to an old Malay, 19. Space allotted for his walks, 20. Precautions against his escape, 21. His opinion of Murat, 24. Of Miss Williams's "Present State of France," 24. His hours of rising, 24. Habits at Longwood, 25. Refuses to see Sir Hudson Lowe, 27. Subsequent interview with Sir Hudson, 28. Opinion of Sir G. Cockburn, 29 and 34. Disapproves of, and alters, the paper sent for the signature of his friends, 31. His aversion to St. Helena, 33. Interview with Captain Hamilton, 33. With Colonel and Miss Wilks, 34. Anecdote of Corvisart, 35. Reproaches the English government for sending out ships without chronometers, 36. Questions O'Meara as to his precise situation, relative to himself, 47. His opinion of Sir H. Lowe, 43, 48, 94, 128, 163, 170, 211, 229, 235, 244, 248, 279, 284, 297, 301, 357, 443, 445, 456. ii. 141, 187, 262, 345. Apprehensions of the gout, i. 45. Affected with catarrhal symptoms, 48. Character of Sir J. Moore, 55. Of Kleber, 56. Account of Villeneuve and of his death, 56. Character of Barré, 57. Anecdotes in proof

2 M 2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

of the poverty of St. Helena, 58. His practice in case of malady, 60. His opinions respecting marriage, 60. Conversation respecting Warden, 61. His idea of necessary improvements in London, 62. His opinion of Sir P. Malcolm, 65. Of Lord Holland, 66. Receives Mr. Baxter, 68. His toilette, 82. Complains of a pain in his right side, 83. Receives Colonel Keating, 84. Rides out for the first time for eight weeks, 88. His birth-day, 89. His conversation with Sir H. Lowe, 94. His opinion of Sarazin, 96. Writes a letter to the English government, complaining of Sir H. Lowe, 101. Complains of being deprived of the newspapers, 101. Character of the king of Prussia, 102. Of the Bourbons, 103. Anecdote of an old woman, 105. Character of Soult, 105. Wishes to send sealed letters to bankers in Paris or London, 109. Orders his plate to be broken up for sale, 120. His intended mode of living in England, 125. Praise of Prince Leopold, 138. Number of his establishment reduced, 141. His declaration, 157. His reasons for retaining the title of emperor, 161. Characters of Savary and Fouché, 163. His idea of national titles, 164. One of his cheeks tumefied, 170. Of the Algerines, 171. Of the Neapolitans, 171. Of the English national debt, 172. Of the English as soldiers, 173. Of the battle of Waterloo, 174. Of Wellington, 175. Of Pitt's politics, 176. Of the English seamen, 177. Of the French seamen, 177. Of the American, 178. Seriously indisposed, 178. Recovers, 179. Of the Empress Josephine, 179. Of Eugene Beauharnois, 180. Indisposed, 180. Refuses medicine, 181. His reason for encouraging the Jews, 183. Of the freemasons, 185. Of Carnot, 187. Of Barras, 188. Of the Poles, 190. His intention of crowning Poniatowsky, 191. His march to Moscow, 191. Abode there, 193. Of the conflagration, 194. Of religion, 197. Of man, 198. Confesses himself a Predestinarian, 199. Of Blucher, 200. Of the English soldiers, 200. Of the Italians, 202. Of the Prussians, Russians, and Germans, 202. Of Prince Charles, 203. Of Schwartzberg, 203. Of General O'Hara, 203. Of the siege of Toulon, 203. Of the Neapolitans, 206. His private understanding with the Emperor of Austria after the return from Elba, 206. Always willing to make peace with England, 207. His character of Sir Sydney Smith, 209. Challenged by Sir S. Smith, 210. Of his intentions with regard to Spain, 210. Opinion of Talleyrand, 214. Account of Duroc, 219. Anxiety for Las Cases, 225. Of the distresses in England, 226. Of the King of Saxony, 228. Of the King of Bavaria, 228. Of Alexander, 229. Fears for his memoirs, 229. Opinion of his brother

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

533

Joseph, 232. His concern for O'Meara, 233. Wishes Las Cases to leave St. Helena, 234. Opinion of Desaix, Kleber, Soult, Moreau, 237. Of Lasnes, 238. Of Massena, 239. Of Pichegru, 240. Recounts his early life, 249. Denies having ever offered his services to England, 250. Of Gen. Paoli, 259. Of the English expedition to Copenhagen, 254. Of the English smugglers, 252. Of the expedition to Walcheren, 254. Of Robespierre, 259. Of the situation of England, 260. Of the probability of a revolution in France, 272. Of Georges' conspiracy, 273. Of Moreau's death, 274. Of St. Priest's death, 275. Narrow escape on the island of Lobau, 276. Attack of nervous fever, 276. Wishes his body to be burnt, 277. Character of Pozzo di Borgo, 290. Desires to have an interview with Las Cases before his departure, 291. Protests against Sir H. Lowe's conduct, 295. Presents O'Meara with a snuff-box, 303. Of the attack on Algiers, 306. Of Nelson, 308. Of the treatment of the French prisoners, 323. Of the detainment of the English travellers, 326. Of Miot, 328. Reply to the charge of poisoning his sick, and causing four thousand Turks to be shot at Jaffa, 329. Visits Countess Bertrand, 338. Account of Ceracchi's conspiracy, 339. Of the infernal machine, 340. Of the attempt to assassinate him at Schöenbrunn, 344. Of a similar attempt against him, in his own chapel, 345. Intended to invade England, 349. Opinion of the canaille, 351. Would abolish flogging in the navy, 351. More national spirit in England than in France, 352. Proposed a commercial treaty with England, 353. Had not aimed at universal dominion, 354. His mode of paying off the English national debt, 354. Of Catholic emancipation, 355. Anger towards Sir H. Lowe for having accepted Admiral Malcolm's intermediation, and then not moving in the business, 357. Message to Sir H. Lowe, 358. Disputes with Sir H. Lowe, respecting his restrictions, 358, 360, 368. Complains of the English, 369. Disputes respecting the restrictions, 371. His belief in fatality, 373. The English should have retained possession of Alexandria, 375. Letter to the Emperor Paul, 378. Of his assassination, 379. Agreement with him to invade India, 381. Danger to India from the Russians, 381. Anxiety for Count Montholon, 383. Of Grouchy, 385. Of Soult, 386. Of Ney, 386. Of Mouton Duvernet, 387. Was the sovereign of the people, 388. The English guided by interest, 389. Remarks upon Longwood, 390. The means of extricating England from her difficulties, 395. Of Sir H. Lowe's cruelty, 396. Of Carnot, 400. Of Clarke, 400. His intentions towards England, 402. Denies having expressed any

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

abhorrence of the English uniform, 402. Asks O'Meara his opinion of himself, 403. Denies having ever committed any crimes, 404. His mode of acting, 404. Of Warden's book, 416. Exposes its errors, 416. Of the prisoners at Jaffa, 416. Of Wright, 417. Of Lord Castlereagh, 421. Of Talleyrand, 421. Of the means of relieving the commercial distresses of England, 423. France would have been independent of colonial produce, 423. The Belgians attached to him, 424. Nearly taken prisoner by the Uhlans, 427. People more anxious to learn the sottises than the qualities of a great man, 430. The answers sent up by Sir H. Lowe full of imbecility, 434. Of Talleyrand, 434. Of the report of his having turned Mahometan, 436. His contest with the Imans, 436. His plans for making canals in Egypt, 438. Of Menou, 439. Of the 13th of Vendémiaire, 440. Of the French bulletins, 442. Of the English ministry, 442. Of Talleyrand's mission to Warsaw, 447. Of Ney, 447. Of Lavalette, 449. Of Pichegru's conspiracy, 449. Of Madame Montholon, 456. Complains of swellings in his legs, 456. Of Pichon, Chateaubriand, &c., 456. Of Fox, 458. Of his treatment at Elba, 461. Of Ferdinand of Spain, 461. Of Josephine, 461. Of Waterloo, 463. Of Wellington, 463. His contempt for libels, 466. Of Goldsmith, Pichon, and the Quarterly Review, 467. Of his marriages, 467. Intentions with respect to England, 469. Of Lord Amherst's embassy, 471. Refuses to see Lord Amherst, if presented by Sir H. Lowe, 472. Of the plague, 473. Of the English manufactures, 473. His encouragement to French trade, 474. Of Lord Amherst's embassy, 475. Of his departure from Egypt, 476. Conversation with Captain Cook and Mr. Mackenzie, 477. Liked by the English sailors, 478. Of Waterloo and Wellington, 479. Of the English national spirit, 481. Of Good Friday, 481. His oath at his coronation, 481. Of Hoche, 482. Of the English admiralty, 483. Of French and English liberty, 484. Of Lord Castlereagh, 486. Of Blacas's forgery, 486. Of Louis, 487. Of Mademoiselle Raucour, 488. Made the burial grounds independent of the friars, 489. Would not consent to the peace of Chatillon, 490. Of Davoust, Suchet, and Massena, 492. Of Clausel, Gérard, and Soult, 493. Of Cornwallis, 496. Asylum in England offered to him by Lord Castlereagh, 497. Of Baron Stein, 498. His power to destroy Prussia and Austria, 499. Of Metternich, 499. Lord Whitworth's interview with him, 500. The machiavelism of the English Ministry, 502. His dislike to the pirates of Algiers and Tunis, 502. Of Lord Exmouth, 503. Assisted in the passage of the Meuse by the English seamen, 505. His guard

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

535

formed by them at Elba, 507. Delighted with the races, 507. The English ought to have submitted to the Chinese etiquette, 510. His advice to the Emperor of Russia on the same subject, 510. Refuses his consent to Talleyrand's proposal of procuring the assassination of the Bourbons, 510. Employed in writing an account of the seven years' war of the Great Frederick, 511. His opinion of medicine, ii. 2. Anecdote of the Marseillois, 4. Prohibited the making of eunuchs under pain of death, 7. His habits of business, 9. Opinion of the Emperor of Austria, 9. Of the Corsicans, 12. Continues to write his observations on the works of Frederick the Great, 15. Of the Corsicans, 17. Of Sir H. Lowe, 18. Of the French prisoners in England, 19. Of the attack by the English on Copenhagen, 20. Of the seizure of the Spanish frigates, 19. The peace of Amiens violated by the English, 21. The English offer to assist in making him King of France, on condition of his surrendering to them Malta, 21. Of Captain Wright, 24. Of the French and English prisoners, 26. Of the Princess of Wales, 32. Of Prince Leopold, 33. Of the plots against his life, 33. Of the Venetians, 36. Of Count D'Entraigues, 36. Of Moreau, 40. Of Pichegru's plot, 41. Of the Emperor of Austria, 42. Of Bernadotte, 43. Of Brueys, 44. Of the French and English sailors, 47. Of the Emperor Alexander, and the king of Prussia, 48. Of the English armies, 50. Of the English cavalry, 51. Of Russia, 53. Of the Emperor Paul, 53. His own final intentions in regard to Europe, 56. Of the Duke d'Enghien, 59. Of Pichegru, 59. Of Cromwell, 59. Of Madame de Stäel, 65. Of the embassy to China, 68. Of the proper policy of England, 69—77. Of the French prisoners, 84. Of Santini, 92. Anxiety to possess his son's bust, 98. Character of his mother, 100. Of Josephine, 101. Of Murat, 104. Of the Neapolitans, 105. Possibility of his remaining in France after the battle of Waterloo, 106. His title to the crown of France, 113. Visit from Lord Amherst, 117. His general policy, 120. Of Wurmser, 124. His precautions against the plague at Jaffa, 128. Letter to Sir H. Lowe, 130. Message to Sir H. Lowe, 132. Thinks that he is harshly treated, that he may be driven to suicide, 142. Reply to Lord Bathurst's speech, 142. Of Poussilgue, 145. Of the Mamelukes, 146. His birth-day, 146. Anecdote of two English sailors, 146. Of the Prince of Orange, 146. Of the Queen of Prussia, 150. Malta the fittest place for his abode, 151. His wish to visit England incognito, 154. His plan to attack the allies in Paris, 157. Alexander's wish that he should marry his sister, 159. Of Narbonne, 160. Nearly

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

taken prisoner at Waterloo, 161. Of the concordat with the Pope, 165. Of Spain, 166. His History of Corsica, 169. His prize-essay at Lyons, 168. Of Robespierre, 169. Of Marat, 170. Of Hebert, Chaumette, Collot d'Herbois, 170. Of Marie Antoinette, 172. Anecdote of Sieyes, 172. Of the embassy to China, 174. Of Captain Wright, 181. Of Sir S. Smith, 182. Of Lord Wellington, 184. Of the means of relieving the distress of England, 189. Of English manners, 192. Of Marshal Jourdan and the battle of Albuera, 194. Of Wellington's mode of carrying on sieges, 194. Conversation with Admiral Plampin respecting naval affairs, 196. His intended invasion of India, 197. Of Surinam, 201. Of the pontons, 202. Of the Manuscrit venu de Ste. Hélène, 204. Of Sir H. Lowe's offer to build him a new house, 206. Of Mr. Boys, 211. Of the English Catholics, 211. Much pleased with the races, 213. Of Miss G **, 209. Persists in staying at home to avoid insults, 223. Of the Edinburgh Review, 225. Takes no precautions against assassination, 225. Nearly drowned when a boy, 227. His property seized by **, 228. Of the talents requisite for a good general, 229. Of earthquakes, 232. Of the proper policy of the English in regard to India, 232. Seriously indisposed, 235. Of patron saints, 246. Anecdote of an Italian priest, 247. Of medical men, 248. Anecdote of Sieyes, 250. Of Larrey, 251. His dislike to medicine, 256. His abstinence, 257. Communicates his wishes to Sir H. Lowe through Bertrand, 264. Of his reception by the French on his return from Italy, 267. His confidence in the French army, 268. Refuses to be styled General Bonaparte, 273. Refuses the advice of O'Meara, 279. His grief at his son's being disinherited from the succession to the Duchies of Parma, &c., 285. His feelings when in private, 286. Of the London post-office, 286. Of Lord Cochrane, 291. Anecdote of a Persian ambassador in Paris, 292. Of Lucien, 293. Of his foster-brother, 294. Of Talma, 295. His wishes respecting his body after death, 338. Disapprobation of the English custom of shutting up shops on Sunday, 344. Refuses to see Mr. Baxter, 346. Anecdote of Richelieu, 348. Of his having been generally acknowledged emperor, 350. Of the treaty of Tolentino, 353. Of the Venetians, 355. The convention saved by him, 359. His humanity to his soldiers, 361. His conduct to Col. Pepin, 361. Of Marie Louise, 367. His respect for the laws, 369. Of his marriage, 370. His plans against England, 378. His government in France, 384. His admiration of Corneille, 391. His opinion of Maitland, 392. Causes of his downfall, 393. Of the cam-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

537

- paign of 1813, 393. Letter to the empress in favour of O'Meara, 417. Presents to O'Meara, 417. His proposal to assume the incognito, 459. His protest, 483. Lettre adressée au Comte de Las Cases, 510. His declaration, 514. Proposed inscription on his tomb-stone, 528
- Bonvivant, ii. 369
- Bourbons, i. 186, 388, 394, 408, 482, 487. ii. 59, 120, 164
- Bouvet de Lozier, i. 451
- Boys, Mr., censured by Napoleon, ii. 210
- Briars (the), account of, i. 10
- Brienne, battle of, i. 421
- Brook, Mr., ii. 184
- Brook's History of St. Helena, extracts from, ii. 433
- Brueys, admiral, ii. 44
- Bulletins, i. 442. ii. 398
- Burdett, Sir Francis, ii. 84
- Bust of young Napoleon, ii. 98, 102, 108, 114
- CAMBRIDGE storeship, ii. 366
- Cambronne, ii. 269
- Campan, Madame, ii. 172
- Campaign of 1813, ii. 393
- Campbell, colonel, i. 460
- captain, ii. 1
- Canaille, i. 351, 427, 440. ii. 379, 385
- Canals, intended by Napoleon in Egypt, i. 438
- Cannes, ii. 268
- Canosa, prince of, ii. 305
- Capri, commanded by Sir H. Lowe, ii. 302. Surrendered by him to the French, 329
- Carnot, sketch of his life, i. 187. Clarke's conduct towards him, 400. His character, ii. 172
- Caroline, queen, ii. 138
- Cassetti, ii. 301
- Castlereagh, lord, i. 260, 394, 395, 401, 421, 459, 468, 486, 497. ii. 158, 164, 221, 352
- Catholics, emancipation of, i. 355. ii. 211, 224
- Cavalry, English, inferior to the French, ii. 51
- Caulaincourt, i. 428, 489. ii. 221
- Ceracchi, his attempt against the life of Napoleon, i. 339.
- Cesar, Napoleon's coachman; i. 343
- Charles, a mulatto, i. 265
- Charles, prince, his character, i. 203
- Charlotte, princess, ii. 146. Her death, 366, 371
- Chateaubriand, i. 457. ii. 16, 363
- Chatham, lord, ii. 22

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

538

INDEX.

- Chatillon, peace of, i. 490. ii. 156
- China, i. 471, 475. ii. 68, 174, 404
 ——— emperor of, his edict, i. 509
- Churchill, Mr., i. 476
 ——— Misses, i. 476
- Ciphers, easily read, ii. 285
- Cipriani, dangerously ill, ii. 386. His death, 389
- Clarke, his conduct to Carnot, i. 400. His character, 400
- Clausel, i. 493
- Cochrane, lord, ii. 291
- Cockburn, Sir George, sails with Napoleon, i. 1. Evening parties, 13. Repairs Longwood, 14. Stations two cruizers off St. Helena, 32. Calls on Gourgaud's mother in Paris, 413. His opinion of Napoleon, 431. His own character by the emperor, ii. 140, 240
- Codicil to Napoleon's will, ii. 339
- Coffee, grows in the South of France, i. 424
- Cole, Mr., ii. 187
- Colonies, English, France independent of their produce, i. 423
- Commerce, distress of the English, i. 395, 423
- Commerce, treaty of, proposed by Napoleon to England, i. 353
- Commissioners, of France, Russia, and Austria, their arrival at St. Helena, i. 63. Sir H. Lowe's aversion to them, ii. 270
- Concordat of the Bourbons with the Pope, ii. 164
- Condorcet, ii. 152
- Congress of Vienna, their determination to send Napoleon from Elba to St. Helena, i. 84
- Conscription, ii. 381
- Conspiracies against Napoleon,
 ——— by Ceracchi, i. 339
 ——— by St. Regent, Imolan, &c. i. 341, 354
 ——— by a young man at Schöenbrunn, i. 354
 ——— by a Saxon, i. 347
 ——— by Pichegru, i. 449
 ——— by the allies, i. 461
- Conspiracy, Napoleon's disregard of, ii. 225
- Convention, in danger, ii. 359. Offer the chief command to Napoleon, 360. Saved by Napoleon, 360
- Cook, captain, i. 477, 479
- Cooper (French) anecdote of, ii. 369
- Copenhagen, the expedition to, i. 251. ii. 20
- Corneille, ii. 391
- Cornwallis, marquis of, i. 496
- Corsica, history of by Napoleon, ii. 163
- Corsicans, their character, ii. 12, 17

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

539

- Corvisart, his character, i. 35. Refuses to attend Louis, 487
 Coster, i. 449
 Cossacs, i. 427, 429
 Courier newspaper, ii. 181
 Crime, Napoleon denies having committed any, i. 404, 468
 Crescentini, ii. 7
 Cromwell, ii. 60
 Curate of St. Roch, i. 488
- D'ANGOULEME, duc, ii. 392
 ————— duchess, i. 487
 D'Artois, count, i. 104. ii. 270
 Daru, count, ii. 35
 David transport, arrival of, i. 391
 Davie, captain, ii. 113
 Davoust, i. 432, 492
 Deadwood, camp at, i. 20, 265. Races at, 507, idem, ii. 212
 Debt, (the national) of England, i. 172, 355, 395
 Declaration of the allies, ii. 481
 Deciphering, (private office for,) in Paris, ii. 288
 Defection of the Bavarians, ii. 394
 Déjeuné de trois Amis, ii. 225
 D'Enghien, duke, i. 335, 417, 450, 468. ii. 59
 Denon, i. 435
 D'Entraigues, count, his arrest by Bernadotte, ii. 37. Betrays the Bourbons, 37. Escapes to Switzerland, 38. Calumniates Napoleon, 38
 Desaix, i. 237, 310. ii. 39
 Desgenettes, his conduct at Jaffa, i. 331
 Desnouettes Lefebvre, i. 254
 Destiny, Napoleon's belief in, i. 199, 373. ii. 4, 5, 6, 226, 256, 261
 Directory, French, their conduct towards Napoleon, ii. 267.
     Corrupted by the Venetians, 355
 Disturbances in England, i. 426
 Dominion, (universal,) not aimed at by Napoleon, i. 354, 461
 Dorset, duchess of, ii. 123
 Douglas, major, i. 210
 Downfall, (Napoleon's) its causes, ii. 398
 Drake, i. 282
 Dubois, ii. 367
 Dugommier, general, high opinion of entertained by Napoleon, i. 251.
 Duphot, general, ii. 353
 Duroc, i. 219. ii. 52

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

540

INDEX

- EDINBURGH Review, ii. 205, 225
 Education, ii. 385
 Egypt, Napoleon's plans for making canals there, i. 438. Reasons for leaving it, 420
 El-Arish, capitulation, ii. 509
 Elba, Napoleon's reasons for quitting it, i. 459
 Ellis, embassy to China, ii. 404
 Elphinstone, Mr., his presents to Napoleon, ii. 117, 461
 Emancipation, catholic, i. 355. ii. 224
 Embassy, Lord Amherst's to China, i. 469, 475, 509. ii. 68, 174
 Emperor, disputes with Napoleon concerning that title, i. 154, 159, 161
 Enghien, duc d', i. 335, 417, 450, 468. ii. 59
 England, i. 226, 260, 349, 411, 423, 426, 461, 469, 474, 497. ii. 77, 155, 189
 English, Napoleon's opinion of them, i. 244, 389. ii. 19. Their dislike of the French, 52. Their detention in France, 57. Their preference of the bottle to women, 193
 English commerce, remedy suggested by Napoleon for its relief, i. 395, 423
 ——— manufactures, i. 473
 ——— national debt, i. 354. ii. 67
 ——— travellers, their detainment in France, i. 326. Will change the English feeling towards Napoleon, 420
 Entraigues, count d', ii. 37, 38
 Escapes, Napoleon's at Arcola, ii. 226. At Toulon, 226. From drowning, 227
 Esling, battle of, ii. 168
 Eunuchs, the making of, prohibited by Napoleon, ii. 6
 Excursion from James's Town to Longwood, description of, ii. 519
 Exmouth, lord, his expedition against Algiers, i, 503
 Expenditure, table of that established at Longwood, ii. 450
 Experiment, her arrival at St. Helena, ii. 74
- FAGAN, colonel, ii. 111
 Fatalism, Napoleon's belief in, i. 199, 373. ii. 4. Anecdote in confirmation of it, 5. Napoleon's belief in it, 6, 226, 256, 261
 Fehrzen, major, ii. 52
 Ferdinand, king of Spain, i. 405, 461. ii. 119, 166
 Fère, (regiment de la) ii. 227
 Festing, captain, i. 462
 Fêtes, given to Napoleon on his return from Italy, ii. 267.
 Firing, (insufficiency of,) at Longwood, ii. 31. Furniture broken up to supply the want of it, 191. Fresh complaints of its deficiency, 195. Sir H. Lowe regulates it by the consumption at Plantation House, 200

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

541

- Flogging in the navy, i. 351
 Fontainebleau, (treaty of,) violated by the allies, i. 460
 Fouchè, his character, i. 163. Worse than Robespierre, ii. 170.
     Never in the confidence of Napoleon, 173
 ox, i. 927, 458. ii. 121, 124
 Franceschi, Cipriani, ii. 301
 Frederick the Great, his seven years' war, i. 511. ii. 15. His character as a general, 229
 Freemantle, admiral, ii. 330
 Freemasons, i. 185. ii. 42
 French heiresses, ii. 221
 French prisoners, i. 323
- GENERALS, talents requisite to, ii. 229
 Gentilini, i. 165
 Georges, i. 252, 303, 451
 Gerard, i. 493
 Goldsmith, i. 467
 Good-Friday, i. 481
 Gor, captain, i. 511
 Gorrequer, major, i. 109, 111, 121, 128, 222, 282
 Government, (Napoleon's) defended, ii. 384
 Gourgaud, i. 508, 509. ii. 241
 Graham, general, ii. 195
 Grassini, ii. 7
 Grouchy, i. 385, 482
 Gunner, (of the Baring,) his present of a bust of young Napoleon to the emperor, ii. 98, 102, 108, 114. Count Bertrand's letter to him, 464
 Gustavus, anecdote of, ii. 65
- HALL, William, dismissed from Longwood, ii. 74
 Hamilton, captain, his interview with Napoleon, i. 33
 Haugwitz, i. 226
 Hebert, ii. 170
 Heiresses, French, ii. 221
 Hepatitis, (first appearance of,) in Napoleon, ii. 257
 Hobhouse, Mr., sends his "Last Reign of the Emperor Napoleon," to Bonaparte, i. 84. Kept back by Sir H. Lowe, ii. 347
 Hoche, general, i. 482
 Hodson, major, i. 433
 Holland, Lord, his protest against the second reading of Bonaparte's detention bill, i. 66
 ——— Lady, Napoleon's message to her, ii. 516

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

542

INDEX.

- JAFFA, i. 328, 416. ii. 127
Jews, encouraged by Napoleon, i. 183
Imans, Napoleon's religious contest with them, i. 436
Imolan, one of the contrivers of the infernal machine, i. 341
Impuissance of Gustavus, ii. 65
 ———— supposed, of Napoleon, ii. 65
Incognito, proposals made by the emperor to assume it, ii. 459
India, i. 375, 381. ii. 196, 232
Innes, captain, ii. 1
Invasion of England, i. 349. ii. 378
Intrigue, anecdotes of by Napoleon, ii. 218, 220
Joseph Bonaparte, his character, i. 232. Sovereignty of Spanish South America proposed to him, 359. His affection for Napoleon, 360, 310
Josephine, the empress, i. 180, 226, 462, 467. ii. 101
Jourdan, marshal, his character, ii. 194
Journal, Las Cases', seized by Sir H. Lowe, i. 231
Ireland, i. 469, 492
Italians, their fidelity to Napoleon, i. 202
Julia, arrival of, i. 358

KEATING, colonel, presented to Napoleon, i. 84
Kleber, his character, i. 56, 237, 438
Kolli, baron, ii. 119, 157
Ko-tou, i. 469, 475, 509. ii. 68, 174, 177

LABEDOYERE, at the battle of Waterloo, ii. 162. At Grenoble, 269. His character, 365
La Haye, i. 449
Lallemand, general, Napoleon's opinion of, i. 512
Lama, the Grand, ii. 91
Larrey, his opinion that it would be an act of humanity to comply with the wishes of the sick at Jaffa, i. 331. His character, ii. 251
Lasnes, his character, i. 239
Lavalette, i. 448
Las Cases, count, i. 217. Taken into custody, 221. Napoleon wishes him to leave St. Helena, 234. Alters his opinion of Sir H. Lowe, 241, 243. His motives for following Napoleon, 270, 277, 280. Leaves St. Helena, 298. Sends provisions to Napoleon, 426. The cause of Napoleon's irritation against Sir H. Lowe, 446, 455
 ———— jun. his letter to Mr. O'Meara, i. 393
Lauderdale, lord, i. 20. ii. 351
Leipsic, battle of, ii. 395
Le Musa, i. 502

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

543

- Lentils, ii. 210
- Leopold, Prince, ii. 33, 138
- Leslie, his pneumatic machines for making ice, i. 90
- Letters, regulation of, as applied to Napoleon and his suite, i. 20.
All that pass through the London post-office, opened, ii. 287
- Libels, Napoleon's contempt for, i. 432, 456, 466. ii. 64, 338
- Liberty, French and English compared, i. 484
——— declared by Lord Castlereagh to be merely an usage, ii. 159. The battle of Waterloo fatal to it, 385
- Liver-complaint, its prevalence at St. Helena, ii. 435
- Liverpool, lord, packet addressed to him from Longwood, ii. 262
- Lobau, island of, i. 275
- Lodi, ii. 2
- London post-office, ii. 289
——— Napoleon's wish to visit it incognito, ii. 154
- Longwood, description of, i. 10. Improvement of, 14. Napoleon there, 15. The drawing-room on fire, 80. Scarcity and bad quality of the water, 370. Incredible number of rats, 494. Scarcity of fuel, ii. 31. Overrun with spurge, 143. Scarcity of fuel, 191. Idem, 195. State of Count Montholon's apartments, 210. Earthquake, 229
- Lorri, Ignatio, ii. 294
- Lowe, (Sir Hudson,) his arrival at St. Helena, i. 26. His installation, 27. Visit to Longwood, 27. First interview with Napoleon, 28. Sends a declaration to Longwood for the signature of Napoleon's suite, 31. His changes relative to the treatment of the French, 37. Orders the shopkeepers to give them no credit, 37. Forbids all communication with them, 37. Places sentinels to keep off all visitors from Longwood, 37. Grows more suspicious, 38. Pays several visits to Longwood, and at last obtains an interview with Napoleon, 38. Alarm at a tree that overhangs the ditches, 39. Orders it to be grubbed up, 39. Visits Count Bertrand, 39. Informs him that Napoleon must be seen daily by some British officer, 39. Wishes Napoleon to dismiss O'Meara, 48. Issues a proclamation forbidding any person to bear letters to or from Napoleon, or any of his suite, 48. Wishes to reduce Bonaparte's establishment, 59. Sends a letter to Longwood, demanding 12,000*l.* per annum for the maintenance of Napoleon and suite, 98. Threatening language respecting Napoleon, 99. Complains of Napoleon's letters, 124. Expects an apology from Napoleon, 134. Imposes fresh obligations on the French, 139. Letter to Napoleon in answer to his declaration, 158. Regulations respecting sentinels, 188. Objects to let the produce of Napoleon's plate be at the disposal of the French, 220.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

- Makes a fresh reduction in the allowance of meat and wine, 221. Threatens to send Las Cases off the island, 277. Allows Las Cases to return to Longwood, 279. Letter to Napoleon, 292. Refuses permission to Las Cases to see Napoleon previous to his departure, 297. Sends up some coffee for the use of Napoleon, i. 323. Mistakes the meaning of the phrase "nous ecrivons," in a letter of Bertrand's, 365. Interference in the kitchen, 367. Selects the newspapers for Napoleon's perusal, 391. Desires O'Meara to repeat Napoleon's conversations, 392. Has recommended Lord Bathurst to raise O'Meara's salary to 500*l.* per annum, 393. His economy, 425. Surprise at the French expenditure, 426. Anger against Las Cases for sending provisions to Napoleon, 426. Allows more liberty to Napoleon, 433. Inspects the ditches, 441. Declares his wish to accommodate, 456. Expects Captain Poppleton to be a spy on the followers of Napoleon, ii. 8. Changes the livery of Napoleon's servants, 93. Reproaches O'Meara with not having vindicated him to Napoleon, 129. His minute examination of the bills, 187. His anger against Mr. O'Meara for having borrowed Napoleon's horse for Miss Eliza Balcombe, 212. For having lent books to Napoleon, 214. His dislike to the commissioners, 270. Disputes with Bertrand respecting the conveyance of letters, 272. Refuses to allow Napoleon the title of emperor, 276. Anecdote of his being duped when commanding the island of Capri, 300. His letter to Count Montholon, 447. His reply to Count Bertrand, 465
- Louis, his letter to Napoleon, i. 418. His qualities, 487. His timidity, 489. Forced upon the French, ii. 59
- L'Ouverture, Toussaint, ii. 198
- Lucien Bonaparte, ii. 291, 293
- Luxembourg, ii. 229
- MACARTNEY, lord, his embassy to China, ii. 174, 177
- Machiavelism, more practised by the English ministry than any other, i. 502
- Machine, infernal, i. 340, 354, 433. ii. 33
- Machines, too numerous, i. 474
- Macirone, colonel, ii. 94
- Mackenzie, Mr., i. 477
- M'Lean, Dr., i. 232
- Mahometanism, i. 436
- Maitland, captain, ii. 392
- Mahratta princes, ii. 223
- Malady, Napoleon's remedy for, i. 60
- Malcolm (Sir Pulteney), presented to Napoleon, i. 65. Takes

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

545

- leave of him, 123. Returns from the Cape, 221. Interview with Napoleon, 311, 363, 462. Defends Sir H. Lowe, ii. 17, 110. Sails for England, 114.
- lady, i. 462. ii. 109, 114
- Malouet, ii. 22
- Malta, i. 151
- Mamelukes, ii. 145
- Manning, Mr., ii. 89
- Mantua, siege of, ii. 124
- Manuscrit venu de Ste. Hélène, ii. 204, 211
- Marat, ii. 170
- Maresca, ii. 301
- Maret, i. 419
- Maria transport arrives at St. Helena, ii. 179
- Marie Antoinette, ii. 172
- Marie Louise, i. 467. ii. 159, 225, 367
- Marchand, i. 234, 293
- Marlborough, ii. 229
- Marmont, his treachery, ii. 157
- Marriage (Napoleon's), particulars of it, ii. 370
- Napoleon's opinion of, i. 60
- Marseillois, characterized by Napoleon, ii. 5
- Massena, his character, i. 239, 387, 384, 492. ii. 342
- Masseria, i. 256
- Maxwell, captain Murray, ii. 117
- Meade, general, i. 114, 115
- Méhée de la Touche, i. 449
- Menou, i. 439. ii. 359
- Merry, Mr., ii. 124
- Metternich, i. 500
- Meuron, i. 124
- Mœurs et Coutumes des Corses, ii. 17
- Meynell (captain), presented to Napoleon, i. 65. The emperor's anxiety on account of his illness, ii. 24
- Ministry, the English, i. 442, 473, 484, 501. ii. 21, 28, 41, 60, 154, 240
- Miot, i. 328
- Moira, lord, ii. 232
- Molé, i. 406
- Money, raised in London for Napoleon's expedition from Elba, ii. 21
- Napoleon's, seized by **, ii. 223
- Monks, Napoleon's aversion to them, i. 489
- Montchenu (marquis of), his arrival at St. Helena, i. 63. His

VOL. II.

2 N

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

546

INDEX.

- manners, 218. Comes to guard, not to dine with Napoleon, 431. His imbecility, 476. His indecent language, 505
- Montholon, general, i. 303, 384. ii. 16, 52, 210, 500
- Montholon, Madame, i. 457
- Moore (Sir John), his character, i. 55
- Moreau, his character, i. 237. His share in Georges' conspiracy, 273. His death, 275. Privy to Pichegru's conspiracy, 452. His character, ii. 35. Anecdote of his death, 36. His conduct towards Pichegru, 40. His celebrated retreat condemned, 40
- Madame, anecdote of, ii. 35
- Moscow, conflagration of, i. 194. Napoleon's retreat from, ii. 16, 310
- Mouton Duvernet, i. 387
- Murat, death of, i. 23. His character, 24. His bad conduct, 206. His official papers falsified, 486. His expedition to Sicily, ii. 9. His declaration respecting the battle of Waterloo, 95. Napoleon's intention of dethroning him, 104. His bravery, 364
- Mussey, i. 450
- NABOBS, ii. 223
- Naples, descent upon, by Sir J. Stewart, ii. 230
- Narbonne, his character, ii. 160. His birth, 160
- National debt (English), Napoleon's mode of paying it, i. 355, 395
- spirit, greater in England than in France, i. 352, 481
- Neapolitans, character of, i. 171, 206, ii. 105
- Nelson, lord, i. 308
- Newspapers (English), editors of, in the pay of the Bourbons, i. 407
- Ney, his promise to bring back Napoleon in an iron cage, i. 386; his conduct at Fontainbleau, 447
- ОАТН, Napoleon's, at his coronation, i. 481
- Ocean, her arrival at St. Helena, ii. 74.
- Officers of the 53rd, their camp at Deadwood, i. 20. Introduced to Napoleon, 23. Receive hints from Sir H. Lowe, that their visits to Madame Bertrand were not agreeable to him, 37
- O'Hara, General, i. 203
- O'Meara, Mr. Barry, his first interview with Napoleon, i. 3. His certificate from Captain Maitland, 6. Questioned by Sir H. Lowe, respecting Napoleon, 38. Questioned by Napoleon as to his precise situation in regard to himself, 48. His reply, 48. Singular interview with Napoleon, 112. Offers to resign, 147. Assists Count Bertrand in translating the new restrictions, 148. Dines with the commissioners, 168. Attacked by the liver complaint, 232. Attention of Bonaparte to him, 233. En

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

547

- deavours to effect a reconciliation between Napoleon and Sir H. Lowe, 289. Is presented with a snuff-box by Napoleon, 303. Defends the character of the English 'adies against Pillet, 227. Is requested by Sir H. Lowe to report Napoleon's conversations, 393. Receives a letter from young Las Cases, 393. Gives Napoleon his opinion of himself, 403. More fit to write about Napoleon than any one, 430. Defends the practice of medicine in a conversation with Bonaparte, ii. 2. Disputes with Sir H. Lowe, 30. Dispute with Sir H. Lowe respecting the newspapers, 63. Dines with Lord Amherst, 116. Interrogated by Sir H. Lowe, in presence of Sir T. Reade, 137. Ordered by Sir H. Lowe, to hold no conversation with Napoleon except on medical subjects, 163. Refuses to betray Napoleon's confidence, 163. Rallied by Napoleon on his supposed attachment for Miss **, 218. Reproached by Sir H. Lowe for not having defended him and the English ministry against Napoleon, 242. Has a long conversation with Bertrand respecting the bulletins of health, 273. Violently abused by Sir H. Lowe, 282. Disputes with Sir H. Lowe, 298. Ordered to quit the governor's house, 299. Censured by Sir H. Lowe for buying goods for the French at Longwood, 336. Refuses to go again to Plantation House, 347. Is informed by Sir H. Lowe that he is only tolerated to visit Napoleon, 352. Interrogated by the governor respecting his conversations with Napoleon, 357. Farther disputes with Sir H. Lowe, 361. Refuses to give up his rights as an English officer, 375. Recounts to the emperor the manner of his treatment by Sir H. Lowe, 385. Is informed that he is not to pass out of Longwood, 399. Tenders his resignation in consequence, 399. Has an audience of Napoleon, 399. Is released, 402. Is requested by the colonel of the 66th to withdraw from the mess, 407. Letter from the colonel, 409. Letter in reply, 410. Dismissed from attending on Napoleon by the British government, 414. Receives a snuff-box and a statue of Napoleon from the emperor himself, 417. His parting from the emperor, 418. His letter to Lord Keith, 444. To Colonel Lascelles, 496. To J. W. Croker, stating the probability of Napoleon's early death, if he remained in his present situation, 517.
- Ordèner, colonel, i. 455
Oudinot, i. 386
- PALM, his arrest and death, i. 432
Paoli, i. 251
Paul, emperor of Russia, i. 378. His assassination, 379. His intended invasion of India, 381. Idem, ii. 53

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

548

INDEX.

- Pauline, i. 224. ii. 496
 Pelletier, i. 385, 407, 433
 Pepin, colonel, ii. 361
 Peraldi, i. 309
 Phaeton, frigate, her arrival at St. Helena, i. 26
 Philadelphia, society, formed against Napoleon, i. 338
 Phillipeaux, i. 210
 Piccioli, ii. 324
 Pichegru, his character, i. 240. Proofs that he committed suicide, 334. His conspiracy, 449. Betrayed by d'Entraigues, ii. 39. Napoleon's intentions towards him, 59
 Pichon, i. 457, 467
 Pillet, i. 321, 327. ii. 27
 Piontkowski, i. 165
 Pitt, i. 176, 458
 Plague, i. 473. ii. 127
 Plampin, admiral, ii. 112, 196, 231
 Plate (Napoleon's), broken up for sale, i. 120. Sold, 150, 299
 Podargus, ii. 109
 Poles, their attachment to Napoleon, i. 190. In cold weather, better soldiers than the French, 190
 Polity of Napoleon in case of landing in England, ii. 378
 Polignac, i. 453
 Poniatowsky, Napoleon's intention of making him king, i. 191
 Pontons, i. 323. ii. 19, 25, 192, 202
 Pope (the), ii. 101
 Poppleton, captain, i. 167, 189, 217, 276, 363, 430, 433, 440. ii. 8, 94
 Port regulations at St. Helena, ii. 484
 Post-office (London), all letters opened there, ii. 286
 Poussilgue, ii. 145
 Pozzo di Borgo, i. 290, 308. ii. 306
 Pradt, abbé de, ii. 208
 Predestination, Napoleon's belief in, i. 199, 373. ii. 4, 5, 6, 226, 256, 261
 Presents, Napoleon's, to Mr. O'Meara, i. 303. ii. 417
 ——— Mr. Elphinstone's to the emperor, ii. 117, 461
 Priests, i. 395. Anecdote of one in Italy, ii. 346
 Prisoner, Napoleon nearly made one by the Uhlans, i. 427. At the close of the battle of Waterloo, ii. 161
 ——— French, how treated by the English, i. 323. ii. 19, 25, 202
 ——— Turkish at Jaffa, i. 328, 416
 Prize-essay, by Napoleon, ii. 168
 Proclamations, Sir H. Lowe's, ii. 403, 491, 504

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

549

- Protest (Napoleon's), against Sir H. Lowe's conduct, i. 296.
 Against his being made a prisoner, ii. 483
 Provisions, scantily supplied to Napoleon, ii. 86. Indifferent quality, 94, 112
 Prussia, king of, his character, i. 102, 122, 227, 498. ii. 48.
 ——— queen of, her character, ii. 150
- RACES, at Deadwood, i. 507. ii. 212
 Rails (iron), to surround Napoleon's house, i. 391, 443.
 Rainsford (Mr.), his death, i. 508
 Rapp, i. 467
 Rats, numerous at Longwood, i. 494
 ——— hunting of them, i. 493
 Raucour, Mademoiselle, her funeral, i. 488
 Reade, sir Thomas, i. 123, 128, 138, 222, 230, 271, 291, 365, 390, 508. ii. 15, 112, 245, 270, 516
 Réal, ii. 138
 Regnier, general, ii. 48
 Religion, Napoleon's ideas of, i. 197, 444
 Resignation, tendered by Mr. O'Meara, ii. 399
 Restrictions, imposed on Napoleon's suite, ii. 445
 ——— on Napoleon, ii. 455.
 Review, Edinburgh, ii. 205, 225
 ——— Quarterly, i. 319, 406, 467. ii. 181
 Revolution, probability of one in France, i. 272. The former one defended by Napoleon, ii. 349
 Richelieu, anecdote of, ii. 348
 Ripsley, captain, ii. 1
 Rivière, i. 449
 Robespierre, i. 258. ii. 169
 Romanzoff, ii. 160
 Rome, capture of, by the French, ii. 353
 Rosey, captain, i. 455
 Rovigo, duke of, ii. 138
 Rousseau, i. 165
 Russians, dangerous to the rest of Europe, i. 388. ii. 53, 69
- SAINTS, patron, ii. 247
 St. Denis, i. 231, 398
 St. Helena, Napoleon's arrival at, i. 8. Description of, 8. Its poverty, 58. ii. 201. Farther description of, 421, 434. Its port-regulations, 484
 St. Hilaire, i. 449
 St. Priest, general, his death, i. 275
 St. Regent, one of the contrivers of the infernal machine, i. 341
 St. Roch, the curate of, i. 488.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

550

INDEX.

- St. Victor, i. 449
 Saliceti, ii. 300
 Santini, i. 165. ii. 76, 92. His intention of shooting Sir H. Lowe, 390
 Savary, his character, i. 163, 237. His pamphlet respecting Wright, ii. 182
 Saxe, Maréchal, ii. 229
 Saxony, king of, his character, i. 228
 Schöenbrunn, i. 344
 Scott, released from prison, i. 374
 Schwartzenberg, his character, i. 203
 Seamen, American, superior to the English, i. 178
 ——— English, Napoleon's opinion of them, i. 177. Their friendship for him, 478. His esteem for them, 505. Assist him in forming a bridge of boats over the Meuse, 505. Form his guard at Elba, 506. Compared with the French, ii. 47. Anecdote of the escape of two from Verdun, 146
 Sections, their attack on the convention, ii. 359
 Shipwrights, not sent to Algiers or Tunis by Napoleon, i. 502
 Sicily, Murat's expedition to, ii. 9. Plot to drive the English out of it, 12
 Sieges, English mode of carrying them on, ii. 194
 Sieyes, anecdote of, ii. 172, 250
 Skelton, colonel, i. 235. ii. 434
 ——— Mrs. i. 455
 Smith, sir Sydney, his character, i. 209. His conduct at Acre, 209. Challenges Napoleon, 210. His epitaph on Wright, ii. 162. His conduct towards Kleber, 163
 Smithers, Mr., ii. 160
 Smugglers, English, i. 252. ii. 21
 Snuff-box, presented by Napoleon to Mr. O'Meara, i. 303. ii. 417
 Soldiers, English, i. 172, 200. ii. 50
 Soult, his character, i. 105, 386, 493. His conduct at Albuera, ii. 194
 Spain, Napoleon's intentions with regard to it, i. 211
 ——— queen of, ii. 166
 Spurge, Longwood overrun with it, ii. 143
 Stäel, Madame de, her character, ii. 65. Not the authoress of the Manuscrit venu de Ste. Hélène, 206
 Stanfell, captain, i. 462
 Statue, Napoleon's, presented by himself to Mr. O'Meara, ii. 417
 Stein, Baron, i. 498
 Strange, sir Thomas, i. 267, 268, 270
 Stuart, general, ii. 48, 330
 Sturmer, baron, i. 300, 475. ii. 17, 295

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

INDEX.

551

- Subsidies, English, ii. 140
 Suchet, i. 492
 Sugar, made from beet-root, i. 423
 Suicide, ii. 142, 167, 261
 Suite, (Napoleon's), restrictions imposed on them, ii. 445. Documents signed by them, 446
 Sunday, observation of, in England, ii. 344.
 Surgeons, ii. 2. 248
 Surinam, Napoleon's intention of invading it, ii. 201
 Surveillers, count, ii. 416
 Suspension of arms in 1813 fatal to Napoleon, ii. 393
 Suzzarelli, ii. 300
- TALLEYRAND, his character, i. 214. His conduct in regard to the Duke d'Enghien, 335. His treachery and corruption, 421. His triumph, the triumph of immorality, 434. His mission to Warsaw, 446. Proposes to Napoleon the assassination of the Bourbons, 510. His character, ii. 171, 174. Opinion of, by a celebrated lady, 174. Defends assassination, 191. Fête given by him to Napoleon, 266. Wishes to celebrate the anniversary of the execution of Louis XVI. 268
 ----- Madame, i. 435
- Talma, ii. 295
 Title, Napoleon persists in retaining that of emperor, ii. 274
 Titles, Napoleon's opinion of them, i. 164
 Times Newspaper, extract from, i. 408, note
 Tolentino, treaty of, ii. 353
 Tortoise, arrival of, i. 409
 Toulon, siege of, i. 203
 Trade, (English,) remedy for its distress, proposed by Napoleon, i. 423
 Turenne, ii. 229
 Turkey, its approaching fall, i. 376, 382
- UHLANS, i. 427, 428
 Undaunted (the), sailors of, fond of Napoleon, i. 478
 Usher, captain, i. 506
- VANDAMME, anecdote of, i. 124
 Varennes, Billaud de, ii. 170
 Vendémiaire, the 13th of, i. 440
 Venetians, their massacre of the French, ii. 355. Their intrigues to corrupt the directory, 355
 Venice, occupied by the French troops, ii. 36
 Victor, maréchal, Napoleon's opinion of, i. 512

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-08132-0 - Napoleon in Exile: Or, A Voice from St. Helena: The Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events of his Life and Government in his Own Words: Volume 2

Barry E. O'Meara

Index

More information

552

INDEX.

- Victorious, i. 205
 Villeneuve, admiral, Napoleon's account of his conduct and the manner of his death, i. 56
 Virion, general, i. 325
- WALCHEREN, expedition to, i. 255
 Wales, the princess of, her intention to visit Napoleon at Elba, ii. 32. Her visit to Marie Louise, 33
 Wallis, captain, ii. 215
 Warden, Napoleon's opinion of him, i. 61. His book, 410. Sent by Sir H. Lowe to Napoleon, 414. Napoleon's opinion of it, 416. His error respecting Massena, 416; respecting the prisoners at Jaffa, 416; respecting Maret, 419; respecting Napoleon's conversion to Mahometanism, 437; respecting Talleyrand, 446; respecting Wright, 449; respecting Madame Montholon, 456
 Water-company (English), attempt to establish one at Paris, i. 414
 Waterloo, the battle of, i. 174, 463, 479. ii. 95, 161, 385
 Webb, Mr., ii. 1.
 Wellington, i. 175, 463, 479. ii. 184, 194, 229, 342
 Whitworth, lord, his interview with Napoleon, i. 500. His character, ii. 123
 Williams, Miss, Napoleon's opinion of her "Present State of France," i. 24
 Wilson, Sir Robert, i. 311
 Wirtemberg, queen of, ii. 372
 Wives, sale of, ii. 224
 Women, too many allowed to follow the English armies, ii. 50. Anecdote of the French, 50. Their society neglected by the English for the bottle, 192. The life of conversation, 193.
 Wounds, Napoleon's, ii. 226
 Wright, captain, i. 334, 417, 449. ii. 24, 182, 215
- YAMSTOCKS, i. 91
 Younghusband, Mrs. i. 503

J. M'Creery, Took's-Court,
 Chancery-Lane, London.